Family History

1. Joseph<sup>1</sup> Stanford, Sr., born about 1660, died between 1695 and 1723, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset County, Maryland, buried in Stepney Parish, Somerset County, Maryland. He married Jane LNU. Jane LNU died in Somerset County, Maryland.

The Chesapeake Bay was first explored by Capt. John Smith from Jamestown during a three month voyage that began on 2 June 1608. Smith and the other colonists were under instructions from the Virginia Company to find gold, silver and, most importantly, the Northwest Passage that would provide a shorter route from Europe to the riches of the Orient. Smith and his crew of 14 men covered 1,700 miles, during which he compiled a detailed journal and drafted a detailed map of the Bay. The map was published in London in 1612 and was utilized over the next 50+ years as the basis of land grants and settler navigation, particularly on the Eastern Shore of Virginia and Maryland.

The Eastern Shore of Maryland was opened to settlement in 1661 under pressure from Virginia settlers of Accomack County on the Eastern Shore, many of whom migrated north into Maryland. Accomack Shire in Virginia was established in 1634 as one of the original eight shires of colony. The shire's name comes from the Native American word "Accawmack," meaning "on the other side." In 1642 the name was changed to Northampton as part of the Crown's efforts to eliminate "heathen" names in the New World. Northampton was split into two counties in 1663...the northern section reassumed the original Accomack name, the southern part retained the Northampton name. In 1670, the Virginia Colony's Royal Governor William Berkeley abolished Accomack County, but the Virginia General Assembly recreated it in 1671.(In 1940, the Virginia General Assembly officially added a "k" to the end of the county's name to arrive at its current spelling.)

In 1695 Joseph "patented" a plantation he named "Long Ridge" (125 acres) in Princess Anne District 15 of Somerset County, Maryland (created in 1666), near the head of Wicomico Creek [Liber BB#3, Folio 100].

There are no records yet found of Joseph prior to 1692 when his daughter was born (he is not listed in the 1678 or 1681 Maryland Tax List), so we do not know if he immigrated to Maryland from England or was born somewhere else in Virginia or Maryland before moving to Somerset County. There is no record that Joseph was transported to Virginia or Maryland.

There are few records indicating that Stanfords lived in Accomack County, Virginia prior to 1692. For example, in 1669, the Sheriff of Accomack County was required by the court to command Jane, wife of Robert Hill, who had been appointed "whipper" for a term of one year, to go with the sheriff or his deputy to the house of Mrs. Ann Toft and "...with a fitting whipp give unto John Hancock, Anne Gray, Adma Robinson and Penellope Stanford twenty lashes on their bare backs soundly laid on, and this is to be continued for a year once in a month". While the identity of "Penelope Stanford" and the reason for her monthly whipping have not yet been determined, records show that she received a land grant in Accomac County in 1668/1669.

Joseph and Jane lived in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset County, Maryland and the births and deaths of their children are recorded in the records of the Old Green Hill (St. Bartholomew's Episcopalian) Church, which was established in 1692. About 1694, a log church building was constructed here, to be replaced in 1733 with the current brick building that stands a bit off Green Hill Church Road near where the road turns to a north-south direction, just southeast of Whitheaven Road, on the bank of the north branch of the Wicomico River near Salisbury, Maryland. [Today, the church graveyard, located next to the church building, is in very good condition. The grounds are maintained, but a few of the markers have fallen over, and time and weather have all but erased the markings. The cemetery apparently was once much larger, with many graves close to the riverbank. Over the centuries, the banks have eroded and graves have washed away. Joseph and Jane's graves have never been found and this may be the reason.]

Joseph probably settled in Somerset County, earlier than 1692, but was not able to patent his land until 1695. In November 1688, the Protestant William of Orange invaded England. In December, Catholic King James II fled to France; and in February, William and his wife Mary were crowned King William III and Queen Mary II of England. In Maryland, a Proprietorship of the Catholic Lord Baltimore, some Protestants cheered and some Catholics groaned, but most folks just hoped to be left alone.

It was not to be. The Reverend John Coode of St. Mary's County, Maryland, an ordained minister of the Church of England, wanted not only a Protestant Province, but one free of the extra powers granted its Proprietor, not just the required oath of allegiance to Lord Baltimore, but also the governance of the proprietorship. The "trouble" started in late March with apparently false reports of thousands of bloodthirsty Indian savages (led by "Papist Priests," of course) on their way to Maryland to with murder and mayhem on their minds. Whether false or not, the reports frightened white settlers sufficiently that many who were Protestant, and would otherwise undoubtedly have ignored the changing of the guard, instead became fearful that there might be truth to the rumors... and supportive of Rev. Coode. But the rumors of Indian uprisings in March came to nothing, and all was relatively quiet and peaceful until late July when Rev. Coode and his followers again made claims of Indian uprisings and massacres, this time stating that "Papists had invited the Northern Indians to come down and cutt off the Protestants and that their descent was to be about the latter end of August...." The populace grew fearful again, and concerned about their ability to protect themselves, and in late Jul 1689, Rev. Coode, without the authority of either the Proprietor or the King, issued a call to Arms, insisting that attack was imminent and that Maryland's magazines must be secured. Those who refused to obey were accused of being traitors, and on 25 Jul 1689, Rev. Coode's "Protestant Associators Assembly" issued the first of numerous declarations, proclamations and petitions, the start of one of the shortest revolutions in history.

Attacking the the State House at St. Mary's, they seized government records and stores. On 1 Feb 1690, King William formally confirmed Coode's self-appointment and Lord Baltimore's proprietorship was canceled, albeit not formally since the original charter was never revoked. Baltimore was still permitted his lands, but another twenty-five years passed before England had a Catholic King again (King George I), who restored the proprietorship within the year.

Due to this "Protestant Revolution", Maryland's Land Office was closed from 1689 to 1694. When it reopened, the provincial government, now constituted as a royal colony rather than a proprietary one, asserted its right to settle judicial questions relating to land, to maintain custody of the records, and to control the surveying of unpatented land.

Joseph shows up in the Somerset County Judicial Records, 13 March 1695/6 regarding an undefined dispute with Levin Denwood, which was "agreed or dismissed". Evidently, a [unidentified] claim was made by Denwood against Joseph.

The "Tax List of Somerset, Maryland, 1666-1723" states that Joseph Stanford patented 125 acres called "Longridge" in Somerset County in East Princess Anne District 15, but notes that in "...April 1695 Stanford was dead and no one possesses". This is confusing since the date of the land patent is 22 April 1695 and that may be the date reference. While Joseph Stanford may have died by 1695, he was certainly dead by 1723, the first year in which his son Joseph Stanford, Jr. shows up on the Somerset tax list.

From tax records, we know the family stayed in the area for many years...until Joseph Jr.'s sons made the move to Georgia over the period from about 1764 to 1810.

Records from the 18th century show that there were two different Stanford families on the Maryland Eastern Shore at the same time: ours in Old Somerset County (now Somerset/Worcester/Wicomico Counties in Maryland and Sussex County in Delaware) and a different family in Dorchester County. Despite the similarity in names, no records have been found connecting the two families and DNA evidence shows that they are not related.

[A word about Maryland's land organization: When the colony was first created, land areas were defined in terms of the Catholic Parish names assigned to them. Later, parishes were renamed "counties". Each county was divided into "100s", the land area containing about 100 houses. The use of 100s dates back to the 10th century in England when King Edgar the Peaceful divided England into shires and 100s for purposes of government, taxation, and raising an army.]

We know nothing about Jane except that her name is listed as the mother of Anne and Joseph Stanford in the Stepney Parish Church records.

Some researchers think that she was "Elizabeth Jane Marchant", born about 1663. There was an Elizabeth Marchant, born about 1663, who married John Stanford of the Dorchester County, Maryland family. There is no evidence that her middle name was Jane or that she married Joseph Stanford.

Children of Joseph Stanford, Sr. and Jane LNU:

- i. Anne Stanford, born 5 Aug 1692, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset County, Maryland.
- 2 ii. Joseph Stanford, Jr., born 2 Feb 1694, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset County, Maryland, died about 1772, in Somerset County, Maryland.

2. Joseph<sup>2</sup> Stanford, Jr. (Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 2 Feb 1694, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset County, Maryland, died about 1772, in Somerset County, Maryland. He married Sarah LNU between 1718 and 1722. Sarah LNU died after 1760, in Maryland.

Joseph Stanford, Jr.'s birth date, parents, and sister's birth are recorded in at Stepney Parish Church, Wicomico 100, Somerset County, Maryland.

W. O. Langford, in his Maryland land records book, finds that Joseph Stanford acted as security for Thomas Pollitt-Christopher Apprenticeship, on 18 January 1718, at which time Joseph would have been 24 years of age.

Joseph is found on the Tax List in F. E. Wright's book "Tax List of Citizens of Eastern Shore Maryland 1659-1756".

On 20 November 1723, Alexander Vance sold Joseph Stanford 50 acres of "What You Please," a plantation located one mile north of "Longridge." On 6 April 1772, Joseph gave 69 acres of "What You Please" to his son David Vance Stanford and in 1783 Stanford paid the taxes on this 69 acres.

In 1746, Joseph patented "Stanford's Finding", 100 acres, located at the head of Wicomico Creek [Liber BY&GS#3, Folio 137] as well as several other parcels of land. On 20 May 1746, he sold 50 acres of "Stanford's Findings" to his son William and on 19 Dec 1750, gave 100 acres of "Stanford's Findings" to his son Joseph. It is probable that he sold or gave his son Obediah the 100 acres that Obediah listed in the 1783 Tax List.

Transactions listed in Ruth Dryden's "Land Records of Somerset" show that Joseph and his wife Sarah sold 50 acres of "Tamroon's Ridge" to Jonathan Pollitt on 20 August 1760. He had purchased this property from Thomas Pollitt on 18 Nov 1718. "Tamroon's Ridge" joined the southern side of "Longridge."

None of these tax lists or land transactions of Joseph Stanford, Jr. name the original family patent "Longridge" and the disposition of this property is not known.

On 27 May 1761, Joseph Stanford ("aged sixty six years or thereabouts") gave testimony about the boundaries of a tract of land called "Fizels Enjoyment" owned by William Disharoon. [Somerset County Records, 1760-1763, Volume 543, Page 253b]

Joseph attended Rockawalkin (Wicomico) Presbyterian Church and shared Pew No. 11 with his son William and neighbor Jonathan Cathell.

We know that Joseph Stanford, Jr. lived to be at least 78 years of age, and maybe older, because he had land transactions with David Stanford in 1772.

Some researchers think that Joseph was married twice, first to a wife whose name is unknown and then to Sarah. But, there is no evidence of a wife before Sarah. We know from land records that Sarah was still alive in 1760, so, while there may have been an earlier wife, Sarah was certainly "mother" to all of Joseph's children.

Then, there is the mystery revealed by the Somerset County Judicial Records, 1740-1742, Volume 861, Page 145b. The case relates to a hearing on 16 Jun 1741, recorded in part as follows:

"Sarah Mears late of Stepney parish in the said County of Somerset spinster the twentyeth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty at the parish af.din the County af.dwithin the Jurisdiction of this Court did Comit fornication with a Certain person unknown and did permit the said unknown person of her body then and there Carnall Knowledge to have and a bastard Child on the body of her the Same Sarah Mears then and there to begit to the high displeasure of Almighty God to the Evill Example of all others in such Case offending Contrary to the peace of the Right Honourable the Lord proprietary that now is is his good rule and Government and against the form of the Act of Assembly in Such Case lately made and provided &c

"There upon it was Commanded the sheriffe of the County af.dthat he should take the said Sarah Mears if she should be found in his bailywick and her should safe keep so that he might have her body before the Justices of his Lordships County Court of Somerset to be held at dividing Creek the third tuesday of August one thousand seven hundred and forty one to answer unto his said Lordship of the Indictment af.d&c

"And now to witt at a Court held for the County afd the third Tuesday of August being the Eighteenth day of the same month Ann Dom One thousand Seven hundred and forty One before his said Lordships Justices at dividing Creek Came the aforesaid Sarah Mears in her proper person and had a hearing of the Indictment aforesaid and saith that she Cannot deny but that she is guilty of the premisses aforesaid in the Indictment aforesaid specified in manner and form as by the Indictment afd above against her Supposed and the premisses aforesaid in the Indictment aforesaid Expressly acknowledgeth and maketh Oath that a Certain Absolom Hobbsis the begetter of the Child she stands Indicted for and is willing to pay her fine for the fact afd &c*"Whereupon all and Singular the premisses being seen and by the Court here fully understood It is Considered by the Court here that the aforesaid Sarah Mears pay unto his said Lordship the Right honourable Charles absolute Lord and proprietary of the province of Maryland for her fine by the Court hereupon her Imposed for and by Occasion of the premisses afd whereof inform afd she is Convict thirty shillings Currtmoney of maryland and that the said Sarah Mears be Taken to Satisfie his said Lordship of the fine afd &c"*

This 18th century court language states that Sarah Mears, unmarried, became pregnant and delivered a "bastard child," a crime for which she is indicted and for which she could be fined 30 shillings. The court then orders that she be held over for trial in August. Then, surprisingly, the court record states:

"Whereupon the said Sarah Mears is Ordered to give good security for the payment of all fee or Fees due on the Indictment af.dto any person or persons what soever. Thereupon a Certain Joseph Standford of Somerset County planter [undoubtedly Joseph Stanford, Jr.] present here in Court undertook for the said Sarah Mears to pay all Fee or Fees due to any person or persons what soever on the Indictment af.din Case the said Sarah Mears doth not pay the same &c" The court identifies the probable father of the "bastard child," as one Absolom Hobbs and wants Sarah to be held over for a Grand Jury hearing against Hobbs in November, as follows:

"Thereupon the said Sarah Mears is Ordered to give security for her appearance at the next Court to be held at dividing Creek in and for the County afd the third Tuesday of November then next following to give evidence on behalfe of his said Lordship against the afd Absolom Hobbs to the grand Jury.

Whereupon Came here into Court the aforesaid Joseph Standford in his proper person and undertook for the said Sarah Mears and acknowledged himself Indebted unto his said Lordship the Lord Proprietary of Maryland in Twenty pounds Currant money of the said Province of his body goods and Chattles Lands or Tenements to the use of his said Lordship his heirs and Successors to be made and Levied If it happen that the said Sarah Mears do not make her personall appearance before his said Lordships Justices at the next Court to be held at dividing Creek the third Tuesday of November then next following and doe not then and there give such Evidence as she shall know on behalfe of his said Lordships against the afd Absolom Hobbs and that she do not depart the Same Court without Leave &." Joseph Stanford, then, guaranteed not only the 30 shillings fine imposed on Sarah Mears, but guaranteed her appearance at the November Grand Jury session, agreeing to forfeit 20, a huge amount of money at the time, if she failed to appear!

So, who was Sarah Mears and what was her relationship to Joseph? Was Joseph, in fact, married twice, to two women both named Sarah? Research continues.

Transactions listed in Ruth Dryden's Land Records of Somerset show that Joseph and his wife Sarah sold 50 acres of "Tamroon's Ridge" to Jonathan Pollitt on 20 August 1760, indicating that Sarah had not died before this date.

Children of Joseph Stanford, Jr. and Sarah LNU:

- 3     i.    Jonathan "Nelle" Stanford, born about 1720, in Somerset County, Maryland, died between May 1792 and Oct 1792, in Columbia County, Georgia.
- 4     ii.   Thomas Stanford, born about 1728, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 1777, in Somerset County, Maryland.
- 5     iii.   William Stanford, born 1732, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset, Maryland, died after 16 Feb 1810, in Columbia County, Georgia.

- iv. Sarah Stanford, born between 1738 and 1740, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset, Maryland, died before 24 Aug 1770, in Somerset County, Maryland. She married John Christopher 26 Feb 1759, in Stepney Parish Church, Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland. John Christopher was born about 1737, in Stepney Parish, Somerset, Maryland, died before 1790, in Somerset County, Maryland.

Based on her 1759 marriage date, she was probably born about 1738-1740, which fits with Joseph's second marriage.

Sarah's death date is predicated on the basis of John Christopher's marriage dated 24 Aug 1770. The name of his second wife is unknown.

John was the son of Charles Christopher (17001791) and Elizabeth Allen (17001792).

John served during the Revolutionary War. From the "Services Record Archives of Maryland," Vol. 18, we find that he joined Col. Thomas Ewing's Battalion on 28 Jul 1776 for 1 year and on 28 Jul 1777 for 1 year. He was discharged on 16 Aug 1777 because he had been taken prisoner. John rejoined sometime in 1778 and was discharged on 1 Nov 1780. He is listed as a "Pvt. MD Trooper."

- 6 v. David Vance Stanford, born 1741, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset, Maryland, died 15 Jul 1814, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset, Maryland.
- vi. Elizabeth Stanford, born in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset, Maryland. She married GNU Gilly.
- vii. Obediah Stanford, born before 1760, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset, Maryland, died about 1800, in Somerset County, Maryland.

Obediah served as a Private in the Somerset Militia, Salisbury Battalion, Capt. Henry Gale's Quantico Company, 1778-1780. He took the Oath of Allegiance in Somerset County, Maryland on 28 Feb 1778 before Hon. Joseph Venables. [To serve in the militia, Obediah would have been at least 18 years old in 1778, making his date of birth 1760 or earlier.]

In the 1783 Tax List for Somerset County, Maryland, Obediah owned "Poor Quarter", 100 acres, in Wicomico 100.

- viii. Mary Stanford, born in Stepney Parish, Wicomico 100, Somerset, Maryland.

According to the "Stanford Manuscript", Mary married _____ Craft, but this has not been verified.

died between May 1792 and Oct 1792, in Columbia County, Georgia. He married Elender (Eleanor) "Nellie" LNU about 1740, in Maryland. Elender (Eleanor) "Nellie" LNU was born about 1725, in Maryland, died after 1792, in Georgia.

John Nelms became the Storekeeper of Salisbury, Somerset, Maryland by 1758. The site of the business is now under, or just north of, U.S. 50 after it has crosses the Wicomico River and starts up the hill on its east bank. Two of the original ledgers, "D" & "I", still exist with names of customers and what they bought and traded. From the Nelms Store Accounts: "Stanford, Jonathan Sr. (1765 - 25 Jan 1777) Carried 0/3/4 from Ledger C and charged an iron skillet, buttons, needles, almanac, brimstone, padlocks, pins and a meal sifter for 0/18/2. Paid 0/12/6 in cash in 1769 with the rest paid by his son, Joshua in 1770. In 1775 purchased trace ropes for 0/6/0 and paid in cash in 1777."

Jonathan served during the Revolutionary War, enlisting as a Private in the Worcester Militia, Wicomico Battalion, Capt. Charles Bennett's Company. He was promoted to Private First Class on 15 July, 1780.

The 1783 Tax List shows that Jonathan owned four parcels of land in Somerset County: "Good Luck", 50 acres in Monokin 100; "Content", 30 acres in Monokin 100; "James' Choice", 75 acres in Wicomico 100; and "Stanfords Finding", 11-1/2 acres in Wicomico 100.

The last will and testament of Jonathan Stanford, signed 26 May 1792, was probated 15 Oct 1792 in Columbia County, Georgia (Columbia Will Book A, page 32) lists Wife: Nelle; Children: Betty, Sary, Robert, Elijah; Other Legatee: Leah Stanford; Witnesses: William Gunby, John Bain. Since only 4 of Jonathan's 10 children are mentioned in the will, there is the question as to why the others were not mentioned...most were still alive by this time?

To complicate matters further, son Robert died in 1805 and left property to his two sisters "Hetty" Stanford and "Ibby" Burke. So far, neither of these two additional children of Jonathan and Nellie have been identified. Some researchers indicate that the Robert who died in 1805 was the son of Jesse Stanford rather than Jonathan...it is certainly possible that there were two Roberts in the family since Jesse was Jonathan's son.

Based on the marriage date, we can estimate that Elender born about 1725.

We know that Elender was living when her husband died in 1792, since she is listed in the will.

Children of Jonathan "Nelle" Stanford and Elender (Eleanor) "Nellie" LNU:

- 7      i. Joshua Stanford, born 28 Oct 1740, in Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland, died 26 Jan 1826, in Warrenton, Warren, Geogia.
- 8      ii. Stephen Stanford, born about 1742, in Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland, died between Sep 1805 and Jul 1806, in Columbia County, Georgia.

- 9     iii. Jesse Stanford, born 1744 OR 1745, in Maryland, died before 4 Feb 1828, in Warren County, Georgia.
- 10    iv. Jonathan Stanford, Jr., born about 1745, in Somerset County, Maryland, died after 1827, in Warren County, Georgia.
- 11    v. Robert Stanford, born about 1746, in Somerset County, Maryland, died between 7 May 1805 and 15 Oct 1805, in Warren County, Georgia.
- vi. Joseph Stanford, born about 1748, in Somerset County, Maryland.

Numerous researchers list Joseph as a son, but Joseph is not listed in his father's 1792 will and he may have died by that time. No additional records for Joseph have yet been found.

- 12    vii. Elijah Stanford, born about 1750, in Somerset County, Maryland, died after 1827, in Warren County, Georgia.
- viii. Sarah "Sary" Stanford, born about 1754, in Somerset County, Maryland, died after 1792.
- ix. Elender (Eleanor) "Nelly, Nellie" Stanford, born about 1758, in Somerset County, Maryland. She married Stephen Rooks about 1779, in Maryland.
- 13    x. Mary "Betty" Stanford, born 20 Aug 1760, in Maryland, died 26 Nov 1842, in Georgia.
- xi. Elizabeth "Betty" Stanford, born about 1760, in Maryland, died about 1797, in Chatham County, North Carolina. She married Hezekiah Rook about 1775, in Worcester County, Maryland. Hezekiah Rook was born about 1750, in Worcester County, Maryland, died about 1797, in Chatham County, North Carolina.

There is some confusion about whether Jonathan had one daughter, Mary Elizabeth, or two, one named Mary and one named Elizabeth. Records tend to support that there were two daughters, though it is not certain.

Most researchers find that Elizabeth and Hezekiah had 6 children.

Hezekiah is recorded in the 1783 tax rolls for Worcester County, Maryland. Evidently, fairly soon after that date, the family moved to Chatham County, North Carolina.

Hezekiah was the son of John Rook (b. abt 1705, Maryland) and Mary Driskill (1723-1776).

4. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Stanford (Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born about 1728, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 1777, in Somerset County, Maryland. He married Rachel Price after 3 Mar 1752, in Maryland. Rachel Price was born about 1710, in Somerset County, Maryland, died before 13 Oct 1778, in Somerset County, Maryland.

Thomas became an land owner and planter of considerable wealth in Somerset County, Maryland. In 1762, Thomas patented land called "Thomas' Conclusion", 150 acres, which was probably near his father's property along the Wicomico River [Liber BC& GS#28, Folio 129]. On 13 Apr 1771, Thomas sold 75 acres of "Thomas' Conclusion" to Leven Gunby.

Records from Nelms Store: Stanford, Thomas (28 Feb 1767) Bought trace ropes & British oil for 0/9/11. Paid with corn delivered by Joshua HITCH in 1768. Paid 0/5/0 for John Botham in 1768. In 1775 charged a 32 lb. iron pot, British oil, cart box, New England primer & a chest lock for 1/2/4. Paid in 1776 with wheat & cash. Father of William.

However, contrary to the findings of some researchers, Thomas did not own 1/3 of the plantation "Newberry"...that portion was owned by his wife.

Thomas was an active member of Rockawalkin Presbyterian Church of Wicomico. During his life, he was custodian of the communal cups, paid toward the Pastor's salary, performed janitorial work, and was nominated as an elder in 1773. He shared a pew at different times with is father Joseph, his brother David Vance, his wife Rachel, and his stepson John, in addition to Jonathan Cathell. (Jonathan Cathell was, evidently, both a friend and a neighbor. Cathell's 1772 will included a provision for payment of a "dept due him" to Thomas Stanford.)

Rockawalkin Presbyterian Church was important to the Stanford family and the following information has been developed about the church by William G. Scroggins, 718 Mill Valley Drive, Taylor Mill, Kentucky 41015-2278:

"The Somerset Court granted the Presbyterians permission to conduct regular services on Wicomico River on 12 March 1672. Scroggins, Caldwells, Collins and Polks were early members of Rockawalkin Presbyterian Church that was founded near Salisbury in 1683, under the direction of the celebrated Presbyterian minister, Francis Makemie.

"On 12 June 1706 Mr. John Hampton and Mr. George McNish were allowed by the province to preach at the meeting house on the land of Mr. Joseph Venables, the meetinghouse near Mr. Edgar's, the meetinghouse at the head of Manocan and the Meetinghouse at Snow Hill. The Venables site was near the Upper Ferry, which was operated by Captain John Handy. The meetinghouse in 1709 was located at Upper Ferry on Wicomico River.

"In 1742 the church was situated on Rockawalkin Creek (then called "Mill Creek") about a mile and a half above Wicomico River near the gristmill of Captain George Paris. This mill has also been known as Hitch's Mill and Rockawalkin Mill. Pemberton Road now crosses the stream below a pond near this site. In 1767 the meeting house was further up the creek, near the present intersection of Rockawalkin Road and Route 349, about four miles west of Salisbury, south of, and visible from, the highway. The site of this third church, "the venerated Rockawalkin Meeting House," was on a tract of three acres, part of "Newberry", that was sold by Thomas Stanford, his wife Rachel and John Reid, all of Somerset County, for five shillings, to Isaac Handy and William Venables of Somerset and John Henry of Dorchester County for the purpose of erecting a Presbyterian meeting house."

Rachel was the daughter of Crispin Price (b. 1689, Somerset County, Maryland, d. 1730, Somerset County, Maryland). Rachel's siblings included Alexander (b. 1718), Solomon, Ann, and Eve (who married Levin Hitch).

This was Rachel's second marriage, she married Obediah Read (d. 3 Mar 1752) about 1730 and their son, John Read, was born about 1732.

Based on the ownership transfers of the plantation "Newberry", we estimate Rachel's date of birth as about 1710. Alexander Price inherited Newberry from his father Crispin Price in 1730. When he died in 1735/36, Newberry was willed in equal shares to his sisters Eve, Anne, and Rachel. Obediah Read bought out Eve and Anne's shares and willed his 2/3 interest in Newberry to his son John Read upon his death. When Rachel died intestate, her remaining 1/3 interest in Newberry passed to John Read, giving him 100% ownership. On 13 Oct 1778, John Read sold Newberry to Henry Handy.

Children of Thomas Stanford and Rachel Price:

- 14     i.    William Stanford, born about 1753, in Salisbury, Somerset, Maryland, died about 1785, in Somerset County, Maryland.
- ii.   Obediah Stanford, born about 1754, in Somerset County, Maryland, died about 1795.
- 15     iii.   Thomas Stanford, born 28 Dec 1756, in Maryland, died 2 Mar 1795, in Maryland.

William was a surveyor and a farmer.

The births of the first three children (John R., Nancy, and Ester) are recorded in the original parish register, Stepney Parish, Somerset, Maryland [1728-1838, Maryland Hall of Records (1-W1-73)].

In 1759, William shared Pew No. 11 with his father Joseph and neighbor Jonathan Cathell at Rockawalkin (Wicomico) Presbyterian Church.

Sometime after 1764, William and Mary moved to Bute County (now Warren and Franklin counties) in North Carolina, buying 112 acres on N.S. Jeffries Road, "adj. Broom", in May 1771 for 13 pounds, 12 shillings, and 4 pence. [See Record of Deeds, Book 5, Warren County, North Carolina.] On 13 Apr 1771, William sold the 50 acres he acquired from his father's "Stanford's Findings" in Maryland to Leven Gunby.

William moved from North Carolina to Georgia before 1778. He first settled in Warren County and then, after a short time, moved to Columbia County where he purchased 100 acres of land on Kiokee Creek in St. Paul's Parish on February 16, 1778. He is described as a planter in the deed of this land purchase. We know that William lived in Columbia County, Georgia for at least 30 years. He was awarded a land grant in the 1805 Georgia Land Lottery.

William served during the Revolutionary War as a soldier in a Georgia military unit and received the following commendation: "This is to certify that William Stanford hath steadfastly done his duty, from the time of passing an Act at Augusta, to wit, on the 20th day of August 1781, until the total expulsion of the British from this state..."

He received a land grant of 250 acres for his Revolutionary War service in Georgia.

Georgia land records show that William bought land in St. Paul's Parish, Georgia on 16 Feb 1810, so he was still alive on that date. At the time of his death, William owned land in Warren County, Washington County, and Columbia County, Georgia.

Northhampton County, Virginia was located on the Eastern Shore of Virginia in what is currently Accomack County.

Children of William Stanford and Mary Cooper:

- 16     i.    John R. Stanford, born 13 May 1760, in Stepney Parish, Somerset, Maryland, died 1 Mar 1826, in Screven County, Georgia.
- ii.    Nancy "Nanny" Stanford, born 2 Aug 1762, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland.
- iii.    Esther Stanford, born 6 Jun 1764, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland.
- 17     iv.    Thomas Stanford, born between 1764 and 1770, in North Carolina, died Aug 1839, in Randolph County, Georgia.
- 18     v.     David "Deacon David" Stanford, born 2 Nov 1769, in North Carolina, died 5 Dec 1848, in Columbia County, Georgia.
- 19     vi.    William Stanford, born about 1770, in North Carolina, died before 6 Mar 1837, in Warren County, Georgia.
- vii.    Joseph Stanford, born 1772, in North Carolina.
- viii.    No records for this Joseph Stanford have yet been found.
- viii.    Jonathan Stanford, born 1774, in North Carolina, died after 1827, in Georgia. He married Mary Owens 16 Feb 1818, in Warren County, Georgia.

This may be the Jonathan Stanford appointed Justice of the Peace, 134th District, Columbia County, Georgia on 25 Feb 1817.

Jonathan was one of the "Fortunate Drawers" in the 1827 Land Lottery of Georgia on March 22, 1827, winning land in Captain Sanders District, Number 33, District 20 of Lee County, Georgia.

- ix. Sarah Stanford, born 1775, in North Carolina, died before 24 Sep 1810, in Columbia County, Georgia. She married Thomas Rich 17 Oct 1795, in Columbia County, Georgia.

From records at Nelms Store: "Stanford, David (28 Jan 1768). Paid 3 3/4 bu corn for Jeremiah Morris in 1768. In 1775 bought molasses and 2 window bolts for 0/6/2. Paid in cash in 1776."

Based on a land transaction record on 6 Apr 1772 by his father, we think David's middle name is Vance. We know that Alexander Vance was a neighbor and a close friend of David's father and is probably the source of David's middle name.

David patented "The Little Neck", 71 acres, in 1763 [Liber BC&GS#25, Folio 113]. (However, "Land Records of Wicomico County, Maryland" by Ruth T. Dryden references the following land transfer: "From section Little Neck, 17 Apr. 1775, David Stanford with wife Sarah Stanford sold for 5 Shillings to Joshua Stanford 100 acres.") He must have added to his holdings because, in 1783, the Tax List for Somerset County shows David owned "Little Neck", 120-3/4 acres, and "What You Please", 69 acres which had been given to him by his father, both in Wicomico 100, Somerset County, Maryland.

David does not appear in the 1790 Maryland census.

The 1800 census for Somerset County, Maryland, finds David and Sarah living in Wicomico with 1 son 10-16 years old, 1 son 16-25, 2 daughters 10-16, 2 daughters 16-25, and 1 daughter 26-44.

The 1810 census lists the family in Wicomico, Somerset County, Maryland, with no sons living at home, but 1 F (granddaughter?) <10 years old, 1 F 10-16, and 2 F 26-44.

The children listed here are based on the research of Odessa Stanford Garrison in her book "Descendents of Joseph Stanford of Somerset, Maryland 1694-1999", with one exception: William. From the 1800 census, we know that a son of David and Sarah was born between 1775 and 1784 (age 16-25 in 1800). We also know that most of David's siblings migrated to Georgia, settling in different parts of northeast Georgia, making the migration about 1800-1805. We also know that David and Sarah's youngest son James migrated to Georgia (he married in Warren County, Georgia in 1810). Thus, we have concluded that the William Stanford who settled in Newton County, Georgia by 1830 may have been another brother not listed by Odessa Stanford Garrison. There is no documentation to support this connection as yet, so research continues.

Sarah was the daughter of Joseph Leonard and her brother was Ebenezer Leonard.

The 1820 census lists Sarah Stanford living in Election District 2, Somerset County, Maryland. That record includes 1 female 16-26 [probably Rachel] and 2 females 45+ [Sarah and her daughter Sarah].

Despite the wide ranges of birth years defined by census data, it is probable that all of Sarah's children were born by 1786 when she would have been 43 years old.

Children of David Vance Stanford and Sarah Leonard:

- i. Jane Stanford, born about 1763, in Wicomico 100, Somerset, Maryland, died 18 Mar 1816, in Wicomico 100, Somerset, Maryland. She married Aaron Driskell 17 Mar 1795, in Somerset County, Maryland. Aaron Driskell was born 1775, in Worcester County, Maryland, died 19 Aug 1827, in Maryland.

Jane and Aaron had 7 children.

Jane and Aaron were members of the Stepney Parish Church, but appear to have lived in [now] Worcester County.

Aaron's name is often spelled "Driskill".

Several Driskill/Driskell researchers have advised that Aaron was the son of William Driskell and Johanna Quickauter, not William Driskell and Rachel. Another finds that he is the son of Moses Driskell.

After Jane's death in 1816, Aaron Driskell married Leah Handy Wailes Stanford (b. 7 Sep 1785, d. 2 Mar 1864) on 7 Jun 1825 in Somerset County, Maryland. Leah was the widow of William Stanford.

Leah is buried on the Neman Turner farm "Rockawalking" near Salisbury, (now) Wicomico, Maryland.

Other information about Aaron Driskell, Jane Stanford, and Leah Handy Wailes Stanford:

1. Aaron Driskell (from Stepheny Parish records) named to Canons of the Church on 23 May 1803, confirmed on this date.
2. Stepheny Parish Records - Mary and Ann, twin daughters of Aaron and Jane Driskell, born 15 Jan. 1807.
3. Worcester Co. Deed Bk AB, pg 288, 11 Aug 1810, Charles Fooks sold Aaron

Driskell the tract "Safeguard".

4. From Dashiell Records: Leah Wailes, daughter of William Handy Wailes, M.D. and Sarah Lenoard Wailes, his wife -- Leah married for the 2nd time on 22 Aug 1834 in Worcester County, Maryland to Aaron Driskell. Leah Wailes Driskell died about 1865.

5. Worcester Co. Will Bk. MH 1822-33: Aaron Driskell and Leah H. Driskell witnessed Will of John Bratten, in 1825.

6. Aaron Driskell appears in the 1820 Census in Worcester County in 2 places with different information: 1 male under 10, 1 male 10/16, 1 male 16/26, 1 male over 45, 1 female 10/16, 1 female over 45 in one place and 1 male under 10, 1 male 10/16, 1 male 16/26, 1 male over 45, 2 females 10/16, 1 females 16/26, 3 slaves in another.

- ii. Samuel Stanford, born after 1765, in Wicomico 100, Somerset County, Maryland, died Feb 1803, in Somerset County, Maryland. He married GNU LNU after 1795, in Somerset County, Maryland.

Samuel Stanford (age 26-44) is found in the 1800 census living in Wicomico [Broad Creek], Somerset, Maryland with his wife (age 45+) and 1 son <10, 2 sons 16-25, and one daughter 26-44. Based on these ages, we estimate Samuel's date of birth as after 1765. Research shows that he married after 1795, so the wife listed in this census record was probably his second. What is most interesting is that this record indicates that Samuel owned 14 slaves, which was very unusual for the period.

- 20    iii. Thomas Stanford, born 9 Jul 1774, in Wicomico, Somerset County, Maryland, died 12 Aug 1839, in Barbour County, Alabama.
- iv. Sarah "Sally" Stanford, born between 1775 and 1790, in Wicomico, Somerset County, Maryland. She married Zacheus Hopkins 7 Jan 1817, in Coventry Parish, Rehobeth, Somerset County, Maryland. Zacheus Hopkins was born about 1745, in England, died between 7 Jan 1817 and 14 Apr 1817, in Somerset County, Maryland.

Some records spell his given name as Zachariah, while others list Zacheus (or Zacheous), which may be a nickname.

A "Zachariah Hopkins" is listed as arriving as a bonded servant from England in 1765...indicating that his birth was about 1745.

He apparently died soon after his marriage. There is a record in the Somerset County court records dated 15 April 1817 that establishes the probate of Zacheus Hopkins' [Senior] estate. The administrators of his estate were Sarah Hopkins, Joseph Deshiell, and Philip Graham.

- v. David Stanford, born between 1775 and 1790, in Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland.

Our David Stanford was probably the David Stanford who served as executor of the will for Ebenezer Leonard in 1836. Ebenezer was Elizabeth Stanford's husband (and, apparently, a nephew or grandnephew of Sarah Leonard). In his will, he refers to "David" twice, once as his "brother-in-law" and once to David Stanford, Executor.

- vi. Rachel Stanford, born between 1775 and 1784, in Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland, died 1806, in Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland. She married Benjamin Crafts 1796, in Maryland. Benjamin Crafts was born 19 Aug 1761, in Vienna, Dorchester, Maryland, died 29 Nov 1806, in Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland.

Rachel and Benjamin had five children.

Benjamin was the son of John Charlescrafts. He dropped the prefix "Charles" and wrote his name as "Crafts". He was a farmer.

- 21 vii. William Stanford, born between 1775 and 1784, in Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland, died between 1840 and 1850, in Gwinnett County, Georgia.
- 22 viii. James Stanford, born about 1779, in Wicomico, Somerset County, Maryland, died 1850 OR 1852, in Talbot County, Georgia.
- 23 ix. Nancy Stanford, born between 1786 and 1790, in Wicomico, Somerset County, Maryland, died before 1810, in Rewastico 100, Somerset County, Maryland.
- x. Elizabeth "Betsey" Stanford, born between 1785 and 1794, in Wicomico 100, Somerset, Maryland. She married Ebenezer Leonard. Ebenezer Leonard was born about 1785, in Somerset County, Maryland.

In both the 1810 and 1820 census, the family is found living in Worcester County, Maryland.

Ebenezer was the nephew or grandnephew of Sarah Leonard, Elizabeth's mother.

7. Joshua<sup>4</sup> Stanford (Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 28 Oct 1740, in Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland, died 26 Jan 1826, in Warrenton, Warren, Georgia. He married Mary Rooks about 1770, in Maryland. Mary Rooks was born 1 MAR 1742 OR 1 MAR 1743, in Maryland, died 1825, in Warren County, Georgia.

Many genealogists assign Joshua the middle name "Whipps". This appears to be an error. The Dorchester County, Maryland Stanfords produced a Joshua Whipps Stanford, whose grandparents were John Stanford and Susannah Whipps, but this is not our Joshua. The middle name of Joshua Stanford of Maryland's Eastern shore and Georgia is not Whipps, and he is not descended from the Whipps family.

Reasons:

1. Parallel records from the 18th century show that there were two different Stanford families in different areas of Maryland at the same time: one in Ann Arundel/Calvert Counties, and one in Somerset/Wicomico Counties. No record can be found connecting the Ann Arundel/Calvert Co. Stanfords (most often spelled Standford or Standforth) to the Somerset/Wicomico Stanfords.
2. There was a Joshua Whipps Stanford, but he did not move to Georgia. His father was John Stanford; his grandparents were John Stanford and Susannah Whipps; his sister was Philothea Stanford (all proven by will of John Whipps). The family lived in Ann Arundel/Calvert from as early as 1701 until at least 1765. They were in Baltimore in 1800.
3. Joshua Stanford's father is Jonathan Stanford (proven by Store Accounts of John Nelms). Jonathan's father is Joseph (proven by Somerset deed E-188). Joseph's parents are Joseph and Jane (proven by Somerset birth records). This family lived in Somerset/Wicomico from at least 1692.
4. Deeds in both Georgia and Maryland prove that it was the Somerset/Wicomico family that moved to Georgia. No record has been found connecting the Ann Arundel/Calvert family to Georgia.

From the Nelms Store Accounts: "Stanford, Joshua (Son of Jonathan Sr.) (6 Jan 1770 - 5 Apr 1779) Paid on father's account in 1770 and on that of his brother, Jonathan Jr. in 1779."

Joshua served in the Maryland militia during the Revolutionary War. He served as Private in the Somerset Militia, Salisbury Battalion, Capt. Josiah Dashiell's Wicomico Creek Company, 1778-1780. According to DAR Application No. 118585, Joshua fought in the battle of Harlem Heights in New York, was captured by the British, and placed aboard the prison ship "Jersey" for six months. He is listed on a memorial plaque at the Warren County, Georgia courthouse in Warrenton with other Revolutionary soldiers who settled in that area.

Land records from 1785-1787 show that Joshua owned the plantation "Little Neck" in Somerset County, Maryland and expanded it by 133 acres during this period.

We find him in the Somerset County, Maryland census in 1800 living on Broad Creek with 1 son < 10 years old [?], 1 son 10-15 [Leven], 1 son 16-25 [Joshua], 1 daughter <10 [Ellender], 2 daughters 10-15 [Mary and Sarah], and 1 daughter 16-25 [Sophia]. Based on the children's ages, it appears that Joshua and Mary married by 1775.

We know his daughter Ellender married in Georgia in Dec 1805, so the family evidently moved to Georgia before that date. We find Joshua Stanford listed in the 1805 Tax List for District 9, Capt. David Langston's District, Columbia County, Georgia. Joshua Stanford is listed as one of the persons entitled to draws during the 1805 Georgia land lottery.

There is no 1810 census record for Georgia, but there is a near-illegible 1820 census record for Capt. Williams' District, Warren County, Georgia that lists a Joshua Stanford. This record includes 1 male 16-26, 1 male 45+ [Joshua?], 1 female 10-16, 2 females 16-26, and 1 female 45+ [Mary?].

Joshua was awarded Lot No. 220, District 6, Dooly County in the 1821 Georgia Land Lottery. "Joshua Stanford Sr., R.S." [R.S. means "Revolutionary Soldier"] is listed as one of the "Fortunate Drawers" in the Land Lottery of Georgia 1827, drawing Lot Number 176, District 24, Capt. Sander's District, Muscogee County, Georgia. Lottery records indicate that Joshua lived in Warren County.

The following is the text of Joshua's will:

"Will of Joshua Stanford May 4, 1825 Georgia (128), Warren County

"The Last Will and Testament of Joshua Stanford

"I Joshua Stanford being low of body but of sound and disposing mind and memory do make constitute and ordain this last will and testament.

"1st. I will that all my just debts be paid.

"2nd I will unto my beloved son Joseph Stanford [Joshua's youngest son] the land whereon I live together with all my landed estate without reserve.

"3d I will & bequest unto my granddaughter Harriet Dashiel one cow and calf.

"4th After the disposition about mentioned I will and bequest unto my eight children, Levi Stanford, John Stanford, Joshua Stanford, Sophia Draper, Levin Stanford, Mary Williams, Ellender Lazenby and Sarah Ansley each one of them one eighth part of my estate not otherwise disposed off by this my last will to be equally divided amongst them by my Executors herein after mentioned.

"5th I hereby appoint my son Joseph Stanford my executor to this my last will and testament signed and sealed and delivered on this 1st day of May 1825.

"In presence of Joshua Stanford(Seal) John Willson Benjamin Harrison William Harrison"

This will was probated on 1 May 1826, Georgia Inferior Court, Warren County, Georgia.

Mary Rook/Rooks (also spelled Ruark) may have been Mary Fook[e]s. There are numerous records connecting Joshua Stanford and his family to the Fooks family of Somerset/Wicomico Counties, Maryland, attending the same church and witnessing the same will, for example. However, most researchers find the Rooks name to be correct.

Most researchers show Mary as having been born in Maryland, while some say Scotland based on a somewhat inaccurate 1904-1905 bio of Joshua's great grandson L.L. Stanford.

Children of Joshua Stanford and Mary Rooks:

- 24     i.    Levi M. Stanford, born about 1772, in Maryland, died before 4 Mar 1846, in Georgia.
- 25     ii.   John Stanford, born 15 Jan 1778, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 24 Sep 1860, in Marion County, Mississippi.
- 26     iii.   Joshua Stanford, Jr., born 17 Jan 1779, in Somerset County, Maryland, died NOV 1836 OR DEC 1836, in Columbia County, Georgia.
- iv.   Sophia Stanford, born about 1782, in Somerset County, Maryland, died before 1850, in Butts County, Georgia. She married Josiah Draper 2 Aug 1804, in Warren County, Georgia. Josiah Draper was born 1770 OR 1780, died before 1850, in Butts County, Georgia.

Both the 1830 and 1840 census lists Josiah Draper's family living in Butts County, Georgia.

- 27     v.    Leven Stanford, born 22 Jan 1784, in Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland, died 15 Nov 1850, in Putnam County, Georgia.
- vi.   Mary Stanford, born about 1787, in Maryland, died 1834, in Warren County, Georgia. She married Henry Wilson 15 Nov 1807, in Upson County, Georgia.

Mary and Henry Wilson had 9 children.

- vii.   Joseph Stanford, born about 1789, in Maryland, died Nov 1859, in Putnam County, Georgia. Cause of death: apoplexy.

There are two Joseph Stanford listings appearing in the Georgia Property Tax Digest for Warren County in 1805, both living in Capt. James Wilson's District. The Joseph listed next door to William Ansley is probably this Joseph.

In 1824, Joseph Stanford is listed in the Georgia Property Tax Digest owning land in Captain William Allum's district of Putnam County, Georgia. This record indicates that Joseph moved to Putnam County, Georgia after 1820 and before 1824.

The "Georgia Genealogical Society Quarterly", Vol. 32, No.3, p.173 quotes A Register of Officers and Agents in the Service of the United States on the 30th of September 1825 that, in a list of Postmasters, Joseph Stanford, born in Maryland, Stanford's Crossroads, Georgia. [Stanford's Crossroads became Stanfordville and is located in Putnam County, Georgia.]

We find Joseph in the 1830 census for Capt. Mathis' District of Putnam County, Georgia. His household is listed with two males 20-29 old and 1 male 40-49 [Joseph]. No wife is listed. The identity of the two younger males is unknown. The 1830 census records also include listings for Nathaniel, Nehemiah, Jephtha, and Levin Stanford, Joseph's brother and cousins, all living in the same district of Putnam County.

In 1832, Joseph participated in the Georgia Cherokee Land Lottery and drew Number 33, 26th District, Second Section, in Putnam County, Georgia.

On 4 Dec 1832, the Inferior Court of Warren County, Georgia received the application of Joseph Stanford (Warren County), executor of the (last will and testament) estate of Joshua Stanford dec'd to Joshua Stanford (Columbia). This apparently addressed a land sale held in Talbot County for land located in Taylor County.

On 24 Dec 1832, the Georgia legislature passed "AN ACT to change, and legitimize the names of sundry persons hereinafter mentioned," Section 1 of which reads as follows: "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and immediately after the passage of this act, the name of Tobitha Granad be changed to that of Tobitha Stanford, and that she is hereby declared to be fully and completely legitimized and entitled to all the rights and privileges that she would have been, had she been born in lawful wedlock and be fully capable of taking and inheriting, and receiving all manner of property by virtue of the statute of distributions now in force, or which may hereafter be in force in this State, so far as relates to the real and personal estate of Joseph Stanford, of Putnam county, her reputed father, to all intents and purposes as though she had been born in lawful wedlock: Provided, That the said Tobitha shall not be entitled to inherit the estate of the said Joseph to the entire exclusion of any child or children of the said Joseph hereafter born in lawful wedlock." From this record, it is obvious that Tobitha Granad considered herself to be the illegitimate child of Joseph Stanford. However, no record of a Tobitha Granad or Stanford has yet been found and she is not named in Joseph's will.

In 1840, the census lists Joseph Stanford living in District 369, Putnam, Georgia. This record lists 1 M 50-59 [Joseph], 1 F 20-29, and 1 F 15-19. The identity of the two females is unknown.

The 1850 census finds Joseph Stanford (64, farmer) living next door to his brother Nehemiah Stanford in District 70, Putnam, Georgia. Living with him is his niece Constant Draper (30) and her niece Margaret Ann Henderson (6). Joseph is living next door to Nehemiah Stanford's family.

The 1850 "Agricultural Census", date 31 Oct 1850, lists Joseph Stanford living in District 70, Putnam, Georgia with 50 acres of improved land and 50 acres unimproved.

The 1860 census lists Joseph Stanford (70, no occupation listed) living as a boarder in the household of Cary and Martha Cox in District 369, Putnam, Georgia. But, the 1860 census mortality schedule records his death in Nov 1859, born about 1788 in Maryland, from apoplexy. [Mortality schedules were compiled as part of the census taking and including deaths reported in the previous 12 months. The 1860 census for Putnam County, Georgia was take in June, 1860.]

Joseph's will, written on 11 Feb 1856 and proven on 5 Mar 1860, well before the 1860 census was taken in Putnam County, Georgia. Final disposition and probate of Joseph's will was not completed until May 1866 in the Court of Ordinary, Putnam County, Georgia.

The following is the transcript of Joseph's will, with some punctuation and omitted words [in brackets] added for readability:

"Georgia Putnam County

"Item 6th. I hereby appoint and constitute Joshua Driskell and B.B. Adams my executors of this my last will and testament this February 11th 1856."

(Signed) "Joseph Stanford L.S."

The "L.S." that Joseph included with his signature may stand for "Land Surveyor," common for the time.

Joshua Driskill (1799-c1864, son of Aaron Driskell and Jane Stanford) was a neighbor and cousin of Joseph Stanford in Maryland who appears living in Georgia in the 1820s.

- viii. Sarah Josephine Stanford, born 1790, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 1832, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried in Ansley Family Cemetery, McDuffie County, Georgia. She married Jesse Morris Ansley 16 Jan 1816, in Warren County, Georgia. Jesse Morris Ansley was born 1794, in Warren County, Georgia, died 7 Nov 1865, in Warren County, Georgia, buried in Ansley Family Cemetery, McDuffie County, Georgia.

Sarah and Jesse Ansley had 5 children. Sarah apparently died during the birth of her last child, Joshua Ansley.

Jesse was the son of Abel Ansley and Lydia Morris.

After Sarah died in 1832, Jesse married Rebecca Hunt on 24 Dec 1834 in Warren County, Georgia.

28 ix. Ellender "Nellie" Stanford, born about 1790, in Somerset County, Maryland, died before 1860, in Jasper County, Georgia.

A Stephen Stanford is listed as a Private in the Worcester Militia, Wicomico Battalion, Capt. Elijah Shockley's Company. He was promoted to Private Second Class on July 15, 1780. The DAR Patriot Index lists "Stephen Stanford, b c1742 MD, d p 9-24-1805 GA, 2nd wife Nancy".

Judah, Lotty, and Sarah (probably sisters whose maiden surname we do not know, but may have been Driskill), with their husbands, conveyed 317 acres of "Driskill's Industry" in (present day) Wicomico County, Maryland to Jesse Fookes [Land Records of Wicomico Co., MD 1666 -1810; Dryden, Ruth T.; p. 121]. Grantors: Stephen STANFORD & wife Judah, Robert STANFORD & wife Lotty, and Harris AUSTIN & wife Sarah. Grantee: Jesse Fookes. Description: 317 Acres of Driskell's Industry. Date: 8 Apr 1786 (We don't know if this is the date the deed was made or the date it was recorded).

"Driskill's Industry" was owned by William Driskill and his wife Elizabeth and how or when the property transferred to the Stanfords and the Austins is unknown, although the 1783 tax list shows that Stephen Stanford had possession of the property. Elizabeth, as William Driskill's wife, would have retained 1/3 dower rights to the property. Later ( on 17 Feb 1792), Elizabeth Driskill of Columbia County, Georgia, by her attorney Robert Stanford, also of Columbia County, Georgia appears to have sold her one third interest in "Driskill's Industry" to Jesse Fookes.

Stephen migrated to Georgia in 1791-92 after receiving a "Headright" land grant in 1791 for 400 acres in Burke County, Georgia.

The "Family Heads of 1805 Georgia" lists Stephen Stanford residing in Columbia County, Georgia with his wife Nancy. We find Stephen Stanford listed in the 1805 Tax List for District 9, Capt. David Langston's District, Columbia County, Georgia.

Stephen's will was signed September 5, 1805 and "proven" on July 11, 1806 in Columbia County, Georgia. The terms of the will left Nancy the total estate during life or widowhood; daughter Patty Howell, one dollar; and son Joseph, one dollar. Son William was to inherit all land at wife's death (except 100 acres adj. Mulleg's Island, to be sold for the use of the family), along with one gun and "amonition". The rest of the estate was to be equally divided "amongst children that wife brought me." Exr. none named. Witness: Polly Matthews, Polly Owen Brown and John Bayn. Based on the wording of this will, Stephen apparently was estranged from the children by his first wife. We can also infer that that Nancy had been previously married and had children by this marriage, also.

Stanford family researcher Nancy Guy has uncovered documents from 1806 submitted to the court in Columbia County, Georgia to establish the qualifications for naming "Ann Stanford" (evidently nicknamed Nancy) executrix of Stephan's estate . These documents include a petition filed by Joseph Stanford to compel conveyance to him by the estate of 75 acres in Columbia. This petition lends credence to the finding that Joseph was the son of Stephen by his first marriage.

We have no information about his first wife, Judah, except from a land sale record in Maryland. Her maiden surname may have been Driskill.

Based on the dates of birth for his children by Nancy, it appears that Judah died before the move to Georgia, perhaps as early as 1786.

In Stephen's will, after making bequests for Patty, Joseph, and William, he stated: "Rest to be equally divided amongst children that wife brought me." This appears that Nancy was previously married and that there were several children from this marriage. We do not know either her maiden name or the surname of her first husband.

In 1820, the census finds Nancy Stanford and a male aged 10-15 living in Capt. Benjamin Watson's District, Columbia, Georgia, next door to her son William's family. This record includes Males 10 thru 15: 1 and Females 45 and over: 1 [Nancy]. This unidentified male may have been Stephen Stanford or an unknown grandson.

Children of Stephen Stanford and Judah LNU:

- 29      i.    Joseph Stanford, born about 1769, in Maryland, died 1827, in Warren County, Georgia.
- ii.   Patty Stanford, born about 1785, in Maryland. She married GNU Howell before 1805.

Patty is identified as "Patty Howell", daughter, in Stephen's 1805 will. Given that she was married in 1805, she was probably born about 1785.

Children of Stephen Stanford and Ann "Nancy" LNU:

- 30      i.    William D. Stanford, born about 1792, in Georgia, died 1843 OR 1844, in

- 31      ii.      Columbia County, Georgia.
              Stephen Stanford, born 20 Apr 1806, in Georgia, died 2 May 1890, in Gwinnett County, Georgia.

Records from Nelms Store: "Stanford, Jesse (15 Jun 1786 - 27 Jun 1787) Bought sundries for 6/13/6-1/2 in 1786. Credited 6/18/6-1/2 for nursing services: 1787."

Jesse Stanford is listed as one of the persons entitled to draws during the 1805 Georgia land lottery.

Jesse Stanford appears in the 1820 census of Oglethorpe County, Georgia and the record includes 1M 45+ [Jesse], 2F <10 [granddaughters?], 1F 10-16 [Emily Marsh?], and 1F 45+ [Perthana].

Jesse's will is dated 20 Sep 1819, but was not probated until 4 Feb 1828, indicating that he died closer to the latter date. The will left his homeplace property to his wife. To his son Reubin, he left the remainder of his real estate and the homeplace property after his wife's death. He left 202-1/2 acres in Wilkinson County, Georgia to his grandson Jesse Ruark and "an equal share of his undivided property" to his daughter "Ebbe" Ruark.

The following is the text of Jesse's will:

"The Last Will and Testament of Jesse Stanford (Warren County, Georgia ).

"In the name of God Amen be it known to all persons whom it may concern that I, Jesse Stanford of the State and County aforesaid in my perfect health of body and of mind do make this my last Will and Testament without Prejudice or Partiality to any person or persons what ever and do desire to divide my Estate both real and personal in the following manner I do bequeath unto my beloved Wife Perthana Stanford all that part of the plantation where I now live and cultivate with all privileges appertaining thereto with a sufficiency of wood-land timber of the said tract or parcell of land to which the xxxx is a part to make and repair the necessary preparation thereon. During his natural life with an equal share of all the undivided Estate at my Death.

"And I also bequeath unto my son Reuben Stanford all the remaining part of the said tract or tracts of land lying in the said County of Warren except that part bequeath to my Wife Parthena Stanford and at her Death the whole thereof to the said Reuben Stanford.

"And also to my Grandson Jesse Ruark I do bequeath one tract of land lying in the Eleventh District of the County of Wilkinson containing of two hundred two and one half acres Number 174 with all the rights and priviledges thereto belonging And do bequeath unto my Daughter Elle Ruark an equal share of all the undivided property with the above recited heirs belonging to me at my Death.

And I also bequeath unto my Emily Marsh one feather bed and furniture formerly belonging to her Grand Mother Bethany Marsh now my beloved wife Bethany Stanford.

"So help you God Attest William T. McDonald T Franklin CLK A McDonald Recorded 19th March 1828 T Franklin CLK"

The identity of Emily Marsh, mentioned in the will, is unknown...maybe Bethany's sister or niece.

Bethany was Jesse's second wife and was probably not the mother of all the children listed here.

Bethany is named as a beneficiary in Jesse's will, so she was still living in 1828.

Children of Jesse Stanford and Perthania "Bethany" Marsh:

- 32      i. Reuben Stanford, born about 1785, in Maryland, died before 1850, in Lee County, Georgia.
- ii. Isabella "Ellie, Eley" Stanford, Elile, Elly, born about 1785, in Maryland, died after 1870, in Newton County, Georgia. She married Dennis James Rooks 12 Dec 1804, in Warren County, Georgia. Dennis James Rooks was born about 1778, in Worchester County, Maryland, died 1850, in Butts County, Georgia, buried in Seven Islands Cemetery, Lamar Road, Lindsay, Butts, Georgia.

Isabella and Dennis Rooks had 10 children. The oldest child, Jesse, inherited land in Wilkinson County, Georgia upon his grandfather Jesse's death.

Isabella is found in the 1850 Butts County, Georgia census showing her age as 65 and that she was born in Maryland. In the household with her are Epsey, age 32, Amanda, age 26, another daughter Melissa? [hard to read], age 21, and three apparent grandchildren, James Mason, age 9, Martha Mason age 8, and Epsey J. Mason age 7.

On page 473 of the 1860 census for Newton County, Georgia, Isabella Rooks (80) is still living, with daughter Epsey (30) and Martha (17) and Jane (16) Mason still in the household, the three younger women working as factory operators. Ages for Isabella and Epsey are both misstated, but it is obviously the same family as in the 1850 Butts Co. census.

Isabella is listed in the 1870 census, Subdivision 96, Covington, Newton, Georgia, where she states her age as 80, which again is probably incorrect [or is someone's guess]. Her surname is incorrectly given as Brooks, but the record is obviously for her, still living with her are the Mason granddaughters Martha (21) and Jane (20).

The Rooks surname appears to be a variant of the Ruark name.

Dennis' gravestone lists his date of death of 1851, but this appears to be the date the stone was erected the year following his death.

From the Nelms Store Accounts: "Stanford, Jonathan Jr. (14 Feb 1766 -5 Apr 1779) Owed in Ledger C 0/6/8 plus 2 doz all blades and 2 doz. tacks omitted from the account in C, plus 5 years interest made 0/11/10. Got credit of 0/9/5 by Isaac Crouch and paid balance in cash in 1771. In 1775 bought checked linen, silk handkerchief and with interest owed 1/7/6 which was paid in cash by Joshua Stanford in 1779."

We find a Jonathan Stanford living in Worcester County in the 1790 census. This record lists 2 M > 16 [Jonathan, Jr. and William], 2 M < 16 [Jonathan III and Josiah], and 2 F [Judith and Grace]. Jonathan owned no slaves. Grace Phillips was probably from the large Phillips family in Worcester County and the couple married there in 1767.

We know from his daughter Judith's marriage in Columbia County, Georgia that Jonathan was living in Georgia before 1815. And, there is an 1820 census listing for a Jonathan Stanford in Warren County, Georgia that lists 1 M 26-45 [Jonathan, Jr.], 1 F <10 [?], 2 F 26-45 [Judah and ?], and 2 F 45+ [Grace and ?]. A Jonathan Stanford was awarded a land grant of 200 acres in Richmond County, Georgia in 1795. From this, we can assume that Jonathan, Jr. moved to Georgia with his father before that date.

A "Jona Stanford Sr., sol." is listed as the a lucky winner in the 1827 Georgia Land Lottery, winning Lot No. 33, District 24, Lee County, Georgia. This record indicates that Jonathan was still living in 1827 in Warren County, Georgia.

The children listed here, in all probability, does not represent a complete listing.

Grace was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Phillips.

Children of Jonathan Stanford, Jr. and Grace Phillips:

- i. Josiah Stanford, born 10 Aug 1771, in Stepney Parish, Wicomico, Somerset County, Maryland.

Josiah's birth is recorded at the Stepney Parish Church, Wicomico, Somerset County, Maryland.
- 33 ii. William Stanford, born between 1770 and 1775, in Worcester County, Maryland, died after 1840, in Worcester County, Maryland.
- 34 iii. Benjamin Stanford, born about 1791, in Maryland, died before 1850, in Choctaw County, Mississippi.
- 35 iv. Jonathan Stanford, III, born between 1790 and 1794, in Worcester County, Maryland, died before 1840, in Georgia.
- 36 v. Judith Stanford, born between 1794 and 1804, in Worcester County, Maryland, died after 1823, in Georgia.

In 1786 Robert patented "Pine Swamp", 26 acres, in Somerset County, Maryland [Liber IC#A, Folio 657].

Judah, Lotty, and Sarah (Driskell sisters), with their husbands, conveyed 317 acres of "Driskell's Industry" in (present day) Wicomico County, Maryland to Jesse Fookes [Land Records of Wicomico Co., MD 1666 -1810; Dryden, Ruth T.; p. 121]. Grantors: Stephen STANFORD & wife Judah, Robert STANFORD & wife Lotty, and Harris AUSTIN & wife Sarah. Grantee: Jesse Fookes. Description: 317 Acres of Driskell's Industry. Date: 8 Apr 1786 (We don't know if this is the date the deed was made or the date it was recorded).

Robert relocated to Georgia fairly soon after 1786. There is a record of a Robert Stanford receiving a headright grant in Richmond County, Georgia, sometime between 1787 and 1793. Robert Stanford is listed in the 14th District, Capt John McDuffie's District, Columbia County, Georgia militia roster in 1793.

Robert was an attorney. In 1791, he served as attorney for Elizabeth Driskell of Columbia County, Georgia in selling 105 acres inherited from William Driskell Sadler of Worcester County, Maryland.

Court records in Columbia and Warren County, Georgia contain numerous references to Robert.

Robert Stanford is listed as one of the persons entitled to draws during the 1805 Georgia land lottery. His son, Robert Junr. is also listed in this record.

The index to Warren County Wills records that his will was signed on 7 May 1805 and probated on 15 Oct 1805, indicating that Robert died sometime between these two dates. The will makes bequests only to Robert's two sisters, "Hetty" Stanford and "Ibby" Burke, indicating that Lotty had died by this time.

We learn Lotty's name from a land record in Somerset County, Maryland. Lotty may be a nickname for Charlotte. He maiden name may have been Driskell.

Children of Robert Stanford and Charlotte "Lotty" Driskell:

- 37      i.    Robert Stanford, Jr., born about 1770, in Somerset County, Maryland, died before May 1844, in Warren County, Georgia.

We know that Elijah was still living when his father died in 1792 since he is listed in the will.

This may be the Elijah Stanford listed on the 1794 tax list in St. Eels District, Warren County, Georgia.

Elijah Stanford is listed as one of the persons entitled to draws during the 1805 Georgia land lottery.

A book entitled "General History of the Baptist Domination in America" by David Benedict, A.M., Vol. II, was published in 1813 and lists an Elijah Stanford, Warren County, Georgia, as a member.

Elijah Stanford was one of the "Fortunate Drawers" in the Land Lottery of Georgia 1827, drawing Lot No. 201, District 13, Capt. Sanders' District, Lee County, Georgia. This record indicates that he was living in Warren County, Georgia at the time.

No record of Elijah's will has been found.

Based on legal notices filed by Nathan W. Stanford in 1854 serving as the administrator of the estate of an Elijah Stanford of Columbia County, Georgia who died in 1853/1854, it is probable that THIS Elijah Stanford had a son named Elijah.

Children of Elijah Stanford and ____ ____:

- 38      i.    Elijah Stanford, died about 1853, in Columbia County, Georgia.

13. Mary "Betty"<sup>4</sup> Stanford (Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 20 Aug 1760, in Maryland, died 26 Nov 1842, in Georgia. She married Reuben McGee. Reuben McGee was born 13 Feb 1754, in Maryland, died 6 Mar 1829, in Warren County, Georgia.

There is some confusion about whether Jonathan had one daughter, Mary Elizabeth, or two, one named Mary and one named Elizabeth. Records tend to support two daughters, though it is not certain since Mary's nickname was "Betty," implying that her middle name was Elizabeth.

Reuben was the son of David McGee and Mary MacClanary.

On 21 Oct 1803, Reuben had 800 acres of land on White's Creek in Warren County, Georgia.

Reuben's will was recorded on 19 May 1829 in Warren County, Georgia. Witnesses included William Stanford, Jr. From this will, we know the names of his and Mary's five daughters and one son.

Children of Mary "Betty" Stanford and Reuben McGee:

- 39     i.   Ellender G. "Nelly" McGee, born 1 Nov 1786, in Maryland, died 9 Jan 1857, in Putnam County, Georgia.
- 40     ii.   Mary Sarah "Polly" McGee, born 30 Jun 1797, died after 1850, in Talbot County, Georgia.
- iii.   Leah N. McGee. She married Elijah Pearson 8 Jan 1816, in Warren County, Georgia. Elijah Pearson was born about 1795, died about 1830, in Georgia.
- iv.   Elizabeth L. McGee. She married Thomas Edmondson before 1829.
- v.   Ephraim McGee, died 1852, in Taylor County, Georgia.

Records from Nelms Store: "Stanford, William (9 Jan 1767 - 30 Aug 1775). In 1767 purchased a comb, girth, molasses, brimstone, ribbon and pipes for a total of 0/18/8 [0 pounds/18 shillings/8 pence]. Paid in cash in 1768. Paid 0/2/4 for Mrs. Betty Gillis in 1769. Made pick up for father, Thomas Stanford in 1775."

William served as a Private in the Somerset Militia, Salisbury Battalion, Capt Henry Gale's Quantico Company, 1778-1780.

In 1780, William became an elder of Rockawalkin Presbyterian Church.

Sometime before the 1783 Tax List was published, William acquired the plantation "Newberry" and upon his death willed it to his eldest son Thomas. In addition, he owned the plantation "Little Nelsey", deeded to him by his father. An inventory upon his death listed 7 slaves, 73 gallons of brandy, and 200 gallons of cider, valued at over 673 pounds...a considerable sum for the time.

Patience was the daughter of Joshua Moore and Temperance Wailes.

William died intestate, leaving his estate to his wife Patience and their four children. John Nicholson was appointed guardian. Sometime after Amelia died (between 1785 and 1791), Patience married John Nicholson and had three children by him.

Children of William Stanford and Patience Moore:

- i. Amelia Stanford, born about 1772, in Somerset County, Maryland, died between 1785 and 1791, in Somerset County, Maryland.
- ii. Thomas Stanford, born about 1775, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 17 Jul 1804, in Maryland. He married Ann Gill 2 Feb 1795, in Maryland.

After his father's death, Thomas inherited the plantation "Newberry". When he died at the young age of 29, he willed Newberry to his brother William.

This appears to be Ann's second marriage...she was previously married to a Smith.

- iii. Elizabeth "Betsy" Stanford, born about 1777, in Somerset County, Maryland. She married Levin Moore 1 Dec 1801, in Somerset County, Maryland. Levin Moore was born in Sussex County, Delaware.
- 41 iv. William Stanford, born about 1780, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 1821, in Somerset County, Maryland.

Thomas Stanford served as Sergeant in the Somerset Militia, Salisbury Battalion, Capt. Henry Gale's Quantico Company, 1778-1780.

In 1783, tax records list Thomas with 100 acres of "Little Nawlsey" in the Rewastico District of Somerset County, Maryland.

In 1789, Thomas patented two properties, "Hog Pen", 8 acres, and "This or None", 21-3/4 acres, both in Somerset County, Maryland.

Thomas made his will in 1791.

In 1795, Thomas and Amelia were willed 50 acres of "Ascues Choice" by her father, Constant Disharoon.

The list of children in this record is, undoubtedly, incomplete.

Amelia was the daughter of Constantine "Constant" Disharoon (b. Aft 1717, d. 1795, Somerset County, Maryland). Her mother's name is unknown.

Amelia Stanford is found in the 1810 Somerset County, Maryland census living in the Wicomico 100 with two of her sons (ages 16-15). These were probably Constant D. Stanford and Obediah Stanford, since John left home when he married in 1803.

Children of Thomas Stanford and Amelia "Milla, Milly" Disharoon:

- 42     i.    John Stanford, born 10 Feb 1780, in Maryland, died before 1818, in Maryland.
- 43     ii.   Constantine Disharoon "Constant" Stanford, born 27 Apr 1784, in Maryland, died 24 Jan 1858, in Maryland.
- 44     iii.   Obediah Stanford, born 29 Jan 1791, in Somerset County, Maryland, died after 1828, in Somerset County, Maryland.

John moved with his parents to North Carolina in 1764 and then to Georgia in 1778. He served as a Revolutionary War soldier and, for that service, he was granted 287.5 acres in Franklin County, Georgia on October 10, 1784. A second grant of 100 acres in Richmond County, Georgia was made in 1785.

John was a member of the Baptist Church, first joining and being baptized at the Kiokee Church, Columbia County, Georgia about 1785-87. In 1790, he was ordained into the Baptist ministry by the Kiokee Church and pastored churches until his death.

The Kiokee church is the oldest Baptist church in Georgia, being organized in 1772. It is situated about 18 miles above Augusta, Richmond, Georgia in the neighborhood of two Kiokee Creeks that enter the Savannah River about a mile apart. The church was established by Daniel Marshall and is considered important because it was the nursery of a number of early Georgia ministers, including John Stanford, and was the "mother" of many additional Baptist Churches.

He was ordained at the Kiokee Baptist Church in 1790.

John moved from Columbia County, Georgia to Bulloch County, Georgia about 1800 and transferred his membership to the Nevils Creek Church there, where served as pastor in 1821.

In 1810, he was paster of the Little Ogeechee Baptist Church.

John appears in the 1820 census for Bulloch County, Georgia, listed as follows:

John Stanford, 5 slaves 1 male 45-up (b. bef. 1775, John) 1 female 45-up (b. bef. 1775, Rachel) 1 male 18-26 (b. 1794-1802, David) 1 male 0-10 (b. 1810-1820, grandson?)

A John R. Stanford is listed in the Georgia Property Tax Digests for 1819 (Richmond County) and for 1822, 1923, 1826, and 1828 (Franklin County).

In 1823, records show that he was pastor of the Bark Camp Church in Burke County, Georgia.

John died at the home of Deacon Samuel Newton in Screven County, Georgia 1 Mar 1826 after having preached that day at nearby Little Ogeechee Church. He was buried at the Newton Family Cemetery at Monticello, Jasper, Georgia. Based on reports by Newton family descendants, this cemetery is also known as the Newton-Conner-Archer Cemetery and is located on Halcyondale Road, about a mile for U.S. 17. The Little Ogeechee Church is located about 4-5 miles from the cemetery, also on Halcyondale Road.

Upon John's death, Francis Jones, a creditor, was appointed administrator of his estate. A deed appears on record in Bulloch County, Georgia [Deed Book 5, pp. 14-15], dated 13 Nov 1827 wherein the children, as heirs, conveyed the home place and its 278 acres to their mother Rachel Stanford.

Rachel's last name has been identified by some researchers as "Upton" and by others as "Young". The preponderance of the evidence indicates that Rachel was the daughter of Reuben Young, who lived along the Tyger River in the 96th District of South Carolina [later, Spartanburg District]. In support of this, the following land transfer was recorded on 11 Jan 1786 in the Spartanburg County, South Carolina Deed Book A:

"Samuel Langston of the State of Georgia and wife Sarah, John Stanford and Wife, Rachel, heirs of Reuben Young, late of Tyger River, 96 District, 200 acres bordering the Tyger River to the north, James Spears to the east, the Estate of Edward Arnett to the south, and Thomas Tod(d) to the west, being a grant to Phillip Mulkie (Mulkey) and sold to Reuben Young, all for 50L sterling and 2 shillings Georgia money.

"Witnesses: William Clayton, Edward Hooker, Hezekiah Bussey

"Signed: Samuel Langston, Sarah Langston (her mark), John Stanford, Rachel Stanford (her mark)"

Rachel may have been born in North Carolina or South Carolina, but, again, no documentation has been found.

Children of John R. Stanford and Rachel Young:

- 45      i.    Thomas Stanford, born 1782, in Franklin County, Georgia, died after 1840, in

- Conecuh County, Alabama.
- 46    ii. Elijah Stanford, born 1786, in Franklin County, Georgia, died 9 Nov 1812.
  - iii. Sarah Stanford, born 1790, in Columbia County, Georgia. She married Andrew Armstrong 9 Jan 1811.

Andrew was the brother of Nancy Armstrong who married Sarah's brother Thomas.

An 1850 census record lists A. Armstrong (60) and his wife "Effa" (55), both born in Georgia, living in Township 14, Range 9, Attala, Mississippi. This may be our Andrew and Sarah.

- 47    iv. William Stanford, born about 1792, in Franklin County, Georgia, died between 1855 and 1860, in Henry County, Alabama.
- 48    v. Mary A. Stanford, born 20 Feb 1794, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 12 Apr 1853, in Statesboro, Bulloch, Georgia.
- vi. Nancy Ann Stanford, born 1798, in Georgia, died 8 Jun 1865, in Bulloch County, Georgia, buried in Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Statesboro, Bulloch, Georgia. She married Solomon Brannen 24 Dec 1818, in Bulloch County, Georgia. Solomon Brannen was born 10 Jun 1792, in Burke County, Georgia, died 16 Sep 1864, in Bulloch County, Georgia, buried in Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Statesboro, Bulloch, Georgia.

Ann and Solomon had 8 children.

Solomon was the son of William Brannen (1750|1840) and Elizabeth Gross (1754|1851).

- 49    vii. David Stanford, born 3 Feb 1799, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 17 Apr 1871, in Clinch County, Georgia.
- 50    viii. John Stanford, born about 1801, in Georgia, died before 1870, in Louisiana.

Thomas was born in North Carolina after 1764, when his parents moved to North Carolina, and by 1770, since the 1830 census record that indicates his age is 60-70. He moved to Columbia County, Georgia prior to 1799, when he married.

Thomas was a participant in the Georgia Land Lottery of 1807 and drew lot 176 in District 15 in Baldwin County, Georgia. In 1817, he owned land in Morgan County, Georgia. In 1822, he bought 202 acres in Newton County and sometime before 1828, Thomas and Keziah moved there, settling near the Yellow River about ten miles from Covington. We find the family listed in the 1830 census including 1 male 60-70 [Thomas] and 1 female 40-50 [Keziah], along with 3 male children and 4 female children.

In 1807, he was on the subscription list for the new Kiokke Baptist Church building and pledged $16.

Soon after 1830, the family moved to Randolph County, Georgia and were among the pioneers of southwestern Georgia. They purchased a place about 7 miles from Cuthbert and lived there until Thomas died.

On 3 Dec 1839, David Stanford applied for "Letters of Administration" for his fathers estate, as published in the "Columbus Sentinel and Herald", 11 Dec 1839.

After Thomas' death in 1839, Keziah moved to Alabama to live with her daughter and son-in-law, where she died between 1850 and 1860.

Thomas was a wealthy man [in 1830, he owned 15 slaves], but was very charitable, also. He signed as security for two of his friends and that cost him most of his possessions.

He was listed as a Lieutenant in the Georgia Militia in Newton County on January 3, 1828. Thomas was a soldier in the Indian war during the years 1835-1836.

The following account was published in "Randolph County Memoirs of Georgia", Vol. I, in 1908:

"Thomas and Keziah Stanford, were early settlers of middle Georgia. The latter lived for many years there, and had born to them a large family of children. Later in life they removed to Newton county and settled near Yellow River about ten miles from Covington, where they resided until coming to Randolph county about 1828. They purchased a farm about seven miles from Cuthbert, where the senior Stanford died in August, 1839---well advanced in years. After his death his widow removed to Alabama, where her last days were spent."

Keziah's parents were Edward and Susanna O'Neal.

She was listed, age 80, in the 1850 Randolph County, Georgia census (recorded on September 5, 1850), but moved shortly thereafter to Henry County, Alabama to live with her daughter Elizabeth and son-in-law Elbert Elliott until her death.

Children of Thomas Stanford and Keziah O'Neal:

- 51     i.    Edward N. "Neddie, Nodey" Stanford, born 1799, in Morgan County, Georgia, died after 1860, in Georgia.
- 52     ii.   William "Sallie" Stanford, born about 1802, in Morgan County, Georgia, died between 1856 and 1860, in Cass County, Georgia.
- 53     iii.   John R. Stanford, born 1805, in Morgan County, Georgia, died 1891, in Red Level, Covington, Alabama.
- 54     iv.   Thomas Stanford, Jr., born 15 May 1806, in Morgan County, Georgia, died 3 Feb 1859, in Cuthbert, Randolph, Georgia.

- v. Martha Stanford, born about 1810, in Morgan County, Georgia, died after 1860, in Alabama. She married Christopher Dyess 19 Jan 1858, in Henry County, Alabama. Christopher Dyess was born about 1807, in Wilkinson County, Georgia, died 1865, in Henry County, Alabama.

The 1860 census finds the couple living in Columbia, Henry, Alabama and lists Christopher Dyas (46, farmer) and Martha (46).

Martha married late in life and she and Chrisopher had no children.

- 55 vi. Christopher was the son of Thomas Dyess (1768-1831) and Mary Green (b. 1764).
David P. Stanford, born 25 Aug 1815, in Newton County, Georgia, died 18 Mar 1891, in Mexia, Limestone, Texas.
- vii. Nancy Stanford, born 1819, in Newton County, Georgia, died May 1850, in Cuthbert, Randolph, Georgia. She married George H. Hobbs 1835, in Georgia. George H. Hobbs was born about 1810, in Morgan County, Georgia, died 1835, in Georgia.

The 1850 Federal census Mortality Schedules records Nancy's death being in May 1850 and lists her as a widow at the time of her death.

- Evidently, George died soon after he and Nancy married in 1835.
- viii. Elizabeth Stanford, born 1825, in Newton County, Georgia, died after 1880, in Mississippi. She married Elbert Elliott 27 Apr 1843, in Randolph County, Georgia. Elbert Elliott was born 1826, in Randolph County, Georgia, died after 1880, in Mississippi.

Elizabeth and Elbert had three children (M.R. Elliott, b. 1844; F.E. Elliott, b. 1846, and Mary Elliott, b. 1850, all in Georgia).

In 1855, the family moved to the Camp Springs area of Henry County, Alabama. Elizabeth's mother Keziah (age 80) moved with them.

Elbert moved with his brothers Ira and James to Henry County, Alabama in 1855, settling in the Camp Spings area of that county . These three brothers bought a total of 1,500 acres of land on a good stretch of rich soil along the Foster Creek. The Hitachi Indians had named the area "Dry Ridge" before white settlement in 1855. (This land had remained in the Elliott family since 1855.)

According to John Steven Elliott, a descendent of James Elliott, soon after the Civil War, circa 1867, brothers Elbert and Ira Elliott became engaged in a showdown street brawl in the Main Street of Columbia, Henry County, Alabama. When Ira got into town, a young lad at the livery warned Ira, "Misser Ira, ibft I was youin', I'd take my hoss and gwine back to de house! Fer yo' brother Mr. Elbert, he be lookin' to kiltz you, shore 'nough!" Ira tipped the lad, thanked him for his concern and made his way to the center of Main Street and North Street.

There on the front porch of the liquor store across from the courthouse was Elbert Elliott, well into his cups ranting and raving about how he intended to kill his brother Ira. Ira walked to the edge of the porch and in an effort to defuse the fight, grabbed Elbert Elliott by the ankles and pull him down to straddle him. When he was pulled down, Elbert pulled a Bowie knife and killed Ira, who fell dead onto his brother.

Elbert got up, somewhat more sobered now, and got his horse from the livery and headed posthaste to the Elliott Plantation about eight mile north on the Old Columbia to Abbeville Road (built circa 1823). Here he got his nephew, Davis Andrew Jackson "Jack" Elliott (1832-1913) and Jack's son Seaborne Jackson "Seabe" Elliott (1859-1952), to get on a mule and follow Elbert to Fort Gaines, Georgia to his in-laws, the Stanfords. Elbert on his horse and Jack with Seabe on the back of the mule, they set out. (Seabe was 7 years old but remembered it his enitre life of 93 years.)

At the large, long covered bridge across the Chattahoochee River between Franklin, Henry County, Alabama, and Fort Gaines, Clay County, Georgia, Elbert dismounted and gave his horse to Jack. Seabe rode the mule and the two returned to the Elliott Plantation. Elbert told them to tell Elizabeth that he would send for her and the family.

Records in 1867 in the Clay County, Georgia Courthouse show that Elbert Elliott borrowed $300 from his father-in-law William Stanford for a horse and cart and then fled.

Ira's family moved back to Clay County and then to Florida. None of Elbert's family appear in the 1870 census in Alabama. But, in 1880, the census finds them living in Calhoun County, Mississippi, listing Elbert (60), Elizabeth (63) and 4 children, all born in Georgia.

- ix. Keziah Stanford, born about 1802, in Morgan County, Georgia.

A letter written by Martha Ann Missouri Stanford Scott on 22 Aug 1906, lists he names of the children of Thomas Stanford, her grandfather, one of whom is listed as "Kisire." No record of this child has yet been found.

Columbia County, Georgia. He married Sarah Upton about 1800, in Kiokee Baptist Church, Columbia County, Georgia. Sarah Upton was born 1773, died 21 MAR 1831 OR 21 MAR 1832, in Columbia County, Georgia.

David Stanford was elected Lt., 5th Company, 1st Battalion, Columbia County Regiment of the Georgia Militia on 27 Nov 1798.

David was appointed Justice of the Peace in Columbia County, Georgia on 15 Aug 1806.

David was very active in Kiokee Baptist Church and was appointed as a Trustee of the church in 1806 and the church treasurer in 1810. In 1807, he was on the subscription list for the new church building and pledged $25.

On September 10, 1810, David bought 100 acres on Great Kiokee Creek belonging to his late father and paid his brothers and sisters for it.

War of 1812 pension records show that, when called to serve in the War of 1812, David obtained the services of a substitute, a John Smith of Columbia County, Georgia who served in David's place in Captain Thomas Carr's Company, Georgia Militia and later applied for a pension for this service [S.O. Number 15280].

On 29 Aug 1822, David Stanford of Columbia County, Georgia bought 101-1/4 acres in the 19th District of Morgan County (previously Baldwin County) from James Beavers [Morgan County, Georgia Deed Book H (1823-1824), page 186].

David served as Justice of the Inferior Court (essentially the county civil court) in Columbia County, Georgia for an unexpired term, May 29, 1826-June 9, 1829.

David was very active in his church, Kiokee Baptist Church, Columbia County, Georgia, and is often referred to as "Deacon David Stanford". He was ordained a deacon by the Kiokee Baptist Church on June 16, 1821.

David was a contractor/brick mason who also fired his own brick. In 1806, he was a trustee of the Kiokee Baptist Church and was appointed to make out "a bill of subscription" to build a new meeting house for the church. David was the contractor for the "new" Columbia County, Georgia Courthouse and Jail, as reported in the following article that appeared in the 17 Nov 2002 issue of "The Columbia County News-Times":

"Before Richmond County was divided, community leaders chose various sites where residents could vote and hold court. Makeshift polling places - our earliest precincts, perhaps - with additional room for the Justice of the Peace, were alternately established at Brownsboro, Augusta, and, in 1784, 'where the road crosses Little Kioka (Kiokee) Creek leading to the "Meeting House."' The "Meeting House" likely was the original Kiokee Baptist Church located near the current Appling Courthouse. However, since Brownsboro covered a much larger area than Appling does today, the two polling places outside Augusta may not have been near each other at all.

"Details of the first Columbia County Courthouse are sketchy, but most records place it as a small, wooden building in the village of Cobbham west of Appling, near the current McDuffie County line, around 1792. Although one historian suggests the courthouse could have been an out building or on early settler Thomas Cobb's front porch, there is evidence that the structure was erected on land donated by his neighbor, Ignatius Few, the father of William Few.

"Apparently this building was either inefficient or poorly built, because talk of its repair or replacement began surfacing by 1799. Talk of where the new courthouse would be built surfaced, too.

"Once again, Few offered his property for the new building, but some residents objected because Cobbham was not centrally located. William Appling, who owned a more acceptable site nearer "the Kioka," offered to sell the county five acres of his property for a courthouse and jail for the tiny sum of one shilling per acre. County commissioners, including William Few, accepted Appling's offer. By 1808, a building contract was awarded to David Stanford for his low bid of $6,869, and the first courthouse to be erected in the center of what later would become the town of Appling (named for William Appling's brother, John) was underway.

"Stanford, in addition to being a builder, was something of a "jack-of-all-trades." The commissioners gave him explicit instructions, everything from the outside dimensions and thickness of the walls to the size of the clerk's table in front of the judge's seat, but no architectural design. According to historian Pearl Baker, "It would seem in those days that every man was his own architect." Stanford also is reported to have made his own brick, which could explain why the building, complete with an eagle over the front door, wasn't finished until 1812. Nevertheless, Stanford was paid in full, plus an additional $125 for "extras," including $20 for the eagle, something Stanford apparently could not make himself on July 6, 1812."

Articles appeared in 1999 in "The Augusta Chronicle" about the Columbia County Courthouse: In 1856, David Stanford's courthouse was retained as the "core" of a new courthouse designed by John Trowbridge, though there appears to be a conflict in the records as the extent of the new (1856) vs. the old (1812) building.

David's obituary appeared in the "Christian Index", a Baptist newspaper, 4 Jan 1849 (Page 7, Col. 1) and in the "Augusta Chronicle" newspaper on 16 Dec 1848, as follows: "Died At his residence, in Columbia county. on Tuesday evening the 5th inst., after a protracted paralytical affection, David Stanford, Esq., aged 79 years-----For more than forty years a prominent and influential member of the Baptist Church; and combining in his character, those ennobling virtues which adorns human nature."

The Payout record for David's estate is dated 27 Mar 1852 and includes the following:

1. George A. P. Whitfield: 1 full share ( the same as giving to David's daughter Sarah, Whitefield's wife)

2. David: 1 full share 3. Thomas: 1 full share 3. James: 1 full share 4. Samuel: 1 full share 5. Martha Young: 1/5 of a share(Martha was Mary Stanford Young's daughter) 6. Mary Ann Young: 1/5 of a share (Mary was Mary Stanford Young's daughter) 7. John F. Young: 1/5 plus interest on amount retained until he arrived at Georgia. (David's daughter Mary was John Young's wife until her death about 1838.) 8. Edward Dorsey: 1 full share retained for self as legater( the same as giving to David's daughter Martha, Edward Dorsey's wife )

Mary and John Fletcher Young's youngest daughter Virginia is not mentioned in this record and may have died by this time.

Sarah's birth year is listed in a Stanford family Bible in the possession of Johnny Stevens. We do not know where she was born, but most probably in Georgia.

Children of David "Deacon David" Stanford and Sarah Upton:

- 56     i.    Mary Stanford, born 12 Dec 1803, in Columbia County, Georgia, died about 1838, in Columbia County, Georgia.
- 57     ii.   David Stanford, Jr., born about 1804, died after 1870, in Alabama.
- iii.   Sarah Elizabeth Stanford, born about 1805, in Columbia County, Georgia, died after 1870, in Columbia County, Georgia. She married George A.P. Whitfield 31 Aug 1837, in Columbia County, Georgia. George A.P. Whitfield was born about 1792, in Georgia, died after 1870, in Columbia County, Georgia.

Sarah and George had at least 5 children.

The 1850 and 1870 census lists George and Sarah Whitfield living in Columbia County, Georgia, where George is a farmer.

This was George's second marriage...we have no information about his first marriage.

- 58     iv.   James W. Stanford, born 1808, in Appling, Columbia, Georgia, died between Jul 1864 and Aug 1864, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.
- v.    Thomas Stanford, born 3 Jul 1809, died after 1852.

Thomas' birth date is listed in a Stanford family Bible in the possession of Jane McGill. However, this same Bible lists his date of death as 1 Aug 1836. But, since Thomas is named in his father's will and the payout record in 1852, so evidently he was alive then.

In the 1832 Georgia land lottery, both a David Stanford and a Thomas Stanford, listed as living in Walker's Georgia Militia District drew winning lots. This was probably our David and his son Thomas (who would have been 23 at the time).

He does not appear in the 1840 or 1850 census.

There is a marriage record in Columbia County, Georgia for a Thomas Stanford and Mary C. Wade dated 15 Mar 1858. This may have been our Thomas.

- vi. Martha Stanford, born about 1812, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 20 Mar 1875, in Columbia County, Georgia. She married Edward Dorsey 2 Jan 1834, in Columbia County, Georgia. Edward Dorsey was born 11 Jun 1802, in Georgia, died 16 Feb 1866, in Columbia County, Georgia.

The 1850 census lists the family living in Columbia County, Georgia and includes Edward Dorsey (48, planter), his wife Martha (38), and 5 children.

In 1860, the census finds the family living near Eubanks in Columbia County, Georgia and lists Edward Dorsey (58, planter), Martha Dorsey (48), and their children.

In 1870, Martha (58) is found living in District 129, Columbia County, Georgia with her children.

- 59 vii. Samuel Stanford, born between 1815 and 1817, in Columbia County, Georgia, died Oct 1864, in Monroe County, Georgia.

The 1805 Tax List for District 9, Capt. David Langston's District, Columbia County, Georgia lists "Wm. Stanford."

In 1817, William Stanford is listed as a new member of the Ramah Primitive Baptist Church in Wilkinson County, Georgia.

The William Stanford listed in the 1820 census for Oglethorpe County, Georgia is probably our William. This record lists 1M<10 [?], 1M 16-18 [Jonathan.], 1M 18-26 [John R.], 1M 26-45 [William], 4F<10 [Rachel, Sarah, Eleanor, and Rebecca], 2F 10-16 [Mary and Anna], and 1F 26-45 [Elender].

A plat was made for William Stanford for 190 acres in Columbia County, Georgia on 15 Sep 1816 and recorded on 25 Oct 1816. This tract was adjacent to land owned by the Harrison family. We know that Elender died in Columbia County, so the family was probably living on this tract at the time.

William was also one of the "Fortunate Drawers" in the 1827 Georgia Land Lottery, drawing Lot No.

203, District 15, Capt. Moss's District, Lee County, Georgia.

We know that William died before 6 Mar 1837 because on that date, as recorded in "Warren County Record Book C, 1833-1855", Dorcas was appointed guardian of Martha Stanford, Phereby Stanford, David Stanford, and Ester Stanford, "orphans of William Stanford." From other records, we know that William's estate was distributed to his heirs on 25 Feb 1839.

Nellie was the daughter of George Ray Jr. (b. abt 1740, d. 1804 in Columbia County, Georgia), a Revolutionary Hero in Georgia, and his first wife, whose name is unknown.

Dorcas was probably the daughter of Henry Castleberry (1760-c1830) and his first wife, whose name is unknown. Henry is listed on the pay roll of Capt. John Hill's Co. of Militia at Fort Martin, 1792, along with his father John Castleberry. He was a private. ["Georgia Citizens and Soldiers of the American Revolution", Rev. S Emmett Lucas, Jr., editor, 1979, pp 94-95.] The 1794 and 1801 tax rolls list Henry Castleberry living in Capt. David Neals' district of Warren County, Georgia. After his first wife's death, Henry remarried to Millie LNU about 1800 and evidently moved to Wilkinson County, Georgia where he was a founding member of the Ramah Primitive Baptist Church in 1809. Church records for 1817 list William Stanford and Dorcas Castleberry, Henry's daughter, as new members. In the 1820 census we find Henry Castleberry living with his son and daughter-in-law Henry Jr. and Mourning Castleberry in Telefair County, Georgia. In 1830, Henry is listed living with the family in Lowndes County, Georgia, but evidently he died before 1840. [Henry Castleberry, Jr. died in Lowndes County in 1838 and his wife Mourning is found living there as head of household in the 1840 census.]

On 6 Mar 1837, as recorded in "Warren County Record Book C, 1833-1855", Dorcas was appointed guardian of Martha Stanford, Phereby Stanford, David Stanford, and Esther Stanford, "orphans of William Stanford".

The 1840 census lists Dorcas as head of the family living in Rylands District of Warren County, Georgia. The census record lists 1M 5-10 [David], 1M 15-20 [William Winder?], 1F 5-10 [Esther], 2F 10-15 [Martha and Phereby], and 1F 40-50 [Dorcas].

The 1850 census lists the family in Division 90, Warren, Georgia with Dorcas (56), David (19), and Esther (17). The 1850 Slave Census indicates that Dorcas owned 1 slave.

On 5 Feb 1851, Warren County records list "Stanford, Dorcas [guardian] for Stanford, Feriba [Phereby], her daughter otherwise Thompson, Feriba [Phereby]".

Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia resident W.D. Wilson kept a diary of community events from 1851 to 1865 (published by the "McDuffie Progress" newspaper in 1910) that indicates that Dorcas died on 18 Jan 1853.

Children of William Stanford and Ellender "Nellie" Ray:

- 60      i.    John R. Stanford, born about 1804, in Warren County, Georgia, died before 1872, in Giles, Washington, Georgia.
- ii.    GNU Stanford, born between 1811 and 1820, in Georgia.
- iii.    Mary Stanford, born between 1804 and 1809, in Warren County, Georgia, died after 1870, in Richmond County, Georgia. She married Jesse McGraw 13 Nov 1825, in Upson/Warren County, Georgia. Jesse McGraw was born about 1800, died 1846 OR 1850, in Georgia.

The 1850 census finds the family living in Division 12, Cass, Georgia. This record lists Mary McGraw (46) and her eight children (the youngest of whom is Jesse, Jr., age 3). Jesse McGraw is not listed and it is assumed that he had died by this time.

In 1870, the census finds Mary McGraw (71) living with her daughter Julia and son-in-law Sampson H. Young in District 123, Richmond, Georgia.

The 1840 lists Jesse McGraw living in District 9, Columbia County, Georgia and includes 2 M 5-9, 1 M 30-39, 2 F <5, 2 F 5-9, 1 F 10-14, and 1 F 30-39.

- iv.    Anna Stanford, born 7 Dec 1808, in Georgia, died after 1850, in Georgia. She married Hugh Montgomery 9 Mar 1830, in Upson County, Georgia. Hugh Montgomery was born 23 Jul 1776, died 20 Jun 1846, in Warren County, Georgia.

The 1850 census finds Anna Montgomery (44), apparently a widow, living with her children in Division 90, Warren, Georgia.

This was Hugh's second marriage: He married Ann Williams on 30 May 1796 in Richmond County, Georgia.

- v.    Rachel Stanford, born between 1810 and 1819, in Georgia. She married William Offutt 26 Feb 1835, in Warren County, Georgia.
- vi.    Sarah Stanford, born between 1810 and 1819, in Georgia, died after 1870, in Warren County, Georgia. She married James O'Tyson 28 Jun 1830, in Warren County, Georgia.

Sarah was one of the daughters of William and Ellender listed in the 1820 census being born between 1810 and 1819. Since she married in 1830, she was probably born 1810/1814.

Her son James enlisted as a Private on 4 Mar 1862 in Company B, 48th Georgia

Infantry Regiment, which surrendered with Lee at Appomattox Court House, Virginia on 9 Apr 1865. His 1903 Indigent Pension application lists his date and place of birth (Jan 1837, Warren County, Georgia).

- 61   vii. Jonathan Stanford, born about 1815, in Georgia, died after 1860, in Sumter County, Georgia.
- viii. Eleanor Stanford, born 6 Jul 1818, in Georgia, died 1 Jul 1883, in Jones County, Georgia, buried 2 Jul 1883, in Old Fortville Cemetery, Jones County, Georgia. She married Samuel W. Anchors 17 Nov 1837, in Upson County, Georgia. Samuel W. Anchors was born 28 Jul 1812, in Maryland (Probably Montgomery County), died 28 Jun 1883, in Jones County, Georgia.

Eleanor and Samuel had 12 children.

The 1840 census for Warren County, Georgia lists Samuel Anchor with his wife (1 female, 20-30) and their first two children [William, b. 1838, and Ann, b. 1840].

Samuel was the son of Samuel Anchors and Anne Harrison.

- ix. Rebecca Stanford, born 29 Aug 1820, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 27 Nov 1863, in Evergreen, Conecuh, Alabama, buried in Near Evergreen, Conecuh, Alabama. She married John Cox Harrison 6 Jan 1839, in Columbia County, Georgia. John Cox Harrison was born 5 Jan 1820, in Warren County, Georgia, died 5 May 1864, in Spotsylvania County, Virginia, buried in Spotsylvania Confederate Cemetery, Spotsylvania County, Virginia.

In the 1850 Federal Census, we find Rebecca and John and their three sons and five daughters, along with John's mother, Abigail, living in Sumpter County, Georgia.

Sometime after 1850, Rebecca, John and their children migrated to Alabama. We believe they first settled in Covington County, Alabama, according to a paper signed by John Cox Harrison on July 19, 1858 as a Trustee of a school district in Covington County. And, it appears that the last 5 of their children, of the total of 13, were born in Covington County, Alabama.

Our next record of them is in Evergreen, Conecuh County, Alabama, where they received a letter from John's brother, Benjamin, from Warren County, Georgia, in which he mentions that Rebecchar's folks are all well.

The rest of the information we have on Rebecca and family is taken from letters written from one family member to another. We know that Rebecca, in 1862, saw her young son, John B., die at age 13. Also in 1862, she saw her husband, two of her sons and son-in-law go off to fight in the Civil War.

On October 20, 1863, her husband wrote to her to see if their neighbor could make him a pair of shoes and to see about sending him some clothes. We believe that he did not know that his wife was very ill, but that he thought he would not survive the war, as he wrote: "If we do not see one another in this world again, we will meet again where there is only happiness and peace and where a husband and wife will not be separated."

Rebecca Stanford Harrison, at the age of 43, died on November 27, 1863, of an unknown illness, at her home in Evergreen, Alabama, without her husband at her side. She is buried near Evergreen, Conecuh, Alabama, but the exact site is lost.

John Harrison came home on leave in December 1863 and arranged guardianships for the minor children. He returned to the War in January, only to be killed the following May.

John was the son of Benjamin Franklin Harrison (d. 10 May 1833) and his wife Abigail Crane.

John Cox Harrison resided at Evergreen, Conecuh Co, Alabama at the start of the Civil War. On 25 September 1863, he was conscripted under the 2nd Conscription Act of the Confederacy. He was assigned to Company A, 61st Alabama Infantry, a unit that was made up of men over 40 and boys under 18 years of age. In 1864, the unit replaced the 26th Alabama Infantry in the Army of North Virginia.

John Cox Harrison was killed on the first day of the Battle of the Wilderness, south of Orange Turnpike. He is one of the over 3,000 Confederate casualties buried in the mass graves at the Confederate Cemetery at Spotsylvania and Fredricksburg.

- 62      x. William Winder Stanford, born between 1823 and 1825, in Georgia, died before 1870, in Georgia.

Children of William Stanford and Dorcas Castleberry:

- i. Martha Stanford, born about 1827, in Georgia, died about 1895, in Georgia. She married Benjamin A. Thompson 7 Jan 1847, in Georgia. Benjamin A. Thompson was born about 1822, in Georgia, died about 1893, in Georgia.

Martha and her sister Phereby married brothers.

In both the 1850 and 1860 census records, we find Benjamin and Martha Thompson living in Warren County, Georgia. In 1880, the family is living in Hancock County, Georgia.

Martha and Benjamin had 6 children

Benjamin was the son of Benjamin A. Thompson (1799-1859) and Martha Morgan (b. abt 1797).

- ii. Phereby Ann Stanford, born about 1830, in Georgia, died Mar 1850, in Militia District 90, Warren, Georgia. Cause of death: child birth. He married Jabez M. Thompson 31 Dec 1848. Jabez M. Thompson was born 1825 OR 1828, in Georgia, died before 1880, in Decatur, DeKalb, Georgia.

Phereby and her sister Martha married brothers.

The 1850 census mortality schedule lists "Falby J. Thompson", 20 years old, dieing in March in Militia District 90, Warren, Georgia, resulting from child birth. This appears to be our Phereby.

Jabez was the son of Benjamin Thompson (1799-1859) and Martha Morgan (b. abt 1797).

The 1850 census, recorded in November of that year, finds Jabez M. Thompson (25, laborer) living in District 90, Warren, Georgia with his father.

One confusing issue is that there were two Jabez M. Thompson's born about the same time...one in Jefferson County, Georgia and ours in (probably) Warren County, Georgia.

Our Warren County, Georgia Jabez married twice after Phereby Ann Stanford's death:

1. Susan Jane Austin (1836-1855) on 8 Apr 1855 in DeKalb County, Georgia. The 1860 census lists J.M. Thompson (33) and Susan J. (23) living in Decatur District, DeKalb, Georgia.

2. Martha A. (1836-1935) before 1870 in DeKalb County, Georgia. The 1870 census lists Jabez M. Thompson (42) and Martha A. (34) living in Decatur, DeKalb, Georgia. In 1880, the census lists Martha A. Thompson (46, widow) living in Decatur, DeKalb, Georgia. Thus, Jabez has died by this date.

The Jefferson County, Georgia Jabez apparently only once to Carolina Minerva Gunn (1830-1870) on 13 Jun 1850 in Warren County, Georgia, where Caroline's parents lived. We find the couple living in District 48, Jefferson, Georgia later that year in the 1850 census and in Georgia Militia District 158, Warren, Georgia in 1860. Most researchers indicate that this Jabez died about 1870.

- 63    iii. David S. Stanford, born about 1831, in Warren County, Georgia, died 1 Jun 1885, in Atlanta, DeKalb, Georgia.
- iv. Esther Stanford, born 20 Aug 1833, in Warren County, Georgia, died 1 Sep 1878, in DeKalb County, Georgia, buried in Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery, Snapfinger, DeKalb, Georgia. She married John A. M. Jackson 15 Jan 1857, in DeKalb County, Georgia. John A. M. Jackson was born 16 Sep 1832, in Georgia, died 27 Dec 1887, in DeKalb County, Georgia, buried in Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery, Snapfinger, DeKalb, Georgia.

Birth and death dates are taken from her gravestone. On her gravestone, her given name is spelled "Easter."

John was the son of Daniel E. Jackson (1796-1869) and Cassandra G. Maddox.

Birth and death dates are taken from his gravestone.

Most of the following information on Thomas and Elizabeth comes from Odessa Stanford Garrison's book (pgs. 286-287) and their obituaries:

Thomas moved from Maryland to Georgia in 1805 or 1806.

The 1820 census lists Thomas Stanford (b before 1775) living in Madden, Hancock, Georgia with his wife (b. 1776/1794) and 5 children. In 1830, we find a Thomas Stanford (b. 1770/1780), his wife (b. 1776/1794), and 5 children living in Hancock County, Georgia. But, it is not confirmed that this is our Thomas in two records.

Thomas moved his family to Culloden, Monroe, Georgia in 1833 and, in 1835, he signed a contract as a trustee for the Culloden Academy and the Culloden Methodist Church in Culloden, Monroe, Georgia. The following is the legislation passed by the Georgia Legislature establishing the academy at Culloden and appointing Thomas Stanford to the Board of Trustees:

"And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Male and Female schools in the village of Cullodenville, in Monroe county, be blended and incorporated under the name and title of the Cullodenville Academy, and that John W. Persons, Enos R. Flewellen, William H. Pritchard, Cullin Locket, Arthur Ginn, James Jones, James Banks, Robert Trippie, Charles Hardy, Thomas Stanford, A. Speer, Newdigate Ousely and John Sweed, and their successors, be, and are hereby appointed Trustees of said Academy, and are constituted a body politic and corporate, with all the rights, powers and privileges incident to their said office of Trustees."

Thomas' obituary stated that he was survived by his wife and four children, but an obit for Elizabeth states that she and Thomas had five children.

The following is the newspaper death notice published in "The Southern Recorder", Milledgeville, Baldwin, Georgia on 10 Sep 1839:

"In Barbour County, Alabama, on August 12th last, Mr. Thomas Stanford of Culloden, Monroe County, Georgia, in his 66th year. He was the son of David and Sara Stanford of Somerset County, Maryland, where he was born on July 9, 1774. Moved in 1805 or 1806 to Georgia, and soon afterwards joined the Methodist Church. Wife and four children survive."

Thomas had not moved to Alabama before 1839...no records of Thomas Stanford in Alabama appear to exist and Elizabeth continued to live in Georgia until her death. Most probably, Thomas was visiting a plantation he owned in Alabama [see information for William Stanford] when he died. Note that Barbour County, Alabama is just across the river from Muscogee County, Georgia.

The "Macon Messenger" newspaper published a notice on 5 Sep 1839 that Elizabeth B. Stanford and Nicholas W. Persons had applied for "Letters of Administration" on the estate of Thomas.

As an interesting aside, on 16 October 2016, Dr. Henry Louis Gates, Jr. and EHGS researcher Katrina Fahy posted an article as part of the "Tracing Your Roots" television series (<http://www.theroot.com/articles/history/2016/10/am-i-related-to-president-andrew-jackson/>) related to an African-American family that may have descended from a slave owned by Thomas Stanford. While not definitive, the research done for this article shows that a link to Thomas J. Stanford, Thomas' son, and ex-President Andrew Jackson of Tennessee may have existed. Information from this website was used by Gates and Fahy for this article.

This was Elizabeth's second marriage...her first husband was Herbert Reynolds.

Elizabeth was the daughter of Elijah Freney (b. Abt. 1753, Somerset County, Maryland, d. 1802, Hancock County, Georgia) and Nancy Caldwell (b. 1760, Delaware).

The following is Elizabeth's obituary published in the "Southern Christian Advocate Obituaries, 1867-78", issue of 3 Dec 1869:

"Mrs. Elizabeth B. Stanford was born in Maryland in 1784. Her maiden name was Freney. She came with her father's family to Georgia at the age of about ten years. She married Herbert Reynolds with whom she lived until she became the mother of six children. She was afterwards married to Thomas Stanford and gave birth to five other children. Out of eleven children, three only survive, viz. Dr. Frank Stanford of Columbus, Ga. [Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia], Mrs. Persons [Anne Elizabeth] of Auburn, Ala., and Mrs. Wesson of Wesson, Mississippi."

Elizabeth was originally buried elsewhere, but was reinterred at Linwood Cemetery, Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia by her son Frank Stanford on 9 Jan 1882.

[An interesting record is presented by the 1860 slave census, in which an Elizabeth Stanford is listed as owner of 9 slaves in Bankston, Choctaw, Mississippi. This was the location of her son Thomas' textile mill and the record may reflect that she had leased-out her slaves to work in the mill. Alternatively, the Elizabeth Stanford listed in this record may be Anne Elizabeth Stanford, Thomas' sister.]

Children of Thomas Stanford and Elizabeth Bradford Freeney:

- i. Anne Elizabeth "Eliza, Liza" Stanford, born 7 Jul 1817, in Milledgeville, Baldwin, Georgia, died 5 Jan 1873, in Auburn, Lee, Alabama, buried in Pine Hill Cemetery, Auburn, Lee, Alabama. She married Nicholas Williams Persons 30 Jan 1833, in Culloden, Monroe, Georgia. Nicholas Williams Persons was born 30 Mar 1806, in Warren County, Georgia, died 6 Feb 1879, in Auburn, Lee, Alabama, buried in Pine Hill Cemetery, Auburn, Lee, Alabama.

The following is taken from "The Person(s) Lineage", George Fuller Walker, p. 127:

"When General La Fayette made his triumphal return to America, he visited Georgia in 1825, and great honors were planned for him at the capital. The children were to scatter flowers in his path from the entrance-gate of the capital grounds to the steps of the capital building. The little boys were to form a line on one side of the walk, and the little girls on the other. Because of her unusual beauty, Ann Eliza Stanford, at that time eight years of age, was chosen to head the line. LaFayette arrived one Sunday during church services, and the news of his approach was greeted with much excitement. The entire congregation came out to give him an ovation, and the children formed lines along the walk, as had been planned. Lafayette seemed touched by this genuine welcome, and when he reached Ann Eliza Stanford, he was so overcome by her charm that he knelt and kissed her."

Anne's marriage ceremony was performed by her father and her brother-in-law, Rev. Charles Hardy. Reportedly, this was an elaborate wedding with a seated dinner for 300 guests.

The couple had 9 children.

Anne and Nicholas remained in Georgia until sometime after 1850, but before 1860...the 1850 census finds them in District 9, Houston, Georgia and the 1860 census lists the family in Northern Division, Macon, Alabama. By 1870, the family was living in Auburn, Lee, Alabama.

A grandson of Anne and Nicholas, Gordon Persons, became governor of Alabama. Another grandson was General Milton Persons.

Nicholas was the son of Turner Persons (born 26 Apr 1766 in Bute County, North Carolina and died 11 Oct 1827 in Warren County, Georgia) and Sarah Williams (born 12 Dec 1774 in North Carolina). Turner was Clerk of the Inferior Court, Justice of the Inferior Court, and wealthy plantation owner.

- ii. Emily Stanford, born about 1820, in Georgia, died 3 Nov 1871, in Wesson, Copiah, Mississippi, buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Jackson, Hinds, Mississippi. She married James Madison Wesson. James Madison Wesson was born 1815, in Rockingham, Rockingham, North Carolina, died 1899, in Bogue Chitto, Lincoln, Mississippi, buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Jackson, Hinds, Mississippi.

At the time of her mother's obituary, this daughter was identified only as Mrs. Wesson, living in Wesson, [Copiah] Mississippi.

The 1870 census lists an Emily Wesson (50, born in Georgia) living with her husband James M. Wesson (50, manufacturer, born in North Carolina) and two of her children, James (21) and Laura (21), both born in Mississippi.

James was the son of Issac Wesson (b. 1778, Virginia) and Tabitha Sabre Seward (b. 1792, Virginia).

James M. Wesson, along with Emily's brother Thomas J. Stanford and other investors from Columbus, Georgia, founded the Mississippi Manufacturing Company in Choctaw County, Mississippi, the first Mississippi textile mill, in 1847. [See entry of Thomas J. Stanford for more detail.]

During the Civil War, Wesson served as "colonel" of the Wesson Artillery of Choctaw County because he funded it. His rank appears to be an honorary since this unit was a "home defense" company commanded by Capt. J. C. Kittrell.

After the Bankston, Choctaw, Mississippi mill was burned in 1864 by Federal troops, Wesson moved to Copiah County, Mississippi, started a new mill, and founded the town of Wesson. There is a widely repeated story that, when Lincoln County was created from parts of several other counties, he refused to allow his namesake town to be made part of Lincoln County [in his mind, a hated Yankee name], threatening to take his valuable cotton mills out of the state if Wesson became part of Lincoln County! His threat worked. Take a look at a map of Copiah County today and you'll see a tiny rectangle hanging down into Lincoln County...that little rectangle is the town of Wesson.

His mill in Wesson was bankrupted in 1871 and he sold out to two businessmen from New Orleans.

James M. Wesson (62) is found in the 1880 census living in Bogue Chitto, Lincoln, Mississippi, listed as a "lumber man".

- iii. Thomas J. Stanford, born between 1820 and 1824, in Georgia, died after 1865, in Georgia or Alabama.

The 1850 census lists T.J. Stanford (30) with his brother F.A. [Frank] in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia. He is listed as "merchant".

Thomas J. Stanford (26) also appears in the 1850 census for Subdivision 23, Choctaw County, Mississippi, listed as "manufacturer" and living in the household of J.W. and Emily Wesson [Emily was his sister]. His brother William Stanford (24) is also living with the family. His near neighbors are listed as J.D. Nance and D. H. Booker, other investors/partners, along with him and J.W. Wesson, in the "Mississippi Manufacturing Company" that established the first textile mill in Mississippi in 1847.

Most of the following information about the "Mississippi Manufacturing Company" is taken from the research entitled A Study of Cotton Mills and the Industrial Revolution by Strickland Narvell:

"Colonel James M. Wesson [whose wife was Emily Stanford, Thomas J. Stanford's sister] was associated with a textile firm in Columbus, Georgia, at that time called the "Lowell of the South," due to the large number of textile mills established there. In 1847, Wesson decided to build a cotton and woolen mill in the back country of northern Mississippi. In January 1847 he, together with David L. Booker, John P. Nance, Richard Ector, and Thomas J. Stanford, all Columbus, Georgia businessmen, organized and chartered the "Mississippi Manufacturing Company" and, before the end of the year, began moving machinery and equipment to a site on the west side of McCurtain's Creek, a tributary to the Big Black River in Choctaw County, Mississippi. There, they established the town of Bankston.

"It was difficult at the time to find native white workers for industrial work, and thus several experienced mill families were imported from Georgia to do the skilled work. The use of Negro slaves was thought to be too expensive, but a few were employed to operate the steam engine and perform other unpleasant assignments. The eighty-horsepower engine actually provided too much power for the textile mill, and the enterprising Colonel Wesson added a flour mill and a gristmill to the textile equipment to utilize the surplus power.

"The Bankston textile mill began operations in December 1848 with twelve workers. It...quickly expanded to include a tannery, a shoe factory, a machine shop, along with other enterprises. By June 1849, the textile mill operated 500 cotton spindles and spun 300 pounds of cotton into yarn and thread daily. During the first few years, the mill operated at a financial loss in the production of cloth but made a small profit on cotton yarn. During this period, Colonel Wesson left the looms idle and concentrated on the production of yarn and thread, along with his other enterprises such as the milling of corn and wheat, until conditions improved in the cloth market.

"By 1855, the difficult years were over and the manufacturing company began to make substantial profits; reporting that year a net profit of $22,000 on a capitalization of $60,000. Over the next three years or by 1858, Historian John Hebron Moore noted that the company's "investment in cotton and woolen machinery alone had reached the sum of $80,000, and an additional $15,500 of the firm's capital was represented by such assets as a gristmill, a flour mill, and numerous buildings comprising the company-owned village of Bankston."

"The critical period came two years later with the nationwide panic of 1857. The Bankston manufacturing company not only survived but prospered during the panic; and then for several years in succession, it paid annual dividends of 37 percent while building up a large reserve fund. In addition to the investors, some eighty-five workers enjoyed the prosperity. While wages were low, the company provided housing and made sure the workers were supplied with products of its several enterprises, shoes, cloth, meat, and flour.

"The Bankston cotton mill became famous as it continued to grow and prosper. By 1860, it had expanded to operate 1,000 cotton spindles, 500 wool spindles, and 20 power looms; indeed, it operated the latest in textile machinery and was regarded as the forerunner in modern cotton manufacturing in the state. Except for the few slaves employed to operate the steam engine, the workers were white; Colonel Wesson, however, recognized that slaves were capable, but he "believed that hired whites were less expensive than either bought or hired slaves."

"The Civil War, unfortunately, was to destroy all of Mississippi's few textile mills. But, because of its isolated location, the Bankston mill survived longer than the others in the state. However, on December 30, 1864, a Federal foraging party, under the command of General Benjamin H. Grierson, raided Bankston and burned the cotton and wool mill, the shoe factory, and the flour mill.

"Much of Bankston was a legitimate military target, for its mills were producing 1,000 yards of cloth and 150 pairs of shoes daily for military purposes. But unfortunately, the foraging party did not restrict its activities to legitimate targets; it not only destroyed the 5,000 yards of cloth, 10,000 pounds of wool, 125 bales of cotton on hand but, in addition, destroyed 10,000 pounds of flour and took the farm animals, horses, cows, pigs, and chickens, leaving the town's people hard pressed to escape starvation.

"Soon after his mill was destroyed by fire, Colonel Wesson set out to establish another. Before the war was over, he and two associates, W. H. Hallam and James Hamilton, selected a wilderness site about forty miles south of Jackson, and in March 1865 the site was incorporated as the town of Wesson. Three years later, the construction of a cotton mill, the Mississippi Manufacturing Company, and seventy-five houses for workers was completed. It was Mississippi's first large mill village; and replacing a wilderness, it was built out of necessity to provide housing for the influx of workers from nearby farms and towns, rather than for the paternalistic reasons later associated with company-owned mill villages in the South.

"The Wesson mill was to become Mississippi's most famous postwar manufacturing plant of any type. Unfortunately, however, abusive practices during the Radical Reconstruction era created major financial problems for Colonel Wesson, and he was forced to step aside before the mill reached its summit. Early in 1871, Mississippi Manufacturing Company went into bankruptcy and receivership, and on February 23, 1871, the company was sold by the receivers to Captain William Oliver and John T. Hardy, New Orleans businessmen. After paying all of his debts, Colonel Wesson, the father of the Mississippi cotton textile industry, quietly retired to nearby Bogue Chitto. Earlier that year, his wife had died, and it is likely, some believe, that her death may have influenced his decision to sell out and retire."

The Bankston mills were located ten miles south of Greensboro, Mississippi. [Greensboro was originally the county seat of Choctaw County, which was formed from territory acquired in the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek in 1833. At that time it was a much larger county taking in what is now all of today's Webster County, the eastern part of Montgomery County, and a portion of Grenada County. The town of Greensboro, which was centrally located, became the county seat of Choctaw County, which was inhabited by settlers primarily from Alabama, Georgia, and South Carolina. In 1872 the county seat was moved from Greensboro to LaGrange. In 1874, Sumner County was formed and Greensboro again became a county seat, but this only lasted until 1876 when the seat was moved to Walthall. Greensboro, which had already begun to deteriorate, rapidly declined. Today the only sign left of its existence is the old Greensboro cemetery.]

Despite periodic reports of large profits by the Mississippi Manufacturing Company, the firm was barely able to meet expenses in the early years, failing to post a profit until 1855. During this lean period it is probable that Thomas and William Stanford left the firm and returned to Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia.

There appears to be no 1860 census record for T.J.

There are listings in the 1864 and 1865 Tax List for Columbus, Georgia for Thos. J. Stanford and for both Thos. J. Stanford and T.J. Stanford Co. The 1865 listing for T.J. Stanford and Co. lists the unpaid tax for "Com. Broker."

- 64      iv. Francis A. "Frank" Stanford, born 1825, in Georgia, died 13 Sep 1885, in Marietta, Cobb, Georgia.
v. William Stanford, born about 1826, in Georgia, died before 1869, in Georgia or Alabama.

We find William (24) living with his brother Thomas J. Stanford in Subdivision 23, Choctaw, Mississippi in the 1850 census. At this time, he was working as a clerk at the textile mill in which his brother had a partnership interest.

Page 4, "The Story of Culloden, A Famous Village in Middle Georgia" by Thomas M. Norwood [published in 1909 by Baird & Hutton, Savannah, Chatham, Georgia] mentions Dr. Frank Stanford and his brother William, who moved to "their plantation in Alabama."

In his mother's obituary in 1869, William is not listed as a living child, so it is probable that he had died by that time.

21. William<sup>4</sup> Stanford (David Vance<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born between 1775 and 1784, in Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland, died between 1840 and 1850, in Gwinnett County, Georgia. He married GNU LNU. GNU LNU was born between 1770 and 1780, in North Carolina, died between 1840 and 1850, in Gwinnett County, Georgia.

From the 1800 census, we know that a son of David and Sarah Stanford was born between 1775 and 1784 (age 16-25 in 1800) in Somerset County, Maryland. We also know that most of David's siblings migrated to Georgia, settling in different parts of northeast Georgia, making the migration about 1800-1805. We also know that David and Sarah's youngest son James migrated to Georgia (he married in Warren County, Georgia in 1810). Thus, we have concluded that the William Stanford who settled in Newton County, Georgia by 1830 may have been another brother not listed by Odessa Stanford Garrison. There is no documentation to support this connection as yet, so research continues.

This may be the William Stanford buried in the Stanford Family Cemetery, Dacula, Gwinnett, Georgia.

Children of William Stanford and GNU LNU:

- 65      i. William Stanford, born between 1800 and 1810, in Newton County, Georgia.

22. James<sup>4</sup> Stanford (David Vance<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born about 1779, in Wicomico, Somerset County, Maryland, died 1850 OR 1852, in Talbot County, Georgia. He married Mary Sarah "Polly" McGee 18 Mar 1810, in Warren County, Georgia. She was the daughter of Reuben McGee and Mary

"Betty" Stanford. Mary Sarah "Polly" McGee was born 30 Jun 1797, died after 1850, in Talbot County, Georgia.

James moved to Georgia from Maryland soon after 1800 and, in 1820, we find James living in Baldwin County, Georgia.

On 13 Dec 1833, James purchased land in Talbot County, Georgia [16th District, LL 283-284] for $1,800 [Talbot County Deed Book 1833-1837 (C-D), page 168] and moved there shortly thereafter.

In 1840, the census finds James Stanford living in Talbot County, Georgia next door to his son J.M. Stanford.

We find James (71), Mary (67), and Temperence (17) in the 1850 census living in District 16 of Talbot County, Georgia, where James is a farmer. The 1850 Slave Census lists James Stanford of Talbot County, Georgia owning 6 slaves.

James Stanford's non-cupative will was made before Miranda Fort, Nathaniel Rains, and E. C. Moyer on 11 Apr 1852 and was probated during the June 1852 term of the Talbot County, Georgia Inferior Court [Minute Book A, p. 211], naming James' widow Mary and children: Sarah R. Stanford, wife of Robert Carson; [James] Monroe Stanford; Temperence Stanford [later the ward of Thomas A. Brown]; and Mary Ann Stanford, wife of William Caraway.

Children of James Stanford and Mary Sarah "Polly" McGee:

- i. Sarah R. Stanford, born about 1810, in Georgia, died 11 Jul 1845, in Georgia, buried in Carsonville Cemetery, Taylor County, Georgia. She married Robert S. Carson 22 Apr 1830, in Baldwin County, Georgia. Robert S. Carson was born 2 May 1806, in Edgefield, Abbeville District, South Carolina, died 1870 OR 1880, in Taylor County, Georgia, buried in Carsonville Cemetery, Taylor County, Georgia.

There seems to be some confusion as to whether Sarah's middle initial was R. or P. ...it is shown both way in records. Her gravestone appears to be engraved "Sarah P. Stanford".

Sarah and Robert had 4 children.

Her death was reported in the "Southern Christian Advocate".

There are no dates on her gravestone. The Casonville Cemetery was once the site of the Carsonville Methodist Church, but the church was discontinued as families moved away in the early 1900s and the building itself was torn down around 1925.

Robert was the son of John Wesley Carson (1760 [Ireland]-1823) and Isabella McGough.

In 1842, Robert deeded 1 acre of land to the Trustees of The Methodist Episcopal Church. This church became the Carsonville Methodist Episcopal Church and Sarah and Robert are buried in the church cemetery. The church was discontinued as families moved away in the early 1900's and the building was demolished around 1925. Robert's mother is also buried here.

After Sarah's death, Robert married Elizabeth G. Patrick (b. 1807, South Carolina) on 10 Mar 1846 in Talbot County, Georgia.

There are no dates on his gravestone.

- ii. Elizabeth Jane Stanford, born about 1812, in Baldwin County, Georgia, died before Jul 1833, in Georgia. She married Frederick Judkins Greene 26 Oct 1831, in Baldwin County, Georgia. Frederick Judkins Greene was born 22 Jan 1806, in Baldwin County, Georgia, died 20 Aug 1885, in Schley County, Georgia.

Evidently Elizabeth died before 25 Jul 1833, the date that her husband married Mary Ann Parham Hill in Jasper County, Georgia.

Frederick was the son of Myles Greene and Elizabeth Hunt.

After Elizabeth's death, Frederick married Mary Ann Parham Hill (b: 20 Aug 1816 in Hillsboro, Jasper, Georgia) on 25 Jul 1833 in Jasper County, Georgia.

It is said Frederick Greene owned many slaves. He helped his son-in-law, Rev. Robert F. Williamson, build the Ellaville Methodist Church, Ellaville, Schley, Georgia by providing two skilled slaves in carpentry to work on the building. He gave each of his children a tract of land at the time of their marriage, usually about 225 acres.

He is shown in the 1870 and 1880 census with his widowed daughter, Sarah Elizabeth Hornady and her family, indicated that his wife Mary died before 1870.

- 66 iii. James Monroe Stanford, born about 1819, in Georgia, died 18 Apr 1870, in Americus, Sumter, Georgia.
- iv. Mary Ann Stanford, born 25 Feb 1825, in Baldwin County, Georgia, died 13 Jul 1856, in Thomaston, Upson, Georgia. She married William "Billy, Uncle Billy" Caraway, II 5 Mar 1843, in Talbot County, Georgia. William "Billy, Uncle Billy" Caraway, II was born 17 May 1816, in Lincoln, Lincoln, Georgia, died 18 Dec 1899, in Thomaston, Upson, Georgia, buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Thomaston, Upson, Georgia.

The surname is spelled Caraway and Carraway interchangeably.

William was the son of John "Job" Caraway and Elizabeth McCorkle.

William served in Captain Brown's Georgia Volunteers during the Indian Wars. During the Civil War, William served as 1st Sergeant, Company K, 3rd Georgia Reserves.

After Mary Ann's death, William married Sebelle F. Harris Adams in Upson County, Georgia in 1857.

- v. Temperance Stanford, born 1834 OR 1835, in Georgia, died after 1880, in Talbot County, Georgia. She married James Lane Fort 15 Dec 1853, in Marion County, Georgia. He was the son of Miranda Fort and Elizabeth Stanford. James Lane Fort was born 7 Jan 1836, in Georgia, died 6 Jul 1886, in Talbot County, Georgia.

After the death of James and Mary Ann, Temperance became the ward of Thomas Brown in Talbot County, Georgia.

Temperance and James had 1 son.

James was a brick mason.

The 1860 census lists the family in Tailbottom, Talbot, Georgia and includes James (28) and Temperance (36).

The 1870 census finds the family in Tailbottom, Talbot, Georgia, listing James (38), Temperance (38), and Stephen (8).

In 1880, the census finds the family in Tailbottom, Talbot, Georgia, and lists James (48) and Temperance (45).

23. Nancy<sup>4</sup> Stanford (David Vance<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born between 1786 and 1790, in Wicomico, Somerset County, Maryland, died before 1810, in Rewastico 100, Somerset County, Maryland. She married John Stanford 19 Apr 1803, in Coventry Parish, Rehobeth, Somerset County, Maryland. He was the son of Thomas Stanford and Amelia "Milla, Milly" Disharoon. John Stanford was born 10 Feb 1780, in Maryland, died before 1818, in Maryland.

Children of Nancy Stanford and John Stanford:

- i. Amelia Stanford, born 1803 OR 1804, in Maryland, died after 1850, in Missouri.
- 67 ii. Thomas Harwood Stanford, born about 1806, in Maryland, died after 1880, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland.
- iii. GNU Stanford, born before 1810, in Maryland.

died before 4 Mar 1846, in Georgia. He married (1) Emily LNU before 1801, in Maryland. He married (2) Sarah "Sally" Todd 20 Mar 1821, in Putnam County, Georgia. Sarah "Sally" Todd was born about 1787, in Georgia, died after 1830, in Georgia. They were divorced before 1833. He married (3) Elizabeth "Eliza" Barnes 31 Aug 1833, in Crawford County, Georgia. Elizabeth "Eliza" Barnes was born between 1770 and 1780.

Levi moved from Maryland to Georgia after 1805, settling first in Oglethorpe County, Georgia, where he is listed in the 1820 census. This record includes 1 M 10-15, 2 M 16-25, 1 M 45+[Levi], 1 F 26-44. From this record, and based on the birth dates of his three children, Levi married in Maryland before 1801, but his wife's surname is unknown. However, she evidently died soon after this census was taken and Levi remarried in 1821.

Evidently, Levi lived in Putnam County, Georgia for a while since he is listed as a resident of that county in the 1821 Georgia Land Lottery in which he was awarded Lot No. 197, District 5, Houston County.

In 1827, Levi Stanford served on the Grand Jury of Crawford County, Georgia.

Levi is listed in the 1830 census for Crawford County, Georgia. The record lists 1 M 5-10, 1 M 50-60 [Levi], 1 F 15-20, and 1 F 50-60 [Sarah].

Crawford County Court Records, February Term 1830, has the following entry: "LEVI M. STANFORD vs SARAH STANFORD Libel for divorce... service of the writ ... has not been perfected upon her. ... that she appear at the next (term) of said court ... GEORGE R. HUNTER, Solicitor for Complainant." Evidently, Levi and Sarah separated in 1830.

Sarah and Levi divorced and he married Elizabeth Barnes in Crawford County, Georgia in 1833 [Marriage Book A-1].

In 1840, Levi Stanford is listed as living in Meriwether County, Georgia and this record lists 1M 60-70 [Levi], 1M 15-20, and 1F 60-70 [Elizabeth].

Researchers have not been able to absolutely identify Sally's parents. She may have been the daughter of John Todd, Jr. (b. abt 1755, d. abt 1815 in Putnam County, Georgia) and John's second wife, Mary. Or, she may have been the daughter of John Todd and his wife Elizabeth of Wilkes County, Georgia.

Children of Levi M. Stanford and Emily LNU:

- 68      i. Joshua Tallie Stanford, born 19 Apr 1801, in Maryland, died 8 Oct 1881, in Petteway, Robertson, Texas.
- ii. Levi M. Stanford, Jr., born 1803, in Maryland, died Mar 1846, in Petteway, Robertson, Texas, buried in Heards Prairie - Petteway Cemetery (Post Oak Cemetery), Bremond, Robertson, Texas. He married Joice "Joicy" Cobb 26 Feb 1828, in Houston County, Georgia. Joice "Joicy" Cobb was born 1800 OR 1810, in Georgia.

In the 1830 census, the family is listed living in Meriwether County and includes 1 M < 5, 1 M 5-10, 1 M 20-30 [Levi], 1 F <5, 1 F 5-10, and 1 F 20-30 [Wife].

- 69      iii. Isaac T. Stanford, born about 1805, in Maryland, died 24 Apr 1885, in Jackson Parish, Louisiana.

Children of Levi M. Stanford and Sarah "Sally" Todd:

- 70      i. Benjamin Stanford, born after 1821, in Meriwether County, Georgia, died after 1880, in Bradley County, Arkansas.
71      ii. John C. Stanford, born after 1821, in Georgia, died before 1857, in Georgia.

Various sources assign different middle names or initials to John. While the "R" is commonly used, the initial "F" and the name "Francis" is also encountered. We do not know which is correct, if any. Some researchers seem to feel that both are correct, assigning him the name "John Francis R. Stanford." No documentation has been found that John Stanford used a middle name or middle initial. This includes his Bible record, census records, records made by his children, including his son, John Stanford, Jr., military records, and his own signature.

The dates of birth for John, his wife, and their children are recorded in the Bible of John Stanford [Senior], printed in 1832 for the Methodist Episcopal Church. Certified copies of the pages from this Bible recording family events were made in 1972 and distributed to family researchers. [The data from this Bible, and additional research for this family line, was kindly provided by Jerry D. Heitzmann, a John Stanford descendant who lives in Diamondhead, Mississippi.]

John and Delilah moved from Maryland to Georgia soon after marrying and were living there by June 1801 when daughter Matilda was born.

John Stanford is listed as one of the persons entitled to draws during the 1805 Georgia land lottery.

In John's applications for Land Bounty Grants in Mississippi in 1851 and 1859, he states that he served during the War of 1812 as an Ensign in Neal's Company, 3rd Regiment of the Georgia Militia under the command of Col. Ignatius Few. He stated that joined the Militia on 1 Sep 1814 at Warrenton, Warren, Georgia and was discharged on 10 Mar 1815 at Waynesboro, Burke, Georgia. [Land Bounty Application 301-760, 18 May 1851 and Land Bounty Application 301-764, 18 Jun 1859.]

Based on the dates and places of birth of his children listed in various census records, it appears that John and his family moved to Mississippi about 1815 since we know that his son, John Jr., was born in Georgia in 1814 and his daughter Delilah was born in 1816 in Mississippi.

In 1820, the census for Hancock County, Mississippi lists the family of "John Stamford," who is probably our John. This record includes 3 M <10 [Noah, John, Joshua], 1 M 10-15 [James], 3 M 16-25 [perhaps his sons-in-law Thomas Baxter, John Entekin, and John Mitchell], 1 M 45 or older [John], 1 F ,10 [Delilah], 2 F 10-15 [Mary, Lavina], 2 F 16-25 [there were actually 3 females in this age range, Nancy Ellen, Matilda, and Letita], and 1 F 26-44 [Delilah].

The 1830 census lists John Stanford living in Marion County, Mississippi and includes 1 M < 5 [?], 1 M 10-15 [Joshua], 2 M 15-20 [John Jr. and Noah], 1 M 50-60 [John], 1 F 10-15 [Delilah], and 1 F 50-60 [Delilah].

In 1840, the census lists John Stanford living in Marion County, Mississippi and includes 1 M 10-15 [?], 1 M 20-30 [Joshua], 1 M 60-70 [John], 1 F 20-30 [Delilah], and 1 F 60-70 [Delilah].

John (72, farmer) and his family are found in the 1850 Marion County, Mississippi census. Aside from Delilah (71), the household record includes son Joshua (age 28), his wife "M.A." (26) and their two children, E. Stanford (age 6) and Jos. Stanford (age 4).

Robert J. Baxter, a John Stanford descendant through John and Delilah's eldest daughter Nancy Ellen Stanford, reports that, based on family stories, John and Delilah are buried at the Howard Cemetery near Baxterville, Lamar, Mississippi. Karen Hawthorn reports on Find A Grave website that there are two metal [cast iron] markers next to the cemetery fence that mark the graves of unidentified Stanfords. Some researchers think these are the graves of Joshua Stanford and Mary A. Murphey, while others think these are the graves of John Stanford and Delilah Rourk...both opinions are yet unsubstantiated.

Notes for family of John Stanford and Delilah Ruark: Some Ruark family researchers report that Delilah was the daughter of John Hezekiah Ruark (b. abt. 1750 in Worchester County, Maryland) and his wife Mary Elizabeth (surname unknown).

The spelling of Delilah's surname varies widely in records and includes Ruark, Rourk, Rook, Rooke, etc.

Children of John Stanford and Delilah Ruark:

- i. Nancy Ellen Stanford, born 20 Aug 1799, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 24 Jan 1872, in Marion County, Mississippi. She married Thomas W. Baxter 22 Jan 1820, in Marion County, Mississippi. Thomas W. Baxter was born 4 Mar 1802, died 17 Jul 1836, in Marion County, Mississippi, buried in Big Thick Plantation, Franklinton, Louisiana.

Nancy and Thomas had 11 children, evidently all born in Mississippi.

Thomas was the son of Theophilus Baxter and his wife Mary, who moved to Mississippi sometime before his death in 1812/1819. Thomas may have been born in either Mississippi or Louisiana (West Feliciana Parish). Thomas was a cattleman and legend has it that he died when his horse stepped in a hole and fell while he was driving cattle near Franklinton, Louisiana.

- ii. Matilda Stanford, born 6 Jul 1801, in Warren County, Georgia, died 3 Apr 1870, in Jackson County, Mississippi, buried in Jackson County, Mississippi. She married John Bryant Entrekin 1819, in Hancock County, Mississippi. John Bryant Entrekin was born about 1801, in Georgia, died 3 Apr 1870, in Jackson County, Mississippi, buried in Jackson County, Mississippi.

Matilda and John had 11 children.

Matilda may be buried at the abandoned Community [Entrekin] Cemetery, Quave Road, Vancleave, Jackson, Mississippi.

John was the son of William W. Entrekin (1762-1842) and Rachel Bryant (1771-1826).

- iii. Letitia Stanford, born 8 Mar 1803, in Warren County, Georgia, died 17 Oct 1821, in Marion County, Mississippi.
- iv. Mary Stanford, born 6 Aug 1805, in Warren County, Georgia, died 23 Mar 1829, in Mississippi. She married John Hadson Mitchell.

Mary and John had one son, John W. Mitchell, b. 30 Mar 1827.

- v. James Stanford, born 31 Jul 1808, in Warren County, Georgia, died 3 Dec 1821, in Mississippi. He married Mary Ann McGee in Mississippi.

Some researchers indicate that James died in Jackson, Rankin, Mississippi in 1821. However, these same researchers indicate that James married Mary Ann McGee. In 1821, James would have been 13 years old, so there is no way he could have been married if he died that year.

No documentation of James' life has yet been found.

- vi. Lavina "Vina" Stanford, born 16 Jul 1810, in Warren County, Georgia, died after 1866, in Marion County, Mississippi. She married Jesse Cameron before 1827, in Mississippi. Jesse Cameron was born about 1800, in South Carolina, died after 1866, in Mississippi.

Lavina and Jesse had 13 children.

Many researchers find that Jesse was the son of Lavender Cameron (b. abt 1770) and his wife Hester Ford (1770-1831). However, no documentation of this has yet been found.

At least one researcher states that Lavender Cameron and his family left South Carolina in 1807 to move to Mississippi. However, this is undocumented and no record of Lavender or Hester Cameron is found in the 1820 Mississippi census.

The census records of 1840 and 1860 indicate that Jesse was born in 1799 or 1800. The census record of 1860 indicates that he was born in 1789.

Jesse and Vina's first child that survived until adulthood (Elizabeth Cameron) was born in about 1827, indicating that that Jesse and Vina married before that date.

The 1866 Mississippi State Census lists Jesse Cameron in Marion County. This record includes 1 M 60-69 [Jesse] and 1 F 50-59 [Lavina], along with 3 M less than 10, 2 F less than 10, and 2 males 10-19, all of who may be children [William and James, born 1850 and 1852, respectively] and grandchildren.

72    vii. Noah Stanford, born 30 Sep 1812, in Warren County, Georgia, died 1867, in Gainesville, Hancock, Mississippi.

73    viii. John Stanford, Jr., born 10 Jul 1814, in Warren County, Georgia, died 7 Apr 1861, in Pike County, Mississippi.

ix. Delilah Stanford, born 6 Aug 1816, in Mississippi, died after 1870, in Harrison County, Mississippi. She married Allen Hudson 4 Feb 1844, in Marion County, Mississippi. Allen Hudson was born 23 Jan 1805, in Woodford County, Kentucky, died 27 Feb 1879, in Woodford County, Kentucky.

Delilah was Allen's second wife. Delilah and Allen had 8 children.

The 1870 census finds the family living in Beat 3, Harrison County, Mississippi.

This was Allen's second marriage...he married Frances Rulner Ann Flaherty in 1827 and the couple had 7 children.

74    x. Joshua Stanford, born 25 Jan 1819, in Mississippi, died 1890, in Marion County, Mississippi.

xi. Joseph Stanford, born 2 Aug 1820, in Mississippi, died 21 Mar 1826, in Mississippi.

Based on the fact that all census records indicate that their children were born in Georgia, Joshua and Susan settled in Georgia before 1805.

The family may have moved to Oglethorpe County, Georgia around 1810, before moving to Columbia County, Georgia. The 1820 census for Oglethorpe County lists a Joshua Stanford with 11 persons living in the household [the record is so degraded that the ages cannot be determined].

An 1820 census record for Joshua Stanford [transcribed as "Hanford" on Ancestry.com] is found in Benjamin Watson's District of Columbia County, Georgia. This record lists 10 persons, including Males - Under 10: 3; Males - 10 thru 15: 2; Males - 26 thru 44: 1 [Joshua]; Females - Under 10: 1; Females - 10 thru 15: 1; Females - 16 thru 25: 1; and 26 thru 44: 1 [Susan]. The record includes 9 slaves.

Either, or both of these census records may be for our Joshua. In any event, based on the fact that Susan died in Columbia County in 1823, the move to Columbia County must have been made between 1820 and 1823. The list of children in both of these records does not match exactly the known children of Joshua and Susan, indicating that there may some unknown to us who died before 1836.

Joshua received two awards under the 1821 Georgia Land Grant: Lot No. 140, District 3 and Lot No. 192, District 3, both in Dooly County, Georgia.

The 1830 census finds Joshua Stanford in District 9, Columbia County, Georgia. This record lists 1 male (10-15), 1 male (15-20), 1 male (50-60), 1 female (15-20), and one female (30-40). The older female is probably Louisa Johnson, Joshua's second wife.

Joshua's will, written on 10 Nov 1836, was recorded in Will Book W., Page 382, Columbia County on 24 Dec 1836. Named in the will are his wife Louisa and children Mariah Farr, Harriet Harris, Perry [Oliver], David P., Daniel, and Jephtha. While none of the children from his second marriage are mentioned in the will, it does state that all of his land and sixteen slaves are to be "...divided among my minor children as they come of age." At the time, all four of his children with Louisa were minors.

Sukey was the daughter of Willin McIntyre.

On 3 Jul 1837, Louisa was assigned guardianship for ophans Thomas F. Stanford, Joseph T. Stanford, Auren W. Stanford, and Susan A.E. Stanford.

On 6 Nov 1838, guardianship for orphans Floyd, Joseph, Orrin, and Ann Elizabeth Stanford was assigned to Jefferson S. Briscoe, which indicates that Mary had died by that date. On 1 Mar 1847, guardianship for Joseph T. was assigned to David P. Stanford. And, on 5 Mar 1849, guardianship for Auren W. Stanford was assigned to Erasmus J. Dozier.

Children of Joshua Stanford, Jr. and Susan "Sukey" McIntyre:

- 75      i.    Daniel Stanford, born about 1805, in Georgia, died 15 Jan 1877, in Polk County, Florida.
- 76      ii.   Jephtha McIntyre Stanford, born about 1807, in Georgia, died 2 Sep 1868, in Quitman County, Georgia.

- iii. Maria(h) A. M. "Mariah" Stanford, born 15 Jan 1807, in Georgia, died about 1857, in Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia. She married William Farr 6 Nov 1828, in Columbia County, Georgia. William Farr was born 7 May 1799, in Warren County, Georgia, died 23 Jan 1885, in McDuffie County, Georgia.

William was the son of John Farr (1760-1858) and Polly Brooks (1769-1819).

William married Polly Newson on 6 Oct 1822 in Warren County, Georgia. Evidently Polly died and he married Mariah in 1828. After Mariah's death, William may have married Mary McDonald on 10 Jun 1857 in Columbia County, Georgia.

- 77 iv. David Porter Stanford, born 6 Oct 1813, in Georgia, died 25 May 1870, in Columbia County, Georgia.
- v. Harriet Matilda Stanford, born about 1815, in Georgia, died about 1841, in Georgia or Alabama. She married John B. Harris 29 Jul 1831, in Columbia County, Georgia. John B. Harris was born about 1810, in Georgia, died about 1869, in Bear Creek, Sevier, Arkansas.

We know that John B. Harris moved to Alabama before 1842, but there are no records yet found that document whether Harriet died there or in Georgia.

John remarried in May 1842 to Jane A. Robinson in Chambers County, Alabama and the family moved to Arkansas prior to 1850.

John married Sarah A. Simonds on 28 Jul 1856 in Jefferson County, Arkansas.

- 78 vi. John served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War.
- Oliver Hazard Perry "Perry" Stanford, born Apr 1817, in Columbia County, Georgia, died before 3 Mar 1863, in Stewart County, Georgia.

Children of Joshua Stanford, Jr. and Louisa Johnson:

- 79 i. Thomas Floyd Stanford, born about 1825, in Columbia County, Georgia, died between 1855 and 1860, in Georgia.
- ii. Joseph T. Stanford, born about 1826, in Columbia County, Georgia, died after 1847.

The 1850 census for Warren County, Division 90, lists a Joseph Stanford, age 24, as a boarder in Dwelling 389. In this record, the value of real estate he owned is listed as $1,000. In the 1850 Georgia tax lists, Joseph T. Stanford is listed living in District 425 of Warren County, Georgia and owning 8 slaves. It is unknown if these records are for the same Joseph Stanford and/or for this Joseph Stanford.

On 6 Nov 1838, guardianship for orphans Floyd, Joseph, Orrin, and Ann Elizabeth Stanford was assigned to Jefferson S. Briscoe, which indicates that Mary had died by that date. On 1 Mar 1847, guardianship for Joseph T. was assigned to David P. Stanford, his step-brother.

- 80     iii. Auren W. Stanford, born 6 Nov 1832, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 5 Sep 1884, in Camden County, Mississippi.
- iv. Susan Ann Elizabeth "Annie" Stanford, born 13 Aug 1835, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 16 Jan 1903, in Georgia, buried in Union Methodist Church Cemetery, Quitman County, Georgia. She married Lewis Elisha Holloman 14 Dec 1849, in Upson or Warren County, Georgia. Lewis Elisha Holloman was born 11 Oct 1825, in Warren County, Georgia, died 9 Sep 1863, in Civil War.

Annie's dates of birth and death are those engraved on her gravestone.

On 6 Nov 1838, guardianship for orphans Floyd, Joseph, Orrin, and Ann Elizabeth Stanford was assigned to Jefferson S. Briscoe, which indicates that Mary had died by that date.

In the 1850 census, Susan (16) and Lewis (25) are living in Division 90, Warren, Georgia with their first child John T. (1). The 1860 census finds the couple living in District 1197, Quitman, Georgia and includes Susan A.E. Stanford (25), Louis (26), and 7 children.

It is obvious from these census records that Susan was born about 1834/1835, making her 14/15 years old when she and Lewis married.

Lewis' dates of birth and death are those engraved on his gravestone.

Leven moved to Georgia with his parents sometime around 1810.

In the 1820 census, Leven is living in Capt. John Tomlinson's District of Putnam County, Georgia. He is found in Putnam County, Georgia in the census of 1830 and 1840.

The area of Putnam County where Leven settled became known as "Stanford's Crossroads" (or "Hell's Half Acre" or "Devil's Half-Acre"), near the modern town of Eatonton. In 1836, the name was changed from "Stanford's Crossroads" to "Stanfordville" and a post office was established there. It appears on a map as early as 1839. Today, the town is extinct.

The 1850 Slave Census lists Leven Stanford living in Putnam County, Georgia and owning 16 slaves. The 1850 "Agricultural Census" lists Leven Stanford living in District 70, Putnam, Georgia with 250 acres of improved land and 250 acres unimproved.

The following is from "The Indian Spring Echo" newspaper, Indian Springs, Butts, Georgia, Volume III, Number 8, May 27, 1875:

"ON THE WING FROM BUTTS TO PUTNAM Harmon M. Edge, Editor and Proprietor

"We...took the road for "Devil's Half-Acre" in Putnam county. We soon arrived at that noted little town known as "Devil's Half-Acre" or Stanfordville. We found the village almost vanished...most of the houses had either been moved off, or burned down. Where there used to be four or five flourishing stores, there is now but one, and there are but one or two dwellings in the once town. We learned that it won the name of "Devil's Half Acre" from the fact that its early citizens used to kick up the devil. Generally, we didn't know but what it was because it was such a [hell] of a road to the place, was the reason it was so called."

Children of Leven Stanford and Ellender G. "Nelly" McGee:

- 81     i.   Nehemiah Stanford, born 6 Jun 1805, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 1 Nov 1889, in Murray County, Georgia.
- 82     ii. Nathaniel David "Nathan" Stanford, born 4 Mar 1808, in Warren County, Georgia, died 28 Sep 1871, in Putnam County, Georgia.
- 83     iii. Elizabeth Stanford, born 7 Feb 1810, in Milledgeville, Putnam, Georgia, died 15 Apr 1873, in Georgia.
- iv. Matilda M. Stanford, born 9 Feb 1812, in Warren County, Georgia, died 4 Mar 1887, in Talbot County, Georgia, buried in Talbotton City Cemetery (Old Oak Hill Cemetery), Talbot County, Georgia. She married Henry Callier 10 Oct 1833, in Putnam County, Georgia. Henry Callier was born 9 Dec 1811, died 17 May 1876, in Talbot County, Georgia, buried in Talbotton City Cemetery (Old Oak Hill Cemetery), Talbot County, Georgia.

Matilda and Henry had 8 children, including Newton Milton Callier (1839-1897) who served in Co. B, 32nd Regiment, Georgia Volunteer Infantry and was wounded at Ocean Pond, Florida on 20 Feb 1864.

The following was Matilda's death announcement: "Died - Mrs Matilda Callier, widow of Judge Henry Callier, on Friday last. Born Matilda Stanford in Putnam Co Feb 9, 1812. Judge Callier died 1876."

- 84 v. Joel Stanford, born 30 Jun 1813, in Warren County, Georgia, died before 1860, in Georgia.
- vi. Leah Stanford, born 20 Nov 1815, in Georgia, died 5 Mar 1850, in Putnam County, Georgia, buried in Stanford Cemetery, Stanfordville, Putnam, Georgia.
- vii. Leven Stanford, Jr., born 19 Nov 1817, in Georgia, died Died young, in Georgia.
- 85 viii. Herod King Stanford, born 16 Jul 1819, in Stanfordville, Putnam, Georgia, died 4 Apr 1886, in Waverly Hall, Harris, Georgia.
- ix. Addie Mae Stanford, born 30 Apr 1822, in Georgia, died 21 Dec 1828, in Georgia, buried in Sumach Cumberland Presbyterian Cemetery, Murray County, Georgia.

Two Lazenby children, Ellender and William, and Harriet Deshiell are mentioned in Joshua Stanford's will.

Neither Ellender or her husband John Lazenby appear in the 1860 census and it is assumed they had died by that date.

William may have been born in Maryland. There is a record for George W. Dashiell born in 1779 in Stepney Parish, Somerset, Maryland that may be our William.

The 1830 and 1840 census records the family of John Lazenby living Jasper County, Georgia.

In 1850, the family is living in Jasper County, Georgia. This record includes John Lazenby [spelled Lazzenby] (60, farmer) and his wife Elender (60), along with five of their children.

Children of Ellender "Nellie" Stanford and George William Dashiell:

- 86 i. Harriet Matilda Dashiell, born 4 Aug 1810, in Warren County, Georgia, died 5 Mar 1864, in Georgia.

29. Joseph<sup>5</sup> Stanford (Stephen<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born about 1769, in Maryland, died 1827, in Warren County, Georgia. He married Margaret LNU. Margaret LNU was born about 1770, in North Carolina, died after 1840, in Georgia.

Stephen Stanford named Joseph Stanford in his will (leaving him $1). In 1806, documents for qualifying "Ann Stanford" (nicknamed Nancy) as executrix of Stephan Stanford's estate were filed in Columbia County, Georgia. These documents include a petition filed by Joseph Stanford to compel conveyance to him by the estate of 75 acres in Columbia. This petition provides further for finding that Joseph was the son of Stephen by his first marriage.

The 1818 Tax List for Harris' District of Warren County, Georgia lists a Joseph Stanford.

We find the family in 1820 living in Capt. Williams' District, Warren County, Georgia. The census record lists 2 M 16-26 (one of whom is aged 16-18) [Isaiah and Christopher], 1 M 26-45 [Joseph], 1 F 16-26, and 1 F 26-45 [Margaret]. In this record, Joseph is listed as "RH", meaning "revolutionary hero", indicating that he fought in the Revolutionary War. But, even at age 45 in 1820, as indicated in the record, he would have been too young in the period 1776-1883 to take part in the conflict. Thus, the record appears to be in error.

Joseph was one of the "Fortunate Drawers" in the Land Lottery of Georgia on March 22, 1827, winning land in Captain Sanders District, Lot No. 120, District 10 of Carroll County, Georgia.

Joseph's will is dated 26 Mar 1827 and was proven on 6 May 1827 in Warren County, Georgia [Warren County, Georgia, "Will Book. B, 1811-29", p. 147 (1811-29)]. In it, he left his wife Margaret land on Little Sweetwater Creek and named his living children, Christopher, Isaiah, and a daughter who married Henry Hand.

We can estimate Maragaet's birth year from the 1830 and 1840 census age ranges...about 1770 is the only date that fits both.

Children of Joseph Stanford and Margaret LNU:

- 87      i. Isaiah Stanford, born between 1790 and 1800, in Maryland, died after 1840, in Georgia.
- ii. GNU Stanford, born between 1801 and 1804, in Maryland. She married Henry Hand. Henry Hand was born between 1795 and 1800.

While Henry has not yet been positively identified, he may have been born on 7 Jul 1797 in Surry County, North Carolina, died after 1840 in Upson County, Georgia. The following records seem to apply:

In 1820, the family of Henry Hand were living in Capt. Benjamin Watson's District, Columbia County, Georgia. There two census records. The first lists 1 male, 16-25 and 1 female, 16-25. The second lists, 1 male 16-25, 1 female 16-25, and 1 male <5.

The 1830 census lists Henry Hand and his family living in District 9, Columbia County, and includes 2 males <5, 1 male 5-9, 1 male 10-14, 1 male 30-39, 1 female <5, 1 female 5-9, and 1 female 20-29.

The census of 1840, lists a Henry Hand family living in District 588, Upson County, Georgia and includes 1 males <5, 2 males 5-9, 1 males 10-14, 1 male 15-19, 1 males 30-39, 1 female 5-9, 1 females 10-14, and 1 female 30-39.

From these two records, assuming the age ranges recorded are correct, we can determine that Henry was born 1795-1801 and his wife was born 1801-1804.

- iii. GNU Stanford, born between 1802 and 1804, in Georgia, died before 26 Mar 1827, in Warren County, Georgia.

This child is not mentioned in Joseph's will of 1826, implying that he died as a baby before that date.

- 88 iv. Christopher Columbus "Kit, Kitt" Stanford, born about 1807, in Georgia, died 11 Aug 1891, in Logan County, Arkansas.

William's middle name may have been "David".

In 1820, the census finds William Stanford's family living in Capt. Benjamin Watson's District, Columbia, Georgia, next door to his mother Nancy Stanford. The record includes Males Under 10: 3; Males 16 thru 25: 1; Females Under 10: 1; and Females 16 thru 25: 1.

In the 1830 census, William D. Stanford is found living in Warren County, Georgia. This record lists Males 5 thru 9: 1; Males 10 thru 14: 2; Males 30 thru 39: 1 [William]; Females Under 5: 3; Females 5 thru 9: 1; Females 15 thru 19: 1; and Females 30 thru 39: 1 [Nancy]. His near neighbors include Jonathan Stanford, William Stanford, Reuben Stanford, and Robert Stanford.

The 1840 census finds William D. Stanford living in District 9, Columbia, Georgia. This record includes Males 5 thru 9: 1; Males 15 thru 19: 1; Males 20 thru 29: 2; Males 40 thru 49: 1 [William]; Males 80 thru 89: 1; Females Under 5: 1; Females 5 thru 9: 1; Females 10 thru 14: 2; Females 15 thru 19: 1; Females 20 thru 29: 1; and Females 40 thru 49: 1 [Nancy]. The record indicates that "Insane and Idiots at Private Charge" 1. Based on the 1850 census, this appears to have been Larkin. The elderly male listed in this record may have been Nancy's father.

William's will is dated July 15, 1843 and was "proved" on March 18, 1844 in Columbia County (Georgia Will Book X, pp 81-82). "Heirs, beloved wife Nancy (Winburn, married Columbia County, July 10 1815) whole estate, with following exceptions, for raising minor children. Daughter Elizabeth Johnson (married James A. Johnson, Columbia County, May 5 1841) Son Nathan W., land in Lee County. Minor daughters, Frances, Olive, Mary and Priscilla to have bed, bed stead and furniture, cow and calf each, as they marry. Minor sons, Larkin, Stephen and William. Exr. T. T. Allen. Witness: Augustus Johnson, Littleberry Barbour, Frances Barbour."

In the 1850 Columbia County, Georgia census, with both parents dead, Frances (age 24), Olive (age 22), Mary (age 20), Priscilla (age 18), and Larkin (age 30) are found living together. The census record has the notation "idiot" beside Larkin's name. Evidently Nancy had died by this time.

Nancy was living when William D. Stanford's will was proved in 1844. However, based on the 1850 census, she appears to have died before that year since Frances (age 24), Olive (age 22), Mary (age 20), Priscilla (age 18), and Larkin (age 30) are found living together in Columbia County, Georgia and Nancy is not included in this record.

Children of William D. Stanford and Nancy Winborn:

- i. Elizabeth L.W. Stanford, born 17 Mar 1816, in Columbia County, Georgia, died Nov 1894, in Warren County, Georgia. She married James Madison Johnson 6 May 1841, in Columbia County, Georgia. James Madison Johnson was born 9 May 1816, in Georgia, died 26 Oct 1860, in Georgia.

In the 1880 census, Elizabeth (64) was a widow living with her daughter Francis E. Goodwin and son-in-law James C. Goodwin in Warren County, Georgia.

James was the son of Howell Johnson (1781-1858) and Sarah Hill (1794-1858).

- ii. Larkin J. B. Stanford, born 1818, in Columbia County, Georgia, died after 1860, in Columbia County, Georgia.

In the 1850 Columbia County census, with both parents dead, Frances (age 24), Olive (age 22), Mary (age 20), Priscilla (age 18), and Larkin (age 30) are found living together. The census record has the notation "idiot" beside Larkin's name...evidently, Larkin had some mental problems. He never married.

In the 1860 census, Larkin (42) is living with his sister Olive and her husband William McGahee.

- 89 iii. Nathan Warren Stanford, born about 1820, in Eubanks, Columbia, Georgia, died after 1880, in Columbia County, Georgia.
- iv. Frances "Fanny, Fannie" Stanford, born 2 Aug 1822, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 22 Jul 1884, in Georgia, buried in Old Mount Vernon Cemetery, Montgomery County, Georgia. She married William McGahee, Jr. after 1850, in Georgia. William McGahee, Jr. was born about 1820, in Georgia, died before 1870, in Columbia County, Georgia, buried in Old Mount Vernon Cemetery, Montgomery County, Georgia.

In the 1850 Columbia County census, with both parents dead, Frances (age 24), Olive (age 22), Mary (age 20), Priscilla (age 18), and Larkin (age 30) are found living together.

Fanny gave birth to three children, one of whom was David Stevens McGahee (b. 15 Oct 1856, d. 22 Feb 1897) whom is found living with John David Stanford's family in Washington County, Georgia in 1870. In the 1870 census, we find Frances (45) living in District 81, Jefferson County, Georgia with her son Frederick S. McGahee (12).

In 1880, the census finds Frances ("Fannie", widow, 57) living with her sons David and Frederick in English, Warren, Georgia.

William was the son of the William McGahee (1783-1873) and his first wife Laney Smith (1783-bet 1850 and 1852). [After the death of his first wife, William, Sr. married Frances' sister Olive.]

- 90      v.      Stephen Stanford, born 1825, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 1883, in Mulberry, Franklin, Arkansas.
- vi.      Olive Stanford, born 12 Apr 1826, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 25 Jan 1905, in McDuffie County, Georgia. She married William H. McGahee 1852, in Columbia County, Georgia. William H. McGahee was born 5 Oct 1782, in North Carolina, died 25 Feb 1873, in Columbia County, Georgia.

In the 1850 Columbia County census, with both parents dead, Frances (age 24), Olive (age 22), Mary (age 20), Priscilla (age 18), and Larkin (age 30) are found living together.

Records show that Olive's husband William H. McGahee had a prior marriage (to Laney Smith on 10 Jun 1801) and was the father of William McGahee, Jr. who married Olive's sister Fannie.

In 1860, the census finds the family living in District 7, Columbia County, Georgia and includes William Magahee (77), Olive Maghee (34), and her 5 children (Laura, Seth, John, Marry, and Sarah) Living with them is L. B. Stanford (42), Olive's brother Larkin who, in the record, is listed as "idiot".

In 1870, William (87) and Olive (43) were living in District 133, Columbia County, Georgia.

Evidently, William died in 1873 and the 1880 census finds Olive (54, widow) living in Dearing, McDuffie, Georgia with her youngest son Daniel.

The last census record for Olive (74) is in 1900, when she is living with her daughter Sarah's family in Mount Auburn, McDuffie, Georgia.

William McGahee was the son of John M. McGahee. The spelling of this surname varies widely in the records as McGahee, Magahee, McGaughey, etc.

- 91     vii.     William Augustus Stanford, born Jan 1830, in Columbia County, Georgia, died Aug 1900, in Sumpter, Bradley, Arkansas.
- viii.     Mary A. Stanford, born about 1830, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 22 Mar 1885, in Warren County, Georgia, buried in Warren County, Georgia. She married Samuel Hall 5 Jun 1862, in Warren County, Georgia. Samuel Hall died 1864, in Civil War, Richmond, Virginia.

In the 1850 Columbia County, Georgia census, with both parents dead, Frances (age 24), Olive (age 22), Mary (age 20), Priscilla (age 18), and Larkin (age 30) are found living together.

The following obit was published in the "Warrenton Clipper" on 25 Mar 1885:

"Hall, Mary A.

"59 years, died 22 Mar 1885. Place of Death: Warren County residence. Place of Burial: Family burial gound, old homestead in Warren County, 2nd wife of Samuel Hall, deceased."

Samuel served in the Confederate army during the Civil War (probably in Company F, 8th Regiment Georgia Calvary) and died of typhoid in hospital in Richmond, Virginia..

- 92     ix.     Priscilla E. A. C. Stanford, born 12 Mar 1834, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 8 Aug 1912, in Montgomery County, Geogia.

While many researchers indicate that Stephen Stanford was born in Newton County, Georgia, there is no documentation of that fact. In the family of John Randolph Stanford, there is a story that Stephen was born in Columbia County, but grew up in Putnam County.

The birth parents of Stephen have not yet been identified. We know from census records that he stated that his father was born in Maryland and his mother was born in North Carolina. DNA analysis clearly proves that Stephen is a descendant of Jonathan Stanford, Sr., thus he is descended from Joseph Stanford of Wicomico County, Maryland, but the exact connection is yet to be established. So, until further research positively identifies his parent(s), the connection to the Stanford family is made here with Stephen as the posthumous son of Stephen Stanford and his second wife Nancy. This connection is pure conjecture, but, while there are several more Stanfords who may have been Stephen's father, this appears to be most logical connection given the more common use of the name Stephen in this family line and the times and places of their both Stephen's and Nancy's births "fit.". Lacking documentation, this connection will serve as a "place holder" as research continues.

In the 1827 Georgia Land Lottery, Stephen Stanford, residing in Walton County, Georgia, drew land in Lee County, Georgia (Lot No. 228, District 23).

From tax records, we know that the Stephen Stanford farm consisted of 50 acres located in the southeast portion of Gwinnett County and 250 acres in Walton County on what is today Luther Wages Road SE, just southeast of the intersection with Jones Phillips Road SE. During the 1980s, clearing for development uncovered three graves on the farm marked with fieldstones, probably Stephen's parents and an unknown child.

Both Gwinnett and Walton counties were formed from lands of the Creek Cession of 1818 and have remained almost unchanged since then.

The tax record defining Stephen's land include the following:

1. 1831 Walton County Property Tax Digest, Capt. Parkes District: 50 acres in Walton County, 250 acres in Hall County. Stephen purchased the land in Hall County by deed recorded on 13 August 1832 from Nicholas Youn of Appling County for $200. The deed however was executed by "Jonathan Stanford of Warren County, GA" for Nicholas Youn. Recorded immediately above this deed was a Power of Attorney executed by Nicholas Youn of Appling County on 17 September 1829 designating "Jonathan Stanford of Warren County" his "lawful attorney" to "sign my name to the deed for a Plat of Land drawn in my name in the Ninth District of Hall County, No. 24."
2. 1834 Walton County Property Tax Digest, Capt. Parkes District: 300 acres.
3. 1864 Tax List for Gwinnett County, Georgia, Harbin's District: Stephen Stanford owned 10 sheep and 3 dogs. He also owned 250 acres, valued at $2,125.00
4. 1872-1875 Gwinnett County Property Tax Digest, Harbin's District: 250 acres.
5. 1877-1882 Walton County Property Tax Digest, Lindly's District: 50 acres.
6. 1880-1883 Gwinnett County Property Tax Digest, Harbin's District: 250 acres.

The 1840 census for Gwinnett County, Georgia lists "Steven" Stanford's family as two males less than 5

[William J. and Hilmon], one male aged 5-10 [Nathan Marion], one male aged 30-40 [Stephen], one male aged 60-70, one female aged 5-10 [Sarah], one female aged 20-30 [Millie], and one female aged 60-70. [The older couple in this record probably Millie's parents. We know from the 1850 census that Nathaniel Harris (79), Millie's father, was living with his daughter Lucinda's family. But this record does not list Susannah Harris, Millie's mother, and no other record from 1850 for her has yet been found.]

The 1850 census finds the family living in Harbins, Gwinnett, Georgia. Stephen is listed as a farmer and the record includes Stephen (45), Matilda (38), Nathan Marion (18), William J. (13), Sarah S. (16), Hilmon Smith (12), Daniel B. (7), J. Brown (4), and John R. (3).

In 1860, the family is found in District 478 of Gwinnett County, Georgia and the record includes Stephen (54), Milly (48) Hilman (22), Daniel (18), James (12), and John (11). Susannah Harris (94), Millie's mother, and Mary Harris (16), Millie's niece, are also living with the family. [It is probable that Millie's father had died by this time.]

The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists Stephen Stanford, 59, farmer, living in Newton County, Georgia.

In 1866, Stephen and Mille joined the Shiloh Primitive Baptist Church.

The 1870 census lists the family living in Gwinnett County, Georgia and includes Stephen Stanford (64, farmer), Milley (58), James (25), John (22), Daniel (27), and Laura (21). Living with the family is grand daughter Nancy Gower (12).

The last census record we have is 1880, which finds Stephen (74) and Millie G. (67) Stanford living together in Harbins, Gwinnett, Georgia. In this census, Stephen lists his father as being born in Maryland and his mother in North Carolina.

Finding records in Gwinnett county is difficult. In an 1871 fire, the courthouse was burned down, destroying most of the early records and deeds. The names and birthdates of Stephen and Millie's children were obtained from three Stanford family Bibles in the possession of Homer Cain and a 1940s transcription from a Stanford Bible that was, at the time, in the possession of John Marshall Stanford of Forsythe County, Georgia.

Millie was the daughter of Nathaniel Harris (1771-Bef 1860) and Susannah Appling (c1766-Aft 1860). In the 1860 census, her mother Susannah Harris (94) is found living with the family in Gwinnett County.

Nancy Guy, a descendant of Stephen Stanford, who has done extensive research on the Harris family finds the following: Nathaniel Harris lived near Stephen Stanford in Parke's District of Walton County in both the 1831 Walton County Tax Digest and in the 1830 census. In the 1830 census Nathaniel has a daughter in his household the correct age to be Millie. She is the only child still home, the rest having married and left. Nathaniel's son Samuel is on the next line. In the 1831 Tax Digest Nathaniel pays taxes on 287 acres in Gwinnett County. This may very well be the land where Stephen and Millie later lived.

In the 1834 Tax Digest, Stephen Stanford pays taxes on 870 acres in "Walton and other counties." This big increase might be explained by his acquiring his father-in-law's land in Gwinnett. The Gwinnett property records for that time were all destroyed by the 1871 fire, so we don't know for sure where the land came from. But, Nathaniel Harris does not show up at all in the 1834 Walton County Tax Digest paying on anything, so he disposed of it somewhere, and then in 1840 Stephen and Nellie live in Gwinnett County and this unidentified older couple lives with them. Several other Harris children move to Gwinnett County and live in Harbin's District near Stephen and Millie, including Samuel, John (who moved first in 1830) and Lucinda Harris Freeman (and her husband, William). Samuel has some sort of break down and is institutionalized in an asylum in Milledgeville, Georgia in 1850 and during that time Stephen Stanford is shown as paying his taxes in Gwinnett County, pretty strong evidence that he is a relative. In 1850, Nathaniel Harris lives with his daughter Lucinda's family. He is 79 at that point and it is probable that, as the parents' health deteriorated, the children may have split them up and passed them around. But, Lucinda died in 1854, so if Nathaniel was still around he probably came back to Millie's. Susannah lived with Millie and Stephen through the 1860 Census along with "Mary Harris" who is Samuel's youngest, daughter, age 16 at the time, who probably helped with her care. This research on the Harris family has now been corroborated by several autosomal DNA matches with this branch of the Harris family and even one with the Applings, through Susannah's sister, Mildred, who is probably the source of Millie's name.

Children of Stephen Stanford and Mildred "Millie" Harris:

- 93      i.    Nathan Marion Stanford, born 3 Mar 1832, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, died 29 Jan 1872, in Oglethorpe County, Georgia.
- ii.   Sara Susan Stanford, born 9 Jan 1834, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, died 3 Sep 1920, in Bay Creek, Gwinnett, Georgia, buried 4 Sep 1920, in Shiloh Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Logansville, Walton, Georgia. She married Abel William D. Gower 17 Aug 1854, in Gwinnett County, Georgia. Abel William D. Gower was born about 1836, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, died 17 Sep 1862, in Civil War, Richmond, Virginia, buried in Hagerstown, Maryland.

Sara and Abel issued a Marriage License on 14 Aug 1854 and were married by David Etheridge, J. P. three days later.

Sara and Abel had 4 children.

In the 1920 census, we find Sarah S. Gower (86, widow) living with her daughter Millie Gower Forester in Decatur, DeKalb, Georgia.

Susan's death certificate lists her name as Sarah Susan Gower, widow of William D. Gower and that she died of apoplexy in the Bay Creek district of Gwinnett County, Georgia. The informant for this record, was S. M. Gower [son Stephen M. Gower], who stated that Sara's father was Sephen "Machlin" and her mother was Milley Harris. This record provides her place of burial.

Abel was the son of Robert M. Gower and Mildred T. Burford.

Abel was the grandson of Revolutionary War veteran Abel Gower.

Abel died while serving in the CSA Army at the defence of Richmond, Virginia at Howards Grove Farm.

- iii. Balsora Stanford, born 26 Mar 1835, in Gwinnett County, Georgia.

- vii. Malcolm Mayes Stanford, born 17 Jan 1841, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, died 27 Jan 1841, in Gwinnett County, Georgia.
- Malcolm's middle name is indicated as "McGee" by some researchers, since Malcolm McGee was Stephen's lifelong friend.
- 96 viii. Daniel B. Stanford, born 9 Jul 1842, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, died 25 Jul 1917, in Gwinnett County, Georgia.
- 97 ix. James Brewer Stanford, born 17 Aug 1845, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, died 19 Aug 1935, in Sevier County, Arkansas.

Reubin Stanford is listed as one of the persons entitled to draws during the 1805 Georgia land lottery.

In the 1820 census, Reuben is living in Capt. Williams' District, Warren County, Georgia and his near neighbors included Joseph Stanford, Robert Stanford, and Jonathan Stanford. The census lists 2 males <5, 2 males 5-10, and 1 male 26-45 [Reuben], 1 female 5-10, and 1 female >45 [Susan].

Reubin received two land grants in the 1821 Georgia Land Lottery: Lot No. 16, District 14, Houston County and Lot No. 67, District 9, Dooly County. In this record, he is listed as a resident of Warren County.

The 1830 census lists Reuben in Warren County, Georgia and his near neighbors included Jonathan Stanford, William Stanford, William D. Stanford, and Robert Stanford. The record lists 1 male 15-20, 1 male 50-60 [Reuben], 1 female 20-30, and 1 female 50-60 [Susan].

In 1840, we find the family living in Lee County, Georgia and the census record lists 1 male 50-60 [Reuben] and 1 female 50-60 [Susan]. Living nearby are their sons Charles and Elijah, both of whom are married by this date.

From these census records, we estimate Reuben's date of birth as about 1785 and Susan's date of birth as about 1780.

In 1850, Jesse is still living in Lee County, Georgia, but there are no records showing Reuben and Susan. It is assumed that they have died by this time.

Susan's maiden surname may have been Trader.

Children of Reuben Stanford and Susan LNU:

- 99      i.    Jesse M. Stanford, born 2 Nov 1805, in Warren County, Georgia, died 15 May 1873, in Americus, Sumter, Georgia.
- ii.   Catherine Stanford, born about 1808, in Warren County, Georgia, died after 1850, in Upson County, Georgia. She married Benjamin Adams 26 Oct 1826, in Warren County, Georgia. Benjamin Adams was born about 1805, in Warren County, Georgia, died about 1847, in Monroe County, Georgia.

Catherine and Ben had 4 children.

The 1850 census lists the family living in District 86, Upson, Georgia and includes Catherine Adams (42), Willy (17), Thena (15), Benjamin F. (9), and Melinda (7). The slave census for 1850 indicates that she owned 3 slaves.

- 100     iii.   Charles "Charlie" Stanford, born about 1813, in Warren County, Georgia, died 27 Jan 1861, in Terrell County, Georgia.
- 101     iv.    Elijah Stanford, born about 1815, in Warren County, Georgia, died between 1870 and 1880, in Sumter County, Georgia.

In 1820, the census lists William Stanford in Election District 2, Worcester County, Maryland. This record lists 1 M born before 1775 [William], 1 M born 1804/1810 [James], 1 M born 1810/1820 [William], 1 F born before 1775 [Elizabeth], 1 F born 1804/1810, and 1 F born 1810/1820 [Mary Ann].

William is listed as "blacksmith".

The 1840 census lists the family in Districts 1/2, Worcester County, Maryland and includes 1 M 60-70 [William], 1 M 30-40, 1 M 20-30, 1 M 10-15, and 1 F 30-40. Evidently, Elizabeth has died by this time.

Elizabeth was probably the sister of Levi Jester (b. abt 1760, Worcester County, Maryland) who moved to Kent County, Delaware in the early 1800s. Many of Levi's descendants moved to Ohio before 1850.

Children of William Stanford and Elizabeth Jester:

- 102     i.    James Stanford, born about 1809, in Worcester County, Maryland, died after 1870, in Worcester County, Maryland.
- ii.    GNU Stanford, born between 1805 and 1810, in Worcester County, Maryland.
- 103     iii.    William D. Stanford, born about 1814, in Worcester County, Maryland, died after 1880, in Snow Hill, Worcester, Maryland.
- iv.    Mary Ann Stanford, born 18 Oct 1819, in Worcester County, Maryland, died 26 Nov 1861, in Somerset County, Maryland, buried in Old School Baptist Church Cemetery, Salisbury, Wicomico, Maryland. She married Rufus K. Truitt 26 May 1846, in Somerset County, Maryland. Rufus K. Truitt was born 27 Nov 1822, in Pittsburg District, Somerset County, Maryland, died 9 Jul 1891, in Salisbury, Wicomico, Maryland, buried in Old School Baptist Church Cemetery, Salisbury, Wicomico, Maryland.

There is specific documentation to link Mary Ann as the daughter of William Stanford and Elizabeth Jester...just a matching of time and place. With further research, this link may change.

Her marriage record to Rufus lists her name as Mary Anna Stanford.

Mary Ann and Rufus had five children.

Rufus started his career as a clerk in a store. Later, he taught school for a while and then established a grocery store, R.K. Truitt Co. before 1864. Still later, he opened a drug store in Salisbury, Wicomico, Maryland with two of his sons.

The 1850 census lists the family living in Salisbury, Somerset, Maryland and includes Rufus (30) and Mary A. Truitt (29).

After Mary's death and sometime before 1865, Rufus married Sallie A. LNU, born Apr 1835 in Delaware. [According to the 1900 census, their only child, Charles R. Truitt, was born Aug 1865 (his gravestone lists 1866 as his birth year).] We find Rufus and Sallie A. Truitt living in Salisbury, Wicomico, Maryland in the 1870 and 1880 census records and Sallie A. Truitt (65, widow) living there with her son in 1900 (she evidently died before 1910 as not later records for her have yet been found).

Rufus' obit states that he was married three times, but that does not appear to be correct. The 1900 census record indicates that Sallie A. Truitt had been married for 15 years, indicating they she and Rufus married in 1885. This, too, appears to be incorrect.

- v. GNU Stanford, born between 1825 and 1830, in Worcester County, Maryland.

Based on census records, we can estimate Benjamin's birth year as about 1791: he is listed in 1820 as being born between 1776 and 1794, between 1781 and 1790 in 1830, before 1792 in the 1837 Mississippi census, and between 1791 and 1800 in 1840.

Based on the ages of his children, it appears he and Nancy married about 1810

A Benjamin Stanford is listed in Warren County, Georgia in 1817.

In 1820, the census lists Benjamin Stanford living in Capt. Williams' District, Warren, Georgia and includes 4 M <10, 1 M 26-44, and 1 F 26-44. [Living in this District at the same time are Joseph, Joshua, Jesse, Robert, Levi, and William Stanford, all descendants of Joseph Stanford of Maryland. It is probable that Benjamin is also a descendant of Joseph Stanford and, based on circumstantial evidence, Jonathan Stanford (1745-1827) appears likely to have been Benjamin's father, though this connection remains unproven and is maintained here simply as "place holder" while research continues.]

Benjamin appears in the 1830 U.S. census in Monroe County, Mississippi. This record lists Benj. Stanford with 3 M 10-15, 1 M 16-19, 1 M 40-49, 2 F under 5, 2 F 5-9, and 1 F 30-39. [A near neighbor of his in this census is a Thomas Stanford, who may be his brother or cousin. A Thomas Stanford purchased 79.62 acres in Township 19N, Range 9E, Section 7, adjacent to land purchased by Benjamin Stanford in 1834, on 27 Feb 1841.

Sometime between 1830 and 1834, Benjamin moved to Choctaw County, Mississippi. Records indicate that he purchased land there in Township 19-N, Range 9-E in 1834. This land is now located in Webster County [created in 1874 from the northern portion of Choctaw County].

Benjamin Stanford appears in the 1837 Mississippi State Census living in Choctaw County, Mississippi. This record lists 2 M over 45, 1 M under 18, 1 F over 16, and 7 F under 16.

The family is listed in the 1840 U. S. census as Benjamin Stanford living in Choctaw County, Mississippi. This record lists 1 M 40-49, 2 F 5-9, 2 F 10-14, 2 F 15-19, and 1 F 40-49.

Benjamin Stanford is listed in the Index to the Mississippi State Census living in Choctaw County in both 1841 and 1845, but no census record is available.

On 10 Sep 1844, Benjamin Stanford purchased an additional 79.61 acres in Choctaw County, now Webster County (Township: 19-N, Range: 9-E, Section: 7), which may land he sold to his son Thomas in 1851. That same day, Benjamin purchased 79.13 acres in Township 17-N, Range 17-E, Section 18 [now in Lowndes County, Mississippi].

There is no 1850 or later census record listing Benjamin Stanford, indicating that he may have died before 1850.

No records for the names of Benjamin's children have yet been found and the connection to Thomas Jefferson Stanford and any other descendant is based on purely circumstantial evidence.

From census records, we know that Benjamin had a total of at least 11 children: 4 males born between 1811 and 1820, all in Georgia; 2 females born between 1821 and 1825 in Georgia; 1 female born between 1821 and 1827 in Georgia or Mississippi; 2 females born between 1826 and 1830 in Georgia or Mississippi; and 2 females born between 1831 and 1835 in Choctaw County, Mississippi. In addition to Thomas Jefferson Stanford, Benjamin may have been the father of any or all of the following:

1. Samuel A. Stanford, b. about 1819 in Georgia, d. after 1870 in Holmes County, Mississippi: We find him in numerous census records, including the 1840 U.S. Census that lists Samuel Stanford living in Attala County; the 1841 Mississippi State Census that lists Samuel Stanford (22) and his wife (18) living in Attala County; the 1850 U.S. Census lists Samuel Stanford and his wife Nancy living in Holmes County, Mississippi; an 1859 U.S. Department of Interior record showing that Samuel Stanford purchased 39.65 acres in Township 17N, Range 2E, Section 20 in Carroll County, Mississippi; and 1860 and 1870 U.S. Census records that list the Samuel Stanford family living on the land they purchased near Blackhawk, Carroll, Mississippi. [An interesting aside is that Samuel and wife had a daughter named Sarah Catherine Stanford who married Joseph Ray (1830-1919). As evidence that Thomas Jefferson Stanford may be Samuel's brother, Thomas also had a daughter name Sarah Catherine Stanford (1857-1860).]

2. Malinda C. Stanford was born about 1831 in Mississippi (the 1850 census lists her place of birth as Tennessee, but all subsequent records show Mississippi). We find her in 1850, at age 19, living with the Franklin M. Phillips family in Holmes County, Mississippi, next door to the family of Samuel A. Stanford. In both 1860 and 1870 U.S. census records, she is found living with the family of William Riley Baker and his wife Martha in Holmes County, Mississippi. Sometime prior to 1880, she married John Ford House (1807-1889) and they are found living in Holmes County, Mississippi that year.

3. Martha Emily Stanford was born on 3 Sep 1833 in Mississippi and died in Holmes County in 1890. In 1850, she was listed living in the household of John and Letitia Nevels in Holmes County, Mississippi, next door to the Samuel A. Stanford family. She married William Riley Baker (1823-1887) and we find the family living in Holmes County, Mississippi in 1860, 1870, and 1880 U.S. census records.

4. A William Stanford and a John Stanford appear in the 1835 Choctaw County Tax List. These may have been adult sons of Benjamin and Nancy who moved with their parents to Choctaw County, Mississippi sometime between 1830 and 1834. A John Stanford purchased 39.96 acres in Choctaw county (Township 19-N, Range 7-E, Section 13) on 27 Feb 1841.

Research, obviously, must continue.

There is a record that Nancy Stanford sold property in Choctaw County, Mississippi (Township 19-E, Range 9-E, Section 7) to William R. Williams in August 1841. This may have been part of the land she and Benjamin purchased in 1834.

Children of Benjamin Stanford and Nancy LNU:

- 104      i.    Thomas Jefferson Stanford, born about 1818, in Georgia, died 16 May 1864, in Resaca, Gordon, Georgia.

We find Jonathan Stanford living in Capt. Benjamin Watson's District of Bulloch County, Georgia in the 1820 census. The record includes 2 M <10, 1 M 16-26, and 1 F 16-26. From this, we can estimate Jonathan's date of birth, but we have no information on the two sons indicated in this record.

There is a Georgia State Supreme Court record of April 1859 of a case involving property (Lot 33, 20th District, Stewart County, Georgia) that Jonathan was granted by the State of Georgia on 7 Dec 1836. The pleadings and ruling make interesting reading.

Jonathan and Nancy were both buried in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia, indicating a connection to that town not yet identified.

Nancy was the daughter of William and Mary Gunby, living in Columbia County, Georgia at the time of her marriage.

The 1840 census finds Nancey Stanford living in Columbia County, Georgia. This record lists 1 F 5-9 [Martha], 1 F 10-14 [Ann], and 1 F 40-49 [Nancy].

In 1850, the census lists Nancy Stanford (55) living in Columbia County, Georgia with her children Ann (20) and Martha (17), along with her mother Mary Gunby (82). Also living with the family are Sarah C. Jones (10) and Mary L. Jones (8) who may be grandchild by a yet unidentified daughter. William Gunby (19, overseer) [nephew?] is also listed.

Children of Jonathan Stanford, III and Nancy Gunby:

- i. GNU Stanford, born 31116, in Georgia.
- ii. GNU Stanford, born 31116, in Georgia.
- 105 iii. James Madison Stanford, born about 1827, in Georgia, died 29 Aug 1865, in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia.
- iv. Martha Stanford, born between 1823 and 1828, in Georgia, died 5 Jun 1905, in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia, buried in Sparta Cemetery, Sparta, Hancock, Georgia. She married Enoch Howell 13 Dec 1849, in Warren County, Georgia. Enoch Howell was born about 1823, in Georgia.

On 5 Jun 1850, Warren County, Georgia, records state "Minor and orphan of Stanford, Johnneythan, Stanford, Martha now Howell; Howell, Enoch, husband; Story, William R., guardian. The 1850 census lists the family living in Division 90, Warren, Georgia and includes Enoch Howell (27, manager) and Martha (22), married within the year. These two records, along with the 1905 obituary, seem to "fit" with this Martha Stanford. But, if so, she and Enoch Howell either were separated before 1860 or Enoch died (which is more probable since no records for Enoch after 1850 have yet been found).

In 1860, the census lists M. Stanford (female, 26) living with the family of James M. Stanford and his wife Elizabeth in Hancock County, Georgia. This is probably Martha Stanford.

The 1880 census lists Martha Stanford (35) and Ann Stanford (37) living together in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia. Both are listed as "dress maker."

In 1900, the census lists Martha Stanford and Anna L. Stanford living together in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia, both listed as "seamstress." [However, the rest of this record is wildly inaccurate...listing their dates of birth as 1858 and 1860, respectively, which is off by 20 years, and that their father was born in Scotland! Evidently, the little old ladies were getting somewhat imaginative.]

Martha's obit, published in the Atlanta Constitution newspaper on 6 Jun 1905 reads as follows:

"Miss Martha Stanford, Sparta, Ga. Miss Martha Stanford of this town, died last evening. leaves two aged and afflicted sisters, Miss Josephine and Miss Ann Stanford. Messrs. Oscar and Gunby Jordan, of Columbus, are her near relatives and Mr. George Young, of Atlanta, who has been at her bedside the past week, is her nephew."

- v. Josephine Stanford, born about 1830, in Georgia, died 26 Feb 1907, in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia, buried in Sparta Cemetery, Sparta, Hancock, Georgia.

Census records indicate Josephine's date of birth from 1828 to 1850, but our "best guess" based on the earlier census records is that she was born about 1830.

The 1860 census finds Josephine Stanford (28) living with John P. Sykes (63) and A.B. Sykes (66), her brother's wife's parents, in Hancock County Georgia.]

In 1870, the census lists Josephine Stanford (40) living with the family of J.W. and E. A. Treadwell, her sister-in-law Elizabeth's family, in District 102, Hancock, Georgia.

The 1880 census lists Josephine Stanford (42) living with the family of J.W. and Elizabeth Treadwell in District 102, Hancock, Georgia.

In 1900, the census lists Josephine Stanford (40) as a roomer with the family of Daniel and Martha B. Furgerson in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia.

Josephine never married.

He obit, published in The Georgian newspaper on 27 Feb 1907, reads as follows:

"Sparta, Ga., Feb 27---At an early hour yesterday Miss Josephine Stanford, one of the oldest and most universally loved and admired residents of Sparta passed away at her home on Broadway Street. She has for months been in very feeble health, which was due to old age, and the end was not unexpected by her friends.

"Miss Stanford was in her 87th year [sic] and has enjoyed until recently unusually good health for a person of her age. She resided with her sister, Miss Anne Stanford, by whom she is survived.

"The funeral will take place this afternoon at the Sparta Cemetery."

- vi. Anne L. Stanford, born 11 Aug 1832, in Georgia, died after Feb 1907, in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia, buried in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia.

The 1880 census lists Martha Stanford (35) and Ann Stanford (37) living together in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia. Both are listed as "dress maker."

In 1900, the census lists Martha Stanford and Anna L. Stanford living together in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia, both listed as "seamstress." [However, the rest of this record is wildly inaccurate...listing their dates of birth as 1858 and 1860, respectively, which is off by 20 years, and that their father was born in Scotland! Evidently, the little old ladies were getting somewhat imaginative.]

Judah was Josiah's second wife.

Judah's aunt was Mary Elizabeth Stanford, who married Reubin McGee, Josiah's brother.

After Josiah's death in 1818, Judith married John Spivey and, in the 1820 census, we find the family living in Bulloch County, Georgia.

In the Court of the Ordinary, Columbia County, Georgia, Judith Spivey brought complaints against Jonathan Stanford, executor of Josiah McGee's will, about the slow pace of probate on 1 Jul 1822 (and again on 20 Aug 1822).

On 5 May 1823, Judith Spivey petitioned this same court to appoint Jonathan Stanford as guardian of "her daughter, Maryan Wright Magee, minor of Josiah Magee". This appointment was made on 1 Sep 1823.

Josiah was the son of David McGee and Mary Maglanary and his brothers included Reuben McGee and David McGee.

This was Josiah's second marriage. He married first about 1788 and had 5 children with his first wife. His first wife may have been Abigail Hobbs.

Josiah's will was signed on 5 Nov 1817 and initially proved on 31 Jan 1818, indicated that he died between those two dates. Johnathan Stanford as named executor and the witnesses were William Stanford and Nancy Stanford.

However, on 6 Apr 1818, Josiah's will was presented for probation in the Court of the Ordinary, Columbia County, Georgia and William, Nancy, and Jonathan Stanford, witnesses to the will, were subpoenaed since John McGee had filed a complaint against the executors of Josiah's will. On 4 May 1818, the Court ruled that the will was valid.

In the 1820 census, we find John Spivey living in Capt. Benjamin Watson's District of Bulloch County, Georgia. The household includes 1 M 16-26 [John], 2 F <10, and 1 F 16-26 [Judith].

Children of Judith Stanford and Josiah McGee:

- i. Mary Ann Wright McGee, born about 1817, in Georgia.

The 1820 census finds the family of Robert Stanford living in Capt. H. Williams' District, Warren County, Georgia and includes 1 M b. 1775 or earlier [Robert], 1 F b. 1775 or earlier [Wife], son b. 1795-1804, 2 daughters b. 1795-1804, and a daughter b. 1805-1810.

In 1830, the census lists the Robert Stanford family living in Warren County, Georgia and includes 2 M b. 1761-1770 [Robert and ?], 1 M b 1791-1800, and 1 F b. 1811-1815. Evidently, Robert's wife had died by this date.

Based on these census records, it appears that Robert was born about 1770.

Elisha Bundon, Richard S. Lazenby, and Benjamin Grande posted a $1,000 bond to serve as Administrators of Robert Stanford's estate in the Warren County Court of the Ordinary on 6 May 1844, indicating that he had died by this time.

Children of Robert Stanford, Jr. and GNU LNU:

- i. GNU Stanford, born between 1791 and 1800, in Warren County, Georgia.
- ii. GNU Stanford, born between 1794 and 1804, in Warren County, Georgia.
- iii. GNU Stanford, born between 1794 and 1804, in Warren County, Georgia.
- iv. GNU Stanford, born between 1811 and 1815, in Warren County, Georgia.

There are no records yet found that identify Elijah's wife or the names of any children he may have had.

There is a land record listing "Elisha A. Stanford, illegit" as one of the Fortunate Drawers in the 1827 Georgia Land Lottery in Capt. Bryans District, Number 106, District 12, Carroll County, Georgia. This may have been our Elijah.

A second land record lists "Elipah Stanford" as one of the Fortunate Drawers in the 1827 Georgia Land Lottery in Capt. Sanders District, Number 201, District 13, Lee County, Georgia. This too may have been our Elijah.

We know that Nathan W. Stanford posted notices in the "August Chronicle" newspaper in April and June of 1854, serving as administrator of Elijah Stanford's estate. Nathan posted bond as administrator of Elijah's estate on 5 Jun 1854 in Columbia County, Georgia. Elijah and Nathan were first cousins.

The connection to a son named William Elijah Stanford is pure conjecture, based on simply time and place, to provide a link while research continues.

Children of Elijah Stanford and ____ ____:

- 106      i.    William Elijah Stanford, born between 1821 and 1825, in Georgia, died before 1880, in Alabama or Mississippi.

Ellender was the daughter of Mary Stanford and Reuben McGhee.

On her gravestone, her name is spelled "Elender".

Children of Ellender G. "Nelly" McGee and Leven Stanford:

- ix.   Addie Mae Stanford, born 30 Apr 1822, in Georgia, died 21 Dec 1828, in Georgia.

30 Jun 1797, died after 1850, in Talbot County, Georgia. She married James Stanford 18 Mar 1810, in Warren County, Georgia. He was the son of David Vance Stanford and Sarah Leonard. James Stanford was born about 1779, in Wicomico, Somerset County, Maryland, died 1850 OR 1852, in Talbot County, Georgia.

Children of Mary Sarah "Polly" McGee and James Stanford:

- i. Sarah R. Stanford, born about 1810, in Georgia, died 11 Jul 1845, in Georgia.
- ii. Elizabeth Jane Stanford, born about 1812, in Baldwin County, Georgia, died before Jul 1833, in Georgia.
- 66 iii. James Monroe Stanford, born about 1819, in Georgia, died 18 Apr 1870, in Americus, Sumter, Georgia.
- iv. Mary Ann Stanford, born 25 Feb 1825, in Baldwin County, Georgia, died 13 Jul 1856, in Thomaston, Upson, Georgia.
- v. Temperance Stanford, born 1834 OR 1835, in Georgia, died after 1880, in Talbot County, Georgia.

William inherited the plantation "Newberry" after his brother Thomas' death on 17 Jul 1804.

In 1812, William Handy made a legal claim against William Stanford in the Maryland Chancery Court over Newberry.

The 1820 census finds the family living in Election District No. 1, Somerset County, Maryland and lists William Standford with 3 males under 10 (William Smith Handy Wailes Stanford, Issac Handy Wailes Stanford, and Levin Irving Wailes Stanford), 2 males 10-16 (Thomas and Henry), 1 female 10-16 (Ann Elisabeth), and 1 female 26-45 (Leah Handy Wailes). William owned 1 female slave and 3 male slaves at this time.

When William died at the young age of 41 in 1821, Newberry was inherited by his wife Leah.

The plantation Newberry plays an important role in this Stanford line and the following is a chronology of the plantation:

1676: "Newberry" plantation is patented by William Stevens and assigned to Richard Kimball. ("Newberry" is recorded as being located "in Rockawalkin near Mr. Waggaman's mill" [see "Waggaman's Mill" below]).

1702: "Newberry" willed to Thomas Serman of Wicomico by Richard Kimball.

1704: "Newberry" will to Thomas Serman, Jr. by his father Thomas Serman.

?: "Newberry" acquired by Crispin Price.

?: Rachel Price, daughter of Alexander Price married Obediah Read.

1730: "Newberry" willed to Alexander Price by his father Crispin Price.

Abt 1732: John Read born to Obediah Read and Rachel Price.

1735/36: "Newberry" willed to daughters Eve, Anne, and Rachel by Alexander Price.

?: Obediah Read purchases 2/3's interest in "Newberry" from Eve and Anne Price and 1/3 interest to his wife Rachel Price Read.

3 Mar 1752: Obediah Read dies and leaves 2/3's interest in "Newberry" to his son John Read. ?: Rachel Price Read married Thomas Stanford

Bef 13 Oct 1778: Rachel Price Read Stanford died intestate and her 1/3 interest in "Newberry" passed to her son John Read.

1783: The 1783 Tax List shows William Stanford owning "Newberry", 297 acres.

7 Sep 1785: Leah Handy Wailes is born to Benjamin Wailes and Anne Handy (who may have been a relation to Henry Handy).

10 Dec 1804: William Stanford Jr. married Leah Handy Wailes.

1810: The census found William Stanford Jr. living in the Rewastico 100 of Somerset County (2M <10, 1M 26-44, 1F <10, 1F 16-25). [These ages fit those of William being born Abt 1780 and Leah being born in 1785.]

1821: William Stanford Jr. died. "Newberry" probably passes to his wife Leah Handy Wailes.

19 Aug 1827: Aaron Driskell died.

1860: The 1860 census lists Leah Stanford (77) living with her son Isaac Handy Wailes Stanford in Salisbury, Somerset, Maryland.

2 Mar 1864: Leah Handy Wailes Stanford Driskell died. (She is buried at "the Neman Turner farm near Rockawalkin," most probably "Newberry".)

Waggaman's Mill: A tract of land called "Calcutta" was patented on 7 Jun 1754 by Henry Waggaman, one of the regular Justices of Somerset. It is described in original Certificate (Patented) # 396 at the Maryland State Archives and documented in Liber BC&GS#4 folio 67 (cert) and BC&GS#3 folio 47 (patent). It was defined as 539.5 acres (but is actually somewhat smaller), and was a resurvey from earlier tracts: parts of "Munsley", "Vulcan's Vineyard", "Mill Lot", "Nicholson's Mistake" and "Venables' Mistake". Its first boundary was an original boundary of the tract "Bellean", patented to Robert Ridgely on 1 Mar 1672/3 (O.S.), itself a resurvey and renaming of "Briscoe's Lott" ("Bellean" is described in Liber 17 folio 421, but I am not aware of a citation for "Briscoe's Lott" itself). "Bellean" bordered "Calcutta" variously, and its first boundary was at the mouth of what was called Briscoe's Branch into the northside of the Wicomico River. This is in present-day Wicomico County a bit to the east of the mouth of Rockawalking Creek and just to the west of Salisbury.

13 Oct 1778 Land Transaction: Land transaction dated Oct 13 1778 in Somerset County between John Read and Henry Handy where Read sells to Handy land that Crispin Price owned in his lifetime, a 300 acre tract called "Newberry" in "Rockawalkin near Mr. Waggaman's Mill." The record states further that Crispin Price died intestate and left two sons and three daughters. Both sons "died in their minority without issue" and their three sisters, daughters of said Crispin Price inherited "Newberry" which they held undivided until the oldest daughter Rachel Price intermarried with Obediah Read who then bought the other two girls, Anne and Eve out. At the time, Anne was married to Alexander Thomas Russel and Eve to Levin Hitch. Further, Obediah Read died leaving John Read 2/3 and his wife Rachel her "thirds." Rachel then married Thomas Stanford and she is "now dead intestate." (SoLR-G:132)

Leah was the daughter of Benjamin Wailes (b. 14 Feb 1756, Somerset County, Maryland, d. abt 1810) and Anne Handy (b. 1755, Somerset County, Maryland, d. abt 1815)

After William Stanford's death, on 7 Jun 1825 Leah married Aaron Driskell, a widower (whose first wife was Jane Stanford, daughter of David Vance Stanford and Sarah Leonard).

After the death of Aaron Driskell on 19 Aug 1827, Leah sold "Newberry" plantation in 1830 and lived for some time with her son William S.H. Stanford in Washington, District of Columbia.

The 1850 census finds Leah (66) living in Baltimore, Maryland with her son Henry. While living there, she joined the Aisquith Presbyterian Church.

The 1860 census lists Leah (77) living with her youngest son Isaac Handy Wailes Stanford in Salisbury, Somerset, Maryland.

Some researchers find that Leah's burial site on the Neman Farm is on the old Newberry Plantation. We don't know the site of William Stanford's burial, but it most probably was on Newberry Plantation, also.

Children of William Stanford and Leah Handy Wailes:

- 107 i. Thomas Stanford, born 1 Aug 1805, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 1859, in Baltimore, Maryland.
- 108 ii. Henry Stanford, born 25 Apr 1807, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 4 May 1867, in Baltimore, Maryland.
- iii. Ann Elisabeth Handy Stanford, born 19 May 1809, in Somerset County, Maryland, died about 1868, in Maryland. She married Benjamin W. Turpin 13 May 1827, in Coventry Parish, Rehobeth, Somerset County, Maryland.
- 109 iv. William Smith Handy Stanford, born 8 May 1811, in Salisbury, Somerset, Maryland, died 3 Aug 1884, in Washington, District of Columbia.
- v. John Wailes Stanford, born 10 Mar 1813, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 3 Jul 1844, in Somerset County, Maryland.
- Evidently, John never married.
- 110 vi. Levin Irving Wailes Stanford, born 4 May 1816, in Tyaskin, Wicomico, Maryland, died 2 Jul 1845, in Tyaskin, Wicomico, Maryland.
- 111 vii. Isaac Handy Wailes Stanford, born 15 Jan 1820, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 30 Jul 1861, in Salisbury, Somerset, Maryland.

John is found in the 1800 Somerset County census living on Rewastico Creek with a female (age 26-44), who may have been his mother, since his father died in 1795.

In the 1810 census, John is listed in Rewastico 100, Somerset, Maryland with three children, one son and two daughters, all under the age of 10. But, the census lists no wife; Nancy apparently had died by this date.

John's marriage to Priscilla Brannon in 1813 is recorded in church archives. Since Priscilla remarried in 1818, we know that John died before that time.

There is no hard evidence concerning the names of any John's children. We know he had at least one son and two daughters with his first wife and, perhaps, additional children with his second.

After John Stanford's death, Priscilla married Phillip Murray Donoho (1796/1799-1826) on 1 Dec 1818 in Somerset County, Maryland.

The 1820 census record for Phillip Donoho in Election District 1, Somerset, Maryland does not seem to include any Stanford children.

The census of 1850 finds Prusilla Donoho (62) living in in Barren Creek, Somerset, Maryland with her son William D. Donoho.

Children of John Stanford and Nancy Stanford:

- i. Amelia Stanford, born 1803 OR 1804, in Maryland, died after 1850, in Missouri. She married George Parker 6 Jan 1823, in Somerset County, Maryland. George Parker was born between 1800 and 1815, in Maryland, died 7 Aug 1883, in Marion County, Missouri, buried 8 Aug 1883, in Parkers Spring, Marion, Missouri.

The City Directory of St. Joseph, Missouri lists and Amelia Parker (widow) living in that city in 1894, 1895, and 1900. This may be our Amelia.

The 1850 census finds the family living in District 38, Holt, Missouri.

- 67 ii. Thomas Harwood Stanford, born about 1806, in Maryland, died after 1880, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland.
- iii. GNU Stanford, born before 1810, in Maryland.

In 1840, the census lists Constantine Stanford living in Middle District, Somerset, Maryland and his household is summarized as follows:

Free White Persons - Males - 20 thru 29 (b. 1811-1820): 2 [James and Handy] Free White Persons - Males - 50 thru 59 (b. 1781-1790): 1 [Constantine] Free White Persons - Females - 10 thru 14 (b. 1826-1830): 1 [Sara Jane] Free White Persons - Females - 15 thru 19 (b. 1821-1825): 1 [Amelia] Free

White Persons - Females - 50 thru 59 (b. 1781-1790): 1 [Tempora]

The 1850 census for Trappe, Somerset, Maryland lists Constant (age 64) and his wife Nancy (age 61). His occupation is "farmer", with property valued at $500. Others listed in the same house/family are children James Stanford (age 36, farmer), Handy Stanford (age 34, farmer), and Milly Stanford [Amelia] (age 26). Also listed is Samuel Scott (age 13), whose relationship to the family is unknown.

These two census records clearly indicate that Constant and Tempy had two sons...James and Handy, not a single son named "James Handy Stanford" as indicated by some researchers.

Constant's second wife, Nancy, is listed as Nancy Hayman in the Somerset County, Maryland marriage records. This is incorrect...her surname was Hillman (spelled Hilman at the time). Nancy Hillman's father was William Hillman, who had served in the Maryland Militia during the Revolutionary War and received a $40/year pension for that service. After his death, and the death of his wife Sally, there was evidently a dispute about a survivor benefit due to William's and Nancy's children. This was resolved by an Resolution 13 of the 1845 Session of the Maryland General Assembly, passed on 5 Feb 1846, that reads as follows:

"Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, that the Treasurer of the State be and he is hereby authorised and directed to pay to Constant D. Stanford or disorder, for the use of Nancy Stanford, Elizabeth Smith, and Bidy Hilman, children and heirs at law of of Sally Hilman, deceased, the sum of twenty dollars, it being the amount due said Sally Hilman, at the time of her death, on account of a pension of forty dollars per annum, granted to her, as the widow of William Hilman, a soldier of the revolution, in the Maryland line."

Tempy was the daughter of Stephen (or Steven) Disharoon (b. 9 Jul 1726 in Stepney Parish, Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland) and Sarah "Sally" Parsons (b. Abt 1766 in Stepney Parish, Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland). Sally married John Adams after Stephen's death.

Tempy's date of death is recorded in the Parsons Family Bible in the MDHR Special Collections.

The Somerset County marriage record lists Nancy as "Hayman", which is incorrect.

Nancy was the daughter of William Hillman Sr. (b. Abt 1741, Somerset County, Maryland) and Sally Perkins Hillman. William served in the Maryland Militia during the Revolutionary War. (See notes for Constant Disharoon Stanford.)

An Ezekial Hillman and a John Hillman [Nancy's brother?] owned a pew in the Rockawalkin Presbyterian Church, Wicomico County, Maryland in 1759.

Children of Constantine Disharoon "Constant" Stanford and Tempora "Tempy" Disharoon:

- i. James Stanford, born about 1814, in Somerset County, Maryland, died after 1881, in Wicomico County, Maryland.

James' middle initial may have been "H."

In the 1850 census, James Stanford (36, farmer) is listed living at home with his parents in Trappe, Somerset, Maryland. In this same census record, his brother Handy Stanford (34, farmer) is also listed.

James Stanford (43, farmer) is listed in the 1860 census living in Trappe, Somerset County, Maryland. His sister Amelia (36) and his stepmother Nancy (74) live with him.

James is listed as a voter in Trappe, Seventh Election District, Somerset County, Maryland in 1866.

The 1870 census lists James H. Stanford (54, farmer) living in Trappe, Wicomico, Maryland. His sister Amelia (40) is living with him.

On 20 Oct 1873, James H. Stanford witnessed the will of John M. Maddux and on 20 Jan 1877 he was a witness to the will of Eliza A. Carey, both in Wicomico County, Maryland. He may have been the "James Stanford" who witnessed the will of Isreal Pullett [Pollitt] on 8 Jan 1881 in Wicomico County, Maryland.

Evidently, James never married.

- ii. Handy Stanford, born about 1816, in Somerset County, Maryland, died after 1850, in Wicomico County, Maryland.

In the 1850 census, Handy Stanford (34, farmer) is listed living at home with his parents in Trappe, Somerset, Maryland. In this same census record, his brother James Stanford (36, farmer) is also listed.

Also, in 1850, Handy Stanford (35, farmer) is found (visiting?) with the family of James S. Anderson (39) and his wife Clementine Anderson (35) in Trappe, Somerset, Maryland. Some researchers indicate that the Clementine here was Clementina Stanford, daughter of Obediah Stanford and Mary W.D. Jones, making her Handy's cousin. However, no documentation support this has yet been found.

Evidently, Handy never married and there are no definitive records of him yet found after 1850.

- iii. Amelia "Milly" Stanford, born 20 Feb 1823, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 9 Feb 1895, in Wicomico County, Maryland, buried in Washington Methodist Church Cemetery, Shad Point, Wicomico, Maryland.

Amelia never married.

She is listed in the 1860 census living in Trappe, Somerset County, Maryland with her brother James and stepmother Nancy.

In the 1870 census, she is living with her brother James in Trappe, Somerset, Maryland.

Her gravestone identifies her as the "Dau of C.D. and Tempey Stanford".

- iv. Sara Jane Stanford, born 27 Mar 1826, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 20 Apr 1911, in Shad Point, Wicomico, Maryland, buried in Washington Methodist Church Cemetery, Shad Point, Wicomico, Maryland. She married Levin Wesley Malone 16 Oct 1849, in Somerset County, Maryland. Levin Wesley Malone was born 21 Aug 1823, in Allen, Wicomico, Maryland, died 28 Apr 1906, in Marshfield, Wicomico, Maryland, buried in Washington Methodist Church Cemetery, Shad Point, Wicomico, Maryland.

Sara and Levin had 6 children.

Levin was the son of Robert Malone and Susan Outten.

Levin was a farmer. In 1900, the family was living in Trappe, Wicomico, Maryland, where the census record lists Levin W. Malone (76) and Sarah J. Malone (75).

During the War of 1812, the Maryland Militia organized the 23rd Infantry Regiment in Somerset County. Records indicate that an "Obadiah Stanford" served as a Private in Capt. Heath's Company of this Regiment [See Appendix, "The British Invasion of Maryland 1812-1815", William M. Marine, 1913.] It is highly probable that this was our Obediah.

Obediah is found in the 1820 Somerset County, Maryland census living in Trappe 100 (Election District 2). This 1820 census record lists 1 M 16-26 [a brother?], 1 M 26-45 [Obediah], 1 F <10 [daughter], and 1 F 16-26 [Mary].

An Obadiah Stanford is listed in the Maryland Archives as a Justice of the Peace in Somerset County, Maryland in 1828. Perhaps this is our Obediah Stanford... further research is required.

Undoubtedly, the children listed here are part of an incomplete list.

Children of Obediah Stanford and Mary W. D. Jones:

- i. Clementina E. W. Stanford, born about 1821, in Maryland, died 5 Jul 1899, in Camden, New Jersey, buried 7 Jul 1899, in Mt. Moriah Cemetery, Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She married James S. Anderson 4 Oct 1836, in Somerset County, Maryland. James S. Anderson was born about 1811, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 31 Dec 1874, in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

No documentation of Clementina's birth has yet been found.

The 1880 census finds Clementina Anderson (62, widowed) living with her daughter and son-in-law Catherine Mersey Stanford Hickman and Edward W. Hickman in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Death Certificate Index lists that Clementina E. W. Anderson was born about 1821, died on 5 Jul 1899 in Camden, New Jersey, and was buried on 7 Jul 1899 at Mount Moriah Cemetery in Philadelphia.

- ii. Mary Caroline Stanford, born 27 Jun 1822, in Allen, Wicomico, Maryland, died 22 Jun 1903, in Fruitland, Wicomico, Maryland, buried in St. John's Methodist Church Cemetery, Fruitland, Wicomico, Maryland. She married William Pollitt Morris 17 JAN 1843 OR 18 JAN 1843, in Somerset County, Maryland. William Pollitt Morris was born 14 Aug 1819, in Worcester County, Maryland, died 1 Sep 1897, in Fruitland, Wicomico, Maryland, buried in Saint Johns United Methodist Church Cemetery, Fruitland, Wicomico, Maryland.

Mary and William had 12 children.

William was the son of James Morris (b. 1780, Somerset County, Maryland) and Polly Pollitt (b. 1791, Maryland).

A transcription of the 1810 Bible Record of James Morris and Polly Politt, William's parents, states the following:

"William P. Morris departed this life Sept. 1, 1897, age 78 years, & 17 days

"Mary Caroline Stanford Morris, the wife of Wm. P. Morris was born June 27, 1822 and departed this life June 22, 1903 age 80 years, 11 months & 26 days"

Alabama.

In "Pioneers of Wiregrass Georgia" (Folks Huxford, 1951+), Thomas is listed as being born in Franklin County, Georgia.

Some researchers indicate that Thomas' middle initial was "F".

We find Thomas Stanford in Bulloch County, Georgia in the 1820 census, which includes the following:

1 male 26-45, b. 1775-1794 [Thomas] 1 female 26-45, b. 1775-1794 [Nancy] 1 female 10-16, b. 1804-1810 [Rachel] 4 males 0-10, b. 1810-1820 [Daniel, David M., Thomas J., Samuel A.]

In the 1821 Georgia Land Lottery, Thomas was awarded Lot No. 52, District 14, In Fayette County, Georgia.

Thomas Stanford moved his family from Georgia to Conecuh County, Alabama. The obituary of Thomas J. Stanford, one of Thomas' sons, reported that he was 12 years old when his family left Georgia and moved to Conecuh County, Alabama. If this information is correct, it means the date of the move was about 1828. This corresponds to land and census records that show Thomas and Nancy living in Alabama by 1830.

Thomas Stanford (listed as "Stranford") appears in the 1830 census in Conecuh County, Alabama with the following listing:

1 male 40-50, b. 1780-1790 [Thomas] 1 female 30-40, b. 1790-1800 [Nancy] 1 male under 5, b. 1825-1830 [John] 1 male 5-10, b. 1820-1825 [Samuel A.] 1 male 10-15, b. 1815-1820 [Thomas J.] 2 males 15-20, b. 1810-1815 [Daniel, David M.] 1 male 20-30, b. 1800-1810 [son(?)] 1 female 20-30, b. 1800-1810 [Rachel]

Thomas patented 35.75 acres in Section 1, Township 6H, Range 9E in Conecuh County, Alabama on 19 Apr 1835.

Thomas Stanford is found in the 1840 census living in Conecuh County, Alabama. This census record lists:

2 males 5-10, 1820-1825 [Joseph., John] 1 male 10-15, 1815-1820 [Thomas J.] 2 males 15-20, 1810-1815 [Daniel, David M.] 1 male 50-60 [Thomas] 1 female 40-50 [Nancy]

Records for the Belleville Baptist Church (also known as Murder Creek Baptist Church), Conecuh County, Alabama list Thomas and Nancy as members of this church, which was founded in 1818.

Based on census records, it appears that Thomas and Nancy had 10 children, as follows:

b. 1806-1810 1 Daughter, Georgia [Rachel] b. 1811-1820 4 Sons, Georgia [Daniel, David M., Thomas J., and Samuel A.] b. 1821-1825 2 Sons, Georgia [John, Joseph] b. 1826-1830 1 Son, Georgia or Alabama [Obediah] b. 1831-1835 2 Sons, Alabama [Andrew J. and Elijah R.]

Of the 9 sons, 7 appear to have been born in Georgia and 2 in Alabama.

Based on census data and T.J. Stanford's obituary, along with some "educated" conjecture, it is most probable that Thomas and Nancy's sons included David M. Stanford (b. 1812/1814, Georgia), Thomas J. Stanford (b. 1816/1817, Georgia), Daniel Stanford (b. 1810/1820), Samuel A. Stanford (b. 1820/1821, Georgia), John Stanford (b. Abt 1820, Georgia), Joseph Stanford (b. Abt 1821, Georgia), Obediah B. (b. 1827, Georgia), Andrew J. Stanford (b. 1830, Alabama), and Elijah R. Stanford (b. 1834, Alabama).

Thomas appears to have named many of children after his brothers and (maybe) some of the country's early presidents.

Nancy was the sister of Andrew Armstrong who married Thomas' sister Sarah.

In the 1870 census, we find Nancy living with her daughter Rachel King (55) in Mill, Conecuh, Alabama. [Census records for 1850 through 1870 find Rachel living in in Conecuh County, Alabama.]

Children of Thomas Stanford and Nancy Armstrong:

- i. Rachel Stanford, born between 1805 and 1808, in Georgia, died after 1870, in Alabama. She married William King between 1830 and 1840, in Alabama. William King was born about 1798, in South Carolina, died before 1860, in Conecuh County, Alabama.

A daughter appears in the 1820 census in Georgia and the 1830 census in Alabama. She does not appear in the 1840 census, but from the 1850-1870 census, we learn that her name is Rachel and that she married William King (her mother, Nancy Stanford, is living with family in 1870). Rachel and William had at least 7 children.

- ii. Daniel Stanford, born between 1810 and 1820, in Georgia.

The 1850 Alabama State Census finds Daniel Stanford living in Butler County, Alabama near his brothers David (D.M.) and Andrew (A.J). This record lists 3 M <21, 1 M > 21, 1 Male 18-45, 4 F < 21 and 1 F > 21. This equates to Daniel (21-45) and his wife (>21) and 7 children (3 sons and 4 daughters). Allowing 2 years to separate each child's birth and assuming the couple were married at about age 20, this means Daniel and his wife were born about 1810/1820.

- 112 iii. David M. Stanford, born about 1814, in Georgia, died about 1880, in Texas.

- 113 iv. Thomas J. Stanford, born 1 Dec 1816, in Georgia, died 2 Jan 1884, in Wilcox County, Alabama.

Elijah served in the 46th District, Bulloch County, Georgia Militia at the rank of Lieutenant.

The Bulloch County Deed Book "B", 1813-1846, Administrators and Guardians lists Francis Akins, Sarah's father, as administrator of Elijah's estate.

Elijah's gravestone gives his date of birth as 1786.

In 1821, the children (orphans) of Elijah were awarded Lot No. 83, District 1, Monroe County, in the 1821 Georgia Land Lottery.

She was the daughter of Francis Akins (b. 1767 in Laurenborg, North Carolina, d. 1833 in Lowndes County, Georgia) and Martha Green (b. 1767, Bulloch County, Georgia, d. 1845 in Lowndes County, Georgia).

Children of Elijah Stanford and Sarah A. Akins:

- i. Elijah Stanford, Jr., born about 1812, in Georgia, died before 1814, in Georgia.
- ii. James William Stanford, born about 1813, in Georgia, died after 1828, in Georgia.

From the "Abstracts of Minutes of the Court of Ordinary, 1820-1834" for Columbia County, Georgia, the following records shows that James William Stanford was alive in 1827/1828:

guardianship of the person and property of James Stanford minor an orphan of Elijah Stanford of Bullock County and grandson of John Stanford granted to David Stanford Senr."

6 Nov 1827: "Letters of guardianship on the person and property of James Stanford, orphan of Elijah Stanford of Bulloch Co. and grandson of John Stanford deceased, granted to David Stanford."

4 Feb 1828: "Order to record account of David Stanford concerning guardianship of James Stanford."

It appears that William Stanford purchased land from his new wife's uncle, Jarvis Jackson, on December 6, 1813. Then, on 7 Dec 1813, he sold to William Brannen 178 acres of land originally granted to John Olliff, Elizabeth's father, in Bulloch County, Georgia.

In the 1820 census, we find William Stanford living in Capt. Benjamin Watson's District, Bulloch County, Georgia. The census lists 3 M<10, 1 M 16-26 [William], 1 F <10 [Emmaline], and 1 F 16-26 [Elizabeth]

In the 1830 census, William Stanford was living in Bulloch County, Georgia. In this census, William and Elizabeth Stanford appear to have three sons and four daughters. Sometime after 1830, William moved to Southwest Georgia to take advantage of the newly opened Creek lands there.

In 1840, a William Stanford was living in Dooly County, Georgia. In this census, William and Elizabeth Stanford (if this is our William) appear to have three sons and five daughters. If this record is correct, we are missing one son from our list of children.

In 1850, the family was living in Ocklockna, Wakulla, Florida and the record includes William Standford (60, farmer), Elizabeth (56), William (19), Martha (14), and Susannah (11). Rebecca Stanford is missing from this census.

Evidently, fairly soon after the 1850 census was taken, the family moved to Alabama. The 1855 Alabama State Census for Henry County lists William Stanford with 1 male over 21[William], 1 female under 21[Susan], and 1 female over 21[Elizabeth].

Elizabeth Olliff was the daughter of John Shears Olliff and Johannah Jackson.

The 1846 pension application of Joseph Olliff states "that Joseph Olive, John Olive, Benjamin Olive, Elizabeth Stanford, Susannah Brooks and Mary Robinson are the only surviving children of John [Shears] Olive." Therefore, John and Johannah Olliff were the parents of at least six children:

Elizabeth Olliff, b. 1794, Georgia John Olliff, b. 1792, Georgia Benjamin Shears Olliff, b. January 23, 1794, Georgia Joseph Olliff, b. April 18, 1798, Georgia Susannah Olliff, b. September 22, 1800, Bulloch County, Georgia Mary Olliff, b. 1801, Bulloch County, Georgia

The 1846 pension application states "that after the war, the said John Olive emigrated to the State of Georgia and resided in Bulloch County until the time of his death, which happened this declarant believes in the year 1802." (However, in a return of the estate of John Olliff, deceased, the land owned by John Olliff was sold on December 2, 1801, therefore, John Olliff probably died in later part of 1801.) This return states: "John Olliff, deceased estate, Jarvis Jackson Admr. and Johannah Olliff Admx. sold land granted to John Olliff Jan 8, 1793, Effingham County. John Shears Olliff deceased. Returns of estate, 1801, Dec. 2nd."

According to the 1850 census, Elizabeth was born in 1794 in Georgia. The 1870 census of Clarke County, Alabama shows that Elizabeth was born in 1795 in Georgia. Since we know that Elizabeth's brother, John Olliff, was born around 1792 in Georgia, it is reasonable to believe that Elizabeth was born in Georgia also.

Marriage Records of Bulloch County, Georgia confirms that Elizabeth Olliff married William Stanford on 29 January 1813 and further states that they were married in Bulloch County, Georgia.

In 1860, Elizabeth (Olliff) Stanford was living in Henry County, Alabama. The census record shows that Elizabeth lived next door to her son William and her daughter Susan and granddaughter Mary Faulk lived with her.

In 1870, the census lists Elizabeth (Olliff) Stanford living in Clarke County, Alabama. Her daughter Susan (30) was living with her.

Children of William Stanford and Elizabeth Olliff:

- i. Emmaline Stanford, born about 1817, in Georgia, died 1859, in Henry County, Alabama. She married Redding Joseph Blanton 16 Aug 1832. Redding Joseph Blanton was born about 1812, in Georgia, died 1859, in Henry County, Alabama.

Emaline and Redding had at least 12 children.

In 1840, the family was living in Dooly County, Georgia, but then moved to Henry County, Alabama where they are found in the 1850 census.

Redding was the son of Alexander Blanton (b. 1788 in South Carolina) and Elizabeth Georgia Driggers.

- 120      ii. Joseph Dean Stanford, born about 1825, in Georgia, died 25 Jan 1877, in Franklin County, Arkansas.
- iii. Elizabeth Stanford, born about 1827, in Georgia, died after 1880, in Alabama. She married GNU Smith in Choctaw County, Alabama. GNU Smith died before 1860.

Elizabeth and her husband had at least two sons, Haseltine Smith (b. 1857 in Alabama) and John Smith (b. 1859 in Alabama).

Elizabeth's husband died before 1860, since the 1860 census finds Elizabeth living with her mother in Henry County, Alabama.

In 1870, Elizabeth is living in Clarke County, Alabama next door to her mother and brother Joseph.

In 1880, the census finds Elizabeth living in Choctaw County, Alabama near her sister Rebecca. At that time, her sister Susan was living with her.

- 121      iv. William Stanford, Jr., born about 1832, in Georgia, died 30 Jan 1865, in Alton Military Prison, Rock Island, Rock Island, Illinois.

Rebecca and George had at least 8 children.

After 1860, Rebecca and George lived in Choctaw County, Alabama.

George was the son of Benjamin Fagan (b. abt 1810 in Georgia) and Emmelia Wills (b. 1813 in Georgia).

In the Henry County, Alabama marriage record, George's surname is spelled "Faegin".

George served as 1st Sgt of Company F, 32th Alabama Infantry, CSA, during the Civil War.

- vi. Martha Stanford, born about 1836, in Georgia, died 1859, in Henry County, Alabama. She married Clark J. Faulk 28 Feb 1854, in Henry County, Alabama. Clark J. Faulk was born 1830, in Georgia, died 28 Oct 1864, in Civil War, Richmond, Virginia, buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Richmond, Richmond, Virginia.

Martha and Clark had one daughter, Mary Ann Faulk (b. 27 Apr 1855, Henry County, Alabama).

Clark was the son of Starling and Martha Faulk.

Clark enlisted as 3rd Corporal, Company K, 15th Alabama Enfantry, CSA. He died as a Private on 28 Oct 1864 in Richmond, Virginia during the Civil War.

- vii. Susan Stanford, born Jan 1839, in Georgia, died after 1900, in Choctaw County, Alabama.

Susan never married.

In 1870, Susan Stanford (30) was living with her mother, Elizabeth (Olliff) Stanford, in Clarke County, Alabama.

In 1880, Susan Stanford (40) was living with her sister, Elizabeth Stanford Smith in Choctaw County, Alabama.

The 1900 census finds Susan Stanford (61) living with the family of her nephew John A. Smith [Elizabeth Stanford Smith's son] in Precinct 10, Choctaw, Alabama.

Mary and Lewis had 14 children, one of whom, Eleanor, married a Stanford.

Lewis was the son of Francis Akins (b. 1767 in Laurens District, South Carolina, d. in Lowndes County, Georgia) and Martha Green (c1767-c1845)..

Children of Mary A. Stanford and Robert Lewis Akins:

- i. John Akins, born 12 May 1812, in Bulloch County, Georgia, died 16 Apr 1878, in Bulloch County, Georgia, buried in John Atkins Cemetery, Bulloch County, Georgia. He married Mary Caroline Stanford 2 Apr 1837, in Bulloch County, Georgia. Mary Caroline Stanford was born about 1815, in Georgia, died about 1850, in Bulloch County, Georgia, buried in Lake Church Cemetery, Statesboro, Bulloch, Georgia.

After Mary Caroline's death, John remarried, first to Mary Jane Crumpton and then to Jane Deal (who married C.E. Fletcher after John's death).

- 122 ii. Ellen Akins, born 30 Mar 1831, in Bulloch County, Georgia, died 25 Jul 1897, in Bulloch County, Georgia.

Agnes Akins was born 18 Sep 1803, in Pendleton District, South Carolina, died 7 Jul 1868, in Echols County, Georgia, buried in Warefare Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Statenville, Echols, Georgia.

David grew up in Bulloch County, Georgia. He moved to Lowndes County, Georgia in 1829, where his father-in-law had already moved and lived there for about 15 years. He sold out there and moved to Ware County, Georgia, where he acquired land on Suwanoochee Creek.

The 1850 census for Division 89, Ware, Georgia lists David Stanford (51), Agnes (46), Reubin (19), Mitchell (14), Mary (9), Rachel (7), and John (2). His son Eli lives next door.

In 1850, David's property became part of the newly formed Clinch County, Georgia and he became a Justice of the Inferior Court (the county civil court) in the new county on 12 April 1850.

David was a Private in Captain Jesse Carter's company of Lowndes County Militia in the Indian War of 1838.

David Stanford joined Wayfare Primitive Baptist Church and was baptized on November 4, 1860.

The 1870 census finds David (74), a widower, living in District 1219 of Clinch County, Georgia with is daughter Rachel (22) and son John (21). A child, Rubin (5) is also listed...Rachel's son, though there is no record of the father.

Lowndes County, Georgia. Samuel W. Register was born 5 Aug 1839, in Georgia, died 17 May 1908, in Clinch County, Georgia, buried in Wayfare Cemetery, Adel, Echols, Georgia.

Mary and Samuel had 10 children, 9 of them girls:

1. Delia Register, b. 17 Mar 1861, m. Nov 13 1902 to Eli J. 2. Futch Salena Victoria Register, b. 16 Apr 1868, m. Feb 28 1864 to Mitchel H. Hilliard. 3. Malinda Register, b. 13 Jun 1870, m. In the 1870 census, Samuel and Mary are living in District 1219, Clinch, Georgia. Living with them are Eleanor Stanford (30) and her children Louis M. (13) and David (10). Eleanor was Mary's sister-in-law, the widow of L. Mitchell Stanford.

On 23 Oct 1913, Mary Register applied for a Civil War Widow's Pension on the basis of Samuel's service.

Samuel was the son of William Register (1814-1893) and Luraney Harnage.

Samuel W. Register was a life-long resident of Clinch county, and lived in the Withers(1365th) district of Clinch county until 1893 when he removed to Homerville where he lived until his death.

When the Civil War came on, he volunteered May 1, 1862. in Company "G," 50th Georgia Regiment, which was a company made up of Clinch county men and was mustered in at Homerville May 1st, 1862. He served throughout the war, and lost three fingers on his left hand in the Battle of Manassas, Virginia, August 30, 1862. He was paroled in Virginia in April 1865, and returned to his home in Clinch county.

In the next county election in January, 1866, he was elected tax collector of Clinch county, and served 1866-1868.

When the first Board of Education of Clinch county was set up in 1872, he was appointed by the grand jury as a member, and served four years. He was elected Justice of the Peace in the newly-formed 1365th (Withers) district in 1885, and served in that office until 1890 when he resigned. He was defeated in January, 1891, for clerk of superior court; he was the Democratic nominee, but was defeated by the incumbent, W.A. Ecord, who was the Populist nominee. But two years later, he was the Democratic nominee and defeated his Populist opponent by a vote of 326 to 162. He assumed office about two weeks later, and by continuous re-elections held the office until his death the 17th of May, 1908, having held the office longer than any other incumbent in the county's history.

Mr. Register was a member of the Masonic fraternity for over fifty years at his death, and had a distinguished service in the order. He was not a member of any church.

Mr. Register served as mayor of his town, Homerville, in 1906 and 1907.

The following biography is from "History of Clinch County, Georgia, giving the early history of the county down to the present time (1916), comp. and ed. by Folks Huxford":

"REGISTER, SAMUEL W., was born in Ware, now Clinch County, August 5th, 1839, the son of William Register. In early life he was a farmer and pursued that occupation more or less all of his life. He was married August 18th, 1859, Miss Mary Stanford, daughter of David Stanford. By this union were born eight daughters and one son, A. O. Register. Leaving his wife and child on the farm he joined Co. "G" 50th Georgia Regiment in April, 1862, and served until the close of the war. He lost three fingers off his left hand in battle. He was in all the important battles of the army of northern Virginia. Returning home he was elected tax collector of Clinch County in 1865, decommissioned January 22, 1866, for two years. He was a member of the first Board of Education under the amended laws of 1872. When the 1365th district was created in 1884 he was elected its first justice of the peace, being commissioned January 22d, 1885. He served until October 7th, 1890, when he resigned to make the race for clerk of the Superior Court. He was defeated by his Populist opponent, W. A. Ecord, who was the incumbent. However, two years later, Mr. Register was elected by a large Democratic majority. He was commissioned clerk January 6th, 1893, and served by re-elections until 1908. In the Democratic primary of 1908 he was defeated by A. J. Gibbs. His death occurred shortly afterwards on May 17th, 1908, vertigo being ascribed as the cause of his death. The following day his body was taken in charge by the local lodge of Masons, of which he had been a member since 1867, and conducted to the cemetery at Cow Creek Church, six miles south of Stockton, where it was buried. He was survived by his wife and nine children. His widow died in 1915. He was succeeded as clerk by his son, A. O. Register, his term not having expired."

126   viii.   Rachel Stanford, born Jul 1843, in Lowndes County, Georgia, died before 1910, in Berrien County, Georgia.

- 127      ix.    John Ruben Stanford, born 14 Mar 1846, in Ware County, Georgia, died 16 Jun 1916, in Live Oak, Suwannee, Florida.

While we have not found conclusive evidence as yet, it appears reasonable that John migrated to Alabama in the 1830s with his brothers Thomas and William. We know that by the early 1840s, he and Mary was living in Wilcox County, Alabama since their son was born there in 1843.

The 1850 Alabama State Census lists John Stanford and includes 2 males less than 21, one male over 21, 1 male over 45 [John], 1 female over 21 [Mary], and 4 slaves. If this record is correct, the list of children in this database is incomplete. To have a child over 21, John must have been married at least once before marrying Mary.

On 1 Nov 1858, John acquired land as follows: Acres: 39.91, Meridian: St. Stephens, State: Alabama, County: Wilcox, Township: 11-N, Range: 10-E, Section: 27.

Sometime before 1870, the family migrated to Louisiana.

In the 1870 census, we find Mary (65) living with her son James R. Stanford in Ward 1, Natchitoches, Louisiana.

- 128      i.    James Russell Stanford, born 31 May 1843, in Bolger, Wilcox, Alabama, died 21 Jul 1935, in Coushatta, Red River, Louisiana.

The militia roll of Morgan County, Georgia lists Edward as an Ensign from 15 Nov 1819 to 12 Jul 1822.

He participated in the 1832 Gold Lottery of Cherokee Lands in Northwest Georgia, drawing a lot in Section 2 (Carroll County [later Haralson County], Georgia).

Neddie was a farmer. He and Katie first settled in Newton County, Georgia and are listed in the 1840 census there.

Between 1846 and 1850, Edward and Katie relocated and the 1850 census (Family 852) shows them in Division 11, Carroll, Georgia. This record lists Edward Stanford (51, farmer), Catherine (47), Mary (25), Louisa (12), David (10), and Jane (6).

The 1853 Carroll County Tax Digest listed Edward Stanford owning land in Militia District 813, Land District 7, Carroll County, Georgia.

The 1860 census finds the family living in District 3, Haralson, Georgia and lists Edward Stanford (61, farmer), Catherine (56), Eliza (24), William D. (18), and Sarah J. (17).

Some researchers indicate that Edward's middle name was David and the 1870 census record for Militia District 813, Haralson, Georgia lists David Stanford (75, retired farmer), Catherine Stanford (65), and Catherine Stanford (30) tally with this family. If so, the identity of the younger Catherine, b. abt 1840 in Georgia, is unknown.

Numerous researchers indicate that Edward died about 1895 in Newton County, Georgia, but no documentation supports this.

It is believed that Neddie Stanford is buried in an unmarked grave at Little Vine Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Haralson County, Georgia.

Katie was the daughter of Henry Martin Reid and Edith Harrison.

Some researchers confuse this Catherine with a Catherine Reed who married Isaac Jasper Wigginton in Carroll County, Georgia about 1825.

Children of Edward N. "Neddie, Nodey" Stanford and Catherine "Katie" Reid:

- i. Amanda K. "Patsy, Mandy" Stanford, born about 1825, in Georgia, died after 1880, in Georgia. She married David R. Houston 17 Dec 1855, in Carroll County, Georgia. David R. Houston was born about 1821, in Jasper County, Georgia, died before 1880, in Haralson County, Georgia.

In the 1850 census record, Amanda's name is listed as Mary. Her marriage record also lists her name as Mary. Her full name may have been Mary Amanda K. Stanford.

The 1860 census lists the family living in District 2, Haralson, Georgia and includes David R. Houston (39) and Amanda K. (36), with their first two children, Phoebe (b. abt 1857) and Oliver Edmon (b. abt 1859).

In 1870, the family is living in Militia District 813, Haralson, Georgia and the census lists David Houston (50), Martha (41), Phebe (13), Oliver (10), and Sarah

The 1880 census has two records for the family. First, Patsy Houston (40) and daughter Sarah J. (12) living in Price, Haralson, Georgia. Next door, children Edmon Houston (21) and Phoebe Houston (22) are living. Obviously, David has died by this time.

From these census records, Amanda's full name is conjectural and the name listed here is the best guess based on these records.

David was the son of Oliver Houston (1788-1853) and Cynthia Flournoy.

- ii. Martha E. Stanford, born 13 Apr 1828, in Georgia, died 6 Dec 1901, in Carroll County, Georgia, buried in Holly Springs Baptist Church Cemetery, Carroll County, Georgia. She married George F. "Dock" Reid 18 Oct 1849, in Carroll County, Georgia. George F. "Dock" Reid was born 14 Mar 1830, in Georgia, died 13 Oct 1902, in Haralson County, Georgia, buried in Holly Springs Baptist Church Cemetery, Carroll County, Georgia.

Martha married in a double ceremony with her sister Calline...they married brothers.

Martha and Dock had 8 or 9 children.

Dock and Andrew Reid were brothers, the sons of Davis Reid and Jane Warnett.

- iii. Eddy Caroline "Calline, Callie" Stanford, born about 1829, in Georgia, died after 1880, in Haralson County, Georgia. She married Andrew Reid 15 Oct 1849, in Carroll County, Georgia. Andrew Reid was born Nov 1827, in Carroll County, Georgia, died 23 Dec 1910, in Haralson County, Georgia.

Calline married in a double ceremony with her sister Martha...they married brothers. Calline and Andrew had 7 children.

The 1880 census finds Andrew and Eddy C. Reid and family living in Haralson County, Georgia, but the 1900 census finds Andrew (72) living with a daughter and son-in-law, a widower.

Andrew and Dock Reid were brothers, the sons of Davis Reid and Jane Warnett.

- iv. Louisa Stanford, born about 1838, in Georgia.
- 129 v. William David Henry "W.D.H." Stanford, born 13 Sep 1840, in Newton County, Georgia, died 1 Jun 1916, in Haralson County, Georgia.
- vi. Sarah Jane "Laney" Stanford, born 15 May 1844, in Georgia, died 25 Mar 1923, in Haralson County, Georgia, buried in Union Hill Methodist Church Cemetery, Haralson County, Georgia. She married Benjamin W. Whitton 24 Nov 1866, in Haralson County, Georgia. Benjamin W. Whitton was born 13 Nov 1843, in Georgia, died 20 Oct 1906, in Haralson County, Georgia, buried in Union Hill Methodist Church Cemetery, Haralson County, Georgia.

Laney and Benjamin had three children.

In 1910, the census finds Sarah Jane living with the family of her daughter and son-in-law Katie and Robert L. Garner in District 7, Haralson, Georgia. Evidently, Benjamin had died by this time.

Sarah Jane's gravestone does not list a death date.

Benjamin enlisted in Company G, Georgia 40th Infantry Regiment on 4 Mar 1862. Mustered out on 7 Apr 1863 at Vicksburg, Mississippi.

Ben's gravestone indicates that he was a Mason.

The 1830 census finds William living only a few households away from his father in Newton County, Georgia. This listing includes 2 males under 5 [Judson and Theophilis], 1 male 20-30 [William], and 1 female 20-30 [Sarah].

Based on Martha Francis Stanford's date and place of birth, it appears that during the late 1840s, the family lived in Alabama for a while.

The 1850 census lists the family living in Division 12, Cass, Georgia and includes William Standford (48, farmer), Sarah (40), Theophilus (20), William T. (16), John H. (14), David H. (12), Mary J. (10), James C. (8), Lawrence (6), and Martha (3).

The 1850 Slave Census lists William Stanford living in Cass County, Georgia and owning 3 slaves.

[Note: When the state of Georgia established the Land Lottery of 1832, Cass County was one of ten "original" counties created. The county was named for Lewis Cass, who was Secretary of War under Andrew Jackson in 1832 and strongly supported the right of Georgia to take Cherokee land. With the election of Abraham Lincoln in 1860, Lewis Cass began advocating reinforcing the U.S. forts in the South. Although President James Buchanan refused, Cass alienated the South and the people of Cass County, Georgia with his stand. With the death of Frank Bartow at Manassas in 1861, the residents had what they needed: a true Georgia hero after which they could name the county. In November, 1861, voters approved the name change in a general election. A month later Cass County was renamed Bartow County.]

Sarah was the daughter of William and Jane King.

In the 1860 census, we find Sarah Stanford (48, farmer) living in Georgia Militia District 936, Cass, Georgia with children Caroline (12), Charles (17), Savannah E. (9), and Antoinette (4). Apparently, William had died by this time. Also, Lawrence does not appear in this record and may have died by this time.

The 1870 census lists Sarah Stanford (58) in Subdivision 144, Bartow, Georgia along with Savannah (17), Antoinette (4), and Charley (4). Charley is most likely a grandson, the son of Charles, who would have been about 27 at this time.

Finally, in the 1880 census, we find Sarah (70) living with the family of her daughter Elthens Antoinette Stanford (23) and son-in-law Joseph A. Shark (27) in Pine Log, Bartow, Georgia. Antoinette and Joseph later moved to Missouri and are found in the 1920 census living in Douglas County, Missouri.

Children of William "Sallie" Stanford and Sarah King:

- i. Judson Franklin Stanford, born 12 Jun 1828, in Cass County, Georgia, died 31 Jul 1895, in Whitfield County, Georgia, buried in West Hill Cemetery, Dalton, Whitfield, Georgia. He married (1) Lucinda B. Walker 21 Apr 1850, in Bartow County, Georgia. Lucinda B. Walker was born about 1832, in Georgia, died before 1853, in Georgia. He married (2) Ann Baker 27 Sep 1853, in Georgia. Ann Baker was born Jan 1826, in Georgia, died after 1900, in Whitfield County, Georgia, buried in West Hill Cemetery, Dalton, Whitfield, Georgia.

There is an 21 Apr 1850 marriage record in Bartow County, Georgia listing Judson F. Stanford and Lucinda B. Walker. The 1850 census lists the newlywed couple living in Division 12, Cass, Georgia, next door to Judson's parents. This record lists Franklin Stanford (22, farmer) and Lucinda (18).

Evidently Lucinda died early because he married Ann Baker on 27 Sep 1853.

Judson served as a Sergeant in Company I, 12th Calvary Regiment, Georgia, CSA.

In Whitfield County, Georgia, just north of Bartow County, census records for 1860, 1870, and 1880 list Judson F. Stanford (a farmer) and his wife Ann. No children are listed in any of these records

Ann was the daughter of Jesse Baker and Parthenia Moss.

The 1900 census finds Mrs. Ann Stanford (74, widow) living in Militia District 872, Whitfield, Georgia. She evidently is still farming since a "hired hand" is living in the household.

- 130    ii.    Theopholis Newton Stanford, born 4 Feb 1830, in Cass County, Georgia, died 19 Nov 1900, in Bartow County, Georgia.

- v.    David H. Stanford, born about 1838, in Georgia, died after 1850, in Gerorgia.

Some researchers find David's middle initial to be "H", while others find it to be "W". The 1850 census finds David (12) living at home with his parents and lists his middle initial as "H".

No records for David after 1850 have yet been found.

- vi.    Mary Jane Stanford, born about 1840, in Cass County, Georgia, died 30 Jun 1866, in Georgia. She married John Franklin Collins 19 Dec 1859, in Bartow County, Georgia. John Franklin Collins was born 1834, in Cass County, Georgia, died 1891, in Bartow County, Georgia, buried in Pine Log Methodist Church Cemetery, Pine Log, Bartow, Georgia.

Mary Jane and John had two children. She died soon after the birth of her second child, William Henry Collins.

The dates for John's birth and death are those on his gravestone.

John was the son of Benjamin F. Collins (1814-1901) and Rachel Pinion/Pennell (1812-1898).

The 1870 census finds the family living in Subdivision 144, Bartow, Georgia and lists John Collins (36, farmer) and Martha Collins (22).

In 1880, the census lists the family living in Pine Log, Bartow, Georgia and includes John Collins (46, farmer) and Martha Collins (33).

John married Stanford sisters. After Mary Jane died in 1866, John married Martha Frances less than a week later.

in Bartow County, Georgia, buried in Pine Log Methodist Church Cemetery, Pine Log, Bartow, Georgia.

After her sister Mary died in 1866, Martha married John Collins, Mary's widowed husband. She and John had four children.

At the time of her death, Martha was living with her daughter Fannie Mae Collins' family in Arkansas.

The dates for John's birth and death are those on his gravestone.

John was the son of Benjamin F. Collins (1814-1901) and Rachel Pinion/Pennell (1812-1898).

The 1870 census finds the family living in Subdivision 144, Bartow, Georgia and lists John Collins (36, farmer) and Martha Collins (22).

John was the son of George William Stubbs (1815-1863) and Sarah Ann McMullin (1827-1860).

She married Joseph Augustus Sharp 9 Apr 1876, in Bartow County, Georgia. Joseph Augustus Sharp was born 21 Jul 1852, in Lexington, Lexington, South Carolina, died 3 Sep 1933, in Bartlesville, Washington, Oklahoma, buried in Memorial Park Cemetery, Bartlesville, Washington, Oklahoma.

The 1900 and 1920 census finds the family living in Richland, Douglas, Missouri.

In 1930, the census finds the family living in Bartlesville, Washington, Oklahoma.

Joseph was the son of Francis Fluentus Sharp and Matilda Caroline Everett.

The 1850 census lists the family in District 8, Randolph County, Georgia. This record includes Jno. Stanford (45, laborer), Emily (39), Sarah (16), Elizabeth (13), Kesire (11), Emily (9), and Jno. (7/12). Living with the family are Emily's mother Elizabeth Roland (60) and her siblings Kesire Roland (22), Mary Roland (20), and Asa Roland (16).

In 1860, the family is found living in Taliaferro County, Georgia. The census record includes J.R. Stanford (56, overseer), Elizabeth (56), Permelia (29), Delilah (27), Mary Ann (15), and John D. (14).

The 1870 census lists the family living in Giles, Washington, Georgia and includes John R. Stanford (66, farming), Elizabeth (65), Mary Ann (27), living next door to son John D. Stanford (25).

Evidently, sometime after Elizabeth died, John R. Stanford moved to Covington County, Alabama to live with his daughter Emily and her husband Thomas Jerald Edmonson.

Children of John R. Stanford and Emily Elizabeth Roland:

- i. Sarah Delilah Stanford, born 1833 OR 1834, in Georgia.
- ii. Elizabeth Stanford, born about 1837, in Georgia.
- iii. Kesire Stanford, born about 1839, in Georgia, died 1921, in River Falls, Covington, Alabama.

Thomas Jerald Edmonson was born 14 Apr 1842, in Dale County, Alabama, died 1 Oct 1911, in West Over, Covington, Alabama, buried in Kervin Cemetery, Red Level, Covington, Alabama.

Her marriage record in Early County, Georgia lists her name as "Amelia".

Thomas served as a Private in Co. H, 37th Alabama Infantry during the Civil War.

- v. Mary Ann Stanford, born about 1845, in Georgia.
- 134 vi. John D. Stanford, born about 1846, in Georgia.

He married Elizabeth "Mattie" Phillips 24 Sep 1835, in Newton County, Georgia. Elizabeth "Mattie" Phillips was born 24 Apr 1819, in Morgan County, Georgia, died 18 May 1906, in Cuthbert, Randolph, Georgia, buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Cuthbert, Randolph, Georgia.

While born in Morgan County, Georgia, Thomas moved with his parents to Newton County, Georgia as a child.

In 1840, the census lists Thomas Stanford living in District 954, Randolph, Georgia. This record includes 1 M 30-39 [Thomas], 1 F <5 [Martha Ann], and 1 F 20-29 [Elizabeth].

The 1850 census lists the family living in Cuthbert, Randolph, Georgia and includes Thomas Stanaford (44, wagoneer), Elizabeth (40), Mary A. (14), Martha (7), John (4), and Ish [Joseph] (2). [Oddly, this record is x-ed out on the hand written census record.]

It is reported that Thomas farmed up until two years before he died, when he moved into town at Cuthbert, Randolph, Georgia, where he was employed as a bookkeeper.

He served as a bailiff in Randolph County, Georgia.

Elizabeth was the daughter of James and Mary Phillips.

The 1860 census finds the family living in Randolph County, Georgia and lists E. Standford (38, seamstress), Josaphine (15), John S. (13), Joe N. (11), and James W. (6).

Sometime before 1870, Elizabeth married Frank O'Neal/O'Niel. The 1870 census finds the family living in Cuthbert, Randolph, Georgia and lists Frank O'Neal (61, brick mason), Elizabeth O'Neal(52), Sophronia Stanford (25), and James [Burton] Stanford (17, working in printing office). James' is Elizabeth's grandson.

In 1880, there is a census record for Randolph County, Georgia listing E. Oniel (63) and her daughter M[ary] S[sophronia] Stanford (36).

The 1900 census lists the family living in Militia District 718, Randolph, Georgia and includes Elizabeth O'Neal (81, b. Apr 1819), Froney [Saphronia] (56, b. Dec. 1843, daughter), and James B[urton] (27, b. Jan 1873, grandson).

On her gravestone, her surname is spelled "O'Niel."

Children of Thomas Stanford, Jr. and Elizabeth "Mattie" Phillips:

- i. Martha Ann Missouri Stanford, born 10 Dec 1836, in Newton County, Georgia, died 22 Dec 1920, in Cerro Gordo, Little River, Arkansas. She married John Reed Scott 16 Jun 1856, in Stewart County, Georgia. John Reed Scott was born 2 Jun 1835, in Washington County, Georgia, died 4 NOV 1921 OR 4 NOV 1929, in Cerro Gordo, Little River, Arkansas.

Martha and John had 5 children.

The 1880 census finds the family living in District 718, Randolph County, Georgia, but they had moved to Arkansas by 1900 (probably with her brother John Thaddeus Stanford and his family) when the census finds the family living in Horatio, Sevier, Arkansas. In 1920, the family lived in Caney, Little River, Arkansas.

Martha was a constant and devout member of the Baptist Church.

- ii. Mary Saphronia Stanford, born 15 May 1843, in Randolph County, Georgia, died 9 Apr 1906, in Randolph County, Georgia, buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Cuthbert, Randolph, Georgia.

Mary never married...she lived with her mother all of her life.

- 135    iii. John Thaddeus of Warsaw Stanford, Joe T. Stanford, Thaddeus John Stanford, born 10 Apr 1846, in Stewart County, Georgia, died 10 Jul 1904, in De Queen, Sevier, Arkansas.

He married Ann Elizabeth "Liza" Hobbs 14 Jan 1841, in Georgia. Ann Elizabeth "Liza" Hobbs was born 14 Sep 1823, in North Carolina, died after 1900, in Limestone County, Texas.

The 1850 census finds the family living in District 9, Randolph, Georgia and lists David Stanford (35, farmer), Eliza (27), Joseph (11), Susan (7), and Wm (1).

The Slave Census for 1850 lists D. Stanford living in Randolph County, Georgia and owning 1 slave.

The family moved to Dale County, Alabama about 1858, since there are two land patents in his name recorded in that year. In 1860, the census finds the family in Dale County, Alabama and includes David Stanford (44, farmer), Eliza (34), Joseph T. (18), Susan H. (15), Simon (12), Reuben (10), Irvin [Arelia](8, female), Martha J. (3), and A.M. (2/12). The Reuben listed here must be William?

The 1870 census lists the family in Beat 3, Dale, Alabama and includes David Stanford (55, farmer), Eliza (46), Simon (23), W.I. (20), and M.J. (13). This record indicates, incorrectly, that David and Eliza were born in South Carolina.

David and his wife Eliza settled in Springfield/Tehuacana, Limestone, Texas before 1880, since the 1880 census finds them living there. This record lists David Stanford (66, farmer) and Ann E. Stanford (56).

Liza was the daughter of Joab Hobbs (1801-1874) and Margaret Jane Barbrey (1805-1879).

In 1900, we find Liza Stanford (76) living with her daughter Oridia [Arelia] Stanford Baker in Justice Precinct 4, Limestone, Texas.

Children of David P. Stanford and Ann Elizabeth "Liza" Hobbs:

- 138     i.    Joseph Thomas "Joe Tom" Stanford, born 19 Nov 1841, in Randolph County, Georgia, died 15 Feb 1919, in Mexia, Limestone, Texas.
- ii.   Susan H. Stanford, born 12 Aug 1844, in Georgia, died 25 Oct 1900, in Limestone County, Texas. She married Leander Eady about 1864, in Dale County, Alabama. Leander Eady was born 15 May 1836, in Dale County, Alabama, died 13 Sep 1927, in Limestone County, Texas.

Susan's middle name may have been Harriet or Hariot.

- Leander was the son of Henry Eady (1802-1877) and Adaline Burns (1798-1889).
- 139     iii.   Simon Allen Stanford, born 22 Jul 1846, in Georgia, died 22 Jun 1924, in Mexia, Limestone, Texas.
- 140     iv.    William S. "Will" Stanford, born 24 Oct 1847, in Randolph County, Georgia, died 30 May 1927, in Mexia, Limestone, Texas.
- v.    Arelia Stanford, born 10 Feb 1851, in Georgia, died 23 Feb 1925, in Waco, McLennan, Texas, buried in Forest Glade Cemetery, Mexia, Limestone, Texas. Cause of death: apoplexy (cerebral). She married (1) John Warren Baker 1870 OR 1871, in Alabama. John Warren Baker was born about 1850, in Alabama, died before 1900, in Limestone County, Texas. She married (2) Marion F. Crocker 1 Aug 1900, in Limestone County, Texas. Marion F. Crocker was born Apr 1859, in Mississippi, died 27 Sep 1925, in Falls County, Texas.

Her correct first name appears to be "Arelia", not "Amelia" as indicated by several researchers. Various census records list Oridia, Mary, Amelia, Arelia, and Aulia. Her death certificate lists "Amelia", but her gravemaker is engraved "Arilla". Since most records indicate "Arelia" (or some variation thereof) being her name, that is the name used here. Based on the 1880 census, her middle name may have been "Mary", but some researchers think it was "Marie".

The family moved from Alabama to Texas in 1879/1880. The 1880 census finds them living in Precinct 1, Montgomery County, Texas and this record includes John Baker (30) and his wife Mary (26). Evidently John and Mary made the move to Texas with John's parents, both of whom died in Montgomery County, Texas.

The 1900 census lists Oridia [Arelia] Baker (49, widow) living in Justice Precinct 4, Limestone, Texas with two of her children [son J.D. Baker (21) and daughter Minnie Baker (19)]. Living with them is her mother Liza Stanford (b. Sep 1823, North Carolina).

We have the names of John and Arelia's children: Era (b. abt 1870), Clifford/Ella (b. 1872), Mary (b. abt 1874), Neeta/Jane (b. abt 1876), James David (b. 1879), an infant son born in 1880 and who probably died young, and Minnie (b. 1881).

In 1910, the census finds Marion F. Crocker (51, salesman, store) and Aulia B. Crocker (58) living in Justice Precinct 3, McLennan, Texas. This record indicates they have been married 10 years. Living with them is Callie Crocker (17), Marion's child by an earlier marriage.

The 1920 census finds the family living in Wilson, Choctaw, Oklahoma and lists Marion Crocker (55, labor, gen. farm) and Arelia Crocker (69).

Arelia's gravestone is engraved "Arilla Baker Crocker, 1863, 1923". Her name and both dates appear to be incorrect.

John was the son of James Dykes Baker (b. 1824, Alabama, d. 1918, Texas) and Celia Waters (b. 1829, South Carolina, d. 1916, Texas).

The 1880 census record lists John Baker (30) and his family living in Precinct 1, Montgomery County, Texas.

This was Marion's third marriage. In 1900, the census finds Marion F. Crocker (41, traveling salesman) living in Justice Precinct 3, Hill, Texas with his children. In this record, he is listed as "divorced".

- vi. Martha J. Stanford, born about 1857, in Alabama.
- vii. A. M. Stanford, born 1860, in Dale County, Alabama, died before 1870, in Dale County, Alabama.

A.M. does not appear in the 1870 census and, thus, it is assumed that she died young.

A Bible record gives Mary's birth date as 18 Mar 1801.

John was the son of Peter Young and Fannie Barbour.

John F. Young is named in David Stanford's will, along with the children.

Children of Mary Stanford and John Fletcher Young:

- i. Martha Young, born about 1828, in Columbia County, Georgia.

Martha is named in David Stanford's will.

- ii. Mary Ann Young, born about 1830, in Columbia County, Georgia.

Mary Ann is named in David Stanford's will.

- iii. David Pierce Young, born 22 Dec 1833, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 7 Dec 1909, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried in Thomson City Cemetery, Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia. He married Julia Ann Stanford 24 Apr 1862, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. She was the daughter of Samuel Stanford and Elender Phereby Sanderlin. Julia Ann Stanford was born 6 Apr 1839, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 2 Sep 1907, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried in Thomson City Cemetery, Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia.

David's grave is marked with a CSA marker reading "A Confederate Veteran". He served in the 1st Regiment of the Georgia Infantry, raised in Monroe County, Georgia, during the Civil War.

Julia Ann graduated from the Monroe Female Institute in 1858 and by 1860 was a faculty member, head of the Ornamental Department, who taught painting, embroidery, etc.

According to census records, Julia and David were in Columbia County, Georgia in 1870 and then in Lincoln County, Georgia in 1880.

Some researchers list this marriage occurring in Athens, Clarke, Georgia.

- iv. Virginia Stanford Young, born 23 May 1836, in Appling, Columbia, Georgia, died before 1848, in Columbia County, Georgia.

Virginia is not mentioned in David Stanford's will, indicating that she was not living when the will was drafted.

The "Georgia Military Records" (Vol. II, 1808-1829, pg. 166) lists David as 2nd Lt. from 10 Apr 1826 until 7 Jul 1828 in the Georgia Militia, 129th District Company, Columbia County.

The 1830 census lists David's household with 1M 20-30, 2F <5, and 1F 20-30. The 1830 tax record for Columbia County, Georgia lists David as paying taxes in Thomas E. Bealis District No. 5.

The 1840 census lists David Stanford with 1M <5, 1M 30-40, 1F <5, 1F 5-10, 2F 10-15, and 1F 30-40 in Newton County, Georgia.

The 1850 census finds the family in Cass County, Georgia and lists David (46, brick mason), Sarah (41), Elizabeth (12), and Thomas (10), all born in Georgia.

In 1860, the census lists David Stanford (54), Sarah (53), and Elizabeth (23) in the Van Wert community of Polk County, Georgia. David is listed as a brick mason. Shortly after this census was taken, David is listed in the 42nd Senatorial District of Bartow County, Georgia, aged 59 years 10 months, a brick mason.

"Sometime between 1856 and 1858, the Stilesborough Van Wert community, Polk County, Georgia decided to build a real academy building and the Stilesborough Academy was completed in 1858. The two large fireplaces and chimneys at each end of the building were built by David Stanford, a local brick layer and brick manufacturer." (From the Bartow County County, George Heritage Book, Vol. I).

The 1860 census lists David Stanford (54, brick mason), Sarah (54), and Elizabeth (23) living in the Van Wert community of Polk County, Georgia.

The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists David Stanford, age 50, brick mason, living in Bartow County, Georgia.

The 1870 census finds David Stanford (66), a brick mason born in Georgia, Sarah (64), and Elizabeth (30) living in Beat No. 2, Chambers County, Alabama. The family evidently moved to Alabama after the Civil War.

Children of David Stanford, Jr. and Sarah Faucette:

- i. Mary Ann Stanford, born 9 Mar 1828, in Georgia.
- ii. Martha Hannah Stanford, born 19 Feb 1830, in Georgia.

In the 1870 census, Elizabeth is living with her parents in Beat No. 2, Chambers, Alabama. Sometime after her parents died, Elizabeth moved to Texas.

In 1880, the census finds Elias Roden (60) and Lizzie Roden (42) living in Coryell County, Texas.

This is Elias' second marriage...he married Margaret Evans on 27 Apr 1858 in Red River County, Texas.

Elias served as a Private in Company B, 5th Infantry Regiment, Texas during the Civil War.

The 1900 census finds Elias Roden living in Justice Precinct 4, Lavaca, Texas with the family of his son James G. Roden. In this record, he is listed as widowed.

In the 1840 census, James is found in Monroe County, Georgia living next door to his brother Samuel. His household includes 3M <5 [William, Allen, and ?], 1M 30-40 [James], 1M 40-50, and 1F 30-40 [Elizabeth]. The oldest male is probably his father, who may have been living with him since his mother died in 1832. We do not know the name of James' third son and there are no later records of him.

In the 1850 census, David and Elizabeth are living in Div. 60, Monroe County, Georgia, with only Allen remaining at home.

James enlisted in Company K, 16th Regiment, Georgia Volunteer Infantry, CSA from Columbia County, Georgia on March 27, 1862. He was wounded in the foot, necessitating amputation below the knee, at Fredericksburg, on December 13, 1862. At the close of the war, he was home on "wounded furlough".

His will is dated August 8, 1863 and was proved on September 13, 1864 (Georgia Will Book C, Columbia County) and names sons William P. and Allen R. and wife, Elizabeth F., witnessed by Tyler Whitfield, Ed Dorsey and George Gray (all relatives) and executed 5 Sept 1864.

James and Elizabeth were lifelong members of the First Presbyterian Church, Augusta, Richmond, Georgia (and are probably buried in the church cemetery).

James entered the Baptist ministry in the Hephzibah Baptist Association in 1859. Records from the "Hephzibah Baptist Association Centennial, 1794-1894" included the following biography:

"James, son of Deacon David Stanford, was born near Appling, in 1808. He was religiously reared and connected himself with Kiokee Baptist Church when a youth. He served Abilene a number of years, as a deacon, and was called to the ministry, in 1859. He labored very successfully as an evangelist in the Hephzibah Mission, but never served as pastor. He died July 1864, leaving a wife and two children."

Elizabeth was the daughter of Jacob Danforth Sr. (1774-1839) and Polly Johnson (1784-1842) and was married previously to a Thompson...she is listed in Marriage Book B, Columbia County, Georgia as "Mrs. Elizabeth F. Thompson" at the time of her marriage to James.

Elizabeth's will was drafted and filed with the Court of the Ordinary in Richmond County, Georgia in Nov 1869. In this will, she lists her name as "Elizabeth Frazier Stanford." This will lists Jacob Danforth, Jr. as Trustee and names Mary Ann Danforth as her niece.

After James died, she lived with Jacob Danforth Jr. (1813-1872) and his wife Mary Anne Chapelear (1826-1888). The 1870 census for Richmond County, Georgia confirms that, listing Elizabeth Stanford (68) living with Jacob and Mary Ann Danforth.

Sarah was the daughter of Ezekiel Reid (1777-1854) and Sarah Blanchard (1780-1824).

Sarah may have died from complications from the birth of her second child.

Children of James W. Stanford and Sarah Reid:

- 142      i.    William P. Stanford, born 1836, in Columbia County, Georgia, died after 1905, in Columbia County, Georgia.
- 143      ii.   Allen R. Stanford, born 18 Jan 1838, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 20 Nov 1884, in Columbia County, Georgia.

Samuel was a farmer and brick mason. He moved from Columbia County, Georgia to Monroe County, Georgia about 1840 and is found there in the 1840 census (1M 20-30, 1F <5, 1F 15-20) living next door to his brother James.

In the 1850 census for 6th Division, Monroe County, Georgia, Samuel (age 23), is listed with his wife Ellen (age 20) and children Ann (age 10), Jabez (age 8), Sarah (age 60, and Elizabeth (age 4). [Obviously, the recorded ages for Samuel and Elender are incorrect.]

The 1850 Slave Census lists Samuel Stanford living in Monroe County, Georgia and owning 3 slaves.

The 1860 census finds the family living in Dillard's, Monroe, Georgia and lists Samuel Stamford (46, brick mason), Farabee (40), Julia A. (21, school teacher), Jabez (18), Sarah (15), Martha (12), Robert (9), Samuel (6), and James T. (1). Living with the family is David Young (27, brick mason).

Samuel Stanford served as a medical doctor in Company H, 32nd Regiment, Georgia Infantry, CSA, enlisting on August 14, 1863 in Macon, Georgia. He was in General Hospital No. 2, Summerville, South Carolina from March 1 through June 30, 1864. He was slightly wounded in the Battle of Ocean Park, Florida; took sick at Charleston, South Carolina, returned home, and died in October, 1864.

Elender's place of birth may have been Savannah, Chatham, Georgia.

Children of Samuel Stanford and Elender Phereby Sanderlin:

- i. Julia Ann Stanford, born 6 Apr 1839, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 2 Sep 1907, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried in Thomson City Cemetery, Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia. She married David Pierce Young 24 Apr 1862, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. He was the son of John Fletcher Young and Mary Stanford. Julia Ann graduated from the Monroe Female Institute in 1858 and by 1860 was a faculty member, head of the Ornamental Department, who taught painting, embroidery, etc.

According to census records, Julia and David were in Columbia County, Georgia in 1870 and then in Lincoln County, Georgia in 1880.

David's grave is marked with a CSA marker reading "A Confederate Veteran". He served in the 1st Regiment of the Georgia Infantry, raised in Monroe County, Georgia, during the Civil War.

Some researchers list this marriage occurring in Athens, Clarke, Georgia.

Samuel Green Hall was born 24 Dec 1829, in Warren County, Georgia, died 19 Jan 1881, in Warren County, Georgia. She married (2) Samuel A. "Sam" Walker Dec 1888, in Dearing, McDuffie, Georgia. Samuel A. "Sam" Walker was born about 1845, in South Carolina.

Samuel was the son of James Robert Hall and Mary Celia Cody.

Samuel previously married Ann Leslie Zeiley (b: abt 1831 in New York) in 1853 in Warren County, Georgia.

Sam was a "Reverend".

In 1880, Sam (35, farmer) was living in Dearing, McDuffie, Georgia and his wife's name is listed as Ann M. (30).

The 1900 census finds him working as a "house carpenter" and living in Justice

Precinct 6 of Leon County, Texas.

In the 1930 census, Sam (76) is a boarder in a rooming house in Grapeland, Houston, Texas where he is listed as a carpenter.

He died in Grapeland, Texas in 1934 and his gravestone reads "J. Sam Stanford, 80 Years Old, March 9, 1934".

Tommie was a brick mason. He never married.

The death year engraved on Tommie's tombstone is degraded and cannot be read, though it appears to be "19--".

It is likely that John's middle name was "Ray," but no documentation of this has yet been found.

John R. was a farmer. Some researchers confuse him with another John R. Stanford who was an attorney in Habersham County, Georgia at the same time. [That John R. Stanford was a lawyer originally from Pennsylvania, descended from the Stanford family of Dorchester County, Maryland.]

John R. Stanford served as a lieutenant in the Warren County, Georgia Militia from 22 Mar 1824 to 22 Jun 1828 [Georgia Militia Records, 1808-1829, p.120].

He was awarded one draw in the 1827 Georgia Land Lottery for Capt. Boswell's District in Franklin County, Georgia.

John R. was the administrator of his father's estate.

The 1830 census lists John R. Standford in Warren County, Georgia. This records lists 1 M<5 [George Ray], 1 M 20-29 [John R.], 2 F<5 [Ellen and Permelia], 1 F 5-9 [Harriet], and 1 F 20-29 [Sarah Elizabeth].

The 1845 Georgia Census lists John R. Stanford living in Warren County, Georgia.

According to the U.S. census records, the family was living in Warren County, Georgia in 1850. The 1850 census for Warren County, Georgia lists John R. (49, farmer), Elizabeth (45), Eleanor (24), Pamela (22), George R. (21), Delila (18), Jeremiah (16), Anderson W. (12), Samuel (11), Nancy A. (8), John D. (5), and Sarah E. (2).

The 1860 census finds the family living in Taliaferro County, Georgia and includes J.R. Stanford (56, overseer), Elizabeth (51), Permilia (29), Delila (27), Mary Ann (15), and John D. (14).

Evidently, the family relocated to Washington County, Georgia during or just after the Civil War and the 1870 census finds the family (Family No. 164) living in Giles, Washington, Georgia with John R. (66), Elizabeth (65), and Mary A. (27). Living with them are grandchildren Elizabeth Brooks (14) and John Brooks (12), evidently Harriet's children. John D. Stanford and his family are living next door.

Children of John R. Stanford and Sarah Elizabeth "Betsy" Smith:

- i. Harriet Eleanor Stanford, born 17 Jun 1824, in Georgia, died 9 Jan 1911, in Washington County, Georgia, buried in Mineral Springs Baptist Church Cemetery, Washington County, Georgia. She married (1) Jordan Brooks 20 Dec 1846, in Warren County, Georgia. Jordan Brooks was born about 1826, in Warren County, Georgia, died 26 Aug 1859, in McDuffie County, Georgia. She married (2) GNU Rabun. GNU Rabun died before 1870, in Georgia.

The 1860 census finds Harriet Brooks, a widow, living in Warren County, Georgia. In addition to her children, her father-in-law Isaac Brooks is living with her.

In 1870, the census lists Harriet Rabun, again a widow, living next door to her brother John D. Stanford, near her parents in Washington County, Georgia.

The 1880 census finds Harriet living with her eldest son Gary Brooks in Washington County, Georgia.

We learn Harriet's dates of birth and death from her gravestone.

Jordan was the son of Issac Brooks (b. abt 1770, Orange County, North Carolina) and Fanny Kitchens. Tax records indicate that Issac Brooks was living in Warren County, Georgia by 1794.

We learn that Jordan's death date from the diary of Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia resident W.D. Wilson (published first in a newspaper and later in the book "Georgia Deaths 1872-1935"), who recorded that Jordan Brooks died on 26 Aug 1859.

- ii. Ellen Stanford, born about 1826, in Georgia, died before 1898, in Georgia. She married James B. Hayes 13 Jan 1852, in Warren County, Georgia. James B. Hayes was born about 1826, in Georgia, died 1898 OR 1900, in Columbia County, Georgia.

In the 1850 census, her name is listed as "Eleanor", but all records thereafter list "Ellen".

In 1860, the census finds the family living in District 9, Columbia, Georgia and lists Jas. B. Hayes (34, overseer) and his wife Ellen (32), along with two children.

The 1870 census lists the family in 174th District, Columbia, Georgia and includes James B. Hays (44, works on farm) and his wife Ellen (45) along with their daughter Mary Ann (14) and niece Fannie Brooks (17).

James was the son of Edmond Hayes (1795–1849) and Mary Reese (1795–1881).

In the records, James' surname is spelled both Hayes and Hays, though the latter predominates.

James enlisted in Company K, Georgia 48th Infantry Regiment on 01 May 1862. He was promoted to Full Corporal on 01 Apr 1864 and mustered out on 09 Apr 1865 at Appomattox Court House, Virginia.

In 1898, James applied for an Indigent Soldier's pension in Columbia County, Georgia. The application stated his physical condition was "very feeble, diseased and unable to work". He declared he had not property and no money and that he lived in McDuffie County, Georgia in 1897. No mention is made of a wife in the application.

Given James' feeble condition and the fact that he is not found in the 1900 census, it assumed that he had died by then.

- iii. Permilia Stanford, born May 1828, in Georgia, died after 1900, in Georgia. She married GNU Brooks after 1870, in Georgia.

In the 1870 census, Permilla Stanford (42) is listed living with her sister Delilah's family in McDuffie County, Georgia.

In the 1900 census, Permilia Brooke [Brooks] (72, widow) is listed as "aunt" living with Virginia Stanford Connor and her husband Wilson F. Connor in Longpond, Montgomery, Georgia.

1823, in Warren County, Georgia, died 1887, in Georgia, buried in Sweetwater Baptist Church Cemetery, McDuffie County, Georgia.

Delilah and Robert had 4 children.

Delilah and Robert homesteaded in Warren County, Georgia on 19 Apr 1869 [Warren County Homestead Records, pages 438-440] and the 1870 census lists the family living in Warren County, Georgia. In this census, Permilla Stanford (42), Delilah's sister, is living with the family.

In 1880, the census for Dearing, McDuffie, Georgia lists the family.

Delilah was Robert's second wife...he married Mary Lokey (Lokie) on 31 Oct 1844 in Warren County, Georgia. In the 1870 census, two children, Gartell Lokie (12) and Robert Lokie (2) are living with the family.

In the 1870 census, Robert is listed as a farmer. In 1880, he is listed as working for the railroad.

- 147 vi. Jeremiah "Jerry" Stanford, born about 1834, in Georgia, died 3 Jul 1863, in Civil War, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.
- 148 vii. Anderson W. Stanford, born 26 Dec 1834, in Warren County, Georgia, died 27 Oct 1916, in Beall, Talbot, Georgia.
- viii. Samuel L. Stanford, born about 1839, in Georgia, died 3 Jul 1863, in Civil War, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

In 1860, the census finds the brothers Jeremiah and Samuel Stanford living together and farming in Districts 8 and 10 (Eubanks), Columbia, Georgia.

Samuel Stanford joined the "Hamilton Rangers" (Company K, 48th Georgia Infantry, CSA) on 6 May 1862. This unit mustered from the Thomson, Columbia, Georgia vicinity. He married Priscilla Ivey 18 Aug 1838, in Warren County, Georgia. Priscilla Ivey was born 8 Apr 1804, in Georgia, died after 1860, in Sumter County, Georgia.

The marriage license/certificate for Jonathan Stanford and Priscilla Ivey in Warren County, Georgia, is dated 18 Aug 1838.

In the 1840 census for Upson County, Georgia, we find the family of Jonathan Stanford that includes 1 M<5 [Stibson Ivey], 1 M 20-30 [Jonathan], 1 F<5 [Ellen], and 1 F 30-40 [Priscilla].

The 1850 census lists the family in District 17, Sumter County, Georgia. This record lists Jonathan Stanford (35) and Priscilla (48), with four children: Stinson Ivey (male, 14) [Priscilla's nephew], Ellen Ivey (female, 11), William Ivey (male, 5), and Nancy Ivey (female, 4). The surname "Ivey" is probably "dittoed" for the remaining children by accident by the census taker since all were born after 1838. According to the 1850 Slave Census, Jonathan owned 7 slaves.

Jonathan Stanford is listed in 1852 in the Sumter County, Georgia tax records, owning land in the District 17 of the county.

In 1860, the census finds the family living in Districts 17/26, Sumter, Georgia and the record includes Jonathan Stanford (59), Priscilla Stanford (58), and Nancy Stanford (14).

Priscilla was the daughter of Dinkins Ivey (b. 23 Mar 1778 in Virginia, d. 10 Feb 1838 in Upson County, Georgia) and Lydia Hodgkin (b. 26 Jan 1777, d. 21 Feb 1845 in Upson County, Georgia). Dinkins Ivey served in the Georgia Militia during the War of 1812 from Warren County, Georgia.

In Lydia Ivy's will, recorded 4 Jun 1845, in Upson County, Georgia, provides: "I give unto Priscilla Stanford my Daughter five dollars."

The Warren County marriage record lists Priscilla's surname as "Ivey".

The 1850 census record lists Stinson [transcribed as "Stibson" by Ancestry.com] Ivey (<5) living with the family. This is Stinson Vernon Ivey, son of Berryman Ivey (1802-1884) and Anna King (1808-1891), Priscilla's nephew, born 10 Mar 1836. Stinson married Adaline Ivy on 8 Jun 1856. The Georgia Central Register of Convicts lists Stenson V. Ivey, convicted for forgery in Sumter County, Georgia, received at prison on 13 Apr 1858 to serve an 8 year sentence.

Children of Jonathan Stanford and Priscilla Ivey:

She married George Washington Coppage 25 Jul 1854, in Sumter County, Georgia. George Washington Coppage was born 29 Mar 1835, in Thomas County, Georgia, died 18 Oct 1915, in Valdosta, Lowndes, Georgia, buried in Sunset Hill Cemetery, Valdosta, Lowndes, Georgia.

Lydia and George had 5 children.

Sometime after 1857, the family moved to Berrien County, Georgia.

George W. Coppage was the son of James A. Coppage.

After Lydia's death, George married Martha M. Stanfill on 25 Sep 1876 in Lowndes County, Georgia.

George had six children by Lydia and six by Martha Stanfill who was 26 years younger than George.

George was a Confederate soldier serving in the Civil War from 1862-1865.

He married (2) Drucilla LNU between 1850 and 1859, in Georgia. Drucilla LNU was born about 1829, in South Carolina, died after 1870, in Georgia.

The 1933 Death Certificate for William Madison Stanford lists his fathers name as D.W.W.W. Stanford, born Georgia. Perhaps William Winder Stanford's full name was David William Winder W. Stanford. Note that he named one son William and another David.

In the 1850 census, we find the family living in Division 88, Walton, Georgia, including William W.

Stanford (25, farmer), Mary (23), [William] Madison (5), [John] Thomas (3), and David (1/12).

South Carolina), William [Madison] (14) John [Thomas] (12), and Robert (4/12). This record indicates that Mary Ann died before 1860 and that William had re-married.

in 1870, the census finds Drucela Stanford (40) and her son Robert (10) living in Cartersville, Bartow, Georgia. Evidently, William had died by this time.

Children of William Winder Stanford and Mary Ann Offutt:

- 151      i.    William Madison Stanford, born 22 Jan 1846, in Georgia, died 22 Aug 1933, in Graham, Young, Texas.

None of these census records list children.

John's gravestone is engraved "J. Tom Stanford," indicating his middle name was Thomas.

Ida was the daughter of John Elliott and Mary Cooper.

- iii.    David Stanford, born about 1850, in Georgia, died 17 May 1858, in Georgia, buried in Old Conyers City Cemetery, Conyers, Rockdale, Georgia.

David's gravestone indicates he died in his "eighth year".

Children of William Winder Stanford and Drucilla LNU:

- 152      i.    Robert Edward Stanford, born Feb 1860, in Georgia, died 1934, in Mathis, San Patricio, Texas.

David was a farmer.

There is a record in the Court of Ordinary minutes, Columbia County, Georgia, dated 13 Mar 1839, that reads "David Stanford, guardian for Rebecca Stanford, now Rebecca Harrison and wife of John Harrison, the sum of one hundred and eight dollars and 6 and one fourth cents in full of the said Rebecca legacy coming from her father's estate this 25th February 1839", filed by John Harrison.

The 1860 census finds the family living in Browning, DeKalb, Georgia next door to Benjamin Ray, Martha's brother or cousin. This record includes David Stanford (30, farmer), Martha (25), Paterson (2), and Infant [Benjamin] (4/12).

David Stanford served in the Confederate States Army, enlisting in DeKalb County, Georgia's 6th regiment as a Private on April 10, 1862. He was captured at Decatur, Georgia on September 10, 1864 being released at Camp Douglas, Illinois on May 13, 1865. Also, according to the "Index to Georgia Civil War Confederate Pension Files", he served in Georgia's 36th regiment, Company F.

The family is listed in the 1870 census in Evans, DeKalb, Georgia as David Stanford (38), Martha (29), Benjamin (10), James (8), Mary L. (3), and Daniel M. (1).

In 1880, the family is living in Panthersville, DeKalb, Georgia. The census record includes David Stanford (48), Martha (43), Benjiman (20), James R. (18), Mary L. (13), Daniel M. (11), Maggie (8), Virgil (6), and Minnie (4).

No headstone can be found for him at Indian Creek Cemetery.

Martha Ray was the daughter of Patterson Manning Ray (b. Aug 1804, Greenville, South Carolina) and Rebecca Scruggs (b. Abt 1816 in South Carolina). We find Patterson Ray's family in the 1850 census living in DeKalb County, Georgia.

In the 1860 census, we find David and Martha Stanford living next door to Benjamin Ray in DeKalb County, Georgia. Benjamin was probably Martha's brother since she named one of her sons Benjamin.

The 1889-90 "Atlanta City Directory" lists Martha, widow of David, living at 6 Bradley in 1890.

We find Martha Stanford (73), a widow, in the 1910 census living in the household of John W. and Janie Dickinson in Atlanta Ward 4, Fulton, Georgia. In this record, she is listed as a boarder, but John Dickinson lists his mother as being born in South Carolina so there is probably a Ray family connection.

In 1901, Martha applied for a Widow's Pension on the basis of her husband's Civil War service. From this application, we learn the date and place of David's death.

No headstone can be found for her at Indian Creek Cemetery.

Robert Bismarck Besser was born 2 Feb 1871, in Dahlonega, Lumpkin, Georgia, died 3 Sep 1958, in Charlotte, Mecklenburg, North Carolina, buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Charlotte, Mecklenburg, North Carolina.

Robert was the son of Charles A. Besser (1811-1898) and Sarah Ann Eason (1828-1887).
- ix. Fannie Mae Stanford, born 20 Dec 1880, in DeKalb County, Georgia, died 20 Dec 1954, in Charlotte, Mecklenburg, North Carolina, buried in Sylvester Cemetery, Atlanta, DeKalb, Georgia. She married (1) GNU Williams. She married (2) GNU Carpenter.

Fannie Mae first married a Williams, by whom she had one son, Leroy Williams (1901-1956).

Sometime later she married again to a Carpenter.

Frank was a physician. From the writings of Charles Todd Quitman, a classmate of Frank's, published in 1905, we learn that both men graduated from medical school at The University of the City of New York in 1847.

We find F.A. Stanford (26) in the 1850 census living in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia, along with his older brother T.J. (who is listed as a "merchant").

The 1950 Slave Census lists F.A. Stanford living in Muscogee County, Georgia and owning 3 slaves.

In 1851, the City Council of Columbus, Georgia appointed Frank as "City Physician". ["Columbus, Georgia 1827-1865", Compiled by John H. Martin, published by Thomas Gilbert, Columbus, Georgia., 1874. available at the Library of the University of Georgia.]

Frank married about 1854 and had one child before his wife died in 1857.

In the 1860 census, he is living in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia in what is evidently a boarding house. That listing includes F.A. Stanford (32, physician).

During the Civil War, Frank served as a surgeon in the Confederate army. A "Dr. Stanford" is listed as serving as a Private in Company B., 39th Alabama Infantry Regiment in April 1862. He was appointed "Assistant Surgeon" on 5 Jul 1862 in the Army of Tennessee. On 10 Dec 1862, he was appointed Chief Surgeon, Calvary, on the staff of General Joseph Wheeler, and held that position until at least 31 Mar 1864. He is also listed as serving with the 15th Infantry Regiment of Alabama. The following is a newspaper article from the "Montgomery Weekly Advertiser", July 6, 1864, that mentions his military service:

"Army of Tennessee, near Marietta, Monday, June 27, 1864.

"All the public buildings on the square in Marietta, have of late been converted into hospitals for the different brigades and divisions of the army, besides a general receiving and distributing hospital, at which the wounded are received from the field, operated on, and sent off to hospitals in the rear. At present we have but very few sick and wounded in the hospital, they having been generally sent to the rear soon after being received.

"The large and spacious hotel here is occupied as the hospital for Wheeler's cavalry corps, of which Surgeon F. A. Stanford, a most accomplished and scientific operator, is the Medical Director. The great care and attention paid to the sick and wounded at this hospital, which also has a special ward for badly wounded cases sent from the infantry, is deserving of special mention, as well as the strict regard paid to the cleanliness of the wards, every cot having clean sheets daily put on it, and the same exactness to sanitary rules as prevail in city and State hospitals."

The 1870 census finds Francis A. Stanford (44, physician) living in the boarding house operated by the Lockhart family in Columbus Ward 4, Muscogee, Georgia.

The first State Board of Health of Georgia was created on 25 Feb 1875 and F.A. Stanford, M.D. was appointed one of the initial board members.

In 1880, the census lists F.A. Stanford (physician) living in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia in what is evidently a boarding house, along with his son Charlie Stanford (age 27, planter). Charles Stanford died soon after this census was recorded.

Based on a newspaper report in the "Union and Recorder", Milledgeville, Baldwin, Georgia published on 22 Sep 1885, we learn that "Dr. F.A. Stanford of Columbus, died in Marietta on the 13th."

The following is a biography from "Memoirs of Georgia", Vol. II, Published by the Atlanta Historical Society, Atlanta, Georgia, 1895, Pages 235-236:

"Frank A. Stanford, M.D., Columbus, Georgia

"Dr. Stanford died in 1885, aged sixty years. I have been unable to obtain data as to his early youth and much of his life which are necessary to write a full memoir of him. He graduated M.D. from the University of New York City. (I cannot ascertain the date.) He served a term on the resident staff of the New York hospital. From a relative of his I learn that Profs. Valentine Mott and Van Buren, of New York, regarded Dr. Stanford at the time of his graduation as one of the most promising young physicians of that day. In him their prophecy was fulfilled, for he became one of the greatest of Georgia's great doctors.

"He was great in all departments of his profession. He was one of our most renowned general practitioners of medicine, and as a surgeon ranked second to none of Georgia's great surgeons; indeed, he was the peer of the greatest surgeons in America, and had he lived in New York would have attained a national distinction. He performed almost all of the capital operations known to surgery in his day. During the civil war he was medical director of Wheeler's cavalry corps, occupying this position until the surrender of the Confederate army, discharging his duties of his high position to the great benefit of the Confederate cause, and to the eminent satisfaction of his distinguished commander. Dr. Stanford was a remarkably handsome man. In military and civil life he was a brave, courteous, highly cultured gentleman, and commanded the respect and confidence of all who were so fortunate as to know him. He was for many years a member of the medical association of Georgia, and contributed to the volumes of the transactions of this association many of its ablest papers. Besides the above mentioned articles, he contributed much and ably to medical literature through medical journals. He was one of the most useful and highly honored members of the state board of health in Georgia, and was regarded as one of the most eminent sanitarians in America.

"With the exception of the period embraced in his army life, he was a resident of Columbus, Georgia and was considered the most distinguished man in that section of the state."

Frank is buried in Linwood Cemetery, Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia with is wife, son and mother. His gravestone reads "In the memory of Francis A. Stanford, Surgeon & Physician, Born A.D. 1825, Died Sept. 13 1885, Distinguished as a Surgeon and Famous in his profession...and beloved by all who knew him."

Mary Elizabeth was the daughter of John and Mary Fontaine.

Children of Francis A. "Frank" Stanford and Mary Elizabeth Fontaine:

- i. Charles Theophilus Stanford, born 10 Sep 1855, in Georgia, died 2 Jul 1880, in Georgia, buried 4 Jul 1880, in Linwood Cemetery, Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia.

William was one of the winners in the 1827 Georgia Land Lottery, winning Lot No. 203, District 15, Lee County, Georgia.

The 1830 census lists a William Stanford living in Newton County, Georgia with his wife and two sons. This records lists 2 M < 5, 1 M 20-29 [William], and 1 F 20-29 [wife]. There is a second 1830 census record for a William Stanford living in Newton County, Georgia. This record lists 2 M < 5, 1 M 20-29, 1 F < 5, 1 F 20-29, 1 F 30-39, and 1 F 40-49. Examination of these records indicates that the families listed lived in different parts of the county. However, both were married, but the wife's name in each case is unknown.

No records for William after 1830 have yet been found.

This may be the William Stanford buried at the Stanford Family Cemetery, Dacula, Gwinnett, Georgia.

Children of William Stanford and GNU LNU:

- i. GNU Stanford, born between 1825 and 1830, in Georgia.

ii. GNU Stanford, born between 1825 and 1830.

The 1850 census finds Monroe (31), Caroline (31), Elizabeth (11), Ann (5), and Leonidas (1), living in District 24 of Talbot County, Georgia. Also listed is a male, 8 years old, whose name is unreadable on the census record, but who is probably James.

The 1850 Slave Census lists Monroe Stanford of Talbot County, Georgia owning 5 slaves.

There is a record of a lawsuit, ultimately decided by the Supreme Court of Georgia in July 1855, concerning a debt owed to James M. Stanford of Americus, Georgia by Leonidus O. Davis and his partner Mizell.

In the 1860 census, the family has moved to Buena Vista, Marion, Georgia, where James (42) works as a clerk. The other family listed are Martha C. (40), Elizabeth D. (20), James E. (18), Ann A. (15), Edwin (11), and Philode (F, 9). James E. is listed as an apprentice blacksmith.

Before 1864, the family moved to Americus, Sumter, Georgia and James died there in April 1870. The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists J.M. Stanford, age 46, clerk, living in Sumter County, Georgia.

From 1868 until his death in 1870, James served as Ordinary or Probate Judge in Sumter County, Georgia.

The 1870 Mortality Census lists James' death due to apoplexy, mistakenly indicating his race as "mulatto".

The 1870 census, taken in June 1870, lists Martha C. Stanford (50), Leonidas E. (20), who is Assistant Clerk, Court of the Ordinary, and Philodea (16) living in Americus, Sumter, Georgia.

Children of James Monroe Stanford and Martha Caroline Mason:

- i. Elizabeth D. Stanford, born about 1840, in Georgia. She married David A. Mayo 8 Jan 1863, in Georgia. David A. Mayo was born Aug 1829, in Franklin County, North Carolina, died 5 Jul 1893, in Americus, Sumter, Georgia, buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Americus, Sumter, Georgia.

This was David's second marriage; he was first married to Julia Jane Wheeler (1838-1862).

David served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War, enlisting in 1861 in the 4th Regiment, Georgia Infantry, Company K.

The 1870 census lists the family living in Americus, Sumter, Georgia and includes David Mayo (42) and Elizabeth D. Mayo (29).

In 1880, the census lists the family living in Sumter County, Georgia. This record includes a listing for their son Stanford A. Mayo, born abt 1876.

David was a building contractor and brickyard owner Americus, Sumter, Georgia for many years.

- 156    ii. James Embro Stanford, born 12 Aug 1842, in Centerville, Talbot, Georgia., died 26 Jul 1908, in Bibb County, Georgia.
- iii. Ann Amanda "Annie" Stanford, born 16 Feb 1846, in Sumter County, Georgia, died 10 Oct 1881, in Americus, Sumter County, Georgia, buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Americus, Sumter, Georgia. She married Joseph Henry Allen 17 Nov 1865, in Sumter County, Georgia. Joseph Henry Allen was born 30 Jan 1833, in Warren County, Georgia, died 14 Feb 1901, in Americus, Sumter, Georgia, buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Americus, Sumter, Georgia.

The 1880 census lists the family living in Americus, Sumter, Georgia and lists Henry Allen (46) and Annie (34), along with four children.

Joseph was the son of Freeman Walker Allen (1808-1879) and Hannah Burk (1814-1853).

Joseph and Annie had seven or eight children, three of which died as infants.

During the Civil War, Joseph served in Company K, 9th Georgia Infantry, "Americus Volunteer Rifles," joining in 1861. He was made orderly sergeant for more than two years and in 1864 was promoted to first lieutenant of his company, in which capacity he served until the end of the war.

After the war, he engaged in the mercantile business in Americus, Sumter, Georgia and continued in that business until 1873, when he was elected Clerk of the Superior Court of Sumter County, in which capacity he has served until his death.

After Annie's death, Joseph married Ella J. Adams from Talbot County, Georgia on 16 Feb 1888.

- iv. Leonidas Edwin "L.E." Stanford, born 1849, in Georgia, died Jun 1896, in Americus, Sumter, Georgia.

The 1870 census, taken in June 1870, lists Leonidas E. Stanford (20), Assistant Clerk, Court of the Ordinary, living with his mother and younger sister in Americus, Sumter, Georgia. Since his father served as Ordinary (Probate Judge) until his death in the spring of 1870, L.E. was essentially working for his father.

In 1895, Leonidas applied for and was granted an Indigent Soldier's Pension. In his application, L.E. stated that he was born in 1849, was married but had no children, and that he was "physically unable to labor, have been so for two years." He indicated that he earned on $25 in 1893 and 1894 and depended on the largesse of friends to live. According to his application, Leonidas served in Company D, 11th Georgia Militia, enlisting in July 1864 and serving until the April 1865 surrender.

v. Philodea Stanford, born about 1851, in Georgia.

The family connection to Thomas Harwood Stanford is based on three factors:

1. His name, in honor of his grandfather. 2. His date of birth. 3. Thomas was 10-12 years old when his father died and only about 15 when his stepmother remarried. It was common practice for families to raise orphaned children, but to apprentice them in a skilled trade at a relatively early age. In Thomas' case, the skilled trade was "shoe maker" and this follows a pattern of Stanford family members becoming tailors, hatters, and shoe makers during this period.

No Thomas Stanford appears in any 1830 census record for Maryland.

The 1840 census lists a Thomas Stanford (age 30-39) living in Baltimore Ward 3, Baltimore, Maryland, "employed in manufacture and trade." This record includes 1 M 30-39, 2 F 20-29, 1 M < 5, and 2 F 5-9. However, this does not appear to be our Thomas, unless he was married previously and Rebecca is his second wife.

In 1850, the census lists Thos. H. Stanford (44, shoe maker) living in Baltimore Ward 12, Baltimore, Maryland, with his wife Rebecca (36) and children Thomas Stanford, Jr. (9), Wm. W. (6), and Mary (2).

The 1860 census lists the family living in Baltimore Ward 12, Baltimore City, Maryland. This record includes Thomas Stanford (51, clerk), Rebecca (40), Thomas (17, clerk), Wallace (13), and Florence (10). Since Mary does not appear in this record, it is probable that she died young.

The 1880 census lists Thomas Stanford (75) living with his son William Wallace Stanford in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland. Evidently, Rebecca has died by this date.

Children of Thomas Harwood Stanford and Rebecca Foreman:

- 157     i.    Thomas Harwood Stanford, Jr., born Apr 1842, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland, died before 1910.
- 158     ii.   William Wallace Stanford, born Apr 1846, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland, died after 1922, in Summerville, Dorchester, South Carolina.
- iii.   Mary Stanford, born about 1847, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland, died before 1860, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland.
- iv.   Florence Reese Stanford, born 2 Nov 1848, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland, died 1 Feb 1927, in Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina, buried in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland. Cause of death: myocenditis.

Evidently, Florence never married. In several census records, we find her living with her bother William's family.

Joshua's middle name is spelled both "Tallie" and "Tally" in various records.

Joshua Tallie Stanford resided in Meriwether County, Georgia for several years. The 1840 census finds him living in Meriwether County lists his household including 2 males (0-5) [John and Wiley], 1 male (5-10) [Francis Marion], 1 male (10-15) [Andrew Jackson], 1 male (15-20) [Richard D.], 1 male (30-40) [Joshua], 1 female (5-10) [probably Louisa], 1 female (10-15) [Almira], and 1 female (30-40) [Susan].

Records indicate that he bought and sold several tracts of land in Meriwether County, Georgia and eventually purchased a lot in Carroll County, Georgia.

He became acquainted with a Thomas family in Meriwether County and he and Sara Nancy Thomas began a family. There is no record of marriage disolvment with his wife Susan and no record of marriage with Nancy. He and Nancy moved to Florida after 1846, since his last child with Susan was born that year, and he is listed in the census for 1850 living in Jefferson County, Florida. This 1850 census record includes Joshua T. Standford (49, farmer), Nancy (30), John (14), Ellison I. (9), David (7), Malichi (5), Wesley (3), and Simeon (1).

His (first) wife Susan is listed in the 1850 census in Carroll County, Georgia. Tax records for her in 1853 exist, but nothing on her has been found after that time.

Sometime between 1855 and 1856, Joshua moved westward into Mississippi and then Arkansas. Based on the places of birth of his children, we know he was in Arkansas in early 1856. There are records of land purchases by him in Johnson County, Arkansas dated 1 Mar 1860.

The 1860 census lists the family living in Horsehead, Johnson, Arkansas and lists Joshua Stamford (60, farmer), Nancy (40), Allison (20), Wesley (14), Simon (14), Ruth (8), William (5), Winny (3), and Nash (1).

During the Civil War, Joshua served in Company G, 2nd Infantry Regiment, Mississippi (Quinn's) State Troops, indicating that he enlisted in Mississippi.

The following article was researched and written by Kay Lynn Mayer Knee and Gerrie Jones Yates for the Gravestone Dedication Committee at Heard Baptist Church, Petteway, Roberston, Texas, with assistance by Stanford descendants Patsy Littrell and Roderick Bush:

"The average age of the soldier in the Mississippi 2nd was about 24 years, with less than 1% being in the sixty and above range. Joshua Tally Stanford was one of that small percentage. He was born April 9, 1801, making him about 61 when he enlisted. He was a homeopathic doctor and his knowledge in the medical field necessitated his enlistment.

"After Mississippi seceded from the Union and began to raise companies of state troops, the men from the then four counties of northeast Mississippi Tishomingo, Tippah, Itawamba and Pontotoc began enrolling in February and March of 1861. These companies would initially be assigned to the Second Regiment, Mott's Brigade, State Army of Mississippi. Once they became part of the 2nd Mississippi Infantry Volunteers, the independent companies were assigned letters A-L. Company G was the Pontotoc Minute Men. It was raised in Pontotoc County. This regiment, also known as Quinn's Regiment was organized 11 August 1862, at Camp Tupper, Hinds County.

"On Joshua Tally's muster card he was listed as AWOL' for October 20, 1862, just one month after he enlisted. While researching information for this biography several factors came to light that possibly explained the AWOL designation. The company commanders and regimental staff in some circumstances were often uninformed as to the true status of members of the regiment, particularly those who were furloughed home to recover from wounds, for instance.

"It must be recalled that for a large part of the war, northern Mississippi was essentially under occupation by Federal forces. Even though Federal soldiers were not always in evidence in all communities at all times, periodic "sweeps" by cavalry and infantry would be conducted to round up Confederate soldiers.

"Thus, recuperating members of the regiment often would be seized by these sweeps and sent to northern prison camps. Because of the poor communications from within federally occupied parts of the Confederacy back to the Confederate authorities, the regiment often never received word as to the true status of these men.

"The company commanders therefore, had no choice but to record the men as "absent without leave" (AWOL) or to presume in some cases that they had actually deserted. Another factor was that most of these men listed their occupation as a farmer. Some of them while technically were AWOL, would simply return home for a day or two to attend to harvesting etc. and then return to duty.

"The regiment is reported in the returns of January, 1863, as 106 present effective, with Hebert's Brigade; same in February and March. Joshua's enlistment was for one year and he was discharged February 28, 1863. A distinguishing feature of the 2nd Mississippi was that it had more members named to the Confederate Roll of Honor than any other regiment in Confederate service.

"According to family legend provided by Patsy Littrell (a great great grand daughter of James Wesley Stanford) Ellison T., Joshua T's son, also served in the Civil War. He was in the advancing ranks marching near the standard bearer when a bullet struck and killed the man. Ellison T. then picked up the flag and began to march, only to be mortally wounded a short time later.

"The 2nd Mississippi met its final demise a week before Lee's surrender at Appomattox when it was overwhelmed by the Federal breakthrough of the Petersburg defenses on April 2, 1865 along the banks of a stream called Hatcher's Run."

Joshua and Nancy moved the family to Texas on a wagon train in 1867, first settling in Trinity County, as evidenced by divorce papers filed there by their son James Wesley Stanford from his first wife, Elizabeth. Land records document the fact that Joshua then moved to Robertson County by 1871.

In the 1880 census, Joshua was living in the home of J.A. and Susannah Brantner Comer (next door to James Wesley Stanford, his second wife Mary Eaves, and their children) in Robertson County, Texas.

In 1850, the census lists the Susan Stamford (45, farmer) living in Division 11, Carroll, Georgia, with her children Francis (19), John (11), Wiley (9), Hiram (7), and Louisa (4).

Children of Joshua Tallie Stanford and Susan Jones:

- 160      ii.   Andrew Jackson "Jack" Stanford, born 28 Feb 1827, in Carolton, Carroll, Georgia, died 20 Jul 1900, in Liberty Hill, Williamson, Texas.
- iii.   Almira A. E. "Allie" Stanford, born 10 Nov 1829, in Georgia, died 15 Oct 1907, in Burnet County, Texas, buried in Smithwick Cemetery, Burnet, Burnet, Texas. She married Leonard L. Rodgers about 1849. Leonard L. Rodgers was born 25 Jan 1825, in South Carolina, died 2 Mar 1907, in Burnet County, Texas, buried in Smithwick Cemetery, Burnet, Burnet, Texas.

Allie and Leonard had 10 children.

- 161      iv. Leonard was the son of William Rodgers and Mary Julia Cooke.
Francis Marion Stanford, born 15 Sep 1831, in Troup County, Georgia, died 21 Jan 1907, in Estelline, Hall, Texas.
v. Louisa Stanford, born about 1836, in Georgia.
- There is some doubt as to Louisa's date of birth. She is listed in the 1850 census as age 7 (indicating she was born in 1843), but seems also to be included in the 1840 census as a female aged 5-10 (indicating that she was born between 1830 and 1835). For the time being, until better data appears, the assumption is made that the 1840 census is more correct and the 1850 census is in error by 10 years.
- 162      vi. John C. Stanford, born about 1839, in Georgia, died 14 Jun 1908, in Goochland County, Virginia.
vii. Wiley Stanford, born about 1840, in Georgia.
- No record for Wiley after 1850 has yet been found.
- viii. Hiram Stanford, born about 1843, in Georgia.
- No record for Hiram after 1850 has yet been found.

Children of Joshua Tallie Stanford and Sara Nancy "Mamie" Thomas:

- i. Ellison T. Stanford, born about 1841, in Georgia, died between 1861 and 1865, in Civil War.

The 1850 census in Jefferson County, Florida includes Joshua T. Stanford (49, farmer), Nancy (30), John (14), Ellison I. (9), David (7), Malichi (5), Wesley (3), and Simeon (1).

According to family legend provided by Patsy Littrell (a great great grand daughter of James Wesley Stanford) Ellison T. served in the Civil War. He was in the advancing ranks marching near the standard bearer when a bullet struck and killed the man. Ellison T. then picked up the flag and began to march, only to be mortally wounded a short time later. Records show that "E. Stanford" served in the 36th Regiment, Georgia Infantry (Broyles' Regiment) with this brother David.

- ii. David Stanford, born 1843, in Georgia, died after 1865.

Records show that David Stanford served in the 36th Regiment, Georgia Infantry (Broyles' Regiment) with this brother Ellison during the Civil War. There is no record of his death during the war, but no record of him after 1860 has yet been found.

- iii. Malachi Stanford, born 1845, in Georgia, died before 1860, in Florida, Mississippi, or Arkansas.

- There is no listing for Malachi in the 1860 census and no later records have yet been found. It is assumed that he had died by then.
- 163      iv. James Wesley Stanford, born Apr 1846, in Jefferson County, Florida, died 1908, in Sabine County, Texas.
- v. Simeon Stanford, born 1849, in Jefferson County, Florida, died after 1860.
- vi. Martha Ruth Stanford, born between 1850 and 1852, in Jefferson County, Florida, died 1896. She married GNU Wright.
- 164      vii. William Madison "Will" Stanford, born 22 Aug 1854, in Jefferson County, Florida, died 30 Jul 1926, in Limestone County, Texas.
- viii. Mary Winnie Stanford, born 21 Mar 1856, in Arkansas, died 20 Feb 1930, in McClanahan, Falls, Texas, buried in McClanahan Cemetery, McClanahan, Falls, Texas. Cause of death: influenza and complications. She married Levi M. Bennett 26 Apr 1875, in Roberston County, Texas. Levi M. Bennett was born 16 Jul 1851, in Montgomery County, Texas, died 3 Jul 1925, in McClanahan, Falls, Texas, buried in McClanahan Cemetery, McClanahan, Falls, Texas. Cause of death: colitis.
- Mary and Levi had two daughters.
- 165      ix. Levi's gravestone shows his birth year as 1850, but his death certificate lists 1851. Noah Joshua Stanford, born 16 Sep 1859, in Arkansas, died 14 Jan 1937, in Marlin, Falls, Texas.
- 166      x. Robert E. Lee Stanford, born 21 Jun 1863, in Arkansas, died 9 Nov 1953, in Duck Creek, Robertson, Texas.

Isaac's middle name was probably Thomas. He was a farmer and a carpenter.

He is listed in Crawford County, Georgia in the 1830 census. At that time, his father Levi was also living in Crawford County.

After the death of his father (who died leaving no will), Isaac was the administrator of his father's estate.

Isaac is listed in 1850 living in Coweta County, Georgia as a farmer with his second wife Mary Ann, whom he married in 1846. This record lists Isaac Stanford (44, farmer), Mary A. (21), Zorobabel (21), Zedekeah (17), Lafayette (15), Jeffersonia (10), Nancy (6), Joseph (2), Dallas (3/12), and Cullander (3).

Living with them is Morgan Attaway, b. abt 1843, in Georgia, Mary Ann's brother.

After the death of Mary Ann, Isaac married Francis Bailey and the family moved to Louisiana soon thereafter to join his son Zorabel Stanford.

In 1860, the census finds the family living in Ward 8, Claiborne, Louisiana. This record lists Isac Sanford (54, carpenter), F. (33), Nancy (15), Arminda (14), Joseph (12), Dallas (10), and J.B. (8). Living with the family is M. Greer, apprentice carpenter, and J.P. Greer, overseer.

The 1880 census lists the family in 4th Ward, Jackson, Louisiana and includes Isaac Stanford (76, farmer), Frances A. (53), Jeff D. (18), Frances K. (15), and Ben T. (12). Mary Bailey (84, b. SC), Frances' mother, is living with the family. [This census record shows Isaac being born in Georgia rather than Maryland.] Mary was not listed in this record and had most probably married and left home by then.

Isaac remarried in early 1846, indicating that Nancy had died by that time.

Mary Ann was the daughter of Thomas Attaway and Margaret Grier.

Children of Isaac T. Stanford and Nancy Dancy:

- 167      i.    Zorabel B. "Zorie" Stanford, born 1829, in Georgia, died before 1900, in Jackson Parish, Louisiana.
- 168      ii.   Lafayette A. Stanford, born 12 Jan 1831, in Crawford County, Georgia, died 20 Feb 1909, in Dale County, Alabama.
- 169      iii.   Zedekiah "Zeddie" Stanford, born about 1833, in Georgia, died 11 Jul 1864, in Federal POW Hospital, Frederick, Maryland.
- iv.   Jeffersonia Stanford, born about 1840, in Georgia. She married Francis Hartley 24 Nov 1858, in Clay County, Georgia.
- v.   Nancy Stanford, born about 1844, in Georgia.

Children of Isaac T. Stanford and Mary Ann Attaway:

- i.    Arminta "Mitty" Stanford, born Oct 1846, in Meriwether County, Georgia, died 10 Mar 1935, in Upshur County, Texas. She married (1) GNU Noah before 1869, in Louisiana (probably). She married (2) Amos M. Hayes 3 Dec 1874, in Campbell County, Georgia. Amos M. Hayes was born 16 May 1817, in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, died about 1890, in Texas. She married (3) Jordan B. Arnold 1 Nov 1894, in Upshur County, Texas. Jordan B. Arnold was born 17 Aug 1845, in Henry County, Alabama, died 25 Apr 1918, in Upshur County, Texas, buried in Mattox Cemetery, Diana, Upshur County, Texas.

This child is listed as "Cullander" in the 1850 census. That may be her middle name, some sort of nickname, or simply census-taker error.

Numerous records spell her name "Arminda."

No information about Arminda's first husband is known, other than her son James N. Noah was born about 1869 in Louisiana. James is listed in the 1880 census, age 11, living with the family in Texas.

On 8 Jun 1918, Arminta applied for an indigent widow's pension on the basis of Jordan's Confederate military service during the Civil War. The pension was approved on 27 Jun 1918. From this record, we learn that Arminta was 72 at the time, confirming her date of birth; that she was born in Meriwether County, Georgia; and the she and Jordan were married in Upshur County, Texas on 1 Nov 1894. At this time, Arminta was living on Rt. 4, Gilmer, Upshur, Texas.

When Arminita died n 1935, her son-in-law H.R. Bigg told the probate court that he was responsible for closing out her estate. He (along with the undertaker) applied to the court for a "warrant" (payment) for the costs of her burial, but the site of that burial is identified only as Gilmer, Upshur, Texas...no cemetery is named.

Jordan was the son of Harrell Harrod Arnold (1808 - 1872) and Sarah Mims (1812 - 1862).

This was Jordan's second marriage. He was previously married to Sarah Caroline Culpepper (1849 - 1893) and is buried beside her.

- 170     ii. Joseph "Joe" Stanford, born about 1849, in Georgia, died 29 Jun 1870, in Longstraw, Jackson, Louisiana.
- 171     iii. Dallas Stanford, born 10 Feb 1850, in Georgia, died 24 Mar 1928, in Honey Creek, Wood, Texas.
- 172     iv. John B. Stanford, born Mar 1852, in Georgia, died 1928, in Wood County, Texas.

Children of Isaac T. Stanford and Francis A. Bailey:

- i. Mary Virginia Stanford, born about 1857, in Louisiana, died 17 Dec 1926, in Monroe, Ouachita, Louisiana. She married GNU McDaniel before 1880, in Louisiana.
- 173     ii. It is probable that Mary was the daughter of Frances by an earlier marriage.
Jefferson David "Dave" Stanford, born Oct 1860, in Louisiana, died 1905, in Saint Landry Parish, Louisiana.
- 174     iii. Frances K. Stanford, born about 1865, in Louisiana.
- 174     iv. Benjamin Thomas Stanford, born 19 Oct 1866, in Louisiana, died 12 Jan 1945, in Evangeline, Saint Landry, Louisiana.

The family is found in the 1850 census in Meriwether County, Georgia. This record includes Benjamin Stanford (30, farmer), V. Stanford (35), E. Stanford (8), Jas Stanford (6), William Stanford (3), and A.J. Stanford (1).

Based on census records, it appears the Benjamin left his family in Georgia moved in Alabama in the 1850s, then to Mississippi in the 1860s during the Civil War, moving on to Bradley County, Arkansas by 1869.

Benjamin married Frances in Alabama before 1858, but no 1860 census record for the family has been yet found. There is a record of a Benjamin Stanford serving as a Private in Company K, 39th Regiment, Alabama Infantry during the Civil War.

The 1870 census record lists the family living in Pennington, Bradley, Arkansas and includes Benjamin Stanford (50), Frances (32), Sarah (12), Jefferson (7), Martha (5), Lorenzo (3), and Malinda (10/12).

In the 1880 census, Benjamin (age 59 and a widower) is living in Pennington, Bradley, Arkansas with his daughters Sarah (22), Martha (15), Alonzer (13), Malinda (11), Jennie (3), and granddaughter Josephine (1).

Margaret Baker (b. abt 1822, South Carolina) and Violette Baker (b. abt 1818, South Carolina) evidently were sisters who married Stanford brothers.

In the 1870 census, we find Violet Stanford (52, b. South Carolina) living in District 11, Meriwether, Georgia with her two children, Elizabeth (28, day laborer) and James (26, "Idiot"). Also listed is Nancy Stanford (12), whose relationship is not defined by the census record... perhaps this is Elizabeth's daughter or Violette's niece.

Children of Benjamin Stanford and Violette Baker:

- 175      i. Elizabeth Stanford, born about 1842, in Meriwether County, Georgia, died after 1900, in Georgia.
- ii. James "Jamie" Stanford, born about 1844, in Meriwether County, Georgia.

In the 1870 census, James is listed as "Idiot", indicating that he was in some way mentally impaired. No later record of him has yet been found.

- 176    iii. Allen Jackson Stanford, born Mar 1846, in Meriwether County, Georgia, died about 1911, in Alabama.
iv. William Stanford, born about 1847, in Meriwether County, Georgia.

A William Stanford from Meriwether County, Georgia enlisted in Company B ("Jackson Blues"), Georgia 2nd Infantry Regiment on 12 Jul 1861. This may be our William, but there is no firm documentation of this.

Children of Benjamin Stanford and Frances LNU:

- i. Sarah J. Stanford, born about 1858, in Alabama.
Sarah was Frances' daughter by a previous marriage, but, evidently, she was adopted by Benjamin.
- 177    ii. Nathan Stanford, born 1859 OR 1860, in Alabama, died May 1932, in Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama.
- 178    iii. Jefferson D. Stanford, born Oct 1863, in Mississippi, died before 1930, in Arkansas.
- iv. Martha A. V. "Mattie" Stanford, born Jul 1865, in Mississippi, died 24 Jul 1941, in Harris County, Texas, buried in Eylau Cemetery, Texarkana, Bowie, Texas. She married Elijah A. Swain 10 Feb 1898, in Bradley County, Arkansas. Elijah A. Swain was born Mar 1851, in Alabama, died before 1910, in Bowie County, Texas.

The 1900 census lists the family living in Longview, Ashley, Arkansas. But, Swain family researchers indicate that the family moved to Bowie County, Texas about 1901.

The couple had three children...Milton, b. in Nov. 1898; Mary, b. 1900; and Robert, b. 1902. Evidently, Mary died young since she is not listed in the 1910 census.

Evidently, Elijah died before 1910 since the census of that year lists Mattie and her two sons living in Bowie County, Texas, listed as "widow". Swain family researchers think he died about 1908, probably in Bowie County, Texas.

- According to Swain family researchers, Elijah married four times in either Arkansas or Texas. He rode a circuit for the Methodist Church in DeKalb, Bowie, Texas.
- 179    v. Alonzo Stanford, born about 1867, in Mississippi, died between 1897 and 1900, in Bradley County, Arkansas.
- vi. Malinda A. Stanford, born about 1869, in Arkansas.
- vii. Jennie Stanford, born about 1877, in Arkansas.

Margaret Baker (b. abt 1822, South Carolina) and Violette Baker (b. abt 1818, South Carolina) evidently were sisters who married Stanford brothers.

In about 1857-58, after John's death, Margaret remarried to Henry H. Harrison, a farmer in Meriwether County, Georgia.

The 1860 census lists the family living in Magdalena, Meriwether, Georgia and includes H.H. Harrison (44, farmer), Margaret Harrison (37), Emeline Harrison (2), William Stanford (16), and John Stanford (15).

In 1870 census, Henry Harrison and his wife Margaret are living in District 11, Meriwether County, Georgia. By this date, the two Stanford children have left home.

Children of John C. Stanford and Margaret "Peggy" Baker:

- 180      i.    William M. "Will, Bill" Stanford, born Jan 1842, in Georgia, died 12 Jul 1918, in Fairfield, Jefferson, Alabama.
- ii.    John Stanford, born about 1845, in Georgia.

Soon after Noah and Betsey married, the family moved to Washington Parish, Louisiana and lived there until returning to Marion County, Mississippi about 1843.

The 1840 census lists the family living in Washington Parish, Louisiana and includes Noah Stanford as head of household containing 1 M 30-39 [Noah], 1 F 20-29 [Betsey], 2 F <5 [Mary and Nancy].

The 1850 census for Marion County, Mississippi lists N. Stanford (36, tanner), E. (35), Mary (12), Nancy (12), Harriet (9), Green (7), Sarah (5), and Franklin (2).

Elizabeth was the daughter of Daniel Felder.

Children of Noah Stanford and Elizabeth Lowe "Betsy" Felder:

- i. Mary Elizabeth Stanford, born 24 Apr 1838, in Louisiana, died 6 Jul 1899, in Pine Grove, St. Helena, Louisiana. She married William Henry Davis 12 Dec 1865, in Hancock County, Mississippi. William Henry Davis was born about 1830, in Columbia, Marion, Mississippi, died about 1922.
- ii. Nancy Malinda Stanford, born 18 May 1839, in Louisiana, died 15 May 1881, in Hancock County, Mississippi, buried in Palestine Cemetery, Picayune, Pearl River, Mississippi. She married (1) David Summers 25 Apr 1857, in Hancock County, Mississippi. She married (2) James Powell Megehee (McGee) 24 Jan 1861, in Washington Parish, Louisiana. James Powell Megehee (McGee) was born 18 Feb 1830, in Washington Parish, Louisiana, died 20 Oct 1914, in Carson, Jefferson Davis, Mississippi.

Nancy and David had 2 children.

Nancy and James had 12 children.

Smith 22 Jul 1863, in Center, Hancock, Mississippi. Hardy H. Smith was born 23 Nov 1838, in Bladen County, North Carolina, died 26 May 1919, in Center, Hancock, Mississippi.

Sara Jane and Hardy had 8 or 9 children.

Benjamin was the son of Thaddeus Behuskis Mitchell and Sarah Isabelle Stockstill.

- viii. Missouri Stanford, born about 1851, in Mississippi.

The dates of birth for John, his wife, and their children are recorded in the Bible of John Stanford [Junior], printed in 1839 for the Methodist Episcopal Church. Certified copies of the pages from this Bible recording family events were made in 1973 and distributed to family researchers.

John Stanford is listed on the Choctaw County, Mississippi Tax List of 1835...at this time would have been 21 and eligible to be taxed.

Land records shows that:

1. Nancy Stanford sold the Northeast Quarter of Section 7, Township 19 N, Range 9 E in Choctaw County to William R. Williams in August 1841.
2. John Stanford purchased 39.95 acres in Choctaw County, Mississippi, Section 13, Ranger 7 E, Township 19 N, on 28 Feb 1841.

In the 1850 census, we find John (36) living in Police District 3, Pike, Mississippi, with Nancy (36), James D. (6), and Louise R. (2), where he is a farmer.

The 1860 census finds the family living near Holmesville, Pike, Mississippi and lists John (46), James D. (16), Lousa R. (12), Margret A. (10), David D. (7), and Mary A. (5). No wife is listed, so evidently Nancy died prior to the census date.

Children of John Stanford, Jr. and Ann Elizabeth "Nancy" Summers:

- i. Thomas Harrison Stanford, born 12 Dec 1841, in Mississippi, died 2 Oct 1844, in Mississippi.
- ii. James Douglas Stanford, born 25 Aug 1844, in Mississippi, died 8 JUN, in Mississippi.

A James D. Stanford served as a Private in Company E, 16th Mississippi Infantry during the Civil War. This may or may not be our James.

The family Bible contains no record of a marriage for James.

- iii. Louise Rebecca Stanford, born 5 May 1848, in Mississippi, died 22 Feb 1923.

In the 1880 census, we find Louise (31) living in Red Creek and Wolf River, Marion, Mississippi with her sister Margie [Margaret] (29) and brother David DeWitt (27). The census record also includes Luther [Nathaniel Luther] (12), their cousin.

Evidently, Louise never married.

He married (1) Mary A. Murphey 2 Sep 1842, in Marion County, Mississippi. Mary A. Murphey was born about 1821, died after 1862, in Marion County, Mississippi. He married (2) Martha Ann "Patsy" Wallace 16 May 1850, in Marion County, Mississippi. Martha Ann "Patsy" Wallace was born about 1824, in Louisiana, died before 1868. He married (3) Mary Ann Elizabeth Bullock 13 Jun 1868, in Marion County, Mississippi. Mary Ann Elizabeth Bullock was born 9 Oct 1834, died 4 Mar 1879, in Mississippi.

In 1850, the census finds the family in Marion County, Mississippi and lists Joshua Stanford (28, farmer), M.A. (26), E. (6), and Jos. (4).

The 1860 census lists the family in Columbia, Marion County, Mississippi and includes Joshua Stanford (39, farmer), Martha (30), Elizabeth (16), Joseph (13), William (9), Sarah (8), Allen C. (5), Rebecca (3), and Martha (1).

During the Civil War, Joshua served as a Private in the Company G, 2nd Regiment (Quinn's), Mississippi Infantry (State Troops).

The family is listed in the 1866 Mississippi State and Territorial Census as Joshua Stanford with 2 males less than 10, 3 males 11-20 [William and Allen], 1 male 21-40 [Joshua], 1 male 41-50 [Joshua], 2 females less than 10 [Rebecca and Mary/Martha], 1 female 11-20 [Sara], and 1 female 41-50 [Martha]. This record, therefore, includes 2 males born 1856/1866 and 1 male born 1846/1855 who do not appear in the 1870 census.

The 1870 Marion County, Mississippi census finds Joshua and his family. He is listed as a farmer, age 51. His children listed include Joshua Stanford (age 23), William (age 17), Allen (age 15), Rebecca (age 13), and Mary (age 8), but no wife is listed.

In 1880, the census finds the family in Water Holes, Marion, Mississippi, and includes Joshua Stanford (55, farmer), Rebecca Ann Stanford (24), and Etta Stanford (19).

Mary Ann was the daughter of Richard Bullock and Louise McGee.

Mary Ann was married to Richard B. Pittman on 19/20 Nov 1848 in Marion County, Mississippi, prior to her marriage to Joshua. Richard (b. 1828, Mississippi) was killed during the Civil War on 20/21 Sep 1863 at Chickamauga Creek, Tennessee. Richard B. Pittman was the brother of James A. Pittman who married Joshua's daughter Elizabeth.

Children of Joshua Stanford and Mary A. Murphey:

James Alvin Pittman was born about 1833, in Marion County, Mississippi, died after 1880, in Marion County, Mississippi, buried in Thomas Cemetery, Walthall County, Mississippi.

Elizabeth and James had 4 children.

In the 1870 and the 1880 census, we find the couple living in Marion County, Mississippi.

Her gravestone indicates she was born in 1839.

James was the son of John Pittman (1796-1861) and Susannah Ward (1797-1860), both born in Robeson County, North Carolina.

James A. Pittman was a civil war veteran. He entered service on Aug. 10, 1861 in Columbia, Mississippi in Co. F, "Marion's Men," 7th Mississippi Infantry Regiment. He was discharged from that regiment and then entered service again in the 3rd Mississippi Infantry Regiment, Co I. He enlisted at Brookhaven, Miss. for two years.

On July 20, 1864, he was severely wounded at the battle of Peachtree Creek. He was admitted to Ocamulgee Hospital, Macon Georgia on July 22, 1864. He had been shot in the face and the bullet took his nose off.

The Register of Prisoners of War, Department of the Cumberland records that he was captured at Pulaski, Tennessee on Dec. 25, 1864. James was forwarded to Louisville, Kentucky on Feb. 14, 1865. On Feb. 17, 1865, he is shown being in Champ Chase, Ohio, at one of the most notorious Union Prisons of the war.

James took the Oath of Allegiance at Champ Chase, Ohio, June 13, 1865. These facts are noted on his card:

Residence: Marion Co., Miss. Complexion: Fair Hair: Dark Eyes: Blue Height: 6ft. 2in.

There is a family legend that it took James Pittman two or three years to walk home after the war because he was ashamed of what he looked like because he had no nose so he asked for no help to get home.

James' death date has not yet been determined.

- ii. Joshua Stanford, born about 1846, in Marion County, Mississippi.

The first name may have been Joseph or Joshua...it is listed as "Jos" in 1850, "Joseph" in 1860, and "Joshua" in 1870. However, no census records after 1870 have been found.

In the "Minutes of the Second Anniversary of the Magee's Creek Baptist Association" held at Bogue Chitto Church, Washington Parish, Louisiana, November 12-14, 1881, there is a reference to "Elders J. E. Pound, Joshua Stanford and Bro. M. J. Pitman...." This may be our Joshua/Joseph.

Children of Joshua Stanford and Martha Ann "Patsy" Wallace:

- 184     i. William M. "Bill, Red Face" Stanford, born 24 Mar 1851, in Marion County, Mississippi, died 24 Dec 1928, in Washington Parish, Louisiana.
- ii. Sarah Ann Stanford, born 1853, in Marion County, Mississippi, died 14 Apr 1896, in Mississippi. She married Matthew J. Temple.

There is a record that shows that Matthew J. Temple remarried on 12 Mar 1898 to Caldonia Williamson in Marion County, Mississippi.

- 185     iii. Allen Cassel "Carse" Stanford, born 29 May 1855, in Marion County, Mississippi, died 8 Dec 1925, in Pearl River County, Mississippi.
- 186     iv. Rebecca Ann "Becky, Annie" Stanford, born between 1856 and 1859, in Marion County, Mississippi, died 11 Dec 1935, in Washington Parish, Louisiana.
- v. Mary Etta Stanford, born 1861, in Marion County, Mississippi, died 1899, in Washington Parish, Louisiana, buried in Old Gerald Cemetery, Washington Parish, Louisiana. She married Gerald.

Children of Joshua Stanford and Mary Ann Elizabeth Bullock:

- 187      i.    Nathan Luther "Tac, Tack" Stanford, born 13 Mar 1869, in Marion County, Mississippi, died 30 Mar 1939, in Poplarville, Pearl River, Mississippi.

We find Daniel and Mary Ann living in District 6, Columbia County, Georgia in the 1830 census, with one female child <5 years old.

In 1840, the census lists Daniel Stanford living in Yalobusha County, Mississippi.

The 1845 Mississippi State Census lists Daniel Stanford living in Jackson County, Mississippi.

The 1850 census finds them in Ocean Springs, Jackson, Mississippi, where Daniel (age 45) is listed as a physician with his wife Mary Ann (age 43), but no children are listed (the daughter listed in 1830 was probably married). (But, the 1850 Slave Census shows that Daniel owned 10 slaves at the time. He probably had a farm in addition to his medical practice, which would be typical for the time.)

Then, in 1860, the census lists them living in Hillsborough County, Florida (Daniel, age 55, farmer, and Mary Ann, age 53).

Daniel was a physician and he is mentioned in "Doctors-Mayors-Aldermen-Postmasters-Marshals of Ocean Springs, Mississippi" posted at www.oceanspringsarchives.com/doctorsmayorsmarshals.htm, as follows: "Daniel Stanford (1805-1850+): Daniel Stanford was born in Georgia. His wife was Mary Ann Stanford (b. 1807). They were at Ocean Springs in 1850. No further information."

Daniel is buried at Oak Hill (Old Bartow) Cemetery, Bartow, Polk, Florida, where his gravestone reads "Dr. Daniel Standford, Died at Bartow, Fla, Jan 15 1877, Aged About 73 Years", along with a Masonic emblem.

There is a record of a Daniel Stanford marrying an Elizabeth Starns on 4 Feb 1861, which indicates that Mary Ann died soon after the 1860 census was recorded.

Elizabeth's first husband was Thomas Jefferson Mitchell (b. abt 1795, South Carolina, d. 1860, Hillsborough County, Florida).

Elizabeth and Thomas moved from Alabama to Florida before 1850. One report is that Thomas

Jefferson's original plan was to move to South America. He bought a vessel for the voyage, but it was wrecked. He changed his plans and came to Florida. [This information was taken from an article titled "2 Lonely Graves", from the Tampa Morning Tribune, dated July 22, 1951.]

The family is listed in the 1850 and 1860 census living in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida. Evidently, Thomas Mitchell died soon after the 1860 census was recorded since Elizabeth remarried in 1861.

Children of Daniel Stanford and Mary Ann Moore:

- i. GNU Stanford, born between 1826 and 1830, in Columbia County, Georgia.

In 1830, the census finds the family in Capt. John B. Powns District of Putnam County Georgia and lists Jephtha M. Stanford with 2 M less than 5 years old, 1 M 20-30 [Jephtha], and 1 F 20-30 [Mary].

On 21 Dec 1830, the "Cherokee Land Lottery" was authorized. Jephtha M. Stanford is listed as winning a 160 acre tract (Lot 1, 7th District, 3rd Section) in Gordon County, Georgia. This record lists his residence as Mann's District, Crawford County, Georgia.

On 23 Dec 1834, Enoch B. Wallace purchased land in Talbot County, Georgia from Daniel Stanford (of Columbia County, Georgia) as Trustee for Joshua H. Stanford, Robert C.C. Stanford, Mary F. Stanford, and Martha C. Stanford, children of Jephtha Stanford of Crawford County, Georgia [recorded in Talbot County Deed Book C]. Daniel was Jephtha's brother.

In his father's will, dated 10 Nov 1836, Jephtha received $50.00 and most of his father's stock of "hogs, horses, cattle, sheep, etc."

On 27 Dec 1836, Jephtha M. Stanford transferred to "James A. Chapman, Warren [County] Power of Attorney to recover the legacy due to Jephtha from the estate of Joshua Stanford, late of Columbia County legacy supposed to be $450. Sold to James A. Chapman 1 small roan horse, 7 yrs old, 1 yoke of oxen, color Pides & marked with a swallow fork right ear 1 ox cart, 1 Jersey waggon and harness and 4 cows and calves entire stock of hogs."

"Wit: Thomas W. Robinson, Barnard Hill; Recorded 10 Mar 1837 - C.D. Crittenden, DCSC"

Jephtha Stanford (listed as "Jept") is found in Talbot County, Georgia in the 1840 census. The household listing includes 1M 60-70 and 1F 50-60, who were probably parents of his wife. We know that in 1840 there were five children, 3 males and 4 females.

The 1850 census lists the family in Mineral Springs, Stewart, Georgia [Dwelling 1191, Family 1202] and the record includes Jephtha Stanford (43, school teacher), Mary (42), Cliastra (17), Sarah (15), Lucretia (14), Paten (12), Georgia (10), Ridley (8), and Sissy [Lucy] (6). A second 1850 census also lists the family in Florence, Stewart, Georgia. The first page of this record is missing, but the second page lists Anna Stanford (5), and Henry Stanford (2).

In 1860, the family is in District 811, Quitman, Georgia and includes Jephtha M. Stanford (52, carpenter), Mary T. (52), Sarah Jose (23), Ridley W. (18), Lucy F. (16), Anna H. (14), and Henry A. (11).

In 1870, the census finds M[ary] T. Stanford and L[ucy] F. Stanford living with Henry A. Stanford's family in Georgetown, Quitman, Georgia.

In 1870, we find H.A. Stanford (21, farmer), Sarah F. (19), and W.J. (1, male) living in Georgetown, Quitman, Georgia. Living with the family are M.T. Stanford (52, Henry's mother) and L.F. Stanford (23, Henry's sister Lucy). Evidently Jephtha has died by this date.

Children of Jephtha McIntyre Stanford and Mary T. Hill:

- i. Joshua H. Stanford, born about 1827, in Georgia, died before 4 Sep 1848, in Randolph County, Georgia.

Joshua's middle name may have been Hill.

The Inferior Court Records for Randolph County, Georgia show that on 4 Sep 1848, Jephtha Stanford and Martin H. Brown posted a bond of $250 for Jephtha Stanford to serve as administrator for the estate of Joshua H. Stanford, deceased.

- ii. Robert C. C. Stanford, born about 1829, in Georgia. He married Martha M. Nesbitt 6 Dec 1849, in Randolph County, Georgia. Martha M. Nesbitt was born about 1829, in Georgia.

The 1850 census finds the couple living in Florence, Stewart, Georgia and lists Robt. Stanford (21, farmer) and Martha (21).

- iii. Mary F. Stanford, born about 1831, in Georgia.
- iv. Martha Cliastra Stanford, born about 1833, in Georgia.
- v. Sarah Jose Stanford, born about 1835, in Georgia.

One census record indicates that Sarah's middle name is "Jose" [Josie?]. But, several researchers show her middle initial as "G" and/or her middle name as "Georgia".

Sarah and John had three children.

- vi. Lucretia F. Stanford, born about 1836, in Georgia.
- vii. Peyton J. Stanford, born about 1838, in Georgia, died before 1865, in Civil War.

In 1860, the census finds Peyton (22) working as a laborer on the farm of P.D. Hill in District 19, Stewart, Georgia. His sister Georgia (18) is living with him. P.D. Hill is probably their uncle, their mother's brother.

On 1 May 1861, Peyton Stanford enlisted in the "Quitman Grays" in Quitman County, Georgia. While no record has yet been found, it is probable that he died during the Civil War.

- viii. Georgia J. Stanford, born about 1840, in Georgia, died between 1910 and 1919, in Georgia. She married (1) M.L. Satterwhite 15 Nov 1860, in Stewart County, Georgia. M.L. Satterwhite died before 1865, in Civil War. She married (2) Oliver P. Awtrey 6 Jan 1870, in Greene County, Georgia. Oliver P. Awtrey was born 15 Apr 1839, in Georgia, died 3 Jul 1919, in LaGrange, Troup, Georgia.

In the 1860 census, Georgia J. Stanford (18) is listed living with her brother Peyton with P.D. and Jane Hill in District 19, Stewart, Georgia. P.D. Hill is probably their uncle, their mother's brother.

It is probable that her first husband was killed during the Civil War. She remarried before the 1870 census, which lists O.P. Awtery (32) and Georgia Awtery (22) living in Troup County, Georgia.

O.P. and Georgia S. Awtery are listed in the 1910 census living in Greensboro, Greene, Georgia, so we know Georgia died after that date. From Oliver's death certificate, we know she died before 1919.

This was probably LaFayette Satterwhite, b. abt 1840 in Georgia, the son of Thomas L. Satterwhite (1798-1870) and Sarah Fenwick Jones (1807-1869). LaFayette enlisted in Company B, Georgia 11th Infantry Battalion on 4 Mar 1862 and no further record of him has yet been found...may have died during the Civil War.

Oliver was the son of J. B. Awtery and his wife _____ Moore. The spelling of the surname in all records is "Awtery" or "Awtrey", not Autry.

Oliver's death certificate states that he was a widower at the time of his death.

- ix. Ridley W. Stanford, born about 1842, in Georgia.
x. Lucy F. Stanford, born 31 Dec 1844, in Georgia, died 23 May 1909, in Wilcox County, Georgia, buried in Liberty Hill United Methodist Church Cemetery, Wilcox County, Georgia. She married Amos Milton Winslett 10 Apr 1873, in Macon County, Alabama. Amos Milton Winslett was born 22 Aug 1853, in Alabama, died 17 Jan 1915, in Wilcox County, Georgia, buried in Liberty Hill United Methodist Church Cemetery, Wilcox County, Georgia.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Opelika, Lee, Alabama. This record lists Lucy Winslett (30), the wife of Amos Winslett (40), and indicates that she was born in Georgia, as were both her parents. [Note that the ages in this census are significantly in error: Amos was actually 25 and Lucy was 35...perhaps the census taker reversed their ages.]

Amos was the son of Milton Winslett and Elizabeth T. Royal.

- xi. Jane Anna Maria Stanford, born 28 Apr 1845, in Mineral Springs, Stewart, Georgia, died 14 Jul 1928, in Savannah, Chatham, Georgia, buried in Rochelle Cemetery, Rochelle, Wilcox, Georgia. She married Wilkes Horry Quattlebaum 12 Dec 1867, in Georgetown, Stewart, Georgia. Wilkes Horry Quattlebaum was born 18 Sep 1844, in Barbour County, Alabama, died 14 Oct 1927, in Tifton, Tift, Georgia, buried in Rochelle Cemetery, Rochelle, Wilcox, Georgia. Cause of death: senility.

The part of Stewart County where Jane was born is now Quitman County, Georgia.

Jane and Wilkes had 10 children. The youngest son, Manning Marcus Quattlebaum, is the author of a family history book with significant information about his father.

After Wilkes' death, Jane moved to Savannah, Chatham, Georgia to live with her son Manning.

Wilkes was the son of John B. Quattlebaum (1802-1892) and Mary Ann Lockley (1819-1853) of Barbour County, Alabama.

Wilkes served in Company D, 15th Alabama Infantry Regiment ("Fort Browder Roughs"). He was wounded twice and was paroled at Appomattox, Virginia with Lee's surrender.

- 188      xii. Henry A. W. Stanford, born about 1849, in Stewart County, Georgia, died 1899 OR 1900, in Wilcox County, Georgia.

The 1850 census finds the family living in Columbia County, Georgia and lists David P. Stanford (35, planter), Martha (35), Jerome (16), Minerva (13), Mallissa (11), Annlett [Onlett] (7), and David (3).

In Dec 1853, David, along with his brother-in-law Edmond B. Bacon, was ordered by the court in Columbia County, Georgia to inventory and appraise the estate of Macklin Sills, deceased.

In 1860, the census lists the family in District 9, Columbia, Georgia and includes D.P. Stanford (45, farmer), Minerva N. (47), Melissa (21), William O. (16), David A. (12), and Oran G. (7). This census record appears to be in error...mixing up Martha (wife) and Minerva (daughter).

The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists D.P. Stanford, age 53, farmer, living in Columbia County, Georgia.

Martha was the daughter of Leonard Green Steed (b. 1775, South Carolina) and Mary Pullen (b. 1777).

In the 1870 census, we find Martha H. Stanford (58) living in District 174, Columbia, Georgia in the household of her son David A. Stanford (23, farmer) and his wife Martha McCrary (20). Living with them is David's brother Auren (17).

Notes for family of David Porter Stanford and Martha Hill Steed: The marriage was performed by A.L. Kennedy, M.G. according to "Columbia County Marriages 1791-1859."

Children of David Porter Stanford and Martha Hill Steed:

- 189      i.    John Jerome Stanford, born 31 Jan 1835, in Thomson, Columbia, Georgia, died 27 Jun 1862, in Civil War.
- ii.    Minerva N. Stanford, born about 1837, in Columbia County, Georgia.
- iii.    Melissa T. Stanford, born about 1839, in Columbia County, Georgia, died Mar 1860, in Columbia County, Georgia. Cause of death: scarlet fever.

A Malissa Stanford, 18 years old, is listed in the census mortality schedules as dying of scarlet fever in Columbia County, Georgia in Mar 1860. The birth year is off, somewhat, but this is probably our Melissa.

- iv.      William Onlett Stanford, born about 1844, in Georgia, died between 1861 and 1865, in Civil War.

William O. Stanford served as a Private in Company F, "Thomson Guards", 10th Georgia Infantry Regiment, during the Civil War and is listed as having died of disease during the war. This company was organized in Thomson, Georgia, (then Columbia County), with 104 men and left Thomson 29 May 1861, for Richmond, Virginia, being mustered into service 3 Jun 1861 as Company F, 10th Regiment of Georgia Volunteers. Over the course of the four years of war, 128 soldiers became part of this company. Of the original 104 soldiers that mustered into Company F on 11 May 1861, there were only ten that answered muster at Appomattox Court House in April 1865.

- 190      v.    David Augustus Stanford, born 22 Jan 1848, in Thomson, Columbia, Georgia, died 18 Mar 1899, in McDuffie County, Georgia.
- 191      vi.    Auren Gustane Stanford, born 8 Mar 1853, in Georgia, died 9 Jul 1912, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.

The marriage of O.H.P. Stanford and Francis Willis is recorded in Alabama Marriages Book I.

The 1840 census lists the Oliver H.P. Stanford family living in Chambers County, Alabama and includes 1 M < 5 [James], 1 M 20-29 [Oliver], 1 F < 5 [Helen], and 1 F 15-19 Frances]. At this time, Oliver owned two slaves.

Based on the dates and places of birth of their children, it appears that Oliver and Frances moved to Stewart County Georgia in 1849 or early 1850.

In the 1850 census, Oliver (33), his wife Frances (30), and children James (12), Helen (10), Edna (8), John (5), Alphus (4), Wade (2), and Oliver (1) are living near Lumpkin in Stewart County, Georgia, where Oliver is a farmer. In this record, Oliver is incorrectly listed as 93 years old. The 1850 slave census indicates that Oliver owned 3 slaves.

An entry in the Stewart County, Georgia Inferior Court minutes dated 22 Dec 1862 states that smallpox has turned up in the household of O.H.P. Stanford and that the house is quarantined. An entry dated 3 Mar 1863 discusses the issue again and states that O.H.P. Stanford has since died.

His name on his gravestone, erected in 1959, is engraved "Oliver Perry Stanford" and indicates that he served in Company I, 11th Georgia Infantry Regiment.

Frances was the daughter of John Washington Willis (b. 1823) and Augusta America Porter. ["History of Stewart County, Georgia" lists her name as Frances Amanda Proctor Willis, which is incorrect. She was named after her mother's family, Porter.]

In 1869, Frances moved her minor children to Rusk County, Texas, making her home with her son John Madison Stanford.

The 1870 census finds the family living in Precinct 5, Rusk, Texas and lists Francis Stanford (46, widow), John (23, farmer), Anna (14), and Porter (11).

Her gravestone reportedly read "Frances P. Stanford, Wife of O.H." But, in 2013, a cemetery survey failed to locate her gravestone.

Children of Oliver Hazard Perry "Perry" Stanford and Frances Amada Porter Willis:

- 192      i.    James Monroe Stanford, born 6 Aug 1838, in Alabama, died 30 Sep 1864, in Stewart County, Georgia.
          ii.    Helen Stanford, born about 1839, in Alabama.
- No record of Helen appears after 1850. Perhaps she died during 1862-1863 when smallpox took her father.
- 193      iii.    John Madison Stanford, born 27 Oct 1840, in Alabama, died 15 Oct 1921, in Carthage, Panola, Texas.
          iv.    Edna L. Stanford, born 13 Mar 1842, in Alabama, died 26 Jul 1904, in Panola County, Texas, buried in Langley Cemetery, Beckville, Panola, Texas. She married William T. Rousseau 21 Nov 1865, in Stewart County, Georgia. William T. Rousseau was born about 1836, in Georgia, died after 1910, in Texas.

A Stewart County, Georgia marriage record confirms that William T. Rousseau and Edna L. Stanford married on 21 Nov 1865 in that county. Edna's gravestone in Panola County, Texas identifies her as "Wife of W.T. Rousseau."

William T. Rousseau appears to be William Travis Rousseau, son of Lucius V. Rousseau and Elizabeth Spruce. But, the spelling of "Rousseau" varies widely in the records, as indicated by the following, making finding information on this family difficult:

In 1850, the census finds the family of Lucius M. Russoe (34, b. Georgia) and his wife Elizabeth A. (33, b. Georgia) living in Franklin, Heard, Georgia and includes Wm. T. Russoe (14).

William T. Rousseau served as Private in Company A, 3rd Regiment, Georgia Calvary, during the Civil War.

In 1870, the census lists Wm. T. Rasson [Rousseau] (36, farmer, b. Georgia) with his wife Edna (27, b. Alabama) living in Precinct 4, Rusk, Texas with there first two children (Charley, b. abt 1867 in Georgia, and Ellen, b. abt 1869 in Texas). All of this information "fits" with known facts.

The 1910 census lists William Rouseau (73, b. Georgia) living in Vernon, Wilbarger, Texas, with his second wife Lily (26, b. Texas, her first marriage). This record indicates that the couple married about 1905, after Edna's death.

A death record or place of burial for William has not yet been found.

- 194      v.    Alphius E. Stanford, born about 1846, in Alabama, died before 1870, in Texas.
195      vi.    Waid Willis Stanford, born 24 Nov 1846, in Alabama, died 5 Sep 1915, in DeBerry, Panola, Texas.

- vii. Oliver Stanford, born about 1849, in Alabama.
- viii. Susan America Stanford, born 3 Oct 1851, in Stewart County, Georgia, died 18 Sep 1923, in Lumpkin, Stewart, Georgia, buried 19 Sep 1923, in East Side Cemetery, Lumpkin, Stewart, Georgia. Cause of death: Brights disease. She married George Washington Usher 24 Dec 1868, in Stewart County, Georgia. George Washington Usher was born 15 Aug 1844, in Stewart County, Georgia, died 13 Dec 1930, in Stewart County, Georgia, buried in East Side Cemetery, Lumpkin, Stewart, Georgia.

Susan's unusual middle name, Ameriica, comes from her maternal grandmother, Augusta America Porter.

Susan America and George built their home near the Usher home place in Stewart County and lived there until 1900, when they moved to Lumpkin on the site where the Lumpkin High School was later built. The school board wanted the large acreage where their home stood for the new school, so their house was rolled on logs across the Florence road after a land swap was made. The home still stands there, occupied by daughter Charlotte Usher until her death.

Susan and George had 10 children.

George was the son of James Travis Usher and Sarah Dudney.

George enlisted with Rawson's Rangers, Company E, 3rd Georgia Cavalry, Tennessee Division. His Captain was Georgian Tip Harrison, under General Robert E. Lee. For years he was the only surviving veteran in Stewart County of the Civil War. Until he died, he kept old bugle, purchased on a trip to Florida to get salt with his uncle, Capt. John Dudney, shortly before enlisting. He also had an ink bottle carried in the pockets of his uncle, who died in the War, unaware an armistice had been signed.

- ix. Annie Belle Stanford, born 10 Dec 1855, in Stewart County, Georgia, died 13 Feb 1907, in Parker County, Texas, buried in Deason Cemetery, Parker County, Texas. She married William Franklin Deason 12 Oct 1871, in Rusk County, Texas. William Franklin Deason was born 22 Jun 1848, in Rusk County, Texas, died 2 Nov 1909, in Parker County, Texas, buried in Deason Cemetery, Parker County, Texas.

Annie evidently moved from Georgia to Rusk County, Texas with her mother in 1869.

Annie and William had 9-10 children.

William was the son of Joseph Deason (1816-1883) and his second wife Selena Bridges (1829-1854), who were married on 9 Oct 1845.

- x. Porter Stanford, born about 1859, in Stewart County, Georgia.

Porter (11) is listed in the 1870 census living with his mother in Rusk County, Texas. No record of Porter after 1870 has yet been found.

On 6 Nov 1838, guardianship for orphans Floyd, Joseph, Orrin, and Ann Elizabeth Stanford was assigned to Jefferson S. Briscoe, which indicates that Mary had died by that date.

In 1850, the census finds the family listed as "Standford" in Division 90, Warren, Georgia and includes Thomas F. Standford (25, farmer), Mary A. (20), James V. (2), and Frances L. (1). According to slave schedules, Thomas owned 11 slaves.

The 1850 Slave Census lists Thomas F. Standford living in Warren County, Georgia and owning 11 slaves.

Evidently, both Thomas and Mary died between 1855 (when Mary A. Stanford was born) and 1860 since we find the children living in the household of Vincent Reese (53, planter, b. Georgia) and his wife Susan E. (48, b. Georgia), their grand parents, in District 12, Columbia, Georgia in 1860. This census record lists James V. Stanford (12), Frances E. Stanford (9), and Mary A. Stanford (5).

Mary was the daughter of Vincent Reese (b. 1808) and Susan L. Short (b. 27 Jun 1911).

Children of Thomas Floyd Stanford and Mary A. Reese:

- 196     i. James Vinson "Vince" Stanford, born 27 Dec 1849, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 30 Jul 1926, in Stockton, Guadalupe, Texas.
      ii. Frances L. Stanford, born about 1850, in Georgia.

The 1860 census finds Frances E. Stanford (9) living in the household of Vincent Reese, her grandfather, in District 12, Columbia, Georgia.

In 1870, Frances L. Stanford (20) is listed living in the household of Vincent Reese, her grandfather, in District 130, Columbia, Georgia.

- iii. Mary A. "Mollie" Stanford, born about 1855, in Georgia, died 1878, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried in Sweetwater Baptist Cemetery, McDuffie County, Georgia. She married Daniel Webster Cason 11 Jul 1875, in McDuffie County, Georgia. Daniel Webster Cason was born 18 Dec 1835, in Warren County, Georgia, died 18 Dec 1918, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried in Sweetwater Baptist Cemetery, McDuffie County, Georgia.

The 1860 census finds Mary A. Stanford (5) living in the household of Vincent Reese, her grandfather, in District 12, Columbia, Georgia.

In 1870, Mary A. Stanford (16) is listed living in the household of Vincent Reese, her grandfather, in District 130, Columbia, Georgia.

Some researchers find that Mollie and Daniel had one son, John M. Cason, born in Aug 1876. [But, many researchers seem confused between this John M. Cason and the John M. Cason, son of Bartholomew Cason (1836-1908) and Naomi Griffis (1837-1901), who was born about 1871 and died on 2 Jul 1964 in Clinch County, Georgia.]

Daniel Webster Cason was the son of Matthew Cason (1804-1863) and Martha Hamilton (1804-1860).

This was Daniel's third marriage...he previously married Rebecca Jane Story (1840-1867) and Macy Montgomery (1846-1873). After Mollie's death, he married Sarah Dorkins "Dee" Hinton (1861-1944).

On 6 Nov 1838, guardianship for orphans Floyd, Joseph, Orrin, and Ann Elizabeth Stanford was assigned to Jefferson S. Briscoe, which indicates that Mary had died by that date.

Auren is found in the 1850 census in Columbia County living in the household of John Dosier. Erasmus J. Dosier (John's father?) had been appointed Auren's guardian on 5 Mar 1849, after the deaths of his father in 1836, his mother in 1838, and Jefferson S. Briscoe, his original guardian appointed on 6 Nov 1838.

The 1850 slave census lists A.W. Stanford living in District 60, Monroe County, Georgia and owning 13 slaves.

In 1854 and 1855 Auren sold (or gave) two parcels of land in Columbia County, Georgia to his half-brother David Porter Stanford. In 1855-57, there are records of at least three land purchases by Auren in Columbia County, Georgia.

The 1860 census finds Auren (30), his wife S.F. (25), and children Alphonzo (4) and Emmet (2) living near Canton in Madison County, Mississippi. Auren is listed as a planter and the 1860 slave census for Madison County, Mississippi indicates that Auren owned 10 slaves.

After the Civil War, Auren lost his slaves and evidently sold his plantation since, in both the 1870 and 1880 census, we find Auren and Sarah and their two sons living in Canton, Madison, Mississippi where Auren is listed as a dry goods merchant.

Children of Auren W. Stanford and Sarah Frances Scott:

- i. Alphonse M. Stanford, Alphonzo Stanford, born Dec 1855, in Georgia, died 9 Jun 1928, in New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana. He married Matilda Larmond about 1903, in New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana. Matilda Larmond was born Feb 1857, in Louisiana, died after 1920, in New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana.

In the 1880 census, Alphonse is living with his parents in Canton, Madison, Mississippi and clerking in his father's store.

In 1900, the census finds Alphonse Stanford (44, street car conductor) living in New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana as a boarder with family of Matilda Shilling (43, widow).

The 1910 census finds Alphonse Stanford (53) and his wife Matilda (53) living in New Orleans Ward 10, Orleans, Louisiana with 4 of Matilda's children from her first marriage. Living with them is Wilhemnia Larnen (72), Mathilda's mother.

In 1920, the census finds the family living in New Orleans Wrd 1, Orleans, Louisiana and lists A. M. Stanford (63, special officer, R.R. co.), Matilda (63), her son Adolph Schelling and a grandson William Schelling (2).

For some reason, Alphonse listed his place of birth as Louisiana in both the 1900 and 1910 census records, but Georgia in the 1920 record.

Matilda was previously married to Henry Schilling/Schelling, born in France.

- 197 ii. Emmett A. Stanford, born 11 Apr 1858, in Thomson, Columbia, Georgia, died after 1930, in Louisiana.

Sumach Cumberland Presbyterian Cemetery, Murray County, Georgia.

Nehemiah is listed in Capt. Mathis' District of Putnam County in the 1830 census, living in the same area as his father and brother Nathaniel D. Stanford. We find him living in Putnam county in the census for 1850 also.

The 1850 Slave Census lists Neemiah Stanford living in Putnam County, Georgia and owning 4 slaves.

By the 1860 census, Nehemiah (55), his second wife Nancy (39), and children Adaline, Caroline, and Sarah are living in Militia District 1039, Murray County, Georgia.

During the Civil War, Nehemiah served in Company D, 9th Regiment, Georgia Infantry, CSA ("State Guards").

By the 1870 census, all the children have left home except for Caroline (24).

The last census record for the family is for 1880 where Nehemiah( 74) and Nancy (58) are shown living in Shuck Pen, Murray, Georgia. Their grandson, Floyd Coffee (20) is living with them.

Nehemiah's will is recorded in Murray County Will Book No. 2 (1872-1922). The will is dated 1887 and lists Wife: Nancy Susan. Children: Sally L. Stroud, Martha E. Swisher, Thomas M., Administrator V. Beck, Witnesses: S. H. Harris, C. H. Humphrey, J. M. Poag.

His tombstone at Sumach, Georgia that reads, "Here lies Nehemiah Stanford. Born June 6, 1805; died November 1, 1889. Grandson of two noble men who fought in the Revolutionary War, and were always true to their country. He was a strict adherent to their faith, and always voted the Democratic ticket."

Elizabeth was the daughter of Sylvester Wyatt and Sarah Mills.

Children of Nehemiah Stanford and Elizabeth Wyatt:

- 198      i.    Thomas Mitchell Stanford, born 16 Aug 1830, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 21 Apr 1873, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.
- 199      ii.   Lycurgus Leven Stanford, born 10 Dec 1831, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 5 Oct 1917, in Hamilton, Harris, Georgia.
- 200      iii. Eli Sylvester Stanford, born 4 Oct 1833, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 27 Nov 1912, in Murray County, Georgia.
- iv.   Sarah L. "Sallie Sally" Stanford/, born 9 Apr 1835, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 14 Dec 1909, in Murray County, Georgia. She married Calvin Newton Stroud about 1867, in Murray County, Georgia. Calvin Newton Stroud was born 31 May 1843, in Georgia, died 16 Jun 1921, in Murray County, Georgia.

Sarah and Calvin had 2 sons.

Calvin was the son of John Stroud and Delaney Bright.

- v. Martha Elizabeth Stanford, born 6 Dec 1836, in Murray County, Georgia, died 19 Aug 1902, in Apison, Hamilton, Tennessee. She married (1) Eperson F. "Ep" Coffee 10 Jul 1857, in Murray County, Georgia. Eperson F. "Ep" Coffee was born about 1833, in Murray County, Georgia, died 3 Feb 1863, in Civil War, Ft. Donaldson, Tennessee. She married (2) James Swisher 21 Dec 1866, in Murray County, Georgia. James Swisher was born 27 Jan 1835, in McMinn County, Tennessee, died 30 Sep 1906, in Apison, Hamilton, Tennessee.

Martha and Ep had two children, Floyd Coffee and John Alvin Coffee.

Martha and James had 4 children.

- vi. Caroline M. "Carrie" Stanford, born 17 Jul 1842, in Putnam County, Georgia, died before 1883, in Georgia. She married John Lewis Short 31 Jan 1872, in Georgia. John Lewis Short was born 27 Jun 1830, in Virginia, died 13 Aug 1894, in Corsicana, Navarro, Texas.

Carrie and John had 3 children [John Lewis Short, Jr. (b. 1873), George A. Short (b. 1875), and Mattie L. Short (b. 1878)].

The 1880 census lists the living in Doolittle, Murray, Georgia.

The census finds Jno. L. Short (33, carriage maker, b. Virginia) living with the family of James M. Corder in Dalton, Whitfield, Georgia in 1860.

This was John's second marriage...he was previously married to Caroline H. Richardson, with whom he had two children [Susan A. Short (b. 1863) and Virginia A. Nettie Short (b. 1866)]. The 1870 census finds the family living in Militia District 872, Whitfield, Georgia.

Evidently Caroline Stanford Short died before 1883 since John remarried on 25 Oct 1883 to Mary B. Covington, by who he had five children. Evidently, the family moved to Texas between 1891 and early 1894 since their last child was born in Feb 1894 in Texas.

- vii. Adaline Virginia "Addy Addie" Stanford/, born 11 Jul 1845, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 4 Apr 1906, in Anson, Jones, Texas. She married Reuben Thomas Beck 20 May 1862, in Sumach, Georgia. Reuben Thomas Beck was born 27 Jan 1843, in Elberton, Elbert, Georgia, died 31 Mar 1904, in Anson, Jones, Texas.

Addy and Reubin had 17 children.

Harriet Matilda Dashiell 22 Dec 1827, in Warren County, Georgia. She was the daughter of George William Dashiell and Ellender "Nellie" Stanford. Harriet Matilda Dashiell was born 4 Aug 1810, in Warren County, Georgia, died 5 Mar 1864, in Georgia.

The 1830 census lists the family living in Capt. John B. Mathis' District of Putnam County, Georgia, in the same district as Leven Stanford, Nehemiah Stanford, and Joseph Stanford. This record includes 1 M < 5 [Joseph], 1 M 20-29 [Nathaniel], and 1 F 20-29 [Harriet].

The 1850 Slave Census lists Nathan B. Stanford living in Putnam County, Georgia and owning 1 slave. The 1850 "Agricultural Census" lists Nathan Stanford living in District 70, Putnam, Georgia with 100 acres of improved land and 22 acres unimproved. The 1850 population census lists the family living in District 70, Putnam, Georgia and includes Nathan L. Stanford (40, farmer), Harriet (42), Sarah (18), Nathan Jr. (17), Harriet (13), Jerusha (10), and Lucias (7).

The 1860 census finds the family living in District 369, Putnam, Georgia and lists N.D. Stanford (50, farmer), Harriett (49), J.S. [Jerusha Suffronia] Stanford (19, female), and O.D. [Oliver D.] Stanford (8, male).

The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists N.D. Stanford, age 55, shoemaker, living in Putnam County, Georgia.

In the 1870 census, Nathan (62) and his son Oliver (19) are living with his daughter Jerusha's family in Putnam County, Georgia.

Children of Nathaniel David "Nathan" Stanford and Harriet Matilda Dashiell:

- 201      i.    Joseph George Quintilian Stanford, born 29 Jul 1829, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 20 Sep 1913, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.
- ii.   Sarah Elender Eliza Stanford, born about 1832, in Putnam County, Georgia.

Some researchers indicate that Sarah had a child out of wedlock named Oliver A. W. Stanford. This may actually be the Oliver D. Stanford listed here. It was not uncommon at this time for grandparents to assume parentage of illegitimate grandchildren.

- 202      iii.   Nathaniel Leonidas Oval Stanford, born about 1833, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 7 Feb 1863, in Charlottesville, Virginia.
- iv.   Harriet Ann Camelia Stanford, born about 1837, in Stanfordville, Putnam, Georgia, died 1837, in Stanfordville, Putnam, Georgia. Cause of death: drowning.
- v.    Jerusha Suffronia Odelia Stanford, born about 1840, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 24 Jan 1893, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, buried in West View Cemetery, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. She married John J. Hawkins 22 Apr 1866, in Putnam County, Georgia.

In 1870, we find Jerusha (28) and John (30) farming in Putnam County, Georgia. At this time, her father Nathan (62) and brother Oliver (19) are living with Jerusha.

The 1880 census finds Jerusha (40) and John (40) living in Putnam County, Georgia with Oliver still living with them. [The age given for Oliver in the census record, 25, is obviously incorrect.]

There are no children listed in either census record.

- 203      vi. Lucius Junius Brutus Stanford, born about 1843, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 4 Oct 1901, in Colbert County, Alabama.
- vii. Oliver A. W. Stanford, born May 1850, in Putnam County, Georgia. He married (1) Mattie Massey 19 Dec 1872, in Putnam County, Georgia. He married (2) Charity Vincent 1 Apr 1886, in Putnam County, Georgia. Charity Vincent was born Jun 1849, in Georgia.

There is some confusion as to Oliver's full name. In some records, he is referred to as Oliver D. Stanford, while in most others his name is given as Oliver A. Stanford or Oliver A.W. Stanford or O.A.W. Stanford.

There is a family story that Oliver was actually the illegitimate son of Sarah Elender Stanford and was raised by his grandparents, but this is not documented.

While one census record gives Oliver's date of birth as May 1850, other census records indicate that he was born 1851/1852.

In both the 1870 and 1880 census, Oliver is living with his sister Jerusha and brother-and-law Jasper Hawkins and working on his brother-in-law's farm near Eatonton in Putnam County, Georgia.

There is a record of O.A.W. Stanford marrying Mattie Massey in Putnam County, Georgia in 1872, yet Mattie does not appear in the 1880 census. Whether the marriage ended or Mattie died before 1880 is unknown.

Oliver is listed in the property tax records in District 369 of Putnam County, Georgia. A listing for 1878-1882 lists Oliver A. Stanford, while the listing for 1883-1887 is for Oliver A. W. Stanford.

The 1900 census lists Oliver (50) and Charity (51) living at Half Acre, Putnam, Georgia. The couple indicate that have been married 14 years and that Oliver is a farmer. No children are listed.

These records indicate that Oliver lived at "Stanfordville" or "Hell's Half Acre" near Eatonton, Putnam, Georgia.

Charity was the daughter of Thomas Vincent and Rebecca Todd. In 1880, the family was living in District 369, Putnam, Georgia.

Elizabeth and Miranda had 7 children. Only one is listed here since that child married a Stanford.

Her obit was published in the "Southern Christian Advocate" on 14 May 1873 and lists her date of death as April 15, 1873. This record lists her date of birth as "Feb. 7th 1810."

Children of Elizabeth Stanford and Miranda Fort:

- i. James Lane Fort, born 7 Jan 1836, in Georgia, died 6 Jul 1886, in Talbot County, Georgia. He married Temperance Stanford 15 Dec 1853, in Marion County, Georgia. She was the daughter of James Stanford and Mary Sarah "Polly" McGee. Temperance Stanford was born 1834 OR 1835, in Georgia, died after 1880, in Talbot County, Georgia.

James was a brick mason.

The 1860 census lists the family in Tailbottom, Talbot, Georgia and includes James (28) and Temperance (36).

The 1870 census finds the family in Tailbottom, Talbot, Georgia, listing James (38), Temperance (38), and Stephen (8).

In 1880, the census finds the family in Tailbottom, Talbot, Georgia, and lists James (48) and Temperance (45).

After the death of James and Mary Ann, Temperance became the ward of Thomas Brown in Talbot County, Georgia.

Temperance and James had 1 son.

On 5 Dec 1836, Miranda Fort sold Joel Stanford 160 acres in the 7th Cherokee District, Talbot County.

In the 1850 census, we find the family living in District 16, Talbot County, Georgia listed as Joel Standford (39, farmer), Martha (26), Susan (8), Nancy (4), Mary (2), and Sarah (2/12).

In 1860, the census lists Martha F. Stanford (36, widow) living in Jasper County, Georgia with her children Ann E. (17), Emily (14), Mary A. (11), and Sarah J. (9). This record indicates that Joel died by 1860.

Martha F. Standford is listed as a slave owner in the 1860 census slave schedules.

Martha is listed as a widow in the 1880 census for Lawrence, Jasper, Georgia. This record lists Martha Stanford (56), Susan A. (35), and Alice (30). The family is living next door to daughter Sarah Jane Stanford Waits and her husband William Waits.

Children of Joel Stanford and Martha Frances Phillips, Martha Anne Phillips, Frances Martha Stanford:

- i. Susanna E. Stanford, born about 1842, in Talbot County, Georgia, died in Bound Oak, Jones, Georgia. She married John Barr. John Barr was born in Jones County, Georgia.

Alice and James had no children.

In both 1930, the census lists the family was living in Phenix City, Lee, Alabama.

The 1940 census lists James W. Barr living in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia. This record indicates he moved to Columbus from Phenix City sometime after 1935.

- iv. Sarah Jane "Sallie" Stanford, born 22 Jan 1854, in Talbot County, Georgia, died 19 Jun 1917, in Jasper County, Georgia, buried in Hebron Cemetery, Jasper County, Georgia. Nathaniel David "Nathan" Stanford was born 4 Mar 1808, in Warren County, Georgia, died 28 Sep 1871, in Putnam County, Georgia.

The Dashiell family were close neighbors of the Stanford family in Somerset County, Maryland. It is probable that Harriet's father immigrated to Georgia about the same time most of the Stanfords moved there.

Children of Harriet Matilda Dashiell and Nathaniel David "Nathan" Stanford:

- 201 i. Joseph George Quintilian Stanford, born 29 Jul 1829, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 20 Sep 1913, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

- vii. Oliver A. W. Stanford, born May 1850, in Putnam County, Georgia.

In the 1830 census, we find Isaiah Standford listed in Warren County, Georgia. The list includes 1 M <5, 1 M 15-20 [brother?], 1 M 20-30 [Isaiah], 2 F <5, 1 F 30-40 [Elizabeth], and 1 F 50-60 [Elizabeth's mother?].

The 1840 census finds the family in Lee County, Georgia and the family list includes 1 M 10-15, 1 M 40-50 [Isaiah], 1 F 5-10, 1 F 10-15, 1 F 30-40 [Elizabeth] and 1 F 70-80 [Elizabeth's mother?].

We can estimate Elizabeth's birth year from the 1830 and 1840 census age ranges...about 1800 is the only date that fits both.

The 1824 marriage record lists "Elizabeth Stanford" as the bride...her origins have not yet been determined.

Children of Isaiah Stanford and Elizabeth Stanford:

- i. GNU Stanford, born between 1825 and 1830, in Georgia.
- ii. GNU Stanford, born between 1825 and 1830, in Georgia.
- iii. GNU Stanford, born between 1825 and 1830, in Georgia.
- iv. GNU Stanford, born between 1830 and 1835, in Georgia.

C.C. Stanford, nicknamed Kit [or Kitt], is identified in several Tallapoosa County, Alabama census records and from these we know his approximate date of birth in Georgia. Since Kit is a nickname for Christopher, we can be relatively sure that his first name was Christopher. Then, in the 1880 census, Kit recorded that his father was born in Maryland and his mother in North Carolina.

In 1840, the family is living in District 588, Upson, Georgia and the record for C.C. Stanford lists 1 M 30-40, 3 F <5, and 1 F 20-30. C.C. owned 5 slaves at this time.

Based on the following record of Upson County Inferior Court, Christopher served as a Justice of the Peace for a period on the Inferior Court of that county: "... (sworn before JP on February 12, 1842, returnable to next term of Inferior Court) Jordan Lyon vs. George P. Cannon; "I have levied the within attachment upon... [land, houses, and various household goods, and] one Negro woman by the name of Jude about fifty years old... The within attachment was levied by me this day at forty five minutes past Eight Oclock (P.M.) February 12, 1842 [signed] C.C. Stanford".

In both 1847 and 1854, the "Poor School Records" for Upson County, Georgia list the children of Christopher and Sarah. In 1847 the records include Marian [Mary Ann], Charlotte, Josephine, and John James. In 1854, Josephine, John J., Charlotte, and Cicero A. are listed. It appears that Kit suffered financial setbacks between 1840 and 1847.

Based on census records and the places of birth of the children, along with the 1854 "Poor School Records", we can conclude that the family moved from Georgia to Alabama between 1854 and 1855.

The 1855 Alabama State Census lists the family in Beat 14, Tallapoosa County as C.C. Stanford and includes 4 males less than 21, 1 male over 21, 3 females less than 21, and 1 female over 21.

There are several land purchase records between 1858 and 1861 by C.C. Stanford in Tallapoosa County, Alabama.

The 1860 census lists the family in Beat 14, Tallapoosa, Alabama and includes C.C. Stanford (53, farmer), Sarah (45), John (18), Cicero (17), Sarah (13), Lucius (10), and Tamerlane (3).

The children listed here are based on the 1847 and 1854 "Poor School Records" and the 1860 census record, but also includes Mary A.E. Stanford, who was already married by this time and does not appear in the census. From marriage records, we can identify Charlotte Stanford, who married in 1856 is also not on the census. Based on the 1855 census, there appears to be one son missing from this list.

On 17 Oct 1863, Kit served as "bondsman" for the wedding of Calvin Waters and Carolina Sanders.

The 1866, Alabama State Census lists C.C. Stanford living in Tallapoosa County, Alabama. This record lists 1M <10 [Tamerlane], 1M 10-20 [Lucius], 1M 20-30 [Cicero], 1M 50-60 [Christopher Columbus], 1F 10-20 [Sarah E.], and 1F 50-60 [Sarah].

In 1870, the family is living in Duffeys, Tallapoosa, Alabama and includes Kitt Stanford (63, farmer), Sarah (57), and Tamer (13). The son Lucius "Quint" Stanford is living next door working as farm laborer.

The 1880 census finds the family in Duffer, Tallapoosa, Alabama and lists C.C. Stanford (72, constable), Sarah (67), and Tamberland (22, farm laborer).

Evidently, sometime after 1880, Kit moved to Logan County, Arkansas with his youngest son Tamerlane. Sarah had probably died before the move.

Children of Christopher Columbus "Kit, Kitt" Stanford and Sarah "Sally" Easter:

- i. Mary Anne Elizabeth Stanford, born Feb 1833, in Georgia, died 8 Jun 1907, in Jacksons Gap, Tallopoosa, Alabama, buried in Jacksons Gap Baptist Church Cemetery, Jacksons Gap, Tallopoosa, Alabama. She married James Singleton Nickerson. James Singleton Nickerson was born 20 Jul 1820, in Georgia, died 10 Mar 1898, in Tallapoosa County, Alabama, buried in Jacksons Gap Baptist Church Cemetery, Jacksons Gap, Tallopoosa, Alabama. Cause of death: cancer.

Mary and James had at least 7 children.

In 1850, James (29) is listed in the District 86, Upson, Georgia census record, working as an overseer on a farm.

- James served during the Civil War under Capt. Young's Alabama Reserve Troops.
- ii. Charlotte Stanford, born 14 MAY 1835 OR 14 MAY 1837, in Georgia, died 19 Oct 1899, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas. She married (1) Enos M. Nickerson 29 Dec 1856, in Tallapoosa County, Alabama. Enos M. Nickerson was born about 1835, in Alabama, died 7 Aug 1925, in Miller County, Arkansas. They were divorced. She married (2) John William Thomas Godfrey 14 Jan 1874, in Tallapoosa County, Alabama. John William Thomas Godfrey was born 28 Aug 1828, in DeKalb County, Georgia, died 28 Nov 1904, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas.

In 1880, the family was living in Sugar Creek, Logan, Arkansas.

John was the son of George A. Godfrey and Gelley James.

This was John's second marriage. He married Lucinda Mangram in Alabama about 1848.

- John served in the 34th Alabama Infantry Regiment during the Civil War.
- iii. Josephine Stanford, born about 1836, in Georgia, died about 1880, in Yazoo County, Mississippi. She married James Elias Evers 24 Jul 1856. James Elias Evers was born 6 Oct 1835, in Bladen County, North Carolina, died about 1880, in Yazoo County, Mississippi.

Jospehine and James marred in 1856, probably in Tallapoosa County, Alabame, where both were living.

Joesphine and James had six children. Their first child was born in 1857 in Alabama, but the family moved to Mississippi before 1860 and the other five children were born there, mostly in Yazoo County.

James was the son of William Evers, Jr. (1815-1870) and Mary Ann Sessoms (1815-1910).

According to the Alabama Census, James Evers was living in Tallapoosa County, Alabama in 1855.

- iv. John James Stanford, born about 1842, in Georgia, died 17 Sep 1862, in Fredericksburg, Spotsylvania, Virginia, buried in Alabama Confederate Cemetery, Fredricksburg, Fredricksburg, Virginia.

The 1860 census lists John (18) living with his parents in Beat 14, Tallapoosa, Alabama.

John served in Company H, "Jackson Avengers", 14th Alabama Infantry. "Jno. J. Stanford" was wounded on 17 Sep 1862 at Fredricksburg, Virginia and, evidently, later died. He is buried in the Alabama Confederate Cemetery, Fredricksburg, Virginia, and his gravestone is engraved simply "J. J. STANFORD, ALA".

- v. Cicero A. "Roe" Stanford, born Nov 1846, in Georgia, died after 1910, in Williamson County, Tennessee. He married Virginia T. Waddy 29 Jul 1868, in Williamson County, Tennessee. Virginia T. Waddy was born Jul 1843, in Tennessee, died after 1910, in Williamson County, Tennessee.

Evidently, Cicero and Virginia did not have children.

Cicero served in Company G, 34th Alabama Infantry during the Civil War. The 34th Alabama Infantry was organized at Loachapoka, Alabama on 15 April 1862, with companies recruited from Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama and the counties of Coosa, Russell, and Tallapoosa, Alabama. About 100 of the original 1,000 members of the regiment were surrendered at High Point, Davidson, North Carolina, 26 April 1865.

In 1880, the census finds the couple living in District 12, Williamson, Tennessee (evidently Jennie's home) and the record includes C.A. Stanford (33, farmer), Virginie T. (36), and their nephew Richard P. Waddey (5, b. Tennessee).

The 1900 census finds the couple living in Civil District 13, Wiliamson, Tennessee and lists Cicero O. Stanford (54) and Jennie T. (56).

In 1910, the couple are living with the family of Richard P. Waddy (their nephew) in Civil District 13, Williamson, Tennessee. The census lists Cicero A. Stanford (64, own income) and Virginia T. Stanford (66).

Virginia was the daughter of Benjamin and Mary J. Waddy. We find this family living in District 12, Williams, Tennessee in the 1850 census.

- vi. Sarah E. Stanford, born Sep 1846, in Georgia, died after 1900. She married John B. Rush 1868, in Tallapoosa County, Alabama. John B. Rush was born Mar 1845, in Georgia, died after 1900.

In 1880, the census finds the couple living in Duffeys, Tallapoosa, Alabama, next door to C.C. and Sarah Stanford, and lists John B. Bush (34) and Sarah E. (37).

The 1900 census lists the family living in Sugar Creek, Logan, Arkansas and includes John B. Rush (55, farmer) and Sallie E. (53). This record indicates that both John and Sallie were born in Georgia.

- 207     vii.     Lucius Quintilian Cinninati "Quint" Stanford, born 9 Aug 1849, in Georgia, died 16 Apr 1929, in Jackson's Gap, Tallapoosa, Alabama.
- 208     viii.    Tamerlane "Tam, Tammer" Stanford, born between 1857 and 1859, in Tallapoosa County, Alabama, died before 1920, in Logan County, Arkansas.

The Eubanks area of Columbia County is currently known as "Leah"...Eubanks was the name of the original post office.

Often, records show Nathan's middle name spelled "Warin".

In 1850, the family is found living in Columbia County, Georgia listed, in error, as William W. Stanford (31, planter), Rebecca (25), James (9), Nancy (5), Sarah (3), and William (1). At this time, the family is living next door to Mary and Nancy Gunby, the widow of Jonathan Stanford.

In 1854, Nathan applied for and was appointed administrator of the estate of Elijah Stanford in Columbia County, Georgia, as evidenced by the following two legal notices published in the Augusta Chronicle. This Elijah Stanford may have been Nathan's first cousin.

1. Augusta Chronicle Saturday April 8, 1854:

"Columbia County, GEO. - Whereas, Nathan W. Stanford applies for Letters of Administration on Estate of Elijah Stanford, deceased:

"These are therefore to cite and admonish, all and singular, the kindred and creditors of said deceased, to be and appear at my office, within the time prescribed by law, to show cause, if any they have, why said letters should not be granted.

"Given under my hand at office in Appling. April 6, 1853 ..... S. CRAWFORD, Ordinary"

2. Augusta Chronicle Sunday June 4, 1854

"SIXTY DAYS after date application will be made to the Court of Ordinary of Columbia County for leave to sell the Real Estate of Elijah Stanford, dec'd., for benefit of heirs and creditors. June 4, 1854

..... NATHAN W. STANFORD, Adm'r"

The 1860 census recorded the family living in District No. 6 of Columbia County, Georgia that he owned real estate in the value of $800 and personal estate of $230...substantial sums at the time. This record includes N.W. Stanford (40, planter), Rebecca (38), James W. (16), Mary [Nancy] J. (14), Mary [Sarah] E. (13), William T. (11), Eugenia C. (9), Emma C. (7), George C. (6), Virgil M. (4), Albert C. (3), and Charles M. (1).

During the Civil War, Nathan was too old to join the Confederate Army, but he worked in the Confederate Powder Mill at Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.

The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists N.W. Stanford, age 46, farmer, living in Columbia County, Georgia.

In 1870, the census lists the family living in District 129, Columbia, Georgia. This record includes Nathan Stanford (50), Rebecca (45), William T. (18), Charlotte E. (16), George C. (15), Virgil M. (13), Albert C. (12), Charlie (10), Isadora (7), and Algie F. (1).

The 1880 census finds the family living in District 128, Columbia, Georgia and lists Nathan Stanford (60, farmer), Rebecca (46), Emma (22), Charlie (21), Dora (16), and Algie (11).

Rebecca was the daughter of Hillary Langford (b. 12 July 1793, Georgia) and Rebecca Entriken (b. 5 Mar 1796, Laurens District, South Carolina). Hillary was a farmer.

Children of Nathan Warren Stanford and Rebecca Langford:

John Allen Greene was born 16 Jun 1831, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 28 Jun 1897, in Columbia County, Georgia, buried in Old Union Baptist Church Cemetery, Harlem, Columbia, Georgia.

The 1910 census finds Nancy J. Greene (57) living in Militia District 128, Columbia, Georgia.

She married John Wesley Young 6 Sep 1877, in Grovetown, Columbia, Georgia. John Wesley Young was born 1842, in Macon County, Georgia, died 17 Nov 1911, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia, buried in Grove First Baptist Church Cemetery, Grovetown, Columbia, Georgia.

John and Eugenia had 5 children.

Cornelia's grave is beside her husband John Wesley Young and son Rorie (1865-1907). Her gravestone is marked "C.E. Young" and presents her date of birth as 5 Mar 1852 and date of death as 27 Jun 1908, the dates used here.

John was the son of Hosea Young (b. abt 1810, Georgia) and Elizabeth C. Tindall (b. abt 1814, North Carolina).

Eugenia was John's second wife...he married Mary Elizabeth Blackstone (d. between Feb 1874 and August 1877) on 17 Dec 1866 in Appling, Columbia, Georgia and the couple had 4 children. Mary was born about 1852 and died between Feb 1874 and Aug 1877.

- xi. Isadora "Dora" Stanford, born about 1863, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 24 Dec 1934, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia. She married Henry Greene. Henry Greene was born about 1860, in Georgia.

The Georgia Death Index lists "Dora Green" dieing in Richmond County, Georgia on 24 Dec 1934. Other than a mention of her as "Mrs. Henry Greene" in Algie F. Stanford's 1913 obit, this is the only record found for Dora.

- 215     xii. Algie F. Stanford, born about 1869, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 6 Jun 1913, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.

Stephen Stanford was a farmer.

The 1870 census lists the family living in Polk County, Georgia and includes Stephen Stanford (46, farm laborer), Ellen (41), Mary F. (16), William H. (14), James W. (12), Nebuchandezzer (10), Evans (7), Abraham L. (3), and Not Named (1/12). [This record incorrectly records Stephen as "mulatto".]

The family moved to Floyd County, Georgia before 1880, since the 1880 census finds Stephen Stanford (56), Eleanor Stanford (51) and 6 of their children in Chulio, Floyd, Georgia. This record includes children William H. Stanford (24), Nebuchnezzar (18), William E. (16), David L. (12), Abner V. (9), and Nedie E. (7).

It appears that Stephen and Eleanor moved to Franklin County, Arkansas in late 1882 or early 1883. Stephen died soon after this move.

The 1900 census finds Eleanor Standford (71, widow) living alone in Heavener, Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory, just a few houses down from her son William Evans Stanford.

Children of Stephen Stanford and Eleanor McGraw:

- i. Mary F. "Molly" Stanford, born Oct 1853, in Georgia, died after 1920, in Oklahoma. She married William Henry G. McDonald 25 Dec 1873. William Henry G. McDonald was born 2 May 1851, in Rome, Floyd, Georgia, died about 1907, in Oklahoma.

In 1900, the family was living in Heavener, Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory.

The 1910 census lists Mary F. McDonald (56, widow), living in Houston, Le Flore, Oklahoma with two of her children.

In 1920, Mary McDonald (69, widow) is listed living in Haileyville, Pittsburg, Oklahoma with her two sons in the household of her daughter Mollie Williams (42).

William was the son of Allen McDonald (1830-1904) and Isabella Drummond (1822-1985).

The 1880 census lists the family living in Chulio, Floyd, Georgia, by 1900 they had moved to Oklahoma [Indian Territory].

- ii. William H. Stanford, born 18 Apr 1856, in Georgia, died 9 Sep 1910, in Houston County, Georgia, buried 10 Sep 1910, in Factory Baptist Church Cemetery, Houston County, Georgia. He married GNU LNU 2 Feb 1885, in Alabama. GNU LNU was born about 1864, in Alabama, died about 1898, in Georgia.

William's middle initial was probably "H" for "Houston", a name used commonly by this family group.

The 1880 census finds William (24) living at home with his parents on the farm on Chulio, Floyd, Georgia, working on the farm.

The 1910 census finds William (53) living with his brother James Warren Stanford in Militia District 527, Houston County, Georgia.

No census records between these two appear, so the twenty-five year period during which William was married is a mystery.

According to LDS records, William's wife was born Abt 1864 in Alabama and died in 1898. This seems reasonable since we find him living with his brother James Warren Stanford in Houston County, Georgia in the 1910 census.

- 216    iii. James Warren Stanford, born 23 Sep 1858, in Mount Vernon, Floyd, Georgia, died 2 Nov 1929, in Macon, Bibb, Georgia.
- 217    iv. Nebuchanezer C. "Neb" Stanford, born 17 Jan 1861, in Rome, Floyd, Georgia, died 15 Oct 1931, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas.

- 219    vi. David Lincoln Stanford, born 27 Jul 1867, in Rome, Floyd, Georgia, died 1952, in Wister, Le Flore, Oklahoma.
- 220    vii. Abner Verdell Stanford, born May 1870, in Rome, Polk, Georgia, died 3 Feb 1952, in Henryetta, Okmulgee, Oklahoma.
- viii. Nedie Ella Stanford, born 21 Jan 1874, in Georgia, died 15 Oct 1960, in Scott County, Arkansas, buried in Coop Prairie Cemetery, Scott County, Arkansas. She married William Jesse Wyatt 3 Jul 1898, in Scott County, Arkansas. William Jesse Wyatt was born 14 Nov 1875, in Scott County, Arkansas, died 5 Nov 1954, in Scott County, Arkansas, buried in Coop Prairie Cemetery, Scott County, Arkansas.

Ella and William had three children.

A William Stanford (26, planter) and Elizabeth (22) are listed in the 1850 census living in Division 20, Crawford, Georgia. This is probably William Augustus Stanford.

Based on census data, it appears that William and Elizabeth moved to Choctaw County, Alabama before 1855. The 1860 census finds them in Township 9, 10, 11, or 12, Choctaw, Alabama and lists Wm. A. Stanford (30, farmer), Elizabeth (32), Wm A. (9), Sarah E. (7), Andrew J. (5), James M. (3), and Benjamin L. (1).

William served in Company F, 32nd Alabama Infantry, CSA during the Civil War, serving from 1861 to 1865.

In 1870, the family is living in Township 11, Choctaw, Alabama and includes W.A. Stanford (40, farmer), Emma [Elizabeth] (42), Susan (17), Alfred (15), James (13), Benjamin (11), William (9), and Milla (3). Living next door are W.A. Stanford Jr. (19, farm laborer) and his wife N. (22).

Sometime between 1870 and 1880, William moved to Bradley County, Arkansas, evidently leaving his wife and family behind in Alabama. William and his new wife Mary J. are found living in Pennington, Bradley, Arkansas in the 1880 census. The record lists Wm. A. Stanford (50, farmer) and Mary J. (46) along with several of her children from her first marriage.

In 1895, William (65) married Rebecca Jane King Ault (52).

William obtained a land grant in Bradley County, Arkansas on 8 Jun 1896.

In 1900, William (70) and Rebecca J. (57) are living in Sumpter, Bradley, Arkansas, taking care of 3 grandchildren, Charlie (9), Jewel (7), and Clifton Ault (3), from Rebecca's first marriage. William is listed as a farmer.

Mary was the daughter of Washington and Susan Lassiter/Lester Wood.

This was Mary's second marriage. She first married Robert Daniel Givens in Alabama. After Robert died, about 1870, she moved to Arkansas with her children and worked as a midwife.

Rebecca Jane had been married previously to William Patten Ault (b. 1834, Tennessee, d. 1866, Clark County, Arkansas), by whom she had three children. Rebecca was the daughter of Elias D. King (b. 1819, Georgia, d. 1890, Bradley County, Arkansas) and Amanda R. King (b. 1824, Georgia).

When Rebecca and William married, she was 52 and he was 65.

The 1910 census finds Rebecca J. Stanford (66) living in Sumpter, Bradley, Arkansas, listed as a widow. Living with her is her grandson, Charley S. Ault (19), from her first marriage.

In 1911, Rebecca Jane Stanford was awarded a widow's pension by the state of Arkansas on the basis of William's Civil War service. In this record, William is listed as having died in Aug 1900.

Children of William Augustus Stanford and Elizabeth Carroll:

- ii.    Sarah E. Stanford, born about 1853, in Georgia.
- iii.    Alfred J. Stanford, born about 1855, in Alabama.
- In the 1860 census, he is listed as "Andrew J. Stanford", while in the 1870 census he is listed as "Alfred Stanford". We don't know which name is correct.
- 222      iv.    James Monroe Stanford, born 28 Nov 1857, in Alabama, died 24 Nov 1938, in Lee County, Mississippi.
- v.    Benjamin L. Stanford, born about 1859, in Choctaw County, Alabama.

In the 1850 Columbia County census, with both parents dead, Frances (age 24), Olive (age 22), Mary (age 20), Priscilla (age 18), and Larkin (age 30) are found living together.

The 1910 census lists Priscilla Stanford (76) living in Mount Vernon, Montgomery, Georgia with her daughter Mary C. Stanford (47).

After making application in 1905, Priscilla received a Widow's Pension based on George's military service during the Civil War while living in Montgomery County, Georgia.

Priscilla's gravestone is engraved "Priscila A. Stanford".

Children of Priscilla E. A. C. Stanford and George Ray Stanford:

- i. Nancy A. Stanford, born 17 Aug 1856, in Georgia.
- ii. John W. Stanford, born 7 Sep 1858, in Georgia, died 14 Mar 1863, in Georgia.
- 223 iii. George Jeremiah Stanford, born 27 Feb 1860, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 29 Jun 1945, in Montgomery County, Georgia.
- iv. Mary Cordelia Stanford, born 9 Sep 1862, in McDuffie County, Georgia, died 28 Nov 1925, in Mount Vernon, Montgomery, Georgia.
- 224 v. William Ray "Willie" Stanford, born 7 Aug 1864, in McDuffie County, Georgia, died 11 Aug 1935, in Glenwood, Wheeler, Georgia.

- vii. Permalia (Permele) Stanford, born 26 May 1871, in Georgia.
- viii. Ellen D. Stanford, born 14 Aug 1873, in Georgia.
- 226 ix. James Ishmael Stanford, born 13 Mar 1875, in Georgia, died 28 May 1959, in Toombs County, Georgia.

The 1860 census finds the family living in Georgia Militia District 236, Oglethorpe, Georgia and lists Marion Stanford (27, physician), Sallie Stanford (20), and John Stanford (23, student of med). The "John Stanford" listed is William John Stanford, Nathan Marion's brother.

In the Slave Census for 1860, Dr. Marion Stanford of Oglethorpe County, Georgia is listed as owning two females, one age 40 and the other age 9.

An "N.M. Stanford" served as a Private in the 9th Regiment, Georgia Infantry, "State Guards", during the Civil War. [However, this seems like a lowly rank for a trained physician, so this may not have been our Nathan.] The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists Nathan and shows that he was exempted from service because he was physician.

The 1865 Tax List for Crawford, Oglethorpe, Georgia lists N.M. Stanford, Physician, owing $10.00 in taxes.

On 2 Jul 1867, N.M. Stanford appeared before the Register of the 30th Registration District, Oglethorpe County, Georgia, where he swore an oath of allegiance to the United States and registered as a qualified voter.

Evidently, Nathan and Sarah separated in 1868 or 1869 and, based on court records, Nathan had some conflicts with the Gaulding family. There is an Oglethorpe County record of the Ordinary Court that shows Nathan W. Stanford sued David and Edward Gaulding [Sarah's brothers] for assault and battery in 1868.

In 1870, the census lists Nathan Stanford (38, physician) living with the family of Joseph L. and Jane E. Mathews in District 79, Lincoln, Georgia.

Nathan remarried in Nov. 1871, but died soon thereafter in Jan 1872. Nathan's estate went through probate in Oglethorpe County, Georgia so it appears that he died there.

Sallie was the daughter of Richard V. Gaulding (b. 1811, Virginia, d. 1884, Oglethorpe County, Georgia) and Mary Virginia Mattox (b. 1819, Georgia, d. 1888, Oglethorpe County, Georgia.)

Sarah's birth date is provided by the record contained in the Bible of William David Gaulding, Sarah's brother, in the possession of Mrs. William Mattox, Elberton, Elbert, Georgia.

Evidently, Nathan and Sarah separated in 1868 or 1869 since the 1870 census finds Sally J. Stanford (27, widow) and her children Cora M. (9), Curtis L. (3), and Jese A. (1) living in Madison County, Georgia.

Sally married to Daniel M. "Dan" McDonald on 8 Dec 1871 in Oglethorpe County, Georgia. McDonald applied for guardianship of Lenora C. Stanford on 31 Jul 1872 in Oglethorpe County, Georgia. In his petition, he states that he recently married "Sara J., formally Stanford" and "that Sarah J. had by her former husband two children who were still living, to wit: Cora M. and Lenora C." This petition for guardianship was approved.

Daniel McDonald was killed during a drunken argument in Jan 1878 in Lexington, Oglethorpe, Georgia. He was shot (twice) by Walter L. Rowe after McDonald pulled a knife and Rowe pulled a gun during the argument. Reports state that "...McDonald has for years lead a life of dissipation, but had a kind heart and accommodating disposition...[but] was a disagreeable man to get along with." He was buried in Crawford, Oglethorpe, Georgia. The killer Rowe fled and there is no record of his arrest or trial for the murder.

The 1880 census lists Sally J. McDaniel [McDonald] (36, widow) living in District 1303, Oglethorpe County, Georgia with her children Curtis L. Stanford (13), Jessie McDaniel (10), Laura McDaniel (5), and Minnie B. McDaniel (3).

An 1890 tax record for Clarke County, Georgia lists that Sarah Jane McDonald owes $3.00, so she lived until at least that time.

Ann was the daughter of Jacob Wolfe and Pathenia Agee.

Children of Nathan Marion Stanford and Sarah Jane "Sallie" Gaulding:

- i. Cora Minton Stanford, born 10 Aug 1860, in Oglethorpe County, Georgia, died 8 Jun 1937, in Fulton County, Georgia. She married Thomas Lenoir Lewis 12 Sep 1880, in Fulton County, Georgia. Thomas Lenoir Lewis was born 15 Apr 1849, in Georgia, died 22 Apr 1925, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

Some researchers indicate that Cora's date of birth was 10 Aug 1859. But, records show that Nathan and Sarah Jane did not marry until 1 Nov 1859, so it is more probable that Cora was born in 1860. She appears in the 1870 census, aged 9, which corresponds to a late 1860 birth.

- ii. Curtis Lenora Stanford, born Aug 1867, in Georgia, died 7 Mar 1925, in Athens, Clarke, Georgia. She married Albin Brantley Short 1 Nov 1891, in Clarke County, Georgia. Albin Brantley Short was born 9 Oct 1872, in Athens, Clarke, Georgia, died 24 Dec 1952, in Athens, Clarke, Georgia.

Lenora and Albin had six children.

Albin was the son of James Short (c1830-c1900) and Cinda Brittan (c1835-c1900). Several researchers indicate that James is James T. Short, born 3 May 1845, died 24 Oct 1889. However, this does not appear to be correct.

We find the Short family living in Athens, Clarke, Georgia in the 1900, 1910, and 1920 census records. In each of these records, Albin is listed as a carpenter.

- iii. Jessie C. Stanford McDonald, born Mar 1869, in Georgia, died 18 Feb 1941, in Athens, Clarke, Georgia. She married William M. Hall 1895, in Clarke County, Georgia. William M. Hall was born about 1871, in Georgia, died before 1900, in Georgia.

The 1900 census lists Jessie's date of birth as Mar 1870, but the 1870 census finds her as 1 year old when the census was taken, so she was more probably born in Mar 1869.

The 1870 census, in error, lists Jesse Stanford (1) as "male".

The 1880 census lists Sally J. McDaniel [McDonald] (36, widow) living in District 1303, Oglethorpe County, Georgia with her children Curtis L. Stanford (13), Jessie McDaniel (10), Laura McDaniel (5), and Minnie B. McDaniel (3). [The "McDaniel" surname listed here is an error...it is "McDonald".] The Jessie listed in this record appears to be the Jese A. Stanford listed in the 1870 census, which means her father was probably Nathan Marion Stanford. However, the 1880 census and her marriage record both list her surname as "McDonald" and, thus, it appears that she assumed her step-father's name. [Or, Jessie may have been Daniel M. McDonald's daughter, born before he and Sally J. Stanford married in 1871. Jessie is not mentioned in the 1872 guardianship petition the McDonald made, he specifically states that his wife, the former Sally J. Stanford, had two children with her former husband...Cora M. and Leonora C. A mystery!]

Jessie appears in the 1900 census as Jesse Hall (30, widow) living with her sister Curtis' family in Athens, Clarke, Georgia with her child Cleo Hall (5).

The 1910 census lists Jessie Hall (37, looper, knitting mill, widow) living in Athens, Clarke, Georgia with her daughter Cleo (14).

In both the 1920 and 1930 census, Jessie C. Hall is listed living with her daughter Cleo Hall Presnell's family in Athens, Clarke, Georgia.

William was the son of James Phillip Hall (1846-1892) and his wife Luticia (b. abt 1858, Georgia). In 1880, the family is living in Danielsville, Madison, Georgia.

An 1855 Stanford family Bible in the possession of Homer Cain gives William's middle name as Jackson. His name is recorded as "William Jackson Stanford" in an 1862 Bible in possession of John M. Stanford in Forsyth County, Georgia.

The 1860 census lists the family in Georgia Militia District 236, Oglethorpe, Georgia and lists Marion Stanford (27, physician), Sallie Stanford (20), and John Stanford (23, student of med). The "John Stanford" listed is probably William John Stanford, Nathan Marion's brother.

William enlisted on June 1864 in Savannah, Chatham, Georgia with Company A, 5th Regiment, Georgia Volunteers. He served until the surrender in April 1865. In March 1865, he was serving as an assistant surgeon in the army hospital in Columbia, Richlands, South Carolina when Sherman's troops entered the city and he was ordered to leave.

Georgia records of "Bonds and Oaths" indicates that William J. Stanford was granted a license by the county to sell "spiritous liquors" in Oglethorpe County in 1867.

The 1870 census lists the family living in Oglethorpe County, Georgia and includes Wm. J. Stanford (36, farm laborer), Mary (30), Joseph [John] (8), and Ella (4).

In 1880, the census finds the family living in Chestatee, Forsyth, Georgia and lists William J. Stanford (43, physician), Mary E. (39), John M. (17), and Ella S. (14).

The 1900 census lists the family in Chestatee, Forsyth, Georgia and includes William Stanford (63, farmer) and Mary E. (59), living next door to their son John Marshall Stanford.

In 1903, William applied for an Indigent Soldier's Pension stating that "I suffer from Hemroids and prolaps of the rectus...and suffer from chronic bronchitis...and rheumatism." He stated he had no property other than household furnishings and no income at the time. His occupation since 1865 is listed as "practicing medicine".

William's gravestone is engraved "Dr. W. J. Stanford, 1835-1913". The date of birth is an error.

As noted in a Stanford family Bible in the possession of Homer Cain, Mary was the daughter of Gill Brawner (d. 2 May 1875) and Elizabeth S. Brawner (d. 11 Nov 1863).

Notes for family of William Jackson Stanford and Mary Elizabeth "Tobe" Brawner: This marriage date is recorded in a Stanford family Bible in the possession of Homer J. Cain is 16 April 1861. However, the 1860 census shows William living in Oglethorpe County, Georgia with his brother Nathan Marion Stanford and a woman named "Sallie Stanford", born about 1840. It is probable that this census record was for William's wife and, thus, they were probably married in 1860 rather than 1861.

Children of William Jackson Stanford and Mary Elizabeth "Tobe" Brawner:

- 227      i. John Marshall Stanford, born 4 Jun 1862, in Forsyth County, Georgia, died 30 Jan 1940, in Chestatee, Forsyth, Georgia.
- ii. Ella Susan Stanford, born 12 Apr 1866, in Walton County, Georgia, died 8 Sep 1951, in Forsyth County, Georgia. She married Wiley Stockton Cain 3 Dec 1885, in Forsyth County, Georgia. Wiley Stockton Cain was born 20 Mar 1853, in Hall County, Georgia, died 3 Jan 1930, in Forsyth County, Georgia.

Susan and Wiley had two children.

Wiley was the son of Samuel Hill Cain and Emily E. Bell.

Hilmon was a physician. Based on the 1850 census, his middle name may have been "Smith."

Hilmon served as a Private in the Confederate Army, enlisting on 24 Aug 1861 in Company F, 29th Regiment, Georgia Infantry. He was captured at Deep Bottom, Virginia on 16 Aug 1864, paroled at Elmira, New York and sent to James River, Virginia for prisoner exchange.

At the time of his marriage, Hilmon was living in Milton County, Georgia. [Milton County was created in 1857 and dissolved in 1931.]

The 1880 census finds the family living in Crossville, Milton, Georgia and lists Hilman S. Stanford (40, unspecific physician) and Josephine (24).

Josephine was the daughter of Seaborn Joes and A.E. Allen.

By 1900, Josephine remarried to Edward P. Moore and we find the family living in Linte River, Milton, Georgia. The census record lists Edward P. Moore (35, farmer), Josephine E. Moore (44), Effie L. Stanford (15), Lena M. Stanford (13), Nettie Stanford (11), Clara Stanford (9), and Rena D. Moore (1).

In 1910, we find Josphine (54) living in Atlanta Ward 5, Fulton, Georgia with her second husband Edward P. Moore and daughters Clara H. Stanford (19), Rena D. Moore (11), and Bonnie Lee Moore (9).

The 1920 census lists Josephine E. Moore (62, farmer) and daughter Bonnie L. Moore (18) living in Resaca, Gordon, Georgia.

In 1930, the census lists Josephine Moore (74) and daughter Bonnie L. Moore (29) living in Resaca, Gordon, Georgia.

Children of Hilmon S. Stanford and Josephine E. "Josie" Jones:

- i. Effie Lou Stanford, born 11 Mar 1885, in Marietta, Forsyth, Georgia, died 30 Jan 1963, in Rutherfordton, Rutherford, North Carolina, buried 1 Feb 1963, in State Line Cemetery, Chesnee, South Carolina. She married William Fletcher Jolley. William Fletcher Jolley was born 7 Apr 1884, in Cherokee County, North Carolina, died 16 Sep 1953, in Forest City, Rutherford, North Carolina, buried in State Line Cemetery, Chesnee, South Carolina.

In 1930, Nettie (42) and John (60) were living in Militia District 984, Murray, Georgia.

Nettie and John had 7 children.

- iv. Clara H. Stanford, born Sep 1890, in Georgia.

In 1910, Clara (19) was living in Atlanta Ward 5, Fulton, Georgia with her mother and step-father.

At least one census record indicates that Daniel's middle name was "Brown" and a family record lists it as "Barber." Many researchers list his middle name as "Brewer," but it is doubtful that two children in the same family would have the same middle name. We do know categorically that his middle name began with "B," so that will suffice.

Daniel served during the Civil War. He enlisted as a Private on 15 March 1862 at the age of 19 in Company F, 24th Infantry Regiment Georgia. Surrendered with Company F, 24th Infantry Regiment Georgia on 9 Apr 1865 at Appomattox Court House, Virginia.

In 1880, the census finds the family living in Pinckneyville, Gwinnett, Georgia and lists D.B. Stanford (37), E.J. (33), L.J. (12), J.S. (6), and G.H. (3). H. Emmett Stanford appears to be the "G.H." listed in this census.

The 1900 census finds the family in Atlanta Ward 2, Fulton, Georgia and lists D. B. Stanford (57, night watchman), E.J. (57), Jno.S. (25), and Robt. E. (21). Living with them is grand daughter J. C. Tweedell (14).

In 1910, the census finds the family living in Berkshire, Gwinnett, Georgia and the record includes Daniel B. Stanford (67) and Elizabeth (65).

Prudence was the daughter of James R. Garrett (1810-1895) and Sarah W. Fletcher (1812-1856).

Jane was the daughter of John Walker Nash (1809 - 1882) and Margaret Matthews (1817 - 1904).

In 1918, Elizabeth Jane made an application for a Widow's Pension on the basis of Daniel's service during the Civil War. From this application, we learn Daniel's death date.

Children of Daniel B. Stanford and Prudence J. Garrett:

- i. Laura Jane Stanford, born about 1868, in Georgia, died before 1919, in Georgia. She married James Robert Tweedell about 1884. James Robert Tweedell was born 9 Aug 1855, in Georgia, died 26 Oct 1924, in Cobb County, Georgia.

Laura Jane and Emma Jane were apparently twins.

Laura and James had 7 children.

John Tweedell, a grandson, says that a family story is that Laura Jane was very difficult to get along with and she left home at 13.

Children of Daniel B. Stanford and Elizabeth Jane Nash:

- i. John S. Stanford, born 7 Sep 1876, in Georgia, died 3 Mar 1901, in Georgia, buried in Nash Cemetery, Lilburn, Gwinnett, Georgia. Cause of death: consumption.

- iii. Emma Elizabeth Stanford, born 28 Dec 1884, in Georgia, died 11 Jun 1886, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, buried in Nash Cemetery, Lilburn, Gwinnett, Georgia.

He married Margaret Clarisy Frachiseur 1 Mar 1877, in Gwinnett County, Georgia. Margaret Clarisy Frachiseur was born 24 Dec 1856, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, died 18 Jun 1954, in Sevier County, Arkansas, buried in Gillham Cemetery, Sevier County, Arkansas.

The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists James B. Stanford, 18, farmer, living in Gwinnett County, Georgia.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Lindleys, Walton, Georgia and lists J.B. Stanford (54, farming), C. Stanford (23), and S.E. (3).

In 1930, the census finds the family is living in Mineral, Sevier, Arkansas and includes James B. Stanford (85) and Margaret Stanford (73).

Margaret was the daughter of James Isaac Frachiseur and Elizabeth Wallis.

A marriage license was issued on 13 Jun 1914 in Sapulpa, Creek, Oklahoma for Miss Mae Stanford (19) and Mr. Charles Aulls (22). It reported by Aulls family researchers that the couple married on 17 Jul 1914. Evidently, this marriage ended in divorce since both remarried later in life.

According to the couple's gravestone, Mae and Charles A. McGuire married in 1941.

Mae S. McGuire, according to her death certificate, died of cardiac arrhythmia. At the time of her death, she was a widow living in Broken Arrow, Tulsa, Oklahoma. This record lists Brewer Stanford and Margaret Frasier [sic] as her parents.

The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists John R. Stanford, 16, farmer, living in Gwinnett County, Georgia.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Brantleys, Walton, Georgia and lists John R. Stanford (32, farmer), Cassandra J. (25), and John C. (3). Living with family is Pink A. Whitworth (20), Cassandra's brother.

In 1900, the family is living in Vinegar Hill, Walton, Georgia and the census record includes John R. Stanford (50, farmer), Cassander (45), John C. (13), Claud (11), Eula M. (7), Edwin (5), and Cora (1). [For some reason, Richard Stanford is not listed in this record.]

The 1910 census finds the family living in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia and includes John R. Stanford (60), Cassie J. (54), Richard E. (26), Claude A. (21), Eula M. (17), Edwin T. (15), and Cora L. (11). Living with the family is son John C. Stanford (33), his wife Viola (30), and daughter Virginia (10).

Cassandra was the daughter of Richard Asbury Whiworth (1825-1864) and Sarah Evaline Moore.

In 1920, the census finds the family living in Atlanta Ward 7, Fulton, Georgia and includes Cassandra Stanford (65) and her son Claude A. (30). Richard E. Stanford (35) and his wife Annie B. (35) is living with the family.

Children of John Randolph Stanford and Cassandra Jane "Cassie" Whitworth:

- 229      i. John Calvin Stanford, born Jan 1877, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, died 5 Nov 1955, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.
- ii. Richard Earl Stanford, born 1883, in Georgia, died 31 Dec 1960, in Baldwin County, Georgia, buried in Oakland Cemetery, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. He married Annie F. LNU about 1915, in Gwinnett County, Georgia. Annie F. LNU was born 1884, in Georgia, died 1 Aug 1971, in DeKalb County, Georgia, buried in Oakland Cemetery, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

The date of birth given here is the date engraved on his gravestone.

In 1920, the census finds the family living in Atlanta Ward 7, Fulton, Georgia and includes Richard E. Stanford (35, salesman, clothing store) and his wife Annie B. (35). Richard and Annie are living with his mother Cassandra Stanford (65) and brother Claude A. (30).

The 1930 census lists the family in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia and includes R. Earl Stanford (46, salesman, clothier) and Annie B. (43).

While Annie's middle initial is given as "B" in two census records, her gravestone lists her name as Annie F. Stanford.

- iii. Norman Randolph Stanford, born 1886, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, died 1901, in Georgia, buried in Shiloh Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Logansville, Walton, Georgia.
- iv. Claude Asbury Stanford, born 23 Sep 1888, in Georgia, died 2 Aug 1981, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. He married Blanche Johnston before 1935, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. Blanche Johnston was born about 1894, in Georgia, died 9 Mar 1967, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

In 1910, Claude (21) is single, living with his parents, and working as a clothing salesman.

On 5 Jun 1917, Claude registered for the WWI draft in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. At the time, he was not married and worked as a salesman for the Keeley Co. in Atlanta.

The 1920 census finds Claude(31) living in Atlanta Ward 6, Fulton, Georgia and working as a salesman in a department store.

In 1930, Claude (40) is living in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia and working as a salesman for a silk factory.

As evidenced by the City Directory for Atlanta Georgia, prior to 1940, Claude open "Stanford Speciality Shop" in northeast Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

This same source indicates that Claude and Blanche married before 1935.

- v. Eula Mae Stanford, born Aug 1892, in Georgia, died 16 Jan 1970, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. She married (1) Freeman Land Chunn 19 May 1911, in Bartow County, Georgia. Freeman Land Chunn was born 27 Jun 1878, in Georgia. They were divorced after 1921. She married (2) Hill Monroe Williams before 1930, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. Hill Monroe Williams was born 28 Oct 1890, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, died 3 Aug 1957, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, buried in Oakland Community Cemetery, Lawrenceville, Gwinnett, Georgia.

In 1930, the census lists Eula S. Williams (37) and Freeman L. Chunn (11) as "guests" at the Winecoff Hotel, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. In this record, she is listed as "married" and her employment is listed as "none." The 1930 census finds Hill Williams (39, carpenter, furniture plant) boarding with his nephew John R. Bowman in Jonas, Barrow, Georgia. This record lists Hill as "widowed."

The 1940 census finds Eula Williams (47) and Hill Williams (50, carpenter, building const.) living in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

The 1950 Atlanta Georgia City Directory lists Hill M. Williams and his wife Eula living in the city.

On 22 August 1957, Mrs. Eula Stanford, living at 349 St. Johns Ave., SW, Atlanta, Georgia, applied for a military marker for the grave of Hill Monroe Williams. This indicates that Eula was still living in Atlanta in 1957.

Eula's son Freeman Chunn moved to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma in the late 1930s and he is listed in the City Directory there in 1939 as a "student." By 1940, he was working there and evidently lived in Oklahoma City for the remainder of his life. Family researchers think that, sometime after Hill's death, Eula moved to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma to live with her son, but later returned to Atlanta.

Freeman was the son of William Augustus Chunn and Martha Delilah Land. In 1900 and 1901, he is found listed in the Atlanta Georgia City Directory, but evidently moved to Florida before 1910 is found living there in 1910 and 1911 when he is listed in the Jacksonville Florida City Directory.

The Jacksonville Florida City Directory for 1912-1913, 1915-1918, and 1921 lists Freeman L. Chunn and his wife Eula living in the city. Evidently Freeman and Eula married about 1912 since no wife was listed for Freeman in 1911.

On 12 Sep 1918, Freeman registered for the WWI draft in Jacksonville, Duval, Florida. This record yields his birth date and lists his nearest living relative as "Eula Mae Chunn (wife)."

Eula and Freeman had one son, Freeman Land Chunn Jr. (b. 1918, Jacksonville, Duval, Florida, d. 2002, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma).

Hill was inducted into the U.S. Army during WWII and served from 27 Apr 1918 until 28 Oct 1918.

- 230      vi. Edwin Talmadge Stanford, born 31 Jan 1894, in Windsor, Walton, Georgia, died Jan 1974, in Washington, District of Columbia.
- vii. GNU Stanford, born 1896, in Walton County, Georgia, died 1896, in Walton County, Georgia, buried in Shiloh Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Loganville, Walton, Georgia.
- viii. Cora Lee Stanford, born 28 Dec 1898, in Walton County, Georgia, died 20 Mar 1959, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, buried in Oakland Cemetery, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. She married (1) Henry Parson Hamrick 3 Oct 1917, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. Henry Parson Hamrick was born 1894, in Georgia, died 1929, in Georgia, buried in Oakhill Cemetery, Cartersville, Bartow, Georgia. They were divorced before 1925, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. She married (2) Samuel Archibald "Archie" Mitchell 1 Sep 1925, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. Samuel Archibald "Archie" Mitchell was born 15 Jan 1894, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, died 28 Sep 1944, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, buried in Oakland Cemetery, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

Henry was a medical doctor. He and Cora had one daughter, Norman F. Hamrick (b. 1919).

In 1920, the census finds the family living in Sugar Hill, Gwinnett, Georgia and lists Henry P. Hamrick (26, medical doctor), Cora S. (21), and Norman F. (1-1/12).

Cora and Archie had one daughter, Margaret, born about 1927.

In 1930, the census lists Archie Mitchell (36, clerk, veterans bureau), Cora S. (31), and Margaret (3-5/12). Living with them is Cora's daughter from her first marriage, Norman F. Hamrick (11).

The 1940 census finds the family living in Buckhead, Fulton, Georgia. This record lists Samuel A. Mitchell (46, contact man), Cora S. (40), and Margaret (13).

The 1840 census lists Jesse Stanford in Lee County, Georgia and the family includes 1M 10-15 [Willis], 1M 20-30 [a brother?], 1M 30-40 [Jesse], and 1F 20-30 [Annie].

In the 1850 census, the family is living in District 50, Lee, Georgia and includes Jesse Stanford (44, farmer) and Anna (39). [Willis is not listed in this record since he died in 1844.]

The 1860 census lists the family in District 16, Sumter, Georgia and the record includes Jesse Stanford (55, farmer) and Amy (50), along with M. Stanford (female, 20) and W. Martin (21), who was probably a relative of Annie's. The "M. Stanford" listed was probably Jesse's niece Malinda Stanford (b. 1839), the daughter of Jesse's brother Elijah.

Evidently, Jesse was fairly well-to-do. He owned 7 slaves in the 1850 slave census and 11 slaves in the 1860 slave census.

Court of the Ordinary records for Sumter County, Georgia for 1868-1870 indicate that Jesse served as a judge of this court. In these records, he is listed as "J.M. Stanford".

In 1870, the census finds the family living in Americus, Sumter, Georgia and lists Jessy Stanford (64, merchant) and Amy (59). This record also lists Sallie Stanford (18) and Jabus Stanford (15), both black...most probably freed slaves who adopted the Stanford surname. This record shows that Jesse was fairly wealthy, with assets of $15,000.

The following obituary notice appeared in the 10 Sep 1873 issue of "Southern Christian Advocate":

"Jesse Stanford died in Americus, Ga., recently, in the 68th year of his age. He was born in Warren County, Ga., but had lived for many years in Sumter County."

Annie was the daughter of Willis (1781-1866) and Polly (b. 1790) Martin.

There is a record for Oak Grove Cemetery that shows her body was moved twice, first in 1893 and then to Plot 15NW on 17 Feb 1896.

Children of Jesse M. Stanford and Anna Martin:

- i. Willis Perry Stanford, born about 1828, in Lee County, Georgia, died 16 Jul 1841, in Lee County, Georgia, buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Americus, Sumter, Georgia.

In 1840, Charles and his family are living near his brother Elijah and his father Reuben in Lee County, Georgia. The census record lists 1 male 20-30, 1 female <5, 1 female 15-20, 1 female 20-30, and 1 female 60-70 [Susan's mother?], along with 6 slaves.

The 1860 census lists the family living in Terrell County, Georgia listed as Charles Stanford (47), Susan (45), Amanda E. (20), Jesse M. (14), Elijah B. (9), and Oriosta (6). All are indicated as born in Georgia except for Susan, who was born in North Carolina.

Charles Stanford owned a large farm in Terrell County, Georgia, three miles east of Brown's Station (later Bronwood) on Sugar Creek. The Stanford's were one of several Stanford families with farms in the area. After Charles Stanford died, John Holland, his son-in-law, assumed management of the family farm on Sugar Creek. [From "John Mathis Holland Family of Terrell County", USGenWeb file contributed by John Holland, 2004...see notes for John Mathis Holland for complete transcript.]

All the census records for Elijah and Oriosto indicate that they were born in Alabama. In his Indigent Soldier's Pension application (1897), Jesse Mercer Stanford stated that he was born in Coffee County, Alabama. So, the family must have lived in Alabama for a period between 1845 and 1860.

In the 1870 census, Susan (52) is living in Terrell County, Georgia with her two sons Elijah (20) and Iriostohuffin (16). The census record indicates that both sons were born in Alabama.

Children of Charles "Charlie" Stanford and Susan Jordan:

- i. Missouri Melinda Stanford, born 15 Apr 1837, in Lee County, Georgia, died 18 Feb 1917, in Bronwood, Terrell, Georgia, buried in Bronwood Cemetery, Bronwood, Terrell, Georgia. She married John Mathis Holland 5 Dec 1859, in Terrell County, Georgia. John Mathis Holland was born 25 Mar 1836, in Germany, died 16 Dec 1919, in Terrell County, Georgia, buried in Bronwood Cemetery, Bronwood, Terrell, Georgia.

Missouri and John had five children.

The following bio entitled "John Mathis Holland Family of Terrell County" was contributed for use in USGenWeb Archives by John Holland on May 23, 2004

"John Mathis Holland (March 25, 1836- December 16, 1919) lived and raised his family in Terrell County over a period of almost 60 years. An immigrant from Southern Germany, John entered the United States through the port of New York with his brother Christian sometime in the early 1850s. Traveling to Cincinnati, Ohio to stay with family and friends, John remained there only a short time before joining the South Western Railroad Company (S.W.R.R.) as a woodcutter where he worked clearing the right-of-way for the Macon to Smithville section of the railroad. Influenced by the Central of Georgia Railroad, the S.W.R.R. was chartered in 1845, and eventually taken over by the Central.

"Reaching Terrell County in the later half of the 1850s, John continued with the S.W.R.R on the Smithville to Dawson section that was completed in July 1858. In the summer of 1859 John met Missouri Melinda Stanford, daughter of Charles and Susan Jordan Stanford. The Stanford's owned a large farm three miles east of Brown's Station (later Bronwood) on Sugar Creek. The Stanford's were one of several Stanford families with farms in the area. John and Missouri were married December 5, 1859, by Thomas Jackson (Justice of the Peace) at her father's home. After the wedding, John left the railroad and began farming with his father-in-law.

"At some point, probably in early 1860, John and Melinda moved to Sumter County to farm with Missouri's uncle, Jesse Stanford. Jesse's farm was several miles north of Americus. Family records indicate John and Missouri stayed in Sumter for approximately a year before returning to Terrell County. In September 1860 their first son, Charles Lewis Holland was born. Charles was named for his grandfathers, Charles Stanford and Lewis Holland.

"After his father-in-law, Charles Stanford, died on January 27, 1861, John assumed the management of the family farm on Sugar Creek. It was on that farm in September 1861 that John and Missouri's second son, John Christian Holland was born. John was given the names of his father and his father's brother, Christian.

"In 1861 John joined a volunteer company with his neighbors to drill and practice firing weapons. On May 12, 1862 he enlisted as a private in Co. "K", 31st Georgia Volunteer Infantry Regiment (Evan's Brigade. Gordon's Division C.S.A., Army of Northern Virginia, Terrell County, Georgia "Bartow Avengers") and left that same month for Savanna and the war of Northern Virginia. Fighting with the 31st in some of the bloodiest battles of the Civil War, John returned to his home only once near the end of the conflict before surrendering at Citronelle, Alabama May 4, 1865. He was paroled in Meridian, Mississippi on May 16, 1865 and walked back to Terrell County from Mississippi. When his two young sons finally saw their father again, the stranger who showed up at the door of the family farmhouse terrified them.

"Like many other CSA soldiers returning from the war John had to start rebuilding his life almost from scratch. Missouri and his mother-in-law, along with the two young boys, had maintained the farm as best they could but were plagued by the same problems suffered by others during the war. A "carpet bagger" headed for Alabama had stolen the one mule that had survived. And there was a problem of simple things like clothing. One of the first things that John had to do was ask a merchant in Dawson to "stand for him" to replace the shoes he had worn out walking home from Mississippi. From that humble beginning, John and his family would build a successful farm and associated businesses in the Bronwood area over the next 50 years. John was known as an excellent businessman and worked hard to pass on his experience and expertise to his sons as they grew into adults.

"John believed in giving back to the community that had supported him and his family after the war. Often perceived to be gruff and stern because of his heavy German accent, he was a generous and religious man quietly assisting many who were less fortunate. Although Missouri was a Methodist, John had strong ties to the Lutheran Church established before he arrived in Terrell County. He became a member of the Lutheran Church in Plains and later helped fund and build the Bronwood Lutheran Church that stood in the oak grove on the site that is now 200 Thornton Street. Along with the Martin family, he also donated land and materials for a country school built in the Bronwood area.

"John and Missouri's third child, William Mathis Holland, was born in 1865 and a daughter, Annie Susan was born in 1871. Their youngest son, Andrew Benjamin Holland was born in 1872.

"John's youngest brother, Paul, was sent by his mother from Germany to the United States to search for John after not hearing from him for more than 30 years. Seeking information about John, Paul first went to Cincinnati to visit his oldest brother, Christian and his family. On February 6, 1886, Paul arrived in Dawson on the early morning (6:30) Central of Georgia train. He went to the courthouse and told the Ordinary in broken English "I think I have a brother living within this county." The Ordinary sent him in a horse and buggy to John's farmhouse out from Bronwood. Each of John's sons recalled the emotional meeting of their father and youngest brother, Paul, whom he had not seen in more than 30 years.

"Paul stayed for several months before planning to return to Germany by way of Cincinnati to tell his mother about John and his family. Several days before taking the train, however, Paul received word that his mother had died. He never returned to Germany but stayed with John and sons before buying a house a few miles west of Sugar Creek. After a brief marriage to "Widow" Winkler of Cincinnati, he moved into a room at John's house where he lived until his death on June 14, 1917. Paul is buried next to his brother in the Bronwood Cemetery."

- ii. Amanda E. Stanford, born about 1840, in Georgia. She married George Smith.
- 231 iii. Jesse Mercer Stanford, born 6 Sep 1845, in Coffee County, Alabama, died 21 Apr 1910, in Sumter County, Georgia.
- 232 iv. Elijah Benjamin Stanford, born 10 Jun 1849, in Alabama, died 3 Jun 1931, in Vienna, Dooly, Georgia.
- v. Oriosto "Hoppman" Stanford, born about 1854, in Alabama.

In one census, the name is spelled "Oriosto", in another "Iriostohuffins" (Iriosto Huffins Stanford?). No further records of this individual has been found.

Elijah won land in Capt. Sanders District of Lee County, Georgia in the 1827 land lottery.

In 1840, Elijah and his family are living near his brother Charles and his father Reuben in Lee County, Georgia. The census record lists 1 male 20-30, 2 females <5, and 1 female 15-20, along with 6 slaves.

In 1850, the census finds the family living in Early County, Georgia and the record includes Elijah Stanford (35, farmer), Mary (26), Malinda (12), Robert (6), Charles (4), and Joseph (1), all indicated as born in Georgia. Since one of the daughters listed in 1840 is not included in the 1850 census, it is assumed that she died by then.

Later census records show that Elijah's children born between 1846 and 1857 were born in Alabama, indicating that he and Mary lived in Alabama, off and on, for about 10 years.

We find Elijah and Mary living in Militia District 1143 of Terrell County, Georgia in 1860. The record includes Elijah Stanford (45, farmer), Mary (35), James R. (15), Charles (13), Joseph (11), Perry P. (8), Lydia E. (3), and Susan J. (1).

The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists E. Stanford, age 50, farmer, living in Sumter County, Georgia.

Based on the 1870 census, it appears that Mary and Elijah separated in the early 1860s, soon after the birth of their last child. In 1870, Elijah (56) and "Polly" (47) [his second wife?] are found living in Americus, Sumter, Georgia, with children Joseph (21), Porter (19), Liddie (14), Susan (9), and [Nancy] Alice (age 7). But, Mary Fort's full name may have been Mary Susan Fort [she did name a daughter

Susan]. This issue remains ambiguous.

Elijah Stanford appears on the tax rolls for Sumter County, Georgia in 1872-1875, along with his sons Joseph and Charles.

Some researchers have confused this Elijah with an Elijah Stanford (born about 1825) in Early County, Georgia.

In 1880, the census finds Mary Stanford (59) living with her daughter Lydia ("Liddy") and son-in-law Henry J. Randall in Americus, Sumter, Georgia. Mary's daughter Nancy A. Stanford (17) is living with the family. [Henry J. Randall is the brother of William Randall who married Mary's daughter Susan.]

Children of Elijah Stanford and Mary Fort:

- i. Malinda Stanford, born 19 Aug 1839, in Early County, Georgia, died 14 Aug 1921, in Waycross, Ware, Georgia, buried in Lott Cemetery, Waycross, Ware, Georgia. She married Pleasant Josiah Allen Aug 1869, in Sumter County, Georgia. Pleasant Josiah Allen was born about 1813, in Georgia, died before 1900, in Sumter County, Georgia.

Malinda and Pleasant had two children.

This was Pleasant's second marriage. He married Martha Pyron (b. Abt 1813, Georgia) in about 1830 and had 9 children with her.

- ii. GNU Stanford, born about 1840, in Georgia, died before 1850, in Georgia.
- iii. James Robert Stanford, born about 1845, in Early County, Georgia, died 20 Feb 1864, in Olustee, Baker, Florida, buried in Oak Lawn Cemetery, Lake City, Columbia, Florida.

James R. Stanford served in the Co. C, 28th Battalion, Georgia Siege [Heavy] Artillery during the Civil War. He was KIA at the Battle of Olustee, Ocean Pond, Florida on 24 Feb 1864 and is buried in an unmarked grave at Oak Lawn Cemetery, Lake City, Columbia, Florida.

The 1920 census lists Lydia Randall (58, widow) living in Sasser, Terrell, Georgia with her son Emmett (30).

In 1930, the census lists Lydia E. Randall (70, widow) living with her son Albert (47) in Militia District 909, Terrell County, Georgia

William and Henry Randall were brothers who married Stanford sisters.

Both the 1900 and 1910 census records find the family living in Terrell County, Georgia.

- viii. Susan J. Stanford, born about 1859, in Georgia, died before 1900. She married William Randall 10 Jan 1876, in Sumter County, Georgia. William Randall was born about 1857, in Georgia, died before 1900.

William and Henry Randall were brothers who married Stanford sisters, Susan J. and Lydia, respectively.

In 1880, the census finds William Randall (23, farm laborer), Susan (20), and their son James Robert (1) living with William's brother Henry J. Randall in Americus, Sumter, Georgia.

In 1900, William and Susan's children James Robert [listed as Robert J.] Randall (21), Alice (15), and Charlie (12) are living with their uncle and aunt Robert J. and Lydia Randall in Militia District 1143, Terrell County, Georgia, which may indicate that their parents had died by this time.

- ix. Nancy Alice Stanford, born about 1863, in Georgia.

In 1880, Nancy A. Stanford (17) is found living in Sumter County, Georgia with her mother Mary Stanford (59) in the household of her sister and brother-in-law Liddy and Henry J. Randall.

The 1850 Slave Census lists a James Stanford in District 2, Worcester, Maryland as a slave holder.

In the 1860 census, we find James Standford (51, blacksmith), Polly (53), and William (13, blacksmith) living next door to his brother William in Snow Hill, Worcester, Maryland.

The 1870 census finds the family living in District 2, Worcester, Maryland and lists James Stanford (61, farmer) and Pollie (63).

In 1880, the census lists Polly Stanford (73, farmer) living in Snow Hill, Worcester, Maryland.

Children of James Stanford and Polly LNU:

- 236      i.    William David Stanford, born May 1847, in Worcester County, Maryland, died after 1920, in Worcester County, Maryland.

In the 1850 census, we find the family living in District 2, Worcester, Maryland. The record includes William Stanford (36, carpenter), Mary (28), Elizabeth (6), James E. (5), William (3), and John F. (1).

The 1860 census finds the family living in Snow Hill, Worcester, Maryland and includes William Stanford (43, farmer), Salley (38), Betsy R. (17), James E. (15), John F. (11), Mary G. (6), Joseph A. (5), and Jesse G. (2). Living with them is Rachel Long (84), listed as "infirm", who is probably Mary's mother.

In 1870, the family is living in District 2, Worcester, Maryland. This record lists William Stanford (53, farmer), Mary (15), Joseph (14), Jesse (11), and Jacob (9). Evidently his wife Mary has died by this date.

The 1880 census finds William (63, farmer) living in Snow Hill, Worcester, Maryland with his sons Joseph (24), Jesse G. (21, sailor), and Jacob (19).

Children of William D. Stanford and Mary "Sallie, Sally" Long:

- 237      i.    Elizabeth "Betsey" Stanford, born about 1844, in Worcester County, Maryland.
         ii.   James E. Stanford, born Jul 1845, in Worcester County, Maryland, died 1925, in Worcester County, Maryland.
         iii.   William Stanford, born about 1847, in Worcester County, Maryland.

William is not listed in the 1860 census and may have died by then.

- iv.   John F. Stanford, born about 1849, in Worcester County, Maryland.
         v.    Mary G. Stanford, born 17 Sep 1854, in Worcester County, Maryland, died 5 Sep 1934, in Worcester County, Maryland, buried in Whatcoat United Methodist Church Cemetery, Snow Hill, Worcester, Maryland. She married James E. Riley. James E. Riley was born 2 Sep 1844, in Maryland, died 25 Dec 1915, in Worcester County, Maryland, buried in Whatcoat United Methodist Church Cemetery, Snow Hill, Worcester, Maryland.
238      vi.   Joseph A. J. Stanford, born 2 Mar 1856, in Worcester County, Maryland, died 21

- 239      vii.      Sep 1954, in Worcester County, Maryland.
              vii.      Jesse G. Stanford, born May 1859, in Worcester County, Maryland, died 1934, in Worcester County, Maryland.
              viii.     Jacob S. Stanford, born Nov 1860, in Worcester County, Maryland, died 1936, in Worcester County, Maryland, buried in Stanford Cemetery (near Spence), Worcester County, Maryland.

The 1900 census finds Jacob S. Stanford (39, farmer) living by himself in Snow Hill, Worcester, Maryland.

In 1910, the census lists Jacob Stanford (51, farmer) living in Snow Hill, Worcester, Maryland.

The 1920 census lists Jacob Stanford (59, farming) living in Snow Hill, Worcester, Maryland.

In 1930, the census records that Jacob S. Stanford (69, farmer) is living in Election District 2, Worcester, Maryland.

From these records, it is clear that Jacob never married.

A Thomas Stanford made several land purchases in Choctaw County, Mississippi between 1851 and 1860, totaling slightly over 240 acres. We don't know if this was our Thomas or not.

In the 1850 census, a T.J. Stanford appears as a 33 year old bachelor living with two other young men in Household No. 157 in Lexington, Holmes County, Mississippi. In this census, T.J. was listed as a "tinner", an old term meaning "tinsmith" or "tinware merchant". The two other young men living with T.J., Hugh M. Fail, 21, born in Alabama, and Orlando P. Jones, 36, born in Kentucky, also listed as tanners.

In the 1860 census, we find T.J. Stanford (42, tinner) and Delaney (39) living near Black Hawk, Carroll County, Mississippi. By this time, the young couple has five children: Martha Elizabeth, born 10 Dec 1854, William Benjamin, born in 1856, Sarah C., born 26 Dec 1857, Thomas Jefferson, Jr., born 21 Sep 1859, and Willie Stellene, born 12 May 1862, all born in Black Hawk, Carroll, Mississippi. In this record, the children of John and Letitia Nevels, Wm, (16), F.P. (14), and Mary L. (14) are also living with the family. Evidently, these children are orphans. William Spivey (21, tinner), A.S. Howell (32, school teacher), D.W. Lundy (32, merchant), and N.W. Truitt (23, merchant) are also listed with the household...evidently the Stanford family was operating a boarding house.

The Civil War began in April 1861 with the attack on Fort Sumter in South Carolina. On May 17, 1861, T.J. organized an artillery battery in Yalobusha County, Mississippi. Stanford's Mississippi Battery was mustered into the service of the Confederate States on 6 Nov 1861 at Grenada, Yalobusha (now Grenada County), Mississippi and T.J. assumed the rank of Captain in the Army of Mississippi. About that time, the Battery received their first two artillery pieces, a pair of twelve-pound Howitzers.

[About a year later, in May 1862, the 1st Mississippi Light Artillery (also known as Wither's Light Artillery) was organized consisting of Company A, Ridley's Battery, aka Jackson Light Artillery (raised in Hinds & Madison Counties, MS); Company B, Herrod's Battery, aka Vaughan Rebels (raised in Yazoo County, MS); Company C, Turner's Battery (raised in Choctaw County, MS); Company D, Wofford's Battery (raised in Holmes County, MS); Company E, Carroll Light Artillery (raised in Carroll County, MS); Company F, Bradford's Battery (raised in Lawrence County, MS); Company G, Cowan's Battery (raised in Warren County, MS); Company H, Connor Battery (raised in Adams County, MS); Company I, Bowman's Battery (raised in Yazoo County, MS); Company K, Abbay's Battery (raised in Claiborne & Jefferson Counties, MS); and Company L (changed to Company E, March 6, 1865), Vaiden Artillery (raised in Carroll County, MS). At Shiloh, members of the Vaiden Artillery helped to staff Stanford's Battery. But, oddly, Stanford's Battery was never incorporated within the 1st Mississippi.]

The Battery was ordered to Columbus, Kentucky on 7 November 1861 and was attached to the Army of Mississippi under the command of Lieutenant General Leonidas Polk. The Battery remained in Columbus, Kentucky until the evacuation and retreat to Corinth, Mississippi, which began on March 1, 1862.

While in Corinth, Mississippi, the Battery became fully equipped with its original two 12- pound Howitzers, along with two six pounders, a 3" "Ordnance Rifle," and the appropriate number of horses required to pull them. Although the men were able to train with the guns, due to shot and powder shortages, they weren't able to actually fire them until early April 1862, just before going into battle for the first time at Shiloh.

The Battery took part in the Battle of Shiloh, 6-7 April 1862. General Polk reported that "...they fought with the steadiness and gallantry of well-trained troops."

Following the Battle of Shiloh, General P. G. T. Beauregard, who replaced the deceased General Albert Sidney Johnston as the commander of the Army of Tennessee, moved the Army to the railroad depot near Corinth, Mississippi. During the Siege of Corinth, which took place from 29 April - 29 May 1862, the Battery was re-fitted with four 3" brass cannons. On 30 May 1862, the Confederates withdrew from Corinth and moved south to Tupelo, Mississippi.

After their retreat to Tupelo, Mississippi, the Battery set out on the march to Chattanooga, Tennessee on 23 July 1862. They arrived at Chattanooga on 7 August, just in time for another reorganization on 18 August. This reorganization allowed Captain Stanford to maintain command of the Battery, however the Battery was attached to Brigadier General Alexander P. Stewart's Brigade, Major General Benjamin Franklin Cheatham's Division of Lieutenant General Leonidas Polk's Right Wing of the Army of Mississippi, now commanded by Major General Braxton Bragg [without a doubt the most incompetent general in the Confederate Army], who had taken command in June.

Stanford's Battery followed General Bragg's Army into Kentucky where they were involved in the capture of Federal soldiers at Munfordville on 17 September 1862. The Battery was heavily engaged during the Battle of Perryville, Kentucky on 8 October 1862, where a single shot by a distant Federal Battery killed one and wounded two other men from Stanford's Battery.

The Battery was engaged in the Battle of Murfreesboro, Tennessee, also known as the Battle of Stones River, 31 December 1862 - 2 January 2, 1863. Of all the major engagements of the Civil War, the Battle of Stones River had the highest percentage of casualties on both sides... total casualties were 24,645 (12,906 on the Union side and 11,739 for the Confederates) during a battle that engaged only about 76,400 combatants. Captain Stanford's Battery suffered 3 killed, 4 wounded, and 7 horses killed during the battle.

Following the Battle of Stones River, Captain Stanford's Battery took part in the Atlanta Campaign, where Captain T. J. Stanford was killed in action during the Battle of Resaca, Georgia, near Atlanta, on May 16, 1864. He was interred at the Confederate cemetery at Marietta, Cobb County, Georgia on June 19, 1864.

A receipt for Capt. Stanford's body, addressed to Second Auditor for the Treasury, Richmond, Virginia and signed by Frank Hawthorn, Surgeon-in-Charge at Academy Hospital, Marietta, Georgia, dated May 17, 1864, states "Captain T.J. Stanford of Stanfords Mis. Battery was brought to this hospital. Died May 16th 1864. No effects."

Following the Atlanta Campaign, the Battery took part in Lieutenant General John Bell Hood's operations in Tennessee and the Battery's weapons were captured in during the Battle of Nashville, Tennessee in December 1864. The Battery's last duty station was Fort Stonewall, Choctaw Bluffs, Alabama River and it surrendered and was paroled on 10 May 1865 at Cuba Station, Alabama.

There is no 1870 census record for the Stanford family, but the 1880 census finds Delaney Stanford, 61 years old and now a widow, living in Holmes County, Mississippi with her four surviving children. No record of her death or burial has been found, but is probable that she died before 1900 since there is no census record that year for her.

The Acona Methodist Church in Acona, Holmes County, Mississippi was central to the Stanford family and was the site of weddings, funerals, and burials for several family members.

Children of Thomas Jefferson Stanford and Delaney Carpenter:

- i. Martha Elizabeth "Dink" Stanford, born 10 Dec 1854, in Black Hawk, Carroll, Mississippi, died 6 Oct 1924, in Holmes County, Mississippi, buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Tolarville, Holmes, Mississippi. She married Richard Shipp about 1881, in Mississippi. Richard Shipp was born 23 May 1846, in Mississippi, died 17 May 1887, in Holmes County, Mississippi, buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Tolarville, Holmes, Mississippi.

The 1900 census finds Martha, a widow, operating the family farm in Beat 1 of Holmes County, Mississippi with her step-daughter Emma and sons Walter and Vivian.

Richard was the son of John M. and Nancy Shipp of Lexington, Holmes County, Mississippi.

This was the second marriage for Richard. His first wife, Mary, died on 6 Feb 1880.

- 240 ii. William Benjamin Stanford, born Feb 1856, in Black Hawk, Carroll, Mississippi, died 1923, in Mississippi.
- iii. Sarah C. Stanford, born 26 Dec 1857, in Black Hawk, Carroll, Mississippi, died 8 Nov 1860, in Black Hawk, Carroll, Mississippi, buried in Black Hawk Cemetery, Black Hawk, Carroll, Mississippi.

The 1860 census was taken in June of that year and lists Sarah with her parents. But, on the following 8 Nov 1860, she died. Her gravestone is engraved "Sarah C. Stanford, Daughter of T.J. and H. Stanford", which incorrectly identifies her mother.

- 241 iv. Thomas Jefferson Stanford, Jr., born 21 Sep 1859, in Black Hawk, Carroll, Mississippi, died 20 Sep 1903, in Holmes County, Mississippi.
- v. Willie Stellene Stanford, born 12 May 1862, in Black Hawk, Carroll, Mississippi, died 3 Dec 1938, in Holmes County, Mississippi, buried in Cemetery, No. 1, Acona Methodist Church, Lexington, Holmes, Mississippi. She married Jordan Stetson Bailey 1 Mar 1882, in Black Hawk, Carroll, Mississippi. Jordan Stetson Bailey was born 17 Feb 1857, in Mississippi, died 1 Jul 1934, in Holmes County, Mississippi, buried in Cemetery, No. 1, Acona Methodist Church, Lexington, Holmes, Mississippi.

Stellene and Jordan had 7 children.

Jordan was the son of John William Bailey and Sallie Ann Magee.

1827, in Georgia, died 29 Aug 1865, in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia, buried in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia. He married Elizabeth Anne Sykes 30 Apr 1850, in Hancock County, Georgia. Elizabeth Anne Sykes was born about 1828, in Georgia, died 12 Dec 1893, in Hancock County, Georgia.

The Hancock County Marriage Book, 1808-1879, page 86, lists the marriage of James Madison Stanford and Elizabeth Ann Sykes on 30 Apr 1850.

In 1850, James M. Stanford and his wife Elizabeth are found living in District 102, Hancock County, Georgia, living in the household of Sylvester F. Jordan and his wife Rachel Gunby (b. abt 1809, Georgia). Rachel may have been James' aunt. [Sylvester and Rachel were married on 1 Mar 1836 in Columbia County, Georgia.]

On 19 Dec 1859, the "Hancock Van Guard," a militia infantry company, was incorporated by the Georgia General Assembly and James M. Stanford was named as one of the company's three lieutenants.

The 1860 census finds the family living in Hancock County, Georgia. This record lists J.M Stanford (33, planter), E.A. Stanford (27), F. Stanford (male, 10), M. Stanford (male, 5), and E. Stanford (female, 3). Living with the family is M. Stanford (female, 26), who is probably James' sister Martha.

The 14th Regimental Court of Enquiry, Militia Minutes, 1804-1862, Hancock County, Georgia, 102 Militia District, dated 4 Mar 1862, lists James M. Stanford (married) on the "muster roll of Hancock County under call of the Governor."

But, there is no record of James serving in the Confederate Army. From Georgia state records, we know that he served as Judge of the Inferior Court in Hancock County, with his term listed as 10 Jan 1861 until Jan 1865. His term appears to have been extended until Jan 1866, but he died before that date.

Ordinary Court Records from Sparta, Hancock, Georgia, Page 204, give the date of James' death and lists his minor children as Frank J., Maria B [R.?], and Annie L.

Elizabeth was the daughter of John P. Sykes (b. abt 1797, Georgia, d. 19 Dec 1867, Sparta, Hancock, Georgia) and Ann Barbara Brown, who married on 9 Oct 1827 in Hancock County, Georgia.

After James' death, Elizabeth remarried to John Warren Treadwell (b. abt 1836, Georgia) on 12 February 1868.

The 1870 census finds the family living in District 101/102, Hancock, Georgia. This record includes J.W. Treadwell (farmer, 34), E.A. Treadwell (41), Susie Treadwell (1), E.J. Treadwell (38), Jennie Treadwell (13), and W.H. Treadwell (9), along with R.B. Stanford (female, 14), Annie Stanford (female, 7) [both of whom are Elizabeth's children by her first marriage], and Josephine Stanford (female, 40). Also living with the family is Ann B[rown] Sykes (61), who is Elizabeth's mother.

The Josephine Stanford listed in this record [and in 1880] appears to be James Stanford's sister.

In 1880, the family is found living in District 102, Hancock, Georgia. The census record includes J.W. Treadwell (farmer, 41), Elizabeth Treadwell (49), Susie Treadwell (11), Mary Treadwell (7), Ann Stanford (19, listed as "stepdaughter"), and Josephine Stanford (42, listed as "sister-in-law").

Children of James Madison Stanford and Elizabeth Anne Sykes:

- 242      i. Frank Jordan Stanford, born about 1850, in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia.
          ii. Ryna Mariah Stanford, born about 1855, in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia, died Oct 1942, in New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana. She married Algernon S. Brown about 1877, in Hancock County, Georgia. Algernon S. Brown was born Feb 1855, in Hancock County, Georgia, died in Richland Parish, Louisiana.

Algernon was the son of Algernon Sidney Brown (1808-1870) and Elizabeth Ann Chapple Rives (1828-1899).

The 1880 census lists A.S. Brown (25, farmer), Ryna Brown (25), Algernon Brown (3), and James S. Brown (2/12) living in the household of J.W. and Elizabeth Treadwell in District 102, Hancock, Georgia.

- iii. E. Stanford, born about 1857, in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia, died before 1865, in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia.

This child is listed in the 1860 census, but is not included in the court records related to James' death and estate. There, it is assumed that she died before 1865.

- iv. Ann L. Stanford, born about 1862, in Sparta, Hancock, Georgia.

While all census records list only Elijah Stanford, the FamilySearch Ancetral File (the database of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints) lists his name as William Elijah Stanford.

The 1850 census finds the family living in District 7, Gadsden, Florida and lists Elijah Stanford (27, farmer), Mary (24), and William (1).

Sometime before 1858, the family moved to Henry County, Alabama. Land records indicate that Elijah patented three tracts of land in Henry County (totalling 1880 acres) in Sep and Nov 1858.

In 1860, the family is found living in Hilliardsville, Henry, Alabama and the census record includes Elijah Stanford (35, overseer), Mary (30), William (11), Jasper (9), John (5), James (3), and Elijah (5/12).

The 1870 census lists the family in Tanyard, Pike, Alabama and includes Elija (49, farmer), Mary (36), William (21), Jasper (19), John (14), Joseph (12), Betheny (9), Eldridge (4), and Elbert (4). Eldridge and Elbert, obviously, were twins.

Based on the ages and places of birth of his children, we know the family moved to Wayne County, Mississippi sometime after 1872 and before 1880.

The database of the Church of Latter Day Saints indicates that Mary's surname is "Alsobrook", as does her gravestone.

In the 1880 census, Mary indicates that her father was born in North Carolina and her mother in South Carolina. This information matches for Howell Newton Alsobrook (b. abt 1795 in Halifax County, North Carolina) and his wife Jane (b. abt 1800, South Carolina). The couple married about 1820 in Lee or Baker County, Georgia.

In 1880, the family is found in Beat 3, Wayne County, Mississippi and includes Mary E. Stanford (52, head), John J. (23), Joseph C. (20), Elizabeth (18), Eldridge (13), and Thomas (8). Since Thomas was born in 1872 in Alabama, the family apparently did not move to Mississippi until after that date. Mary is listed as a widow in this census, so Elijah has died by this time. Finally, Elbert is not listed and it is assumed he died by this date.

Her gravestone yields Mary's years of birth of and death.

Children of William Elijah Stanford and Mary Elizabeth Alsobrook:

- 243      i.    William Jackson Stanford, born 6 Aug 1849, in Florida, died 7 Sep 1890, in Burnet County, Texas.
- ii.    Jasper Newton Stanford, born 1849, in Florida, died 1882, in Wayne County, Mississippi, buried in Hebron Cemetery, Wayne County, Mississippi.

In the 1880 census, we find Jasper Stanford (29) living and working on the farm of Henry and Mary Gray in Beat 3, Wayne, Mississippi.

Jasper's years of birth and death are from his gravestone. The year of birth appears to be in error.

- 244      iii.    John Jefferson Stanford, born 27 Feb 1856, in Florida, died 14 Mar 1936, in Wayne County, Mississippi.
- 245      iv.    Joseph Elijah Stanford, born 13 Mar 1860, in Alabama, died 10 Aug 1940, in Wayne County, Mississippi.
- v.    Elizabeth R. "Bettie" Stanford, born 15 Jun 1862, in Alabama, died 23 Dec 1944, in Mississippi, buried in Hebron Cemetery, Wayne County, Mississippi. She married Alex James Chapman 30 Nov 1904, in Wayne County, Mississippi. Alex James Chapman was born 6 Aug 1846, died 7 Oct 1912, in Wayne County, Mississippi, buried in Hebron Cemetery, Wayne County, Mississippi.

In 1910, the census finds the family living in Beat 2, Wayne, Mississippi and lists James A. Chapman (62) and Bettie R. (28). Living with them is Bettie's brother Thomas A. Stanford (38).

The 1920 census finds Elizabeth Stanford (58, widow) living in Waynesboro, Wayne, Mississippi. Her brother Thomas A. Stanford (47), her nephew William W. Stanford (22, mail carrier, rural route), and niece Annie P. Stanford (22, saleswoman, general store) live with her.

- vi. Eldridge Stanford, born 18 Apr 1866, in Alabama, died 27 Sep 1943, in Wayne County, Mississippi, buried in Hebron Cemetery, Wayne County, Mississippi. He married Ida Mae Gray 24 Nov 1904, in Wayne County, Mississippi. Ida Mae Gray was born 8 Nov 1877, in Mississippi, died 19 Sep 1944, in Wayne County, Mississippi, buried in Hebron Cemetery, Wayne County, Mississippi.

In 1910, the census lists the family living in Beat 3, Wayne, Mississippi and includes Eldridge Stanford (44, farmer) and Ida M. (33). They are living next door to Eldridge's brother Joseph.

The 1920 census finds the family living in Beat 3, Wayne, Mississippi and lists Eldridge Stanford (53, farmer) and Ida M. (42).

In 1930, the census lists the family in Beat 3, Wayne, Mississippi and includes Eldridge Stanford (64, farmer) and Ida M. (53).

Based on census records, it appears that Eldridge and Ida Mae had no children.

Ida Mae was the daughter of John L. and Mary E. Gray who, in 1880, were neighbors of the Stanfords living in Beat 3, Wayne County, Mississippi.

- vii. Elbert Stanford, born 18 Apr 1866, in Alabama, died before 1880, in Alabama or Mississippi.

Elbert does not appear in the 1880 census and is assumed to have died by that date. He is not buried with the rest of the family at Hebron Cemetery, Wayne County, Mississippi.

- viii. Thomas A. Stanford, born 29 Sep 1872, in Alabama, died 21 Jul 1948, in Wayne County, Mississippi, buried in Hebron Cemetery, Wayne County, Mississippi. He married Kathryn McDevitt about 1923, in Wayne County, Mississippi. Kathryn McDevitt was born 24 Dec 1882, in Mississippi, died 24 May 1938, in Wayne County, Mississippi, buried in Hebron Cemetery, Wayne County, Mississippi.

In 1910, the census finds Thomas A. Stanford (38, farmer) living with his sister and brother-in-law Bettie R. and James A. Chapman in Beat 2, Wayne, Mississippi.

The 1920 census finds Thomas A. Stanford (47, salesman, general store) living with his sister Elizabeth in Waynesboro, Wayne, Mississippi.

The 1930 census finds the family living in Waynesboro, Wayne, Mississippi and lists Thomas A. Stanford (58, retail salesman, general merchandise) and Kate (49). Living with them are John J. Stanford (76), Thomas' brother, and Jim McDevitt (51, physician, medical), listed as "brother-in-law" (Kathryne's brother).

The 1840 census lists Thomas Stanford living in Baltimore Ward 3, Baltimore, Maryland. This record includes 1 M 30-40 [Thomas], 1 F <5 [Sarah], 2 F 5-10 [Mary and Leah], and 2 F 20-30 [Ruth and her sister].

The 1850 census finds the family living in Baltimore Ward 7, Baltimore, Maryland and lists Thomas Stanford (45, hatter), Ruth A. (38), Mary E. (15), Leah A. (17), and Sarah E. (12), all born in Maryland. Living with them is Elizabeth Jahun [Johnson], who was probably Ruth's sister.

Children of Thomas Stanford and Ruth Anne Eshum:

- i. Leah Ann Stanford, born 8 Dec 1832, in Maryland, died 25 May 1861, in Washington, District of Columbia. She married Stephen Collins Wailes 13 Oct 1853, in Maryland. Stephen Collins Wailes was born 22 Sep 1826, in Washington, District of Columbia, died about 1880, in Washington, District of Columbia.

In 1860, the census finds the family living in Washington, District of Columbia.

Stephen was the son of Isaac Handy Wailes and Mary Winder Wilson.

After Leah died, Stephen married Rose L. (Surname unknown), who was born about 1843 in Maryland.

- ii. Mary Ellen Stanford, born about 1835, in Maryland, died 1863 OR 1880, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland. She married William H. West 31 Oct 1853. William H. West was born May 1827, in Maryland, died after 1900, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland.

William's parents were immigrants from England.

The 1880 census lists William H. West (52, laborer) and his wife Sarah E. (29, shirt maker), along with son William H. Jr. (20) and daughter Tennie [Jennie] (17). From this data, we can conclude that Sarah E. was William's second wife and that Mary Ellen had died by this time.

In 1900, William (73) was living with his daughter and son-in-law Jennie and Samuel Briscoe in Baltimore Ware 9, Baltimore, Maryland. In this record, he is listed as widowed.

- iii. Sarah Elizabeth Stanford, born about 1838, in Maryland.

In 1860, the census finds the family living in Baltimore Ward 7, Baltimore, Maryland and lists Henry Stanford (54, hatter), Elizabeth (52), Sarah V. (19), and Margaret E. (14).

Elizabeth was the daughter of Reves Townsend and Sarah Scarborough.

The 1880 census finds Elisabeth Stanford (72) living with her daughter and son-in-law Sarah V. and William H. Wise in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland.

Children of Henry Stanford and Elizabeth Porter Townsend:

- i. Leah Ann Stanford, born 30 Jun 1829, in Maryland, died 24 Dec 1860, in Maryland.
- ii. William Collins Stanford, born 30 Jan 1831, in Maryland, died 25 Jul 1831, in Maryland.
- iii. Mary Stanford, born 2 May 1833, in Maryland, died 5 May 1834, in Maryland.
- iv. John Henry Stanford, born 28 Jun 1835, in Maryland, died 28 Aug 1835, in Maryland.
- v. Infant Stanford, born about 1836, in Maryland, died about 1836, in Maryland.
- vi. Sarah Virginia Stanford, born 11 Oct 1840, in Maryland, died after 1910, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland. She married William H. Wise 3 Nov 1859, in Maryland. William H. Wise was born about 1833, in Maryland, died before 1900, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland.

In 1870, the census lists Sarah V. Wise (30, school teacher) and her two daughters Elizabeth (b. 1864) Melinda (b. 1866) living in the household of Elizabeth Stanton (62), apparently as boarders, in Baltimore Ward 6, Baltimore, Maryland.

The 1880 census findst the family living in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland and lists William H. Wise (47, sailor), Sarah V. (39), Lizzio O. (18) and Melinda (14). Living with them is Sarah's mother Elisabeth Stanford (72).

Evidently, William died before 1900 since in both 1900 and 1910, the census finds Sarah living in the household of her daughter and son-in-law Melinda and Richard Houston in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland.

- vii. Mary Elizabeth Stanford, born 18 Apr 1844, in Maryland, died 15 May 1845, in Maryland.
- viii. Margaret Irving Stanford, born 3 May 1846, in Maryland.

Some records, particularly the records of internment of his infant children at the Congressional Cemetery, show his name as William Henry Stanford.

William was a merchant tailor who moved from Maryland to Washington sometime soon after 1820. He served as an apprentice to Ezekial Young, a well-known tailor in Washington, District of Columbia. Following that, William worked for a number of tailors in the city and with Peregrine W. Browning as a partner for a number of years. On 15 Sep 1851, he opened a shop for himself on Pennsylvania Avenue, on the north side near the Capitol in Washington, District of Columbia.

The 1850 census finds the family living in Washington Ward 5, Washington, DC and lists William Stanford (35, tailor), S. (30), M.E. (12, F), C.C. (16, F), William S. (10, M), C. (2, M), T.C. (8, F), and W. (6, F).

In 1860, the census lists the family in Washington Ward 4, Washington, DC and includes William H. Stanford (46, merchant-tailor), Sarah (40), William (21, carpenter), Ellen [Ella] (15), William W. (12), and Claton (10).

The 1870 census finds the family in Washington Ward 4, Washington, DC and lists William Stanford (59, men's tailor), Sarah (54), Ella (25), Wilmer (23), and Clayton (21). Living with them are his relatives Laura [Stanford] Wailes (28) and her son William (9).

The following obits and announcements are published in the "Interments in the Historic Congressional Cemetery":

"Stanford, William H. d. 30 Aug 1884, 73 yrs. Plot R27/223

"Stanford. William H. Stanford, August 30, 1884, at 8:15 a.m. in the 74th year of his age. Funeral Monday, 2 o'clock, from late residence, No. 233 North Capitol street. Family and friends are requested to attend."

"The Evening Star", August 30, 1884:

"Death of Wm. H. Stanford Demise of an Old Citizen Today A Sketch of His Life."

"Mr. William H. Stanford, who, as stated in The Star, was stricken with paralysis last Wednesday, died this morning at his house, 233 North Capitol street, at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Stanford was 74 years of age in May last. He was a native of Salisbury, Somerset county, Md., and came here when a boy of eleven years of age, directly after the war of 1812 and had resided here continuously since. After a few years spent as an errand boy, he learned the business of tailoring with the late Samuel Handy, and worked with his brother-in-law, P.W. Browning, for about a quarter of a century. In 1850 he went into business for himself on Pennsylvania avenue, near 4 1/2 street, and with short intervals continued the business till a few years ago. He reared a family of seven children-four sons and three daughters. He was a member of the old volunteer fire department for many years, holding his membership in the Columbia Engine company until the establishment of the paid department. Mr. Stanford was a charter member of Columbia Lodge, No. 10, I.O.O.F., being initiated into that lodge July 16, 1840. He was also a member of Mount Nebo Encampment, No. 6. These bodies will meet this evening to arrange for the funeral. The remains will be buried in the Congressional Cemetery, Monday at 2 o'clock p.m."

"The Evening Star", September 1, 1884:

"The funeral of Mr. Wm. H. Stanford took place this afternoon from his late residence, on North Capitol street, and was largely attended. Mr. Stanford, who was a native of Salisbury, Md., came to this city in 1812."

Sara was the daughter of William W. Wood (1784-1842) and Susanna Wineberger.

The "Washington, District of Columbia City Directory" of 1890 lists Sarah E. Stanford, widow of William H., living at 233 N. Capitol in the city.

Children of William Smith Handy Stanford and Sarah Elizabeth Wood:

- i. Sarah Virginia Stanford, born 12 Sep 1834, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 23 Aug 1835, in Washington, District of Columbia.
- 246 ii. Charles Edwin Stanford, born 13 Mar 1836, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 16 Feb 1900, in Washington, District of Columbia.
- iii. Margaret Evelyn Stanford, born 29 Jan 1838, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 8 May 1908, in Washington, District of Columbia. She married Alfred Henson Marlow. Alfred Henson Marlow was born about 1929, in Maryland,

- 247      died 23 Apr 1904, in Washington, District of Columbia.
- iv.      William Mandeville Stanford, born 20 Mar 1840, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 4 Oct 1901, in Washington, District of Columbia.
- v.      Laura Virginia Stanford, born 6 Jan 1842, in Washington, District of Columbia, died after 1920, in Washington, District of Columbia. She married Isaac Newton Wailes 4 Apr 1860, in Washington, District of Columbia. Isaac Newton Wailes was born 18 Sep 1838, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 8 Aug 1862, in Washington, District of Columbia.

Laura is listed as "T.C." in the 1850 census, living at home with her parents in Washington, District of Columbia.

Laura and Isaac had one son, William Morris Wailes, b. 1 May 1861 in Washington, District of Columbia.

The 1870 census finds Laura (28, widow) and her son William (9) living with her parents in Ward 5, Washington, District of Columbia.

Evidently, Laura did not re-marry. In 1900, the census lists her living as a boarder in the Kessler household in Washington, District of Columbia. This record lists Laura V. Wailes (58, widow), born Jan 1842.

The 1920 census finds Laura (81) as a patient at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, District of Columbia. Since St. Elizabeth's was the first federal mental hospital, it can be assumed that Laura was suffering from old age dementia. She does not appear in the 1930 census and may have died and been buried at St. Elizabeth's.

Isaac was the son of Isaac Handy Wailes (1798-1855) and Mary Winder Wilson (1802-1847) of Washington, District of Columbia. He worked as a dry goods clerk in the city.

- vi.      Ella Josephine Stanford, born 4 Nov 1844, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 2 May 1910, in Washington, District of Columbia, buried in Oak Hill Cemetery (Reno Hill Section), Georgetown, District of Columbia. She married John W. Wetherall 26 Dec 1872, in Washington, District of Columbia. John W. Wetherall was born 15 Jan 1839, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 12 Nov 1890, in Washington, District of Columbia, buried in Oak Hill Cemetery (Reno Hill Section), Georgetown, District of Columbia.

Ella (65, widow) is listed in the 1910 census living in Precinct 2, Washington, District of Columbia.

Based on 1900 census data, it appears that Ella and John had four daughters.

John was the son of Rebecca Wetherall (c1820-1900) of Georgetown, District of Columbia. The 1840 census lists Rebecca as head of household and the record includes 1 M < 5 [John W.] and 1 F 20-29 [Rebecca]. Evidently, John's father had died or left around the time he was born.

In 1878, John W. Wetherall worked for George W. Cochran, a tobacconist, on Pennsylvania Avenue, NW in Washington, District of Columbia. Sometime in the early 1880s, John went into business for himself as a wholesale and retail merchant in cigars and tobacco located at the corner of Twelfth and F Streets, NW.

This was John's second marriage. The Wetherall family plot includes Elizabeth M. Wetherall, age 29, buried on 30 Sep 1867. This may have been John's first wife. He married after 1860 had one daughter, Ella C. Wetherall (1864-1951) by his first wife.

- 248    vii.    Wilmer Walton Stanford, born 14 Nov 1846, in Washington, District of Columbia, died after 1933, in Washington, District of Columbia.
- viii.    Clayton Stanford, born 4 Feb 1848, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 23 Feb 1910, in Washington, District of Columbia, buried in Congressional Cemetery, Washington, District of Columbia.

Clayton was named in honor of Whig Senator John M. Clayton.

Clayton never married. He was a printer and is listed in the "Washington City Directory" from 1880 through 1898, first on E Street, NE and later on North Capitol.

The 1900 census finds Clayton (38, printer) living with his two nieces Marion C. Stanford (33) and Martha E. Stanford (30) in Washington, District of Columbia. In this record, his birth date is given as Jan 1862, which is incorrect...his actual birth date was 4 Feb 1848.

In 1910, the census finds him living with William M. and Ida B. Wailes (distant relatives) in Precinct 10, Washington, District of Columbia. Clayton (65) is listed as an "uncle" and his occupation as "printer".

- ix.    George Henry Clay Stanford, born 20 Jun 1851, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 7 May 1864, in Washington, District of Columbia.

George was named in honor of Whig Senator Henry Clay.

- x.    Alfred Irving Stanford, born 1853, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 20 Jun 1853, in Washington, District of Columbia.
- xi.    John Franklin Stanford, born 1855, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 14

Jun 1855, in Washington, District of Columbia.

Levin worked as a blacksmith.

Levin resided on Sterling Street in Ward 3, Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland in 1840-1841 and is listed there in the 1840 census. This census record includes 1 M 20-30 [Levin], 1 F 15-20 [Mary Elizabeth], and 1 M 15-20 [probably Isaac Stanford, Levin's younger brother].

Sometime between 1842 and 1844, Levin moved his family to Tyaskin, Wicomico, Maryland.

After Levin's death, Mary remarried to George Washington Cordray on 24 Mar 1846 at Stepney Parish Church, Wicomico, Somerset, Maryland. On 21 May 1850, George W. Cordray was appointed guardian to orphans Mary F. and Isaac W. Stanford by the Orphan Court, Somerset County, Maryland. The 1850 census finds the two Stanford children living with their mother and stepfather.

In 1880, George (55) and Mary (57) are living in Tyaskin, Wicomico, Maryland. Living with them are grandsons George H. and John F. Sapp, children of their daughter Mary Frances.

Notes for family of Levin Irving Wailes Stanford and Mary Elizabeth Matthews: The marriage record lists the couple as Levin J. Stanford and Mary B. Matthews.

Children of Levin Irving Wailes Stanford and Mary Elizabeth Matthews:

- i. Mary Frances Stanford, born 15 Sep 1842, in Maryland, died before 1920, in Maryland. She married John F. Sapp, , Jr. 16 Oct 1859, in Maryland. John F. Sapp, , Jr. was born about 1836, in Maryland, died after 1920, in Maryland.

The 1870 census lists the family living in Ward 6, Baltimore, Maryland. John is listed as a police officer. This record includes John Sapp (34), Mary Sapp (28), George (10), Thomas (8), Mary (7), and John (1).

In 1880, Mary's stepfather George Cordray (55) and mother Mary Elizabeth Matthews Stanford Cordray (57) are living in Tyaskin, Wicomico, Maryland. Living with them are grandsons George H. and John F. Sapp, children of Mary Frances.

In the 1920 census, John F. Sapp (82, widowed) is living with his son George H. Sapp in Tyaskin, Wicomico, Maryland.

- 249      ii. Isaac William Stanford, born 14 Nov 1844, in Tyaskin, Wicomico, Maryland, died 29 Oct 1928, in Washington, District of Columbia.

In the 1840 census, we find a male, age 15-20, living with Levin Stanford and his wife in Baltimore Ward 3, Baltimore, Maryland. This was probably Isaac.

Isaac was a tailor who apprenticed with Abner Young in Washington, District of Columbia, returning to Salisbury, Somerset, Maryland to practice his trade, opening a shop there on 17 Oct 1842.

In 1850, we find the family living in Salisbury, Somerset, Maryland and the census record includes I.H.W. Stanford (30, tailor), Martha J. (27), William Anner (4), and Mary (3).

In the 1860 census, we find the family living in Salisbury, Somerset, Maryland. The record lists Isaac (40, a tailor), Martha (37), Anna (15), Mary (13), Samuel (7), and Henry (3). Living with the family are Annie Stanford (40) and Ellen Stanford (13) [Isaac's sister Ann Elisabeth, and his niece], and Isaac's mother, Leah (77).

Isaac represented Somerset County in the Maryland Legislature of 1860 and died while in office. The House passed the following resolution on 6 August 1861:

"Resolved, That this House has heard with sincere regret, the announcement of the death of I.H.W. Stanford, late a member of this House, from Somerset county, and that we tender to the relatives of the deceased the assurance of our sympathy under the bereavement they have been called to sustain.

"Resolved, That the Clerk of this House be directed to transmit to the family of the deceased a certified copy of these resolutions.

"Resolved, That in token of respect for the memory of the deceased, the House do now adjourn."

And, the House at 1 o'clock adjourned.

Martha was the daughter of Samuel E. Moore and Ann Handy Vance.

Children of Isaac Handy Wailes Stanford and Martha Jane Moore:

- i. Samuel Stanford, born 2 Oct 1843, in Maryland, died 3 Oct 1843, in Maryland.
- ii. Willamanna Stanford, born 23 Jul 1845, in Somerset County, Maryland, died about 1900, in Somerset County, Maryland.

- iii. Mary Louisa Vance Stanford, born 28 Feb 1847, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 1933, in Massachusetts. She married Richard Allen Atwood about 1869. Richard Allen Atwood was born 3 Sep 1846, in Wellfleet, Barnstable, Massachusetts, died about 1920, in Boston, Suffolk, Massachusetts.

In 1880, we find Mary and R.H. Atwood living in Boston, Suffolk, Massachusetts with 4 children, all born in Virginia. It appears the couple married in Virginia and lived there until after 1876. Mary's brother Samuel (26) is living with family at this time.

Richard was the son of Richard Atwood (1820-1862) and Lucinda Hamblin (b. 1824).

Richard was a dealer in canned fruits.

- iv. Winfield Scott Stanford, born 27 Dec 1850, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 2 Oct 1851, in Somerset County, Maryland, buried in Salisbury Cemetery, Salisbury, Wicomico, Maryland.
- v. Maria Thomas Stanford, born 14 Feb 1852, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 12 Sep 1853, in Somerset County, Maryland, buried in Salisbury Cemetery, Salisbury, Wicomico, Maryland.
- 250 vi. Samuel Moore Stanford, born 22 Apr 1853, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 22 Nov 1927, in Ottawa County, Kansas.
- vii. Lucy Virginia Stanford, born 12 Oct 1854, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 26 Oct 1854, in Somerset County, Maryland.
- 251 viii. Henry Laurenson Dashiell Stanford, born 2 Oct 1856, in Somerset County, Maryland, died 10 Aug 1917, in Somerset County, Maryland.

It is probable that David's full name was "David Monroe Stanford".

The 1850 census finds the family living in Beat 2, Butler County, Alabama and the record includes D.M. Stanford (35, farmer), Narcissa (35), Charles (11), Emily (9), Jane (5), Mary (3), and Gideon (2). There is a second 1850 census record for D.M. Stanford (38, farmer), Narcissa (33), Charles (10), Emily (7), and Mary (3) living in Beat 7, Butler County, Alabama. The two census records are dated over a month apart and, evidently, the family was counted twice. The 1850 Alabama State Census lists D.N. Stanford with 2 M < 21, 1 M > 21, 1 M 18-45, 3 F < 21 and 1 F > 21, which matches the 1850 U.S. census count.

In 1860, the family is living in Monroe County, Alabama and the record includes David Stanford (46, farmer), Narcissa (43), Martha (14), Mary (12), Agee (10), and Travace [Travis] (3). By this time, the older children, Charles and Emily have left home. Since Gideon is not listed, it is probable that he died between the 1850 and 1860 census.

According to a 1913 biography of Rawghlie Clement Stanford, David Monroe Stanford moved his family to Texas about 1863. But, the 1866 Alabama State Census lists David Stanford living in Monroe County, Alabama and includes 2M 10-20 [Travis and Monroe], 1M 50-60 [David], 1F <10 [?] and 1F 50-60 [Narcissa]. Thus, the move to Texas took place in or after 1866. And, this record indicates that there was a daughter born 1857/1866 about whom we know nothing.

No census records for David Stanford in Texas have been found.

Narcissa was the daughter of John Travis (b. Abt 1799, Georgia, d. Abt 1852, Butler County, Alabama). We do not know Narcissa's mother's name...she died before 1850.

Mark Travis and John Travis appear in the 1820 census in Conecuh County, Alabama, and are thought to be relatives of the Rev. Alexander Travis, pastor of the Murder Creek Baptist Church (founded about 1818), later renamed the Belleville Baptist Church. [Mark Travis was the father of William Barrett Travis of Alamo fame. This Mark Travis was a Lt. in Army during Mexican-American War and was later an officer of the Conecuh Militia, and then later served as an officer in the Confederacy. Mark Travis also served as the County Clerk of Conecuh County for a period prior to the Civil War.] The exact nature of the relationships between these men is not known. But, both John Travis and Mark Travis moved from Edgefield District, South Carolina to Conecuh County, Alabama about 1818.

The Stanford and Travis families were neighbors in Conecuh County (and later in Butler County) and both were active members of the Belleville (Murder Creek) Baptist Church.

Children of David M. Stanford and Narcissa Travis:

- i. Charles H. Stanford, born about 1840, in Wilcox County, Alabama, died between 1862 and 1865, in Civil War.

Charles enlisted in the 36th Alabama Infantry, Company F, CSA. According to his muster roll, he was born in Wilcox County, Alabama about 1841.

While there are no records of Charles' fate, he appears to have died during the Civil War.

- ii. Emily C. Stanford, born about 1841, in Alabama, died 1870 OR 1879, in Alabama. She married Isaac Madison Kirksey 31 Dec 1857, in Monroe County, Alabama. Isaac Madison Kirksey was born 8 Jun 1826, in South Carolina, died 14 Dec 1906, in Butler County, Alabama, buried in Union Cemetery, Georgiana, Butler, Alabama.

Their marriage record contained in "Marriage Records of Monroe County", Vol. A, Page 194, indicates that Emily and Isaac were married at her father's house (listed as D.N. Stanford).

Emily appears in the 1870 census in Butler County, Alabama. Since Isaac married again in 1879, Emily evidently died between the time the census was taken and that date.

Isaac was the son of John Kirskey (b. abt 1800).

After Emily's death, Isaac married Delaney Louisa Lynch (1849-1911) on 2 Mar 1879 in Butler County, Alabama.

- iii. Martha Jane Stanford, born about 1845, in Alabama.
- iv. Mary J. Stanford, born about 1847, in Alabama. She married G. P. Hammond 18 Feb 1864, in Monroe County, Alabama.
- v. Gideon Stanford, born about 1848, in Alabama, died before 1860, in Butler County, Alabama.
- 252 vi. Monroe Agee Stanford, born 1 Oct 1850, in Alabama, died 30 Jan 1921, in Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona.
- vii. Travis Stanford, born about 1857, in Alabama, died about 1878, in Texas.

Travis may have been Asa Travis Stanford or Travis Asa Stanford. From the 1920s until the 1940s, Monroe Agee Stanford and his son Rawleigh searched for Asa Stanford. According to the ad that Rawleigh placed in the "Frontier Times" in 1929, Asa left Buffalo Gap, Taylor, Texas in 1878 at age 20 to go on a buffalo hunt with two friends and never returned. The family believed that the hunting party was attacked by Indians.

Thomas' middle name may have been "Jefferson" or "Jonathan."

In his obituary, it was reported that Thomas was 12 years old when his family left Georgia and moved to Conecuh County, Alabama. If this information is correct, it means the date of his family's move was about 1828.

The 1860 census lists the family in Eastern Division, Wilcox, Alabama and includes T.J. Stanford (43, farmer), E. (41), Jno (15), D. (9), A. (8), O. (7), and R. (5). Also, in 1860, he was listed as a voter in the presidential election there and, according to the 1860 Slave Census for Wilcox County, Alabama, Thomas owned three slaves.

In 1870, the census finds the family living in Allenton, Wilcox, Alabama and lists T.J. Stanford (53, farmer), Elizabeth (52), and Richmond (14). (Also listed are Absone Smith (10) and John Smith (8), who are probably grandchildren, the children of Corine Stanford Smith.)

The 1880 census lists the family in Pine Apple, Wilcox, Alabama and includes Tom Stanford (63, farmer), and Elizabeth (62). Living with them are their daughter Corine Stanford Smith (38) and grandson John Smith (20). Also living with them are grandchildren Jennie Motes (18) [daughter of Mary Jane Stanford Motes] and Florence Yates (10) [daughter of Sallie Amanda Stanford Yates].

Elizabeth was the daughter of Johnnathen and Mary Newberry.

Children of Thomas J. Stanford and Elizabeth Newberry:

- i. Mary Jane Stanford, born 8 Dec 1837, in Wilcox County, Alabama, died 17 Oct 1915, in Walker County, Alabama. She married John or James Motes. John or James Motes was born in Alabama, died 1864, in Civil War, Petersburg, Virginia.

In the 1870 census, Mary Jane Motes (32) and her two daughters are living in Allenton, Wilcox, Alabama next door to her parents.

Her obit appeared in the "Butler County News", Oct 1915, as follows:

"Mrs. M. J. Motes was born in Wilcox Co., Ala., Dec. 8, 1837.

"In early married life her husband, John Motes, was killed on the field of battle near Petersburg, Va., while in the Confederate army. Mrs. Motes was left with two little children to raise, but adopting teaching as her profession, she turned her eyes hopefully toward the future and with a brave heart she struggled through the years, gave her daughters a good education and raised them in the best circles of society. Mrs. Motes was happily gifted as a teacher and especially for the younger children and was eminently successful in her chosen work, to which she gave so many years of her useful life. In early life she united with the Methodist church and ever afterward lived a consistent member of same. For the last five years she has made her home with only grand daughter, Mrs. James J. Haywood of Jasper, Ala. at which place she died Oct. 17, 1915, in the 78th year of her age.

"Mrs. Motes left to mourn her loss her two daughters, Mrs. Shirley Davis, Boulder, Colorado, and Mrs. H. E. Scott, of Battles Wharf, Ala., three brothers--Judge J. N. Stanford, Camden, Ala., Messrs. Ollie and Duncan Stanford now living in Texas, and one sister, Mrs. Amand of Carlowville, Ala."

- ii. Martha Ellen Stanford, born 11 Jan 1839, in Alabama, died 25 Feb 1841, in Alabama.

Sophia and Henry had one son, John Allen Smith (1860-1938).

In the 1880 census, Sophia Corine Smith (38) and her son John Smith (20) are living with her parents in Pine Apple, Wilcox, Alabama.

Henry was the son of Moses Smith (1794-1867) and Mary Elizabeth Bailey (b. abt 1797).

- 253 v. Jonathan Newberry Stanford, born 21 Jun 1845, in Alabama, died 28 Jan 1918, in Wilcox County, Alabama.

Samuel A.<sup>6</sup> Stanford (Thomas<sup>5</sup>, John R.<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born about 1819, in Georgia, died before 1900, in Mississippi. He married Nancy LNU before 1840, in Mississippi. Nancy LNU was born Oct 1824, in Mississippi, died after 1900, in Mississippi.

Samuel's middle name may have been "Adams" (for the Presidents) or "Armstrong" (for his mother's family).

Samuel moved from Alabama to Mississippi about 1840 and married soon after. The 1840 census lists a Samuel Stanford in Attala County, Mississippi and that record includes 1 male (20-29) and 1 female (15-19). The 1841 Mississippi State Census lists Samuel Stanford (22) and his wife (18) living in Attala County, Mississippi, with no children are listed.

In 1850, the census finds the family living in Holmes County, Mississippi and lists Samuel Stanford (30, farmer), Nancy (25), Decatur (10), Mary J. (9), John (6), and Greenwood (6/12).

On 1 Oct 1859, Samuel purchased 39.65 acres in Carroll County, Mississippi (Township 17N, Range 2E, Section 20) and moved there before 1860.

The 1860 census finds the family living in Police District 3, Carroll, Mississippi and lists Samuel A. Stanford (40, farmer), Nancy (38), Jno. A. (16), Greenwood Sharkey (10), M.E. (f, 8), and C. (f, 5). [There is often confusion about who's who in Carroll County since a Samuel Stanford family with origins in Duplin County, North Carolina lived there at the same time.]

The 1870 census records the family living in Township 17, Range 2, Carroll County, Mississippi and lists Sam Stanford (51, farmer), Nancy (48), Greenwood (14), Martha (17), and Yazerus/Yazesus (f, 15) [Yazoo].

In 1880, the census finds the family living in Blackhawk, Carroll, Mississippi and includes Saml. Stanford (59), Nancy (56), and Green (25).

In 1900, Nancy Standford (75) is listed living in Beat 3, Carroll, Mississippi with her son-in-law Sam B. Bell (31, sawyer, saw mill). She is listed as a widow and her date of birth is given as Oct 1824.

Children of Samuel A. Stanford and Nancy LNU:

- i. Decatur Stanford, born about 1840, in Mississippi, died before 1860, in Holmes County, Mississippi.

In the 1850 census record, Decatur is listed as "deaf and dumb". Since he does not appear in the 1860 or later census records, apparently he died young.

- ii. Mary J. Stanford, born 11 Apr 1841, in Mississippi, died 2 Nov 1909, in Carroll County, Mississippi, buried in Harmony Cemetery, Carroll County, Mississippi. She married John C. Gilbert 24 Jun 1857, in Carroll County, Mississippi. John C. Gilbert was born 13 Nov 1835, in Mississippi, died 8 Feb 1905, in Carroll County, Mississippi, buried in Harmony Cemetery, Carroll County, Mississippi.
- iii. John A. Stanford, born about 1844, in Mississippi.
- iv. Thomas Stanford, born about 1846, in Mississippi, died May 1850, in Holmes County, Mississippi. Cause of death: Scarlet fever.

The Mortality Census for 1850, Holmes County, Mississippi recorded Thomas' death.

- 257 v. Greenwood Sharkey "Green" Stanford, born Oct 1849, in Mississippi, died before 1910, in Palo Pinto County, Texas.
- vi. Martha E. Stanford, born about 1852, in Mississippi.
- vii. Yazoo B. Stanford, born about 1855, in Mississippi, died before 1900, in Carroll County, Mississippi. She married Samuel A. Bell 28 Dec 1879, in Carroll County, Mississippi. Samuel A. Bell was born May 1849, in Tennessee.

In 1880, Samuel B. Bell (31) and his wife Yazoo B. (25) are listed living in Blackhawk, Carroll, Mississippi.

The 1900 census lists Sam B. Bell (51, widowed, sawyer, saw mill) living in Beat 3, Carroll, Mississippi. Living with him is his widowed mother-in-law, Nancy Stanford (75).

The 1870 census finds the family living in Township 9, Butler, Alabama and lists John Stanford (50, R.R. Hand), Martha (29), Martha (12), Lexana (11), John (4), Callie (3), and Carolina (2). Living with the family are John H. Stanford (19) and his new wife Jane (20).

Children of John Stanford and Martha LNU:

- i. Martha Stanford, born about 1858, in Alabama.
- ii. Lexana Stanford, born about 1859, in Alabama.
- iii. John Stanford, Jr., born about 1866, in Alabama.
- iv. Callie Stanford, born about 1867, in Alabama.
- v. Caroline Stanford, born about 1868, in Alabama.

In the 1850 census, we find the family living in Conecuh County, Alabama. The census record includes Joseph Stanford (29, farmer), Eleanor (25), Henry (5), William (3), and Julia Ann (3).

On 1 Nov 1858, Joseph patented 159.75 acres in Alabama (Section 9, Township 7N, Range 9E).

The 1860 census finds the family living in Conecuh County, Alabama and lists Joseph Stanford (39, farm laborer), Eleanor (35), Wm. (14), Henry (5), and Sarah E. (2). Evidently the daughter Julia Ann died before 1860 since she is not listed in that census. The listing for "Henry" in the 1850 and 1860 records seems to indicate that the Henry born about 1845 died young and Joseph named the son born in 1855 "Henry" also.

Joseph probably died in the Civil War since no records for him or Eleanor are found after 1860.

There are two Joseph Stanfords who served in Alabama units during the Civil War: Joseph T. Stanford served as a Private in Company G, 29th Alabama Infantry and Joseph P. Stanford served as First Sergeant in the 5th Alabama Calvary. Since the 29th was raised in Barbour County, while the 5th

Calvary was a north Alabama unit, it is more probable that that our Joseph is the Joseph T. Stanford listed in the 29th. (It is possible his middle name was "Thomas" after his father.)

Eleanor was the daughter of Needham Thornton (b. abt 1791 in North Carolina) and his wife Sarah "Sallie". The Thorntons moved to Conecuh County, Alabama before 1832, soon after Thomas and Nancy Stanford.

Evidently, Eleanor died before 1870 since that census lists her son Henry Jefferson Stanford living with her brother William's family in Mill, Conecuh, Alabama.

Children of Joseph Stanford and Eleanor Thornton:

- i. Henry Stanford, born about 1845, in Alabama, died before 1855, in Alabama.

The listing for "Henry" in the 1850 and 1860 census records seems to indicate that the Henry born about 1845 died young and Joseph named the son born in 1855 "Henry" also.

- ii. William J. Stanford, born about 1847, in Alabama.

This may be the William J. Stanford who served as a Private in Company F, 42th Alabama Infantry or as a Lt. in the 46th Alabama Regiment during the Civil War.

- iii. Julia Ann Stanford, born about 1848, in Alabama, died before 1860, in Alabama.
- 258 iv. Henry Jefferson Stanford, born 29 May 1855, in Conecuh County, Alabama, died 10 Jun 1932, in Conecuh County, Alabama.
- v. Sarah E. Stanford, born about 1858, in Alabama.

Some researchers find that Obediah's middle name was "Baskell", but no confirmation of that has been found. (One grandchild had the middle name "Bascum", which may have been Obediah's middle name.)

Much of this family history data is provided by the LDS database and information posted by Dow Graham on the Stanford Family Genealogy Forum (Message 1015970551, Dated 12 Mar 2002). Additional research during 2010-2012 seems to have clarified many issues.

Obediah is found by the 1850 census (listed as "Abadiiah") living in Beat No. 2, Clarke County, Mississippi with his wife Susan and children Walter (age 2) and Woodruff (age 1). On 27 Sep 1850, the tax rolls lists the family living in Wayne County, Mississippi and includes Obediah Stanford (27, farmer), Susan (23), Walter (2), and Woodroof (1/12).

Between 1851 and 1855, the family moved to Alabama, settling in Washington County, Alabama. In 1860, the family is listed living near St. Stephens in Washington County, Alabama and the record includes O.B. Stanford (32, farmer), Susan (30), Walter C. (13), Eliphus W. (11), Thomas (9), Frances A. (8), John (6), Obadiah (5), Mary (3), Emily (2), and Nancy (1).

Obediah Stanford served in the CSA Army during the Civil War and the "O.B. Stanford" who served as a Private in Lewis' Battalion, Alabama Calvary, is our Obediah. Records list O.B. Stanford, Private, Lewis' Battalion, as having surrendered on 4 May 1865 at Citronelle, Mobile, Alabama and then paroled on 12 May 1865 at Gainesville, Sumter, Alabama. Pension records of Civil War veterans list Pension No 15134 to "O.B. Stanford, Company B, Lewis Regiment, enlisted Sep 1864 at Nantgy, discharged because of age, died Oct. 21 1905 at age 72."

The 1866 Alabama State Census list O.P[B.]. Stanford living in Washington County, Alabama and includes 2M <10, 1M 10-20, 1M 20-30, 1M 30-40, 2F <10, 2F 10-20, and 1F 20-30.

The 1870 census lists Obediah Stanford as "Obe Stafford" in Beat 3, Washington, Alabama. The record includes Obe (45, farmer), Susan (43), E.W. (20), John (16), Mary (12), Nancy (10), Susan (8), A.M. (4), and J.H. (2). Obediah Jr. and Emily do not appear in the 1870 census.

In 1880, the census record lists the family living in Beat 3 [Keeton Township], Washington, Alabama and includes O.B. Stanford (53, farmer), Susan (50), Mary A. (20), Susan A. (16), Albert M. (14), James H. (12), Lorena (8), and Joshua (2). [Joshua was actually a grandson of Obediah Stanford and Susan Armstrong. His mother was Mary Alice, their daughter. While Mary was helping her sister Nancy, after the birth of Nancy's baby, she had an affair with Nancy's husband Thomas Murphy and got pregnant with Joshua. The scandal and shame of this situation resulted in Obediah and Susan claiming Joshua as their son. ]

Obediah made applications for a Confederate Pension in Alabama on 5 Mar 1896, 3 Mar 1897, 14 May 1898, and 5 June 1899.

The 1900 census lists O.B. (72), Susan (62), Joshua (22), Joshua's wife Alice (24), and Joshua's son Jesse (2) living in Koenton, Washington, Alabama. [This record indicates Susan's age as 62, which based on the 1870 and 1880 census records, is 10 years too old.]

On 1 Jan 1907, Susan D. Stanford made application for a Confederate Widows Pension in Washington County, Alabama. In this application, she stated that O.B. had died on 22 Oct 1906.

Reserch clearly indicates that Susan was the daughter of Havel Armstrong (b. abt 1800, North Carolina, d. Wayne County, Mississippi) and Mary King (b. abt 1805, North Carolina, d. Wayne County, Mississippi). Havel and Mary were married about 1823 in North Carolina. The Armstrongs lived in Wilcox County, Alabama in the 1830 census and, later, in Choctaw County, Alabama.

However, some researchers erroneously subscribe to Susan being the daughter of William Armstrong and Ok-ko-wi-ke, a full-blood Choctaw woman. And, a surviving photograph of Susan and Obediah indicates that Susan looks as if she may have been Native American.

William Armstrong who was born in Virginia in 1795, moved to Tennessee and married Nancy Irwin there in 1823. He served as Mayor of Nashville, Davidson, Tennessee during 1828-32.

In 1830, the government ordered the "removal" of the the "five civilized tribes"...the Cherokee, Chickasaw, Choctaw, Creek, and Seminole ...to the Indian Territory created in what is now southeast Oklahoma.

The horrors of the Choctaw migration have never publicized to the extent as the Cherokee's "trail of tears," but they were just as devastating. From 1831 to 1834, forced marches of tribesmen, mostly on foot, in groups of 500 to 1,000 started out for Oklahoma, invariably in the fall and winter months. The trip of 550 miles passed through unsettled country of dense forests, swamps, thick canebrakes and swollen rivers. The suffering, caused by the mistakes and inefficiency of the War Department's Indian Agency, combined with one of the region's worst blizzards in history, was indescribable. The first groups of Choctaws arrived at the Choctaw Agency in 1832.

Capt. William Armstrong became the Choctaw Indian Agent in 1835 upon the death of the previous agent, his brother Maj. Francis Wells Armstrong, and served in that position until his death. Nancy died in 1836 while living at the Choctaw Indian Agency with her husband and children. William died on his farm at Doaksville, Choctaw County, Oklahoma in 1847. He is buried at Fort Coffee, Oklahoma. [Doaksville was the largest town in the Choctaw Nation and the community flourished within the Oklahoma Choctaw Nation from the 1830's until shortly after the Civil War. It served as the Choctaw National Capital from 1850 until 1863. The town declined in the 1870's and, by the 20th century, had been abandoned.]

We know nothing about Ok-ko-wi-ke except that she was probably born in southeast Mississippi or southwest Alabama, Choctaw lands in the early 1800's. She is not listed in the Armstrong Rolls, which were compiled in 1831 before the removals began. Census data is also not very enlightening...in the 1880 census, Susan listed the birth places of her father and mother as Georgia and Alabama, respectively, while in the 1900 census she listed them [perhaps somewhat more accurately] as South Carolina and North Carolina.

Since William Armstrong did not arrive in the Choctaw Nation until 1835, Susan could not have been born before this date if he were her father. The 1850, 1860, and 1880 census records indicate that Susan was born sometime between 1827 and 1830 (we now know that she was born in 1829), before the removal of the Choctaws was ordered. [Some researchers assign Susan the birth date of April 1838 (based on the 1900 census), which is far too late for her to have married Obediah and delivered her first child in 1845.] Given her 1829 birth in Alabama, then it is obvious that William Armstrong was not her biological father.

Susan was previously married to William Harwell (b. abt 1832, Georgia) and her daughter was Alice Levert Harwell who married Joshua Stanford, Obediah's grandson.

In 1870, the census lists William Harwell (38) and Susan Harwell (22) living in Barbour County, Alabama. The 1880 census lists Susan Harwell (31) and her daughter Alice (5) living in Bladen Springs, Choctaw, Alabama. According to these census records, Susan's parents were both born in South Carolina.

We do know from her 1907 Confederate Widows Pension Application that Susan's maiden name began with a "D", which seems to confirm the "Darluky" surname in the family Bible record that shows Obediah married Susan Darluky on 25 Jan 1893.

Children of Obediah B. "O.B." Stanford and Susan Amelia Armstrong:

- 259      i.    Walter Daniel Stanford, born 3 Feb 1848, in Alabama, died 25 Dec 1943, in Hillsborough County, Florida.
- 260      ii.   Eliphus Woodruff Stanford, born 6 Dec 1849, in Alabama, died 7 Jan 1934, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida.
- iii.   Thomas Stanford, born 4 Feb 1851, in Wayne County, Mississippi, died about 1868, in Keaton, Washington, Alabama.
- iv.   Frances Amelia Ann Stanford, born 7 Jun 1852, in Alabama, died 23 Mar 1928, in Hillsborough County, Florida, buried in Pleasant Grove Church Cemetery, Turkey Creek, Hillsborough, Florida. She married Lewis Clark Barnes 14 Jul 1867, in Washington County, Alabama. Lewis Clark Barnes was born about 1840, in Pike County, Alabama, died before 1903, in Hillsborough County, Florida.

Frances and Clark moved to Hillsborough County, Florida soon after their marriage in 1867. The 1870 census finds them living there and shows that their daughter Martha E. Barnes (2) was born in Florida.

In 1910, Frances (57, widow) is living with her son-in-law Phillip Colson in Bloomingdale, Hillsborough, Florida. Philip is not listed as a widower, but Martha Barnes Colson, Frances' daughter, is not listed in this record.

Clark was the son of Joseph Barnes (b. abt 1796, Tennessee) and his wife Martha (b. abt 1810, Georgia).

He served in the CSA army during the Civil War in an Alabama unit and, in 1903, Frances applied for his veteran's pension in Hillsborough County, Florida.

- v.    John Stanford, born 20 May 1854, in Keaton, Washington, Alabama, died 1 Oct

1873, in Keoton, Washington, Alabama.

- vi. Obediah B. Stanford, Jr., born 18 Nov 1855, in Washington County, Alabama, died before 1870, in Washington County, Alabama.

Obediah Jr. does not appear in the 1870 census and it is assumed that he had died by that time.

- 261 vii. Mary Alice Stanford, born Jan 1857, in Washington County, Alabama, died after 1920, in Hillsborough County, Florida.
- viii. Emily Stanford, born 3 Aug 1858, in Keoton, Washington, Alabama, died 1861, in Keoton, Washington, Alabama.
- ix. Elizabeth Wilson Stanford, born 3 Aug 1858, in Keoton, Washington, Alabama, died Feb 1860, in Keoton, Washington, Alabama.

The 1860 Census Mortality Schedule lists Elisabeth Stanford dieing in Feb 1860 of "diarrhea".

- x. Nancy I. "Nannie" Stanford, born 16 Aug 1859, in Washington County, Alabama, died 5 Dec 1937, in Cullomburg, Choctaw, Alabama, buried in Cullomburg Cemetery, Choctaw, Alabama. She married Thomas Jefferson Murphy about 1877, in Alabama. Thomas Jefferson Murphy was born 10 Sep 1854, in Cullomburg, Choctaw, Alabama, died 8 Dec 1937, in Cullomburg, Choctaw, Alabama, buried in Cullomburg Cemetery, Choctaw County, Alabama.

Nannie and Thomas has Julius Lafayette "Fate" Murphy (18791942), Melton M. Murphy (18841940), Artie Elizabeth Murphy (18861969), Thomas Elijah "Jack" Murphy (18921955), Joel C Murphy (18931953), Eliphus Oscar "Liphus" Murphy Sr. (18961978), and Rev Dr. Slater A Murphy (18981974). Slater's unnned twin died at birth.

Thomas was the son of Osmus Blakely Murphy (18051880) and Elizabeth Newby (18241880).

In addition to his children with Nannie Stanford and the child he had with Mary Alice Stanford, in 1899 Thomas fathered a child by his son-in-law's unmarried sister, Lucy Waite; the child was raised by Waite relatives and likely never knew his true parentage.

- xi. Susan Armstrong Stanford, born 25 Sep 1862, in Keoton, Washington, Alabama, died 16 Jan 1941, in Wayne County, Mississippi. She married Thomas Jefferson Odom 1881 OR 1883. Thomas Jefferson Odom was born about 1858, in Frankville, Choctaw, Alabama, died Nov 1933, in Choctaw County, Alabama.

In 1930, the census finds the family living in Precinct 9, Choctaw, Alabama and lists Thomas J. Odom (71, farmer) and Susan Odom (63). Living with them is their neice Alice M. Stanford (17).

- 262    xii.    Thomas was the son of Wiley and Margaret Odom.
Albert McAnn Stanford, born 10 Jun 1866, in Keoton, Washington, Alabama, died 8 Mar 1938, in Vernal, Greene, Mississippi.
- 263    xiii.    James Harvel Stanford, born 25 Jun 1868, in Washington County, Alabama, died 9 Oct 1949, in Mobile County, Alabama.
- xiv.    Lorena H. Stanford, born 18 Jul 1872, in Keoton, Washington, Alabama, died about 1950, in Bastrop, Morehouse, Louisiana. She married James S. Humphrey 22 Apr 1886, in Washington County, Alabama. James S. Humphrey was born about 1863, in Alabama, died 24 Dec 1899, in Mississippi, buried in McLaurin Cemetery, Forrest County, Mississippi.

The 1900 census lists Lorena Humphrey (29, widow) living in Beat 5, Perry, Mississippi with her 5 children.

In 1910, the census finds Lorena H. Humphrey (38, widow) living in Hattiesburg Ward 3, Forrest, Mississippi with her children.

In 1920, the census finds L.H. Humphrey (47, widow, dress maker) living in Gulfport, Harrison, Mississippi.

The 1930 census finds L.H. Humphrey (57, widow) living in Shreveport, Caddo, Louisiana.

The 1880 census lists James S. Humphrey (17) living with his parents W.J. Humphrey (49, farmer) and Azaline [Fleming] Humphrey (43) in Beat 3, Washington, Alabama. This James S. Humphrey is listed as "white," but many researchers seem to have confused him with a "black" James S. Humphrey who was born about 1860 in Madison County, Alabama.

Alabama marriage records confirm his marriage to Lorena H. Stanford and the 1900 census, which lists Lorena as a widow, indicates he had died by that time.

Evidently James and Lorena moved to Mississippi in the late 1890s. All of their children are recorded as being born in Alabama.

It is highly probable that Andrew's full name is "Andrew Jackson Stanford" even though census records list him as Andrew J. or A.J.

We know that A.J.'s parents moved to Conecuh County, Alabama about 1828, so he was born in Alabama, though census records identify his place of birth as both Georgia and Alabama.

In the 1850 census, the family is found living in Beat 2, Butler, Alabama and the record includes Andrew Stanford (20, farmer), Nancy (20), and Jane (6/12).

In 1860, the census finds the family in Precinct 1, Butler, Alabama and lists A.J. Stanford (29, farmer), N.A. (29), N.J. (f, 10), J.H. (m, 8), M.E. (f, 3), and M.T. (f, 1).

The 1866 Alabama State Census lists J. Stanford living in Butler County, Alabama and includes 1M <10 [William], 1M 10-20 [J.H.], 1M 30-40 [Andrew J.], 3F <10 [Catsym, Melvina, and M.E.], 1F 10-20 [Nancy Jane], and 1F 40-50 [Nancy].

The 1880 census lists the family in Rocky Creek, Butler, Alabama and includes Andrew J. Stanford (49, farmer), Nancy A. (49), Melvina T. (21), C.C. (18), William J. (15), Alice A. (11), and Cora E. (5).

Andrew and Nancy were leading members of Antioch West Baptist Church, Butler County, Alabama and are interred in the church cemetery.

Andrew served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War. On 6 Jun 1899, he applied for an Alabama pension based on his service. This application states that he volunteered into Company G, 1st Alabama Calvary on 1 Dec 1861 in Montgomery, Alabama and was discharged in May 1865. He was wounded and captured during the battle for Atlanta, Georgia. At the time of this application, he and Nancy were living in Bolling, Butler, Alabama, he owned no property, and the value of his livestock and household goods was estimated at $91. This application was recommended for approval on 20 Jul 1899, but Andrew died that following December. On 11 July 1900, Nancy applied for a widow's pension on the basis of Andrew's service. Evidently that application was approved and had notations on the pension record indicates that Nancy died in 1912.

Nancy was the daughter of James Hammond (1786-1853) and Nancy Lee Johnson (b. abt 1800).

The 1910 Butler County Census shows Nancy A. Stanford (widow) age 79 living with son-in-law Cass B. Harrison and her daughter Corrie, age 35.

Children of Andrew J. "A.J., Jack" Stanford and Nancy Adaline Hammond:

- i. Nancy Jane Stanford, born about 1850, in Alabama, died before 1920, in Butler County, Alabama. She married George E. Welch 17 Sep 1867, in Butler County, Alabama. George E. Welch was born about 1841, in Alabama, died after 1920, in Alabama.

George E. Welch was the son of Seaborn (b. abt 1807, Georgia) and Prisilla (b. abt 1827, Alabama) Welch, who were living in Butler County, Alabama in the 1850 census record.

The 1920 census finds G.E. Welch (79, widower) living with a daughter and her family in Poley, Covington, Alabama.

- 264    ii. John Henry Stanford, born 21 Dec 1851, in Butler County, Alabama, died 12 Jul 1931, in Rocky Creek, Butler, Alabama.

She married William Richard "Will" Fussell. William Richard "Will" Fussell was born 14 Dec 1867, in Alabama, died 22 Mar 1953, in Butler County, Alabama, buried in Magnolia Cemetery, Greenville, Butler, Alabama.

Mattie appears to have married a "Reeves" before marrying Will Fussell. This husband has not yet been identified.

- iv. Melvina Texana Stanford, born 30 Apr 1859, in Alabama, died 6 Jul 1894, in Butler County, Alabama. She married GNU Blackwell.
- v. Callie C. Stanford, born 13 Nov 1861, in Alabama, died 5 May 1954, in Santa Rosa County, Florida, buried in Concord Cemetery, Jay, Santa Rosa, Florida. She married Edmond B. Harrison. Edmond B. Harrison was born 9 Jan 1859, died 2 Feb 1932, in Santa Rosa County, Florida, buried in Concord Cemetery, Jay, Santa Rosa, Florida.
- 265    vi. William J. Stanford, born Jan 1866, in Alabama, died after 1940, in Butler County, Alabama.
- vii. Alice Ada Stanford, born Mar 1869, in Alabama, died Feb 1959, in Santa Rosa County, Florida. She married John Randolph Faircloth about 1887, in Alabama. John Randolph Faircloth was born 1 Jan 1866, in Alabama, died 10 Aug 1944, in Jay, Santa Rosa, Florida.

Soon after their marriage, Alice and John moved to Santa Rosa County, Florida and are found living there in 1900-1940 census records.

- viii. Cora E. Stanford, born about 1875, in Butler County, Alabama, died after 1933, in Alabama. She married Cassiabianca "Cass" Harrison about 1897. Cassiabianca "Cass" Harrison was born about 1865, in Coffee County, Alabama, died 3 Jul 1933, in Chapman, Butler, Alabama, buried in Magnolia Cemetery, Greenville, Butler, Alabama.

Cass was the son of Gilliance Harrison and Mary McKay/McKey.

The 1910 Butler County Census shows a Cass B. Harrison listed living with his mother-in-law Nancy A. Stanford (widow), age 79, and his (second?) wife, Corrie, age 35. Also Nancy's granddaughter Willie M; age 12 and a great grandson Bert Harrison; age 12. Cass was listed as an lumberjack, working in a saw mill.

Cass' Alabama Death Index record lists his name as "C.S.B. Harrison." This record shows that he was married, indicating that Cora was still living at the time, and worked as a lumber grader.

There is some confusion about Elijah's birth place. Most researchers, and the 1880 census, indicate that he was born in Alabama. [In this same census, he lists that his father was born in Georgia.] But, in the 1900 census, Elijah lists North Carolina as his birth place. Perhaps, by this time, his facilities were failing and this is simply bad memory. Some researchers define his birth place as Wilcox County, while others support Dallas County, both in Alabama.

Elijah served in the CSA Army during the Civil War. He enlisted in 1861 in Lenoir's Independent Company, Alabama Calvary, and later served in the Company H, 38th Regiment, Alabama Infantry. Evidently, he was captured late in the War since there is a record that he was paroled at Selma, Dallas, Alabama on 28 May 1865.

The 38th Alabama took part in the battles of Hoovers Gap, Tennessee; Chickamuga; Lookout Mountain; Dalton; Atlanta; Jonesboro; Nashville; Franklin; and Spanish Fort, Alabama.

In 1867, E.R. Stanford is listed as a registered voter in Wilcox County, Alabama.

In 1870, the family was living in Snow Hill, Wilcox, Alabama, listed as "Stamford". The record includes E.R. Stamford (36, farmer), Matilda (36), and Ada (5). In this record, the head of household is listed as John W. Stein (37, farmer). Evidently Elijah was working for or share cropping with Stein at the time.

Elijah moved from Alabama to Texas sometime after 1870 and before 1875. Apparently, he moved to Texas with his first wife Matilda (and her mother, Elizabeth Mathews Taylor). Matilda died in Texas and Elijah remarried there.

In 1880, the census finds the family living in Robertson County, Texas and the census record lists Elijah Stanford (46, farmer), Mary (34), Ada (16), Susan (4), Eliza (2).

The 1900 census lists the family in Justice Precinct 5 [Wootan Wells], Robertson, Texas and includes Elijah Stanford (66), Mary A. (54), Eliza (21), Mary (19), Maggie (15), and Robert L. (12).

Texas Confederate pension #7040, awarded to Elijah, is dated 10 August 1900. Records indicate that Elijah was 65 at the time of the pension application and that he had lived for 28 years at Wootan Wells, Robertson, Texas prior to making the application. [The town Wootan Wells was the most famous health spa and resort in Texas between 1880 and 1910. Its development was the result of conditions that existed in the late 1860s and early 1870s, during Texas Reconstruction. Its growth may be attributed to a general desire on the part of people to escape the boredom imposed on them during the years following the Civil War. In 1916, the wells began to fail and by 1923 the town was gone...leaving behind only stone foundations and the water cistern at the old wells location.]

Matilda was the daughter of Henry Green Taylor (b. 1803, d. 1846, Wilcox County, Alabama) and Elizabeth Mathews.

Matilda's marriage record to Elijah Robert Stanford lists her name as Matilda A. Taylor, indicating that her full name may have been Matilda Ann Green Taylor.

Mary Ann was the daughter of John Ernal Green (b. 1814, New Bern, Craven, North Carolina, d. 1895, Bremond, Robertson, Texas) and Eliza Ann Snowden (b. 1824, Wilcox County, Alabama, d. 1898, Bremond, Robertson, Texas).

On 24 Jan 1910, Mary Ann applied for a widow's pension on the basis of Elijah's service during the Civil War.

Children of Elijah Robert Stanford and Matilda Green Taylor:

- i. Ada Stanford, born about 1864, in Huntsville, Madison, Alabama, died between 1897 and 1900, in Texas. She married Samuel Allen "Sam" Smith about 1881, in Bremond, Robertson, Texas. Samuel Allen "Sam" Smith was born 20 Aug 1855, in Decatur, Morgan, Alabama, died 13 Apr 1922, in Olney, Young, Texas.

Ada and Sam had 6 children. Based on census data, Ada most likely died in either Robertson or Throckmorton County, Texas.

As indicated in the 1910 census, Sam was previously married, but no record of this marriage has yet been found.

After Ada died, Sam married Eula Taber in about 1902, his third marriage. Sam and Eula had one daughter. (Taber was Eula's husband's name from her first marriage, we do not know her maiden surname.)

In 1920, Eliza (41, widow) [listed as Mrs. W. M. Dillard] is living in Justice Precinct 2, McLennan, Texas with four of her children.

We find Eliza (51) living with her children in Waco, McLennan, Texas in the 1930 census.

William was the son of James Howard Dillard (1815-1880) and Mary Catherine Davis (1833-1926).

266      v.      Robert Earnold "Bob" Stanford, born 19 May 1888, in Bremond, Robertson, Texas, died 26 May 1951, in Houston, Harris, Texas.

The 1855 Alabama State Census for Henry County lists Joseph Stanford, including 1 male under 21 [Francis Marion], 1 male over 21 [Joseph Dean], 2 females under 21 [Mary E. and unknown], and 1 female over 21 [Patience].

In the 1860 census, Joseph and Patience were living in Henry County, Alabama. This census lists Joseph Standford (35, farmer), Patience A. (27), Francis M. (9), Mary E. (7), Wiliam G. (4), Henry Z. (2), and Virginia (9/12).

After Patia's death, Joseph married Lucy McVay, Patia's niece.

In 1870, Lucy and Joseph were living in Mitchams, Clarke, Alabama and the census record includes J. Stanford (45, farmer), Lucy (32), F.M. (19), Mary (18), William (14), Henry Z. (12), Virginia (10), E. Frederick (8), Rebecca (5), Gustus (2), and Emma (3/12).

About 1870/1874, the family moved to Wittich, Franklin, Arkansas.

Patience was the daughter of Giles Carter (b. 1785, Virginia, d. 1864, Henry County, Alabama).

Often, Lucy's surname is spelled "McVey".

Lucy was the daughter of Averette McVay (b. 1807, South Carolina, d. Clarke County, Alabama) and Lottie Jane Carter and was the niece of Joseph's first wife, Patience Carter.

The 1880 census lists Lucy Stanford (41, widow), Virginia (20), Rebeka (14), George (12), Emer (9), Dean (6), and Joseph (3) living in Wittich, Franklin, Arkansas. Lucy is running the farm with help of her children and two hired hands.

In 1900, Lucy (62) is living with her sons William G. Stanford (44) and Henry Z. Stanford (42) and daughter Jennie [Virginia] Layman (and children) in Township 11, Creek Nation, Indian Territory [Oklahoma].

In the 1910 census, we find the family living in Quinton Ward 2, Pittsburg, Oklahoma listed as Francis M. Stanford (59, farmer) and Caline (56). Living with them is Roxy Carson (24), Caroline's daughter from a previous marriage.

The 1920 census lists the family in Beaver, Haskell, Oklahoma as Marion F. Stanford (68, farmer) and Caroline E. (66). Living with them is granddaughter Goldie A. Oaks (6).

The following Francis' obit published in "The Quinton Times", Thursday, March 16, 1922:

Ostendorf between 1903 and 1908, in Arkansas. Ben J. Ostendorf was born about 1875, in Minnesota, died after 1940, in Oklahoma.

The 1900 census lists the family living in Township 10, Creek Nation, Indian Territory [Oklahoma] and lists Willie Colvard (27) and his wife Joe (23).

After Willie's death, and prior to 1908, Jo remarried. The 1910 census finds Joe Ostendorf (32, b. Arkansas) and Ben J. Ostendorf (34, b. Germany) living in Sixmile, Logan, Arkansas.

The family moved to Oklahoma before 1930 and the City Directory for Bartlesville, Oklahoma lists Ben J. Ostendorf and his wife Josephine living in the city. The 1940 census finds the couple living in Porum, Muskogee, Oklahoma and lists Ben Ostendorf (65) and Joe (62).

William was the son of Wade Hampton Colvard (1838-1909) and Sarah Emily Harp (1841-1909).

This was Ben's second marriage. He married Razelle Ward on 24 Jul 1898 in Logan County, Arkansas.

On 12 Sep 1918, Ben registered for the WWI draft in Logan County, Arkansas. From this record, we learn his date of birth. He listed his closest relative as "Joe Ostendorf."

In 1850, William is found living with his mother and father in Wakulla County, Florida.

There is an 1853 Henry County marriage record that lists William Stanford and Eliza Hatfield. However, the groom's name is misspelled...it is actually William Riley Stanifer and Eliza Anne Hatfield who married on that date.

The 1855 Alabama State Census for Henry County lists W. Stanford with 1 male over 21 [William], 1 female under 21, and 1 female above 21. This record is probably not our William since he had not married by this time.

In 1860, William and Susan Stanford were living in Henry County, Alabama. Based on the census records, his mother and sister Susan lived on one side of him and his brother Joseph lived on the other side.

William joined CSA Company G, 39th Alabama Regiment on May 15, 1862 at age 31. He was captured at Resaca, Georgia on May 15, 1864 and was initially transferred from Nashville, Tennessee to Louisville, Kentucky on May 22, 1864. He was then transferred from Louisville, Kentucky to Alton, Illinois on May 23, 1864. On Dec. 7, 1864 he was transferred from Alton Military Prison to Rock Island, Illinois. William apparently contracted an intestinal disease around May, 1864. He was in hospital at Alton from Aug 20, 1864 until Sept 5, 1864 and again from Oct 1, 1864 until Nov. 11, 1864. He died on Jan 30, 1865 at the Rock Island Barracks, Rock Island, Illinois, from severe diarrhea (Dysentery) and is buried in grave No. 1839 there.

William died during the Civil War. The 1870 census finds Susan and Mary living with Susan's parents who had also moved to Henry County, Alabama.

Susan's father, John Guilford (b.Abt 1804) and mother Elizabeth Mann, purchased land in Decatur County, Georgia in 1874. Susan purchased this land from her parents in 1876 with the agreement that they live on the land until death. Susan sold the land in 1884, so her parents evidently had died by then.

In 1880, the census lists W.S. Stanford (51, mother-in-law) living with her daughter's family in Whigham, Decatur, Georgia.

Children of William Stanford, Jr. and Waley Susan Guilford:

- i. Mary Elizabeth Stanford, born Apr 1861, in Henry County, Alabama, died after 1910, in Georgia. She married Green Monroe Jones 27 Dec 1877, in Attapulgus, Decatur, Georgia. Green Monroe Jones was born Jun 1854, in Lake City, Columbia, Florida, died before 1910, in Whigham, Grady, Georgia.

In the 1880 census, Mary and her husband are living in Whigham, Decatur, Georgia and her mother W.S. Stanford (51) is living with the family.

The 1900 census lists the family living in Whigham, Decatur, Georgia.

In 1910, the census lists Mary E. Jones (49) and four of her children living in Whigham, Grady, Georgia. She is listed as "widowed" in this record, indicating that Green had died before 1910.

Green was a physician.

Ellen was Mitchell's cousin...her parents were Robert Lewis Akins and Mary Stanford.

In the 1870 census, Eleanor Stanford (30), a widow, and her children Louis M. (13) and David (10) are living in District 1219, Clinch, Georgia in the household of Samuel W. Register and Mary Stanford Register, her brother- and sister-in-law.

Her obituary, published on 9 July 1897, states that she died at the home of her son D. Quitman Stanford.

Her gravestone is engraved "Mrs. L.M. Stanford", with no dates.

Children of Ellen Akins and Louis Mitchell Stanford:

- 271      i.    Lewis Marion Stanford, born 29 Jan 1857, in Clinch County, Georgia, died 30 May 1913, in Statenville, Echols, County.
- 272      ii.   David Quitman Stanford, born 11 Nov 1860, in Georgia, died 20 Jan 1925, in Statesboro, Bulloch, Georgia.

Eli lived on his father's farm in Bulloch County, Georgia for several years after marriage, but later acquired his own lands on Suwannoochee Creek in Ware County, Georgia (which became Clinch County after 1850).

The 1850 census for Division 89, Ware County, Georgia lists Eli Stanford (23), Mary (24), and Georgia Ann Taylor (4), who was Mary's child from an earlier marriage. At some point, Georgia Ann's last name was changed from Taylor to Stanford.

The 1860 census for the Southern District, Clinch, Georgia lists Eli Stanford (31), Mary (30), Georges Ann (14), Elijah (10), Martha E. (9), Mary A. (6), Sarah Ann (5), and Reubin (2). The family lived in Clinch County, Georgia until about 1867 when Eli sold out and moved to Suwanee County, Florida, where he settled about 14 miles south of Live Oak.

Eli served during the Civil War in Company H (Tucker's), 8th Regiment, Florida Volunteer Infantry, CSA, enlisting on 12 Apr 1862 at Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia. He was the only Private of his Company to survive the war to surrender and being paroled at Appomattox Court House, Virginia on 9 Apr, 1865.

In 1870, the family is living near Lake City in Columbia County, Florida and the record lists Eli Stanford (46), Mary (50), George A. (F, 22), Elijah (18), Elizabeth (17), Mary Ann (15), David (8), and Emma (6)

The 1900 census lists Eli Stanford (72) and Mary (72) living in Precinct 1, Columbia, Florida. Living with them is Minnie Boatwright (19), Martha Elizabeth's daughter.

On 1 Sep 1900, Eli applied for a Soldier's Pension in Florida based on his Civil War service. In the application, he stated that "I was ruptured [hernia] on the right side by straining in carrying logs to build breastworks." Evidently, this application was not approved and Eli re-applied in 1902, being approved this time for a pension. After Eli's death, Laura applied for a Widow's Pension in 1908 and a pension of $120 per year was approved. However, in 1909, this pension was suspended since Florida law required that the widow have been married to the soldier prior to 1895. [The Florida records are very complete and include a copy of Eli's and Laura's marriage license, etc.]

The following letter on behalf of Elisha Hall's pension application was written by Eli Stanford on 15 Oct 1900:

"State of Florida Suwannee County

"Before me, a Notary Public, in and for the State of Florida at large, personally appearing Eli Stanford, who on oath says as follows: I was in the Confederate Army with Elisha Hall - was in the same brigade and we were sharpshooters on the same line. I first met him at Cold Harbor, Virginia, in the spring of 1863. He was sound and in good health. He was captured on the 10th day of September 1864 on the plank road to Petersburg and he was sent to prison at Point Look Out, Maryland. He was frozen in December 1864 while in prison. He was in prison at the time of the surrender. I have known him continuously ever since and he has been in bad health all the time. He has always been lame in his feet ever since he was frozen.

"I was in Company H (Tucker's) 8th Florida Regiment, Vol Inft Confederate Army. Witness my hand and seal this 15th day of October 1900.

"Eli Stanford"

Based on her daughter Georgia Ann's death certificate, Mary's maiden name may have been Stanford. Her first marriage was to an M. Taylor.

Laura was married earlier to a Hamm and had four children by this marriage (Andrew J. Hamm, b. 1889, Sarah [Susan] J., b. 1893, Mary C., b. 1896, and Nettie, b. 1897).

In the 1910 census, we find the family living in O'Brien, Suwannee, Florida, where Laura (45) is listed is a widow and the children are listed with the Stanford surname.

The 1920 census lists Laura Stanford (60) and Nettie (23) living in O'Brien, Suwannee, Florida.

In 1930, Laura (65, widow) is living with her son A.J. Hamm (40) and his wife Ethel (38) and their children in McAlpin, Suwannee, Florida. Sarah J. Hamm (31) is also living with the family.

Children of Eli Stanford and Mary Adeline Taylor:

- i. Georgia Ann Taylor Stanford, born 27 Feb 1844, in Georgia, died 23 Oct 1928, in Rock Sink, Suwanee, Florida, buried in Friendship Baptist Church Cemetery, Live Oak, Suwanee, Florida. She married Joseph Simeon Hurst 22 Sep 1872, in Florida. Joseph Simeon Hurst was born 25 Mar 1854, in Life Oak, Suwanee, Florida, died 9 Dec 1936, in Nebo, Suwanee, Florida, buried in Friendship Baptist Church Cemetery, Live Oak, Suwanee, Florida.

According to her death certificate, Georgia was the daughter of M. Taylor (father) and Mary Stanford (mother). She evidently was formally or informally adopted by Eli Stanford and her surname changed to Stanford.

Georgia Ann and Joseph had 3 children.

- 273 ii. Joseph was the son of Enoch Hurst and Vinie Edwards.
Elijah "Lige" Stanford, born 10 Jul 1849, in Georgia, died 13 Apr 1926, in Wauchula, Hardee, Florida.
- iii. Martha Elizabeth Stanford, born 22 Nov 1851, in Clinch County, Georgia, died 22 Jun 1922, in Precinct 17, Suwannee, Florida, buried in Mount Pisgah Church Cemetery, Suwannee County, Florida. She married Felix Emanuel Boatright 8 Aug 1875, in Suwannee County, Florida. Felix Emanuel Boatright was born 10 Jan 1825, in Wayne County, Georgia, died 30 Jul 1900, in Suwannee County, Florida, buried in Philadelphia Baptist Church Cemetery, McAlpin, Suwannee, Florida.

Martha and Felix had 7 children.

- iv. Felix was the son of Chesley John Daniel Boatright and Rachel Geiger.
Mary Adeline Stanford, born 6 Mar 1854, in Ware County, Georgia, died 15 Aug 1924, in Thonotosassa, Hillsborough, Florida, buried in Thonotoassee Cemetery, Thonotosassa, Hillsborough, Florida. She married Macon Richard Hurst 2 Jan 1872, in Florida. Macon Richard Hurst was born 19 Apr 1852, in Suwanee County, Florida, died 12 Oct 1928, in Thonotosassa, Hillsborough, Florida, buried in Thonotosassa, Thonotosassa, Hillsborough, Florida.

Mary and Macon had 9 children.

- v. Sarah Ann Stanford, born 1857, in Clinch County, Georgia. She married Dixon Bennett 29 Dec 1887, in Clinch County, Georgia. Dixon Bennett was born about 1855, in Clinch County, Georgia.

Dixon was the son of Felix Bennett (1817-1864) and Rebecca Smith (1818-1899). In 1860, the family was living in Southern District, Clinch, Georgia.

Dixon first married Tobitha Simpson on 29 Jan 1880 in Lowndes County, Georgia. The 1880 census finds the family living in Clinch County, Georgia [next door to Felix and Rebecca Bennett] and lists Dixon Bennett (24, farming) and Bitha (16). Evidently, Bitha died before 1887 when Dixon remarried to Sarah Ann Stanford.

- vi. Reubin Stanford, born 1858, in Clinch County, Georgia, died Young, in Georgia.
- vii. David Stanford, born 1862, in Clinch County, Georgia, died Young, in Georgia.

David died in boyhood.

- viii. Emma B. Stanford, born May 1867, in Clinch County, Georgia, died 1943, in Suwannee County, Florida. She married Millus Cage "Kaze" Padgett about 1887, in Florida. Millus Cage "Kaze" Padgett was born Mar 1860, in Florida, died before 1920, in Suwannee County, Florida.

Emma and Kaze had 7 children.

Kaze was the son of Andrew Jackson Padgett (1824-1894) and Elizabeth E. Green (1830-1900).

Some researchers indicate that Reubin's middle name may have been "Young".

Reubin farmed in Clinch County, Georgia (previously Lowndes County) during the 1850s, living in a part of the county that became Echols County, Georgia in 1858. In 1860, he moved back into Clinch County, opening a general store near the new railroad station in the town now called DuPont, Clinch, Georgia.

Reubin made an unsuccessful bid for state Senator in 1852, being defeated by 7 votes.

He served as Justice of the Peace of the 1058th District of Clinch County, Georgia (now Echols County) 1855-1859. He was appointed Postmaster of "Swannoochee" and held that office until he enlisted in the CSA army in 1861.

In 1860, the census lists the family in Southern District, Clinch, Georgia and includes Reubin Y. Stanford (29, merchant), Sarah E. (29), Mary M. (9), Louis M. (5), Ardella F. (3), and Sarah Amelia (1). Living with the family are Emily Currie (18) and Jonathan Knight (43).

Reubin opposed secession and ran on the anti-secession ticket in the special state election held in January 1861. He was defeated and, despite his objections to secession, he soon thereafter joined the CSA army.

He joined the first company raised in Clinch County, Georgia for the CSA, Company H ("Allapah Guards"), 29th Volunteer Georgia Infantry in September 1861. When the company was reorganized as Company E, he re-enlisted on May 7, 1862 as a Captain. He was wounded and captured at the Battle of Murfreesboro, Tennessee on December 7, 1864 and died of his wounds on 24 Jan 1865 following amputation of his right leg. [Some records indicate his date of death as 29 Jan 1865.]

The following short biography is from "History of Clinch County, Georgia, Giving the Early History of the County Down to the Present Time (1916)", compiled and edited by Folks Huxford:

"Reuben Y. Stanford was a son of David Stanford, and was born in 1831. He was a brother-in-law to Hon. S. W. Register. He was commissioned a justice of the peace of the 1058th district, then of Clinch but now of Echols County, April 4th, 1855, re-commissioned Jan. 15th, 1857. In 1852 he was defeated for State senator by Benjamin Sirmans, by seven votes. Mr. Stanford ran a store at Magnolia for a few years previous to the war.

"In 1861 he joined the company of troops which was being organized at Stockton. At the re-organization of the company, Mr. Stanford was elected its captain and served in this capacity until 1864. At the battle of Franklin, Tenn., he was seriously wounded in the leg and according to some, was captured and taken to a Federal hospital, where he died. Other versions are that he was not captured, but disappeared very mysteriously. He has never been heard of since and the account first given is regarded as the more probable of the two."

Elizabeth was the daughter of Barvill Permenter (1796-1868) and Frances Malonie Dorn (1804-1877).

While most researchers find that she was born in Georgia, records indicate that she was born in South Carolina (probably in the Edgefield District).

No 1870 census record for the family has yet been found.

Children of Reubin Y. Stanford and Sarah Elizabeth Permenter:

- i. Mary Miranda Stanford, born 15 Nov 1852, in Clinch County, Georgia, died 1 Feb 1928, in Berrien County, Georgia, buried in Pleasant Cemetery, Berrien County, Georgia. She married John Griffis about 1870. John Griffis was born 15 Sep 1850, in Clinch County, Georgia, died 5 Jul 1908, in Homerville, Clinch, Georgia, buried in Pleasant Cemetery, Berrien County, Georgia.

Mary and John had 8 children.

John was the son of Joel Griffis.

- ii. Louis M. Stanford, born about 1855, in Georgia.

No record of Louis M. Stanford beyond the 1860 census record has been found. [Numerous researchers confuse this Louis M. Stanford with Lewis Marion Stanford, b. 1857.]

- iii. Ardella F. Stanford, born 15 Apr 1857, in Clinch County, Georgia, died 20 Feb 1904, in Georgia, buried in Wayfare Cemetery, Echols County, Georgia. She married Levin Davis 23 Sep 1875. Levin Davis was born 11 Nov 1854, died 16 Nov 1945, in Cook County, Georgia, buried in Wayfare Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Echols County, Georgia.

Ardella and Levin had 10 children.

Levin was the son of William L. Davis (1829-1862) and Mary Ann Woods (1826-1910). William was killed during the Civil War.

Noah Davis and Levin Davis were brothers and the 1870 census finds the two brothers living and working on the farm of Samuel W. Register and his wife Mary [Stanford] Register in District 1219, Clinch, Georgia.

After Ardelia's death, Levin married Mrs. Lucretia Starling, widowed daughter of F. M. Rodgers and his first wife, Zilpha Register.

- iv. Sarah Amelia Stanford, born about 1858, in Georgia, died Young, in Georgia.
v. Mehalia Stanford, born Mar 1859, in Georgia, died after 1910, in Georgia. She married (1) John McClamma about 1885. John McClamma was born about 1857, in Georgia, died before 1896, in Florida. She married (2) James M. Inman about 1896, in Georgia. James M. Inman was born 5 Nov 1842, in Kettle Creek, Ware, Georgia, died 11 Sep 1911, in Clinch County, Georgia, buried in Antioch Methodist Church, Homerville, Clinch, Georgia.

The 1910 census finds Mehala (48) and James M. Inman (67) living in Militia District 1141, Clinch, Georgia.

Mehalia and James had three children.

John was the son of William P. McClamma and his wife Mary.

James was the son of John A.T. Inman (1819-1881) and Julia A.C. Blackburn (1816-1903).

James served in the CSA during the Civil War, enlisting as a Private on 1 Oct 1862 in Company K (old Company. H) of the "Forest Rangers", raised in Clinch and Ware Counties, Georgia. A roll dated Nov. 8, 1864, the last on file, shows him

"present". Pension records show he was sent home from Farmville, Virginia sick with typhoid fever on July 27, 1864 and was home sick on furlough at close of the war. [Information from "South Georgia Rebels" by Alton J. Murry].

This was James' second marriage...he married Nancy Elizabeth Lynn (1848-1895) on 12 Aug 1875 in Appling County, Georgia.

- vi. Keziah "Kizzie, Kissie" Stanford, born 18 Oct 1862, in Homverville, Lowndes, Georgia, died 15 Aug 1925, in Naylor, Lowndes, Georgia, buried in Wayfare Cemetery, Statenville, Echols, Georgia. She married Noah J. Davis about 1880, in Georgia. Noah J. Davis was born about 1857, died before 1920, in Lowndes County, Georgia.

The 1880 census finds the newlyweds living in Forests, Echols, Georgia. The census record lists Noah Davis (24, farmer) and Kissie Davis (19).

In the 1910 and 1920 census records, we find Kizzie living in Lowndes County, Georgia. The 1920 record lists her as a widow.

Noah was the son of William L. Davis (1829-1862) and Mary Ann Woods (1826-1910). William was killed during the Civil War and Noah Davis and Levin Davis (brothers) are found living with Samuel W. Register and Mary Stanford Register in Clinch County, Georgia in the 1870 census.

Mitchell enlisted as a Private in Company E, 29th Regiment, Georgia Infantry, CSA, on 1 Sep 1861. He died of disease on 29 May 1863 at Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama.

Lewis' gravestone is engraved "L.M. Stanford", with no dates.

County, Georgia, died before 1910, in Berrien County, Georgia.

The 1870 census finds David (74), a widower, living in District 1219 of Clinch County, Georgia with his daughter Rachel (22) and son John (21). A child, Rubin (5) is also listed...Rachel's son, though there is no record of the father.

In the 1880 census, we find Rachel (40) and her son Rubin (14) living in DuPont, Clinch, Georgia where she is working as a cook.

In 1900, Rachel (56) is living with her son's family in Militia District 518, Berrien, Georgia.

Children of Rachel Stanford and ____ ____:

- 274      i.    Ruben Stanford, born Feb 1866, in Clinch County, Georgia, died 1909 OR 1910, in Berrien County, Georgia.

Some researchers have determined that John's middle name was "Rupart" or "Rupert", however, as yet, no documentation to support this has been found. Since he named at least one child with the middle name "Rubin", and Reubin was his brother's name, that was more likely to have been his middle name.

In 1880, we find John Stanford (32), his wife Dora A. (26) and children Allen (6) and Mary (11/12) living in Forests, Echols, Georgia where John is a farm hand.

John and Dora's marriage, according to the children, did not last. John left sometime after 1885 and before 1890, reportedly claiming that all of the children, except for Molly, were not his. In retaliation, Dora raised the children of this marriage with surname "Davis", her maiden name.

The 1900 census record for Precinct 2, Columbia, Florida lists John Stanford (55), his second wife Hattie (38), and children Mary (12), John (10), Lizzie (4), Francis (3), and Lucy J. (3/12). The first two children were born in Georgia and the last three in Florida, indicating the family moved to Florida after 1890. John listed his employment in this record as "day laborer". In this census record, John and Hattie indicate they have been married for nine years, and thus they married about 1891. The Mary and John listed in this record are Mary A. Green (b. abt 1888, d. 1964) and John E. Green (b. abt 1890), both Hattie's children by her earlier marriage to John Green. (There was a third child, Thomas Green, who does not appear in this record.)

In 1910, the census finds the family living in McAlpin, Suwannee, Florida and lists John R. Stanford (62), Hattie L. (50), John E. (18), Rachel (10), and David R. (6). At this time, John is farming.

There is some confusion over the 1900/1910 census records. The 1900 census lists Lucy J. Stanford, whose date of birth was Mar 1900. But, we know that Rachel Edith Stanford was born in April 1900. Lucy does not appear in the 1910 census and Rachel does not appear in the 1900 census (recorded on 28/29 Jun 1900). Where were two daughters (twins?) and one did not survive or is the record flawed and there was only one daughter? No records for Lucy can be found except for the 1910 census, so it appears that the 1900 record is in error and that the Lucy J. in that record is actually Rachel Edith.

Dora was the daughter of William Davis and Mary Ann Woods.

John and Dora's marriage, according to the children, did not last. John left and the children of this marriage were raised with surname "Davis", Dora's maiden name.

After the separation from John, Dora married Charles J. Guthrie and had three children by him. In 1900, we find Dora and Charles living in Mitchellville, Manatee, Florida along with Guilford I. Davis (16) and three Guthrie children. In 1910, Dora and Charles are living with Walter Guthrie (21) and his wife Lea (18) in Parrish, Manatee, Florida.

In 1920, Dora (69) is living with her son James A. Davis' family in Parrish, Manatee, Florida.

The following information was obtained from a page entitled "Mother's Family" in a family Bible: "Hattie Louise Hall - an orphan, Born Dec 16 1859, Died April 25, 1948 in the home of her daughter Rachel near Live Oak - she was married at an early age to John Greene - 3 children were born to them, Mary, John and Tom."

Hattie is listed in the 1900 census with her new husband John Rubin Stanford living in Precinct 2, Columbia, Florida. This record includes John Stanford (55), his second wife Hattie (38), and children Mary (12), John (10), Lizzie (4), Francis (3), and Lucy J. (3/12). The Mary and John listed here are Mary A. Green (b. abt 1888, d. 1964) and John E. Green (b. abt 1890), both Hattie's children by her earlier marriage to John Green (b. abt 1857). From the Bible record, it appears that there was a third child, Thomas Green, who does not appear in this census record.

The 1930 census finds Hattie (70, widow) living with her youngest son David (27) in Precinct 2, Suwannee, Florida. David is a laborer on a dairy farm.

In 1940, Hattie (80, widow) is listed living her daughter Mary A. Patterson in White Springs, Hamilton, Florida.

In 1945, the Florida State Census lists Hattie Stanford (86) living in Precinct 1, Suwannee, Florida with her son D.R. Stanford's family.

Hattie died in 1948 while living with her daughter Rachel Edith [Stanford] Hegler in Live Oak, Suwannee, Florida.

Mary A. [Green] Patterson Hall first married Camden C. Patterson (b. 1858 in Georgia, d. 1937, Hamilton County, Florida) about 1904, by whom she had one daughter, Gertrude. Census records for the family in 1920, 1930, and 1935 show them living in Hamilton County Florida. In 1940, the census lists Mary A. Patterson (51, cook, school lunch room) living in White Springs, Hamilton, Florida and her mother Hattie Stanford is living with her. By 1945, Mary was living in Jacksonville, Duval, Florida and the Florida State Census that year lists her there. Mary's obit states that in 1949 she married a Hall in Jacksonville. She died there in August 1964.

As yet, no records for John E. Green or the third child, Thomas Green, have yet been found.

Children of John Ruben Stanford and Dora Ann Davis:

- i. William Allen Stanford Davis, born 4 Feb 1874, in Georgia, died 12 Aug 1944, in Manatee County, Florida, buried in Parrish Cemetery, Parrish, Manatee, Florida. He married (1) Mary Swain. Mary Swain was born 1875, died 1936, in Manatee County, Florida, buried in Parrish Cemetery, Parrish, Manatee, Florida. He married (2) Lula Louise Fortner between 1938 and 1940, in Manatee County, Florida. Lula Louise Fortner was born 22 Oct 1890, in Florida, died 20 Feb 1976, in Parrish, Manatee, Florida.

The 1910 census finds the family living in Savannah Ward 2, Chatham, Georgia and lists William A. Davis (39, clerk, railroad), Lula A. (39), James V. (18), William A. Jr. (16), Nellie T. (16), Harry B. (12), and Alton A. (8).

In 1940, the census lists William A. Davis (65, farmer) and his wife Lula L. Davis (49, packer, citrus grove) living in Manatee County, Florida. Living with them is Samuel K. Parrish (15), Lula's son by her first marriage.

Lula was the daughter of James Ashley "Ped" Fortner (1843-1905) and Roxanna Martha Harrell (1849-1895).

Lula married Jacob Crawford Parrish (1869-1938) about 1905 in Parrish, Manatee, Florida.

- ii. Mary F. Stanford "Molly" Davis, born Sep 1878, in Georgia. She married David Absolom "Ab" Swain about 1897, in Florida. David Absolom "Ab" Swain was born Jul 1867, in Georgia, died 16 Apr 1918, in Manatee County, Florida.

In 1900, the census finds David A. Swain and his wife Mary F. living in Sandy, Manatee, Florida.

Ab was the son of John Randolph Swain (1845-1911) and Elvira Elizabeth Rich (1845-1911).

- iii. James Arthur Stanford Davis, born 8 Jun 1881, in Coffee County, Georgia, died 15 Jul 1959, in Manatee County, Florida, buried in Manatee County, Florida. He married Lillie Esther Gaskins about 1900, in Florida. Lillie Esther Gaskins was born 1 Mar 1889, in Georgia, died 11 Jan 1968, in Manatee County, Florida, buried in Manatee County, Florida.

In 1910, the census finds the family living in Mitchellville, Manatee, Florida and lists James A. Davis (29, laborer, general farm), and Lizzie E. (30). At this time, the couple have been married 10 years, but no children are listed in this census record.

- iv. Gilford Marion Stanford Davis, born 10 Mar 1884, in Georgia, died 8 Oct 1919, in Mitchellville, Manatee, Florida. He married Nancy Lillian Guthrie about 1903, in Florida. Nancy Lillian Guthrie was born about 1875, in Georgia, died 8 Nov 1956, in Mitchellville, Manatee, Florida.

In 1910, the census finds the couple living in Mitchellville, Manatee, Florida and indicates they have been married 7 years.

On 12 Sep 1918, Gilford registered for the WWI draft in Manatee County, Florida. From this record, we learn his middle name and date of birth.

Nancy was actually Gilford's stepsister...her father was John Hamilton Guthrie whom Gilford's mother married after John Ruben Stanford.

This was Nancy's second marriage. She was previously married to Jacob "Jake" Powell by whom she had three children.

Children of John Ruben Stanford and Hattie Louise Hall:

- i. Elizabeth "Lizzie" Stanford, born 1896, in Florida, died before 1910, in Suwannee County, Florida.

Since Lizzie does not appear in the 1910 census, it is assumed that she died before that date. Some researchers list 1906 as her date of death, but no documentation of this has been found.

- ii. Francis Stanford, born 1897, in Florida, died before 1910, in Suwannee County, Florida.

Since Francis does not appear in the 1910 census, it is assumed that she died before that date.

- iii. Rachel Edith Stanford, born 12 Apr 1900, in Florida, died 30 Apr 1970, in Suwannee County, Florida. She married Charles Henry Hegler 6 Oct 1918. Charles Henry Hegler was born 11 Nov 1900, in Florida, died 28 Oct 1972, in Columbia, Suwannee, Florida.

Rachel and Charles had 5 children.

Charles was the son of James Hegler (1858-1944) and Mary Catherine Mosely (b. abt. 1860).

At the time of his death, Charles was living in Fruitland Park, Lake, Florida.

- 275 iv. David Ruben Stanford, born 15 Sep 1903, in Florida, died 8 Mar 1972, in Suwannee County, Florida.

James, while born in Alabama, was living in Louisiana by about 1860.

In Confederate records, "Stanford, (J. R.) James R." is listed as a Private, Co. B, 28th (Thomas') Louisiana Infantry. Information provided in Mary Jane Stanford's Confederate Pension Application indicated this soldier possibly served in both the 28th Thomas' and the 28th Grays' Louisiana Infantry Regiment and his also having served in the 26th Louisiana Infantry Regiment. [This last reference may simply be an error on the part of Mary Jane, since the War Department records reflect his serving in the 28th Regiment, not the 26th.]

The 1870 census finds James Stanford (27, farmer) living in Ward 1, Natchitoches, Louisiana. His mother Mary (65) is living with him.

Evidently his mother died before 1880, since that census finds J.R. Stanford (37) living as a boarder and working as a farm laborer in 4th Ward, Red River, Louisiana. [This census record states that his father was born in Georgia and his mother in South Carolina.]

The 1900 census shows that James married about 1884 and had two children. However, this marriage ended before 1897 since he remarried then.

The 1900 census lists the family living in Police Ward 2, Red River, Louisiana and includes J.R. Stanford (57, farmer), M.J. (24), John (15), Mary E (10), and Irmey L. (1). Living with the family is W.H. Norrid (20), Mary Jane's brother.

The 1910 census finds the family living in Police Jury Ward 2, Red River, Louisiana and lists James R. Stanford (66, farmer), Mary (34), Marie (21), Irmey Lee (11), Lillie Belle (7), Gertrude (5), Sybil (3), and James (1-1/12). [This census record shows that this is James' second marriage.]

In 1920, the census finds the family living in Police Jury Ward 7, Red River, Louisiana and lists J.R. Stanford (76, farmer), Mary (45), Ennie (20), Lillie (17), Gertrude (14), Sybil (13), James (10), Marie (7), and Lillian (5).

The 1930 census lists the family living in Police Jury Ward 7, Red River, Louisiana and includes James R. Stanford (86, farmer), Mary J. (54), Gertrude (25), James A. (20), Ethel M. (17), and Lillian B. (15).

Vicie was the daughter of John Mesheck Lightsey (b. 1830, Mississippi, d. 1878, Louisiana) and Mary Eliza Ann Morgan (b. 1834, South Carolina, d. 1878, Louisiana).

In the 1870 census, Vicie Lightly (8) was living in Natchitoches Parish, Louisiana at the same time as James. In this census, her place of birth is shown as Mississippi and since a younger sibling was also born in Mississippi, this appears to be her correct place of birth.

In the 1880 census, Vicie (17), was living in Red River Parish, Louisiana with her brother's family at the same time as James.

Mary Jane was the daughter of Abraham Norrid (1853-1903) and Alice S. Elliot (b. 1854, Louisiana).

Children of James Russell Stanford and Vicie R. Lightsey:

- 276      i.    John Stanford, born 23 Oct 1885, in Louisiana, died 19 Oct 1933, in Caddo Parish, Louisiana.
- ii.    Mary Eliza Stanford, born 20 NOV 1888 OR 20 NOV 1889, in Louisiana, died 17 Oct 1964, in Rosston, Nevada, Arkansas. She married Joseph Randolph McMurray before 1924, in Red River Parish, Louisiana. Joseph Randolph McMurray was born Feb 1858, in Albany, Albany, New York, died 2 Apr 1945, in Nevada County, Arkansas.

W. D. H. Stanford served during the Civil War in Company G of the 40th Regiment, Georgia Volunteer Infantry, Army of the Tennessee, C.S.A. This company was raised in Haralson County, Georgia and was known as the "Haralson Defenders". The Muster Roll of March 4, 1862, lists W. D. H. Stanford as a Private Soldier. Later unit muster rolls show that he was captured at Vicksburg, Mississippi on July 4, 1863 and paroled there on July 16, 1863, later received off Mobile Harbor on August 4, 1863. He was captured at Resaca, Georgia on May 15, 1864 during the defense of Atlanta and was carried to Alton, Illinois. He remained a prisoner there until he was discharged around March 1, 1865. He is noted in the unit muster roll as being in a Richmond Hospital March 9-12, 1865.

The 1870 census finds the Stanford family in the Household 4, Militia District 1078, Haralson County, Georgia. This record lists William Stanford (28, farmer), Nancy (24), and Jane (10/12).

Nancy was the daughter of Robert Thomas Speight (b. 1811 in South Carolina, d. 1900, Georgia) and Lucy Anne Dillard (b. 1813 in Gwinnett County, Georgia, d. 1870).

According to her death certificate, Nancy was born in Carroll County, Georgia. We do know from census records that the Speight family was living in Paulding County, Georgia in 1850 and in Haralson County, Georgia in 1860. [Haralson County, Georgia was formed from part of Carroll County.]

In 1920, the census finds Nancy Stanford (74, widow) living with family of her son Isaac W. Stanford in Haralson County, Georgia.

Mary Jane Baker, J. was born 8 Nov 1834, died 23 Dec 1885, in Bartow County, Georgia, buried in Georgia Pine Log Methodist Church Cemetery, Bartow County, Georgia.

The unusual name "Theopholis" is Biblical Greek for "friend of God".

Theopholis served as a Private in Company E, 12th Calvary Regiment, Georgia, CSA.

We find Theopholis (39) and his wife Nancy J. [Mary Jane] (36) living in Subdivision 144 of Bartow County, Georgia in 1870. The children listed include Azar A. (F, 10), John (8), Thomas (6), James W. In 1900, Theopholis (70) is a widower living in Militia District 822 of Bartow County, Georgia where he is serving as Justice of the Peace until 4 Sep 1901. He married (1) Sara Amanda Walker 24 Oct 1858. Sara Amanda Walker was born 1836, in Georgia, died 4 Feb 1870, in Georgia. He married (2) Mary Elizabeth A. "Doss" Kirk 17 Aug 1871, in Cherokee County, Georgia. Mary Elizabeth A. "Doss" Kirk was born Dec 1838, in North Carolina, died about 1924, in Etowah County, Alabama, buried in Duck Springs Cemetery, Attalla, Etowah, Alabama.

William served as a Private in Company G ("Collins' Company"), 3th Georgia Cavalry, and in Company G, 4th Georgia Cavalry, CSA during the Civil War. According to the 1907 Alabama census of confederate soldiers, William joined the 3th Georgia Cavalry in April 1862 and served until May 1863 when he transferred to the 4th Georgia Cavalry where his brothers were serving. He was later captured and paroled at Savannah, Chatham, Georgia in 1865.

The 1880 census lists the family in Livingston, Floyd, Georgia and the record includes William T. Stanford (46, farmer), Elisabeth (41), Hattie F. (7), Judson F. (6), Leola A. (3), and D. Felton (1), along with William C. (19), Thomas L. (18), Virginia Lee (14), and Cliffie V. (10).

Based upon census records, it appears that the family moved to Alabama in 1890/1895.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Attalla, Etowah, Alabama and lists W.T. Stanford (65, teamster), Lizzie (41) [61], Doc Felton (21), Thomas L. (35), and William H. (45).

In 1907, William Thomas Stanford was recorded in the Alabama census of confederate soldiers living in Cherokee County, Alabama.

In 1910, the census finds William T. Stanford (76) and Elizabeth A. Stanford (71) living in Duck Springs, Etowah, Alabama, next door to their son David Felton Stanford.

The following information was posed on a user-submitted family tree on Ancestry.com:

"William Thomas Stanford died of pneumonia at age of 79. He was a handsome man with white hair and white beard as remembered by his granddaughter, Bessie, who saw him shortly before his death.

"He was father of 9 children by two wives. 1. Sara Amanda Walker who had: William (Will), Thomas (Tom), Virginia (Gennie), and Cliffie Viola. He married 2nd wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Doss Kirk, a widow with two children, John J. and Zonie Kirk. They married on 17 August 1870 in Cherokee Co., AL. Stanford children were: Hattie, Frank, Leola and Robert who died in infancy and is buried at Shoal Creek in Big Will's Valley.

"W. T. was buried in Duck Springs Community cemetery in Big Will's Valley between Collinsville and Attola, AL (Beat 10).

"Virginia, the third child, was visiting her father when he died. She had two younger children, Bessie and Ted, with her on the trip from Arkansas."

Sara's death date corresponds to Cliffie Viola's birth date. Evidently, Sara died during childbirth.

As indicated by the 1910 census, this was Elizabeth's second marriage. Her marriage record lists her as "Mrs. E. A. Kirk." Her first husband has not yet been identified.

Her gravestone indicates she was 86 years old when she died, indicating that she died about 1924. But, she does not appear the Etowah County, Alabama 1920 census record.

Children of William Thomas "Tom" Stanford and Sara Amanda Walker:

- i. William "Will" Stanford, born about 1861, in Georgia, died after 1900.

In the 1880 census, William is listed as "William C.", but as "William H." in the 1900 census. His actual middle name and initial has not yet been determined.

In the 1900, William H. (45) is living with his father and step-mother in Attalla, Etowah, Alabama. This record lists William as "step-son," which is not correct (evidently Elizabeth was providing the information to the census taker.) This record also incorrectly lists his date of birth as May 1855, 3-4 years before Tom and Sara's marriage.

Evidently, Will never married.

- ii. Thomas L. "Tom" Stanford, born about 1862, in Georgia, died after 1900.

In the 1900 census, Thomas (35) is listed living with his father and step-mother in Attalla, Etowah, Alabama and is single. This record lists Thomas as "step-son," which is not correct (evidently Elizabeth was providing the information to the census taker.) This record lists his date of birth as May 1865.

- 283 iii. Virginia Lee Stanford, born 6 Jan 1866, in Sand Springs, Bartow, Georgia, died 18 May 1943, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas.

Cliffie and John had 9 children.

In 1930, the census lists John D. York (62, widower) living in Gadsden, Etowah, Alabama. Evidently, Cliffie had died by this time.

Various census records list both Tennessee and Kentucky as John's place of birth.

In the 1912 Gadsden, Alabama, City Directory, John D. York, carpenter, and his wife Cliffie V. are listed.

In 1920, the census lists the family living in Gadsden Ward 3, Etowah, Alabama, and includes John D. York (53) and Cliffie V. York (49).

John served in Company F, 4th Georgia Infantry Regiment for about 13 months, enlisting in April 1861.

John and Lucy were married at Pine Log Methodist Episcopal Church by Rev. W. F. Weems.

John is a farmer. This census record indicates that Van, John, and Georgianna were born in Arkansas. Thus, from about 1870 to 1878, the family evidently lived in Arkansas since Fletcher and Thomas were both born in Georgia.

In 1899, John applied for an Indigent Soldier's Pension. From this application, we learn his place of birth and about his military service. He stated: "About 15 years ago I was afflicted with hernia on the left side and about 7 years ago on the right side, which disables me from manual labor". He indicated that his current income came "by my fiddling and by my boys help."

In the 1900 census, John (64) and Lucy (63) are living in Dalton, Whitfield, Georgia with their son Thomas Franklin "Frank" Stanford (22), who is listed as a merchant.

The 1910 census finds John (74) and Lucy (64) living in Dalton, Ward 2, Whitfield, Georgia.

Lucy was the daughter of Jesse Baker (1800-1870) and his wife Parthenia (b. 1808).

In 1913, Lucy made application for a Widow's Pension on the basis of John's service during the Civil War.

The 1870 census lists the family in Hickman, Scott, Arkansas as James C. Stanford (26, farmer), Sarah E. (23, b. TN), William T. (2, b. GA), and Acril J. (6/12, b. AR)

In 1880, the family is still in Hickman, Scott, Arkansas and the census record includes James Stanford (38), Sarah E. (32), William T. (12), Acrel C. (10), John F. (4), and Ella L. (7/12).

The following is James' biography published before his death in "Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Western Arkansas" about 1890/1900:

"James C. Stanford is a merchant in the village of Cauthron, and by birth is a Georgian, having first seen the light of day in that State June 20, 1842. He is the youngest of five sons and four daughters born to William and Sarah (King) Stanford, both of whom were born in Georgia.

"James C., when a lad, received very limited educational advantages, as his father died when he was thirteen years of age, and he was placed in charge of the home farm, as his older brothers had left home to make their own way in the world.

"In 1862 he enlisted in the Confederate Army, becoming a member of Company H, Eighteenth Georgia Regiment of Infantry, and was in the battles of Fair Oaks, Malvern Hill, Manassas, Boonesboro, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Knoxville, Wilderness, Spottsylvania Court House, Cold Harbor, seige of Richmond, and Farmersville, Virginia, where he was taken prisoner, being released on June 28, 1865, from Fortress Monroe, and at the battle of Chancellorsville was severely wounded. Although there were five brothers in the Confederate Army, all came through safely and are now the heads of families.

"The eldest brother, Franklin, was in the Mexican War; one resides in Alabama, and the others are near the old home in Georgia.

"When James C. returned from the army he again went to work on his mother's farm, and there remained until 1869, when he left there and came direct to Waldron, Arkansas, and here has since made his home. He homesteaded some land, nicely improved it, and of 170 acres of which he is the owner, four miles northwest of Waldron, he has eighty acres under cultivation, on which are a good house, barn and other necessary buildings. There is also an excellent orchard on the place, and the land is also well fenced.

"In January, 1887, Mr. Stanford moved from the farm to the village of Cauthron and opened a general mercantile store, and besides the store building and the lot on which it stands he has thirty-six acres on which his residence is situated. He keeps a stock of goods worth $2,000 and his annual sales amount to about $6,000. He is quite extensively engaged in buying cotton, which he ships to Fort Smith, and is otherwise interested in the progress and development of this region.

"He was married March 7, 1867, to Miss Sarah E. Taff, a daughter of W.H. Taff, a farmer of Bartow County, Georgia, and by her has the following children: William T. (who is a teacher and is giving his leisure time to the study of law), Acril J. (who is also a teacher, and he and William were educated in the State University), John F., Nellie L., Franklin A. and James B.

"The family worships in the Methodist Episcopal Church South, Mr. Stanford being a steward in the same. He is a Democrat in politics, and is liberal in the support of schools, churches, etc. He came here with no means but has now a good property."

In 1900, the census finds the family living in Fayetteville, Washington, Arkansas and lists James C. Standford (57, T. Salesman), Sarrie (53), Frank (14), and James (12).

The 1910 census finds James C. Stanford (66), his wife Sarah E. (63), and grandson Edgar Stanford (18) living in Fayetteville Ward 2, Washington, Arkansas.

The state of Arkansas awarded J.C. Stanford a soldier's pension in 1916 on the basis of his Civil War service.

In 1920, James C. Stanford (77) and Sarah E. Stanford (73) are living in Prairie, Washington, Arkansas.

"Born Oct. 27, 1848, in Randolph county, Ga., and was the second son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Phillips) Stanford. He was reared in Cuthbert, and having determined when young in years upon the newspaper business for his avocation in life, he entered a printing office, where he learned all the details from the case to the editorial chair. He is the present owner and editor of the "Leader," which he founded April 16, 1891. His first work was done on the "Reporter," a journal owned by Mr. T. Bird, and his next was on the Cuthbert "Appeal." Mr. Stanford was employed there until 1881, when "The Enterprise" was established, and he took charge of that, continuing on it until the "Liberal Enterprise" was started. About this time he established the "Leader," a weekly newspaper which has secured a good circulation and enjoys popularity and a liberal patronage. Mr. Stanford is one of the oldest newspaper men in Randolph county, and is well known throughout the state. He married Catharine Dunaway of Stewart county, by whom he has a family of ten children: Clara Elizabeth, James Benton, Gertrude, Annie, Daisy, John T., Shelley, Tisna, Lena, and Harold. Mr. and Mrs. Stanford are members of the Baptist church, and he is prominent in the Knights of Pythias fraternity. They enjoy a pleasant home in the outskirts of Cuthbert."

Another biography, "Rev. Joseph Newton Stanford 1848 - 1920", contributed for use in USGenWeb Archives by Charlene Parker, reads as follows:

"Joseph Newton Stanford was born October 27, 1848 in Randolph County, Georgia and reared in Cuthbert.

"His maternal and paternal ancestry were among the pioneers of Southwest Georgia and were noted for their innate worth, intelligence, probity, mental and physical vigor and these characteristics manifest themselves in the career of members of the present generation. Thomas and Keziah Stanford, his great grandparents were early settlers of Middle Georgia having come from their respective homes in North and South Carolina on the same day. Thomas Stanford, Jr., was but a boy when his parents moved from Morgan County to Newton County where he grew to manhood. On December 24, 1845 he was married to Elizabeth Phillips, a native of Morgan County, later of Newton County. Afterwards they removed to Randolph County where he farmed until about two years before he died.

"Joseph was the second son of five children. His sisters were Missouri Ann, (Mrs. John R. Scott), Mary Sophronia and brothers were the late Thaddeus and Dr. J. M. Stanford, all deceased.

"For half a century or more he was printer or publisher, he having learned all the details from the case to the Editorial Chair. His first work was done on the "Reporter" a Journal owned by Mr. T. Bird; his next on the "Cuthbert Appeal". In 1881 he took charge of the "Enterprise" continuing on it until the "Liberal Enterprise" was started. About this time he established "The Cuthbert Leader," a weekly newspaper which secured a good circulation, wide popularity and a liberal patronage.

"October 27, 1870 he was married to Catherine Dunaway of Stewart County, by whom he had a family of eleven children Mrs. H. D. Mashburn, J. B. Stanford, Mrs. W. J. Oliver, Mrs. C. D. Peak, deceased and the present Mrs. C. D. Peak, Mrs. E. A. Mooney, Mr. John T. Stanford, Mrs. A. L. Mashburn and Shelley and Harold Stanford. Joseph Hugh died when an infant. Harold was a valient member of the Rainbow Division in the late war. Mr. and Mrs. Stanford and their children were all active members of the Baptist Church.

"He was the faithful and efficient clerk of the Bethel Baptist Association for four years from 1902 to 1905 inclusive. In 1898 his eyesight became impaired and he grew tired of office work and bought a large farm at Morris Station, three and a half miles from Cotton Hill. For four years he was the beloved and the successful superintendent of the Cotton Hill Sunday School, when he resigned to return to Cuthbert he was presented a handsome lamp which he always treasured. On his return to his Cuthbert home, he and his son, J. B. Stanford bought out the "Liberal Enterprise," which was then owned by a stock company.

"After the death of his mother and invalid sister, he together with his wife and five younger children removed to Garniers, Santa Rosa County, Florida. While here he faithfully served as superintendent of the Garniers and Cracker Neck Sunday Schools. After two years circumstances were such that he returned to Cuthbert where he worked with accustomed regularity until incapacitated by ill health a year or two before his death. He was 72 years of age. He was a model industry. As an Editor and in private life always advocating morality, and other things tending toward the betterment of mankind. He was a zealous mason and had been prominent in the Knights of Pythias. As a contemporary said, the motto 'Semper Fidelis' (always faithful) applied to him for he could be relied on to do his duty and was regarded as an exemplar of honesty and benevolence, enjoying the good will of all who knew him, he left to his family the heritage of a good name which they dearly prize."

Cause of death: chronic myocarditis. He married Sara M. "Sallie" Burr 12 Nov 1876, in Georgia. Sara M. "Sallie" Burr was born 31 Jul 1852, in Georgia, died 11 Sep 1925, in Cuthbert, Randolph, Georgia.

James was born on a farm 7 miles from Cuthbert, Georgia, but the family moved into Cuthbert when James was 5.

As a young boy, he learned the printer and newspaper business and worked in that business until 1873, when he took a job in a drug store. There, he learned to be a pharmacist and in 1876 opened the Stanford Drug store that later became a large corporation called Stanford Drugs.

He also owned a furniture store and worked as an editor late in life for the local newspaper. He was a trustee of Bethel College and a trustee of Mercer University, Macon, Georgia.

James organized the Bank of Randolph County, Georgia and served as its first president.

The following biography was printed in "Randolph County Memoirs of Georgia", Vol. I, in 1908:

"From a family whose collateral branches extend into many states of the south, and whose name is not only historic but renowned and influential, was born Dr. James W. Stanford of Cuthbert. His immediate ancestry were noted, upon both maternal and paternal sides, among the pioneers of southwestern Georgia, for their intelligence, probity, and mental and physical vigor. This combination of character and constitution, and innate worth, manifest themselves in the career of members of the present generation.

"Thomas Stanford was born in what is now Morgan county, Ga., May 15, 1806, and was the son of Thomas and Keziah Stanford, early settlers of middle Georgia. The latter lived for many years there, and had born to them a large family of children. Later in life they removed to Newton county and settled near Yellow river about ten miles from Covington, where they resided until coming to Randolph county about 1828. They purchased a farm about seven miles from Cuthbert, where the senior Stanford died in August, 1839--well advanced in years. After his death his widow removed to Alabama, where her last days were spent.

"Mr. Stanford was very wealthy at one time, but always liberal in charity, and free with the use of his means to help friends in pecuniary distress, he suffered heavy losses while living in Newton county. He was a soldier in the Indian wars during the years 1835-36, and a man of unflinching integrity, patient and considerate in private as well as in business life; of a sunny nature and a heart filled in sympathy for his fellow-man.

"Thomas Stanford was citizen not only honored but loved by those who knew him. His domestic life was a model in happiness, and to the family circle came ten children, five boys and five girls---all of whom lived to be men and women grown, but all now deceased. They were Mary, the eldest, who married and settled in Habersham county; Edward, settled in Newton county; William, settled in Henry county; Martha, married, lived in Alabama; Thomas, Jr.; Nancy, married George Hobbs and settled in Randolph county; Elizabeth, married a Mr. Elliott and moved to Alabama; David, settled in Texas; John, settled in Arkansas; Keziah.

"Thomas Stanford, Jr., father of J. W. Stanford, was but a boy when his parents moved from Morgan to Newton county, where he grew to manhood. On Dec. 24, 1835, he was married to Elizabeth Phillips, a native of Morgan county. She was born April 24, 1819, and was the daughter of James and Mary (Phillips) Phillips, natives of the Carolinas. A coincident worthy of note in connection with this union of her parents is, that, though their families were entirely unknown to each other both started from their respective homes in North and South Carolina on the same day, and reached Morgan county, Ga., at the same time.

"Mrs. Stanford, when a child moved with her parents to Newton county, where she was married. Her husband farmed until about two years before his death, when he moved to Cuthbert, where he was employed as a bookkeeper, and served as bailiff of the county. He was a man of fine business capacity, and was a high, noble-minded citizen. He died Feb. 3, 1859, leaving a wife and five children: Martha Ann, who married John R. Scott, of Stewart county, and is now living in Lockesburgh, Ark; Mary S., single, and living with her mother; John Thaddeus, of Cuthbert; Joseph Newton, editor and proprietor of the "Leader" of Randolph county; and Dr. James W. Stanford.

"Mrs. Stanford, mother of the above children, is a devoted member of the Baptist church, having untied with that denomination when a girl of fifteen years, and has been a member of the Cuthbert congregation for over half a century. Though beyond three-quarters of a century of years, Mrs. Stanford is hale and hearty, and remarkably well preserved.

"Dr. J. W. Stanford, the youngest child by the first marriage, was born Nov. 4, 1852, and received the benefit of the public schools in his youthful days. He was but a boy when he entered a printing office in Cuthbert to learn the trade, and continued there until 1873, when he accepted a position in a drug store and began the study of pharmacy, for which he had long had a predilection. In 1876 he commenced business for himself and now has a flourishing and extensive business and is one of the substantial citizens of Randolph county. His capital when he started in life was a superabundance of will and energy, supported by a fixed determination, which brought its sequence-success. Nov. 12, 1876, he was united in marriage to Sarah Burr, the daughter of Augustus P. and Catharine (Beasley) Burr, of Cuthbert. An interesting family of eight children followed this union: James W., Jr., William B., Edgar, Harry, Leland, Emmett, Frank, and Grover.

"Dr. Stanford is one of the leading members of the Baptist church, a denomination with which he united when fourteen years old. He is superintendent of the Sunday-school, one of the trustees of Bethel Male college, and also of Mercer university. He is an enthusiast on the subject of education, and has always taken an active lead in the cause of intellectual improvement. He has doubtless provided means to more young men who were needy and struggling to acquire learning than any other man in southwest Georgia. He is a royal arch Mason and H. P. of the local chapter, a Knight of Honor and a member of the American Legion of Honor. He lives with his family in a handsome home in Cuthbert."

Based on this biography, research by Odessa Stanford Garrison, and review of census records, we have a fairly complete history for James' descendants.

Caroline Marianda "Carrie" Stokes was born 1 Apr 1845, in Dale County, Alabama, died 19 Mar 1902, in Mexia, Limestone, Texas, buried in Texas Point Enterprise Cemetery, Limestone County, Texas. He married (2) Katie Lee "Kate" Corley 1 Aug 1906, in Limestone County, Texas. Katie Lee "Kate" Corley was born 28 Apr 1859, in Alabama, died 11 Jun 1947, in Mexia, Limestone, Texas, buried in Texas Point Enterprise Cemetery, Limestone County, Texas. Cause of death: heart disease.

Joseph served in the CSA Army during the Civil War and he claimed a "indigent circumstances" pension (No. 27726) on the basis of that service. Joseph applied for his pension on 2 Apr 1914 and stated that he served in Company G, 19th Alabama Infantry for 3 years. After his death, his wife Kate received a pension (No. 49711) on the basis of Joseph's service.

The family apparently moved to Texas in 1875, as Joseph stated in his 1914 pension application.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Precinct No. 6, Freestone County, Texas and lists Joseph T. Stanford (39, farmer), Caroline (34), Mary Etna (11), Thophilus (9), Alice O. (7), Joseph Emmett (4), and Lizzie T. (7/12).

The 1900 census lists the family in Justice Precinct 4, Limestone, Texas and includes Joe T. Stanford (58, farmer), Caroline (55), and Peachie Ida (13).

In 1910, the census finds the family living in Justice Precinct 4, Limestone, Texas and lists J.T. Stanford (68, farmer) and Katie (50). This record indicates that this is the second marriage for each and they have been married 4 years.

According to his death certificate, Joe died of heart failure.

Marianda was the daughter of Jehu Stokes (1817-1862) and his wife Sarah (b. Abt 1820) of Dale County, Alabama.

Kate was the daughter of David J. Corley and Lucy Ann Roberts of Alabama.

This was Katie's second marriage. She was previously married to James Ethelred "Jim" Bozeman (b. Alabama, 1853, d. Tehuacana, Limestone, Texas, 1899). Katie and Jim had one daughter and one son.

In 1900, the census finds Katie Bozeman (41, widow) living in Mexia, Limestone, Texas.

In 1920, the census lists Katie (widow) living in Shiloh, Limestone, Texas with her married daughter Lucy Bozeman Kerzee. Katie is found in both the 1930 and 1940 census records living with her daughter in Limestone County, Texas.

The 1900 census finds Simon (43), his second wife Mattie (27), and children Jimmie (18), Lucie (15), Quinton (8), Lodie (2) and Walter (1) living in Precinct 4, Limestone County, Texas.

In these three census records, Simon indicates that his father was born in Virginia, which is incorrect, and that his mother was born in North Carolina, which is correct.

Simon may have served in the CSA Army during the Civil War. He made application for a pension, but it was rejected. After Simon's death, Mattie made an application for a pension based on Simon's service, but it also was rejected.

Tabitha was the daughter of Jesse Fleming (b. abt 1815, Columbia County, Georgia, d. 17 Apr 1890, Coffee County, Alabama) and Grace A. Moore. Jesse and Grace were married in Harris County, Georgia on 11 Jun 1835.

Mattie's death certificate lists her father as Ben Barrow. Her mother's name is not listed.

The 1930 census finds Mattie Stanford (57), a widow, living alone in Precinct 4, Limestone, Texas.

Sometime after 1930, Mattie married a Reading.

Everett was the son of John Toole and his wife Belle.

This was Everett's second marriage. He was married previously to Jessie LNU.

While his gravestone indicates his year of birth is 1891, both his 1917 draft registration, his death certificate, and the SSDI list 1892.

Arthur registered for the WWII draft in Mexia, Limestone, Texas at the age of 51. At the time he was unemployed. The contact name he provided was Mrs. C.L. Shaffer, San Antonio, Texas. This may have been his ex-wife who had remarried.

He married Winnie Elizabeth "Winnie, Lizzie" Gaunett 1865, in Alabama. Winnie Elizabeth "Winnie, Lizzie" Gaunett was born 26 Mar 1847, in Alabama, died 17 Sep 1928, in Clay County, Alabama, buried in Shiloh-Lineville Cemetery, Lineville, Clay, Alabama.

In 1860, we find Thomas (21 and single) working and living on the farm of James C. Brown in Militia District 1073, Polk, Georgia.

Thomas moved to Alabama just before or during the Civil War. Thomas' grave marker indicates that he served in the Confederate army. A 1921 Pension lists his service as Company C., 62nd Alabama Infantry. Other research indicates that he served in Company's A and H, 37th Alabama Infantry. And, further research shows that he enlisted on 8 Mar 1862 in Company D ("Polk Rifles") of Phillip's Legion, Georgia Volunteer Infantry. He was captured on 29 Nov 1863 at Knoxville, Tennessee and imprisoned at Rock Island, Illinois until released on 21 May 1865.

The 1870 census finds Thomas (33), a farmer, Elizabeth (22), David (3), and John F. (1) living in Louina, Randolph, Alabama.

In 1900, Thomas (60) is farming in Lineville, Clay, Alabama. The census record lists Thomas (60), Elizabeth (53), Davis Wilder (18), Candius (M, 16), Aaron Jefferson (14), and Adolphus (9).

When his wife filed for a Confederate widow's pension, she indicated that his place of death was Lineville, Clay, Alabama.

Winnie was the daughter of John (d. 1858) and Winnie Gaunett (d. 1888) of Randolph County, Alabama.

The 1910 census lists Mrs. Lizzie Stanford (61) living in Lineville, Clay, Alabama with her son Adolphus (17). Thus, Thomas had died by this time. Her son Aaron J. lives next door.

In the 1920 census, Elizabeth Stanford (72) lives in Lineville, Clay, Alabama. Her son Aaron J. lives next door.

In 1921, Mrs. W.E. Stanford, widow of Thomas Stanford, was on the Civil War Pensioners list in Alabama.

The 1910 census lists J.E. Stanford (39, farmer) and his wife Sally (37) living in Justice Precinct 5, Knox, Texas.

In 1920, the census finds J.E. Stanford (49, farmer) and his wife Sallie (46) living in Justice Precinct 4, Henderson, Texas.

No children are listed in any of these census records.

William (24) was still living at home in Columbia County, Georgia in the 1860 census.

The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists W.P. Stanford, age 28, overseer, living in Columbia County, Georgia.

Records indicate that William served in Company F, 14th Georgia (Infantry) Regiment during the Civil War. There is also a record for a W.P. Stanford who served in Company F, 1st Georgia Calvary Regiment. He served from June 1864 until his unit surrendered at Augusta, Richmond, Georgia in May 1865.

The 1870 census shows William (34) living in Appling, Columbia, Georgia with his wife Ann (32) and children James W. (8), Allen F. (7), Lilly L. (3) and John S. E.. In this census, William is listed as a farmer.

By the 1880 census, the family is living in Adairville, Bartow, Georgia which listed Wm. Stanford (43, farm hand), Ann (41), Lillie (13), Edgar (10), and William (8). From other records, we know that James had left home by this date. However, there are no records after 1870 for Allen, so he may have died by this time.

In 1900, the census lists William P. Stanford (56, garden laborer) and Ann T. Stanford (57) living in Calhoun, Gordon, Georgia. This census record indicates that Will and Ann had 9 children, only four of whom were living in 1900...five of their children have been identified.

In 1900, while living in Gordon County, Georgia, William first applied for an Indigent Soldier's Pension based on his Civil War Service. At this time, most of the family income was provided by his wife since his earning powers were limited by "rheumatism in the left hip, bronchitis, and enlargement of the left testicle."

By 1905, William had moved back to Columbia County, Georgia. His application for an additional pension for his Civil War service is dated 20 Feb 1906. This application stated that he was still a resident of Gordon County, Georgia when he received his pension in 1903. From this application, we learn that William was essentially indigent and in poor health and the application is marked "out of state 1905-1906".

Ann was the daughter of Wesley Kinman and Mary B. Walker.

Some researchers indicate that Ann was previously married to a Stokes and/or a Stephens/Stevens. However, this does not appear reasonable since she would have been only 22 or 23 when she and William married. In 1860, the census lists Ann T. Kinman (22) living with her parents. Based on the date of birth of her first child, Ann and William most probably married in 1860, after the date of the census, or in early 1861.

Children of William P. Stanford and Ann Tabitha Kinman:

- 320      i.    James Wesley Stanford, born 12 Oct 1861, in Gordon County, Georgia, died 11 Nov 1937, in Saint Jo, Montague, Texas.
- ii.    Allen F. Stanford, born about 1863, in Georgia, died before 1880, in Georgia.
- iii.    Lilly L. Stanford, born 31 Dec 1866, in Adairsville, Bartow, Georgia, died 13 Oct 1911, in East Palatka, Putnam, Florida, buried in San Mateo Cemetery, San Mateo, Florida. She married Julius Hanna 30 Jun 1887, in Adairsville, Bartow, Georgia. Julius Hanna was born 16 Mar 1860, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia, died 22 Nov 1911, in St Augustine, St Johns, Florida.

Lilly and Julius had three children: William Parry Hanna (1889 1975), Frank Guy Hanna (1896 1950), and Anna Lou Hanna (1902 1984).

Julius moved to Putnam County, Florida before 1885...he is listed in the Florida State Census that year living in District 7.

- 321      iv.    John Edgar "Ed" Stanford, born 13 Jun 1869, in Georgia, died 10 Jun 1909, in Foard County, Texas.

The 1860 census finds A.R. Stanford (22), wife S.C. (21), and daughter M.E. (1) living in Dougherty County, Georgia, near Albany.

Allen served with Company I, 64th Regiment, Cobb's Legion, Georgia Volunteer Infantry, Army of North Virginia, CSA, enlisting as a Private in Muscogee County, Georgia on July 20, 1863. According to testimony in Sarah's application for a Widow's Pension in 1891, he was captured and imprisoned in Wheeling, West Virginia in 1864 and wasn't released until after the surrender in 1865, arriving home in September 1865. Evidently, he suffered various health issues arising from this imprisonment.

The following short biography of Allen's military service was published in the book "Cobb's Legion Cavalry: A History and Roster of the Ninth Georgia Volunteers in the Civil War" by Harriet Bey Mesic (McFarland, 2009, ISBN 0786437952):

"Stanford, Allen R.: Farmer from Columbia County, Georgia. Born ca. 1838 in Taliaferro County, Georgia. Enlisted as a Private in Company I on 04/21/1862 in Augusta, Georgia. Captured near Martinsburg, [West] Virginia on 07/18/1863 and sent to Atheneum Military Prison, Wheeling, [West] Virginia. Deserted and took oath. Sent to Ohio on 07/30/1863. Described as having a dark complexion, blue eyes, dark hair, and being 5'8-1/2" tall. After the war, worked as a teamster in Columbia County, Georgia. Married Sarah C. Brown on 04/22/1858 in Columbia County, Georgia. Died after 1880."

Cobb's Legion was organized by Thomas Reade Rootes Cobb during the spring of 1861. This regiment initially consisted of three battalions...one of cavalry, one of infantry, and one of artillery. But, this unwieldy organization separated into separated regiments by the spring of 1862. Company I, in which Allen served, was part of the cavalry regiment.

The 1870 census shows Allen (32), Sarah (31), and Elizabeth (11) living in Militia District 184, Lincoln, Georgia, where Allen was farming.

The 1880 census finds Allen (42) and Sarah C. (41) living in District 129 of Columbia County, Georgia, where Allen is listed as a "waggoner".

From his gravestone, we learn Allen's dates of birth and death.

Beginning in 1891, Sarah was awarded a Widow's Pension of $100 per year for Allen's service during the Civil War.

The 1900 census finds Sarah C. Stanford (61) living in Grovetown, Columbia, Georgia with her daughter and son-in-law's family.

Children of Allen R. Stanford and Sarah C. Brown:

- i. Mary Elizabeth Stanford, born 19 Mar 1859, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 23 Mar 1932, in Columbia County, Georgia, buried in Grovetown Cemetery, Grovetown, Columbia, Georgia. She married George W. Berry. George W. Berry was born 20 Apr 1850, in Kentucky, died 25 Aug 1919, in Georgia, buried in Grovetown Cemetery, Grovetown, Columbia, Georgia.

Mary and George had at least 5 children.

According to the online database "U.S. and International Marriage Records, 1560-1900", George's birthplace is listed as Kentucky.

J.B. served in Company K, 1st Regiment, Georgia Volunteer Infantry, CSA, ("Ramsey's Rangers") enlisting on March 18, 1861 and mustering out on March 18, 1862. Later, he joined Company I, 3rd Georgia Calvary and his 1909 pension application states that he was honorably discharged at Raleigh, Wake, North Carolina on 16 Apr 1865 "on account of termination of war".

The 1870 census lists Jabez Stanford (27, farm laborer) living and working on the farm of Thomas J. and Sarah L. Dillard in Monroe County, Georgia.

In 1880, the census finds the family living in District 596, Monroe, Georgia and lists Jabez C. Stanford (38, farmer), Florence (28), Ellender (7), Annie (3), and Ewell (1).

The 1900 census lists the family living in Precinct 16, Polk, Florida and includes J.D. Stanford (59, farmer, widower), Elender (27), Annie (23), and Ewell (21).

J.B. was a brick mason and moved his family to Florida about 1894.

In 1907, J.B. applied for a pension based on this military service during the Civil War. In 1909, the pension was awarded by the state of Florida. The application for this pension contained the following information: Jabez served 5 months at Fort Barnamas in Pensacola, Escambia, Florida and was then sent to Virginia as an artilleryman for the first year. Then, he joined the 3rd Georgia Calvary and served until the end of the war. He was captured at New Haven, Kentucky and carried to Louisville, Kentucky, later exchanged at Cairo, Illinois.

He died in Florida, but his body was returned to Forsyth City Cemetery, Monroe County, Georgia for burial. [From Cemetery Records, City of Forsyth Cemetery: "JABEZ D. STANFORD, BURIED CITY OF FORSYTH CEMETERY, Lot 13A (marker not inscribed), Co. K, 1 GA INF, CSA".]

The spelling of the surname varies widely in the records (Sheppard, Shepard, Shepperd, Sheperd, etc.), but family researchers indicate that "Shepperd" is correct.

Florence was the daughter of Andrew M. Shepperd (b. abt 1830, Kentucky, d. bef 1910, Georgia) and his wife Martha Permelia Watkins (b. abt 1835, Georgia, d. aft 1910, Georgia).

The 1860 census finds the family living in Monticello, Wayne, Kentucky. In 1870, 1880, 1900, and 1910, the Shepperds are living in Forsyth, Monroe, Georgia.

Children of Jabez David "J.B." Stanford and Florence K. Shepperd:

- i. Ellender "Elna" Stanford, born 16 Apr 1873, in Georgia, died between 1935 and 1945, in Polk County, Florida. She married Charles J. Wilson about 1900, in Florida. Charles J. Wilson was born about 1876, in Georgia, died after 1945, in Polk County, Florida.

Elna and C.J. had 1 child, Florence, born about 1921 in Polk County, Florida.

In 1910 and 1920, the family was living in Fort Meade, Polk, Florida. The 1935 Florida State Census finds the family living in Precinct 2, Polk, Florida, where Charlie is the owner of a service station.

Ellender evidently died before 1945 since the 1945 Florida State Census lists C.J. Wilson (69), living alone in Precinct 2, Polk, Florida.

Charlie was the son of L.G. Wilson (b. abt 1834, Georgia).

- ii. Annie Belle Lee Stanford, born Nov 1876, in Georgia, died 5 Apr 1921, in Thomasville, Thomas, Georgia, buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Thomasville, Thomas, Georgia. She married Troy Hill Fulford 7 Jun 1910, in Lakeland, Polk, Florida. Troy Hill Fulford was born 16 Oct 1882, in Georgia, died 1953, in Miami, Dade, Florida.

Annie and T.H. had two children.

- 323      iii. Ewell Otis Stanford, born 12 Jul 1878, in Georgia, died 24 May 1965, in Tampa,

There is some disagreement about Robert's correct middle name...most researchers indicate that it is Bernice, but some have found it to be Benjamin.

In the 1870 census, we find Robert (19) living on the farm of Lucius A. Luke in District 126, Columbia County, Georgia, working as "overseer".

The 1880 census finds R.B. (31), his wife Amanda (26) and their first child Ella (3) living in Columbia County, Georgia where he is a farmer.

The 1900 census record, which is very degraded, lists Robert B. (48), Phoebe A. (50), Julia (17), Mary D. (13), Mell (8), Jane (4), and Bernice (M, 2) living in Militia District 129, Appling, Columbia, Georgia.

Amada was the daughter of Edward Dorsey and Martha Stanford and, thus, was Robert's cousin.

Phoebe was daughter of James Thomas Flanigan and Mercy Alice Avary.

In 1880, at the age of 10, we find Phoebe, along with her sisters Idalia (7) and Madison (5), living with her grandmother Phoebe Avary (58), a widow, in Columbia County, Georgia. Phoebe Avary's will in 1886 left each child 100 acres.

After R.B.'s death, Phoebe moved to Atlanta and we find her listed in the 1910 census as Phoebe T. Stanford (38), Jennie E. (15), and Lois P. (9) living as boarders in the household of Jesse S. Snead in Atlanta Ward 1, Fulton, Georgia. At this time, she is employed as a matron in a "sanitorium".

The 1930 census finds Phoebe (59) living in Forsyth, Monroe, Georgia, working as a dietician at a college.

In 1956, at the time of her step-daughter Sarah Julia Stanford's death, Phoebe was living in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida (probably with one or both of her daughters). She died there in 1962.

Children of Robert Bernice Stanford and Amanda Ann "Annie" Dorsey:

- i. Ella Maude "Lizzie" Stanford, born Jan 1877, in Georgia, died 1932. She married James L. Lewis about 1899. James L. Lewis was born about 1874, in Georgia.

In 1900, the couple are found living in Republican, McDuffie, Georgia. This record includes James L. Lewis (26) and Ella M. (23).

- ii. Sarah Julia "Julia" Stanford, born 11 Jul 1881, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 4 Apr 1956, in Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia, buried in Marshall Baptist Church Cemetery, McDuffie County, Georgia.

Julia never married.

The following is her obituary from "The Augusta Chronicle", Augusta, Richmond, Georgia, Thursday, April 5, 1956:

"Miss Sarah J. Stanford

"THOMSON, Ga., April 4 - Miss Sarah Julia Stanford, 74, of Thomson, died at the McDuffie County Hospital.

"Born in Columbia County, Ga., she had resided in Thomson for about 55 years. She was a retired nurse and her parents were the late Annie Darsey and Robert B. Stanford. Interment was in the Marshall Baptist Church Cemetery.

"Survivors include a sister, Mrs. James L. Lewis of Thomson; two half-sisters, Mrs. L. J. King and Miss Lois Stanford, both of Tampa, Fla.; two half-brothers, R. M. Stanford of Atlanta and R. B. Stanford of Hammond, Ind.; and her step-mother, Mrs. Phoebe Flanigan Stanford of Tampa, Fla."

- iii. Mary D. Stanford, born 29 Nov 1886, in Georgia, died before 4 Apr 1956.

Mary is not mentioned as a survivor in Sarah Julia Stanford's obituary (5 Apr 1956).

Children of Robert Bernice Stanford and Phoebe Thomas Flanigan:

- i. Robert Mell Stanford, born 23 May 1892, in Georgia, died 18 Mar 1969, in DeKalb County, Georgia, buried in Lincolnton City Cemetery, Lincoln County, Georgia. He married Mae Harris Dec 1922, in Lincolnton, Georgia. Mae Harris was born 25 Jan 1887, in Georgia, died 24 Feb 1970, in Georgia, buried in Lincolnton City Cemetery, Lincoln County, Georgia.

In the 1900, Mell (8) was living with his parents in Militia District 129, Columbia, Georgia.

The 1910 census lists Mell Stanford (18) as an "inmate" at the Decatur Orphans Home in De Kalb County, Georgia, along with his brother Robert Bernice Stanford.

By 1917, when Mell registered for the WWI draft, he was single and living in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. He listed his occupation as "mfg. of optical goods".

In 1930, the census lists Robert M. Stanford (37, lens machinist, .....optical) living as a lodger in the house of Emily P. Brown in Chattanooga, Hamilton, Tennessee. Listed also is "Robbie Stanford" (39, female) born in New Jersey, whose father was born in Georgia.

The 1940 census lists the family living in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia and includes Robert Stanford (48, benchman, wholesale optical house) and Mae (50). Living with them is Robert's mother Phoebe Stanford (72, widow).

Mell was living in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia in at the time of his half-sister Sarah Julia Stanford's death in 1956.

- ii. Jamie Estelle Stanford, born 21 Dec 1894, in Appling, Columbia, Georgia, died 17 Sep 1994, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida, buried in Myrtle Hill Memorial Park, Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida. She married Leon Joseph King 8 Jun 1910, in Fulton County, Georgia. Leon Joseph King was born 4 May 1887, in Pinsk, Russia, died 27 Oct 1952, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida, buried in Myrtle Hill Memorial Park, Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida.

Jamie and Leon had 2 children.

In the 1930 census, the family was living in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia and Jamie's grandfather, James T. Flanigan (87), was living with them.

Jamie was living in Tampa, Florida at the time of her half-sister Sarah Julia Stanford's death in 1956.

Most records indicate that Leon was born in Pinsk, Russia on 4 May 1887. However, others indicate Leon was born on 4 May 1889 in Hartford, Hartford, Connecticut. The earlier date is used here, though the date of birth engraved on his gravestone is 1889.

Pinsk is a city in (now) southwest Belarus, close to the eastern border of modern Poland (about 200 miles due east of Warsaw). Founded in the 11th century, in 1320 Pinsk was incorporated into the Grand Duchy of Lithuania and in 1569, after the union of Lithuania with the Polish Kingdom, it became the seat of the province of Brest within the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth. Pinsk fell to the Russian Empire in 1793 as part of the Second Partition of Poland. Up until the Second World War and the Holocaust, Pinsk had a significant Jewish population: according to the Russian census of 1897, out of the total population of 28,400, Jews constituted 21,100 (approx. 74%), making it one of the most Jewish cities in Eastern Europe.

The first documented information we find for Leon is the "U.S. Army Register of Enlistments (1798-1914)," which records that he enlisted in the Army on 28 Jul 1908. His recorded age as 21 years and 2 months, indicating a birth in May of 1887. This record lists his place of birth as Pinsk, Russia and his civilian employment as "laborer." He was assigned to the 17th Infantry Regiment, Company G. This record states that he was discharged at San Antonio, Texas on 28 Jul 1911.

The 1910 census lists Leon J. King (23), born in Russian, as a soldier in the U.S. Army station at Fort McPherson, Black Hall District, Fulton, Georgia. In this record, he indicates that both parents were born in Germany.

On 21 Sep 1911, Leon Joseph King filed a "Petition for Naturalization" in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. In this record, Leon provided the following information:

1. He was born on 4 May 1887 in Pinsk, Russia. 2. He emigrated from Rotterdam, Holland on or about 15 July 1896, arriving in New York on 31 Jul 1896. He lists the name of the ship in which he arrived as the "Statendam." 3. He was married to Jamie Estelle Stanford, who was born in Appling, Georgia. 4. He had resided continuously in the U.S. since 31 Jul 1896 and in Georgia since 21 Jan 1908. 5. He was an honorably discharged soldier, enlisting on 29 Jul 1908 and being discharged on 28 Jul 1911 [information that matches Army records].

This petition was evidently approved in July 1912.

On 5 Jun 1917, Leon Joseph King registered for the WWI draft in Fulton County, Georgia. In this record, he listed his date and place of birth as 4 May 1887 in Pinsk, Russia. This record shows he is married, with two children under 12, and that he had served 3 years in the U.S. infantry.

No 1920 U.S. census record has yet been found.

In the 1930 census, the family was living in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia and Jamie's grandfather, James T. Flanigan (87), was living with them. This record lists Leon J. King (40, interior decorator, b. Connecticut, both parents b. Germany), Jamie (34, b. Georgia), Helen (18, b. Georgia), and Jack (16, b. Georgia).

No 1940 census record has yet been located.

The 1935 Rhode Island Census lists Leon J. King, b. 4 May 1889 in Connecticut, living in Cranston, Providence, Rhode Island with is wife Jamie (b. 21 Dec 1892). In this record, his employment is listed as "interior decorator."

In 1942, Leon Joseph King registered for the WWII draft in Providence County, Rhode Island. In this record, he lists his date and place of birth as 4 May 1887 and Pinsk, Russia. He stated that hes was a self-employed interior decorator in Woonsocket, Providence, Rhode Island.

Evidently, Leon and Jamie moved back and forth between Atlanta and Providence County, Rhode Island during the 1930s and 1940s several times. The Atlanta City Directory for 1924, 1928, 1929, 1942, 1943, and 1949 lists Leon and Jamie living in that city. However, the Providence City Directory for 1936, 1944, 1945, and 1949 lists Leon and Jamie living there. All directory listings indicate that Leon is an interior decorator.

The couple moved to Jacksonville, Duval, Florida and then to Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida after 1949 and before 1952 when Leon died and was buried at Tampa, as evidenced by the Florida Death Index, the SSDI, and Find-A-Grave.com.

Social Security records indicate that Leon Joseph King was born on 4 May 1889 in Hartford, Connecticut and thathe died on 27 Oct 1952 at the age of 63 in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida.

Allinall,Leon'soriginsremainamystery. The recorded information he provided about his birth place and date changed over time. Some information he provided in the 1911 naturalization petition also does to jive with know facts: for example, the S.S. Statendam was operated by the Holland-America line between Rotterdam and New York from August 1898 until 1911, making an 1896 date voyage on the Statendam, as described by Leon, impossible. No record of Leon Joseph King entering the U.S. through New York on any ship at any time has yet been found.

- 324    iii. Robert Bernice Stanford, Jr., born 13 Feb 1897, in Thompson, McDuffie, Georgia., died 24 Jan 1983, in Lake County, Indiana.
- iv. Lois Phoebe Stanford, born 14 Apr 1901, in Georgia, died 27 Oct 1976, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida, buried in Myrtle Hill Cemetery, Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida. She married John Benjamin Moody, Jr. 1928, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida. John Benjamin Moody, Jr. was born 22 Jul 1894, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida, died 1934, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida.

Lois and John had 1 child, a daughter Helen, born in 1930.

In the 1930 census, Lois S. Moody is living in Tampa, Hillsborough with her husband and family. John is listed as proprietor of an automobile parts store.

The 1945 Florida State census finds Lois S. Moody (44) living in Precinct 47, Hillsborough County, Florida with her daughter Helen (15) and stepson Ashby (24). She is working as a clerk and since John is not listed, it is probable that he died by this time.

Lois was living in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida at the time of her half-sister Sarah Julia Stanford's death in 1956.

This was John's second marriage...he married previously in about 1914 and had three children with his first wife, Eunice L. (b. abt 1893, Kentucky, d. 1926, Hillsborough County, Florida).

George was baptized about 1845 at the Baptist Church in Sweetwater, McDuffie, Georgia.

George Ray Stanford served with the "Hamilton Rangers" (Company K, 48th Georgia Infantry, CSA). This unit mustered from the Thomston, Columbia, Georgia vicinity. Most of the men were from southwest Columbia County (today's McDuffie County) and the panhandle area of Warren County. George was one of only 23 Hamilton Rangers, out of 131 who originally mustered, who answered the muster roll at Appomattox Court House.

The 1870 census finds the family living at Usrys Farm in Warren County, Georgia where George is a "farm hand". The census record includes George R. (40), Priscilla (30), John (12), George (10), Mary (8), William (6), and Henry (3).

His obit reported that the family moved to Montgomery County, Georgia about 1881. George died there and Priscilla received a widow's pension from the state of Georgia based on George's military service.

The following is George's obit from the MONTGOMERY MONITOR, Mount Vernon, Georgia, Thursday April 20, 1905:

"THE DEATH OF GEORGE R. STANFORD

"After an illness of a few weeks, Mr. George R. Stanford passed to his reward on Friday night last at his home near Mount Vernon. He had reached the ripe old age of 75 years in December last, and was well known as one of the oldest and most exemplary citizens of this section. He was a native of McDuffie County, and moved to Montgomery County about 24 years ago. His life was peaceful and uneventful and he enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his neighbors.

"He was a veteran of the war between the states, having given four years of his young manhood in the defense of Southern rights and principles.

"Sixty years ago he was baptized into the Baptist church at Sweetwater in McDuffie County, and remained a faithful member till the day of his death, his membership being with the church at Ailey.

"He leaves, beside his wife, four sons, George J., William R., Henry M., J. Ishmael Stanford, and one daughter, Miss Mary Stanford.

"The remains were interred on Sunday morning in the McGregor Cemetery at Mount Vernon, attended by a large number of friends and relatives. The solemn and impressive ceremonies of the funeral were conducted by Rev. J. D. Rabun, of Lyons, who preached a touching sermon, and paid a loving and tender tribute to the departed one. One by one the 'old guard' is passing over."

Children of George Ray Stanford and Priscilla E. A. C. Stanford:

- i. Nancy A. Stanford, born 17 Aug 1856, in Georgia.
- ii. John W. Stanford, born 7 Sep 1858, in Georgia, died 14 Mar 1863, in Georgia.
- 223 iii. George Jeremiah Stanford, born 27 Feb 1860, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 29 Jun 1945, in Montgomery County, Georgia.
- iv. Mary Cordelia Stanford, born 9 Sep 1862, in McDuffie County, Georgia, died 28 Nov 1925, in Mount Vernon, Montgomery, Georgia, buried in Mount Mernon Cemetery, Montgomery County, Georgia.

Mary never married.

- In the 1920 census, we find Miss Mary Stanford (52) living in Mount Vernon, Montgomery, Georgia next door to her brother James Ishmael Stanford.
- 224 v. William Ray "Willie" Stanford, born 7 Aug 1864, in McDuffie County, Georgia, died 11 Aug 1935, in Glenwood, Wheeler, Georgia.
  - 225 vi. Henry Merry Stanford, born 11 May 1865, in Georgia, died 18 Mar 1926, in Ailey, Montgomery, Georgia.
  - vii. Permalia (Permele) Stanford, born 26 May 1871, in Georgia.
  - viii. Ellen D. Stanford, born 14 Aug 1873, in Georgia.
  - 226 ix. James Ishmael Stanford, born 13 Mar 1875, in Georgia, died 28 May 1959, in Toombs County, Georgia.

In 1860, the census finds the brothers Jeremiah and Samuel Stanford living together and farming in Districts 8 and 10 (Eubanks), Columbia, Georgia. Later that year, Jeremiah married in Columbia county, Georgia.

Jeremiah Stanford served in the "Hamilton Rangers" (Company K, 48th Georgia Infantry, CSA). This unit mustered from the Thomson, Columbia, Georgia vicinity. Most of the men were from southwest Columbia County (today's McDuffie County) and the panhandle area of Warren County. Jeremiah is listed as Killed in Action at the Battle of Gettysburg.

Mary Alice was the daughter of John C. Lambert and Lavina Caroline Gray. The 1850 census lists this family living in Columbia County, Georgia.

After Jeremiah as killed at Gettysburg, Mary remarried to Eli Joseph Musgrove (b. abt 1848, Georgia, died abt 1898, Augusta, Richmond, Georgia). The 1880 census lists the family living in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia and includes Eli J. Musgrove (32, laborer), Mary A. Musgrove (39), and Henry A. Stanford (18, stepson).

In 1900, the census lists Mamie A. Musgrove (62, widow) living in Augusta Ward 3, Richmond, Georgia with her nephew and niece John J. Donohue and Mary J. Donohue.

Children of Jeremiah "Jerry" Stanford and Mary Alice Lambert:

- i. Henry A. Stanford, born about 1862, in Georgia, died about 1885, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

The "Augusta, Georgia, City Director" lists Henry A. Stanford living as a boarder at 36 Talcot Street in both 1881 and 1883. The 1883 entry lists him as a "train hand".

Henry's middle name may have been Aiken. If so, he is the "Aiken Stanford" that was accused of murder in McDuffie County, Georgia in 1879. He was tried and found not guilty. His death is attributed to a train accident in Atlanta while he was working as a brakeman for the railroad.

Montgomery was born 18 Oct 1838, in Georgia, died 17 Jan 1916, in Montgomery County, Georgia, buried in Sharpe Cemetery, Montgomery County, Georgia.

Anderson's middle name may have been William, but not substantiation of this has yet been found.

The 1850 Slave Census lists and A.W. Stanford living in Monroe County, Georgia and owning 13 slaves...obviously, he was prosperous.

Anderson served as a private in Company H, 22nd Regiment of the Georgia Volunteer Infantry, Warren County, CSA, enlisting on 31 Aug 1861. The unit roll for 28 Feb 1865 shows him "absent on detail".

The 1880 census finds the family living in District 202, Jones, Georgia and lists Anderson W. Stanford (43, working on railroad), Dellia (42), Laura V. (15), Jeremiah I. (12), and Georgia E. (10).

In the 1900 census, we find Anderson Stanford (63) and his wife Lillie (61) living with their daughter and son-in-law Virginia and Wilson F. Conner in Longpond, Montgomery, Georgia.

In 1901, A.W. applied for an Indigent Soldier's Pension based on his Civil War service. From this application, we learn his date and place of birth. In the application, he stated "I have trouble of the chest" and had not been able to do labor for the past 5 years. Support was provided by "son in law and daughter."

In 1910, Anderson (73) and Dilley (71) are living with their daughter and son-in-law Virginia and Wilson F. Conner in Longpond, Montgomery, Georgia.

The following is his obituary published in "The Montgomery Monitor", Mount Vernon, Montgomery, Georgia on Thursday, October 26, 1916:

"Death of Veteran A. W. Stanford

"Mr. A. W. Stanford, well known in this county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. F. Conner, at Beall, Ga., Monday. His remains were returned to this county and laid away in the Sharp cemetery, south of Alston, Tuesday, the funeral rites being said by Rev. J. M. Davis.

"Mr. Stanford, born Dec. 26, 1836, was 80 years old. He was a native of Warren county, but had lived in Montgomery county for many years. Throughout the late war he was a soldier of the Confederacy, and since boyhood had been a member of the Baptist church. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. W. F. Conner and Mrs. Robert Thompson of Jeff Davis county, and a brother, Mr. J. D. Stanford of Tarrytown, besides other relatives in this county. One by one the old soldiers are called to their reward. Peace to them."

Children of Anderson W. Stanford and Dillie Montgomery:

- i. Laura Virginia Stanford, born Jun 1866, in Georgia, died after 1930, in Jeff

Davis County, Georgia. She married Wilson Frank Conner about 1886, in Montgomery County, Georgia. Wilson Frank Conner was born 7 Jun 1861, in Montgomery County, Georgia, died 3 May 1945, in Jeff Davis County, Georgia.

Virginia and Frank had five children.

According to his obituary, Anderson W. Stanford, Virginia's father died at the Connor home in Talbot County, Georgia in 1916.

In 1930, Virginia and Wilson were living in Ocmulgee, Jeff Davis, Georgia.

Frank was the son of James Cook Conner (b. 1830, Montgomery County, Georgia) and Carolina C. Sharpe (b. 1830, probably Tattnall County, Georgia).

- ii. Samuel Jeremiah Stanford, born 22 Dec 1867, in Montgomery County, Georgia, died 11 Dec 1893, in Montgomery County, Georgia, buried in Darley or Calhoun Cemetery, Montgomery County, Georgia.

This child seems to have been named for two of his father's brothers, both of whom were killed the same day at the Battle of Gettysburg.

Jeremiah's grave marker is very eroded and his date of death may be 1898...the last number on the marker may be a "3" or an "8."

- iii. Georgia E. Stanford, born 3 Mar 1870, in Georgia, died 24 Feb 1947, in Jeff Davis County, Georgia, buried in Sharpe Cemetery, Toombs County, Georgia. She married Robert Thompson 29 Sep 1892, in Montgomery County, Georgia. Robert Thompson was born 28 Oct 1868, in Georgia, died 19 Oct 1926, in Jeff Davis County, Georgia, buried in Sharpe Cemetery, Toombs County, Georgia.

John served as a private in Co. H, 22nd Regiment of the Georgia Volunteer Infantry, Warren County, CSA. He enlisted on 31 Aug 1861 and surrendered with Lee at Appomattox Court House, Virginia on 9 Apr 1865. He received a pension for his service while living in Montgomery County, Georgia.

After John married, the family relocated to Washington County, Georgia, where they are listed in the 1870 census (Family 163), living next door to his father's house. The 1870 census also lists Will Tully (age 10), Emily Tully (age 9), and David McGahee (age 14) living in the household. The Tully children listed are Elizabeth's from her previous marriage.

After Elizabeth's death in 1872, John remarried in 1875 and the family moved to Montgomery County, Georgia, where John's brothers George R. and Anderson W. had already settled.

They moved to Warren County, Georgia before 1880, since the 1880 census lists the family in Warrenton, Warren, Georgia and includes J.D. Stanford (35, R.R. Hand), Georgia (26), Lillie (12), Bessy (4), Leonidas (2), and Anderson (2/12).

In 1900, the family is listed back in District 1386 (Zaidee), Montgomery County, Georgia. This record includes John D. Stanford (47, carpenter, house), Georgia(45), John (17), Leslie (15), Colon (13), Emma (7), Estell (6), Samuel (2), and Clinton (2/12).

The 1910 census lists John D. Stanford (65) as a widower living with his son Anderson William in Soperton, Montgomery, Georgia, along with two other of his children, Stella (16) and Samuel (15). There is a second 1910 census record that lists John D. Stanford (65, widower) living with his daughter Lilly and her husband David O. Colhom [Calhoun] in Tarrytown, Montgomery, Georgia, along with his children Colon (23), Eunice (17), and Sam (12).

Elizabeth was the widow living in Columbia County, Georgia, with two children (William Tully, b. 1860, and Emily Tully, b. 1862) when she and John married. Her first husband was James W. Tully, whom she married on 14 Dec 1858 in Columbia County, Georgia. James died of smallpox at Fort Delaware, Delaware as a prisoner during the Civil War on 9 July 1864.

Eliza died of "congestive lungs" in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.

Children of John David Stanford and Elizabeth Frances "Eliza" Balis:

- i. Lillie Balis Stanford, born 29 Aug 1867, in Georgia, died 1 Feb 1933, in Tarrytown, Montgomery, Georgia, buried in Tarrytown Cemetery, Tarrytown, Montgomery, Georgia. She married Daniel O. Calhoun 6 Mar 1884, in Montgomery County, Georgia. Daniel O. Calhoun was born 19 Jun 1861, in Georgia, died 26 Nov 1943, in Montgomery County, Georgia, buried in Tarrytown Cemetery, Tarrytown, Montgomery, Georgia.

The couple had 5 sons and 3 daughters.

The following is taken from her obituary, published 3 Feb 1933 in "The Soperton News", Superton, Treutlen, Georgia:

"Mrs. Calhoun had been in ill health for a number of months, and while her death had been expected for some time, her going was none the less a great shock to her family.

"Mrs. Calhoun was a member of a large and prominent family in this section and was a great grand-daughter of the late Rev. Daniel Marshall, founder of the first Baptist church in Georgia, the Kiokee Baptist church in Columbia county. She was an active church member, being a member of the Tarrytown Baptist church. She was also outstanding in school and civic work in her community. She was the daughter of the late J. D. and Mrs. Fannie Stanford."

Daniel was the son of James Irvin Calhoun (1827-1911) and Nancy Ann Clarissa Connell (1833-1909).

Children of John David Stanford and Eunice Georgia Walker:

- i. Bessy E. Stanford, born 3 May 1876, in Georgia, died 29 Sep 1934, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida, buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida. She married John Frank Kitchens 14 Oct 1896, in Montgomery County, Georgia. John Frank Kitchens was born 5 Sep 1881, in Georgia, died 17 Feb 1936, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida, buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida.

Bessie and John had 5 children.

In 1900, the census finds the family living in Montgomery County, Georgia.

Sometime after 1920, the family moved to Florida where, in 1930, they are found living in Belmont Heights, Hillsborough, Florida.

John was the son of Benjamin A. Kitchens (b. 1840, Warren County, Georgia, d. 1908, Glascock County, Georgia) and Amy Miranda Harrison (b. 1841, Warren County, Georgia, d. 1907, Glascock County, Georgia).

- 325 ii. Leonidas Benjamin "Lee" Stanford, born 3 Jun 1878, in Georgia, died 27 Oct 1957, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia.

- 330      vii.    Clinton Millard Stanford, born 27 Mar 1891, in Montgomery County, Georgia, died 27 Oct 1964, in Saratoga, Santa Clara, California.
- viii.    Georgia Eunice "Bessy" Stanford, born 23 Aug 1892, in Montgomery County, Georgia, died 18 Apr 1979, in Mershon, Pierce, Georgia, buried in Harmony Baptist Church Cemetery, Soperton, Treutlen, Georgia. She married Primus J. Kitchens 1911, in Montgomery County, Georgia. Primus J. Kitchens was born about 1892, in Georgia, died 1930, in Jeff Davis County, Georgia.

The 1910 census lists Eunice living with her step-sister Lillie's family in Montgomery County, Georgia.

In 1920, the census finds Georgia E. Kitchens (27) and her husband Primus J. Kitchens (28) living in Denton, Jeff Davis, Georgia and in 1930 the census finds them living in Whitehead, Jeff Davis, Georgia.

Sometime after Primus' death in 1930, Eunice moved to Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida. The Florida State Census lists Eunice Kitchens (42, cigar maker) and her son P.J. (14) living in Precinct 69, Hillsborough, Florida in 1935.

Eunice moved back to Georgia in 1969 and lived with her daughter in Mershon, Pierce, Georgia, where she died at the Pierce County Hospital.

- ix.    Estell "Stella" Stanford, born 28 Feb 1894, in Montgomery County, Georgia, died 13 Mar 1963, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida, buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida. She married James Manuel Hankinson. James Manuel Hankinson was born 26 Apr 1902, in Georgia, died 16 Mar 1979, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida, buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida.

The 1910 census lists Estell living with Anderson's family in Montgomery County, Georgia.

In 1945, the Florida State Census finds Stella and Manuel Hankinson living in Precinct 56, Hillsborough, Florida.

- 331      x.    Samuel Walter Stanford, born 23 Oct 1898, in Montgomery County, Georgia, died 16 Dec 1970, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia.

There is some confusion about Bill's middle initial. Some records (including his marriage record) show it as "S", while others (including his Civil War pension application) indicate it to be "A". Also, we don't know his exact date of birth...various census records indicate he was born in 1838, 1841, 1845, or 1848. His age of 5 in the 1850 census indicates that abt. 1845 is the more correct date.

According to his 1904 application for an Indigent Soldier's Pension, Bill served 2 years in Estes' Company, 26th Regiment of Georgia Volunteers, Calvary, enlisting on 12 Sep 1863 and serving until the surrender in April 1865.

In the 1870 census, the family is living in District 10, Meriwether, Georgia. The census record includes William Stanford (22, farmer), Mary (35), Sarah (12), Antionette (10), William (4), and Ellen (2). Sarah and Antionette are listed with the surname Stanford, but from the 1880 census we know their birth surname is Boyd.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Meriwether County, Georgia and lists William Stanford (35, farmer), Mary A.F. (47), William A. (13), John P. (8), and Henry G. (6). Living with the family is Sarah A.F. Boyd (22), Mary's daughter by her previous marriage, and Susannah (89), Mary's mother.

In 1900, the census lists W.S. Stanford (62) living in Midway, Meriwether, Georgia with his second wife Sarah (36) and children William (32, listed as "son by first wife"), Mary (5), and Annie (1-7/12). Sarah apparently was William's step-daughter Sarah Anne F. Boyd. There is a marriage record for William Stanford and Sarah Ann Boyd in Meriwether County, Georgia, dated 26 May 1895.

In 1904, Bill applied for an Indigent Soldier's Pension due to "diservice of the right leg" and "general disability". He lists his year of birth as 1839.

The 1910 census finds the family living in Banning, Carroll, Georgia and lists William Stanford (69), Sara A. Stanford (46), Marry L. (15), and Annie L. (12). Sara, Mary, and Annie are all working in a hosiery mill.

Mary was the daughter of Samuel Thomas Clark and Susannah Masters.

This was Mary's second marriage...she married A.J. Boyd on 8 Aug 1850 and had two children, Sarah Anne F. Boyd, b. abt 1858, Georgia and Amelia Antoinette Boyd (1861-1938) . These children appear in the 1870 census with the Stanford surname in error.

The census record for 1920 shows Sarah Stanford, William's second wife, living in Alvaton, Meriwether, Georgia. At the time, Henry (49, Sarah's stepson) was staying with his stepmother.

In 1937, Mary Ann applied for (and was awarded) a Widow's Pension based on William's Civil War service record. From this application, we learn her date and place of birth, her husband's date of death, and the specifics of her marriage.

Children of William S. "Bill" Stanford and Mary Anne F. Clark:

- i. William S. Stanford, Jr., born between 1866 and 1868, in Georgia, died after 1910, in Georgia. He married Josephina "Josie" Folds 15 Nov 1901, in Coweta County, Georgia. Josephina "Josie" Folds was born about 1866, in Heard County, Georgia, died after 1910, in Georgia.

In various census records, William's middle initial is listed as A, I, and S. We don't know which of these (if any) is correct.

The 1910 census lists William S. Stanford (42, farmer) living in Militia District 806, Coweta, Georgia with his wife Josie (42) and stepsons William J. Morgan (17) and Joseph J. Morgan (15). Evidently, William and Josie had no children.

Josephina was the daughter of William W. Folds (1804-1870) and Frances J. Golden (1827-1897).

This was Josie's second marriage. She married Joseph C. Morgan on 6 Mar 1892 in Carroll County, Georgia. Evidently, Morgan died about 1900.

- ii. Ellen Stanford, born about 1868, in Georgia, died before 1880, in Georgia.

Ellen (age 2) appears in the 1870 census, but does not appear in 1880 or thereafter. It is assumed that she died prior to 1880.

- 332 iii. John P. Stanford, born 5 Jul 1868, in Meriwether County, Georgia, died 24 Jun 1926, in Newnan, Coweta, Georgia.
- 333 iv. Henry Stanford, born Jan 1876, in Meriwether County, Georgia, died after 1910, in Georgia.

Children of William S. "Bill" Stanford and Sarah Ann M. Boyd:

- i. Mary Lizzie Stanford, born Apr 1895, in Meriwether County, Georgia, died 14 Jul 1922, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. She married J. Theophilous Lynch 8 Mar 1914, in Coweta County, Georgia.
- ii. Annie L. Stanford, born Dec 1898, in Meriwether County, Georgia. She married William Watts 20 Jun 1915, in Coweta County, Georgia.

151. He married Maria Elizabeth Autry about 1868, in Texas. Maria Elizabeth Autry was born 8 Dec 1842, in Indiana, died 8 Feb 1906, in Palo Pinto County, Texas, buried in Staggs Prairie Cemetery, Mineral Wells, Palo Pinto, Texas.

Some researcher's indicate that William's middle name was Mattison.

William's gravestone indicates that he served in Company D, 5th Regiment, Georgia Infantry, CSA during the Civil War. After the war, William moved to Texas.

In 1870, the census finds the family living in Precinct 1, Hill, Texas and lists William Stanford (24, farming), Elizabeth (28), and Mary J. (10/12).

The 1880 census lists the family living in Hill County, Texas and includes William W. Stanford (34, farmer), Marion (38), Mollie (18), Dollie E. (8), Mellie N. (6), Sallie N. (3), and Mensie (1).

Evidently, sometime after 1880, the family moved to Palo Pinto County, Texas, moving to Young County, Texas before 1910.

The 1910 census finds William M. Stanford (64, farmer) living with his two daughters Missie E. (31) and Sallie F. (33) in Justice Precinct 4, Young, Texas.

In 1920, the census lists W.M. Stanford (73) and his daughter S.F. [Sallie] (42) living in Graham, Young, Texas.

The 1930 census finds William M. Stanford (84, lawn man, cemetery) living in Graham, Young, Texas. Living with him is daughter Sallie Heath (52) and son-in-law Ealie Heath (62).

There is a Texas death record for Mrs. W.M. Stanford who died on 8 Feb 1906 in Palo Pinto County, Texas. Her gravestone is engraved "Maria E. Stanford".

Children of William Madison Stanford and Maria Elizabeth Autry:

- i. Mary Evaline "Mollie" Stanford, born 22 Sep 1869, in Peoria, Hill, Texas, died 26 Oct 1960, in Texas, buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Graham, Young, Texas. She married (1) John R. Bryant Feb 1888, in Texas. John R. Bryant died before 1892, in Texas. She married (2) Samuel Thomas Moreland 24 Nov 1892, in Hillsboro, Hill, Texas. Samuel Thomas Moreland was born 14 Mar 1861, in Springfield, Greene, Missouri, died 2 Mar 1941, in Graham, Young, Texas, buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Graham, Young, Texas.

Mollie and Samuel Thomas Moreland had 8 children.

Samuel was the son of Rev. George William Moreland (1825-1900) and Maria Lucinda "Cynthia" Shinkle (1827-1891).

- ii. Dollie E. Stanford, born 13 Jul 1872, in Texas, died 15 Aug 1970, in Graham, Young, Texas, buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Graham, Young, Texas. She married Asa Clay Smith 1890 OR 1891, in Young County, Texas. Asa Clay Smith was born 1 Oct 1865, in Kansas, died 9 Jun 1935, in Graham, Young, Texas, buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Graham, Young, Texas.

In both 1920 and 1930, the census finds the Smith family living in Graham, Young, Texas.

Clay was the son of Archibald H Smith and Rachel Ann Dewey.

- iii. Mellie N. Stanford, born about 1874, in Texas.

Mellie may be a nickname for Melanie, Melinda, etc. As yet, no records for Mellie after 1880 have been located.

- iv. Sallie Flora Stanford, born 7 Jun 1877, in Hill County, Texas, died 15 Aug 1952, in Bryson, Jack, Texas, buried in Weatherford Cemetery, Weatherford, Parker, Texas. She married Ernest Elsie Heath 29 Mar 1923, in Texas. Ernest Elsie Heath was born 3 Jul 1867, in Illinois, died 9 Mar 1950, in Jacksboro, Jack, Texas, buried in Weatherford Cemetery, Weatherford, Parker, Texas.
- v. Missie E. Stanford, born about 1879, in Texas.

In all census records after 1870, Robert listed his place of birth as Alabama, despite the fact that he was born in Georgia. He moved to Alabama as his mother died, after 1870.

The 1880 census lists the family living in Franklin County, Alabama, the second house over from Robert's brother John and his wife Milly. This record lists Robert E. Stanford (20, farmer), Kitty C. (23), and Peter T. (2).

In 1900, the census lists the family living in Township 1, Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory [Oklahoma] and includes Robert E. Stanford (40, farmer), Reth (22, male), Calvin Nattie (16), Eller W. (14), Margret L. (11), Elbert C. (5). From this record, it appears that Kitty died sometime between 1894 and 1900. Based on the ages and places of birth of the children, it appears that the family moved from Alabama to Texas between 1889 and 1894, then to the Indian Territory before 1900.

The 1920 census lists Robert E. Stanford (59, widower, farmer) and his son Robert E. Jr. (18) living in Coyle, Murray, Oklahoma.

In 1930, the census finds the family living in Refugio, Refugio, Texas. This record includes Robert Stanford (70, cattle dealer) and his new wife Mary (60). Living with them is Arta Belle Carrell (17, b. Oklahoma), Mary's daughter from her previous marriage.

Mary married John L. Carrell about 1894...we don't know Mary's maiden name.

In 1920, Mary Carrell (54) is listed as a widow living in Seadrift, Calhoun, Texas with her daughter and son-in-law.

He married Josephine O. "Josie" Odum 25 Dec 1882, in Fulton County, Georgia. Josephine O. "Josie" Odum was born 12 Apr 1865, in Georgia, died 3 Aug 1960, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, buried in Westview Cemetery, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

Benjamin was a butcher when listed in the 1889-90 "Atlanta City Directory", but was listed as an engineer in the 1912 "Atlanta City Directory".

The 1900 census finds the family living in Atlanta Ward 4, Fulton, Georgia and lists Benjamin J. Stanford (40, meat cutter), Josaphine (36), David W. (16), Barto (15), Daniel A. (12), Henry L. (9), and Joseph P. (3).

His obituary in the "Atlanta Constitution" of 26 Aug 1913 listed his five sons as Dave, Bartow, Daniel, Henry, and Joseph:

Josephine was the daughter of John W. Odum and Rebecca Tucker.

Children of Benjamin J. Stanford and Josephine O. "Josie" Odum:

- 338      i.    John David Stanford, born 18 May 1883, in Georgia, died 1 Jan 1961, in Fulton County, Georgia.
          ii.    Bartow "Hap" Stanford, born 4 Dec 1885, in Georgia, died 2 May 1949, in Columbia, Richland, South Carolina.

Bartow is listed in the 1912 "Atlanta City Directory" as a clerk at the 201 Empire Building. He and his brother Henry live at the same address, 65 Gartrell.

Bartow's obit stated that he died in a private hospital in Columbia, Richland, South Carolina and that prior to his Columbia residence he was employed in Atlanta by Western Union for about 25 years. The obit also stated that his mother, Josie Stanford, was still living and that Daniel Stanford lived in Charleston, South Carolina. His other two brothers, both of Atlanta, were listed as David and Henry.

Evidently, Hap never married.

- 339      iii.    Daniel Asbury Stanford, born 18 Feb 1888, in Georgia, died 29 Oct 1956, in Buncombe County, North Carolina.
340      iv.    Henry Lee Stanford, born 3 May 1891, in DeKalb County, Georgia, died 16 Dec 1959, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

He married Alice May Pearce 18 Feb 1891, in Fulton County, Georgia. Alice May Pearce was born 26 Aug 1867, in Connecticut, died 6 Apr 1944, in Fulton County, Georgia.

James R. was a locomotive engineer and we find him in the 1900 census living in Atlanta Ward 2, Fulton, Georgia with his wife Alice M. (32 and born in CT) and children Elmer Virgil (b. 7 Nov 1892), Earl Pierce (b. 7 Nov 1892), and Ernest L. (b. Dec 1895).

After James' death, Alice married Christian C. Westerman about 1907 and the family is found living in Atlanta Ward 2, Fulton, Georgia in the 1910 census. Earl P and Elmer Stanford are 17 and Ernest L. Stanford is 14...all three are listed as Christian's step-children.

Alice was the daughter of James Russell Pearce (1847-1914) and Mary A. Smith (1848-1891).

Children of James Ray Stanford and Alice May Pearce:

On 5 Jun 1917, Ernest registered for the WWI draft in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. At the time, he was single and working as a stone cutter.

The 1920 census finds Ernest Stanford (24, regulator, gas stoves) and Mammie (22) living in Selma, Dallas, Alabama.

In 1930, the census finds the family in Atlanta, DeKalb, Georgia and lists Ernest L. Stanford (34, engineer, public utilities) and Mannie N. (30, stenographer, oil & gas co.)

Evidently, Earnest and Mannie had no children.

Mannie was he daughter of George F. Nuesse (18701934) and Amanda Cole (18691902). The 1910 census finds the family living in Midway, Meriwether, Georgia, with her father listed as a widower.

Mamie never remarried after Ernest's death.

Daniel (31) is found in the 1900 census living in Atlanta Ward 2, Fulton, Georgia with his wife I.M. (28) and children Eva M. (9) and O.C. (4).

The 1920 census finds the family living in Collins, Fulton, Georgia and lists Dan Stanford (51, machinist, planning mill) and Mary Stanford (50).

Daniel's death certificate indicates that he was a machinist. He died of apoplexy.

On Daniel's death certificate, her name is listed as "Maybelle".

Children of Daniel Marshall Stanford and Ida Maybelle Blocker:

- i. Evelyn M. "Eva" Stanford, born 12 Oct 1890, in Georgia, died 13 Dec 1924, in Bolton, Fulton, Georgia, buried in Liberty Hill Cemetery, Acworth, Cobb, Georgia. She married Chalmus Lawrence Cochran about 1917, in Georgia. Chalmus Lawrence Cochran was born 17 Feb 1892, in Buchanan, Georgia, died 1 Dec 1966, in Georgia, buried in Liberty Hill Cemetery, Acworth, Cobb, Georgia.

Chalmus was the son of James L. Cochran (1868 ) and his wife Mary (1874 ).

Sometime after Eva's death, Chalmus remarried to Lena Jane Dover (1895-1945).

On 15 Jul 1961, Olajane made a "Life Claim" for her SSA benefits.

Jesse was the son of George S. Swanson (1852-1927) and Shiolat Jane King (1854-1926).

- iii. Henry Hubert Stanford, born 1897, in DeKalb County, Georgia, died Oct 1901, in DeKalb County, Georgia, buried in Sylvester Cemetery, Atlanta, DeKalb, Georgia.

James E. Stanford served in Company K, 9th Georgia Volunteer Infantry Regiment ('Americus Volunteer Rifles') during the Civil War. He enlisted as a Private on 11 Jun 1862, was wounded and captured at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania on 3 Jul 1863, exchanged and surrendered at Appomattox, Virginia on 9 Apr 1864.

The 1870 census finds the family living in Americus, Sumter, Georgia and lists Embro Stanford (26, jailer), Bettie C. (25), and Anna (3/12).

On 25 Oct 1899, James Embro Stanford of Bibb County, Georgia was awarded and Indigent Soldier's Pension based on his "infirmity". The Pension Office noted that "other & further proofs of continued infirmity is wanted" and it appears the pension ended on 4 Dec 1899. From this record, we learn James' middle name. In his pension application, James stated he was born on August 12, 1842 at Centerville, Talbot, Georgia. At this time he indicated that he had "rheumatism and liver trouble contracted while he was in the Army." He was working as a night watchman.

In 1900, the census finds the family living in Militia District 481, Bibb, Georgia and lists James E. Stanford (57, carpenter), Margaret (47) and Henry H. (19, blacksmith).

According to a transcribed obit posted on Find A Grave, James died in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia while visiting his son Sam. However, at the time of his death, he was living in Bibb County, Georgia. This same transcribed obit lists his date of death as 26 Jul 1906, which appears to be a typo.

In 1919, Margaret applied for a Widow's Pension based on James' service during the Civil War. From this application, we learn James' date and place of death and the date and place of his marriage to Margaret.

Children of James Embro Stanford and Bettie C. LNU:

- i. Anna Stanford, born about 1869, in Georgia, died before 1908, in Georgia.

Anna is not mentioned in James' obit in 1908. Thus, it is assumed that she died by that date.

Children of James Embro Stanford and Margaret A. Haney:

- 344 i. Henry Samuel "Sam" Stanford, born 5 Jul 1880, in Georgia, died 20 Dec 1958, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

An 1865 Tax Assessment List for District 3 of Maryland lists that Thos. H. Stanford Jr. is assessed a $6.00 tax on his income and a $1.00 tax on his watch.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Baltimore, Maryland and lists Thos. H. Stanford (38, special agent, B&O R.R.) and Mary A. (38).

The 1890 Baltimore City Directory lists Thomas Stanford, Agent, living at 2019 Eutaw Place.

In 1900, the census lists Thomas H. Stanford (58, agent, railroad) living as a boarder in Manhattan, New York, New York. This record lists him as "married". Living with him is his son John H. Stanford (25, bookkeeper). Mary does not appear in this record...a separate census record lists Mary A. Stanford (58, boarding house keeper) living in Baltimore Ward 15, Baltimore, Maryland.

In 1900, the census lists Mary A. Stanford (58, boarding house keeper) living in Baltimore Ward 15, Baltimore, Maryland. Since she is not listed as a widow and we find Thomas living in New York in 1900, the couple appears to have separated before this date.

The 1910 census finds Mary A. Stanford (68, keeper, boarding house) living in Baltimore Ward 14, Baltimore, Maryland. Her son John H. Stanford (28, lawyer) is living with her.

Children of Thomas Harwood Stanford, Jr. and Mary A. LNU:

- 345      i.    John Harwood Stanford, born 15 Jun 1881, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland, died 1959, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland.

Margaret Sellman Wilson was born 18 Jun 1853, in Maryland, died 24 Dec 1922, in Summerville, Dorchester, South Carolina, buried in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. Cause of death: pneumonia resulting from influenza.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland and lists William W. Stanford (34, clerk at cotton scales) and Margaret (28). Living with the family is Thomas Stanford (75) and Florence Stanford (31), William's father and sister, and Guy Wilson (17) and Alan P. Wilson (8), evidently Margaret's brothers.

Sometime between 1887 and 1889, the family moved to Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Charleston Ward 6, Charleston, South Carolina and lists William W. Stanofr (54, salesman), Margaret S. (47), Howard N. (19), Maraget J. (12), Edgar W. (11), and Allen G. (5).

In 1910, the census lists the family in Charleston Ward 6, Charleston, South Carolna and includes William W. Stanford (63, manager, phosphates), Margaret S. (56), Margaret I. (22), and Alan G. (15). Living with the family is Florence R. Stanford (61), William's sister.

The 1920 census finds the family living in Summerville, Dorchester, South Carolina and lists William W. Stanford (73, manager, fertilizer co.), Margaret S. (67), and Margaret I. (32, nurse, private family).

Margaret was the daughter of Thomas Wilson and Margaret Sellman.

Children of William Wallace Stanford and Margaret Sellman Wilson:

- 346      i. Harwood McCulloch Stanford, born 24 Oct 1880, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland, died 5 Sep 1958, in Fort Lauderdale, Broward, Florida.
- ii. Margaret Inglehart Stanford, born 20 Sep 1887, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland, died 20 Sep 1945, in Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina. Cause of death: subarachnoid hemorrhage.

The 1930 census finds Margaret I. Stanford (43, public health nurse, department of health) living as a boarder in the household of George and Maryliese Jatho in Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina.

Margaret never married.

- iii. Edgar West Stanford, born 4 May 1889, in Charleston County, South Carolina, died 15 Apr 1962, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama. He married Vivien Hindley about 1926, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama. Vivien Hindley was born 15 Feb 1895, in St. Albans, Franklin, Vermont, died 1 Feb 1990, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama.

Edgar was an architect.

The 1910 census finds Edgar Stanford (20, draftsman) living as boarder in the Tardy household in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama.

On 5 Jun 1917, Edgar registered for the WWI draft in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama. At this time, he was single and worked as a draftsman for the Tennessee Coal, Iron, and Railroad Company.

The 1920 census finds Edgar W. Stanford (30, draftsman, architect) living as boarder in the household of Joseph A. and Mitlida M. Yates in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama. He was single at the time.

The 1920 Army Register lists Edgar West Stanford as a 2nd Lt. in Officers Reserve Corps.

In 1925, the Official National Guard Register lists Edgar W. Stanford as a Captain in the 31 Division Air Service, 106 Observation Squadron, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama.

The 1930 census lists Edgar W. Stanford (40, draftsman, architect) and Vivien H.

(33, secretary, bank) living in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama.

In 1940, the census finds E. W. Stanford (50, architect) and Vivian H. (44) living in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama.

Edgar evidently served on the Alabama Aviation Commission during WWII. The Alabama Archives contain two boxes of Edgar's correspondence related to the Commission, 1941-1944.

Since neither the 1930 or 1940 census records list any children, it appears that Edgar and Vivien had no children.

Vivien was the daughter of Howard Lister Hindley (1870-1943) and Mary Ella Caldwell (1872-1867)

- 347      iv. Alan Griffith Stanford, born 12 Jun 1894, in Charleston County, South Carolina, died 22 Jul 1961, in Atlanta, DeKalb, Georgia.

Richmond is listed in the 1840 census as Richmon. The middle initial "D" may have been for "Denton".

Richmond made the move from Georgia to Arkansas in 1849/1850, soon after marrying Susannah Cole. The 1850 census finds Richmond Stanford living with R.H. Douglas, Douglas Township, Arkansas County, Arkansas.

On 2 Jul 1860, Richmond purchased 40 acres in Polk County, Arkansas (Section 34, Twp 4-S, Range 32-W).

In 1870, the census lists the family in Valley, Madison, Arkansas and includes Richmond Stanford (40, farmer), Jane E. (39), Susan (20), Zacriah (17), George W. (16), Sarah P. (14), Mary J. (12), James (10), William N. (7), Dalvey (5), and Richmond (3).

On 30 Jun 1876, Richmond filed to homestead 120 acres in Madison County, Arkansas (Section 21, Twp 13-N, Range 26-W).

Family history states that the Richard's family developed malaria while in Arkansas and decided that Texas would be a more healthful climate. In 1878, they loaded all their household goods in one wagon and the family in a second and set out for Texas. Crossing the Red River at the Texas border, the household goods wagon overturned and sank...they lost everything, including the mules pulling the wagon. Shortly after, Susannah (the daughter) died of marlaria.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Precinct 3, Johnson, Texas and the record lists R. Stanford (54, farmer), E.J. (50), M.J. (20), D. (14), Fayett (11), and W.R. (17) [This appears to be an error and should be 7, based on a birth date of Mar 1872 from his gravestone].

Evidently, the family moved to Hood County, Texas before 1895.

Susannah evidently died soon after the move from Georgia to Arkansas.

Eliza Jane's maiden surname may have been Hilburn.

Children of Richmond D. Stanford and Susannah Cole:

- i. Susannah Stanford, born 1850, in Georgia, died about 1878, in Texas.

See the Delia Missouri Stanford entry for an account of Susannah's death.

Children of Richmond D. Stanford and Eliza Jane Hilburn:

- 348 i. Zachariah A. "Zack" Stanford, born 7 Mar 1852, in Georgia, died 19 Jun 1932, in Godley, Johnson, Texas.
- 349 ii. George Washington Stanford, born 27 Feb 1854, in Georgia, died 7 May 1908, in Roby, Fisher, Texas.
- iii. Sarah Phoebe Stanford, born about 1856, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 2 May 1910, in Hood County, Texas. She married Wilson Gardner Kelly about 1873, in Hood County, Texas. Wilson Gardner Kelly was born 5 Feb 1851, in Perry, Tennessee, died 19 Aug 1940, in Tolar, Hood, Texas.

Sarah and Wilson had 10 children.

Wilson was the son of John Pleasant Kelly (1816-1895) and Sarah Jane Anderson (1915-1888).

- iv. Mary Jane Stanford, born 27 Sep 1858, in Arkansas, died 2 Dec 1919, in Jack County, Texas. She married John Henry McKelvy about 1880, in Arkansas. John Henry McKelvy was born 26 Dec 1857, in Tallapoosa County, Alabama, died 23 Jul 1934, in Jack County, Texas.

Mary Jane and John had two children.

The 1910 census lists the family living in Precinct 8, Jack, Texas and lists John H.

McKelvey (52, farmer), Mary Jane (50), Lula M. (26), and Ruthie B.(13).

John was the son of William H. McKelvy (1818-1897) and Sarah Ann Adair (1826-1900).

- 350      v.    James Alfred Stanford, born 12 Feb 1861, in Arkansas, died 13 Jul 1937, in Waco, McLennan, Texas.
- vi.    Delia Missouri Stanford, born 27 Jul 1865, in Arkansas, died 11 Aug 1935, in Palo Pinto County, Texas, buried in Grantham Cemetery, Salesville, Palo Pinto, Texas. She married Elbert Columbus "Lum" Morris 15 Dec 1887, in Cleburne, Johnson, Texas. Elbert Columbus "Lum" Morris was born 15 Oct 1852, in Smithville, Mississippi, died 17 Feb 1942, in Palo Pinto County, Texas, buried in Grantham Cemetery, Salesville, Palo Pinto, Texas.

The following is excerpted from a letter from Dessie Bell Morris, a daughter of Delia, to JoAnn Brand, dated August 1972:

"Your maternal great, great grandmother and great, great grandfather were making their home in Ozark, Arkansas in the early 1800's. They were Richmon D. Stanford (1824) and Eliza Jane Stanford (1828). Their children were: Suzannah (1850), Zachariah (1853), George Washington (1854), Sarah Phoebe (1856), Mary Jane (1858), James Alford (1861), William (1863) [actually, 1872], Missouri de Alpha (1865), Richard Lafayette (1868).

"Of the children, Missouri de Alpha (better known as Delia) was destined to be my mother and your great grandmother.

"About 1878 the Stanford children began to have chills. The father was told that Texas had a much more healthful climate. Then, no one had ever learned that malaria was caused by the bite of a certain kind of mosquito. They blamed the climate on most ailments.

"The father loaded his family and household goods in two oxen drawn wagons and headed for Texas. That was before bridges had been built. The Red River had to be crossed to get to Texas and the only way was to ford the river. In mid-stream the wagon loaded with the household belongings began to go down in quick sand. The driver managed to swim to the other wagon. The Stanford family was sorry to lose their furniture and other supplies, but they were thankful that no lives had been lost. Soon after arriving in Texas, Suzannah died of malaria and was buried somewhere along the way.

"The family settled in Hood County near a little community named Acton."

Delia and Elbert had 7 children (including two sets of twins).

- vii. Richmond Lafayette Stanford, born about 1868, in Arkansas.
- viii. William A. Stanford, born Mar 1872, in Arkansas, died 6 Aug 1895, in Hood County, Texas, buried in Rock Creek Cemetery, Tolar, Hood, Texas.

The 1880 census record lists him as "W.R. Stanford".

His gravestone is engraved with a "K of P" shield, indicating membership in the Knights of Pythias, a fraternal organization and secret society founded at Washington, DC, on 19 February 1864. The Knights of Pythias was the first fraternal organization to receive a charter under an act of the United States Congress. It was founded by Justus H. Rathbone, who had been inspired by a play by the Irish poet John Banim about the legend of Damon and Pythias. This legend illustrates the ideals of loyalty, honor and friendship that are central to the order.

A.J. evidently moved to Texas in the mid-1850s. In 1857, he patented a 160-acre ranch in Burnet County, Texas.

The 1860 census finds the family living in Burnet County, Texas and lists A.J. (33), Caroline (32), John F. (10), Rebeca (8), A.J. (6), and Fred L. (3).

In 1870, the family is living near Austin in Travis County, Texas and the census records Andrew (44), Eliza (22), Frederick (13), and Martha [Mintie] (1).

The 1880 census lists the family in Travis County, Texas as Andrew (53), Eliza (30), Mintie (11), Wesley (8), Crockett (6), Sandy (5), Ida (3), and twins Pearl [Peary] and Palm [E.P.] (3M).

According to the "Texas Handbook", the town of Volente, Travis, Texas is at the intersection of Lake Travis Road and Farm Road 2769, eighteen miles northwest of Austin. A post office was established at Volente in 1886 with Andrew J. Stanford as postmaster.

In 1900, the census finds Andrew (73) living with Eliza (50) in Justice Precinct 3, Williamson, Texas. The only child living at home is Tealy (17). Andrew's son Albert (27) and his family live two houses over and are listed in the same census.

His gravestone is inscribed "Father Jack" and is inscribed with the Masonic symbol, indicating that he was a Mason.

Sandy Low Stanford dictated "Remembrances of My Father" that was read at the Stanford Family Reunion on June 27, 1942. The following is the transcription of that text:

"In the northwestern part of Georgia in the year Feb. 22, 1827, was born Andrew Jackson Stanford who became my father and also the father of some of you gathered here and the Grandfather and Great Grandfather of many more of you.

"In his boyhood and young manhood he worked with pick and shovel in the gold mines of his native state, extracting gold by the method in use in that day--the process of elimination by washing. He was a very, very stoop-shouldered man brought on by this excessive hard toil.

"In about 1850 or 1852 he and his family together with about forty other families set out for the wonderful land of Texas. As I recall it he said they were on the road about six months. Of course the roads then were not what they are today by almost one hundred per cent, many places no roads at all.

His mode of travel was a one-ox cart which his wife (the mother of our beloved half brother Fred Stanford) drove the cart which he traveled through the country adjacent to the route on foot peddling a soap recipe he had which he traded for corn, bacon, lard, or anything he could get. Thus when he arrived in Texas he was $40.00 better off than when he left Georgia.

"He settled first in east Texas near Marshall at New Era in Upsher County. I have in my possession a demit from some kind of a temperance organization dated Oct. 4, 1854 made out to my father with is signature on the margin, of which I am very proud.

"After living in East Texas a few years, on account of so much malaria they decided to go West. About that time a man came by telling of the wonderful things of Burnet county. So my father traded his place there, sight-unseen, for a place in Burnet County, supposed to be in Hamilton Valley on the Colorado River. They set out again to move west, arriving in Burnet county after a long hard trip through an almost trackless and roadless country. When they located their land, in place of being in the Hamilton, Valley on the Colorado River, it was on top of the Cedar Mountains west of Burnet. In that far off day the land was absolutely without value, in fact, he traded it off for a crippled mule. So they were many hundreds of miles from their old home in Georgia, absolutely stranded. They began to look about for something to do to make a living.

"He and a brother-in-law, Uncle Len Rodgers, who had very recently arrived from Georgia, hired to Noah Smithwick to make cypress shingles, something they had never seen, much less made. On Monday, Smithwick sent them with a camping outfit several miles from home, saying that he would come out about Friday to see how they were doing. To say they had a hard time that first week was putting it mildly. Not knowing one thing on earth about making shingles, Uncle Len wanted to give up, thinking they weren't doing it right. Father, with his determination and resourcefulness, said "No, we'll stay on and try 'til Smithwick comes". So when he arrived on Friday afternoon and inspected their shingle-making he said, "Fine, boys, you are doing it just right." Thus encouraged they did lots of work for Mr. Smithwick.

"My father, with pick and shovel dug the mill seat for the first Smithwick Mill on the Colorado. This must have been prior to the Civil War. When the Civil War came on our father got into dangerous trouble because of his views regarding secession. A mob came to his home one night and took him away and wanted to mob him. Cooler heads in the bunch, prominent among them was Captain Dorbant, prevailed on the crowd to give Jack Stanford a chance to explain his situation and prove his loyalty, which he gladly did. Had it not been for Capt. Dorbant no doubt the Stanford Reunion would not be in session today. After that they slipped up to his home and tried to shoot him while he and his family were eating supper by lamp light. Fortunately the gun snapped, father heard it and immediately blew out the light.

"Burnet County being a frontier county, he was made an Indian Scout during the war having to give a certain per cent of his time scouting for Indians. He owned a tread-power thresher during the war, this being the first thresher in Burnet County, threshing grain over a large territory. Once during the threshing season while he was away from the machine over the week-end the Indians came in and stole all his horses from the thresher, about ten in number. Men in the neighborhood gave chase recovering three or four head, however, Father said they never were any more account, having been run to death.

"Shortly after the close of the Civil War his wife, the mother of John, Rebecca, and Fred, passed on to a better world being a victim of the great white plague, TB. After that Father married Elizabeth Cherry Harris our beloved mother. Soon after that they sold out in Burnet County and moved to Travis County, where we all were all born and grew up. The hardships, trials and disadvantages of that day and time are unknown to the youngsters of today.

"In about 1893 Father sold out the farm in Travis County and moved to Liberty Hill. Just 42 years ago last Saturday (July 20, 1900) Father passed on to better world. Our dear mother lived on until May of 1934. Thus came to a close the lives of three people that was the sturdy pioneer stock from which we all came.

"Lovingly S. L. Stanford"

Caroline was the daughter of William Rogers and Mary Julia Cooke.

Caroline is buried at the Smithwick Cemetery in Burnet County, Texas. The history of this community cemetery dates to 1854 when 18-year-old Rebecca Chambers died and was buried there. Rebecca, who reportedly was ill while traveling past there with the family of her sister and brother-in-law, Nancy and E. G. Evans, asked to be buried on this flower-covered hillside. While the land was vacant public domain several other burials took place. There are about 65 early graves marked only by rocks. The cemetery site became part of the 160-acre survey of Andrew Jackson Stanford and was patented in 1857. The burial grounds were used by early settlers of Hickory Creek, Elm Grove, and Smithwick's Mill.

Eliza was the daughter of Joel Arthur Harris (1822-1907) and Milly Ann Ruth Cherry (1825-1871).

Margeret and Gustavus had one son.

Based on the 1910 census, it appears that Margaret and Gus had divorced by that time and Gus had remarried.

Gus was the son of Frederick L. Bannowsky and Angusta Matschke . The family moved from Germany about 1850.

Gus was a farmer.

Frances was living at home with his mother Susan in Division 11, Carroll, Georgia in 1850. F.M. Stanford appears in the 1853 tax list of Carroll County, Georgia.

The 1860 census shows that Francis Marion Stanford was living in Haralson County, Georgia (part of which was formed from Carroll County, Georgia in 1856). The census record includes Marion Stanford (28), Dilelann (26), Greenbury (10), Martha J. (6), Sara S. (4), Mary E. (4), Texamer (2), and Emeline (5/12).

Francis Marion Stanford joined the 7th Regiment, Georgia Infantry, Company C, "Paulding Volunteers", 7th Georgia Regiment, CSA, in 1861. He enlisted in Dallas, Georgia on 17 Aug 1861. He was sent to the hospital in Front Royal, Virginia on 8 Feb 1862 and records indicate that he was still there in June, 1862. One record shows him being discharged on 1 Sep 1862, while another record shows his discharge date as 16 Jul 1862. A register of the CSA General Hospital at Danville, Virginia shows him being discharged on 9 Jul 1862 after being treated for "debilitis", chronic dysentery or diarrhea.

The family moved to Iowa in 1863 or 1864, to Missouri about 1868/1869, and then to Texas in 1869/1870. Evidently, the family first settled in Wise County, Texas, as evidenced by the Confederate Pension Application No. 07740 filed by Francis Marion from that county.

In 1870, the census finds the family living in Precinct 5, Dallas, Texas and lists Francis Stanford (40, farmer), Delia A. (37), Greenberry (17), Martha J. (15), Sarah S. (13), Mary E. (13), Texana (11), Emaline (9), Lucy A. (7), George S. (5), Austin Y. (3), and Lida B. (8/12).

The 1880 census finds the family in Precinct 3, Tarrant, Texas and the record includes Francis Stanford (49, farmer), Dollie A. (46), Emaline (20), Lucy A. (18), George S. (15), Austin Y. (12), Lida B. (10), Francis M. (8), Delila A. (6), and Richmon (2).

Research by Charles Maurice Stanford indicates that the family moved to Oklahoma until about 1900 before moving again to Wise County, Texas. The 1900 census finds the family living in Justice Precinct 4, Wise, Texas and includes Frances M. Stanford (68, farmer) and Delila A. (66). Living with them are Richmon D. Stanford (22, farmer) and his wife Ellin (16).

Mr. Stanford applied for a Confederate pension on June 27, 1900 while he lived at Opal in Wise County, Texas. He said he had lived at Opal for two years. He claimed to be sixty-nine years old and in bad health due to exposure during the War. He was a soldier in Co. C, 7th Georgia Infantry for fourteen months. He said he came to Texas about 1870. He owned two mules and a wagon, worth one hundred to one hundred ten dollars for the lot. The physician who examined him said he suffered from enlargement of the prostate gland, rheumatism, and another ailment which is not legible on the form.

The family moved to Tarrant County, Texas in the latter part of 1903 and then moved to Hall County, Texas in the company of his son Richmond D. Stanford.

In 1904, Frank was awarded a soldiers pension by the state of Arkansas for his Civil War service. At the time, he was living in Polk County, Arkansas (perhaps with one of his children). Sometime afterward, he moved back to Hall County, Texas where he died.

Frank died suddenly of a stroke while at home. His death certificate cites as a contributory cause another paralytic stroke about 1901 or 1902, during which he was injured.

Delila moved to Wise County, Texas in 1906.

On 11 Jan 1908, Delila (listed in the application as "Dilann") Stanford applied for a widow's pension in Texas on the basis of her husband's Civil War Service. In this application she stated that she was 74 years old, "quite feeble", and "not able to work".

Children of Francis Marion Stanford and Delila Ann "Dollie" McAdams:

- 360      i.    Greenberry "G.B." Stanford, born 7 Nov 1852, in Georgia, died 7 Jul 1904, in Texas.
- ii.    Martha Jane Stanford, born 29 Apr 1854, in Georgia, died 24 Apr 1899, in Headrick, Jackson, Oklahoma, buried in Navajo Cemetery, Friendship, Jackson, Oklahoma. She married James Monroe Ferris 24 Aug 1870, in Tarrant County, Texas. James Monroe Ferris was born 24 Aug 1849, in Dallas, Tarrant, Texas, died 16 Jan 1918, in Oklahoma.

Martha Jane and James had 13 children.

- iii. Mary Elender Stanford, born 17 Mar 1856, in Georgia, died 10 Apr 1911, in Tarrant County, Texas. She married William Augustos Swiney 28 Aug 1873, in Tarrant County, Texas.

Ferris was born 18 Aug 1856, in Dallas, Dallas, Texas, died 13 Oct 1906, in Euless, Tarrant, Texas, buried in Calloway Cemetery, Tarrant County, Texas.

Texana (Texanna) and Robert had 8 children.

Robert was the son of Warren Angus Ferris (1810-1873) and Sarah Francis Moore (1829-1869).

Robert married Cynthia Elizabeth Fuller on 1 Oct 1893 in Tarrant County, Texas.

- vi. Emmaline Narcisus "Narsisey" Stanford, born 11 Feb 1860, in Georgia, died 17 Dec 1934, in Parker County, Texas, buried in Union Grove (Jay Bird) Cemetery, Azle, Parker, Texas. She married Richard Sterling "Dick" Cox 9 Oct 1881, in Tarrant County, Texas. Richard Sterling "Dick" Cox was born 2 May 1854, in Knoxville, Knox, Tennessee, died 10 Jun 1932, in Azle, Parker, Texas, buried in Jaybird Cemetery, Azle, Parker, Texas.

The 1900 census for Parker County, Texas indicates that Emaline and Sterling had 8 children, 5 of whom were living.

Emaline is reportedly to have said that she came to Texas at age 9, walking beside the wagon because it was full.

- vii. Lucy Ann Mandy Stanford, born 6 Jan 1862, in Georgia, died Jan 1909, in Jackson County, Oklahoma. She married Arthur Alonzo "Lon" Edmonds 12 Sep 1880, in Tarrant County, Texas. Arthur Alonzo "Lon" Edmonds was born May 1850, in Illinois.

- xi.    Lida Blanch Stanford, born 10 Oct 1869, in Missouri. She married Thomas R. Parker about 1898, in Texas. Thomas R. Parker was born Mar 1854, in North Carolina.

This was, evidently, Thomas' second marriage.

The 1900 census lists Thomas R. Parker (45, farmer) and Lida B. (30) living in Holly Bend, Pope, Arkansas.

In 1910, the census finds the family living in Mena Ward 1, Polk, Arkansas and lists Thomas R. Parker (56, restaurant employee), Lida B. (40), Jesse K. (10), Ray A. (7), and Katie V. (5).

- 362    xii.    Francis Marion "Frank" Stanford, Jr., born 4 Mar 1872, in Tarrant County, Texas, died 29 Jun 1926, in Travis County, Texas.
- xiii.    Delila Ann "Dila" Stanford, born 29 Jan 1874, in Tarrant County, Texas, died 26 May 1949, in Tulare, Tulare, California, buried in Tulare Cemetery, Tulare, Tulare, California. She married (1) John Henry Brown 18 Dec 1895, in Chicota, Lamar, Texas. John Henry Brown was born 11 Dec 1869, in Princeton, Gibson, Indiana, died 15 Dec 1951, in Fresno, Fresno, California, buried in Tulare Cemetery, Tulare, Tulare, California. She married (2) John Allen Hudson 6 Oct 1889, in Miles, Runnels, Texas. John Allen Hudson was born 1 Aug 1865, in Travis County, Texas, died 5 Apr 1939, in San Angelo, Tom Green, Texas. They were divorced.

Delila and John Henry Brown lived in Texas until sometime between 1901 and 1905 when they moved to Oklahoma. The move to California was evidently made sometime in the 1930s.

- xiv.    Henry Washington Stanford, born 9 Apr 1876, in Texas, died 9 Apr 1876, in Texas.
- 363    xv.    Richmond Denton "R.D." Stanford, born 25 Feb 1878, in Tarrant County, Texas, died 19 Feb 1945, in San Francisco, San Francisco, California.

A John Stanford from Meriwether County, Georgia served in Company F, 55th Georgia Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War and a John C. Stanford served in Company C., 7th Georgia Volunteer Infantry raised in Paulding County. Which, if either, of these is our John is unknown, but both of these units ended the War in Virginia with Lee.

Based on an 1880 census of Fauquier County, Virginia, John's age and place of birth, and the common use of certain names, a somewhat tenuous case can be made that our John is the John C. Stanford who settled in Fauquier County, Virginia after the Civil War. John's middle name may have been "Coffey" as stated by a number of researchers, but the basis for this is yet unknown.

In 1880, the family was found living in Cedar Run, Fauquier, Virginia and the record included John Stanford (35, farmer), Isabella (35), Forrest M. (13), Hattie L. (10), Georgia (6), and John T. (3). In this record, John indicated that his father was born in Maryland, which fits for Joshua Tallie Stanford (although Susan, John's mother, was born in Georgia, not Virginia as indicated in the census). The ages for both John and Isabella in this record are incorrect...they would both have been about 41.

The 1900 census finds Isabella living with her son John Thomas Stanford and lists her as a widow. However, this may have been just "convention" since we know John was alive in 1900 as he remarried in 1901 and lived until 1908.

Isabella was the daughter of Thomas M. Lomax (b. abt 1802 in Fauquier County, Virginia) and Celia Jane Russell (b. abt 1805 in Fauquier County, Virginia).

This was Sue's second marriage. She had previously married a Hamm.

On 5 Feb 1935, Sue applied for a Widow's Pension on the basis of John C. Stanford's military service during the Civil War. This application contains no details of John's service, but does state that was receiving a pension from the State of Virginia at the time of his death in Goochland County, Virginia.

From this record, we learn Sue's birth year and the date and place of John's death.

Sue's gravestone is engraved Susan Hamm Irving.

Children of John C. Stanford and Isabella "Belle" Lomax:

- 364      i. Marion Forrest Stanford, born 15 Sep 1867, in Fauquier County, Virginia, died 1 Mar 1944, in Calverton, Fauquier, Virginia.
- ii. Hattie Lomax Stanford, born 9 Mar 1870, in Fauquier County, Virginia, died 29 Jan 1941, in Fauquier County, Virginia.

Hattie never married.

The 1910 census finds Hattie L. Stanford (28) living with her sister Georgia Belle Stanford Bloxton and brother-in-law Conway Peyton Stanford (30) in Washington, District of Columbia.

In the 1910 census, Hattie Stanford (38, farmer) is listed living in Cedar Run, Fauquier, Virginia. At this time, her nephew Roland Stanford (11) was living with her.

The 1920 census lists Hattie L. Stanford (49) living in Cedar Run, Fauquier, Virginia. Her nephew Shirley M. Stanford (23) is living with her at the time.

In 1930, Hattie L. Stanford (59, farmer) is living in Cedar Run, Fauquier, Virginia. Her brother John T. Stanford (51) is living with her.

The 1940 census lists the family living in Cedar Run, Fauquier, Virginia and includes Hattie L. Stanford (70, farmer), brother John T Stanford (60, farmer), and nephew Roland (41, farmer).

- iii. Georgia Belle Stanford, born 29 Nov 1873, in Fauquier County, Virginia, died 4 May 1913, in Merrifield, Fairfax, Virginia, buried in Calverton, Fauquier, Virginia. Conway Peyton Bloxton was born 2 Dec 1869, in Newport News, Warwick, Virginia, died 28 Mar 1952, in Wilmington, New Hanover, North Carolina, buried in Newport News, Warwick, Virginia.

Belle and Conway had 5 children.

Conway was the son of Alexander Bloxton and Ella Henry Conway.

- 365 iv. John Thomas Stanford, born 15 Jul 1877, in Fauquier County, Virginia, died 27 Feb 1945, in Virginia.

James moved with his parents to Texas on a wagon train in 1867, first settling in Trinity County as evidenced by divorce papers filed there from his first wife, Elizabeth.

James Wesley (34) is found on the 1880 census with his second wife Mary Eaves (44), of Louisiana, and their children William I. (11), Emma B. (7), M.D. (F, 4), and Lizzie May (2) in Robertson County, Texas. Joshua (80), his father, was living next door in the home of J.A. and Susannah Brantner Comer at that time.

In 1900, the census finds the family living in Justice Precinct 6, Limestone, Texas and the record includes James W. Stanford (53, farmer) and his son William (31). The record also includes three "adopted" children: Lee B. Williams (14), Noey Williams (13), and John H. Williams (11). At this time, James appears to be separated since no wife is listed in the census record.

Mary Elizabeth was the daughter of Abel Lewis Eaves (b. 1789, North Carolina) and Agnes Flood (b. 1794, Georgia).

This was Mary Elizabeth's second marriage: She married Robert Smith (b. 1817 in South Carolina) on 12 Apr 1857 in Newton County, Texas, with whom she had one son.

In 1900, Mary Stanford (60, widow) is living with the family of her daughter Elizabeth and son-in-law Levi Wilkinson in Madison County, Texas. Evidently, Mary and James had separated by this time.

Notes for family of James Wesley Stanford and Mary Elizabeth Eaves: This marriage ended by 1900.

Josephine was the daughter of Henry P. Cryer (b. Jul 1853, Texas) and Sophronia Gilley (b. Dec 1853, Alabama). She was the sister of Tafena Cryer Stanford, who married Lee Ben Stanford.

In 1910, the census finds Josey Stanford (23, widow) and her two children George (4), and Travis (3) living in Justice Precinct 3, Sabine, Texas with her parents. In the 1920 census, the children are still living with their grand parents, but Josie does not appear in the census record.

Notes for family of James Wesley Stanford and Elizabeth LNU: This marriage ended in divorce in 1867 in Sabine County, Texas.

Children of James Wesley Stanford and Mary Elizabeth Eaves:

John's birth surname was Williams. Sometime after being adopted by James and Mary Stanford, his surname was changed to Stanford.

According to his death certificate, John never married. This certificate indicates that his birth mother was Amanda Norwood. He was a retired machine oiler in the chemical industry.

Children of James Wesley Stanford and Josephine "Josie" Cryer:

In 1920, the census finds Travis Stanford (12) living with his maternal grandparents Henry P. Cryer (66) and S.A. Cryer (66) in Justice Precinct 8, Tyler, Texas. George's mother is not listed in this record.

The 1930 census lists James T. Stanford (23, mechanic, garage) living as a boarder in the household of Willis L. Amey (27, blacksmith), his wife Francis (20), and their 4 children in Precinct 8, Sabine, Texas.

This 1930 census lists James a "widower." However, no information on his first wife has yet been found.

The 1940 census finds the family living in Houston, Harris, Texas and lists James T. Stanford (32, electric welder, brick plant) and his wife Frances F. (31). This record includes 4 step children with the surname Amey. This census indicates that James and Frances lived in Sabine County, Texas in 1935.

On 24 Jan 1944, James T. Stanford enlisted in the U.S. Army in Houston, Harris, Texas. At the time, he was married and had completed grammar school. James served from 24 Jan 1944 until 25 Oct 1945.

Frances had been previously married to Willis Levi Amey. The 1930 census indicates that she was 13 when she married Willis.

The 1910 census lists Frances (2) as the daughter of Joe and Mary Hanzel, living in Sebastian County, Arkansas. By 1920, the family had moved to Texas and were living in Justice Precinct 3, San Augustine, Texas.

- v. Ola Mirtest (Myrtice) Stanford, born 6 May 1893, in Erath County, Texas, died 15 Mar 1979, in Big Spring, Howard, Texas, buried 17 Mar 1979, in Trinity Memorial Park, Big Spring, Howard, Texas. She married (1) Birt Daniel Webster about 1910, in Texas. Birt Daniel Webster was born 25 Nov 1889, in Groesbeck, Limestone, Texas, died 31 Oct 1985, in Bonham, Fannin, Texas, buried in Willow Wild Cemetery, Bonham, Fannin, Texas. They were divorced after 1940, in Texas. She married (2) Roy Moreman. They were divorced before 1959, in Texas.

Sometime after 1940, evidently Ola and Birt separated. In 1959, the City Directory for Beaumont, Texas lists Mrs. Ola Moreman living in the city, but no husband is listed, indicating that she and Roy had separated by this time.

Ola's death certificate indicates that she died of cardiovascular failure, to which malignant hypertension contributed. This record indicates that she was divorced at this time.

Birt was the son of Frank Milton Webster (1855-1939) and Ida Ceabelle Rodgers (1862-1929).

On 5 Jun 1917, Birt registered for the WWI draft in Limestone County, Texas. In this record, he spelled his first name "Birt" and listed his date and place of birth as 25 Nov 1889 in Groesbeck, Texas. He listed that he was married with two children at the time.

Both the SSDI and his gravestone indicates Birt's date of birth as 25 Nov 1888.

- vi. Ruth Elizabeth Stanford, born 22 Feb 1901, in Kosse, Limestone, Texas, died 28

Noah and Pernina settled in Caldwell County, Texas soon after their marriage and then moved to Limestone County, Texas in the 1880s or 1890s. Sometime before 1910, the family moved to Falls County, Texas.

In 1900, the census finds the family living in Justice Precinct 5, Limestone, Texas and includes N. Stanford (41, farmer), Perna (39), Johnie (14), Julia (12), Joshua (9), Tommie (7), Martha (5), and Charlie (3).

The 1910 census finds the family living in Justice Precinct 2, Falls, Texas and lists Noah Stanford (50, farmer), Minie (48), Joshua (19), Martha (15), Charly (13), George W. (10), and L.T. (5).

In 1930, we find Noah (71) and Pernina (67) living with their son Noah Joshua, Jr. (38) in Precinct 1, Falls, Texas. Living with them, also, is their youngest son Elson [Ellison] T. Stanford (25).

Pernina was the daughter of George W. Whitman (b. Alabama) and Rebecca Smith (b. Alabama).

Children of Noah Joshua Stanford and Pernina Eveline Whitman:

- 371      i.    John Henry Lee Stanford, born 12 Feb 1886, in Petteway, Robertson, Texas, died 31 Dec 1980, in Limestone County, Texas.
- 372      ii.   Julia Deloris Stanford, born 23 Mar 1888, in Robertson County, Texas, died 19 Mar 1989, in Jefferson County, Texas.
- iii.   Noah Joshua "Josh" Stanford, Jr., born 8 Aug 1890, in Petteway, Robertson, Texas, died 25 May 1966, in Marlin, Falls, Texas, buried in Kosse Cemetery, Kosse, Limestone, Texas. Cause of death: pulmonary failure.

On 5 Jun 1917, Noah registered for the WWI draft in Limestone County, Texas. This record lists his birth date and place of birth. At this time, he was single.

In 1930, we find N.J. Stanford (38, farmer) living in Precinct 1, Falls, Texas. Living with him are his father Noah (71) and mother Perninia (67).

Based on the following, we can conclude that Noah never married:

1. There is a 1910 census record for a Noah Stanford (b. 1880) in Justice Precinct 5, Limestone, Texas that lists his wife Annie (23) and two children, Helen (2) and Cleora (1-1/12). The date of birth for Noah is 10 years off, indicating that this may not be our Noah.
2. In his 1917 draft registration he is listed as single with no dependents.
3. In the 1930 census, no wife or children are listed.
4. His 1966 death record indicates that he never married.

- v.    Martha Ann Stanford, born 27 Oct 1894, in Texas, died 9 Apr 1994, in Marlin, Falls, Texas. She married Eddie A. "Lonnie" Rinehart about 1918, in Texas. Eddie A. "Lonnie" Rinehart was born 5 Dec 1882, in Texas, died 28 Jan 1972, in Kosse, Limestone, Texas, buried in Ebenezer Cemetery, Kosse, Limestone, Texas.

Martha Ann and Lonnie had five children.

Jun 1926, in Robertson County, Texas, buried in Heards Prairie - Petteway Cemetery (Post Oak Cemetery), Bremond, Robertson, Texas.

In 1900, the family is living in Justice Precinct 5, Robertson, Texas and the census record includes Lee Stanford (40, farmer), Melissa (34), Annie (10), Ollie (6), and Dewitt (2).

The 1910 census lists the family in Justice Precinct 5, Robertson, Texas and includes Lee Stanford (46, farmer), Lissie (44), Dewitt (11), and Bob (7).

In 1920, the census finds the family in Justice Precinct 6, Robertson, Texas and lists Lee Stanford (56, farmer), Malisa (53), and Bob (17). Living with the family is Annie Poland (30), their daughter, and two grand children, Rex Poland (14) and Roy Poland (12).

The 1930 census lists Robt. L. Stanford Sr. (67, widower), living with his son Robert's family in Precinct 4, Robertson, Texas.

Milissa Ann was the daughter of Carlton Walker and Jane Catherine Harwell.

Children of Robert E. Lee Stanford and Melissa Ann Walker:

- i. Annie Bell Stanford, born 16 Sep 1889, in Robertson County, Texas, died 15 Nov 1973, in Kosse, Limestone, Texas, buried in Heards Prairie - Petteway Cemetery (Post Oak Cemetery), Bremond, Robertson, Texas. She married (1) Charles Thomas Poland 29 Dec 1904, in Robertson County, Texas. Charles Thomas Poland was born 10 Sep 1887, in Robertson County, Texas, died 16 Feb 1964, in Houston, Harris, Texas. They were divorced. She married (2) Earl William Swingler about 1923, in Robertson County, Texas. Earl William Swingler was born 12 Sep 1903, in Texas, died 21 Jul 1979, in Robertson County, Texas, buried in Heards Prairie - Petteway Cemetery (Post Oak Cemetery), Bremond, Robertson, Texas.

Ann had two children with her first husband: Rex Leon Poland (1905-1965) and Roy Eugene Poland (1907-1975). This first marriage apparently ended in divorce since, in the 1920 census, Annie is living with her parents in Justice Precinct 6, Robertson, Texas with her two children, listed as "widow".

In 1930, the census finds Early Swingler (27, farmer) and Annie (40) living in Precinct 4, Robertson, Texas.

Earl was the son of William E. Swingler and Laura A. West.

Land records indicate that Z.B. and S.J. Stanford were "grantors" (sellers) in Coweta County, Georgia [Deed Book M, Pages 365 and 370]. This may have been land that Z.B. inherited from his father Isaac.

Based on the ages and places of birth of his children, it appears that Zorabel moved from Georgia to Louisiana about 1853.

The 1860 census finds the family in Jackson, Jackson, Louisiana and lists Z.B. Stanford (33, farmer), Susan J. (23), Joseph (10), Permelia A. (7), and Osper C. [Oscar] (1/12). The Joseph listed here is Z.B.'s young brother.

Zorabel served in Company C, 28th Louisiana Infantry Regiment (Gray's) during the Civil War. He was granted a soldier's pension by the state of Louisiana and, after his death, Susan received a widow's pension.

In 1870, the family is living in Ward 7, Jackson, Louisiana and includes Z.B. Stanford (43), S.J. (34), P.A. (16), A.M. (10), and three children, ages 7, 4, and 1, whose initials are not readable in the census record. All of the children were born in Louisiana.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Ward 4, Lincoln, Louisiana and lists Zora Stanford (51, farmer), Susan (44), Alexander (17), Mary (14), Robert (10), Mattie (8), Lafayette (6), Julia (4), and Francis (2). Living with them are his older daughter Annie Hollis (23) and her two children William (3) and Katie (1).

Susan was the daughter of George W. King and his wife Lucinda of Coweta County, Georgia.

In 1900, we find Susan Stanford (61, widow) living with her daughter and son-in-law Julia (25) [listed as "Gennie"] and Eugene Taylor (32) in Banner, Ashley, Arkansas. Living with them is Lafayette Stanford (27, farm laborer).

In the 1910 census, we find Susan J. Standford (72, widow) living with her daughter Julia and husband Eugene I. Taylor in Police Jury Ward 5, Jackson, Louisiana.

Children of Zorabel B. "Zorie" Stanford and Susan J. King:

- i. Permilia A. Stanford, born about 1853, in Georgia.
- 378 ii. Alexander Z. Stanford, born about 1854, in Jackson Parish, Louisiana, died 5 Jun 1937, in Acadia Parish, Louisiana.
- iii. Annie M. Stanford, born about 1857, in Louisiana. She married GNU Hollis.
- In the 1880 census, Annie and her two children, William (3) and Katie (1), were living with her parents in Ward 4, Lincoln, Louisiana.
- 379 iv. Oscar Newton Stanford, born May 1860, in Vienna, Lincoln, Louisiana, died 24 Jul 1927, in Monroe, Ouachita, Louisiana.
- v. Mary Stanford, born about 1866, in Louisiana.

- vii. Mattie Stanford, born about 1872, in Louisiana.
- viii. Lafayette Stanford, born Apr 1873, in Louisiana, died after 1900, in Louisiana or Arkansas.

In 1900, we find Lafayette Stanford [listed as "Lafaith"] (27, farm laborer) and his mother Susan Stanford (61, widow) living with Julia Stanford Taylor (25) [listed as "Gennie"] and her husband Eugene Taylor (32) in Banner, Ashley, Arkansas.

- ix. Julia Eugenia Stanford, born May 1876, in Jackson Parish, Louisiana, died 26 Aug 1951, in Swartz, Ouachita, Louisiana. She married Eugene I. Taylor about 1896. Eugene I. Taylor was born Sep 1867, in Arkansas, died after 1930, in Ouachita Parish, Louisiana.

In 1900, we find the family living in Banner, Ashley, Arkansas. Living with them is Julia's mother Susan Stanford (61, widow) and brother Lafayette Stanford (27).

By 1930, the family was back in Louisiana, living in Police Jury Ward 2, Ouachita, Louisiana.

- x. Francis Stanford, born about 1878, in Louisiana.

Some researchers report that Lafayette's middle name was "Alton", but no confirmation of this has been found. One census record does list him as "Lafayette A."

We find Lafayette (age listed as 15) living with his father and step-mother in Coweta County, Georgia in the 1850 census.

Lafayette and Hester moved to Alabama before 1860, then back to Georgia before 1868.

In 1860, the census finds the family living in Sanders, Henry, Alabama and includes Lafayette (27, farmer), Hester J. (23), Margaret E. (4), and William Z. (3).

Lafayette enlisted on 22 March 1862 at Auburn, Alabama in Co A, 37th Alabama Regiment and probably trained at Camp Johnson near Davidson, Alabama. He is listed as a POW at Yazoo City, Mississippi on 21 May 1863, but he is paroled (exchanged) and rejoined the 37th Alabama to continue fighting. He was again captured by the Union soldiers at the Battle of Missionary Ridge, Tennessee on 25 Nov 1863. Denied parole, he was sent to the POW camp for Confederate soldiers at Rock Island, IL.

About a year later, on 15 Oct 1864 he enlisted as a "galvanized yankee" in Co. D, 3d Reg. of U.S. Volunteer Infantry. This service was for frontier duty and he served in Kansas and Nebraska. He was mustered out of U.S. service with rank of Private in Nov 1865 at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas.

The census for 1870 lists Lafayette and Hester living in Clay County, Georgia (actually, there are two census records). The children listed in this census are Mary [Margaret] E. (13), Arminda/Angelina (9 or 11), Lucy (6 or 8), Georgia (4), and Alexander (1 or 2). This census shows Arminta, Lucy, and Georgia being born in Alabama, while Margaret and Alexander were born in Georgia.

In 1880, the census finds the family living in Town, Clay, Georgia. This record includes Lafayett Stanferd (48, farm labor), Jane (40), Amanda (17), Lucy (15), Aleck(13), Georgia (11), Mary A. (7), and Jane (1).

Lafayette and his family moved to Clay County, Alabama and then to Dale County, Alabama during the 1880s. There are several land patents recorded for Lafayette in Dale County, Alabama in 1895.

The 1900 census lists the family in Newton, Dale, Alabama and includes Lafayette Stanford (69, farmer), Jane Stanford (67), Alex H. Stanford (31), and Hattie Stanford (19)

Jane's family moved to Georgia from South Carolina. She appears to have been born in Georgia, though no birth record has yet been found.

Children of Lafayette A. Stanford and Hester Jane Hartley:

- i. Margaret Emma C. Stanford, born 30 Jan 1857, in Alabama, died 29 Sep 1940, in Houston County, Alabama. She married Francis Alex Brookins 6 Feb 1876, in Clay County, Georgia. Francis Alex Brookins was born 6 Dec 1845, in Dale County, Alabama, died 4 Sep 1925, in Houston County, Alabama.

She married William Reynolds Dowling about 1882, in Alabama. William Reynolds Dowling was born 15 Aug 1849, in Daleville, Dale, Alabama, died 31 Jan 1909, in Alabama, buried in Pilgrims Home Baptist Cemetery, Wicksburg, Houston, Alabama.

William was the son of James Dowling (1823-1864) and Nancy Martin (1824-1910) and the brother of Pam Dora Dowling.

He was married previously to Martha Jane Howell, by whom he had one daughter.

- iv. Lucy Jane Stanford, born 17 Jan 1862, in Georgia, died 25 May 1939, in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia. She married Albert Harvard Lee Jan 1883, in Alabama. Albert Harvard Lee was born 7 Feb 1863, in Newton, Dale, Alabama, died 24 Aug 1932, in Slocomb, Geneva, Alabama.

Luch and Albert had 7 children.

- v. Georgia Eunice Stanford, born 14 Oct 1866, in Georgia, died 9 Oct 1942, in Houston County, Alabama. She married Eugene W. Cobb 12 Oct 1886, in Dale County, Alabama. Eugene W. Cobb was born 12 Mar 1868, in Georgia, died 28 Apr 1940, in Dale County, Alabama.

Georgia and Eugene had 5 children.

Eugene was the son of Benjamin F. Cobb (1834-1894) and his wife Sentis (b. abt 1839).

- 381 vi. Alexander Hardy Stanford, born 17 Nov 1868, in Georgia, died 6 Oct 1948, in Newton, Dale, Alabama.
- vii. Mauline "Moline" Stanford, born 12 Mar 1870, in Fort Gaines, Clay, Georgia, died 19 Apr 1966, in Graceville, Jackson, Florida, buried in Damascus Baptist Church Cemetery, Graceville, Jackson, Florida. She married Dennis W. Mahoney 18 Oct 1888, in Dale County, Alabama. Dennis W. Mahoney was born 5 Apr 1864, in Alabama, died 1919, in Graceville, Jackson, Florida, buried in Damascus Baptist Church Cemetery, Graceville, Jackson, Florida.

Mauline's parents were living in Georgia in 1870, but moved to Alabama shortly after that. The 1900 census lists her place of birth as Georgia.

Mauline and Dennis had 7 children.

Dennis was the son of Charles James Mahoney (1836-1931) and his first wife Emily (1839-1865).

- viii. Tiney Stanford, born 24 Mar 1873, in Georgia, died 16 Apr 1955, in Dale County, Alabama, buried in Shiloh Cemetery, Clayhatchee, Dale, Alabama. She married Thomas Jackson Marchman 4 Dec 1889, in Dale County, Alabama. Thomas Jackson Marchman was born 11 Sep 1866, in Eatonton, Eatonton, Georgia, died 15 Dec 1933, in Dale County, Alabama, buried in Shiloh Cemetery, Clayhatchee, Dale, Alabama.

Tiney's Alabama marriage record lists her name as "Linie".

Thomas was the son of William Henry Marchman and Nancy Davis, who donated the land to Shiloh Church in whose cemetery they are buried.

- ix. Corronia Stanford, born 1 Oct 1876, in Georgia, died 18 May 1878, in Georgia.
x. Hattie Maude Stanford, born about 1879, in Clay County, Georgia, died 7 Apr 1963, in Ozark, Dale, Alabama, buried in Shiloh Cemetery, Clayhatchee, Dale, Alabama. She married John Wesley Andrews 1902, in Dale County, Alabama. John Wesley Andrews was born 7 Sep 1878, in Dale County, Alabama, died 7 May 1953, in Dale County, Alabama, buried in Shiloh Cemetery, Clayhatchee, Dale, Alabama.

The 1900 census indicates that Hattie was born in Jul 1881 in Alabama. But, her gravestone shows her date of birth as 26 Feb 1879. We don't know which birth year is correct. If the 1879 birth year is correct, she was born in Clay County, Georgia.

Based on census records from 1910, 1920, and 1930, her place of birth is listed once as Alabama and twice as Georgia, but her year of birth is consistently listed as 1879. Likewise, her record in the "Alabama Deaths and Burials Index" lists her date of birth as "abt 1879". Based on this data, the most likely date and place of birth for Hattie was 1879 in Georgia.

Zedekiah Stamford (27) is listed in the 1860 Coweta County, Georgia census as a farmer, with his wife Martha (35). This census also lists John W. Atcherson (age 12) and Nany E. Atcherson (age 12) in this household. Based on analysis of 1850 census records, these children appear to be younger siblings of Martha. [The John W. Atchison in this listing is John Walter Atchison of Coweta County, Georgia, who married Sarah A. Smith there on 28 Oct 1866.]

Zedekiah served as a Private in Company A, 12th Battalion, Light Artillery, "Newnan Artillery", Georgia, CSA, and was killed during the Civil War. He enlisted as a Private on 1 May 1862 in Newnan, Coweta, Georgia. A battlefield report of 30 Oct 1863 states that he was "slightly wounded in the leg" from Union Navy shelling of Fort Sumter, South Carolina. He received a gunshot thigh wound on 9 July 1864 in Monocracy, Maryland and died on 11 Jul 1864 in the Federal POW hospital at Frederick, Frederick, Maryland.

Martha was the daughter of William Atchison and his wife Dicey Byrum. Both were born in North Carolina and William was a miller.

In 1870, the census finds Martha E. Stanford (44, widow) living in District 5, Coweta, Georgia with her children Nancy E. (10), Permelia A. (9), and James B. (8).

The 1880 census finds Martha's daughter Nancy Stanford (19) living and working as a servant to Elizabeth Gurley in District 992, Coweta, Georgia. This indicates that Martha had probably died by this time.

Children of Zedekiah "Zeddie" Stanford and Martha E. Atchison:

- i. Nancy E. Stanford, born about 1860, in Georgia.

The 1880 census finds Nancy Stanford (19) living and working as a servant to Elizabeth Gurley in District 992, Coweta, Georgia.

- 382 iii. James Bartow Stanford, born Mar 1862, in Georgia, died after 1930, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

He married Selia Elizabeth Martin 17 Dec 1868, in Vienna, Lincoln, Louisiana. Selia Elizabeth Martin was born 26 Aug 1842, in Girard, Russel, Alabama, died 15 Feb 1928, in Quitman, Jackson, Louisiana.

In the 1860 census, we find Joseph (10) living with his older brother Zorobel in Jackson, Jackson, Louisiana.

Dallas and Samantha moved first to Arkansas, where their first child was born, and then to Louisiana before 1875. By late 1878, they were living in Texas.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Precinct 1, Wood, Texas and lists Dallas Stanford (30, farmer), Samantha J. (40), Joseph M. (8), Haseltine (5), Nettie (3), and John (1).

In 1900, the family is living in Justice Precinct 6, Wood, Texas and the record includes Dallas Stanford (50, farmer), Samantha (60), Sarah A. (25), Nettie A. (23), and John H. (21). Living with them are two orphan children, William Killian (10, b. TX) and Letie Ethel Killian (8, b. MS).

In 1920, Dallas (70) and Samantha (80) are living in Justice Precinct 6, Wood, Texas.

Samantha was the daughter of James Nathaniel Martin (1796-1864) and Nancy Ann Allen (1803-1886).

Children of Dallas Stanford and Samantha Jane Martin:

- 383      i.    Joseph Marion Stanford, born 26 Nov 1871, in Hope, Union, Arkansas, died 12 Jul 1950, in Big Sandy, Upshur, Texas.
- ii.    Sarah Haseltine Stanford, born 17 Oct 1874, in Ruston, Lincoln, Louisiana, died 2 Nov 1964, in Gilmer, Upshur, Texas, buried 4 Nov 1964, in Little Mound Cemetery, Upshur County, Texas. She married James William "Billy" Stephenson 5 Nov 1905, in Honey Creek, Wood, Texas. James William "Billy" Stephenson was born 9 Jan 1861, in Upshur County, Texas, died 20 Jun 1923, in Rosewood, Upshur, Texas, buried in Little Mound Cemetery, Upshur County, Texas.

She married William Thomas Green 15 Oct 1910, in Wood County, Texas. William Thomas Green was born 19 Aug 1880, in Winnsboro, Wood, Texas, died 16 Apr 1945, in Upshur County, Texas, buried in Little Mound Cemetery, Gilmer, Upshur, Texas.

Nettie and William had 4 children.

William was the son of Allen David Green (b. 1849, Alabama, d. 1920, Texas) and Rebecca Jane Davis (b. 1852, Texas, d. 1925, Texas).

- 384      iv.    John Henry Stanford, born 10 Dec 1878, in Bowie County, Texas, died 16 Jul 1954, in Upshur County, Texas.

- v. Selia Minnie Stanford, born Jan 1880, in Wood County, Texas, died Jun 1880, in Wood County, Texas.

In 1880, John B. Stanford (26, farm laborer) and his wife Mary K. (24) are living with Mary's mother, Nancy E. Moore, in 5th Ward, Lincoln, Louisiana.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Justice Precinct 6, Wood, Texas next door to his brother Dallas Stanford's family and lists John B. Stanford (48, farmer) and Catherine (45). Living with them is their nephew John McDaniel (29), the son of John's sister Mary Virginia Stanford McDaniel.

No children are listed in either 1880 or 1900.

Evidently, Catherine died before 1910/1911 since the 1920 census lists John with a new wife and a child born in 1912. This record lists the family living in Justice Precinct 6, Wood, Texas and includes John Stanford (68, farmer), Lula (40), and Ethel (8), living next door to his brother Dallas Stanford.

The spelling of "Catherine" may have been "Katherine".

Mary was the daughter of Alexander Moore (1836-1880) and Nancy Ellen Hardin (1822-1885).

Lula was the daughter of Henry Clay Stephenson (1845-1916) and Susan Elizabeth Burris/Burrows (1844-1888).

The 1940 census lists Mary L. Stanford (68) living with her daughter and son-in-law Ethel Stanford Bridges and husband Connie Bridges in Upshur County, Texas.

According to her Certificate of Death, Lula died at the Rusk State Hospital in Rusk, Cherokee, Texas of myocardial degeneration. She is listed as having "senile psychosis" for the previous 8 years. Her "usual residence" is listed as Rt. 1, Pittsburg, Upshur, Texas.

Children of John B. Stanford and Mary Lula Stephenson:

- i. Ethel May Stanford, born 2 Oct 1910, in Daingerfield, Morris, Texas, died 6 Jul 1991, in Ashley County, Arkansas, buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Ashley County, Arkansas. She married (1) Connie Bridges before 1927. Connie Bridges was born 27 Mar 1902, in Limestone County, Texas, died 29 Sep 1961, in Wichita Falls, Wichita, Texas, buried in Hillcrest Cemetery, Wichita Falls, Wichita, Texas. She married (2) Marlin Columbus Parks 10 Sep 1949, in Portland, Ashley, Arkansas. Marlin Columbus Parks was born 11 Aug 1913, in Haworth, McCurtain, Oklahoma, died 24 Aug 1997, in Ashley County, Arkansas, buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Ashley County, Arkansas.

We know from birth records for her children that Ethel's middle name was May or Mae, since both spellings appear in the records.

Since her first child, C. J. Bridges was born in 1927 in Big Sandy, Upshur, Texas, we know that she was married by that time.

After Connie and Ethel May separated, it appears that Ethel and the children moved to Arkansas. Her SSA records clearly show that she married Marlin Parks and other records show that two of her children died in Arkansas.

Connie was the son of William Archibald "Archie" Bridges and Maude Virginia Hood (1877-1967).

Some researchers indicate that Connie's middle name may have been Joseph.

The 1930 census lists the family living in Precinct 4, Cherokee County, Texas and lists Connie Bridges (27, farmer), Ethel (19), and daughter Juanita (9/12). Connie's mother and brother Ray are living with the family.

In 1940, the census lists the family living in Upshur County, Texas and includes Connie Bridges (38, farmer) and Ethel (29) and 5 children. Living with the family is Mary Stanford (68), Ethel's mother.

Evidently, Connie and Ethel separated before 1950 since Connie married Dolly Lucille Clayton (1905-1958) about 1950 in Upshur County, Texas. [Some researchers indicate that Dolly was Connie's third wife, but if so, his first wife has not yet been identified.]

At the time of his death, he was a carpenter and died of lung cancer.

Marlin was the son of Joseph Parks and Mollie P. Burks.

In 1900, we find the family living in Police Jury Ward 2, Saint Landry, Louisiana. The record includes Jefferson Stanford (38, farmer), Lina (34), Josephine (17), Samuel D. (15), Vermelia (12), Cora H. (10), Cary (8), Mattie (5), Clarence (3), and Jessie (1).

They were divorced.

At the time of his marriage to Anaise, Benjamin was living in Ruston, Jackson, Louisiana.

In 1900, the family is by the census living in Police Jury Ward 8, Saint Landry, Louisiana. The census record lists Benj. T. Stanford (33, farmer), Anise (37), Artelise (15), Eugin (13), Benjamin (8), Isaac (6), Mattie (4), and Eddie (1). Artelise (b. abt 1885) and Eugin [Eugene] (b. abt 1887, d. 1937) are Anaise's children from her first marriage to Eugene Laverigne.

The 1910 census lists the family in Plaquemine Point, Saint Landry, Louisiana and includes Thomas Stanford (44, farmer), Annise (44), Isaac (17), Mattie (15), Eddie (11), Jean Batiste (9), Paul (7), Mary (4), Margerette (2), and Marion (2/12).

In 1930, the census finds Thomas B. Stanford (63, farmer) and his wife Josephine (61) living in Police Jury Ward 6, Saint Landry, Louisiana. Living with them is son Paul (27) and his new bride Edna (16). Evidently, B.T. and Marie split-up after 1920.

The 1940 census lists Benjamin Stanford (73, widower) living with his son Marion's family in St. Landry Parish, Louisiana.

Anaise was the daughter of Jean Baptiste Thibodeaux and Elizabeth Smith.

This was Anaise's second marriage...she married Eugene Lavergne on 14 Sep 1882 in Grand Coteau, Saint Landry, Louisiana.

Children of Benjamin Thomas Stanford and Marie Anaise Thibodeaux:

- 389     i.    Benjamin "Ben" Stanford, born 5 Nov 1892, in Louisiana, died 1 Aug 1958, in Louisiana.
- 390     ii.   Isaac Stanford, born 24 Oct 1893, in Louisiana, died 25 Jan 1964, in Church Point, Acadia, Louisiana.
- iii.   Mattie Stanford, born Dec 1895, in Church Point, Acadia, Louisiana, died 12 Mar 1936, in Church Point, Acadia, Louisiana. She married Pierre Emar Comeaux before 1917, in Louisiana. Pierre Emar Comeaux was born 19 Oct 1891, in Saint Landry Parish, Louisiana, died Aug 1968, in Church Point, Acadia, Louisiana.

Emar was the son of Joseph Numa Comeaux and Alexandrine Cecile Boudreaux . In 1910, the census finds the family living in Saint Landry Parish, Louisiana. Emar is listed in this record as "Pierre Amer Comeaux".

On 5 Jun 1917, Emar registered for the WWI draft in Saint Landry Parish, Louisiana. This record provides the date and place of Emar's birth and indicates that he was married. His occupation is listed as "blacksmith".

In 1920, the census lists the family living in Police Jury Ward 3, Acadia, Louisiana and includes P.E. Comeaux (28), Mattie (24), and Pierre O. (2).

Elridge was the son of Robert Higginbotham (1882-1956) and Maria Briscoe (1888-1976).

In 1930, the census finds Eldridge Higginbotham (30) and his wife Margrette (32) living in Police Jury Ward 6, St. Landry, Louisiana. In this record, the ages for both are off by 6-8 years.

In 1940, Elridge Higginbotham (34) registered for the WWI draft. At the time, he was working and living in Lacassine, Jeff Davis, Louisiana. At the time, he was married.

- 394      ix.      Marion Stanford, born 20 Mar 1910, in Saint Landry Parish, Louisiana, died 27 Mar 1961, in Chataignier, Evangeline, Louisiana.

The census finds the family living in Lutherville, Meriwether Georgia in 1880 and in Grantville, Coweta, Georgia in 1900.

In the 1900 census, Elizabeth (59 [her birth date is incorrectly listed as Feb 1830]) and James (70) are living next door to their son Willie Gaddy and his wife Mattie.

Elizabeth and James had three children, the oldest of whom married Mattie Stanford, Elizabeth's 1st cousins one time removed.

This was James' second marriage...he married Elizabeth Lynch (1816Mar 1871) on 7 Oct 1851 in Meriwether County, Georgia. The 1860 and 1870 census list the family living in Rocky Mount, Meriwether, Georgia.

During the Civil War, James served as a Corporal in Company F, 4th Regiment, Georgia Reserves.

In 1897, 1899, and 1901, James applied for an Indigent Pension from Coweta County on the basis of his military service. In 1902, he made another application from Meriwether County, indicating that he lived in Coweta County in 1901. In this last application, he described his physical condition as "Extreme old age, liver disease & almost blind. Can't work at all."

Children of Elizabeth Stanford and James A. Gaddy:

- i. William "Willie" Gaddy, born Aug 1872, in Meriwether County, Georgia. He married Mattie Stanford 5 Aug 1894, in Coweta County, Georgia. She was the daughter of William M. "Will, Bill" Stanford and Elizabeth "Eliza" Webb. Mattie Stanford was born about 1870, in Georgia.

Willie was the son of James A. Gaddy (1813-1903) and Elizabeth Lynch (1830).

According to a Coweta County, Georgia marriage certificate, William Gaddy and Miss Mattie Stanford married there on 5 Aug 1894.

Elizabeth Stanford Gaddy, Mattie's mother-in-law, and Mattie Stanford were 1st cousins 1 time removed. Their common ancestors were Levi M. Stanford and Sarah Todd. This means that Mattie and Willie were 2nd cousins.

In 1900, the family was living in Grantville, Coweta, Georgia. Mattie's father Bill Stanford (58, widowed) and brothers Eliga (13) and Walker (12) are living with them, listed as "boarders". In this record, Mattie's date of birth is given as May 1878, which is incorrect, since is listed in the 1880 census at age 10..

in the 1870 census, Allen (24), Mollie (18), and Julius (1) are found in District 10, Meriwether, Georgia, where Allen is working as a farm hand.

In the 1880 census Allen and Mary Jane are found in Clay County, Alabama. Since Henry was born in Alabama in 1871, the family must have relocated from Georgia to Alabama in 1870-71.

From marriage records for Julius A. Stanford, it appears that the family was living in Clay County, Alabama in 1888.

The 1900 census lists the family as "Standford" in Lost Creek, Cleburne, Alabama and includes Allen Standford (55, farmer), Mary J. (47), Eva L. (21), Alexandra J. (18), Demansel (16), Daniel W. (11), Jesse T. (9), and Pearlle D. (3).

Mary Jane was the daughter of William Mote (18271864) and his wife M. Catherine (18301906).

Children of Allen Jackson Stanford and Mary Jane "Mollie" Mote:

- 395     i.    Julius Alford Stanford, born Jan 1870, in Meriwether County, Georgia, died 19 Jan 1961, in Troup County, Georgia.

- 400     ix.    Jesse Thomas Stanford, born 22 Sep 1890, in Alabama, died 13 Dec 1970, in Haleyville, Winston, Alabama.
- x.    Pearlie D. Stanford, born Jul 1896, in Alabama.

Nathan is not listed in either the 1870 or 1880 census with his parents. In 1870, none of the children were listed and by 1880 he had apparently left home.

In 1900, the census finds the family living in Daleville, Dale, Alabama and lists Nathan Stanford (34, day laborer), Eliza (36), Famie (10), Early (7), Linie (5), and Binie (1).

The 1910 census finds the family living in Enterprise Ward 4, Coffee, Alabama includes Nathan Stanford (50, sweeper, cotton mill), Liza (47), Euphemie C. (20), Early L. (18), Lina (17), and Bennie (12).

Evidently, the family moved to Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama before 1918 since Ben's WWI draft registration indicates the family is living there.

In 1930, Nathan Stanford (71) and Liza Stanford (68) are living with their daughter Lina and her husband Alto Griffin in Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama. Ben Stanford (31) is also living in this household.

Children of Nathan Stanford and Eliza Jane Byrd:

- i. Euphamie C. Stanford, born Jan 1890, in Alabama, died 11 Feb 1928, in Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama, buried in Elmsworth Cemetery, Barbour, Alabama. She married Bowman Griffin. Bowman Griffin was born about 1899, in Alabama, died 18 Jun 1955, in Barbour County, Alabama.

In 1920, we find Bowman and Euphamie Griffin living with Bowman's parents in Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama. Both work in a cotton mill, Bowman as a carder and Euphamie as a spinner.

- 401 ii. Earl L. Stanford, born 4 Nov 1892, in Alabama, died 31 Mar 1962, in Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama.
- iii. Everlina "Lina" Stanford, born 11 May 1895, in Alabama, died 27 Apr 1982, in Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama. She married John Alto Griffin about 1920, in Alabama. John Alto Griffin was born 10 Aug 1900, in Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama, died 22 Jul 1971, in Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama.

In 1930 Alto Griffin (29) and Lina Griffin (34) were living in Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama. Lina's parents and brother Ben were living with them.

Lina and Alto had 5 children.

Alto was the son of Thomas James Griffin (b. abt 1862) and Parnelia J. Williams (b. abt 1874, d. bef 1920).

His middle name is sometimes written as "Alter".

- 402 iv. Benjamin Asbury "Ben" Stanford, born 11 Apr 1898, in Alabama, died 17 Aug 1977, in Houston, Harris Texas.

Jefferson's middle name may have been "Dixon".

Evidently, sometime after 1892, Jefferson and Georgia moved to Texas. The 1900 census lists the family in Justice Precinct 5, Polk, Texas and includes Jefferson (36, farmer), Georgia A. (26), Cornelius (7), William (5), and Ethel May (2).

After 1900, the family moved back to Arkansas. In 1910 the family is living in Moro, Bradley, Arkansas and includes Jefferson D. Stanford (46, farmer), Georgia A. (36), Cornelius J. (17), George W. (14), Nancy E. (10), Cade (6), and Homer D. (4).

In 1920, the census finds the family living in Moro, Bradley, Arkansas and lists Jefferson D. Stanford (56, farmer), Georgia S. (46), Caroline [Cornelius] J. (27), Nancy E. (19), Cade (16), and Homer D. (14).

Anna's birth and death dates are those engraved on her gravestone. Other researchers indicate her birth year to be 1872.

Georgia Anna was the daughter of Dixon Pierce Bethea (b. 1843, Meriweather County, Georgia) and Nancy Elizabeth Plair.

In the 1930 census, Georgia Anne (56, widow) is living with her sons Cade and Homer and daughter Nancy in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma.

Children of Jefferson D. Stanford and Georgia Anna Bethea:

- i. Cornelius Jefferson Stanford, born 30 Dec 1892, in Warren, Bradley, Arkansas, died 29 Jul 1961, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma, buried in Resthaven Cemetery, Oklahoma City, Cleveland, Oklahoma.

Cornelius J. Stanford registered for the WWI draft on 5 Jun 1917 in Bradley County, Arkansas. At the time, he was single and farming for himself.

Cornelius served in the U.S. Army during WWI from Arkansas as a Private in Supply Company 342, 81st Infantry Division.

In 1930, the census finds C.J. Stanford (37) living with his mother, brothers, and sister Nancy in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma, working as a laborer in the oil fields.

The 1940 census finds Cornelius Stanford (47, farmer) living in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma. His brother Homer D. Stanford (35, butcher, meat packing) was living with him at the time.

Evidently, Cornelius never married.

- 403 ii. George William Stanford, born 24 May 1895, in Moscow, Polk, Texas, died 19 Apr 1960, in Odessa, Ector, Texas.
- iii. Ethel May Stanford, born May 1898, in Texas, died before 1910, in Texas or Arkansas.

Ethel May does not appear in the 1910 or later census records, so it is assumed that she died young.

- iv. Nancy E. Stanford, born 2 Oct 1900, in Arkansas, died Jul 1979, in Warren, Bradley, Arkansas. She married L.A. Joyner about 1922, in Arkansas. L.A. Joyner was born about 1900, in Arkansas.
- 404 v. Cade Lamar Stanford, born 11 Nov 1903, in Arkansas, died 1 Nov 1970, in Taft, Kern, California.
- 405 vi. Homer Dixon Stanford, born 30 Nov 1905, in Warren, Bradley, Arkansas, died 5 Nov 1968, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma.

Evidently, Alonzo died before 1900 since the census that year lists Ellender Stanford (32, widow) living with her father Elias S. Wikinson (b. 1833, Mississippi) and her two children James J. (b. Oct 1871, Arkansas) and Mary J. (b. Oct 1897, Arkansas).

One marriage index lists Ellen's surname as Wilkerson, while another lists it as Williamson. From the 1900 census we learn that her correct surname is Wilkinson.

Ellen was the daughter of Elias S. Wilkinson (b. 1833, Mississippi, d. aft 1900, Arkansas) and his second wife Nancy LNU. The 1850-1870 census records show that Elias was farming in Angelina and Montgomery Counties, Texas during that period.

Children of Alonzo Stanford and Ellen Wilkinson:

- i. James J. Stanford, born Oct 1891, in Arkansas.
- ii. Mary J. Stanford, born Oct 1897, in Arkansas.

In May 1862, William enlisted in Company K, 55th Georgia Infantry Regiment and served until his unit's surrender with General Joseph Johnston in North Carolina in April 1865. He was captured in 1863 and was imprisoned at Camp Douglas for 21 months.

William (26, farm hand) and Elizabeth (22) are found in District 11, Meriwether County, Georgia in the 1870 census. At this time they have two children, John (4) and Alice (1).

Based on Dock Stanford's Alabama birth, the family evidently moved to Alabama after 1870, returning to Georgia by the time James was born in 1876.

William (age 36, farming), Elizabeth (age 35), and their first 6 children are listed in the 1880 Heard County (District 939), Georgia census. This record includes children John Stanford (14), Alice (12), Mattie (10), Dock (7), James (4), and Riley (3).

The 1900 census, finds Bill Stanford (58, widowed), Eliza (13), and Walker (12) living with the family of Will and daughter Mattie Stanford Gaddy in Grantville, Coweta, Georgia. The family is living next door to Elizabeth Stanford Gaddy and James Gaddy...Elizabeth was Bill's first cousin.

In 1903, William applied for an Indigent Soldier's Pension in Georgia based on his Civil War service. At the time, he had numerous health problems including back pain, unable to stand for any length of time, and shortness of breath. At the time, he was living in Troup County, Georgia. In his application, he stated that he had lived in Alabama for 3 years.

In 1910, the census finds William (66, widower) living with his son Lige (listed as Elijah) in Precinct 7, Jefferson, Alabama.

Records show that William died on 12 Jul 1918 at age 77, making his birth date provided in the 1900 census apparently correct, so both dates are used here. His gravestone, however, gives his year of birth as 1844.

Children of William M. "Will, Bill" Stanford and Elizabeth "Eliza" Webb:

- 406      i.    John Henry Stanford, born 12 Oct 1866, in Grantville, Meriwether, Georgia, died 3 Dec 1938, in Fairfield, Jefferson, Alabama.
- ii.    Alice Stanford, born 22 Feb 1869, in Georgia, died 14 Jun 1934, in Harris County, Georgia, buried in Pope City Baptist Church Cemetery, Wilcox County, Georgia. She married Thomas Walker Talley about 1884, in Georgia. Thomas Walker Talley was born 17 Aug 1868, in Heard County, Georgia, died 29 Jul 1955, in Wilcox County, Georgia, buried in Pope City Baptist Church Cemetery, Wilcox County, Georgia.

In 1910, the census lists the family living in Militia District 1321, Wilcox, Georgia and includes T.W. Tally (41), Alice Tally (41), and their seven children. This record indicates the couple have been married for 26 years.

The 1930 census lists Thomas Talley (63) and Alice Talley (63) living in Whitakers, Harris, Georgia.

- Thomas was the son of James Thomas Talley (1832-1899) and Susan E. Formby.
- iii.    Mattie Stanford, born about 1870, in Georgia. She married William "Willie"

Gaddy 5 Aug 1894, in Coweta County, Georgia. He was the son of James A. Gaddy and Elizabeth Stanford. William "Willie" Gaddy was born Aug 1872, in Meriwether County, Georgia.

Elizabeth Stanford Gaddy, Mattie's mother-in-law, and Mattie Stanford were 1st cousins 1 time removed. Their common ancestors were Levi M. Stanford and Sarah Todd. This means that Mattie and Willie were 2nd cousins.

In 1900, the family was living in Grantville, Coweta, Georgia. Mattie's father Bill Stanford (58, widowed) and brothers Eliga (13) and Walker (12) are living with them, listed as "boarders". In this record, Mattie's date of birth is given as May 1878, which is incorrect, since is listed in the 1880 census at age 10..

Willie was the son of James A. Gaddy (1813-1903) and Elizabeth Lynch (1830).

According to a Coweta County, Georgia marriage certificate, William Gaddy and Miss Mattie Stanford married there on 5 Aug 1894.

Green Stanford served in Company G, 3rd Regiment, Mississippi Infantry during the Civil War.

In the 1870, we find Green listed as "Nath L. Stanford", age 26, single and living by himself next door to his brother Isaac Franklin Stanford and sisters Missouri and Harriet Stanford in Gainesville, Hancock, Mississippi. At that time, he is "working, mill".

In the 1900 census, the family is living in Pearlinton, Hancock, Mississippi and the record includes Nathan Stanford (54, blacksmith for a mill), Sarah (55), Lorena (21), Matilda (16), and Lillie D. (12).

The 1910 census lists Nathan G. Stanford (65, blacksmith) living in in Beat 1, Hancock, Mississippi. The record includes Sarah (65), Leona (35), Lorena (31), and grandsons Isaac F. (13) and George (11).

Sarah Ann was the daughter of Daniel Bennett (b. 1820) and Mary Ann Myrick (1828-1898).

Children of Nathan Green Stanford and Sarah Ann Bennett:

- i. Mary Elizabeth Stanford, born 22 Oct 1871, in Logtown, Mississippi, died 29 Jul 1955, in Petal, Forrest, Mississippi. She married Alexander Z. Bates. Alexander Z. Bates was born 10 Dec 1859, in Gainesville, Hancock, Mississippi, died 20 Aug 1927, in Petal, Forrest, Mississippi.

Mary and Alex had 10 children.

Alex was the son of Joseph L. Bates (1833-1897) and Felicity Anne Holleman (b. Abt 1837).

- ii. Leona Stanford, born Jun 1874, in Louisiana, died after 1930, in Mississippi. She married George D. F. Bennett about 1892. George D. F. Bennett was born Aug 1858, in Mississippi, died about 1905, in Mississippi.

Leona and George had two sons, Isaac F. and George. In the 1900 census, we find the family living in Pearlinton, Hancock, Mississippi. Living with them is Sarah Ann Bennett Hart (49), George's sister.

Leona and her two children are listed (with the Stanford surname) in the 1910 census living with her parents in Hancock County, Mississippi.

The 1930 census finds Leona Bennett (55) and her son George (31) living in Beat 1, Hancock, Mississippi. Loreane Stanford (51), her sister, is living with them.

George was the son of Daniel Bennett (b. abt 1818, Mississippi) and Mary Ann Myrick (b. abt 1828, Mississippi).

- iii. Lorena Stanford, born Nov 1878, in Mississippi, died after 1930, in Mississippi.

The 1930 census finds Lorena Stanford (51) living with her sister Leona Bennett (55) and nephew George Bennett (31) in Beat 1, Hancock, Mississippi.

Evidently, Lorena never married.

- iv. Matilda Stanford, born Jun 1883, in Mississippi.
- v. Lillie D. Stanford, born Jan 1888, in Mississippi. She married Jack Lloyd.

Isaac was a Baptist Minister, a farmer, and a Mason.

In the 1870 census, we find Isaac (22) living in Gainesville, Hancock, Mississippi and working in a mill. Living with him are Missouri Stanford (19) and Harriet Stanford (28).

The 1880 incorrectly lists Isaac as "Isaac S. Stanford". The family is living in Precinct 1, Lampasas County, Texas and lists Issac (31), Ella F. (22), Missouri L. (4), Richard H.P. (2), and James N. (1). Living with the family are Thompson Moye (61, an uncle) and Sarah Murphey (41, an aunt).

From about 1888 to after 1901, the family lived in Overbrook and Marsden, Love, Oklahoma. Isaac was the pastor of the Marsden Baptist Church, and preached around the vicinity as a pioneer preacher. The Enon Associational Pastoral History Records lists 1888 as the first year Isaac preached in Oklahoma, which would have been shortly after he arrived there, and 1901 as his last year. A Woman's Missionary Society was organized at the church in 1891 and lists a Miss Nora [Missouri Lenora] Stanford, Overbrook, as secretary.

The 1900 census lists the family living in Township 6, Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory [Oklahoma] and includes Isac Stanford (54, preacher), Ella (50), Susan (25), Otis (23), Mollie (21), Alice (19), Martin (17), Arthur (14), Franklin (13), Ella (11), and Fred (8). This record includes the month and year of birth for each, but the dates don't match later records...they are each off by 6-8 years.

In 1910, the family is living in Blacktower, Curry, New Mexico and census record lists Isac F. Stanford (61, b. MS), Ella F. (52, b. MS), Jesse O. (25, b. TX), Frank I. (14, b. OK), Ella F. (12, b. OK), and Fredrick C. (10, b. OK). Isaac is listed as a farmer.

Ella was the daughter of James Murphey (b. 1821, Alabama, d. 1857, Mississippi) and Sara Moye (b. 1818, Georgia, d. 1906, New Mexico).

In 1930, the census finds Ella Florence Stanford (72, widow), living with her son Charles' family in Electra, Wichita, Texas.

On 12 Sep 1918, Jesse registered for the WWI draft in Curry County, New Mexico. At the time, he was married and farming.

The 1920 census finds the family living in Electra, Wichita, Texas and lists J.O. Stanford (36, laborer, oil field) and Bettie (28). No children are listed.

Betty was the daughter of GNU Pace and Sally B. Arnold (1870-1954).

Texas, buried in Old Electra Cemetery, Electra, Wichita, Texas.

On 5 Jun 1917, Isaac registered for the WWI draft in Wichita County, Texas. (This record provides his year of birth as 1896, but his SS Death Index lists 1895). At the time, he was single and indicated that he was responsible for his "widowed mother".

The 1930 census finds the family living in Electra, Wichita, Texas and lists I.F. Stanford (34, laborer, oil field), Myrtle (26), and Coy L. Holcomb (10, stepson).

Isaac worked as an oil field pumper for Texaco Inc.

Evidently, Isaac and Myrtle did not have children.

About 1918, Myrtle married Charles Holcomb (b. abt 1901, Arkansas). The 1920 census lists the family living in Justice Precinct 4, Wichita, Texas. This marriage ended 1920/1922.

In the 1880 census, we find David [listed as "D.D. Stanford"] living in Red Creek and Wolf River, Marion, Mississippi. Living with him are his sisters L.E. [Louise] (31) and Margie [Margaret] (29). The census record also includes Luther [Nathan Luther] (12), their cousin.

David and his family are found living in Marion County, Mississippi in the 1900 census. This census record lists two children living at home.

In 1920, the census finds David D. Stanford (67) and Margorie (58) living in Lumberton, Lamar, Mississippi. Living with them is Grace L. Lee and the census record indicates that David and Margorie are "guardian".

Mary was the daughter of William G.H. Howard (1830-1868) and Nancy Bilbo (1835-1919).

We find Allen C. Stanford (25, laborer), single, in the 1880 census boarding with the family of James G. And Saphronia E. Rester in 5th Ward, Washington Parish, Louisiana.

The 1910 census lists A.C. Stanford (45, fireman, sawmill) lists in Police Jury Ward 5, Washington, Louisiana "boarding" with the family of his niece Posey and her husband Milton Miley. Living with this household, also, is Allen's nephew William M. Stanford Jr.

Allen Stanford was counted twice in 1910, since the census also lists the family living in Police Jury Ward 5, Washington Parish, Louisiana and includes Cassel Stanford (55, logging for saw mill), Nancy Stanford (47), Joe (27, no employment listed), Soffa (18), Florence (13), Johnnie (8), Lue (6), and Ella (4).

Sometime after Allen's death, Nancy evidently remarried to a Webb, who evidently died before 1940.

In 1940, the census lists Nancy Webb (76, widow) living with her daughter and son-in-law Florence Stanford O'Bryant and John O'Bryant in rural Washington Parish, Louisiana (on the Pearl River-Bogalusa Highway).

Nancy's gravestone indicates her birthdate was 6 Nov 1863.

A marriage license for Johnnie O'Bryant and Florence Stanford was issued in Washington Parish, Louisiana on 24 Jan 1929.

Becky's date of birth on her gravestone is give as 6 Apr 1852. Census records in 1860, 1870, and 1880 indicate her birth year as 1856-1857. The 1900 census lists her birth date as Apr 1859. We don't know which year is correct, but the gravestone certainly appears to be in error.

Children of Rebecca Ann "Becky, Annie" Stanford and Isaac "Doc" Miley:

- i. Milton Miley, born 4 Mar 1882, in Louisiana, died 7 Dec 1952, in Bogalusa, Washington, Louisiana, buried in Old Gerald Cemetery, Washington Parish, Louisiana. He married Posey Stanford 1904. She was the daughter of William M. "Bill, Red Face" Stanford and Martha Rosetta "Rose" Evans. Posey Stanford was born 7 Jun 1889, in Marion County, Mississippi, died 13 Jan 1980, in Bogalusa, Washington, Louisiana, buried in Old Gerald Cemetery, Washington Parish, Louisiana.

Milton was the son of Rebecca Ann Stanford and Isaac Miley, who were Posey's aunt and uncle, making Milton and Posey 1st cousins.

In 1910, the census finds Posey (20) and her husband Milton Miley (25) living in Police Jury Ward 5, Washington, Louisiana.

Margaret Adeline "Maggie" Murphy was born 27 Dec 1873, in Mississippi, died 26 Feb 1941, in Poplarville, Pearl River, Mississippi, buried in Old Caney Cemetery, Pearl River County, Mississippi.

Nathaniel recieved a land grant for 160 acres in Lamar County, Mississippi in 1898.

In the 1900 census, we find the family in Beat 5, Marion, Mississippi listed as Nathaniel Stanford (31, farmer), Adaline M. (26), Curtis G. (8), Warren A. (7), Irena S. (2), Julius C. (1), Herbert M. (1), and Liddie C. (1/12).

The 1910 census finds the family in Beat 2, Pearl River, Mississippi and includes Nathan L. Stanford (41, farmer), Maggie A. (35) Caurtice [Curtis] G. (18), Warren A. (17), Irene G. (15), Julius C. (12), Herbert M. (11), Layton E. (8), Taxie H. (7), Myrtie B. (5), Plummer R. (3), and Ernest J. (2).

Maggie was the daughter of William Elias Murphy and Elizabeth Wardeen.

Children of Nathan Luther "Tac, Tack" Stanford and Margaret Adeline "Maggie" Murphy:

- iii.   Hettie Mathilda Stanford, born 10 May 1894, in Mississippi, died 5 Nov 1895, in Mississippi, buried in Howard Cemetery, Baxterville, Lamar, Mississippi.

On her gravestone, Hettie's date of birth is engraved as 10 May 1893. However, that appears to be incorrect since it conflicts with her brother's birth date in January of 1893.

- iv. Irene Genette Stanford, born Jul 1895, in Mississippi, died 23 Apr 1962, in Pearl River County, Mississippi, buried in Sones Chapel Cemetery, Carriere, Pearl River, Mississippi. - viii. Lydia Cordelia "Lilly" Stanford, born 10 Apr 1900, in Mississippi, died 12 Oct 1900, in Mississippi, buried in Howard Cemetery, Baxterville, Lamar, Mississippi.
- We do not find Lydia in the 1910 census list...evidently she had died by then.
- 422 ix. Layton Ellis Stanford, born 26 Aug 1901, in Mississippi, died 12 Sep 1966, in Hattiesburg, Forrest, Mississippi.

She married John Rowell. John Rowell was born 15 Sep 1911, in Mississippi, died 16 Aug 2002, in Poplarville, Pearl River, Mississippi, buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Poplarville, Pearl River, Mississippi.

Some researchers find the her full name is Merta Myrtice Bernetta Stanford, but there is documentation of "Merta" yet found.

Myrtice's gravestone is engraved with her husband's name and date of birth, but he is not buried with her.

John was the son of Albert John Rowell (18621923) and Sarah Jane Thompson (18861968).

John first enlisted in the U.S. Army during WWII on 8 May 1942 and served until 25 Sep 1945. He reenlisted on 24 Jun 1947 and served until 23 Jun 1950.

In 1870, we find the family in Georgetown, Quitman, Georgia and the census record includes H.A. Stanford (21, farmer), Sarah F. (19), and W.J. (1, male). Living with the family are M.T. Stanford (52, Henry's mother) and L.F. Stanford (23, Henry's sister Lucy).

The 1880 census finds the family in District 1103, Wilcox, Georgia and lists Henry A. Standford (31, farmer), Sallie (31), William (11), Joseph (9), Mary (5), and Sarah (3).

Evidently, the marriage between Henry and Sallie ended soon after 1880.

It appears that Sallie separated from Henry soon after 1880 and may have returned to Alabama, though no records have yet been found.

Both of Sarah's daughters were married in Lowndes County, Alabama.

Mattie's father was Jonathan Anderson Barrett and her mother was Sarah Potts, both born in South Carolina.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Rochelle, Wilcox, Georgia and lists Jane Stanford (51, widow), Georgia (16), Lamar (14), John (11), and Eli (5/12). Since Eli was born in Dec 1899, Henry died in either 1899 or early 1900, before the census was taken.

In 1910, Martha J. Stanford (59) and John D. Stanford (22) were living in Militia District 1442, Wilcox, Georgia. In this census, she is listed as a widow. Since Eli does not appear in this census, it can be assumed that he has died by this time.

Children of Henry A. W. Stanford and Sarah F. "Sallie" Edwards:

- 427      i.    William J. Stanford, born 13 Apr 1869, in Alabama, died 5 Jan 1943, in Brevard County, Florida.
- 428      ii.   Joseph Tucker Stanford, born 13 Apr 1871, in Alabama, died 13 Jan 1936, in Largo, Pinellas, Florida.
- iii.   Mary Susan Stanford, born 1 Feb 1875, in Georgia, died 21 Apr 1946, in Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama, buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama. She married Jacob Thomas "Jake" Chesnutt 28 Nov 1897, in Lowndes County, Alabama. Jacob Thomas "Jake" Chesnutt was born 24 Oct 1852, in Lowndes County, Alabama, died 15 Jun 1912, in Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama, buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama.

Mary and Jake had three children.

In 1930, Mary (54, widow) was living with her daughter and son-in-law Gladys and Delmar Conner (both age 26) in Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama.

- iv.    Sarah Estelle Stanford, born 24 Oct 1876, in Rochelle, Wilcox, Georgia, died 10 Nov 1957, in Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama, buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama. She married Robert F. Lamar 27 Jul 1898, in Lowndes County, Alabama. Robert F. Lamar was born 23 Mar 1863, in Indian Springs, Butts, Georgia, died 4 Apr 1919, in Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama, buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama.

Sarah and Robert had 4 children.

Robert was the son of Robert Gresham Lamar (b. 1829, Horse Creek, Edgefield District, South Carolina) and Mary Caroline Jones (b. 1829, South Carolina).

Children of Henry A. W. Stanford and Martha Jane "Mattie" Barrett:

- i.    Georgia Stanford, born Mar 1883, in Georgia.
- 429      ii.   Augustus Lamar Stanford, born 5 Nov 1885, in Georgia, died Mar 1962, in Polk County, Florida.
- iii.   John D. Stanford, born Mar 1888, in Georgia, died 29 Nov 1927, in Bacon

County, Georgia, buried in New Hope Cemetery, Bacon County, Georgia. Cause of death: by gunshot. He married Carrie Hutto after 1925, in Georgia. Carrie Hutto was born about 1891, in Georgia, died 26 Aug 1949, in Bacon County, Georgia.

John's death certificate states that he died from a gun shot wound that was "not accidental". Thus, he may have been murdered or committed suicide.

- iv. Eli Stanford, born Dec 1899, in Wilcox County, Georgia, died before 1910, in Wilcox County, Georgia.

On 12 Oct 1854, Jerome enlisted in the U.S. Army at Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland. This record indicates that he was born about 1833 in Columbia County, Georgia and his occupation was "clerk". Jerome served in Company K, Artillery, at Ft. McHenry, Maryland. He was discharged on 23 Dec 1854 at Ft. McHenry, Baltimore City, Maryland and the record notes "a minor", which indicates that he was less than 18 years of age at the time.

The 1860 census finds the family living in Canton, Smith, Texas and lists J. J. Stanford (35, teacher, community school), Isabella (27), and Martha (2). This record indicates that Martha was born in Texas.

Evidently, the family returned from Texas to Georgia as the Civil War started.

An application for a headstone for Jerome J. Stanford in 1933 states that he died on 27 Jun 1862 and served in First Company A ("Oglethorpe's"), 12th Battalion, Georgia Light Artillery. The headstone was for a grave in Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia that has not yet been located.

Records show that J.J. Stanford entered the Battalion as a Sergeant and was a Sergeant when he died. We don't know whether he died of wounds or disease. Most of 1st Company A was formerly in Co. D, 1st (Ramsey's) Regiment Georgia Volunteer Infantry, which disbanded 15 March 1862. The company was transferred out of the 12th Battalion Georgia Light Artillery to the 13th Battalion Georgia Infantry about October or November 1862. In December 1862 that battalion was increased in size to regimental strength and became known as Gordon's Regiment, which subsequently became the 63rd Regiment Georgia Infantry. This company became Co. A, Oglethorpe Infantry, 63rd Regiment Georgia Volunteer Infantry.

In addition to the children listed, some researchers indicate that there was an earlier child, Martha Pauline Stanford, b. 28 Apr 1856 in Thomson, Columbia, Georgia. If this is true, evidently the child died before 1858 when Martha Melissa Stanford, perhaps a namesake, was born.

Isabella was the daughter of Charles Wade (b. abt 1808 in Georgia) and Charlotte Short, who married in Columbia County, Georgia on 25 Dec 1825. Charlotte died before 1851 and Charles married again to Prudence D. Reese, the widow of William Ozwell Reese, on 18 Mar 1851.

In 1870, Isabella is found by the census living with her father Charles Wade in District 174, Columbia, Georgia. The census record includes Charles Wade (69, farmer), Isabella Stanford (36), Mary L. Stanford (16), and Charles P. Stanford (9). This record also includes Ida Peone (13), who is not identified.

Children of John Jerome Stanford and Isabella Caroline Wade:

- i. Martha Melissa Stanford, born 10 May 1858, in Texas, died 27 Jun 1863, in Thomson, Columbia, Georgia.
- 430 ii. Charles Parks Stanford, born 19 Jan 1861, in Seven Leagues, Smith, Texas, died 15 Jul 1907, in Ft. Pierce, St. Lucie, Florida.

During the Civil War, David served in Brooks' Battery, also know as Terrell's Artillery, enlisting in Dec 1863. His unit surrendered at Greensboro, Guilford, North Carolina in April 1865.

The 1870 census finds David and Martha living near Thomson in Columbia County, Georgia. His mother Martha Stanford (58) is living with them at this time. Auren, David's younger brother, is also living with the family.

Martha was the daughter of James D. McCrary (b. Warren County, Georgia) and Elizabeth Staton/Slaton (b. McDuffie County, Georgia).

In the 1900 census, after David's death, we find Martha and her children living with her father in Wrightsboro, McDuffie, Georgia. The census record includes James D. McCrary (74), Martha M. Stanford (49, widow), Martha E. (28), Emma I. (25), and Jamie (9).

The 1910 census finds the family living in Wrightsboro, McDuffie, Georgia and includes James G. McCrary (84, Martha's father), Martha Stanford (59, widow), Bessie [Martha Elizabeth] (38), and Irene (35).

In 1919, Martha applied for a Widow's Pension on the basis of David's Civil War service. From this application, we learn the date and place of their marriage and David's date and place of death. The application also provides details of David's military service.

Children of David Augustus Stanford and Martha M. "Mattie" McCrary:

- i. Callie T. Stanford, born 13 Feb 1870, in Georgia, died 14 Nov 1960, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried in Westview Cemetery, McDuffie County, Georgia. She married David Lang "Buddy" Bruce 14 Nov 1895, in McDuffie County, Georgia. David Lang "Buddy" Bruce was born 18 May 1867, in Wilkes County, Georgia, died 4 May 1932, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried in Westview Cemetery, McDuffie County, Georgia.

In 1940, the census lists Callie Bruce (70, widow) living with her sisters Mack and Irene in Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia.

David was the son of John Sampler Bruce (b. 1846) and Katherine Wildes Lang (b. 1850).

- ii. Martha Elizabeth "Bessie" Stanford, born Dec 1871, in Georgia.
- iii. Emma Irene Stanford, born 12 Apr 1875, in Georgia, died 28 Sep 1948, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried in Westview Cemetery, Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia. She married James Joseph Shank 1911, in McDuffie County, Georgia. James Joseph Shank was born 6 Jan 1876, in Wilkes County, Georgia, died 18 May 1933, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried in West View Cemetery, Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia.

Irene and James had one son, Lloyd (b. Abt 1915, McDuffie County, Georgia).

In 1940, the census lists Irene Shank (65, widow) living with her sisters Mack and Callie in Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia.

- iv. James McCrary "Mack" Stanford, born 9 Jun 1880, in McDuffie County, Georgia, died 16 Sep 1942, in McDuffie County, Georgia, buried 18 Sep 1942, in West View Cemetery, Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia.

In 1900, we find James Stanford (18) living with her mother and sisters Martha E. (23) and Emmer I. (25) in her grandfather's house in Wrightsboro, McDuffie, Georgia.

The 1930 census lists Magie [Mackie?] Stanford (49, teacher, public school) living with her aunt Callie Dozier in Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia.

In 1940, the census finds Mack Stanford (59, teacher, public school) living in Thomson, McDuffie, Georgia. Her widowed sisters Irene Shank (65) and Callie Bruce (70) are living with her.

In all of these census records, her sex is listed as "female".

Mack never married and her death certificate indicates that she was a teacher in McDuffie County, Georgia for 40 years.

Mack's Georgia death certificate record lists her name as "James McCrary Stanford", female, and she is buried under the same name. Her nickname "Mack" apparently came from her middle name.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Schultz, Aiken, South Carolina and includes Bennett Mitchell (34, electrician, R.R.), Alberta S. (27), Anna H. (2), and Pearl (15). This evidently was Bennett's second marriage.

James Monroe Stanford served as a Private, Company F, 31st Georgia Infantry Regiment. According to his brother John's Texas Civil War Pension Application, John found his brother James very sick at Lynchburg, Virginia sometime in July or August 1864 and carried him home to die.

James' widow, Sara Elizabeth Scott, married his brother Waid Willis Stanford in 1867.

In the 1870 census, we find Sara and her two children Fanny (8) and Edgar (6) living with her new husband Wade Stanford (24) in Stewart County, Georgia.

Sara married two Stanford brothers...first, James Monroe Stanford (married 1859) and, then, Waid Willis Stanford (married 1867).

Children of James Monroe Stanford and Sara Elizabeth "Sallie" Scott:

- i. Francis Edna "Fanny, Fannie" Stanford, born 21 Feb 1859, in Stewart County, Georgia, died 9 Oct 1944, in Georgia, buried in North Side Cemetery, Lumpkin, Stewart, Georgia. She married James Barksdale Simpson Dec 1883, in Stewart County, Georgia. James Barksdale Simpson was born Sep 1857, in Georgia, died 12 Dec 1924, in Randolph County, Georgia, buried in North Side Cemetery, Lumpkin, Stewart, Georgia.

"Mattie" Griffin 2 Feb 1887, in Oak Flat, Rusk, Texas. Martha A. "Mattie" Griffin was born Feb 1861, in Mississippi, died 1911, in Oak Flat, Rusk, Texas, buried in Near Carthage, Texas.

The birth date for John recorded here may be incorrect. The 1850 census indicates that he was born about 1845. Other census records indicate dates of birth from 1842 to 1847.

John served as a Private in Company E, 31st Georgia Infantry, CSA. According to witnesses for his 1913 Texas pension application, he enlisted at Savannah, Chatham, Georgia in 1862 and was honorably discharged in 1865 at the end of the War.

He moved to Rusk County, Texas after the Civil War and was living there by 1869. The 1870 census finds the family living in Precinct 5, Rusk, Texas and lists Francis Stanford (46, widow), John (23, farmer), Anna (14), and Porter (11).

In 1880, the census finds the family living in Precinct 5, Rusk, Texas and lists John Stanford (38, farmer), Sarah C. (25), Oliver (8), John W. (6), Emma (3), and Edna (5/12).

On 24 Jul 1884, three of John and Sarah's children died. No record of how or why these deaths occurred has yet been found.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Laneville, Rusk, Texas and lists John Stanford (59, farmer), Martha A. (39), J.E. (15), E.M. (12), Ella J. (10), and Arthur O. (9).

In 1910, the census lists the family in Justice Precinct 7, Panola, Texas and includes Jim M. Stanford (67, farmer), Martha A. (46), and Arthur O. (18).

In 1913, John moved to Woodville, Tyler, Texas and made application (No. 23450) for a Soldier's Pension for his Civil War service. This pension was granted in Sep 1913.

The 1920 census lists John M. Stanford (79, widower) living in Carthage, Panola, Texas with his daughter Ella Stanford Hill and son-in-law Dean C. Hill. He died there in 1921 as attested by his son-in-law's Texas Application for Mortuary Warrant.

John's gravestone is engraved "J.M. Stanford".

Sarah was the daughter of William Arthur Holleman and Malinda Gwin. The spelling of her middle name varies...Cumile and Cumille.

Children of John Madison Stanford and Sarah Cumile Holleman:

- 437      i.    Oliver Hazard Perry Stanford, born 11 Jun 1872, in Oak Flat, Rusk, Texas, died 30 Mar 1931, in Beaumont, Jefferson, Texas.

According to their gravestones, Emma, Edna, and Robert L. Stanford all died on the same date: 24 Jul 1884. House fire or some other disaster?

- v.      Robert L. Stanford, born 11 Sep 1882, in Oak Flat, Rusk, Texas, died 24 Jul 1884, in Rusk County, Texas, buried in Holleman Cemetery, Rusk County, Texas.

According to their gravestones, Emma, Edna, and Robert L. Stanford all died on the same date: 24 Jul 1884. House fire or some other disaster?

The date of birth on Roberts gravestone is correct...he was born in 1882, not 1802 as engraved.

- 439      vi.   James Edwin Stanford, born 2 Apr 1885, in Oak Flat, Rusk, Texas, died 8 Apr 1964, in Jefferson County, Kentucky.

Children of John Madison Stanford and Martha A. "Mattie" Griffin:

Alphius E. Stanford served as a Private in Company E, 31st Georgia Infantry Regiment during the Civil War.

Based on census records for his wife Mary, it appears that the Alphius, with his brother(s) and mother, moved to Texas (Rusk County?) about 1869, where his son James was born. Evidently, Alphius soon died, since Mary returned to Georgia and is listed in the 1870 census living in Stewart County, next door to her parents.

This was Mollie's second marriage. She married Dr. William Adams in Stewart County, Georgia on 9 May 1852. The 1860 census lists the family living in District 23, Stewart, Georgia. Evidently, William died during the Civil War.

In 1870, the census finds the family living in Stewart County, Georgia, next door to her parents Thomas and Christine Trotman. This record lists Mary Stanford (31, seamstress), Fanny (3), and James (1). Living with them are four Adams children from Mary's first marriage.

The 1880 census lists the family living in Precinct 2, Anderson, Texas and includes Mary E. Stanford (50, widow, farm laborer), Fanny (14), and James (12). Mary's son William Adams (18) is living with them.

Children of Alphius E. Stanford and Mary E. "Mollie" Trotman:

- i. Frances Christiana "Fanny" Stanford, born about 1867, in Georgia, died about 1886, in Anderson County, Texas. She married Robert Asbury "Bob" Thompson 25 Feb 1881, in Anderson County, Texas. Robert Asbury "Bob" Thompson was born 11 Feb 1862, in Texas, died 22 Jun 1934, in Houston, Harris, Texas.

Fanny and Bob had two children.

Bob was the son of Edward F Thompson (1835-1862) and Martha Caroline (Callie) Cubley (b. abt 1840).

Bob remarried in Oct 1887 to Harriet Elins (1855-1920).

Bob was a Methodist minister.

- ii. James Stanford, born about 1869, in Texas.

Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 24 Nov 1846, in Alabama, died 5 Sep 1915, in DeBerry, Panola, Texas, buried in Mount Zion Cemetery, DeBerry, Panola, Texas. He married (1) Sara Elizabeth "Sallie" Scott 27 Oct 1867, in Stewart County, Georgia. Sara Elizabeth "Sallie" Scott was born 8 Feb 1843, in Eufaula, Barbour, Alabama, died 11 Nov 1901, in Marion County, Texas. He married (2) Mary Elizabeth "Molly" Tuttle about 1904, in Texas. Mary Elizabeth "Molly" Tuttle was born about 1862, in Texas, died 5 Oct 1932, in Lexington, Lee, Texas.

W.W. served in Company G, 46th Georgia Infantry, CSA, during the Civil War. According to his 1 Jul 1909 pension application in Texas, he served from 6 Apr 1864 until he was paroled in May 1865.

The 1870 census, lists Wade Stanford (24), Sarah (24), Fanny (8), Edgar (6), and William (2) [Williard] living in Stewart County, Georgia. Fanny and Edgar are his niece and nephew as well as step-daughter and step-son since Sara married his brother James Monroe Stanford in 1859. James was killed during the Civil War.

The family moved to Texas in Nov 1876.

In 1900, the census finds the family living in Justice Precinct 5 of Marion County, Texas. This census lists Waid Stanford (53, preaching) and Sallie (56). Living with them is daughter Sallie (15) [Susie Missouri Stanford] and her husband William Burns (36).

W.W's 1909 Civil War Pension application states that he was working as a shoe repairer at the time.

In 1910, the family is living in Justice Precinct 3 of Panola County, Texas. At this time, Waid has re-married and his mother-in-law, Caroline Tuttle (70), is living with them.

Sara married two Stanford brothers...first, James Monroe Stanford (married 1859) and, then, Waid Willis Stanford (married 1867).

Molly was the daughter of Daniel Tuttle (1820-1908) and wife Caroline (b. abt 1839).

Molly may have been married previously to a Rousseau.

Children of Waid Willis Stanford and Sara Elizabeth "Sallie" Scott:

- 441      i.    Willard Oscar Stanford, born 20 Sep 1868, in Stewart County, Georgia, died 14 Aug 1899, in Rusk County, Texas.

William Columbus Moore was born 8 Sep 1856, in Arkansas, died 5 Apr 1917, in Houston, Winston, Alabama. She married (3) Lee E. Collins about 1917, in New Mexico. Lee E. Collins was born about 1875, in Tennessee. She married (4) William Clifford Neal after 1930, in California.

- 443      v. John Irwin Stanford, born 12 Jan 1877, in Marion County, Texas, died 22 Dec 1905, in Karnack, Harrison, Texas.
- vi. Susie Missouri Stanford, born 6 Dec 1881, in Texas, died 18 Feb 1903, in Texas. She married William Benjamin Burns 20 May 1900, in Texas. William Benjamin Burns was born 1 Mar 1862, in Hope, Hempstead Arkansas, died 5 Sep 1937, in Goose Creek, Harris, Texas, buried in Hill of Rest Cemetery, Harris County, Texas. Cause of death: angina pectoris.

In the 1900 census, Susie is listed as "Sallie".

Susie and William had two children. Sarah's death date corresponds to the birth of her second child, so she may have died from complications of childbirth.

William was the son of John A. and Martha V. Burns of Hempstead County, Arkansas.

Sometme after Sallie's death, William married Lula (Surname unknown). He was a widower when he died.

The 1860 census finds James V. Stanford (12) living in the household of Vincent Reese, his grandfather, in District 12, Columbia, Georgia.

The 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia lists James V. Stanford, age 16, school boy, living in Columbia County, Georgia.

In the 1870 census, James V. Stanford (23, farmer) is single and farming in District 134, Columbia, Georgia.

The 1880 census lists the family living in Wrightsboro, McDuffie, Georgia and includes Vince Stanford (34, farmer), Lula (35), and Lula (2). The Lula in this record was born about 1845, making her Vince's first wife.

In 1900, the census lists the family living in Ashford, Henry, Alabama and Includes James Stanford (52, farmer), Lula (48), Eva (12), and Nina (11). Eva and Nina are listed as "daughter" in the census record, but the record indicates also that James and Lula have been married only 4 years. Thus, this Lula is James' second wife.

In 1907, the Alabama census of confederate soldiers finds James Vinson Stanford living in Ashford, Henry, Alabama. In this record, James states that he enlisted as a Private in the CSA Army in Georgia in Jun 1863 and served until the end of the war. This record also lists his birthdate as 27 Dec 1847, which is incorrect. (And, given the 1864 Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia, it is more probable that he did not join the Army until late Jun 1864.)

The 1910 census finds the family living in Ashford, Henry, Alabama and includes James V. Stanford (63, farmer), Lula T. (58), and Eva (21).

In 1920, the family is living in Justice Precinct 3, Guadalupe, Texas and the census record lists J.V. Stanford (72, farmer), Tolula A. (64), and Eva (31).

Tolula was the daughter of George Perryman and his wife Louise.

Tolula's middle initial is listed as "A" in the 1920 census.

Her gravestone reads "Loula T. Stanford."

Children of James Vinson "Vince" Stanford and Lula LNU:

- i. Lula Stanford, born about 1878, in Georgia.
- ii. Eva Stanford, born 20 Nov 1887, in Alabama, died 14 Dec 1961, in Wilson County, Texas, buried in Nockenut Cemetery, Nockenut, Wilson, Texas.

Eva never married.

At the time of her death, she was living on RFD Route 1, about 15 miles north of Stockdale, Guadalupe, Texas. Her death certificate states that she died of heart failure. This record lists her father as James V. Stanford and her mother "unknown."

- iii. Nina Stanford, born Mar 1889, in Alabama.

Orleans, Louisiana. They were divorced.

Based on his son's name, Emmett's middle initial probably stood for Augustus.

In the 1880 census, Emmett is living with his parents in Canton, Madison, Mississippi and clerking in his father's store.

We know from New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana marriage records that he married in 1892 to the Martha Pritchard, the widow of George M. Bayly (Bailey), Jr.

In the 1900 census, we find Emmett (42) and Martha (36), with two children from Martha's first marriage, Kenneth and Elsie Bayly, and Kelley Stanford (3) in Pass Christian, Harrison, Mississippi. Emmett is listed as being in the insurance business. The family must have been doing well, since the census list for the household includes three live-in servants, all born in France.

It appears that the marriage ended before 1910 since, in the 1910 census, we find Martha living in Norfolk, Norfolk, Virginia with the two children from her first marriage and the son from the marriage with Emmett, Kelley [Kenneth] Stanford. There appears to be no 1910 census record for Emmett.

In the 1920 census, we find Emmett (61) living in an apartment in New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana where he works as a salesman (probably of insurance).

In the 1930 census, Emmett (71) is a boarder in a house in New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana and listed his employment as "insurance salesman".

Evidently, Emmett liked to take ship cruises. In 1920, he took a two-week cruise from New Orleans on the S.S. Athenas. From the passenger record, we learn his birth place and date of birth. In 1926, he took a cruise to Cuba and we have the passenger record of the Havana to New Orleans leg of that trip.

Martha was the daughter of Richard Pritchard (b. abt 1835, Tennessee) and his wife Elizabeth. As evidenced by the "New Orleans City Directory," the family was living in New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana by 1866.

Martha married George Marcus Bayly Jr. on 14 Dec 1881 in New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana. George died before 1891 and the "New Orleans City Directory" for that year lists "Martha P.Bayly, Widow George M., 463 Prytania."

In 1910, we find Martha Stanford (45) living in Norfolk, Norfolk, Virginia with the two children from her first marriage [Richard Bailey (27) and Elsie Bailey (20)] and her son from her marriage with Emmett, Kelley Stanford (14).

Children of Emmett A. Stanford and Martha Pritchard:

- i. Kenneth Augustus "Kelly" Stanford, born 14 Aug 1895, in New Orleans, Orleans, Louisiana, died 25 May 1972, in Huntington, Cabell, West Virginia. He married (1) Vina V. Neville 1938, in Brooke County, West Virginia. Vina V. Neville was born about 1878, in Ohio, died 28 Aug 1956, in Huntington, Cabell, West Virginia. He married (2) Opal LNU after 1956, in West Virginia.

On 5 Jun 1917, Kenneth registered for the WWI draft in Richmond, Wise, Virginia. He listed his birth date and place as 14 Aug 1895, New Orleans, Louisiana. At the time he lived at 2612 W. Main in Richmond, was married, and had three children. Kenneth worked as a grocery salesman for Fleming Christian Co. in Richmond.

City directories for Richmond, Virginia list Kenneth A. Stanford as a salesman or traveling salesman living in the city in 1913, 1915, 1916, 1917, and 1921. None of these records list a spouse.

The 1940 census lists Kenneth Stanford (48, salesman, match company) and his wife Vina B. Stanford (62) living in Huntington, Cabell, West Virginia. This record indicates that the couple were living at the same location in 1935, indicating that they married before that date.

In 1942, Kenneth registered for the WWII draft in West Virginia. He listed his birth data and place as 14 Aug 1893, New Orleans, Louisiana. At the time he lived at 219 W. 7th Ave, Huntington, Cabell, West Virginia and worked as a salesman for the Universal Match Company, 79 Madison Avenue, New York, New York. This WWII draft record lists Kenneth's wife's name as Vina.

City directories for Huntington, West Virginia for 1940, 1941, 1943, 1945, 1947, and 1951 list Kenneth Stanford as a salesman and his wife as Vina, Vina R., or Vina V.

The West Virginia death record Kenneth lists his name as Kenneth K. T. Stanford and his date of death as 25 May 1972. In this record, his spouse is listed as "Opal," so it is probable that sometime after Vina died, Kenneth remarried.

According to the West Virginia Death Index, Vina was the daughter of Samuel Neville and Genova Poe.

Evidently, as evidence by the West Virginia Marriages Index, Vina was previously married to a Ridgley.

born 16 Aug 1830, in Putnam County, Georgia, died 21 Apr 1873, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, buried in Oakland Cemetery, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. He married Martha E. Bell about 1855, in Georgia. Martha E. Bell was born Jun 1832, in Tennessee, died 7 Nov 1921, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, buried in Oakland Cemetery, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

In the 1860 census, we find T.M. Stanford (29), wife M.E. (27), and children E.E. (3) and L.B. (1) living in District 369, Putnam, Georgia. Thomas is listed as a boot maker. Also living in the household is E.S. Stanford (23), who is Thomas' brother Eli and who also is a boot maker.

The 1864 "Census for Re-Organizing the Georgia Militia" lists T.M. Stanford, age 32, shoemaker, living in Gilmer County, Georgia.

By the 1870 census, the family has moved to Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia and the census lists them in Ward 4 as T.M. Stanford (40, a boot maker), Martha (38), E.E. (13), Lula B. (11), Exter (8), and Carrie (4).

The 1870 edition of the "Atlanta City Directory and Strangers Guide" lists Thomas M. Stanford, boot manufacturer and repairer at 70 Peachtree in the city.

Martha E. Stanford (45) is listed as a widow and a "huskster" in the 1880 census, living in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia with children Exter (16), Carrie (12), and Charles (8).

In the 1900 census, she is 67 and widow living by herself in Atlanta Ward 5, Fulton, Georgia.

In 1910, she is listed living in Atlanta Ward 6, Fulton, Georgia with two lodgers. She is 77 years old.

The 1920 census finds Martha (87) living with her daughter Emma Elizabeth Stanford Rhinehart (61) in Atlanta Ward 5, Fulton, Georgia. . Living with them are two of Emma's sons, Tobe (40) and Paul (35), both born in Alabama.

Children of Thomas Mitchell Stanford and Martha E. Bell:

- i. Emma Elizabeth Stanford, born about 1857, in Georgia, died 4 Jan 1951, in Fulton County, Georgia. She married Francis S. "Frank" Rinehart. Francis S. "Frank" Rinehart was born about 1851, in Alabama, died 21 Mar 1894, in Georgia.

In the 1880 census, Emma (22) and Francis (29) are living in Cheokee County, Alabama with their first two children, Maggie (3) and Toby (1). Francis is a farmer and their farm is located next door to Francis parents, Enoch (61) and Virginia (61) Rinehart.

In the 1910 census, Emma (52) is living in Collins, Fulton, Georgia with her children Tobias (30), Paul (27), Grover C. (23), and Carrie L. (16).

The 1920 census finds Martha Stanford (87) living with her daughter Emma Elizabeth Stanford Rinehart (61) in Atlanta Ward 5, Fulton, Georgia. Living with them are two of Emma's sons, Tobe (40) and Paul (35).

Emma and Francis had 7 children, all born in Alabama.

- ii. Lula Belle Stanford, born about 1859, in Georgia, died after 1930, in Hamilton County, Tennessee. She married William F. Smith. William F. Smith was born Mar 1950, in Tennessee, died before 1920, in Hamilton County, Tennessee.

Lula and William had 6 children.

The 1880 census finds the couple living in Hampton, Henry, Georgia, listing W.G. Smith (23, clerk) and Lula Smith (21).

Sometime between 1880 and 1900 the family moved to Tennessee and the 1900 census finds them living in Civil District 7, James, Tennessee.

By 1920, the census finds Lula B. Smith (60, widow) living in District 4, Hamilton, Tennessee. The 1930 census finds Lula B. Smith (69, widow) continuing to live in District 4, Hamilton, Tennessee.

- 444 iii. Exter Stanford, born 12 Sep 1861, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, died 9 Nov 1954, in Randlett, Cotton, Oklahoma.
- iv. Caroline G. "Carrie" Stanford, born Jan 1867, in Georgia, died 1 Sep 1929, in Bibb County, Georgia. She married James A. Lyon about 1885, in Georgia. James A. Lyon was born Sep 1858, in Georgia, died before 1910, in Logan County, Oklahoma.

Carrie and James had 6 children.

Based on the dates and places of birth of their children, it appears that Carrie and James moved to Nebraska soon after their marriage, but moved back to Georgia before 1888. Sometime between 1888 and 1892, the family moved to Oklahoma.

After James' death, Carrie moved back to Georgia and is found living in Bibb County, Georgia in the 1910 and 1920 census. She died ther in 1929.

Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton, Harris, Georgia. He married (1) Margaret E. "Maggie" Henry 12 Dec 1854, in Georgia. Margaret E. "Maggie" Henry was born 4 Oct 1837, in Georgia, died 23 May 1858, in Hamilton, Harris, Georgia, buried in Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton, Harris, Georgia. He married (2) Margaret A. Passmore 14 Jun 1859, in Harris County, Georgia. Margaret A. Passmore was born 26 Jun 1841, in Georgia, died 21 Dec 1862, in Hamilton, Harris, Georgia, buried in Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton, Harris, Georgia. He married (3) Marietta Eugene "Mollie" Walker 28 Oct 1865. Marietta Eugene "Mollie" Walker was born 12 May 1836, in Muscogee County, Georgia, died 5 Apr 1882, in Hamilton, Harris, Georgia, buried in Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton, Harris, Georgia. He married (4) Eliza Chapple Walker 1882. Eliza Chapple Walker was born 9 Sep 1842, in Georgia, died 1 Apr 1914, in Hamilton, Harris, Georgia, buried in Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton, Harris, Georgia.

Based on census records, we find that Lycurgus was a lawyer who also did some farming on the side. He was a Civil War veteran and he married four times.

According to a letter from his son James Leland Stanford to distant cousin Martha Ann Missouri Stanford Reed, Lycurgus graduated from Maryville College [Maryville, Tennessee] in 1854 and studied law at Cumberland University [Lebanon, Tennessee].

At the start of the Civil War, he enlisted in Company B, 3rd Georgia Calvary. He was captured in the battle of Resaca near Atlanta on 14 May 1864 and imprisoned at Johnson's Island, Sandusky Bay, Lake Erie, Ohio. He returned home to Georgia in July 1865.

The 1870 census lists Lycurgus (age 38), wife Marietta (32) and children John C., William H. , Maggie A., and L. Walker living near Hamilton, Harris, Georgia.

On 17 Oct 1870, the Georgia General Assembly incorporated the Columbus and Atlanta Air-Line Railroad and authorized stock in the amount of $3,000,000 to be issued. L.L. Stanford was appointed as a member of the Board of Commissioners to organize and manage this railroad.

The 1880 census lists Lycurgus (age 48) with wife M. (age 44) [probably Marietta]. From the list of children, it appears that John C. has left home by this time.

Lycurgus Leven Stanford was elected to the Georgia General Assembly first in 1877 and, apparently, continued in that office until at least 1904. The following is the biographical sketch published by the General Assembly, State of Georgia, 1880-81 Session [with additions and corrections enclosed in brackets. Note, also, the flowery language and extensive hyperbole...typical of post-Civil War treatment of the Confederacy and the "lost cause" through the 1960s]:

"HON. LYCURGUS L. STANFORD (HARRIS COUNTY )

"This distinguished son of Georgia was born in Putnam county on the 10th day of December, 1831. His father, Nehemiah Stanford, was born in Warren county, Georgia, the 26th day of June, 1805, moved with his father in early life to Putnam county, lived there till 1859, when he removed to Murray county, in this State where he now resides. He is a man of fine practical sense, of strict integrity, honest and upright, and of excellent moral character.

"His mother's maiden name was Elizabeth Wyatt, born in Mecklenburg county, North Carolina, in 1802, of honorable parentage, married in 1829, and was a woman of superior intelligence, an indulgent mother, a devout and faithful member of the Methodist Church, and died in August, 1854.

"He was educated at Jefferson Academy, in Stanfordville [near Eatonton, Putnam County, Georgia], till the age of eighteen, when he entered Maryville College, East Tennessee, and graduated there in July, 1854, with honor, and on the 12th day of December of the same year he married Miss Maggie E. Henry, of Blount county. East Tennessee, an accomplished and most excellent young lady, the daughter of the late John Henry, of that county.

"In 1855, he was chosen Professor of Mathematics in Milltown Seminary, located in Chambers County, Alabama, which position he filled till May of that year, when, owing to the death of the Principal, he was placed in charge of the institution, which he managed with great success for two years, at which time he was elected President of Hamilton [Georgia] Female College which high position he filled with honor, and successfully built up and sustained the same till the commencement in July, 1858, when he resigned the presidency of the college, owing to the death of his wife, which occurred on the 23d day of May, 1858. He then entered the law department of Cumberland University, located at Lebanon, Tennessee, and graduated in December, 1858, and returning to Hamilton, commenced the practice of law as a copartner with Colonel James M. Mobley, and in June, 1859, married Miss Maggie A. Passmore, a most estimable and accomplished young lady, the eldest daughter of James and Nancy Passmore, of Harris county.

"In the political campaign of 1860, he took an active part, being by birth and education a Southern Jeffersonian Democrat, advocated the great and fundamental doctrine of States Rights, and when the allegiance of his State was dissolved from the Federal government, and civil war was inaugurated, he proved his faith by his works, and volunteered as a private in Company B, Third Georgia Cavalry, Colonel Martin J. Crawford commanding, and soon rose to the rank of a Captain in the regiment, and led his brave comrades through many of the hard fought battles of the Army of the Tennessee a brave soldier, always at his post of duty, ready and willing to peril his life in the defense of constitutional liberty.

"He was captured at the battle of Resaca, on the 14th day of May, 1864, carried to Johnson's Island, Sandusky Bay, Lake Erie, and remained a prisoner, suffering many hardships and deprivations till the close of the war. In July, 1865, he returned home and found his State desolated and ruined by the ravages of a cruel war, his town in ashes, civil government subservient to military power and usurpation [by blacks and northerners], his hearth-stone shrouded in deepest gloom, his wife having died in December, 1862. Truly a sad and melancholy picture, but 'nil desperandum' ['nothing to be despaired of', a part of 'Nil desperandum Teucro duce et auspice Teucro' ('there is nothing to despair about with Teucer as our leader and Teucer as our protector') from Horace, Odes, I.vii.27] being his motto, and guided by that hope which springs eternal in the human breast, he girded himself about as a strong man, accepted the situation in good faith, and at once set about to build up the ruin and desolation of his home.

"And, like a wise and prudent man, he saw that it was not good to fight the battles of life alone, and on the 31st day of October, 1865, he married Miss Marietta Walker, the accomplished and intelligent daughter of the late James S. Walker, of Harris county.

"In the dark and gloomy period that followed immediately after the war, he dissented from the non-action policy advocated by many of the political leaders of the State, knowing the power of the Federal government to annihilate constitutional liberty and forever to abolish local self-government in the States, having called by solemn congressional enactment a Convention to frame a new Constitution in accordance with the reconstruction measures of Congress, he thought it wise to participate in that Convention, and advocated the selection of the wisest and best men to be sent as delegates to the same; and at the Senatorial Convention of the Twenty-fifth District, he was, without his knowledge or consent, selected as a suitable and proper person to represent that district as a delegate in the Constitutional Convention which assembled in the city of Atlanta, on the 9th day of December, 1867. It was in this Convention that he greatly distinguished himself for statesmanship and patriotic devotion to his country, and obtained the appellation of being one of the immortal thirteen Hancock Democrats, who stood like a stone-wall for three long months battling for the fundamental principles of constitutional liberty.

"The impartial historian of the future, when he contemplates this dark and gloomy period in the history of the State, will doubtless pause, to do honor to the names of the patriotic men who at that time, by devotion to principle, saved the State from impending ruin and political desolation, rescued from the hands of the enemy the "ark of the covenant," constitutional liberty, and planted it again upon the ramparts of their country. He has twice represented his county in the General Assembly of the State, in 1877 and 1880, and as a legislator he is faithful to the trust confided, always at his post of duty, actively participating in all important legislation, and as a member of the General Judiciary Committee of this House has much influence, being highly respected as a good lawyer, a man of firmness and integrity of character. As Chairman of the Temperance Committee he has acted faithfully, and done much, in a conservative manner, to inaugurate a healthy reform on this subject, and to restrict the growing evil of intemperance in the State. As a citizen and a man he is affable and pleasing in manners, polite and courteous, social, kind, benevolent and generous; temperate in habit, modest and rather retiring in disposition, a kind husband and indulgent father."

In 1894, Stanford entered the race to serve in the U.S. House of Representatives representing the 4th District of Georgia. However, the Democratic convention held at Warm Springs, Georgia, after 315 ballots, deleted his name from further consideration. [Interestingly, newspaper accounts of the convention refer to him as "Col. Stanford", elevating his rank from Captain that he held during the Civil War.] He ran again in 1896, but placed third in the Democratic primary.

The 1900 census finds Lycurgus (age 68), his wife Eliza C. (age 55), and son James L. (age 15) living in Hamilton, Harris, Georgia. At this time, Georgia A. Walker is listed as a boarder...maybe Marietta's niece?

In 1904, he again ran for office in the Georgia General Assembly, but on 18 Mar 1904, he lost his reelection bid in the Harris County Democratic Party primary to B. H. Walton, 411 votes to 550 votes.

The following is a biography of Lycurgus Leven Stanford published in "Georgia's Public Men, 1902-1904", compiled and published by Thomas W. Loyless, Pres. of the Byrd Printing Company, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia [while much of the information in this bio is correct, there are numerous errors, also]:

"Lycurgus L. Stanford, lawyer and farmer, Hamilton, Harris County, Georgia, son of Nehemiah and Elizabeth (Wyatt) Stanford, was born in Putnam County, Georgia in 1831.

"His paternal great-grand-parents, Joshua and Elizabeth (McGhee) Stanford, were natives of England and Scotland respectively, whence, with a brother of his, they emigrated to this country with Lord Cecil, and settled on the eastern shore of Chesapeake bay. Joshua Stanford was a soldier in the patriot army during the Revolutionary War, was captured and imprisoned on a man-of-war for six months.

"His brother emigrated south to one of the Carolinas. Mr. Stanford's paternal grandparents Levin and Eleanor (McGhee) Stanford were born on the eastern shore of Chesapeake Bay, Maryland; migrated to Georgia in 1810 and settled in Warren county, whence, in 1820. They moved to Putnam county, where they lived until they died.

"Mr. Stanford's father was born in Warren county in 1803, and was reared a farmer, which was his life-pursuit. He was a boy when his father moved to Putnam county, where lie lived until 1859, when he moved to Murray county, Georgia, where he lived until he died. Mr. Stanford's grandparents were Sylvester and Sarah (Mills) Wyatt. Sylvester Wyatt came to this country from England before the Revolutionary war, and settled in North Carolina; was on the committee which drafted the ordinance of separation from Great Britain, and was a soldier in the patriot army during the war for independence. Some years afterward he moved to Paducah, Ky., where he died in 1854.

"Mr. Stanford was reared on a farm and received his primary education at Jefferson Academy in Putnam county. He afterward attended Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn., from which he was graduated in 1854. In 1857 he was chosen president of the Hamilton Female College, and later went to Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., from the law department of which he graduated in 1859. In 1862 he enlisted in Company B (Capt. B. A. Thornton), Third Georgia Cavalry, and after serving two months was commissioned as Captain of Company K, same regiment. With his command lie participated in many engagements, some of them bloody and important. Among them: Bridgeport, Vinegar Hill, Munfordville, Perryville, Crab Orchard, Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, Resaca. At the last named battle (May 14, 1864) he was captured and sent to Johnson's Island, Ohio he was detained as a prisoner for about thirteen months, reaching home after his release in July, 1865. He at once entered upon the practice of law, and has uninterruptedly pursued it since, growing in reputation, with a clientage all the time gradually increasing in volume, value and influence. In 1868 he was elected a member of the Constitutional Convention, and in 1877 was elected to represent his county in the General Assembly, and again in 1881.

"Mr. Stanford was married in 1854 to Miss Maggie, daughter of John and Sarah (Smith) Henry, of East Tennessee. She died in 1858, leaving two sons John C., who died in 1879, aged 24, and William H., who died in 1893, aged 26. Her father was a native Virginian and a near relative of Patrick Henry, the eloquent Virginia patriot. Later in life he moved to Tennessee, where he became very prominent. In 1859 Mr. Stanford married Miss Maggie A. Passmore, born in Harris county in 1836 daughter of James and Nancy (Lester) Passmore. She died in 1862, leaving one living child, Maggie, wife of J. A. Brawner. In 1865, for his third wife, he married Miss Marietta Walker born in Muscogee county, Georgia, in 1836 daughter of James and Lucinda (Ferguson) Walker. She died early in 1882, leaving one child, Lycurgus W. Late in the same year, Stanford was married to Miss Eliza C. Walker, sister of his last wife, by whom he has had one child, James L.

"He is an enthusiastic member of the Masonic fraternity and Worshipful Master of the local lodge. He and his wife are members of the Methodist church.

"In 1894 Mr. Stanford was a prominent candidate for Congress from the Fourth district, and in the convention held at Warm Springs, Ga., August 13-16, was only defeated on the 315th ballot by Hon. C. L. Closes of Coweta County. Mr. Stanford is one of the active politicians of the State, and is now, and has been since its organization, president commander of Harris County, Georgia Camp [of] Confederate Veterans. In the present House, Mr. Stanford is on the following committees : General Judiciary, Ways and Means, School for the Deaf and Dumb, and Special Soldiers' Home Committee."

The family plot is located in the Hamilton Cemetery and the gravestones provide unusual detail about the life of Lycurgus, his four wives (two of whom were sisters), and his children. The following is his gravestone information:

"STANFORD, Lycurgus Levin 12-10-1831      10-05-1917 CAPT., CO. K, 3 GA CALVARY, WHO FOUGHT BRAVELY AND GALLANTLY IN THE WAR BETWEEN THE STATES FROM 61-65"

"Stanford Family Papers", 1858-1881, Collection Number Ms2009-010, is held by University Libraries, P.O. Box 90001, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Blacksburg, Virginia 24062-9001, Phone: (540) 231-6308. This collection, which is open to researchers, consists of the correspondence of members of the Stanford family. The bulk of the letters were sent to or by Lycurgus L. Stanford, his brother Eli, and his father Nehemiah. The letters date from 1858 through 1876. Pre-war letters include a letter from Nehemiah to Lycurgus Stanford that includes a "Receipt for Consumption." Many letters date from Lycurgus and Eli Stanford's time serving in the Civil War. In these letters, members of the family discuss the events of the war and express their belief in the Southern "cause." Even when the situation in the South begins to deteriorate, they express a desire for a swift victory. There is one letter written to Lycurgus during his imprisonment at Johnson's Island, two letters from after the war make reference to Lycurgus Stanford's time in prison and the efforts of Southerners to rebuild. The remaining letters date from the post-war period and relate mainly to Lycurgus Stanford's service as a representative in the Georgia General Assembly. The collection also includes court documents from a case relating to the hire of an African-American boy named Sam in 1878 as well as a brief biographical sketch of Lycurgus L. Stanford published in 1881.

The following excerpt about Stanford is taken from "By Faith Endowed, The Story Of Maryville College, 1819-1994" by Carolyn L. Blair and Arda S. Walker (1994, Maryville College Press). Maryville College was founded in 1819 in Tennessee by the Presbyterian Church with Dr. Isaac Anderson as its first (and only) professor. Anderson later became President of the college

"Captain Lycurgus Leven Stanford had the honor for several years before his death in 1917 of being Maryville's oldest living alumnus. Born in Stanfordville, Georgia, in 1831, he was raised on a farm and received a primary education in an academy near home. He then attended the College Department at Maryville, graduating in 1854, and Cumberland Law School, graduating in 1859. He served four years in the Confederate Army and was a prisoner of war for thirteen months before he was able to return home to an active law practice and many honors.

"A brief biography of Captain Stanford, supplied by his son, reveals a great deal not only about the subject but about Dr. [Isaac] Anderson and Maryville College. When Stanford entered Maryville, he had only the equivalent of a sixth grade education, but he had read a great deal. After examining him, Dr. Anderson found that he knew grammar and some arithmetic. The biographical sketch continues:

" [Dr. Anderson] sent him to a drug store to buy a Latin Grammar and told him when he had committed it to memory to come to him at any time after regular class hours to recite. In three days he was prepared to recite one-third of the grammar and knew it. He completed it in three weeks sentences and all, and also read "De Amicitia" in Latin and was assigned to a class in Caesar.'

"In brief, he graduated with honors in three and a half years. The son said that his father loved Maryville College. He remembered his college courses sixty years after graduation and could read Latin and Greek more readily than some men read English. He added: Captain Stanford spoke of Maryville College only a few hours before his death.' "

- i. John Calhoun Stanford, born about 1856, in Hamilton, Harris, Georgia.

Records at the University of Georgia indicate that John was in the Class of 1874 at the university. [The Hargett Rare Book and Manuscript Library contains an oration to the Demosthenian Society on duty made by John Calhoun Stanford in the 1870s. Mr. Stanford is listed as a matriculate who would have graduated in the class of 1874. Also included is an 1857 edition of "The Oration of Demosthenes on the Crown," with notes by J. T. Champlin, Boston and Cambridge, James Munroe & Co., 1857, with Stanford's name in it. The oration by Stanford was found in the book.]

In 1900, the family is found living in Hamilton, Harris Georgia. This record lists John H. Brawner (40, R.R. Agent) and Maggie A. (37), but includes no children. However, living with them are Milford S. Standford (14, niece) and Truman W. Stanndford (28, boarder).

The 1910 census lists Margaret Brawner (44) living in Hamilton, Harris, Georgia, but John is not included in this record even though the record indicates that Margaret is married.

In 1930, the census finds Margaret A. Brawner (67, widow) living in Hamilton, Harris, Georgia.

John was the son of Jonathan W. Brawner and his wife Amie C.

Children of Lycurgus Leven Stanford and Marietta Eugene "Mollie" Walker:

From a letter he wrote in 1906, we know that James Leland Stanford was commonly know by his middle name, Leland.

Leland studied Civil Engineering at the University of Georgia, graduating in 1907. He served as vice president of the senior class, 1906-1907.

The following is his gravestone information:

Evidently, Leland never married. His death certificate states he was a teacher and single when he died.

Eli was a CSA veteran. He enlisted in May 1861 at Spring Place, Georgia in Company B, 3rd Georgia Infantry Regiment and, afterward, Company A of the 37th Georgia Infantry

Eli served with Silas M. Wood during the Civil War. After Silas was killed in 1865, Eli married his widow Tennessee M. Blair Wood.

The 1870 census finds Eli (34) farming in Militia District 1013 of Murray County, Georgia with his wife Tennessee (32), and children Mary E. (3), and Edgar R. (1). Also listed are Nancy F. (11), Henry D. (8), and Samuel M. Wood (5), Tennessee's children by her first marriage. Nancy Blair (30, b. TN) is also living with the family and is probably Tennessee's younger sister.

The 1880 census record lists Eli (45), Tennessee (43), Mary (13), Edgar (11), James N. (10), Helene (6), and Tennessee L. (6M) living in McDonald, Murray, Georgia, where Eli is a farmer. In this census, two of Tennessee's children from her first marriage, Florence N. Wood (20) and Samuel Wood (16) are living with the family.

Eli helped purchase land for the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in 1899. The Union Cumberland Presbyterian Church was located on the Loughridge farm near the "Hassler's to Crandall" Road. Founded in 1889, the church was organized by Rev. S.H. Henry, probably for the convenience of area Cumberland Presbyterians who were not able to get to Sumach each Sunday. Elders John Gregory, Joel N. Lagan, and Eli S. Stanford purchased a small corner lot from S.T. Fincher for $200 on which to build their church.

The 1900 census finds the family living in McDonald, Murray, Georgia and lists Ely Stanford (46, farmer, widowed), Mollie (32), Hurlime (21), and Tennessee (18).

In 1901, Eli applied for an Indigent Soldier's Pension based on his Civil War service. He stated that "for the past 5 years, I suffer from the worse case piles" and was unable to work. His support at the time was provided by his children.

The 1910 census finds Eli (76), a widower, living in McDonald, Murray, Georgia with his daughter Mollie (40).

On May 5, 2001, there was a gravesite dedication ceremony at the grave of Eli S. Stanford located in the Sumach Cumberland Presbyterian Cemetery in Spring Place, Georgia. The ceremony was conducted by The SCV Camps from Dalton and Chatsworth Georgia and a Confederate marker was placed. All descendents of Leven, Nehemiah, and Eli S. were invited to attend.

Nancy L. [Finley] Powell applied for "Pension by a Widow Under Act of 1910. She had a witness of marriage and of service of Watson Franklin Powell by friend Eli S. Stanford, Murray County, Georgia. Eli Stanford stated that he knew Watson Franklin Powell before the war, that they enlisted together in May 1861 at Spring Place, Murray, Georgia, and that they served together under General Bragg.

"Stanford Family Papers", 1858-1881, Collection Number Ms2009-010, is held by University Libraries, P.O. Box 90001, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Blacksburg, Virginia 24062-9001, Phone: (540) 231-6308. This collection, which is open to researchers, consists of the correspondence of members of the Stanford family. The bulk of the letters were sent to or by Lycurgus L. Stanford, his brother Eli, and his father Nehemiah. The letters date from 1858 through 1876.

This was Tennessee's second marriage. She married Silas M. Wood (1835-1865) in Tennessee (probably Bradley County) about 1859. The couple moved to Georgia in 1860/1861 and Silas enlisted as a Private in Company A, 37th Georgia Infantry, CSA. He died in 1865 at the end of the Civil War [he is interred at the Confederate Cemetery, Forsyth County, Georgia].

Children of Eli Sylvester Stanford and Tennessee M. Blair:

- i. Mary Elizabeth "Mollie" Stanford, born 26 Oct 1867, in Georgia, died 19 Feb 1943, in Murray County, Georgia, buried in Mount Zion Cemetery, Chatsworth, Murray, Georgia.

Her gravestone is engraved "Mollie Stanford", she never married.

In 1910, the census finds the children of her sister Tennessee and husband Will Peeples, Wilma [Milma] Peeples (15), Otis (10), and Ely S. (9) living with Molly Stanford (53) in McDonald, Murray, Georgia.

- 448 ii. Edgar Rembert Stanford, born 16 Jan 1870, in Murray County, Georgia, died 4 Mar 1947, in Clifton, Bosque, Texas.
- 449 iii. James Nehemiah Stanford, born 1871, in Georgia, died 27 Dec 1953, in Murray County, Georgia.
- iv. Milma Helene Stanford, born Apr 1874, in Georgia.

Milma's birth date is listed as Apr 1879 in the 1900 census when she is still living at home with her widowed father in McDonald, Murray, Georgia. The 1880 census indicates her date of birth as about 1874. Given that her siblings birth dates in the 1900 are incorrect, it appears hers is also.

- v. Tennessee Leola "Tennie" Stanford, born Sep 1879, in Georgia, died between 1911 and 1917, in Murray County Georgia. She married Drewry William J. "Will" Peeples 5 Feb 1903, in Spring Place, Murray, Georgia. Drewry William J. "Will" Peeples was born 6 Mar 1882, in Murray County Georgia, died 23 Jan 1936, in Walton County, Georgia.

Tennessee is listed in the 1880 census at age 6 months and in the 1900 census at age 18, b. Sep 1881. Her correct date of birth was probably Sep 1879.

The census finds the family living in Doolittle, Murray, Georgia and lists Will J. Peeples (26), Tennie Peeples (27), Mima [Milma] (6), and Otis (1-6/12). This record indicates that Will and Tennie have been married 7 years.

In 1910, the census finds the children Wilma [Milma] Peeples (15), Otis (10), and Ely S. (9) living with Molly Stanford, Tennie's sister, in McDonald, Murray, Georgia.

Will was the son of Drewry Morgan Peeples (1853-1923) and Missouri Martha Leonard (1856-1912). Will was a logger.

On 12 Oct 1918, Will registered for the WWI draft in Chatsworth, Murray, Georgia. From this record we learn his full name and date of birth. On this date, he was already widowed and had not yet remarried, since he listed his father as his nearest relative.

After Tennie's death, Will married to Oma LNU, sometime after 1917. The 1930 census finds the family living in Morganton, Fannin, Georgia and lists Drewry W. Peeples (47), Oma (37), Mima [Milma] (23), Otis (20), and Eli (19). After Will's death, Oma evidently never remarried. She died on 15 Jun 1972 in Morganton, Fannin, Georgia.

In 1870, the census finds the family living in Militia District 1007, Sumter, Georgia in the household of Marion Simms. This record includes Joseph G.Q. Stanford (41, school teacher), Nancy R. (39), Florence A. (15), Joseph[ine] E. (9), Harriet F. (5), and "infant" (1/12).

In the 1900 census, Joseph (age 70) is found living with his daughter Josephine Stanford Hatcher (age 39) and her three children in Cooks, Fulton, Georgia.

This was John's second marriage. The couple had no children.

The 1860 census finds N.L.O. Stanford (age 27, farmer), his wife Amanda (age 20), H.A.E. Stanford (age 1-6/12), and Lucius Stanford (age 17, farm laborer), who was N.L.O.'s brother, living in Sumter County, Georgia.

Nathaniel served in Company C, 10th Battalion, Georgia Infantry, CSA. He died during the Civil War in Charlottesville, Virginia from smallpox.

Amanda was the sister of Elizabeth Phillips who married Lucius Junius Brutus Stanford. Census records indicate that both of Amanda's parents were born in South Carolina.

After Nathaniel's death, Amanda married Isaac Groves (b. Sep 1840, Georgia, d. 1905, Oakfield, Worth, Georgia). The 1870 census finds the couple living in Militia District 756, Sumter, Georgia.

The 1900 census finds Amanda (60) and Isaac (59) living in Militia District 512, Worth, Georgia. Living with them is Edgar Stanford (11), listed as "grandson".

Children of Nathaniel Leonidas Oval Stanford and Amanda Phillips:

- 452 i. Harriet Ann Elizabeth Stanford, born about 1859, in Sumter County, Georgia.
- ii. James Leonidas Oval Stanford, born 6 Dec 1861, in Sumter County, Georgia, died 25 Sep 1943, in Putnam County, Georgia.

In the 1860 census, we find Lucius (17) living with his brother N.L.O.'s family in Sumter County, Georgia.

Lucius served in Company F, 44th Regiment, Georgia Infantry, CSA, during the Civil War. He enlisted as a Private on 4 March 1862 and surrendered with that regiment on 9 Apr 1865 at Appomattox Court House, Virginia. According to Alabama Civil War Pension records, Lucius was wounded in the right arm on 5 May 1864 at Spotsylvania Court House, Virginia. He was wounded again in the left arm on 19 Sept 1864 at Winchester, Virginia.

The 1870 census finds the family in Militia District 756, Sumter, Georgia and lists Lucius J. Stanford (25, farmer), Eliza (24), and Mary (2).

Evidently, Lucius and Liza Phillips divorced sometime after 1870. There are no census records for Lucius in 1880, but it was probable that he moved to Alabama sometime between 1880 and 1890 since his first Alabama pension application in 1893 was made in Lawrence County, Alabama and in it he swore that he was a resident of that state prior to 13 Apr 1891. Pension records indicate that he lived in Lawrence County in 1894, but had moved to Colbert County, Alabama prior to 1899.

In 1900, the census lists the family living in Poplar Creek, Colbert, Alabama and includes Lucius Stanford (57, farmer), Mary E. (35), and Joseph M. (14). This census records indicate that Lucius and Mary had 2 children, but only 1 was living at the time the census (though there is a grave in Old Bethel Cemetery, Leighton, Colbert, Alabama for Eddie A. Stanford, b. 26 Sep 1892, d. 7 Oct 1893 who may be this child).

Eliza was the sister of Amanda Phillips who married Nathanel Leonidas Oval Stanford. She was the daughter of William Phillips (1792-1863) and Elizabeth Williams (1802- ).

Lucius and Elizabeth apparently divorced in 1870/1880 because we find her living in Sumter County, Georgia in the 1880 census. This record lists Eliza Stanford (35, single) and her son John (9).

On 6 May 1902, Mollie applied as an indigent for a Widow's Pension based on Lucius' service during the Civil War.

No record of Mollie has yet been found after 1902, indicating that she may have died sometime before 1910.

- i. Mary Stanford, born about 1868, in Sumter County, Georgia, died before 1880, in Georgia.
- 453 ii. John Jonas Stanford, born 18 Aug 1870, in Sumter County, Georgia, died 26 Feb 1945, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida.

In the 1870 census, Robert and his family are listed living in Waverly Hall, Harris, Georgia.

In 1880, the family is found in Waverly Hall, Harris, Georgia and the census record lists Robert (39, farmer), Sallie (28), Jennie (10), Bonnie May (6), Freeman (4), and Lillie (2).

The 1900 census lists Robert (52), Sallie (48), and 7 children living in Waverly Hall, Harris, Georgia. Robert is listed as a farmer. The children listed are May (35), Lillie (21), Jewel (19), Bruce (17), Herbert (15), Paul (12), and Robert (10).

Sallie was the daughter of Nathaniel Freeman Walker (b. abt 1830, Georgia) and Elizabeth Virginia Purifoy (b. 1832, Upson County, Georgia).

In the 1920 census, Sarah (68) is living with Paul Dewitt Stanford and his wife in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia.

In 1920, Sarah applied for a Widow's Pension based on Robert's service in the Civil War. Due to her failure to provide enough detail, the application was not approved. From this application, we learn of Robert's Civil War service and his place of death.

Children of Robert Stephens Stanford and Sarah Frances "Sallie" Walker:

Evidently Jennie died young...she is not mentioned in her brother Herbert's 1918 obit.

In 1910, the census finds Lillie (31) living in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia with her husband Floyd G. Knowles (28) and son Arnold (12). This census record states that the couple have been married 8 years.

In 1910, the census finds Robert Stanford (19) living with is sister Lillie and brother-in-law Floyd Knowles in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia. He was working as a laborer in a warehouse at this time.

Robert Stephen Stanford, age 26, registered for the WWI draft in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia on 5 Jun 1917. Robert listed his birth as 21 Aug 1890 in Waverly Hall, Georgia. At the time he was single, working as a shipping clerk. Since the dates and locations are the same, the two brothers, Paul and Robert, appear to have registered together. Robert listed his mother as his next of kin.

At the time of his death, Robert was working as shipping clerk for the Columbus Iron Works in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia. His death certificate lists that he was married, but his wife's name is unknown.

On 29 May 1917, James registered for the draft in Pima County, Arizona. He is listed as "single" and as a "student". This record contains the notation that James was in bad health and is marked "Deceased 8-13/17". This record provides Jim's data of birth.

Jim shares a tombstone with Ella S. Schmidt (1879-1950). This person has not yet been identified.

Census records indicate Tam's date of birth as 1857 and 1859.

Evidently, Tam made the move from Alabama to Arkansas between 1880 and 1891. In 1880, he was living at home in Tallapoosa County, Alabama and his father, who evidently made the move with him, died in Arkansas in 1891.

In 1900, the census finds the family living in Sugar Creek, Logan, Arkansas and lists Tam L. Stanford (40, farmer), Ida (23), Charlotte (5), and Sallie L. (2).

The 1910 census lists the family in Sugar Creek, Logan, Arkansas and includes Tom Standford (53, farmer), Ida (33), Charlotte O. (15), Lucille (11), and Ola W. (8), and Jimmie (2).

Ida was the daughter of Alexander Maxwell (b. abt 1835, Tennessee) and Matilda Anne Skinner (b. Jan 1842, Sumter County, Georgia).

In the 1920 census, we find Ida Stanford (40) and her daughter Jennie (12) living in Sugar Creek, Logan, Arkansas with her mother Matilda A. Maxwell (90, widow). The census lists Ida as a widow, indicating that Tam had died by this time.

The 1930 census finds Ida Stanford (54) as a patient at the Arkansas State Hospital for Nervous Diseases, Pulaski, Arkansas.

Children of Tamerlane "Tam, Tammer" Stanford and Ida Maxwell:

- i. Charlotte O. Stanford, born Oct 1894, in Arkansas.
- ii. Sallie Lucille Stanford, born Nov 1897, in Ola, Yell, Arkansas, died before 1930, in Logan County, Arkansas. Cause of death: yellow fever. She married Solomon "Sol" Gifford 23 Dec 1914, in Logan County, Arkansas. Solomon "Sol" Gifford was born 26 Aug 1890, in Oklahoma.

In the 1930 census, Sol is living with his mother and stepfather in Fourche, Perry, Arkansas and is listed as a widower. Thus, Lucille died before 1930 from, as reported by family members, yellow fever.

In 1920, the family is living in Tennessee, Grant, Arkansas. Sol is a farmer. Living with the family is Ola Stanford (18), Lucille's sister.

- iii. Ola W. Stanford, born about 1902, in Arkansas. She married Ray McGowan 1 Jan 1934, in White County, Arkansas. Ray McGowan was born 28 Oct 1902, in Arkansas, died May 1977, in Paragould, Greene, Arkansas.

In 1920, the census finds Ola Stanford (18) living with her sister Sallie and husband Sol Gifford in Tennessee, Grant, Arkansas.

- iv. Jennie Stanford, born about 1908, in Arkansas.

James served as a Private in Company K, 16th Georgia Volunteer Infantry, CSA. He enlisted on 27 Mar 1862 and was wounded at the first battle at Fredericksburg, Virginia. His right leg was amputated below the knee in Dec 1862 and he was discharged on 1 Jan 1863.

The 1870 census finds the family in Columbia County, Georgia and they appear to be listed twice. The first record lists James Stanford (26, school teacher) and Sallie L. (20) in District 126. The second record lists James Stanford (23, teaching school) and Sarah (22) in District 128.

In 1880, the census finds the couple in District 128, Columbia, Georgia and lists James Stanford (39, merchant) and Sallie (34).

In 1889, James made application for a Confederate Soldier's Pension and on 28 Mar 1889 was awarded an annual allowance of $75.00.

The 1900 census lists James W. Stanford (55, b. Jul 1844, physician) and his daughter Maud L. (17, b. Feb 1883) living in Milledgeville, Baldwin, Georgia. This record lists James as "widower."

Children of James Warren "Jimmie" Stanford and Sarah L. "Sally" Blackston:

- i. Lee Stanford, born 8 Jul 1875, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 4 Jan 1878, in Columbia County, Georgia, buried in Harlem Memorial Cemetery, Columbia County, Georgia.

The 1880 census finds the family living in District 57, Emanuel, Georgia, with William's occupation listed as "mill hand". This record includes William T. Stanford (29), Parthenia (26), Willie (4) and Oscar (1).

The family is listed in the 1900 census living in Stillmore, Emanuel, Georgia. This record includes William T. Stanford (51, mill watchman), Pollie (47), John (11), Ruby (7), and Lillian (3).

In 1910, the census lists Patherine Stanford (57, widow), Lilian Stanford (13), and Rubie Stanford (17) living in Militia District 58, Emanuel, Georgia. Since Pollie is listed as a widow, William has died by this time.

Children of William Thomas Stanford and Pattie Parthenia Greene:

- 462     i.    Walter Thomas Stanford, born 1 Apr 1873, in Emanuel County, Georgia, died 16 May 1929, in Chatham County, Georgia.

Sanders about 1914, in Emanuel County, Georgia. Nicholas E. "Nick, N.E." Sanders was born 9 Aug 1888, in Barnwell County, South Carolina, died 2 Oct 1948, in Chatham County, Georgia.

Lillie and Nick moved around while Nick worked for the railroad, But, by 1930, the family settled in Americus, Chatham, Georgia.

Nick was born in South Carolina and in 1910 he and his brother Grover Cleveland Sanders were working as laborers for the railroad in Emanuel County, Georgia.

In 1870, the census lists George in District 129, Columbia County, Georgia.

The 1910 census lists the family living in Hagerman, Chaves, New Mexico and includes George C. Stanford (53, carpenter, house), Emma T. (28), and Claudine A. (2). Since Claudine was born in 1908 in New Mexico, it appears that the family moved to New Mexico prior to 1908, but returned to Georgia by 1913. In 1913 when his brother Algie died, the newspaper obit reported that George C. Stanford was living in Barnett, Warren, Georgia.

An August 12, 1919 article in the Augusta Chronicle reported that "Mrs. George Stanford and daughter, of Barnett [, Warren, Georgia], were visiting relatives in the country".

Articles in the "Augusta Chronicle" as late as 1927 indicated the family still lived in Barnett, Warren, Georgia

In 1930, the census lists the family in Militia District 602, Taliaferro, Georgia and includes George Stanford (71, farmer) and Emmye (43). This same record includes Claudine [Stanford], Ledford (22) and her daughter Jean (2), who may have been visiting when the census was taken.

George's gravestone presents his birth year as 1858. But, census records from 1860 through 1920 indicate this is incorrect.

Emma's birth and death dates given here are those on her gravestone.

Children of George C. Stanford and Emma Dell "Emmie" Taylor:

- i. Mary Lucyle Stanford, born 1906, in Hagerman, Chaves, New Mexico, died 8 Jun 1906, in Hagerman, Chaves, New Mexico.

The following obit was published in the Oglethorpe "Echo" on 22 June 1906:
"Mary Lucyle Stanford--child died in Hagerman N.M. on June 8; daughter of Mrs. Geo. C. Stanford (formerly Emma Taylor)."

- ii. Claudine A. Stanford, born about 1908, in Hagerman, Chaves, New Mexico, died 14 Dec 1942, in Taliaferro County, Georgia. She married James C. Ledford, Jr. 1 Sep 1927, in Barnett, Warren, Georgia. James C. Ledford, Jr. was born 14 Nov 1906, in Virginia, died 22 Feb 1985, in Asheville, Buncombe, North Carolina.

Claudine's wedding was well reported in the "Augusta Chronicle".

Claudine and James had at least one daughter, Jean, born about 1928 in Georgia.

James was the son of James C. Ledford (b. 1882) and his wife Clara (b. 1889).

Harlem Memorial Cemetery, Harlem, Columbia, Georgia.

Virgil is listed by some researchers as Virgil M. Stanford. But, articles and obituaries in the Augusta Chronicle newspaper refer to him as E.V. Stanford or Virgil Stanford.

In the 1880 census, we find Vergil Stanford (25) working on the farm of James and Lucy Merry in District 129, Columbia, Georgia.

The 1900 census lists the family living in Longpond, Montgomery, Georgia and includes Virgil Stanford (44, farmer), Jane (46), and Eddie P. (15).

In 1910, the census records the family in Grovetown, Columbia, Georgia and lists Edward V. Stanford (54, farm laborer) and Emma Jennie (59). [In this census, Jennie's place of birth is mistakenly listed as South Carolina.]

In 1913 when his brother Algie died, Virgil was living in Harlem, Columbia, Georgia.

The 1920 census finds Edward Stanford (62, a widower) living as a boarder with the Koger family in Grovetown, Columbia, Georgia. At this time, he is working as a "salesman, retail grocery".

Virgil remarried about 1924 and a May 1924 article in the Augusta Chronicle reports that Mr. and Mrs Virgil Stanford were living near Grovetown, Columbia, Georgia.

In 1930, the census finds the family living in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia and lists Virgil Stanford (73, overseer, truck farm), Lula (25), and Sarah (3).

Virgil's gravestone reads "Edward Stanford" and he is interred beside his son Edward Virgil Stanford, Jr.

Lula was the daughter of Marshall Columbus "Lumby" Newman (1876-1963) and Sara Etta Tucker (1882-1966).

Lula remarried twice after Virgil Stanford's death, first to Carl Gibson (1875-1938) about 1933 and then to a Jackson Longstreet Padgett (1907-1970) about 1941.

In 1940, the census finds Lula Mae Gibson (36, widow, no employment listed) living in Blythe Town, Richmond, Georgia. This listing includes Sara Gibson (13), Virgie Mae (10), Lois (4), and Jack (9/12).

Children of Edward Virgil Stanford and Emma Jennie Oakes:

- i. Eddie Stanton Stanford, born 1884, in Columbia County, Georgia, died 1914, in Columbia County, Georgia, buried in Harlem Memorial Cemetery, Harlem, Columbia, Georgia. died 11 Jan 1962, in McDuffie County, Georgia.

Eddie and James had two children.

After Eddie's death, James married Rosa (LNU).

She married (3) William M. Schindledecker before 1986. William M. Schindledecker was born 1893, in Pittsburg, Allegheny, Pennsylvania, died 19 Jul 1988, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia, buried in Harlem Memorial Cemetery, Harlem, Columbia, Georgia.

In her mother's obit in 1986, Sara is identified as "Mrs. Sara Schindledecker."

At the time of her death, Sara was living in Banks County, Georgia.

Her gravestone is engraved "Sara Berg."

William was a physician. He moved to Columbia, Richlands, South Carolina in the 1940s and then to Augusta, Richmond, Georgia in the 1950s. He first married Estell Purdy (1910-1979) in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.

His obit states that he was interred at Harlem Memorial Cemetery, Harlem, Columbia, Georgia, but his grave has not yet been identified.

- iii. Virgil Mae Stanford, born about 1930, in Richmond County, Georgia. She married William Eugene "Bill" Mulvihill 13 Jan 1951, in Los Angeles County, California. Bill was the son of Joseph Martin Mulvihill (1894-1978) and Ethel St. Clair (1903-1992).

Sometime before 1900, Albert and Ida moved to Ogden, Weber, Utah. The 1900 census for Ogden Ward 3, Weber, Utah lists A.C. Stanford (38, carpenter), Ida T. (32), Anna P. (13), Jettie D. (11), Reuben (8), Henry (6), and F.E. (3).

After Ida's death in 1928, Albert Colton lived with his son Henry Bowler Stanford until sometime after the 1930 census and then moved to Los Angeles, California. Most of his family moved with him.

This was the second marriage for Ida...she was previously married to Steven Malan.

Ida was the daughter of Mountain Theophilus Hill and Martha Ann Chippman.

Children of Albert Colton "Amos" Stanford and Ida Tulula Hill:

- i. Anna Pearl Stanford, born 16 Mar 1887, in Grovetown, Columbia, Georgia, died 6 Jul 1940, in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake, Utah, buried in Salt Lake City Cemetery, Salt Lake City, Salt Lake, Utah. Henry Merwin Thompson was born 1 Nov 1885, in Scipio, Millard, Utah, died 5 Jan 1976, in Ogden, Weber, Utah, buried in Plain City Cemetery, Plain City, Weber, Utah.

In the 1930, the census lists the family living in Ogden, Weber, Utah where Amel is a "hostler, S.P. rail road". In this record, the couple have one son, Raymond (b. abt 1918, Utah).

Henry previously married to Martha Hansen (1887-1963) in 1909 and, after Ruby's death, married Lavina Cordelia "Lula" Bingham (1891-1990) in 1968.

- 466      iv. Henry Bowler Stanford, born 29 Mar 1895, in Grovetown, Columbia, Georgia, died 7 Jun 1951, in Ogden, Weber, Utah.

The 1920 census finds him back home living with his parents in Wilson, Weber, Utah.

The 1930 census finds George Laurence living with his brother Henry B. Stanford in Ogden, Weber, Utah.

George and Virginia are reported to have had 2 children, but no data about them has yet been found.

Grace was the daughter of Edward Richards (1850 - 1926) and Martha Bowcutt (1854 - 1927).

She was previously married to Edgar D. Call (1899-1964).

- ix. Margerette Viola Stanford, born 28 Mar 1908, in Wilson, Weber, Utah, died 7 Apr 1950, in Los Angeles, Los Angeles, California. She married (1) George Martin. She married (2) Harry Naylor.

While the name on her Utah birth certificate is blank, a "Supplemental Report of Birth" filed by the midwife that delivered her states her name as "Margerette Viola Stanford." (The spelling of her given name is questionable since there were several other spelling errors made by the registrar on her birth certificate.)

Census records in 1910 and 1920 list her given name as "Marguerite," while her California death record lists her given name as "Marjorie."

- x. Francis Lucille Stanford, born 26 Mar 1910, in Ogden, Weber, Utah, died 28 Feb 1983, in Placentia, Orange, California. She married (1) Earl Leroy Alderson. Earl Leroy Alderson was born 24 Aug 1909, in Colorado, died 25 Jun 1990, in Riverside County, California. She married (2) Clarence Carlson. She married (3) Glen Charles Strella. Glen Charles Strella was born 14 Dec 1914, in Oklahoma, died 18 Jun 1985, in Paradise, Butte, California.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Augusta Ward 5, Richmond, Georgia and lists Charles Stanford (41, huckster), Sallie (39), and Lonnie (5). This record lists Lonnie as "adpt [adopted] son".

The census record in 1910 incorrectly lists Charles as "Carl B." (55, carpenter, coal mines) living in Precinct 33, Jefferson, Alabama with his wife Sallie (52) and son Lonnie (15).

In 1913, when his brother Algie died, Charles was reportedly living in Bessemer, Jefferson, Alabama, a suburb of Birmingham.

The 1920 census lists Charles Stanford living with his wife Sallie E. in Brighton, Jefferson, Alabama.

The 1930 census finds Charles Stanford (age 71) living with his son James L. Stanford and family in Precinct 8, Jefferson County, Alabama.

This was Sallie's second married...she previously married a Clark and the 1920 census lists Raymond Clark (age 18), her son, living with family.

Children of Charles M. "Charlie" Stanford and Sallie E. Sheppard:

- 467      i.    James Lonnie Stanford, born 22 Jul 1894, in Kite, Johnson, Georgia, died 30 Dec 1967, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama.

In most accounts, Algie is identified as "Algie". However, the 1898 Augusta City Directory identifies him as "Algernon" and the 1910 census data identifies him as "Algerine". This census record lists Algerine Stanford and his wife Annie P. and indicates that this was Algie's second marriage. His occupation is listed as "overseer, city stables".

Algie's middle initial is recorded as "R" in his 1913 obituary (see below), most city directory listings, and his marriage license to Ada. But, much of the family history data records it as "F" and it is listed as "F" in the 1870 census for Columbia County, Georgia. His gravestone also records his name as Algie F. Stanford.

There is some conflict over Algie's birth date. He is first found in the 1870 census living with his parents in District 129, Columbia County, Georgia, where his age is given as 1 [but, the census record also mistakenly lists him as "female"], making his birth date 1869. In 1880, the census lists him as 11 years old, also making his birth date 1869. But, his 1913 obit lists his death age as 41, making his birth date 1872. Some researchers have identified 3 Jul 1872 as his birth date, but no records to support this have yet been found. For now, based on the two census records, we assign 1869 as his birth year...more likely since his mother would have been 44 years old then and an unlikely 47 in 1872.

There are several listings for Algie in Augusta city directories:

1. 1898 Augusta City Directory: "Stanford, Algernon R. (Ada) wks Augusta Factory bds 1135 Fenwick."
2. 1899 Maloney Augusta Appendix: "Stanford, Algier, drivr C.W. James & Co., r 1359 Barrett."
3. 1901 Augusta City Directory: "Stanford, Algier R., wks C.W. James & Co., r 987 Young."
4. 1909, Augusta City Directory: "Stanford, Algie R. (Pearl), driver, h 1461 Estes."

5. 1910, Augusta City Directory: "Stanford, Algie (Pearl), time kpr city, h 1381 Meyer."

The following is Algie's obituary published in the Augusta "Chronicle" on June 9, 1913:

"FUNERAL OF MR. ALGIE R. STANFORD HELD

"The funeral of Mr. Algie R. Stanford, whose death occurred at the City Hospital Friday after an extended illness was held yesterday at Woodlawn Baptist Church at 5 o'clock conducted by Rev. R.E.L. Harris, the pastor. Interment was in the West View Cemetery. Mr. Stanford was 41 years of age.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Pearle Stanford; two sons, Herbert and Albert Stanford; four brothers, Messers. C. M. Stanford of Bessemer, Ala., Albert Stanford of Ogden, Utah, G.C. Stanford of Barnet, Ga., and E.V. Stanford of Harlem, Ga., and one sister, Mrs. Henry Greene [Isadora Stanford Greene], of Augusta."

Thus, by this date, it appears that all but one of Algie's sisters had died and his brothers Jimmie and William T. were also no longer living.

As reported by the Augusta Chronicle on June 9, 1913, an unusual event occurred at the end of Algie's funeral. Calvin Seago, age 12, fell from his bicycle on Twiggs Street in Augusta. Events were reported as follows:

"The wheel slipped from under the youthful rider, throwing him with considerable force to the ground, and rendering him unconscious. At this particular stage in the proceedings, a funeral procession returning from the interment of Mr. Algie R. Stanford in the City Cemetery, came briskly along and one of the carriages in the vanguard added another chapter by passing over the his prostrate body ere the driver had noticed the boy. The front wheels passed over the upper part of his body and changed his position in such a manner that the rear wheels passed over his legs.

"He was carried immediately to the City Hospital and given medical attention. While the exact nature of his injuries could be ascertained last night, it is thought that he suffered no internal hurts. His attending physician stated he would probably be dismissed today."

Ada died of tuberculosis.

Notes for family of Algie F. Stanford and Ada L. Bennett: This marriage ended by 1899.

Annie Pearl was the youngest child of Aaron Olephant/Oliphant Devaney (b. Greene County, Georgia) and Martha Anne Andrews (b. Georgia). Devaney enlisted as a private in Company K, "Greene County Volunteers, 44th Regiment, Georgia Volunteer Infantry, on 4 Mar 1862. Company records show him "on detail duty" as a teamster on 31 Aug 1864. Pension records show he was paroled at Greensboro, Guilford, North Carolina in April 1865.

The Devaney's originated in County Tyrone, Ireland. After immigration to New Jersey, family members migrated to Pennsylvania and then south to North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia in the late 1700s.

Sometime after 1913, Annie Pearl remarried to James Ivey/Ivey Beasley. Beasley was born on 13 Oct 1875 in Edgefield County, South Carolina and died on 9 Apr 1917 in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia. His first wife, Elizabeth Crawford, died in 1913. James is buried in West View Cemetery, Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.

In the 1920 census, Annie Pearl Beasley is listed as "head of household", living in a rented house in Augusta's Ward 4, with her two sons listed with her.

Children of Algie F. Stanford and Annie Pearl Devaney:

Julia Elizabeth Morris was born 26 Jun 1860, in Polk County, Georgia, died 13 Dec 1895, in Floyd County, Georgia, buried in Pleasant Hope Cemetery, Silvercreek, Floyd, Georgia. He married (2) Margaret Lulu Wood 11 Apr 1897, in Floyd County, Georgia. Margaret Lulu Wood was born 23 Feb 1866, in Georgia, died 15 Sep 1917, in Georgia, buried in Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Sycamore, Turner, Georgia.

In the 1880 census, we find James W. Stanford (21) living alone and "working on farm" in Chulio, Floyd, Georgia.

In 1900, the family is living in Howels, Floyd, Georgia and the census record includes James Stanford (41, farmer), Lula (35), Charley (16), Sarah (14), Larru (13), Jossie (11), John (9), Ether (8), Martha (5), Rivus (3), and Jesse E. (4/12).

The 1910 census finds the family living in Milita District 527, Houston, Georgia and lists James W. Stanford (51, farmer), Margaret L. (43), Charlie L. (25), Josie (21), Ethel (18), John E. (19), Martha (15), Bivons [Rivous] (12), Jessie (11), Hershel (9), Corine (6), Walter (4), and Houston (2). William H. Stanford (53), James' brother, lives with the family.

According to Susan Mickus [James' great-granddaughter], sometime after 1910 James sold out and bought a farm near the Ty Ty community in Tift County, Georgia.

By 1920, Margaret had died and the census record lists the family living in Gordy, Worth, Georgia. This record includes James W. Stanford (62, farmer, widower), Jossie (26), Ribas (22), Jessie (21), Herschell(19), Corene (15), Walter (13), and Houston (11).

James died at his daughter's home in Macon, Bibb, Georgia.

Julia Elizabeth was the daughter of Ephraim Morris and Sarah Jane Drumond.

Children of James Warren Stanford and Julia Elizabeth Morris:

- 470     i.    James Arthur Stanford, born 31 Jan 1882, in Rome, Floyd, Georgia, died 17 Apr 1954, in Rome, Floyd, Georgia.

Curtis Monroe Dobbs was born 24 Dec 1875, in Floyd County, Georgia, died 10 Sep 1960, in Floyd County, Georgia, buried in Pleasant Hope Cemetery, Silvercreek, Floyd, Georgia.

Sarah Ellen and Curtis had 9 children, 4 daughters and 5 sons.

Curtis was the son of Joseph B. Dobbs (1843-1910) and Mary Adaville Hollis (1844-1931).

- 472     iv.   Laura Viola Stanford, born 5 Dec 1886, in Floyd County, Georgia, died 21 Mar 1969, in Tifton, Tift, Georgia.

At the time of her death, the SSDI indicates that Josie was living in Moultrie, Colquitt, Georgia.

It appears that Josie and Ed had no children.

In 1930, the census finds Edd D. Lawhorn (56, farm laborer) and his wife Josie (40) living in Militia District 1655, Worth, Georgia. This record indicates that Ed first married at age 31, while Josie married at age 33 (which corresponds to the 1923 marriage date). Thus, this appears to be Ed's second marriage.

- 473     vi.    John Ephraim Stanford, born 8 Aug 1890, in Floyd County, Georgia, died 9 Dec 1966, in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.
- vii.   Mandy Esther Stanford, born 3 Apr 1892, in Silvercreek, Floyd, Georgia, died 19

Tate about 1929, in Georgia. Robert E. L. Tate was born 9 Aug 1898, in Worth County, Georgia, died Sep 1973, in Ty Ty, Tift, Georgia, buried in Salem Cemetery, Tifton, Tift, Georgia.

Mollie and Robert had 4 children.

- v. Joseph Walter Stanford, born 24 Jul 1906, in Floyd County, Georgia, died 7 Jan 1986, in Marietta, Cobb, Georgia. He married Muriel Phillips. Muriel Phillips was born 15 Jan 1910, in Crookston, Polk, Minnesota, died 14 Apr 1976, in Marietta, Cobb, Georgia, buried 16 Apr 1976, in Marietta, Cobb, Georgia.

The 1940 census lists the family living in Marietta, Cobb, Georgia and includes Joseph W. Stanford (34, chiropractor doctor, private) and Muriel M. Stanford (30, secretary, doctor's private office).

In 1941, Joseph Walter Stanford registered for the draft in Cobb, County, Georgia. This record confirms his birth date and lists his birth place as Floyd County, Georgia. His signature is followed by "D.C.," indicating that he is a doctor of chiropractic.

- vi. Taylor Houston Stanford, born 3 Mar 1908, in Houston County, Georgia, died 23

Mar 1982, in Omega, Tift, Georgia, buried in Zion Hope Baptist Church Cemetery, Tifton, Tift, Georgia. He married Grace Zelma Hancock 26 Feb 1930, in Georgia. Grace Zelma Hancock was born 29 Apr 1912, in Worth County, Georgia, died 15 Oct 1997, in Omega, Tift, Georgia, buried in Zion Hope Baptist Church Cemetery, Tifton, Tift, Georgia.

In 1930, the census finds Houston Stanford (22) living with and working on the farm of Emma and Geney Wood in Barkers, Floyd, Georgia. In this record he is listed as "nephew".

The 1940 census finds the couple living in Warrior, Worth, Georgia and lists T. Houston Stanford (30, farming) and Grace (27). This record indicates that the couple were living at this same location in 1935.

Grace was the daughter of Elias Ashley Hancock (1878-1958) and Minnie Viola Hutchinson (1889-1982).

Neb was a blacksmith who settled in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas, where we find his family in the 1900, 1910, and 1920 census.

In the 1920 census, three grandchildren are listed living with the family, Virginia Stanford (8), Leland Stanford (5), and Thomas E. Stanford (3).

Children of Nebuchanezer C. "Neb" Stanford and Virginia Lee Stanford:

- i. Vela A. Stanford, born 10 Aug 1885, in Franklin County, Arkansas, died 19 Sep 1902, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas, buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Booneville, Logan, Arkansas.

Virginia and Earl had 14 children.

Earl was the son of Benjamin Lafayette Orrick (1850-1917) and Medora Frances White (1854-1929). Earl was the brother of Roscoe Orrick.

Earl was a farmer and worked as a railroad conductor.

- v. Flora Stanford, born 3 Mar 1895, in Cauthron, Scott, Arkansas, died 5 Dec 1918, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas, buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Booneville, Logan, Arkansas. She married James Latimer Griffey 31 Oct 1913, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas. James Latimer Griffey was born 1 Jan 1887, in McAlester, Pittsburg, Oklahoma, died 15 Feb 1958, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas, buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Booneville, Logan, Arkansas.

Flora and James had 3 children.

James Latimer Griffey was the son of Benjamin "Ben" Graves Griffey and Adella "Della" Alleda Latimer.

James was a barber in Booneville for many years.

After Flora's death, James married Marie Frye on 3 Sep 1919 in Booneville, Logan County, Arkansas.

- 478 vi. James Leland Stanford, born 9 Feb 1897, in Scott County, Arkansas, died 15 Oct 1968, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas.

Indian Territory, Oklahoma, died 30 Mar 1964, in Cameron, Le Flore, Oklahoma.

Bessie and Leonidus had 4 children.

Leonidas was the son of Leonidas Sengal Hill (b. 1855, Georgia, d. 1898, Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory) and Katherine Tucker (b. 1877, Sebastian County, Arkansas, d. 1944, Cameron City, Le Flore County, Oklahoma).

480 x. Theodore Gordon Stanford, born 13 Mar 1907, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas, died Aug 1971, in Fresno, Fresno, California.

There is some confusion about the first name...both William and David are found in the census records. Sam Howard Stanford named a son "D.E. Stanford, Jr." and the 1933 Texas death record lists "D.E. Stanford", it appears that David Evans Stanford is the correct name. His gravestone is engraved simply "Evans Stanford".

David Evans Stanford apparently moved with his family from Floyd County, Georgia to Arkansas about 1880 and then to Oklahoma and Texas.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Heavener, Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory and lists Doctor E. Stanford (36, grocer), Mary G. (40), and Samuel H. (6). Living with them is Mary's daughter from her first marriage, Dodge King (17). Evan's mother, Eleanor, is living a few houses away at this time.

In 1910, the census lists the family in Paris Ward 3, Lamar, Texas and records "D. Evans Stanford" (47, b. GA), Mary Stanford (50), and son Samuel Stanford (16). The household also includes Dodge King (27), Marys' daughter from her first marriage and Sallie Balen (9), their "foster daughter". Under William's occupation, the record lists "own income".

Mary was the daughter of S.G. Chandler and Elizabeth Stewart.

This was Mary's second marriage...her first husband was Charles King.

Children of David Evans "Doctor" Stanford and Mary Gillie Chandler:

481 i. Sam Howard Stanford, born 15 Jan 1894, in Gibson, Pulaski, Arkansas, died 16

Jul 1953, in Hempstead, Waller, Texas.

David apparently moved with his family from Floyd County, Georgia to Arkansas in 1882-83, marrying there in 1891.

The 1910, 1920, and 1930 census finds the family living in Hartford, Sebastian, Arkansas, where David is a coal miner. These census records indicate that all of his children were born in Oklahoma, which does not tally with the family living in Arkansas.

In 1910, the census lists David L. Stanford (40, miner, coal mine), Mollie E. (32), Nellie F. (17), Floyd M. d (11), Lula C. [Luna Kathleen] (6), and Ira E. (5).

The 1920 census includes David L. Stanford (52, coal miner), Mary E. (43), Florence (21), Kathlene (16), Lena C. (16), Ira (14), and Dorothy (7).

No record of Lena C. or Lula C. Stanford, born in 1903 or 1904 has yet been found. The name in the 1910 census appears to be a common recording error, while the the double listing in 1920 appears to be an error also.

In the 1930 census, the record includes David L. Stanford (62, coal miner), Mary E. (54), and Dortha (17). David's son Floyd (30), daughter-in-law Jewell (21), and grand daughter Aritus (1-10/12) are living with the family.

Sometime after 1930, the family moved to Oklahoma permanently.

Sometime before 1940, evidently David and Mary separated since we find them living separately in the the 1940 census. This census lists David L. Stanford (72, widower) living in Wister, Le Flore, Oklahoma with his brother Abner V. Stanford.

David was a Mason.

Mary Elizabeth was the daughter of Kelly S. Higgins (b. abt 1852, Arkansas) and Francis V. "Fannie" Corbitt.

Sometime before 1940, evidently David and Mary separated since we find them living separately in the the 1940 census. This census lists Mary E. Stanford (65, widow) living in the household of her daughter Kathleen and son-in-law John Seaborn in Bokoshe, Le Flore, Oklahoma. Daughter Dortha Stanford (27, teacher, public school) is also living with this family.

Children of David Lincoln Stanford and Mary Elizabeth Higgins:

- i. Nellie Frances Stanford, born 26 Nov 1892, in Arkansas, died Aug 1975, in Donaldsonville, Ascension, Louisiana. She married Charles Franklin "Charley" Lovely 4 Apr 1915, in Sebastian County, Arkansas. Charles Franklin "Charley" Lovely was born 18 May 1882, in Arkansas, died 6 Apr 1952, in Stanislaus County, California.

Evidently, Nellie and Charley moved to Le Flore County, Oklahoma soon after their marriage, since census records for 1920, 1930, and 1940 find them living there.

One SSA record lists Nellie's date of birth as 26 Nov 1892, while another lists her date of birth as 26 Nov 1894. Based on census records, it appears that the first date is correct.

- 482 ii. Floyd Monroe Stanford, born 4 Sep 1898, in Arkansas, died 8 Sep 1975, in Wister, Le Flore, Oklahoma.
- iii. Luna Kathleen Stanford, born 6 May 1903, in Arkansas, died 24 Feb 2000, in Wister, Le Flore, Oklahoma, buried in Ellis Chapel Cemetery, Wister, Le Flore, Oklahoma. She married John Andrew Seaborn 28 Dec 1924. John Andrew Seaborn was born 7 Nov 1902, in Alabama, died 2 Sep 1993, in Wister, Le Flore, Oklahoma.

Lula C. Stanford and Luna Kathleen Stanford evidently were twins.

John was the son of William H. Seaborn and his wife Jettie.

- 483 iv. Arrie E. Stanford, born 12 Apr 1905, in Antler, Indian Territory [Oklahoma], died 24 Oct 2002, in Guthrie, Logan, Oklahoma.
- v. Dortha O. Stanford, born 6 Dec 1912, in Booneville, Logan, Arkansas, died 20 Feb 2004, in Muskogee, Muskogee, Oklahoma, buried in Maple Cemetery, Sequoyah County, Oklahoma. She married Thomas Scott Houser after 1940, in Oklahoma. Thomas Scott Houser was born 28 Aug 1906, in Indian City, Payne, Oklahoma, died 17 Nov 1957, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, buried in Maple Cemetery, Sequoyah County, Oklahoma.

In 1940, Dorothy Stanford (27, teacher, public school) is listed living with the family of her sister Kathleen Stanford Seaborn in Bokoshe, Le Flore, Oklahoma.

Scott was the son of William L. Houser (1848-1931) and Mary Hembree (1872-1937).

This was Thomas' second marriage. The 1930 census lists Thomas S. Houser (23, farm laborer) and his wife "Esmar" (20, b. Oklahoma) living in Turner, McIntosh, Oklahoma. His wife appears to be Esmar Tinney (b. 28 Oct 1909 in Oklahoma), the daughter of William J. Tinney and his wife Evaline Woodward. Evidently, Scott and Esmar divorced as there is a California death record for Esmar Dale.

Abner apparently moved with his family from Floyd County, Georgia to Arkansas in 1882-83 and moved to Oklahoma after 1910.

The 1910 census finds the family living Hartford, Sabastian, Arkansas. Abner is working as a coal miner and the census record includes Abner V. Stanford (43), Elizabeth S. Stanford (45), with children John M. (7), Clarence (5), and Fairy M. (1-5/12), all born in Arkansas.

In 1920, the family is in Schuler, Okmulgee, Oklahoma and includes Abner Stanford (53, coal miner), Lizzie (52), John M. (17), Clarence (14), and Fairy M. (11).

Sometime before 1930, Abner and Elizabeth separated.

In 1940, the census finds Abner V. Stanford (69, widower) living in Wister, Le Flore, Oklahoma with his brother David L. Stanford.

Elizabeth was the daughter of Frederick Decker (1831-1915) and Eliza Andrews (1838-1874).

In 1930, the census finds Elizabeth Stanford (62) listed as "head of household". Living with her are her son Mitchell Stanford (27) and his wife Mary G. (23), along with grandson Fred Ward (5). [Fred was the son of Mary Gladys Blackburn Stanford by her first husband.]

Elizabeth and Abner have separated by this time.

Children of Abner Verdell Stanford and Mary Elizabeth Decker:

- 484     i.   John Mitchell Stanford, born 2 Nov 1902, in Hartford, Sebastian, Arkansas, died 19 Feb 1978, in Henryetta, Okmulgee, Oklahoma.
- 485     ii.   Clarence Francis Stanford, born 20 Mar 1905, in Hartford, Sebastian, Arkansas, died 3 Jul 1967, in LaMesa, San Diego, California.
- iii.   Fairy May Stanford, born 15 Nov 1909, in Arkansas, died 22 Apr 1938, in St. Louis, St. Louis, Missouri, buried 23 Apr 1938, in Lake Charles Cemetery, St.

Louis, St. Louis, Missouri. She married Carlos William Parker. Carlos William Parker was born 13 Sep 1889, in Honey Grove, Fannin, Texas, died 10 Apr 1952, in St. Louis, St. Louis, Missouri, buried in Lake Charles Cemetery, St. Louis, St. Louis, Missouri.

Carlos was the son of John T. Parker (1853-1910) and Mary Elizabeth Harris (b. abt 1857).

In 1870, the young couple, W.A. Stanford (19, farm laborer) and N. Stanford (22) are living in Township 11, Choctaw, Alabama, next door to William's parents.

The 1880 census lists the family in Precinct 4 and 5, Franklin, Texas and the record includes Willie Standford (29, farmer), Nancy (31), Viola (9), Ardelin (F, 7), Memphis (4), and Owen (4).

The 1900 census records the family living in Justice Precinct 4, Red River, Texas and lists William Stanford (46, farmer), Nancy A. (50), Owen C. (21), Martha L. (16), Minnie L. (14), and Coleman (11).

"Death Comes [to] H. M. Stanford

"The community was greatly shocked this morning at the announcement about 9 o'clock of the death of Mr. Henry M. Stanford which came very suddenly at his home in Ailey, thus removing one of the prominent and well known citizens of this county and section of the state.

"Mr. Stanford arose as usual at an early hour and began the pursuit of his regular duties and labors. After breakfast, he began work on his house, repairing and recovering it. About nine o'clock he was seized with something like neuralgia about the heart and died almost instantly. For some time, he had been at work in Vidalia, and no one was aware, apparently, that there was anything of special nature to effect his physical being and thus the sudden end proves both a surprise and a grievous shock.

"It was on the 27th of last November that his sister, Miss Mary C. Stanford, died at her home in Mount Vernon, that death coming also as a sudden shock to the community; and the death of Mr. Stanford this morning, re-opens the wound of grief for this highly honored family, calling out the sympathy of a great number of friends throughout this territory.

"Mr. Stanford had established a reputation in this section as a carpenter of excellent ability, and had by his efficiency and by the gentle spirit which he possessed, made many friends.

"He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Miss Winnie and Miss Adine, all of Ailey, and three brothers, George J., J. Ishmael, of Mount Vernon and W. R. Stanford of Glenwood. Miss Adine is one of the members of the faculty of the Ailey-Mount Vernon Public School."

From 1900 to 1913 he served as depot agent of the Mount Vernon station. He then resigned and he and his brother, George, established the Mount Vernon Telephone Company in Montgomery county of which they were sole owners and managers. In 1928 he sold the business to Southeastern Telephone Company. At this time he became a planter and continued this occupation until his death.

"In 1900 Mr. Stanford became a member of Aural Lodge No. 239 F. and A. M., which made him hold the longest membership of this Lodge at the time of his death. He received his 50 year button in 1950. In every way his life proved his love and belief in the teachings of Free Masonry, and the members of Aural Lodge would do well to emulate the life of this good man. He did his own thinking and stood up for the things he believed. He was honest and upright and a self-educated man. Although not a member of any church, he was a scholar of the Bible and lived a Christian life.

"Mr. Stanford was the last surviving member of the Stanford family of his generation. Of his descendants he is survived by three daughters, Miss Priscilla Stanford, Mrs. D. A. Lanier, Mrs. Noah Grist, all of Mount Vernon; two sons, R. L. Stanford, Albany, and D. N. Stanford, Newnan, and seven grandchildren."

On 12 Sep 1918, Homer registered for the WWI draft in Polk County, Arkansas. His listed his date of birth, his wife as "Sissy Stanford" and his occupation as farming.

The 1920 census lists the family living in Ozark, Polk, Arkansas and includes L.H. Stanford (40, laborer, oil field), Sissie (42), and step-daughter Zula Burke (18).

Evidently, the marriage to Mary Lee Walker ended before 1946, when Lemuel remarried.

We do not know her maiden name. This was Sissy's second marriage...she had previously married Allen Burk, by whom she had three children. We learn her given name from the 1900 census and the 1918 WWI draft registration by her son William Clark Burk.

After her divorce from Lemuel Stanford, Mary married Mark Hatten (1909-1985).

Cora had been previously married to Oscar Allen Mills, who died in 1945.

On 5 Jun 1917, Edwin registered for the WWI draft in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. From this record, we learn his middle name, his place of birth, and that he worked as clerk for the Capital City Tobacco Company.

The 1920 census finds the family living in Atlanta Ward 8, Fulton, Georgia and lists Edwin T. Stanford (25, salesman), Aline W. (25), and Elizabeth A. (5).

Edwin and Aleyne divorced before 1930 since we find "Edward"[sic] Stanford (35, commercial salesman, wholesale drygoods) as a lodger in the Brooks family household in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia in the 1930 census.

In 1930, the census finds Aline Stanford (36, sales lady, department store) living as a boarder in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia with her daughter Elizabeth (15). She and Edwin divorced 1920/1930.

Aleyne remarried to Benjamin Herbert Middlebrooks, Jr. (b. 16 Sep 1898, Yatesville, Upson, Georgia, d. 9 Aug 1982, Fulton County, Georgia). Herb was the son of Benjamin Herbert Middlebrooks (1868-1943) and Ethel Crawford (1870-1961).

Jesse's marriage to Sallie Champion is recorded in the "Georgia Marriage Records, Book A, 1856-1877".

Both the 1850 and 1860 Slave Census records list a Jesse Stanford owning slaves in Sumter and Lee (District 50) Counties, Georgia.

Jesse, as stated in his 1897 pension application, served in Company C, 2nd Regiment, Georgia Cavalry from 1862 until surrendering with Gen. Johnston's forces in North Carolina in April 1865. He indicates that he served in the Confederate Army in Kentucky before joining the Georgia regiment.

In 1870, the family was living in Lee County, Georgia and the census record includes Jessee Standford (25, laborer at lumber mill), Sallie (25), Robert (6), and Rodalpus (4). This record indicates that Jesse was born in Alabama.

The 1880 census finds Jesse and his second wife Fannie are living in Sumter County, Georgia.

In 1897, Jesse first applied for an Indigent Soldier's Pension based on his Civil War service. In this application he gave his birth date as 6 Sep 1845 and place of birth as Coffee County, Alabama. He stated that "I was stricken down with the Paralysis on 6th May 1895 & have been helpless or almost helpless since..." Witness statements indicate that his legs were paralyzed. [At this time, he indicated he had a wife who was "...supported by her son, my step-son." This appears to be reference to Thomas Holman.]

In 1900, the Jesse (55, farmer) and Fannie (53) are living in Militia District 687, Sumter, Georgia with their son Cam (20, farm labor).

In the 1910 census, Jesse and Fannie are living in Sumter County, Georgia with Cameron and Mary Lizzie [Elizabeth] Stanford (age 25), Cameron's wife.

She was the daughter of Thomas J. Johnson (1820-1853) and Elizabeth Cox (b. abt 1820).

Frances was married previously to Larkin Allison Holman (m. 7 Dec 1865, Sumter County, Georgia) and had one son, Thomas Richard Holman (b. Abt 1869). Thomas appears living with Jesse and Fannie in the 1880 census.

She married James Lafayette "Sonny" Livingston 3 Aug 1896, in Sumter County, Georgia. James Lafayette "Sonny" Livingston was born 31 Dec 1856, in Georgia, died 5 Nov 1913, in Ben Hill County, Georgia, buried in Salem Baptist Church Cemetery, Ben Hill County, Georgia.

In 1880, the census finds the family living with James' brother B.W. Livingston in Sumter County, Georgia.

The 1910 census finds the family living in Smithville, Lee, Georgia.

In 1920, the census lists Bettie Livingston, widow, living in Militia District 687, Sumter, Georgia.

James was the son of William Orr Livingston and Martha Jane Powell.

- 506      ii. Cameron Amon Stanford, born Oct 1879, in Georgia, died 13 Nov 1954, in Fulton County, Georgia.

In 1870, Elijah (21), was living at home with his widowed mother and younger brother.

The 1880 census finds the family living in Leeburg, Lee, Georgia and the record includes Elijah B. Stanford (30, railroad overseer), Acemia A. (31), and Orry O. (3). Living with them are Mary A. Williams (14), Acemia's daughter from her first marriage, and Marietta Henry (29), Acemia's sister.

The 1900 census lists the family in Brooklyn, Stewart, Georgia and includes Elijah Stanford (50, overseer), Asemoe (51), Elizabeth (16), Willie May (14), Cordelue (12), and John (6). Living with them is Mary Henry (49), listed as "sister" (Acemia's sister).

In the 1910 census, we find the family living in Militia District 585, Dooly, Georgia and the record includes Elies B. Stanford (62, farm overseer), Annie A. (63), and John T. (18). Living with them is Mollie [Mary] Henry (60), Acemia's sister.

Evidently, E.B.'s first wife Acemia died and he remarried about 1914. At that time, he was 66 and Willie was 24.

In 1920, the census finds the family in Pebble City, Mitchell, Georgia listed as E.B. Stanford (71, section foreman for the railroad), Willie May (34), Elmira (12), Clifford (10), Alma D. (5), Amanda (3-6/12), Charles Willard (1-8/12), and Lorenza (4/12).

Sometime after 1920, E.B. retired from the railroad and, according to an oral history by one son, the family moved around, living in varous rental houses and "share cropper" farms near Valdosta, Georgia.

The 1930 census finds the family in Militia District 1012, Dooly, Georgia and lists E.B. Stanford (81, farmer), Willie M. (43), Clifton (19), Alma (15), Mandy (13), Charlie (11), Lorenza (10), Raymond (9), Nadine (7), and Wilbur (5).

In both 1920 and 1930, there is a Clifford or Clifton Stanford, b. abt 1910, listed. The relationship of this child is unknown...she/he was born too late to be Acemia's (Acemia would have been 62 or 63 in 1910) and too early to be Willie's (the couple did not marry until 1914). In the 1920 census, the child is listed as female, but as male in 1930. No record after 1930 has yet been found and the child is not listed here because the information is simply too confusing to accurately define relationships.

The dates engraved on Elijah's headstone are "1851 - 1931".

Elijah was Acemia's second husband...she had previously married to a Williams by whom she had one daughter.

This was Willie Mae's second marriage. She had been previously married to Leonard Jackson Raffield, by whom she had a daughter, Elmyra. She and Leonard married about 1906, but were separated by 1910, when we find Willie M. Vinson and her daughter Mira Raffield (2) living with her parents in Pleasant Grove, Wilcox, Georgia.

In 1945, Willie Mae Stanford (59) and her son Raymond (22) are found living in Precinct 17, Duval, Florida by the Florida State Census. Raymond is listed as working for "Gibbs" [a term that is undefined].

A W.J. Stanford served as Private in the 5th Battalion, Florida Cavalry, CSA, during the Civil War.

From the birth places and ages of his children, it appears that William and Frances married about 1874, probably in Alabama, moving to Texas in 1877, first settling in Titus County and then moving to Burnet County in January 1881.

In 1880, the census finds the family living in Precinct 2, Titus, Texas and lists William Stanford (31), Francis (28), Emma N. (5), Minie (3), Rufus (1).

The following is the obit of Mary Frances (Rodgers) Stanford, 1852 - 1936, published in the "Burnet Bulletin", 15 Oct 1936:

"Mrs. J. W. Stanford was called by death at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Guthrie near Burnet last Wednesday night, October 7th, 1936. Interment was the next day in Bear Creek Cemetery, with Rev. Buren Sparks, pastor of the Burnet Baptist Church conducting the service.

"Mrs. Stanford's maiden name was Mary Frances Rodgers. She was born August 25th, 1852, in Pike County, Alabama, making her at the time of her death 84 years, 1 month and 12 days of age. the two sons and one daughter passed on [some text unreadable] ...are Mrs. W. D. Arnett of Lubbock, Mrs. J. C. Arnett of Lubbock, Mrs. G. W. Brock of Paducah, and Mrs. Henry Guthrie of Burnet. She is also survived by fourteen grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren."

The following newspaper clipping, date [probably about 1955] and source unknown, is posted on the Burnet County, Texas GENWEB site:

"Even at 80--To Town She Goes on Horse

"Mrs. Henry Guthrie, who operates a ranch five miles from Burnet, recently celebrated her 80th birthday by riding horseback to town. "You get a different perspective of things from a horse and I enjoy it more than the view one gets from an automobile," she said.

"It was the first time that Mrs. Guthrie had ridden to town on her birthday in ten years. She injured her knee in 1944 while sitting on a horse, talking to a neighbor. A dog chased some hogs and this frightened the horse. He pitched so violently that her knee was injured. Afterwards, she rode home through the pasture. When she dismounted to open her pasture gate, she was unable to remount. The likelihood of anyone visiting this part of the pasture was remote. Mrs. Guthrie said she began to pray. In some manner she finally managed to remount. She firmly believes that she was able to do so as an answer to her prayer.

"It was erroneously reported that Mrs. Guthrie had been thrown from her horse. She still resents it. 'I was never thrown from a horse in my life and I've ridden since I could walk,' she said indignantly.

"Mrs. Guthrie moved to Burnet County from Troy, Ala., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Stanford in 1881, when she was six. Her father was a Baptist minister. They located on a farm near Bertram. She went to school in Bertram and taught there after a year in Baylor College. She was married in Bertram to Henry Guthrie in 1896 and came to live on his ranch near Burnet. She has lived there ever since.

"Her husband died in 1928 and she took over management of the ranch. She says she loves it. 'I would not live long cooped up in town and my children have let me have my way,' she adds. "In addition to her love for horses and her ranch, Mrs. guthrie is devoted to her church. She is an active member of the Burnet First Baptist church. She has been president of the local WMS, also president of the WMU. She has taught the TEL Sunday School class for adult women for 20 years. Ordinarily, she does not come to town on a horse, but drives her car."

There seems to be a conflict about Minnie's death date. While her tombstone indicates she died on 27 Sep 1920, the 1930 census indicates that George and Ida did not marry until about 1929/1930, yet there was a child born in about 1919, 1921, and 1925, indicating that Minnie did not die until after 1925.

In 1916, its name was officially changed to Saint Elizabeth's Hospital. The hospital was removed from service and ownership was transferred by the federal government to the District of Columbia in 1987. Saint Elizabeth's Hospital is located east of the Anacostia River in Southeast Washington and the National Trust for Historic Preservation in 1991 declared the site a National Historic Landmark. According to his Virginia Death Certificate, George was a locksmith and he died of a perforated duodenal ulcer with peritonitis.

In 1870, the census lists Wilmer (23) living at home and working at a grocery.

We know that Wilmer married Lizzie Hamilton on 17 Sep 1874. There is a record of a child (female) being born in Washington, District of Columbia on 21 Jun 1875 to W.W. Stanford and Lizzie Hamilton Stanford. But, there are not further records yet found of mother or child. We know that Wilmer remarried to Lurie Estelle Jeffries on 22 May 1880, indicating that Lizzie has died by this time.

No 1880 census record for Wilmer has yet been found.

The 1890 "Washington City Directory" lists Wilmer Stanford, printer, in the Government Printing Office, 40 F Street, NW. In 1891, the "Washington City Directory" lists Wolmer W. Stanford, printer, at 1237 I Street, NE.

The "Washington City, District of Columbia Directory" of 1898 lists William W. Stanford living at 1237

I Street, NE. His occupation is listed "printer".

The 1900 census lists Wilmer (53, a printer) and his wife Lurie E. (39, a portrait painter) living in Washington, DC with children Pearl E. (19), Ruby C. (16), Lurie E. (11), and Janet M. (9).

In 1910, the family is living in Washington, DC and includes Wilmer W. Stanford (62), Lurie E. (49), Rubie C. (25), Lurie C. (20), and Janette M. (18). By this time, Pearl E. Stanford and her husband and first child are living with the family.

The 1920 census lists the family in Washington, DC and the record includes Wilmer W. Stanford (70, typesetter for gov't), Lurie E. (58), Lurie E. (28). Pearl's two children, Gladys M. Sparrow (17) and Wilmer S. Sparrow (4-2/12) are living with the family.

In 1930, the census finds the family in Washington and lists Wilmer Stanford (83) living with his daughters Ruby Stanford (43) and Lurie Stanford (39) and grandson Wilmer Sparrow.

The "Washington City, District of Columbia Directory" of 1932 lists the Wilmer W. Stanford living at 5410 Conduit Road, NW.

Lurie was the daughter of William R. Jeffries (b. 1832) and Betty M. Hunt (1838-1913).

Children of Wilmer Walton Stanford and Lurie Estelle Jeffries:

- i. Pearl Estelle Stanford, born 17 May 1881, in Washington, District of Columbia, died Apr 1926, in Washington, District of Columbia. She married Percy Clark Sparrow about 1902. Percy Clark Sparrow was born 17 Oct 1878, in Washington, District of Columbia, died about 1926, in Washington, District of Columbia.

Pearl and Percy had two children, Gladys (b. abt 1903) and Wilmer Perry (b. 1915).

Percy's 1917 WWI registration record lists his date of birth as 17 Oct 1877. That may be correct, but it would conflict with the birth of his sister Lena and doesn't match his age in the 1900, 1910, and 1920 census records.

- ii. Ruby Claire Stanford, born 11 Jan 1884, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 23 Aug 1963, in Washington, District of Columbia.

Evidently, based on census records, Ruby never married.

- iii. Lurie Elmo Stanford, born 15 Nov 1889, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 30 Mar 1963, in Washington, District of Columbia.

Evidently, based on census records, Lurie never married.

- iv. Janette Marguerite Stanford, born 5 Dec 1891, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 8 Nov 1968, in Washington, District of Columbia, buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Washington, District of Columbia. She married Herbert Gibbs Reed about 1914. Herbert Gibbs Reed was born 10 Dec 1885, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 1957, in Washington, District of Columbia, buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Washington, District of Columbia.

Janette and Herbert had three children.

After their marriage, the couple lived in Sharps, Richmond, Virginia, where Isaac made his living as a "waterman". Later, the family moved to Colonial Beach, Westmoreland, Virginia. Finally, late in life, the couple moved to Washington, District of Columbia.

The 1880 census lists the family in Milton, Richmond, Virginia as Isaac Stanford (36), Emma (32), John W. (8), George H. (6), William (3), and Isaac (11 mos.)

The family moved to Washington, District of Columbia sometime after 1880 and before 1890. The "Washington City, District of Columbia Directory" of 1890 lists Issac W. Stanford living at Riley Court, SW. His occupation is listed as "lab[or]er".

The 1900 census lists the family in Washington, District of Columbia and includes T.D.[?] Stanford (55, sailor), Emma L. (51), John W. (27), Katie (17), and Frank (10).

In 1910, both the U.S. and Virginia State Census find the family in Colonial Beach, Westmoreland, Virginia and records Isaac Stanford (66, sailor on a merchant vessel) and Emma (62). In the US census, they indicate they've been married 47 years.

The 1920 census lists the family in Washington, District of Columbia as Isaac W. Stanford (76, commissioner, oyster wharf) and Emmah H. (73). Living with them is their son Ollie F. Stanford (29, retired oyster merchant).

Emmaline was the daughter of William P. George (b. 1813, Virginia) and his second wife, Mary Ann Palmer, of Whitestone, Lancaster, Virginia.

The origin of Emmaline's middle name is unknown. In fact, Haseltine may not even be correct...her gravestone is engraved "Emma E. Stanford".

A family story is that Emmaline was the daughter of a chief in the Pamunkey Indian Tribe of the lineage of Pocahontas. However, there is no documentation to support this tale.

Notes for family of Isaac William Stanford and Emmaline Elizabeth Haseltine "Emma" George:
Lancaster County records Virginia State Library, Richmond

They settled in Sharps, Richmond County, Virginia, moved to Lancaster County, Virginia, and finally to Colonial Beach, Westmoreland County, Virginia

Children of Isaac William Stanford and Emmaline Elizabeth Haseltine "Emma" George:

- i. Mary Elizabeth Stanford, born 23 Mar 1867, in Virginia, died 17 Sep 1868, in Virginia.
- ii. William Henry Stanford, born 16 Jan 1870, in Lancaster County, Virginia, died 23 Oct 1870, in Lancaster County, Virginia.
- iii. John William Stanford, born 16 Apr 1873, in Lancaster County, Virginia, died 21 Nov 1912, in Washington, District of Columbia. He married Grace J. Kinslow 1 Oct 1902, in Washington, District of Columbia. Grace J. Kinslow was born Jun 1876, in Alexandria, Alexandria, Virginia.

The "Washington City, District of Columbia Directory" of 1898 lists John W. Stanford living at 1111 6th Street, SW (with his parents). His occupation is listed "lab[orer]".

While most records list John's marriage to Grace as 1 Oct 1902, the "District of Columbia, Compiled Marriage Index, 1830-1921" lists the marriage occurring on 30 Sep 1902. This record also lists John's middle name as "Wesley."

At the time of his death, John was living at 712-1/2 7th Street, SW, in Washington, District of Columbia.

John's death record lists his occupation as "Riverman". This record also indicates that he was married.

Grace was the daughter of Thomas W. Kinslow (1832-1884) and Sarah T. Miller (1838-1926).

The "Washington City, District of Columbia, City Directory" in 1914 lists a Grace Stanford, grocer, at 312 11th Street, SE. No husband is listed. This may be our Grace.

- vi. Levin Isaac Stanford, born 27 Jul 1879, in Lancaster County, Virginia, died 3 Mar 1913, in Alexandria, Alexandria, Virginia, buried in Bethel Cemetery, Alexandria, Alexandria, Virginia.

According his Virginia Death Certificate, Levin was an iron worker, was single when he died, and died from tuberculosis of the lungs. This record lists his date of birth as 27 Jul 1880...an obvious error since Levin is listed in the 1880 census, age 11 months.

- The death date engraved on Levin's gravestone is 27 Mar 1916, in error.
- vii. Catherine Bernice "Kate" Stanford, born 2 Sep 1883, in Virginia, died 29 Apr 1974, in Alexandria, Alexandria, Virginia. She married (1) Charles Butler Jewell about 1907. Charles Butler Jewell was born 11 May 1881, in Decatur, Illinois, died 14 May 1950, in Alexandria, Alexandria, Virginia, buried 17 May 1950, in Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Arlington, Virginia. She married (2) GNU Blatney before 1902.

Catherine and her first husband "Blatney" had one child, Ethel V, b. 1902.

In the 1910 census, we find Kate (20) and her husband Charles Jewell (29) living in Alexandria Ward 4, Alexandria, Virginia. Listed also are Ethel V. Jewell (8) and Lillian Jewell (2). Evidently, Charles had adopted Ethel, formally or informally,

This same census record includes Emma E. Stanford (62, mother-in-law) and Ollie F. Stanford (21, brother-in-law). They probably were visiting when the census was taken since both appear in the 1910 census living in Washington, DC.

Kate and Charles had three children.

On 12 Sep 1918, Charles registered for the WWI draft in Alexandria, Virginia. From this record, we learn his date of birth, his wife's middle name, and his occupation (locomotive engineer, Southern R.R.)

In 1942, Charles registered for the WWII draft and from this record we learn his place of birth.

According to his gravesite record, Charles served as a Private in 113th CO CAC.

No record for a "Blatney" has yet been found in Virginia, Maryland, or the District of Columbia.

- 528 viii. Ollie Francis "Frank" Stanford, born 11 Jul 1888, in Washington, District of Columbia, died 29 Mar 1968, in Colonial Beach, Westmoreland, Virginia.

In the 1880 census, we find Samuel living with his sister Mary and brother-in-law R.H. Atwood in Boston, Suffolk, Massachusetts, working in a canned fruit factory.

The Kansas State Census finds S.M. Stanford (30, grain buyer) and his wife Jennie (20) living in Minneapolis, Ottawa, Kansas on 1 Mar 1885. The couple married the previous year and no children are listed in this record.

In 1893, a book defining fire departments and water supplies in Kansas listed S.M. Stanford as "Chief Engineer" of the fire brigade in Minneapolis, Ottawa, Kansas.

On 1 Mar 1895, the Kansas State Census lists the family living in Minneapolis, Ottawa, Kansas, and includes S.M. Stanford (42, grain dealer), Jennie (28), and Sam T. (2). In this census record, Sam listed Massachusetts as the place from which he originated before moving to Kansas.

The 1900 U.S. census lists the family living in Minneapolis, Ottawa, Kansas and includes Samuel M. Stanford (48, grain commissioner), Jennie V. (35), Samuel T. (8), and Mildred L. (3).

On 1 Mar 1905, the Kansas State Census finds the family in Minneapolis, Ottawa, Kansas and includes S.M. Stanford (53), Gertrude (40), Samuel (12), Mildred (8), and Helen (1).

In 1910, the U.S. census finds the family living in Minneapolis Ward 1, Ottawa, Kansas and lists Samuel Stanford (58, mill and elevator), Gertrude (48), Samuel Jr. (17), Mildred (13), and Helen (6).

The 1920 census lists the family living in Salina Ward 2, Saline, Kansas and includes S.M. Stanford (67, proprietor, grain company), Gertrude (54), Mildred (23), and Helen (16).

In 1930, the census finds Gerturde J. Stanford (65, widow) living with her daughter Mildred L. Stanford Royce's family in Salina, Saline, Kansas.

Children of Samuel Moore Stanford and Gertrude Virginia "Jennie" LNU:

- i. Samuel T. Stanford, born May 1892, in Ottawa County, Kansas.
- ii. Mildred L. Stanford, born 2 Jun 1896, in Ottawa County, Kansas, died Apr 1971, in Salina, Saline, Kansas. She married La Rue Royce about 1923, in Kansas. La Rue Royce was born 8 Feb 1891, in Kansas, died after 1930, in Kansas.

La Rue was an attorney.

iii. Helen Stanford, born about 1904, in Ottawa County, Kansas.

In 1880, we find a census record of Harry L.D. Stanford (23) living as a boarder in the household of William P. and Margaret Rider in Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland and working as a clerk in a hotel.

The 1900 census finds Henry and his family living in Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland and lists Henry Stanford (43, lawyer), Marian F.D. (24), Marian F. (4), Henry L.D. Jr. (2), and Martha Wilson (1), all born in Maryland. Marian's parents, Harmer C. Waller (49) and Nellie W. Waller (45), along with her sister Ellen Wilson Waller (13), are living with them.

In 1910, the census lists H.L.D. Stanford (53, lawyer) living in West Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland with Marian F. (34), Marion W. (14), Harry L.D. (12), Martha W. (11), and Ella M. (8). Marian's mother, Nellie Waller (55), and sister, Ellen W. Waller (24), live with them.

Henry L.D. Stanford served in the Maryland House of Representatives in 1907-08, representing the Princess Anne District. The following is his biography published in the "Maryland Manual" during that period:

"HENRY L. D. STANFORD, DemocratPrincess Anne.

"Mr. Henry Laurenson Dashiell Stanford was named tor Rev. Robert Laurenson Dashiell, a prominent clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was born October 2, 1856, in that part of the city of Salisbury formerly Somerset county, but now Wicomico county.

He attended public school in Salisbury until 12 years old, when his widowed mother removed to Baltimore, where he resided until January, 1877, in which year he accepted a clerkship in the Washington Hotel, Princess Anne, Md., and served in such capacity under the late William P. Rider, father-in-law of Hon. Joshua W. Miles.

In Baltimore he attended old No. 6 Grammar School, then located on Druid Hill avenue, and of which Prof. Wardenburg was principal at the time. His widowed mother being poor, he was compelled to leave school and begin work for himself at the age of 14.

"His first employment was in a newsdealer's store in Baltimore, and he pleasantly recalls the experience of those days in selling the "Sun," the "American" and other city publications. In 1888 he began the study of law in the office of Page & Miles, at Princess Anne, and was admitted to practice in the Circuit Court for Somerset county in 1890, and the same year located in Salisbury and began practicing law with Hon. Robert P. Graham, under the firm name of Graham & Stanford. When Hon. Joshua W. Miles, with whom Mr. Stanford had studied law, was elected to Congress in 1894, Mr. Miles proposed a partnership to Mr. Stanford, and since then Mr. Stanford has been a member of the well-known law firm of Miles & Stanford, which has a large and lucrative practice, especially in the four counties of the First Judicial Circuit.

"He is a son of Isaac H. W. Stanford, who represented Somerset county in the Legislature of 1860.

"Mr. Stanford has for several years been a vestryman in Somerset Parish, and since the death of the late Levin L. Waters has been the standing delegate to the annual convention of the Diocese of Easton. He is and has always been a Democrat in politics, and belongs to several orders, including the Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, Independent Order of Heptasophs, Modern Woodmen and Knights of Maccabees.

"He is married and resides with his wife and four children on Prince William street in Princess Anne. Prior to the late election Mr. Stanford was never a candidate for public office."

Marian was the daughter of Clarence Claieraux Waller and Ellen Wilson.

The 1920 census, after Henry's death, find Marian F. Stanford ( 44, widow) living in Baltimore Ward 12, Baltimore, Maryland. Living with her are her children Marian Waller Stanford (24), Henry L.D. Stanford Jr. (22), Martha Hilda Stanfod (21), and Eleanor M. Stanford (18). Her brother William J. Waller (38) and sister Ellen W. Waller (30) live with them. also.

Children of Henry Laurenson Dashiell Stanford and Marian Frances Waller:

- i. Marian Waller Stanford, born 1 Dec 1895, in Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland, died 12 Mar 1958, in Lawton, Comanche, Oklahoma, buried in Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Virginia. She married James Francis Brittingham about 1921. James Francis Brittingham was born 4 Jul 1894, in Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland, died 19 Jan 1983, in Lawton, Comanche, Oklahoma, buried in Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Virginia.

In 1920, Marian (24) lived with her mother in Baltimore Ward 12, Baltimore, Maryland. In this census record she is listed as "Marian Walter Stanford".

Francis served in the U.S. Army, retiring as a Brigadier General. He was the son of Henry Lawrence Brittingham (1859-1906) and Mary B. Polk (1861-1940).

The following is his official biography as posted on the Arlington National Cemetery website:

At the time of Marian's death in 1958, James was serving as vice president of the Fort Sill National Bank, Fort Sill, Lawton, Oklahoma.

- ii. Henry Laurenson Dashiell Stanford, Jr., born 7 Oct 1897, in Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland, died 1944, in Somerset County, Maryland, buried in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Cemetery, Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland.

Henry registered for the WWI draft on 10 Sep 1918 in Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland. He listed his occupation as "Collector of Internal Revenue".

In 1920, Henry (22) lived with his mother in Baltimore Ward 12, Baltimore, Maryland.

The 1930 census finds Henry L.D. Stanford (32, lawyer) living in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland. Living with him are his mother Marion F. Stanford (54), sister Eleanor M. Stanford (28), and aunt Ellen W. Waller (43, his mother's sister).

In 1940, the census lists Henry L.D. Stanford (43, lawyer) living in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland as a lodger in the household of Cathryn R. Alsop.

Evidently, Henry never married.

- iii. Martha Wilson Stanford, born 15 Jan 1899, in Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland, died Oct 1980, in Baltimore, Maryland. She married Edward William Davis about 1925. Edward William Davis was born 18 Dec 1864, in Ebensburg, Cambria, Pennsylvania, died before 1940, in Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne, Pennsylvania.

In 1920, Martha (21) lived with her mother in Baltimore Ward 12, Baltimore, Maryland. In this census record she is listed as "Martha Hilda Stanford".

On 28 Aug 1926, the passenger list for the liner Nieuw Amsterdam arriving in New York listed Edward and Martha as passengers, living in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. From this record, we confirm Martha's data and place of birth and learn Edward's date and place of birth.

The 1940 census lists Martha Davis (41) and her son Edward W. Davis III (9) living in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland in the household of Ellen W. Waller (53), Martha's aunt, and her partner Eleanor W. Stanford (38). This record also list Edward W. Davis Jr. (50), Martha's stepson living with the family. Evidently, Edward W. Davis Sr. died by this time.

Edward was the son of William John Davis (1835 ) and Sarah Griffith (1838-1914).

This was Edward's second marriage...he had previously married to Emma LNU about 1884.

In 1930, the census finds the family living in Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne, Pennsylvania and lists Edward W. Davis (65, merchant, food and dry goods) and Martha W. (31, b. Maryland).

- iv. Eleanor Moore Stanford, born 20 Aug 1901, in Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland, died Aug 1973, in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland.

The 1930 census finds Eleanor M. Stanford (28) living with her brother and mother in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland.

The 1940 census lists Eleanor M. Stanford (38) living in Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland in the household of Ellen W. Waller (53), her aunt, and "partner." Living with them is Eleanor's sister Martha Davis (41) and her son Edward W. Davis III (9)

Gamble about 1875, in Texas. Margaret Joannah Gamble was born 23 Feb 1850, in Tennessee, died 11 Oct 1924, in Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona, buried in Greenwood Memory Lawn, Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona. Cause of death: apoplexy.

According to "Arizona, The Youngest State" published in 1913, Monroe moved with his family from Alabama to Texas in 1863 at the age of 13, though Alabama State Census records indicate the move to Texas was not made until 1866 or after.

There are two (double counting?) 1870 census records in Precincts 1 and 5, Liberty County, Texas that may be our Monroe Agee Stanford. One record lists Agee M. Stanford (20, b. Alabama) and Coralie (16, b. Louisiana). The second record lists Monroe Stanford (17, b. Alabama) and Cora (16, b. Texas) living in the same household as Elvina Bryan and her two children, Henry and Elvina Hartman. However, we know that Monroe Agee married Margaret Gamble in San Saba County, Texas in 1875 and that their first child was born in Kimble County, Texas in 1876. So, if Monroe married in Liberty County, either Cora died or the marriage simply didn't last. [There is no mention of an earlier marriage for Monroe Agee Stanford in any materials found so far.]

He married Margaret Gamble about 1875 in San Saba County, Texas. The birth of Monroe's and Margaret's first son, Edward, is recorded in "Some Kimble County [Texas] Births, 1874-1900" by Frederica Burt Wyatt. In this record, Monroe is listed as a "stockman".

The 1880 census finds the family living in Precinct 1, Taylor, Texas, just a few houses away from Margaret's parents. The record lists M.A. Stanford (29, merchant), M.J. (30), E.A. (3) and Rolie C. (2). (Interestingly, the Butchee family lives two houses away and at this time Ruth Butchee, Rawghlie's future wife, is 1 month old.) Precinct 1 of Taylor County was within the the town of Buffalo Gap, which, at this time, was the county seat (which was moved to Abilene in 1883 after the railroad bypassed Buffalo Gap in favor of Abilene).

Monroe moved his family to Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona about 1881/1882 and homesteaded 80 acres just south of McDowell Road. According to the 1913 published biographical information, he was the owner of a cattle ranch when he first moved to Arizona and then, in 1889, he moved to the Salt River Valley where he continued a cattle and dairy operation.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Township 1, Maricopa, Arizona Territory and lists M.A. Stanford (49, b. AL), Margaret Stanford (50, b. TN), Edward (23), and Rawghlie (21), both born in Texas. Monroe's occupation is listed as "dairyman".

In 1910, the census lists Monroe E. Stanford (59) and Margaret Stanford (60) living in Wilson, Maricopa, Arizona.

The 1920 census lists Monroe A. Stanford (69) and Margaret Stanford (69) living in Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona.

On his death certificate, Monroe's father's name is listed as David Stanford and his mother's maiden name as Stravis [Travis]. Monroe's obituary states that he was one of 12 children, but we have been able to identify only 7. The obit also states that a brother "...was killed by Indians at Buffalo Gap, Texas, in 1878". If true, this would probably have been Travis Stanford.

Margaret was the daughter of Charles Preston Gamble (b. 1824, Tennessee) and Susan Emaline Reed (b. 1823, Tennessee).

Charles Gamble moved his family to Texas after 1870 and they are listed in the 1880 census in Precinct 1, Taylor, Texas. The census record indicates that Charles was the county treasurer at this time.

Children of Monroe Agee Stanford and Margaret Joannah Gamble:

- 529      i. Edward Agee Stanford, born 1 Aug 1876, in Kimble County, Texas, died 28 May 1967, in Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona.
- 530      ii. Rawghlie Clement Stanford, born 2 Aug 1878, in Buffalo Gap, Taylor, Texas, died 15 Dec 1963, in Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona.

According to his burial record, during the Civil War, Jonathan served in Company D, 3rd Alabama Calvary ("Wilcox True Blues"). However, there is another listing for Jonathan N. Stanford serving as a Private in Company K of the 1st Regiment, Alabama Infantry. Jonathan's obituary states that "he enlisted in Company B, First Alabama Artillery when just a boy of fifteen, and served through the entire war." We don't know which of these records is correct.

In 1867, J.N. Stanford is listed as a registered voter in Wilcox County, Alabama.

In 1870, the family is living in Pine Apple, Wilcox, Alabama and the census record includes J.N. Stanford (25, farmer), Mary (25), Jennie (8), Melton (8), M.J. (2), and Joseph (7/12). The "Melton" listed in the 1870 census is probably Ida Mabel Seales, with the incorrect surname [see below].

The 1880 census finds the family living in Pine Apple, Wilcox, Alabama and lists John N. Stanford (35, farmer), Mary E. (35), William (13), Jane (12), Thomas (10), Joseph (8), Minnie (6), Samuel (4) and "Baby" [Richebourg] (1/12). Living with the family is Ida Seales (18), listed as "step-daughter", who probably is the "Jennie" listed in the 1870 record. From Butler County Alabama Chancery Court Records and "History of Pine Apple, Wilcox County, Alabama 1815-1889", we know that Mary Ellen had one daughter named Ida, born about 1862, with her first husband.

Mary Ellen died in 1896 and Jonathan remarried in 1898.

The 1900 census lists the family in Pine Apple, Wilcox, Alabama and includes John N. Stanford (54, farmer), Alma D. (38), Samuel N.(23), Gallard R. (20), and Marian P. (1). Living with them is nephew Charles D. Stanford (14).

Sometime prior to 1910, Jonathan moved from Pine Apple to Camden and became Wilcox County Probate Court Judge.

In the 1910 census, the family is listed in Camden, Wilcox, Alabama and includes Judge J. N. Stanford (64, county probate judge), Alma D. (47), Jean E. (9), and Mary (6).

Jonathan's obituary states that he was buried in his Confederate uniform.

Mary Ellen was the daughter of Joseph H. Melton and Nancy Jane Ptomey.

Mary Ellen previously married Francis Marion Seale in Jun 1861. Frank died during the Civil War at Richmond, Richmond, Virginia and is buried there. The couple had one daughter, Ida Mabel Seale.

Alma was the daughter of David Packer (b. 1803, South Carolina) and Jane D. Dubose (b. 1812, Alabama).

In the 1930 census, we find Alma Stanford (68) living with the family of her daughter Mary A. Boykin (26) and son-in-law William W. Boykin (33) in Camden, Wilcox, Alabama.

Some researchers identify Walter's place of birth as Wilcox County, Alabama. However, since he and Sarah married in Washington County in 1867, it is probable that both were from that county. Between 1850 and 1855, Walter's parents moved to Alabama and the 1860, 1870, 1880, and 1900 census find them in Washington County, Alabama.

Several census records, his death certificate, and his obituary indicate that Walter Daniel's birth year was 1848. However, when he applied for a Civil War pension in 1909, he listed his birth year as 1845.

Walter was a Civil War veteran, serving as a Private in Capt. Tobin's Company, Tennessee Light Artillery, with, according to family history, his father. He enlisted at Mobile, Alabama in September or October 1862 and was honorable discharged at Meridian, Mississippi in April 1865. This service was documented when, on 4 Aug 1909, Walter applied to the state of Florida for a veteran's pension. This application stated that he had been a Florida resident since 1867.

Walter's service in the artillery evidently badly damaged his hearing since he was almost totally deaf in his later years. A family story is that he would sit in a chair in front of his house that located on the Tampa road. When people stopped to ask directions, he really couldn't hear them, but he always gave them an answer "Straight ahead".

The 1870 census listing shows that Walter, Susan, and son William (age 2, born in Alabama) were living in Hillsborough County, Florida. Walter, therefore, relocated from Alabama to Florida sometime between 1868 and 1870.

The 1885 Florida State Census lists the family living in Hillsborough County, Florida and includes W.B. Stanford (37), S.A. (40), W.T. (17), J.O. (15), M.E. (13), J.E. (no age), W.C. (no age), J.A. (no age), and G.M. (no age).

In the 1900 census, the family is found in Precinct 6, Hillsborough, Florida. This record includes Walter Stanford (52), Sarah (55), John (23), Walter C. (21), George M. (17), and Augustus M. (14)

The 1920 census lists Walter (age 73) living in Riverview, Hillsborough, Florida with Blanche Stanford (daughter-in-law) and her three children (Ira, age 10, Gladys, age 8, and Letha, age 1-11/12).

The 1935 Florida State Census lists Walter Stanford (87, "grandpa") living in Precinct 48, Hillsborough, Florida living with his daughter-in-law Carry Stanford (55, widow).

Walter was a truck farmer.

According to his obit, published on 18 Dec 1943 in the "Tampa Tribune", Walter died at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Ruby Falkenburg. His three surviving sons listed were "William T., Brandon, Joseph O., Mulberry; and James A., Riverview". At the time of his death (at age 95), he had 35 grandchildren, 67 great-grandchildren, and 8 great-great-grandchildren.

Children of Walter Daniel Stanford and Sarah Amanda "Sally" Barnes:

- 548     i.    William T. "Bill" Stanford, born Jun 1868, in Alabama, died 1949, in Pinellas County, Florida.
- 549     ii.   Joseph Obediah Stanford, born 4 Feb 1870, in Florida, died 27 Jan 1953, in Mulberry, Polk, Florida.

She married Richard Gilbert Brooker 31 Aug 1890, in Hillsborough County, Florida. Richard Gilbert Brooker was born 5 Feb 1863, in Hazelhurst, Appling, Georgia, died 1 Jan 1951, in Orlando, Brevard, Florida, buried in New Hope Cemetery, Brandon, Hillsborough, Florida.
- Mary and Richard had 9 children.
- 550     iv.    John E. Stanford, born 14 Dec 1876, in Florida, died 17 Feb 1908, in Florida.
- 551     v.     Walter Clark Stanford, born 28 Jun 1879, in Florida, died 23 Jan 1933, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida.

By 1880, E.W. and Maggie have married, have 1 child, and are living in a rooming house in Precinct 2, Travis County, Texas, where E.W. is working as a "Section Boss" for the railroad.

Sometime before 1882, the family moved to Houston, Harris, Texas. The 1882-1883 "Houston City Directory" lists Eliphus as a carpenter working at the Southern Pacific Railroad shops. The 1894-1895 "Houston City Directory" lists Eliphus as a carpenter working for the T. & N.O. shops. In the 1894 and 1895 directories, his residence is listed as Summer Street, between Houston and Johnson Streets.

The 1900 census finds the family in Houston Ward 1, Harris, Texas. Olivia is not listed by the 1900 census...by this time she has probably married and moved out. Listed are E.W. Stanford (48), Maggie (38), Gertrude (15), Abner (11), Ruth (8), and Maggie (5).

After Maggie McIntyre Stanford died in 1903, Eliphus married her half sister Hattie Milhop in 1904.

In 1910, the census lists Woodruff Stanford (58, carpenter), Mary [Hattie] E. (53), Maggie (15), and Abner (21, clerk, railway). Living the family is Ester E. Lang (17), Hattie's daughter from her first marriage.

The 1917 "City Directory of Houston, Harris, Texas" lists Eliphus W. Stanford living at 1510 Summer.

In the census records, Eliphus lists his birthplace as Alabama. But, based on the 1850 census, he may have been born in Clark County, Mississippi.

His death certificate lists his occupation as "railroading construction" and, at the time of his death, he was living in Dover, Alabama, a widower. Evidently, he died while visiting his brother Walter Daniel Stanford in Hillsborough County, Florida.

Maggie was the daughter of James McIntyre and Mary Karsen.

Hattie was the daughter of Herman Milhop and Mary Karsen and was Maggie McIntyre's half-sister. She was first married to Charles Frederick Lang in Brazoria County, Texas.

Children of Eliphus Woodruff Stanford and Margaret "Maggie" McIntyre:

- i. Olivia Stanford, born about 1879, in Washington or Travis County, Texas.
- ii. Gertrude Stanford, born about 1885, in Texas.

The City Directory for Houston, Harris, Texas lists Miss Gertrude Stanford (bookkeeper) living in the city in 1903 and in 1937.

Evidently, Gertrude never married.

- iii. Abner B. Stanford, born 1 Aug 1888, in Houston, Harris, Texas, died 7 Feb 1953, in San Francisco, California. He married Auda V. Barnes about 1916, in Oklahoma. Auda V. Barnes was born 5 Nov 1895, in Oklahoma, died 1 Dec 1986, in Pueblo, Pueblo, Colorado, buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Pueblo, Pueblo, Colorado.

On 5 Jun 1917, Abner registered for the WWI draft in Tulsa, Tulsa, Oklahoma. He stated that he was married and was working as a bookkeeper for an oil and gas company in Tulsa. He also stated that his wife was invalid. From this registration, we learn his date and place of birth, along with his middle initial.

The City Directory for Tulsa, Tulsa, Oklahoma lists Abner B. Stanford and his wife Auda V. living in the city in 1919 and 1925.

We next find the family in Washington, District of Columbia in the 1930 census that lists Abner B. Stanford (42) and Auda V. (34). At this time, Abner is a salesman for a building and loan company. No children are listed.

The 1940 census lists Abner B. Stanford (51, cook's helper) living and working at Sharps Park, San Mateo County, California. This record indicates that he lived in San Francisco, San Francisco, California in 1935. This record shows Abner as "widowed," which is in error...perhaps he and Auda divorced.

In 1942, Abner b. Stanford (53) registered for the WWII draft in San Luis Obispo County, California where he was working for the WPA. He listed his residence as San Francisco, San Francisco, California. Evidently, he and Auda were separated since he listed A[uda] V. Robinson, Box 220, San Luis Obispo, San Luis Obispo, California as the person who would always know his address.

Abner's California death certificate provides his death date and place and lists his mother's maiden name.

Auda was the daughter of Elbert "Bert" Franklin Barnes (1872-1917) and Beatrice "Bea" Safrona Chapman (1872-1946). She was born in Arkansas, but the family moved to Adair County, Oklahoma prior to 1910.

Sometime after 1910, Bert and Bea divorced. Bert married Mary Ellen Reese (1881-1958) in Washington County, Arkansas on 22 Apr 1914 and both are buried at the Proctor-Sanders Community Cemetery, Proctor, Adair, Oklahoma. Bea Barnes is found living in Pueblo, Pueblo, Colorado by 1919. She married a Snowden about 1920 and is found in 1921 living in Pueblo, Pueblo, Colorado. She died there in 1946 and is buried at Mountain View Cemetery there.

Some time after 1940, Auda evidently moved to Pueblo, Pueblo, Colorado to be near her mother and is buried with her.

Based on Abner's WWII draft registration, Auda may have remarried to a Robinson at some point before 1940, but no record of this marriage has yet been found. Her death notice and burial record both list her as Auda Barnes Stanford.

- iv. Ruth E. Stanford, born 11 Nov 1892, in Texas, died 16 Nov 1926, in Oklahoma, buried in Fairlawn Cemetery, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma. She married Leonard B. Madrin. Leonard B. Madrin was born 13 May 1880, died 1959, in Oklahoma, buried in Fairlawn Cemetery, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma.
- v. Margaret "Maggie" Stanford, born 10 Sep 1894, in Texas, died 2 Aug 1917, in Houston, Harris Texas, buried in Hollywood Cemetery, Houston, Harris, Texas. She married Herbert Richard Viebig in Houston, Harris Texas. Herbert Richard Viebig was born 9 Jul 1894, in Brenham, Washington, Texas, died 10 Jul 1960, in Shreveport, Caddo, Louisiana.

According to her death certificate, which lists her name as Mrs. H.R. Viebig, Maggie died of chronic interstitial nephritis.

Herbert was the son of Richard Viebig (1872-1948) Theodora "Dora" Henriette Van Hutton (1872-1947).

Census records show that, by 1920, Herbert had remarried to Anna C. Huffsmith (1895-1959). He and Anna moved to Shreveport, Caddo, Louisiana before 1928 when they appear in the Shreveport City Directory.

The following biography is extracted from Herbert's obit:

Born in Brenham, Washington, Texas, Herbert Viebig moved to Houston when he was about 10 years old. He grew up in the Woodland Heights area of the city at 1916 Summer Street, the residence of his family. The 1915 City Directory shows him boarding four blocks away from his family at 1510 Summer and that he was working as a clerk at Union National Bank. According to the 1917 City Directory, his residence was at the 1510 Summer Street address as was E.W. [Eliphias Woodruff] Stanford who owned the property. According to a Houston death certificate, a Mrs. H.R. Viebig died on August 2, 1917, of chronic intestinal nephritis at the Houston Baptist Sanitarium. Her father was listed as E.W. Stanford. So it would appear that for a brief time, Herbert was married to the daughter of the owner of his residence.

After his wife's death, Herbert moved back to his parents' home at 1916 Summer where, according to the 1919 City Directory, he was listed as a boarder, working at a bank.

In October that year, he married Anna Huffsmith, and the couple is listed on the 1920 census at the older Viebigs' address. Some time before 1928, the couple, with their young daughter, moved to Shreveport, Louisiana.

The 1930 census lists them living in Shreveport, where his occupation was accountant.

Herbert Viebig died of a heart attack at age 66 at his daughter's home in Shreveport. He was retired from Southwest Natural Gas Company where he had been employed as an accountant for many years.

While Mary Alice Stanford was helping her sister Nancy after the birth of Nancy's baby, she had an affair with Nancy's husband Thomas Murphy and became pregnant with Joshua. The scandal and shame of this situation resulted in Obediah and Susan claiming Joshua as their son.

Alice married in 1892 and the 1900 census finds the family living in Koenton, Washington, Alabama. This record includes W. J. Humphrey (70, farmer) and Mary A. (42), along with three children Bedia Humphrey (6), Lovinia Humphrey (5), and Pink Humphrey (2).

The 1910 census lists Mary Humphrey (53, widow), with her three children, living in Bloomingdale, Hillsborough, Florida. Since W.J. Humphrey did not die until 1923, it can only be assumed that the couple split sometime between 1900 and 1910 and Mary moved to Hillsborough County, Florida where several of her siblings had moved earlier.

In 1920, the census finds Mary Humphrey (60, widow) living with her daughter Alice's family in Tampa Ward 1, Hillsborough, Florida.

Thomas was the son of Osmus Blakely Murphy (1805-1880) and Elizabeth Newby (1824-1880).

In addition to his children with Nannie Stanford and the child he had with Mary Alice Stanford, in 1899 Thomas fathered a child by his son-in-law's unmarried sister, Lucy Waite; the child was raised by Waite relatives and likely never knew his true parentage.

Children of Mary Alice Stanford and Thomas Jefferson Murphy:

- 555      i. Joshua "Josh" Stanford, born 23 Apr 1878, in Washington County, Alabama, died 15 Apr 1945, in Butler, Choctaw, Alabama.

He married Eunice Christine Miller 1886, in Alabama. Eunice Christine Miller was born 9 Jul 1866, in Millry, Washington, Alabama, died 16 Jun 1941, in Vernal, Greene, Mississippi, buried in Winborn Chapel Cemetery, Vernal, Greene, Mississippi.

The 1900 census finds the family of Albert (33, farmer), Eunice (age 33), Mattie (age 13), Claudia (age 11), Worthy (age 7), and Willie (age 5) living in Healing Springs, Washington, Alabama.

In the 1910 census, the family is living in Beat 3, Jones County, Mississippi.

He married Flora L. George 15 Jun 1892. Flora L. George was born 12 Jul 1876, died 3 Jan 1945, in Mobile County, Alabama, buried in Whistler Cemetery, Mobile County, Alabama.

Some researchers have identified James' middle name as "Harold".

The 1900 census lists the family in Beat 2, Wayne, Mississippi and includes James H. Stanford (25, saws logs), Flora (23), Oberia (6), Jessie (5), and Walter A. (1). [Note that the age recorded for James is in error.]

In 1910, the census finds the family in Beat 2, Wayne, Mississippi and includes James H. Stanford (41, town night watchman), Flora (34), Obie (16), Lena (14), Walter (11), Lillie (9), George (6), Alex (4), Addie (3), and Johnnie (8/12).

In the 1930 census, Minnie L. is living with John (age 79) in Rocky Creek, Butler, Alabama.

Gatsy was the daughter of Winfield Scott Dyess (b. 1825, Wilkinson County, Georgia) and Carolne Emiline Stricklin (b. 20 Jun 1925, Georgia).

She married Melvin M. Meinen. Melvin M. Meinen was born 9 Oct 1914, in Jasper, Hanson, South Dakota, died 17 Aug 1966, in Houston, Harris, Texas, buried in Saint Peters United Church of Christ Cemetery, Houston, Harris Texas.

This was Melvin's second marriage. He had previously married Ester Dorale on 4 May 1952 in South Dakota.

Cemetery, Lenna, McIntosh, Okalahoma.

In the 1880 census, we find William (24) working as a farm laborer on the farm of Hickman and Sarah Mosley in Wittich, Franklin, Arkansas.

Based purely on circumstantial evidence, it appears that William married while in Arkansas and had at least one child. The wife is unidentified. Evidently, William's wife died 1880/1890 and in 1900, William G. Stanford (44) and Henry Z. Stanford (42) are living with their mother Lucy (62) and sister Jennie [Virginia] Layman (and children) in Township 11, Creek Nation, Indian Territory. William never remarried.

In the 1910, 1920, and 1930 census, brothers William G. and Henry Z. Stanford are operating a general farm in Ryals, McIntosh, Oklahoma.

William and his brother Henry are buried together.

Children of William Giles Stanford and ____ ____:

- 570      i.    Guy Jefferson Stanford, born 20 Jan 1880, in Arkansas, died 15 Mar 1968, in Eufaula, McIntosh, Oklahoma.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Township 11, Creek Nation, Indian Territory [Oklahoma] next door to Fred's siblings and step-mother. This record includes Frank E. Stanford (39, farmer), Elizabeth (34), Hattie G. (3), and Willie B. (1).

The 1910 census lists the family in Simpson, McIntosh, Oklahoma and includes Fed E. Stanford (49, farmer), Elizabeth (42), Hattie G. (13), Willie B. (10), Ethell (8), and William F. (2). They are living next door to Fed's bothers William and Zed.

In 1920, the census finds the family living in Hanna, McIntosh, Oklahoma and lists Fred E. Stanford (60, farmer), Elisabeth (56), Gertrude H. (22), and Ethel (17), and William F. (11). Living with the family is Gertrude's son Arnold G. West (1)...Gertrude is a widow.

The 1930 census finds the family living in Burton, McIntosh, Oklahoma and lists F.E. Stanford (65, farmer), Gertrude (33), Fred (22), and Arnold West (12). [This census record incorrectly lists Frederick's place of birth as Iowa and his parents birth place as Germany...these statistics belong to his wife. Elisabeth, for some reason, is not listed in this record, so it looks like a census taker error.]

According to census records, Elisabeth's parents were born in Germany.

Children of Fredrick Elijah "Fed" Stanford and Elisabeth Keiner:

- i. Hattie Gertrude Stanford, born Mar 1897, in Oklahoma. She married Roscoe West in Oklahoma. Roscoe West was born in Oklahoma, died before 1920, in Oklahoma.

In 1920, the census Gertrude H. Stanford (22, widow) and her son Arnold G. West (1) living in Hanna, McIntosh, Oklahoma and with her parents.

The 1930 census finds Gertrude Stanford (33, widow) living in Burton, McIntosh, Oklahoma with her father F.E. Stanford (65, farmer) and brother Fred (22). Her son Arnold West (12) is living with the family.

The use of the Stanford surname by Gertrude in these two records indicates that she had reverted to using her maiden name. Hattie's son was Arnold Gyles West, b. 14 Mar 1918, Gentury, Ottawa, Oklahoma, d. 29 Jul 1967, Okmulgee, Okmulgee, Oklahoma.

- ii. Willie B. Stanford, born Apr 1899, in Oklahoma.
- iii. Ettie Stanford, born 17 Feb 1902, in McIntosh County, Oklahoma, died 1904, in McIntosh County, Oklahoma, buried in Lenna Cemetery, McIntosh County, Oklahoma.

Ettie and Ethel evidently were twins.

- iv. Ethel Stanford, born 17 Feb 1902, in Lemon, Caddo, Oklahoma, died Feb 1994, in Eufaula, McIntosh, Oklahoma, buried in Hanna City Cemetery, McIntosh County, Oklahoma. She married George Melvin Mouser 22 Dec 1924. George Melvin Mouser was born 24 Nov 1903, in Groveton, Trinity, Texas, died 4 Mar 1965, in Hanna, McIntosh, Oklahoma, buried in Hanna City Cemetery, McIntosh County, Oklahoma.

Ethel and Ettie may have been twins.

Melvin was the son of George Elsworth Mouser (1879-1956) and Betty Ann Venghaus (1879-1953).

On his tombstone, the title "Rev." is used. Melvin was an ordained Freewill Baptist minister in Hanna, McIntosh, Oklahoma.

- v. Ruby Stanford, born 1904, in McIntosh County, Oklahoma, died 1906, in McIntosh County, Oklahoma, buried in Lenna Cemetery, McIntosh County, Oklahoma.

- 571      vi. William Frederick Stanford, born 27 Mar 1908, in Oklahoma, died 13 Mar 1944, in McIntosh County, Oklahoma.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Wittich, Franklin, Arkansas and lists Guss Stanford (30, farmer), Della (27), Mural (8), Gracie (5), Jula (3), and Leonard (4/12). This census lists Gus' birthdate as Jan 1870, but the 1870 and 1880 census and his gravestone clearly indicate a birth date of 1868.

In 1910, the family is living in Fort Smith, Sebastian, Arkansas and the census record lists George A. Stanford (42, farmer), Della (37), Murel (18), Grace (15), Oran (8), Gussie (5), Byron (3), and Delmas (1).

The 1920 census lists the family living in Fort Smith Ward 3, Sebastian, Arkansas and includes George A. Stanford (52, laborer, R.R.), Della (49), Gussie (15), Bryon (13), Delman (10), Coline (7), and Emma G. (2-5/12).

In 1930, the census finds the family in Fort Smith, Sebastian, Arkansas and includes George A. Stanford (62, yard worker, railroad), Della (57), Bryon (23), Audie (22), Delmer (21), Colleen (18), and Emmagine (13).

Della was the daughter of James H. Ledgerwood and Polly Ann Harris of Franklin County, Arkansas.

In the 1940 census Della Stanford (66) is found living with her son Oren in Fort Smith, Sebastian, Arkansas.

Children of George Augustus "Gus" Stanford and Della Ledgerwood:

- 572      i. Leonard Murrell Stanford, born 25 Nov 1892, in Fort Smith, Sebastian, Arkansas, died 7 Jul 1949, in Salem, Marion, Oregon.

Charles was the son of John Lee Cruce (1866/1953) and Mittie Pennington (1867/1955).

- iii. Julia M. Stanford, born Apr 1897, in Arkansas, died before 1910, in Arkansas.

Julia does appear in the 1910 or later census records, so it is assumed she died young.

- iv. Leonard C. Stanford, born Jan 1900, in Arkansas, died before 1910, in Arkansas.

Leonard does not appear in the 1910 or later census records, so it is assumed he died young.

- v. Robert Oren Stanford, born 8 Dec 1901, in Roseville, Logan, Arkansas, died Jul 1987, in Waverly, Sussex, Virginia, buried in Waverly Cemetery, Waverly, Sussex, Virginia. He married Para Mae "Penny" Rhodes about 1929, in Arkansas. Para Mae "Penny" Rhodes was born about 1911, in Dyer, Crawford, Arkansas. They were divorced 16 Dec 1937, in Sevier County, Arkansas.

The newlyweds are living in Fort Smith, Sebastian, Arkansas in the 1930 census where Oran Stanford (26) is working as a laborer in a wholesale grocery and Para M. Stanford (19) is a bookkeeper in a dentist's office.

In 1938, the City Directory for Fort Smith, Arkansas lists R. Oren Stanford as a salesman, Griffin Grocery, Co.

The 1940 census lists R.O. Stanford (38, traveling salesman) living in Fort Smith, Sebastian, Arkansas. This record indicates he is divorced. Living with him are his sister Allene Stanford (28) and his mother Della Stanford (66).

Oren registered for the WWII draft in Fort Smith, Sebastian, Arkansas. From this record, we learn his full name and date and place of birth. This record lists his mother, Mrs. Della Stanford.

Para was the daughter of Chester Ulysses Rhodes (1884-1940) and Myrtle Mae Renfroe (1889-1954).

This marriage ended in divorce on 16 Dec 1937 in Sevier County, Arkansas.

- vi. Augusta E. "Gussie" Stanford, born about 1905, in Arkansas.

In 1921, Gussie Stanford is listed as a Freshman at Northside High School, Fort Smith, Sebastian, Arkansas.

In 1925, the "Fort Smith, Arkansas, City Directory" lists Gussie E. Stanford "mach opr Woods Mfg Co" living with her parents at 921 Lexington Avenue. No records for her after this date have yet been found.

- 573 vii. Lionel Byron Stanford, born 26 Sep 1906, in Roseville, Logan, Arkansas, died Apr 1975, in Winnetka, Los Angeles, California.

At her death, Emma was the retired business office manager for Sparks Regional Medical Center.

Emma and William had two sons.

In 1900, the census finds the family living in Wittich, Franklin, Arkansas and lists Dell Stanford (26), Belle (25), and James W. (0) living next door to his brother Gus.

The 1910 census finds the family living in Fort Smith Ward 5, Sebastian, Arkansas. This record includes Dee Stanford (35, peddler, odd jobs), Bell (34), Balmer (8), Grace (5), and Carl (1-4/12). There is one other male child (3) listed, but the name is illegible on the census report.

On 12 Sep 1918, Dee registered for the WWI draft in Sebastian County, Arkansas. At the time, he listed his occupation as "labor, Ft. Smith Cotton Compress."

In 1930, the census lists the family living in Fort Smith, Sebastian, Arkansas and includes Dee Stanford (57, well driller), Belle (52), Belnar (28), and Grace (23).

The 1940 census finds the family living in Fort Smith, Sebastian, Arkansas and includes Dee Stanford (65, unskilled labor, WPA) and Belle L. (54). Living with them is grandson Jimmy D. Stanford (6).

According to her death certificate, Belle's mother's maiden name was Lafthen. There are census records for Lofton and Lifton in Arkansas, but no Lafthen.

Children of Dean "Dee" Stanford and Belle McClory:

- i. James W. Stanford, born May 1900, in Franklin County, Arkansas, died before 1910, in Arkansas.

James does not appear in the 1910 or later census records and it is probable that he died before 1910.

- ii. Delmar Stanford, born about 1902, in Arkansas. He married (1) Marie Morse 17 Oct 1921, in Crawford County, Arkansas. Marie Morse was born about 1902. He married (2) Rosa Liberto 10 Apr 1930, in Crawford County, Arkansas. Rosa Liberto was born about 1905.

In 1930, the census lists Delmar Stanford (26, cook, cafe) living in a boarding house in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Oklahoma. This record lists him as "widower".

- iii. Grace Stanford, born about 1905, in Arkansas.
- 575 iv. John Horace Stanford, born 16 Dec 1906, in Arkansas, died 12 Sep 1990, in Los Angeles County, California.
- v. Carl Stanford, born about 1908, in Arkansas.

The 1870 census finds Louis M. Stanford (13) living with and working on the farm of his uncle Samuel W. Register and aunt Mary [Stanford] Register in District 1219, Clinch, Georgia.

In 1880, there are two census listings: In one, the census finds Lewis (35, farm laborer) and wife Sarah (27) living as boarders in the household of William and Sarah E. Johnson in Statenville, Echols, Georgia. In the other, the census finds Lewis (35, farm laborer) and wife Sarah (27) living in the household of William and Sarah E. Johnson in Forest, Echols, Georgia. However, in this one, Lewis is listed as "son" and Sarah is listed as daughter. Sarah E. Johnson is 49 years old in 1880 and may be Sarah Stanford's mother, having remarried...making Sarah Stanford William's stepdaughter and Lewis his son-in-law, which may have been the intent of the listings.

Lewis and Sarah divorced before 1887 and the 1900 census lists Louis Marion Stanford (43) in Militia District 1209, Bulloch, Georgia and living with David Q. Stanford (39, farmer), Annie Eliza (35), Louis O. (3), and Mitchell H. (2). In this record, Lewis is listed as being "single".

In 1910, the census finds Marion Stanford (50, "invalid") living as a boarder in the home of Dan L. and Marina Barley in Statesboro, Bulloch, Georgia.

Sallie was the daughter of Thomas Arthur Newbern and Elizabeth Moore.

Sarah and Lewis evidently divorced after 1885 since the 1900 census finds Sarah remarried to Dixon Bennett (m. 29 Dec 1887, Clinch County, Georgia) and living in Alexanderville, Echols, Georgia with her children Salena Stanford (F, 21), Melton Stanford, (19), Lola L. Stanford (17), and Lewis C. Stanford (15), along with new children Flora M. Bennett (11) and William A. Bennett (8).

In the 1910 census, Dixon Bennett (64) and Sallie (53) Bennett are living in Clinch County, Georgia with the two youngest Bennett children.

Dixon Bennett died before 1920 and, according to Kirkland family researchers, Sallie married William Franklin Kirkland (b. 11 Mar 1847, Florida, d. 3 Nov 1924, Clinch County, Georgia) after the death of Sarah Newbern, her aunt, who was William's first wife, on 13 Jul 1921.

Elvina Vickery was the daughter of Hezekiah Vickery (b. 1836, Lowndes County, Georgia, d. 1904, Clinch County, Georgia) and Amanda (or Miranda) Guthrie (b. 1823, South Carolina, d. 1915, Georgia).

The marriage to Lewis Stanford was Elvina's second marriage. She married a Guthrie (or Guthery) in the late 1870s and had one daughter, Narcissa, evidently named after her sister Narcissa Ann Vickery. Evidently this Guthrie died or left before 1880 since the census finds Elvina Guthery (27) and daughter Narcis Guthery (2) living with her parents in District 1148, Berrien, Georgia.

Evidently, this marriage ended before 1900 since the 1900 census finds Vinie Stanford (50) and her son James Stanford (9) living with her brother John E. Vickery in Militia District 1149, Berrien, Georgia. [The 1900 census also lists Louis Marion Stanford (43) in Militia District 1209, Bulloch, Georgia as "single".]

In 1910, the census finds Vina Stanford (60) and Marion Stanford (19, farm hand) living in Upper Tenth, Berrien, Georgia.

The 1920 census lists Melvina Stanford (68) and James M. Stanford (27, laborer) living in Upper Tenth, Berrien, Georgia.

Notes for family of Lewis Marion Stanford and Melvina Vickery: Evidently, this marriage ended before 1900.

Children of Lewis Marion Stanford and Sarah Ann "Sallie" Newbern:

- i. Selena "Lena" Stanford, born May 1879, in Georgia, died 21 Oct 1948, in Baldwin County, Georgia. She married James W. Maloney. James W. Maloney was born about 1874, in Georgia, died 24 Apr 1951, in Cook County, Georgia.

- 576      ii.      At the time of her death, Lena was living in Lowndes County, Georgia.
Melton Colquitt Stanford, born 10 Mar 1881, in Adel, Cook, Georgia, died 30 Oct 1956, in Lowndes County, Georgia.
- iii.      Lola L. "Minnie" Stanford, born Apr 1883, in Georgia, died after 1945, in Levy County, Florida. She married John Soloman "Sollie" McClelland about 1907, in Georgia. John Soloman "Sollie" McClelland was born 21 Aug 1879, in Georgia, died after 1945, in Levy County, Florida.

In both the 1910 and 1920 census records, we find Minnie and Sollie living in Adel, Berrien/Cook, Georgia. By 1930, though, the family had moved to Levy County, Florida and we find them there in the 1930 U.S. census and both the 1935 and 1945 Florida State Census records.

Sollie was a barber.

On 12 Sep 1918, Sollie registered for the WWI draft in Adel, Berrien, Georgia. From this record, we learn his full name and date of birth.

Sollie's marriage to Minnie was his second marriage.

- iv.      Lewis C. Stanford, born Feb 1885, in Georgia.

In one census record, Lewis' middle initial is given as "O", while as "C" in another record...we don't know which, if either, is correct.

- v.      Clifford Stanford, born about 1886, in Georgia, died after 1920, in Georgia. She married John L. Roberts 14 Aug 1910, in Echols County, Georgia. John L. Roberts was born about 1887, in South Carolina, died 23 Apr 1942, in Toombs County, Georgia.

In 1900, Clifford (15) was living with her uncle Levin Davis in Valentine, Echols, Georgia.

The 1910 census finds Clifford living with her uncle Levin Davis in Valentine, Echols, Georgia.

In 1920, the census finds the family living in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia and lists J.L. Roberts (33, cashier, freight office), Clifford (33), and two children. John's father is living with the family.

John was the son of Thomas A. Roberts (b. Abt 1845, South Carolina).

In 1910, John was living with his first wife and their child in Turner County, Georgia. Thus, his marriage to Clifford was his second.

Children of Lewis Marion Stanford and Melvina Vickery:

- 577      i.    James Marion Stanford, born 1 Apr 1892, in Willacoochee, Berrien, Georgia, died 5 Feb 1971, in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida.

Annie Eliza "Sis" Woodcock was born 15 Feb 1866, in Georgia, died 28 Oct 1948, in Georgia, buried in Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Statesboro, Bulloch, Georgia.

The 1900 census lists the family in Militia District 1209, Bulloch, Georgia and includes David Q. Stanford (39, farmer), Annie Eliza (35), Louis O. (3), and Mitchell H. (2). Living with them is Louis Marion Stanford (43), David's brother.

In 1910, the census recorded the family living in Glennville, Tattnall, Georgia and included David Q. Stanford (48, farmer), Ann Eliza (45), Ottis (13), Hudson (11), David (9), William (7), and Mary (4).

The 1920 census finds the family living in Statesboro, Bulloch, Georgia and includes Dav. Q. Stanford (59, farmer), Annie E. (64), Hudson M. (20), David (18), William (14), and Mary Ellen (14).

Sis was the daughter of Seaborn Woodcock and Emma R. Bennett.

In 1930, the census finds Sis living in the household of her son David in Nevils, Bulloch, Georgia.

Children of David Quitman Stanford and Annie Eliza "Sis" Woodcock:

Bill did not marry.

His death certificate incorrectly spells his surname "Standford".

- v. Mary Ellen Stanford, born about 1906, in Georgia.

The June 30, 1885 Florida State Census finds the family in Suwannee County, Florida and lists Elijah Stanford (35, Farmer, b. Georgia), Dette (33, Wife), W.E. (11, son), Serency (3, daughter), W.F. (2, son [James?]), and E.T. (11/12, son [Alice?])

The 1900 U.S. census finds the family in Middleton, Suwannee, Florida and lists Elizah (49, farmer), Darien A. (48), James T. (18), and Henry E. (17). [Alice and Sadie are both missing from this census record.]

In 1910, the census lists the family living in Precinct 12, Suwannee, Florida and the record includes Lige Stanford (59, farmer), Daisy Ann (59), Henry (32), and Sadie (21). [In this record, Henry's age is incorrect by 10 years...he was about 21 when the census was taken, and incorrectly lists his place of birth as Georgia. Likewise, Sadie's age and place of birth is also incorrect, she was born in Florida since the family had lived in Suwannee County, Florida since before 1880, and since we know Henry was born in Aug 1889, she undoubtedly was born later.]

Darianne was the daughter of Enoch Wiley Hurst (b. Effingham County, Georgia, 10 Jun 1810, d. 11 Jan 1911 in Florida at 100 years of age) and Sylvia Louvenia Edwards, who married in Jefferson County, Florida on 14 Aug 1845.

Children of Elijah "Lige" Stanford and Darianne S. "Adorance" Hurst, Sarah Ann:

- 580     i. William Eli "Billy" Stanford, born 18 Aug 1873, in Suwanee County, Florida, died 1937, in Hardee County, Florida.
- ii. Serena Idelia Stanford, born 5 Dec 1879, in Live Oak, Suwanee, Florida, died 20 Mar 1963, in Thonotosassa, Hillsborough, Florida. She married Merdie Goodson 1899. Merdie Goodson was born 26 Dec 1873, in Madison County, Florida, died 1 Jan 1918, in Live Oak, Suwanee, Florida.
- Serena amd Merdie had 9 children.
- 581     iii. James Thomas Stanford, born 1 May 1887, in Live Oak, Suwanee, Florida, died 22 Oct 1936, in Wauchula, Hardee, Florida.
- iv. Alice Stanford, born 4 Dec 1884, in Suwannee County, Florida, died 7 Mar 1917, in Suwannee County, Florida, buried in Friendship Baptist Church Cemetery, Live Oak, Suwannee, Florida.

Alice is not listed any census record (though she may be the "E.T." listed in the 1885 Florida State Census) and we are not sure she is actually a daughter. But, she is undoubtedly part of this Stanford family and is included here as a "place holder" until better information is found.

- 582      v.    Henry Edward Stanford, born 18 Aug 1889, in Suwanee County, Florida, died Jan 1967, in Thonotosassa, Hillsborough, Florida.
vi.    Sade or Sole Stanford, born about 1890, in Suwannee County, Florida.

In the 1910 census record, this child's name is essentially illegible and his read as "Sade" or "Sole." No further records for her have yet been found. In this record, her age and place of birth is also incorrect, she was born in Florida since the family had lived in Suwannee County, Florida since before 1880, and since we know Henry was born in Aug 1889, she undoubtedly was born later.]

Jimmie, Frank's wife, was born in Alabama, as were all of the children, so Frank must have moved with his father to Alabama about 1890.

The 1900 census lists the family living in Ball Play, Etowah, Alabama and lists Frank Stanford (26, farm laborer), Jim (23), Lizzy (2), and Sollie (11/12).

The 1920 census finds the family living in Ashville, St. Clair, Alabama and lists Frank A. Stanford (46), Jimie (43), Sol G. (20), Irene (9), and Portor (3-5/12). At this time, Judson's mother Elizabeth (81) is living with the family.

In 1930, the family is living in District 2, Hamilton, Tennessee listed as Judge F. Stanford (56, farmer), Jim (54), and Irene (19). Evidently, the family did not move to Tennessee until 1924 or after since their youngest son was born and died in Alabama and is buried there.

Frank is listed as the surviving spouse on Jimmie's 1932 death certificate.

Evidently, after 1932, but by 1935, Frank moved back to Alabama and, according to 1940 census, was living in rural DeKalb County, Alabama that year. The census record in 1940 lists J. Frank Stanford (68) and a new wife, Lulu (47), living in Keener, Etowah, Alabama.

The census records list Judson's wife as "Jimmie" and "Jimie". Judson's WWI draft registration lists it as "James".

Jimmie's death certificate (No. 723) lists her name as "Mrs. J. F. Stanford" and lists her father as "L. Pollard" and her mother's maiden name as "Anderson". The death certificate lists her date of birth as "Jan. 1" and her age as 56, indicating a birth date of 1 Jan 1876.

William moved from Arkansas to Cass County, Texas shortly after 1900. Evidently, his wife Theodocia and child did not move with him since, by 1910 he had remarried and had two children.

In 1910, the census finds the family living in Justice Precinct 1, Cass, Texas and includes William T. Stanford (32, farmer), Mary E. (24), Roy (4), James A. (2), Gladys A. (10/12), and step daughter Mary B. Jones (9).

During WWI, William served as Secretary of the Cass County Draft Board.

(12), George (10), Bonnye (8), Cooper (6), Edd (4), and Dan (2).

From her obit, we learn that Sarah Beth moved to the Knoxville, Tennessee area in the 1960s and married soon thereafter. Sarah Beth was known as "Granny Simms" to her Tennessee family and "Aunt Beth" to her Texas family, and she was so loved by both families.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Knoxville for 53 years, and a Red Cross Volunteer for over 50 years, actively serving her country during World War II. She supported many organizations during her life time and was well traveled, having visited many foreign countries, as well as most of the United States. She was an avid birdwatcher and she loved wildlife. She taught swimming lessons at the YWCA for many years and loved the water.

Sarah Beth spent her last years at the home of her step-grandson in Dandridge, Knox, Tennessee and her favorite pastime there was watching the boats go by on Douglas Lake.

In 1918, Frank registered for the WWI draft in Driver, Mississippi, Arkansas. He defined his occupation as "levee contractor, self-employed" and listed his wife, Edna Abbott Stanford, as his closest relative.

In 1920, the census finds the family living in Monroe, Mississippi, Arkansas where Frank lists his occupation as "manager, levee camp". This record shows A. Frank Stanford (35), Edna (25), and A. Frank Jr. (2).

Frank was a well-known and well-respected river levee engineer and contractor who operated out of Memphis, Shelby, Tennessee. He was instrumental in founding the Mississippi Valley Branch of the Associated General Contractors (MVAGC), which traces its beginnings to March 1925 when a group of levee contractors met in Memphis, Shelby, Tennessee and formed a levee division within the existing Memphis Chapter of AGC. The levee division remained actively affiliated with the Memphis Chapter until June 1, 1928, when it was separately chartered as the Mississippi Valley Flood Control Branch by the Associated General Contractors of America (following the devastating flood of 1927).

In 1952, Frank married Dorothy Gilbert Alter and subsequently adopted her two adopted children Francis Gildart "Frank" Stanford and Bettina Ruth Stanford Edna's death certificate lists her husband as A.F. Stanford, living in Memphis, Tennessee and lists her parents as Rev. John Bell Alexander and his wife Mary Lou. She died of stomach cancer.

Dorothy was the daughter of Judson Malcolm "Judd" Gilbert (b. 9 Sep 1877 in Carroll County, Mississippi, d. bef. 1950, Greenville, Washington, Mississippi) and Caroline Beatrice "Carrie" Gildart (b. 17 Mar 1888, Woodville, Wilkinson, Mississippi, d. 1980, Greenville, Washington, Mississippi). Dorothy's middle name may have been Goldart, her mother's maiden name.

In 1930, the census lists the family living in Greenville, Washington, Mississippi, where Judd Gilbert operated a retail grocery and fruit store where Dorothy (18) worked as a cashier. The 1940 census finds the family living in Greenville, Washington, Mississippi. In this record, M. Judson Gilbert (63) had no occupation and his wife (incorrectly named) Carolyn (50) is working as a reporter for an "historical record survey." On 27 Nov 1946, Judd applied to the SSA for his retirement income ("Life Claim").

This was Dorothy's second marriage. Frank Stanford's Decree of Adoption lists Dorothy Gilbert Alter as "a widow," but she was, in fact, a divorcee. Dorothy's first husband's name was Carl Alter, whom she married sometime after 1930. Though she had divorced him about 1938, when asked, she always claimed to be a widow, preferring to deny the relationship entirely.

Reportedly, Dorothy was the first woman manager for Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., Inc., responsible for the operation of the store in Greenville, Washington, Mississippi.

At the time of her death, Dorothy was living in Subiaco, Logan, Arkansas.

Children of Albert Franklin "Frank" Stanford and Edna Alexander:

- i. Albert Franklin "Frank" Stanford, Jr., born 16 Jul 1918, in Tennessee, died 3 Aug 1938, in Memphis, Shelby, Tennessee, buried in Memorial Park Cemetery, Memphis, Shelby, Tennessee.

In 1937, Albert F. Stanford, Memphis, Tennessee, is listed as a Freshman at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia. He as a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity.

The 1937 and 1938 City Directory for Memphis, Tennessee lists Albert F. Stanford, Jr., "student," living with his parents in Memphis.

His death certificate, which list his name as Frank Stanford, Jr., shows that he died at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis, Shelby, Tennessee of acute myocarditis and pulmonary edema resulting from a suppurative appendicitis, peritonitis, and intestinal obstruction. This record indicates that he was single, a college student, and not living at home with his parents. (Interestingly, the person who provided the information for the death certificate was physician Dr. J[ames] B[butt] Stanford, Frank Jr's uncle, even though another physician in Dr. Stanford's practice actually signed the certificate.)

- 627 ii. Sarah Louise "Sally" Stanford, born 10 May 1921, in Mississippi, died 28 Jun 2010, in Sandy Springs, Fulton, Georgia.

Children of Albert Franklin "Frank" Stanford and Dorothy G. Gilbert:

- i. Francis Gildart "Frank, Frankie" Stanford, born 1 Aug 1948, in Richton, Perry, Mississippi, died 3 Jun 1978, in Fayetteville, Washington, Arkansas, buried in Saint Benedict Cemetery, Subiaco, Logan, Arkansas. Cause of death: suicide. He married (1) Linda Lee Mencin 21 Aug 1971, in Benton County, Arkansas. Linda Lee Mencin was born 6 Jan 1948, in San Diego County, California. They were divorced 18 Oct 1972. He married (2) Virginia "Ginny" Crouch 1974. Virginia "Ginny" Crouch was born about 1950, in Neosho, Newton, Missouri.

Frank Stanford was born on 1 August 1948 at the Emery Memorial Home in Richton, Mississippi. The identity of his biological parents, family, and genealogical lineage has long been an utter mystery; the name of his birth mother as listed on his Decree of Adoption is "Dorothy Margaret Smith," but that name could partially or entirely be a fabrication. The Home's website notes that "[w]hile staying at the Home, the girls were assigned biblical names and their real names were kept confidential," and "Dorothy," from the Greek, means "gift of God," so the legitimacy of the mother's name as listed on the Decree of Adoption could be considered dubious.

The paperwork for his adoption was finalized on 20 August 1948 in the Chancery Court of Washington County, Mississippi, of which Greenville is the county seat, and his name officially became Francis Gildart Alter. Dorothy evidently named Francis after her maternal grandfather Francis Dildart (1836-1890).

Frank Stanford lived his first two years on a small farm outside of Greenville, where Dorothy Alter kept sheep and collies and where her aunt and grandmother also lived, and during which period (in 1949) Dorothy adopted a second child, Bettina Ruth, called "Ruthie," from the Emery Memorial Home. Early in 1950, Dorothy and her children moved from the farm into town in Greenville, a western Mississippi town located against Lake Fergusonan oxbow lake along the Mississippi River.

In 1952, Gilbert married successful Memphis levee engineer Albert Franklin Stanford (1884-1963), who subsequently also adopted "Frankie" and his younger, adoptive sister, "Ruthie" (Bettina Ruth). In 1955, A.F. Stanford formally adopted Frank and his sister (finalized on 21 Nov 1955 in Memphis, Shelby, Tennessee).

Stanford attended Sherwood Elementary School and Sherwood Junior High School in Memphis until 1961 when the family moved to Mountain Home, Arkansas following A. F. Stanford's retirement; Stanford finished junior high school in Mountain Home. The elder Stanford died after the poet's freshman year at Mountain Home High School.

Around the time of A. F. Stanford's passing, Stanford and his adoptive mother and sister converted to Catholicism and in 1964, at the start of eleventh grade, he began studies at Subiaco Academy, a boys' prep school run by Benedictine monks who provided a rigorous liberal arts and physical fitness curriculum, located near Paris, Arkansas.

After graduating in May 1966, he entered the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville in the fall, first studying business, but soon switching to the College of Arts and Sciences. In fall 1968, Stanford took a poetry class from instructor James Whitehead who, quickly impressed with Stanford's talent, let the undergraduate poet into the graduate poetry-writing workshop for the following semester, spring 1969. Stanford soon became known throughout the Fayetteville literary community and published poetry in the student literary magazine, "Preview."

Stanford left the university in 1970, never earning a degree.

Stanford married Linda Mercin in 1971, but the marriage ended within a year. In 1973, he married the painter Ginny Crouch. They first lived near Beaver Lake, later at her family's farm in southern Missouri, and finally in Fayetteville. Stanford worked as a land surveyor to support their artistic projects. The couple had no children.

Stanford published widely in a number of journals and magazines between 1971 and 1977.

Irving Broughton's Mill Mountain Press printed Stanford's first six books: "The Singing Knives" (1972), "Ladies From Hell" (1974), "Field Talk" (1975), "Shade" (1975), "Arkansas Bench Stone" (1975), and "Constant Stranger" (1976). In the early 1970s, while Stanford helped Broughton film interviews with poets including Richard Hugo and Malcolm Cowley, Broughton and Stanford shot an experimental short film on Stanford's life, "It Wasn't a Dream, It Was a Flood," which won the West Coast Film Festival Best Experimental Film Award.

In 1977, Stanford released his 15,283-line poem, "The Battlefield Where the Moon Says I Love You," through Lost Roads Press, which he co-founded with the poet C. D. Wright. The poem, which drew high praise from poets as diverse as Alan Dugan and Lorenzo Thomas, and drew comparisons to the novels "Moby Dick" and "Huckleberry Finn", follows the streaming visions of the boy-hero, Francis Gildart, passing through the throes of adolescent carnality, racial injustice, and Southern folk superstition. Shortly after Stanford's death, Ironwood Press published "Crib Death" (1979). Lost Roads posthumously published "You" (1979) and a collection of short stories, "Conditions Unlikely and Certain to Pass Away" (1991). The University of Arkansas Press published "The Light the Dead See: The Selected Poems of Frank Stanford" (1991).

On June 3, 1978, Stanford died from three self-inflicted gunshot wounds to the heart from a twenty-two caliber handgun after confessing his infidelity to his wife; he had suffered from depression and threatened suicide on previous occasions.

Frank Stanford was one of the most recognized and prolific emerging poets of his generation until his suicide. Though all but two of his books remain out of print, his poems, which pitch startling and often surreal imagery against stark Southern landscapes, have sustained Stanford's reputation and influence among poets who knew him during his lifetime and have ushered in a resurgence of admirers among a new generation of poets.

The most complete research into Frank Stanford's poetry and his family history is provided in the Masters Thesis entitled "TOWARD INNUMERABLE FUTURES: FRANK STANFORD & ORIGINS" by Adam P. Walton (Spring 2015, Lund University, Sweden). [This publication is available online (2016) at <https://lup.lub.lu.se/student-papers/search/publication/7409832>.]

Linda's father is the late Adolph Joseph Mencin ( b. 24 Mar 1916, La Salle, Illinois, d. 19 Jan 1998 - Rogers, Benton, Arkansas) and Mary L. Swain (1923-1999). Adolph was a Navy fighter pilot of some renown during WWII.

Frank and Linda separated in mid-May 1972 and Linda filed for divorce the following July.

Linda married Bruce E. Hoppe (b.abt 1943) on 6 Oct 1974 in Travis County, Texas. The couple divorced on 3 Apr 1981 and she married Thomas J. Bond (b.abt 1947) on 13 Mar 1982 in Travis County, Texas.

Ginny is the daughter of Howard D. Crouch (1917-2015) and Mary Elizabeth Price (1919-2008).

Ginny Crouch Stanford is a typical art guru of the '60s and '70s. Following graduation from Neosho High School, and after just one semester at Southwest Missouri State, Ginny traveled to Europe to roam the art galleries to study the great works of famous and contemporary artists.

Although the "art bug" had already stricken her, the galleries convinced Ginny that art was her passion

After showing her work in galleries throughout Arkansas and in New Orleans, the longtime she gave up her Midwest roots and moved to Sebastopol, Sonoma, California.

Two of her portraits are hanging in the National Portrait Gallery at the world famous Smithsonian Museum in Washington, D.C. She has exhibited widely at museums, colleges, universities and commercial galleries. Her paintings have appeared on the covers of many books including the novels of Ellen Gilchrist and Anne Lamont. Her prose has been published in "The New Orleans Review," "Saltwater Sweetwater" and the online literary magazine, "The Alsop Review."

A photo essay from her early years with poet Frank Stanford, "An Arkansas Album," is online at "The Alsop Review."

Ms. Stanford's body of work encompasses portraiture, landscapes, figurative painting, and abstraction. She maintains a studio in Sebastopol, Sonoma, California.

In 1950, Dorothy adopted a daughter, Bettina Ruth. Ruthie's origins are not known.

James was a prominent physician, an ophthalmologist, who practiced in Memphis, Shelby, Tennessee.

In 1910, James (25) was single and living as a boarder in the household of Thomas H. Lemmons in Civil District 14, Shelby County, Tennessee (Memphis). He listed his occupation as "physician".

James registered for the WWI draft in Memphis and gave his birth date as 17 Dec 1886. He later served as an officer in the U.S. Army during WWI. Evidently, James and Valentine met in while he was stationed in France.

The 1930 census finds the family living in Memphis, Shelby, Tennessee and records James B. Stanford (45), a "physician, oculist", his wife Valentine C. (b. in France), and children Valentine M. (6), James B. Jr. (4), and Jacqueline (2).

James retired and moved to Florida about 1957. He died there two years later as evidenced by a Florida Death Certificate and an obit that is posted on his memorial at Find A Grave. The obit states that James was at one time president of the Memphis and Shelby County Medical Society and the Tennessee Medical Association.

City directory issues in the 1960s lists Freda and John A. Matchett living in Dallas, Texas. Thus, it appears they married after Freda divorced from Pete Forester. However, Freda and John must have divorced before 1981 since John remarried that year.

Pete was the son of Gilbert Leroy Forester (1888-1966) and Ada Jewell "Mamma"

Hackley (1888-1966).

Based on Pete's death certificate, we know that at the time of his death he was married to Patsy Simons, indicating that he and Freda had divorced at some time in the past.

John's birth surname was Tipton, he was the son of Eli Charles Tipton (1911-1972) and Lottie Elizabeth Dunaway (1911-2005). Evidently, at some point after 1940, he changed his surname to Matchett.

According to his death certificate, Quint was a building contractor. At the time of his death, he was married, indicating that he had remarried after his divorce from Ruby.

Ruby was the daughter of Rufus Edgar Edward and Elizabeth Jayroe.

In the 1930 census, we find Ruby Stanford (33, divorced, saleslady, Caufan Company.) and her daughter Ouida (17) living in Waco, McLennan, Texas. During WWII, Lodis served as County Commissioner of Limestone County, Texas.

The following press release issued by R. Allen Stanford tells something about Lodis and what he started:

"A HERITAGE OF HARD WORK: the STANFORD STORY

"The small town of Mexia in central Texas may sound like the middle of nowhere today, but in 1932, in the midst of the Great Depression, it probably seemed as unlikely a place to start a business as any place on the planet.

"Unless, like Lodis Stanford, you had a dream and the backbone to see it become reality. He founded Stanford Insurance Company, persevering in a time of near insurmountable hardship, and found success by staying focused on a set of guiding principles build a business step by step, on a firm foundation of hard work, clear vision and value for the client.

"Stanford forged ahead with a clear vision and dedication that would become the hallmarks of the companies that bear his name today. His steadfast determination allowed him to provide his clients with the highest possible level of service and integrity.

"As a result, the company not only survived, but prospered, growing step by step from that first firm foundation into a privately held, wholly owned global network of financial services companies ranging from brokerage and investment advisory to international banking and real estate development." [See Robert Allen Stanford entry for discussion of the collapse of the Stanford Group due to illegal activities.]

Thus, at this time, John and Mollie could have been married only a year or so.

In the 1920 census, John T. Stanford (51) is living with his brother Claude B. Stanford's family in Wesobulga, Clay, Alabama. He is a widower at this point...evidently he and Mollie separated/divorced.

The 1930 census finds John T. Stanford (61, farmer) and his new wife Dicie living in Wesobulga, Clay, Alabama. He probably remarried about 1922/1923 since John H. Stanford (6) and Lillian Stanford (2-6/12) are listed in the census record.

Mollie was the daughter of Tobias Cockrell and Emily Hunt.

As reported by LouAnne Stanford, Mollie married L.E. Burks with whom she had three children.

In the 1880 census, we find James Stanford (18) working as a laborer on the farm of W.R. and Melvina Harnes in Adairsville, Bartow, Georgia.

According to Amelia's obit, the family moved to Texas in 1891 and the 1900 census lists Jas. W. Stanford (38, farmer) and his family living in Spanish Fort, Montague, Texas and includes Amelia M. (36), Julia B. (6), William S. (4), and Jas. W. (1).

In 1900 and 1920, census records list James as James W. Stanford. [Note: Ancestry.com lists his name in 1920 as James Green Stanford, but close examination of the handwritten record indicates that his name is actually listed as James W. Stanford and is partially obscured by corrections made to the line below.]

William's middle is documented by his son Harold's middle name and marriage record from Summit County, Ohio, dated 12 Dec 1941.

Sometime between 1899 and 1901, soon after they were married, William and Lena moved to Carroll County, Arkansas, where their first two children were born. From there, they moved to Oklahoma before 1904, when their third child was born.

In 1910, the census finds the family living in Coyle Ward 2, Logan, Oklahoma and lists William Stanford (38, butcher, butcher shop), Lena (35), Harold (9), Amra [Margaret] (8), and William (6). The younger William is William T. V[ernon] Stanford, born about 1904 in Oklahoma, who is the "Verne" mentioned in newspaper accounts of his father's murder.

According to newspaper accounts and court records, William A. Stanford was murdered on 8 Jan 1912 by Henry A. Seigler (b. 1871, Augusta, Richmond, Georgia) near Lawton, Comanche, Oklahoma resulting from a land claim dispute concerning 160 acres near Meers, Comanche, Oklahoma. Seigler was tried, convicted, and sentenced to death for the murder.

The following is an account of the murder from appeal court records, Seigler v State, 1914 OK CR 134, 145 P. 308, 11 Okl. Cr. 131, Case Number: No. A-1951, Decided: 10/17/1914, Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals [Note that the term "plaintiff in error" refers to Seigler]:

"Sometime prior [to January 1912] the plaintiff in error and the deceased had made settlements on the same quarter section of land, each in the endeavor to enter it under the homestead laws of the United States. The settlements were apparently made at the same time. The plaintiff in error made his first settlement some distance from where the deceased made his. Later, plaintiff in error built a hut at or near the place upon which the deceased entered the premises and attempted to establish his settlement. There was a small log cabin on the premises at the time these men began their efforts to acquire the land under the homestead laws of the United States. This cabin apparently was claimed by one Spencer. Under rulings of the United States land office Seigler was awarded the homestead entry. Stanford immediately filed a contest in which Spencer was joined. Some other person was also joined with Seigler. Pending a determination of the contest proceedings Stanford went upon the premises and occupied the log cabin, and in addition placed thereon a tent immediately adjoining the cabin. A space of only a few feet intervened between the cabin occupied by Stanford and the hut erected by plaintiff in error. After making original settlement it appears that the deceased went away to visit his family, who lived at Coyle, Oklahoma, and upon his return the plaintiff in error had put up some wire which attached to the log cabin. This wire was taken down by the deceased. The plaintiff in error was away from home at work and returned that night.

"The testimony on behalf of the state and that on behalf of the accused differ in many material respects from this time until after the homicide. The testimony on behalf of the state tends to establish the fact that the plaintiff in error was a large man physically, possessed of an overbearing disposition; that upon finding the deceased on the premises he ordered him to take down his tent and get his belongings off the place, using emphatic language and profanity. The deceased declined to comply, contending that he had a lawful right to joint occupancy pending the determination of the litigation. Upon another occasion the plaintiff in error demanded the deceased to move away and told him that the quarter section was too small for both of them to live on. Numerous threats to kill the deceased and threats which implied that he intended to kill him if he didn't abandon the premises were introduced in evidence by the state. Other circumstances were introduced which tended to show that plaintiff in error had attempted hostile demonstrations against the deceased. Growing out of the differences between these two men and their families several complaints were filed by deceased against the plaintiff in error, none of which were prosecuted to a successful termination. On the day prior to the homicide the deceased had filed two or three additional complaints against the plaintiff in error. On the morning of the homicide the deputy sheriff in whose hands warrants, based on the complaints, had been placed, called the plaintiff in error on the telephone of one Allen, a neighbor, advising that he had the warrants, and arranged for the plaintiff in error to come down to meet him at the office of the township justice of the peace. Plaintiff in error went back to his house and cut a little wood for the use of his wife, and made preparations apparently to go to the office of the justice of the peace. He took his gun and left the house, and, according to the proof introduced by the state, also took a large rock in his hand. The deceased, Stanford, was cutting wood at the corner of his cabin, only a few feet from the door of the hut occupied by the plaintiff in error. The plaintiff in error came out of his hut, walked directly toward where Stanford was, and just before reaching him was seen by Mrs. Stanford, who opened the door and ran out, whereupon the plaintiff in error threw the rock and hit the deceased, who was stooping over chopping wood, on the head, fractured his skull, and knocked him down. Mrs. Stanford interceded with the plaintiff in error and begged him not to kill her husband, whereupon he pointed the gun which he had brought from his hut into her face. She stepped back a short distance. In the meantime the deceased had turned over on his back and had raised up his head slightly. The plaintiff in error pointed the gun immediately upon him and fired, the charge of shot entering the face to the left of the nose, and through the lips; death ensued immediately.

"A little son of the deceased, Verne Stanford, was out in the yard where his father was cutting wood at the time of the homicide. Two other children had gone to a well or spring a few hundred yards away for water. As soon as they returned to the house the children were sent to notify neighbors living in the community, a few of whom arrived before the officers reached the scene. The deceased was found lying on his back. The ax with which he had been cutting wood was under his body, the blade being about his hips, the handle extending out from his right side. The right hand of deceased was lying across the ax handle on his right side; his left hand was folded on his breast. A number of the teeth of deceased were picked up around the body. The stove wood which he was cutting was lying under and near his body.

"Mrs. Stanford and her little son testified to the facts occurring immediately before and at the time of the homicide, each of whom say that no other persons, except themselves, the deceased, and the plaintiff in error, were present. Other witnesses testified to the wound on the head of the deceased, and in response to questions of the county attorney certain witnesses testified there was a large knot on the back of the deceased below the shoulder.

"The plaintiff in error and his wife testified in his behalf. Each says that they were both present. Their testimony is to the effect that the plaintiff in error had started to meet the officer according to his promise; that he took his gun and dogs and started along the usual route; that as he approached the cabin of the deceased the deceased was chopping wood; that Mrs. Stanford ran out of the cabin, grabbed hold of plaintiff in error, and began to excoriate him for the way he had treated their family; that the little son, Verne Stanford, began to hack him in the back and on the legs with a buck saw; that the deceased drew his ax and advanced several steps toward him with the ax uplifted in a manner which induced in him, the plaintiff in error, the belief that he was about to be killed; that thereupon he shot the deceased; that the muzzle of the gun was elevated; that the shot ranged upward and that he killed Stanford in his necessary self-defense; that he did not strike deceased with a rock and had no rock or other heavy instrument in his hands at the time.

"Immediately after the shot was fired the plaintiff in error went to the home of a near neighbor, called the deputy sheriff whom he had agreed to meet at the office of the justice of the peace, and advised him to come up at once. The officer asked him what the trouble was. He replied, "Trouble enough; come on up and see." This neighbor, Allen, and a brother who lived with him, accompanied the plaintiff in error back to the scene of the homicide, where the plaintiff in error pointed out certain objects, among them a buck saw lying in the yard. In his testimony the plaintiff in error denied each and every threat to kill or injure the deceased that was proved by the state, but admitted each and every conversation in which the state contended the threats were made. He also admitted the times and places and the persons with whom the conversations were had, there being no material difference except his denial that any threat was made in any of the conversations.

"Other witnesses testified for the plaintiff in error, among them an undertaker who said that he saw the knot on the back of the deceased, saw it removed, and that it was a fatty tumor.

"On rebuttal the state introduced the testimony of physicians who held a post mortem examination upon the body of the deceased. Their testimony tended to show that the wound in the back of the head was inflicted with a rugged instrument and fractured the skull from the crown of the head to the base thereof, and that this was in itself a fatal wound and was made by an external injury; that the shot which entered to the left of the nose and through the upper lip of deceased ranged downward and lodged in the muscles of the neck; that none of the shot ranged upward and none of them penetrated the brain. These physicians removed the skull and brain and made a thorough examination, and all agree that no shot entered the brain, and nothing indicated any upward range or any deflection of the charge. The tongue was practically severed at its base.

"Verne Stanford was called as a witness by the state and testified that he was eight years old; that he was in the yard at the time of the homicide; that he didn't have the buck saw out in the yard at that time; that he did not attack the plaintiff in error with the buck saw, and that his mother did not take hold of said plaintiff in error before he threw the rock and fired the shot; that he brought a buck saw out into the yard after his father had been killed and left it there when his mother told him to run over to a neighbor's for assistance. A large rock was found near the body of deceased. There were a number of other rocks in the yard, but they were imbedded in the ground and could not be removed on account of the frozen condition of the earth. A large pile of rocks similar to the one found near the body of deceased were shown to have been lying on the ground near where the plaintiff in error had been cutting wood.

"On behalf of plaintiff in error certain testimony was introduced in sur-rebuttal tending to show that there was a blood splotch on a certain log opposite where plaintiff in error contended deceased was standing when he was shot. The log from the hut was introduced in evidence, and, according to the testimony of a physician who made a microscopic examination thereof, the blood splotch was human blood. One witness testified that he noticed the blood on this log on the day of the homicide and that it appeared to him to be a fresh stain.

"The state introduced witnesses, among them Justice of the Peace Meers, who said he examined the log on the day of the homicide; that he took no testimony in reference to it because the blood was old and had been dry a long time. Other witnesses for the state testified that a rabbit and o'possum had been fastened to a nail driven in one of the logs of the cabin near where this blood splotch was found and had been skinned and dressed a few days before the homicide."

The appeals court upheld Seigler's conviction for murder and the sentence of death imposed on him. However, Seigler was not executed...he died in 1931 in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia. In Dec 1914, Siegler was scheduled to hang for the murder when Oklahoma Gov. Lee Cruce, who opposed the death penalty, commuted Seigler's death penalty to life in prison and Seigler remained at McAlester Prison. In Jan 1917, Oklahoma Gov. Robert Lee Williams granted Seigler a 60-day parole to return home to pay taxes on his land claim so the government will not take it from his family. Siegler's life sentence was commuted to 15 years and he was again paroled on 20 Dec 1918. For unknown reasons, he was granted a "full and free" pardon on 15 Jul 1925.

An additional strange connection with this event is that Seigler's first wife was Missouri Eunice "Eunie" Devaney (1872-1952). The couple married in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia in 1894 and divorced in 1910. Eunie was the older sister of Annie Pearl Devaney, wife of Algie F. Stanford. William A.

Stanford and Algie F. Stanford were distant (4th) cousins, but may have known each other.

Lena was the daughter of John Thomas Addington (1836-1912) and Margaret Tennessee Houk (1837-1938). The 1880 census finds the family living in Pine Log, Bartow, Georgia.

In 1917, the Lawton City Directory lists "Lena A. Stanford (wid. W.A.)" living in Lawton, Comanche, Oklahoma with her son Harold. Lena's daughter, Margaret Stanford (evidently named after Lena's mother), is not listed with the family.

The 1920 census finds the family living in Lawton Ward 3, Comanche, Oklahoma and lists Lena Stanford (45, widow), Harold (19), Margaret (17), and William T.V. (15).

The 1926 Lawton City Directory lists "Mrs. Lena A. Stanford" living in Lawton, Comanche, Oklahoma with her son Wm. T. Stanford.

Sometime after 1926, Lena returned to Georgia. The 1930 census finds Lena Stanford (57) living with her sister and brother-in-law Emma Willard Addington Cagle and John Wesley Cagle in Sharp Mountain, Pickens, Georgia.

Children of William Alonzo Stanford and Lena D. Addington:

- 674      i.    Harold Alonzo Stanford, born 2 DEC 1900 OR 1901, in Eureka Springs, Carroll, Arkansas, died 15 Mar 1969, in San Bernardino County, California.
- ii.   Margaret Stanford, born 1903, in Carroll County, Arkansas, died 1930, in Jefferson County, Oklahoma, buried in Hastings Cemetery, Hastings, Jefferson, Oklahoma. Eddie Lee Gillispie was born 17 Jun 1901, in Saint Jo, Montague, Texas, died 15 May 1956, in Sulphur, Murray, Oklahoma, buried in Green Hill Cemetery, Davis, Murray, Oklahoma.

Margaret (28) appears as the wife of Eddie L. Gillispie (31) in the 1930 census, living in Miller, Seminole, Oklahoma. This record shows that Margaret was born in Arkansas and both parents were born in Georgia. It also shows that she was 17 when married, indicating she married in 1920/1921. Also listed is Herman E. Gillispie (10).

After Margaret's death, Eddie married Sarah Ann Pogue (1906-2001).

Edna Mary Stapler was born about 1886, in Florida, died 1953, in Hillsborough County, Florida, buried in Myrtle Hill Memorial Park, Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida.

In 1910, the family is found living in Militia District 663, Lowndes, Georgia and the record includes Ewell O. Stanford (30, clerk, furniture store) and Edna Stanford (24). For some reason, their two children, Ewell (4), and Annie Caroline (1), are listed living next door with Robert and Pauline Starke...probably a census recording error.

The 1920 census lists the family in Tampa Ward 2, Hillsborough, Florida and includes Ewell O. Stanford (39, salesman, furniture store), Edna (33), Ewell O. (13), and A. Caroline (10).

In 1930, the family is living in Tampa, Hillsborough, Florida and the census record lists Ewell O. Stanford (49, salesman, store fixtures), Edna M. (44), Ewell O. (24), Annie C. (21), and Emma L. (8).

333. Henry<sup>7</sup> Stanford (William S. "Bill"<sup>6</sup>, Jonathan<sup>5</sup>, William<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born Jan 1876, in Meriwether County, Georgia, died after 1910, in Georgia. He married (1) Mollie Phillips about 1896, in Georgia. Mollie Phillips was born Aug 1880, in Meriwether County, Georgia, died after 1920, in Louisiana. He married (2) Vinnie McGuirk 29 Mar 1907, in Coweta County, Georgia. Vinnie McGuirk was born about 1882, in Georgia.

In various census records, Henry's middle initial is listed as T. and G. We don't know which (if either one) is correct.

In 1900, we find the family living in Rough Edge, Troup, Georgia. The census record lists Henry Stanford (24, farm laborer), Mollie (19), and Ola (2).

Evidently, Henry's marriage to Mollie ended sometime after 1900 and before 1904, since Mollie remarried in about 1904 and moved to Louisiana with her new husband before 1910.

We next find Henry and his new wife Verry [Vinnie] living in Hampton, Henry, Georgia in the 1910 census [Henry's mother was born in Henry County]. This record includes Henry Stanford (34, operator, cotton mill), Verry(28), William Louis Stanford (8), George David Stanford (2), and Clarence J. Stanford (1). Since the couple married in 1907, it is probable that William Louis Stanford was a child from Vinnie's earlier marriage.

Mollie's real name may have been Mary Elizabeth, but this has not been confirmed. Mollie was the daughter of Henry Phillips (b. abt 1858, Georgia) and Florence Hudson ( b. Apr 1860, Georgia).

Evidently, Mollie's marriage to Henry ended between 1900 and 1904. She remarried in 1904 to Jesse Nathaniel McCoy (b. 28 Nov 1879, Meriwether County, Georgia, d. 4 Jan 1942) and moved to Louisiana.

In 1910, the family is found living in Police Jury Ward 5, Ouachita, Louisiana and the census record includes Jessie N. McCoy (35, railroad section foreman), Mollie L. (27), and Ola (12). [Evidently, almost the whole family made the move to Louisiana between 1907 and 1910... Mollie's parents appear in the 1910 census for Ouachita Parish, Louisiana, also. Mollie's younger sister, Cora Lee Phillips, married Jesse McCoy's younger brother, Willie Henry McCoy, in Meriwether County, Georgia and joined Mollie and Jesse in Louisiana.]

The 1920 census finds Jessie Nathaniel McCoy (40, engineer, saw mill) and Mollie (39) living in Police Jury Ward 7, Madison, Louisiana. In this record, Ola Stanford is listed as Ola McCoy.

This is a case of Stanford marrying Stanford, though the two were not related at all.

Mintie Ann's first two children were born in Texas, the third in New Mexico, and this last two in Arizona. Based on birth dates, we can postulate that the family moved from Texas to New Mexico about 1889 and then to Arizona before 1892. From the census records, we know that Laura and John separated/divorced prior to 1920.

In 1942, John T. Stanford registered for the WWII draft in Fauquier County, Virginia. At the time, the family was living at RFD 1, Catlett, Fauquier, Virginia. John listed that he was self-employed.

Evidently, sometime after 1920, Alec and Evalee divorced.

The 1930 census lists Ellick [Alec] Stanford (54) and Osraw [Andrew] Stanford (26) living as lodgers and working on the farm of George R. and Maud L. Ingrum in Spring Garden, Cherokee, Alabama.

Evalee was the daughter of James Thrasher (1820-1900) and Nancy Lott (b. 1835, Alabama).

The 1930 census finds Ella Stanford (53, widow) living in Precinct 12, Walker, Alabama with her son Claud Reed's family. Living with them are Dovie Reed (16), Hobert Reed (19), and George Reed (14). Dovie is listed as Claude's sister, while Hobert and George are listed as his brothers.

There is a some confusion about the Reed surname recorded for the Stanford children. Evidently Ella remarried sometime after 1920 to Charles Reed and either he adopted the Stanford children or some of the children adopted that surname. But, Ella continued to use the Stanford surname.

On 4 Jul 1942, Hobert enlisted in the U.S. Army at Fort McClellan, Alabama. At this time he was divorced, but indicated he had no dependents. His gravestone indicates that he served as 1st Sgt in the U.S. Army during WWII, serving from 4 Jul 1942 until 25 Dec 1945.

Elsie was the daughter of William Henry Carroll (1887-1972) and Donie Allums (1888-1974).

This was Elsie's second marriage. She was previously married to C. L. Stephens (1903-1945), whom she divorced before 1940.

- vi. Dovie Lena Stanford Reed, born 6 Dec 1913, in Alabama, died 19 Jun 1990, in West Jefferson, Jefferson, Alabama, buried in West Jefferson Freewill Baptist Church, West Jefferson, Jefferson, Alabama. She married (1) GNU Huskey before 1942, in Alabama. She married (2) GNU Landrum before 1971, in Alabama.

On 23 Oct 1943, George Stanford enlisted in the U.S. Army at Fort McClellan, Alabama. At this time, he had completed grammar school and was married.

Evidently, George and Irene separated prior to Mar 1956, the date she filed a name change with the Social Security Administration.

Irene was the daughter of Melton Asbery Stanley (1896-1969) and his wife Sallie M. (1900-1979). The 1930 census finds the family living in Walker County, Alabama.

After Irene and George separated, she remarried to GNU Shell.

The 1930 census finds the family in Pine Knot, Cleburne, Alabama and lists D.M. Stanford (46, farmer) and Lizzie (43).

Some researchers indicate that D.M.'s wife was Elizabeth Loveless. However, the 1928 death record for son J.D. Stanford lists his mother as "Elizabeth Motes".

A "Frances A. Stanford, 1908-1998" is buried in the same plot next to D. Mancel Stanford. It is assumed, since there is no documentation, that this was his second wife.

At the time of her death, Frances was living in Chatham County, Georgia.

"Will, Bill"*<sup>7</sup>, John C.<sup>6</sup>, Levi M.<sup>5</sup>, Joshua<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 8 May 1873, in Athens, Limestone, Alabama, died 5 Feb 1942, in Dallas, Dallas, Texas, buried in City of Dallas Cemetery, Dallas, Dallas, Texas. He married Ella May Dement 21 Jul 1901, in Cherokee County, Texas. Ella May Dement was born 2 Mar 1880, in Athens, Limestone, Alabama, died 23 Feb 1966, in Gilroy, Santa Clara, California.

In the 1910 census, Dock is listed as a coal miner living in Jefferson County, Alabama and that record listed Dock Stanford (36, miner, coal mine), Ella (29), and children Pearl (8), Ida [Ivy] (6), and Johnnie (3), all born in Texas.

On 12 Sep 1915, Dock [at age 41] registered for the WWI draft in Cherokee County, Texas, listing his address as Gallatin, Cherokee, Texas; that he was blind in one eye; and suffered from rheumatism.

In the 1920 Census, he is listed as a farmer living in Cherokee County, Texas. The census record includes Dock (46, farmer), Ella (37) and Pearl (17), Ivy (15), Johnie (12), and Mattie (5), all born in Texas.

Dock's death certificate (No. 6502) states that he died of a heart attack and was found dead in the North Dallas Dump. Dock is buried in a pauper's grave at a Dallas City Cemetery (Block 21, Section 7, Space 17) located between Shady Trail and Harry Hines Boulevard in Dallas, Dallas, Texas.

Children of Dock William Stanford and Ella May Dement:

- i. Pearl Norette Stanford, born 28 Apr 1902, in Cherokee County, Texas, died 22 Jan 1990, in San Benito County, California. She married (1) Isaac Lawson Bailey about 1921, in Texas. Isaac Lawson Bailey was born 26 Oct 1887, in Rusk, Cherokee, Texas, died 4 Dec 1933, in Rusk, Cherokee, Texas, buried in Myrtle Springs Cemetery, Cherokee County, Texas. She married (2) Harold Dale Pierce about 1938, in California. Harold Dale Pierce was born 14 Oct 1898, in Guinda, Yolo, California, died 21 Dec 1973, in Gilroy, Santa Clara, California, buried in Gavilan Hills Memorial Park and Catholic Cemetery, Gilroy, Santa Clara, California.

Evidently, Pearl moved to California sometime after Lawson's death.

The City Directory for Gilroy, Santa Clara, California lists Harold D. Pierce and his wife Pearl living in that city in 1949, 1965, 1967, 1968, and 1971.

Lawson was the son of Isaac Edward Bailey and Mary Alice Bailey.

On 5 Jun 1917, Lawson registered for the WWI draft in Cherokee County, Texas. At the time, he was married, had three children, and worked as a laborer at a sawmill.

This was Lawson's second marriage. The 1920 census lists Lawson Bailey (32) living with his wife Minnie (27) and their two children in Justice Precinct 1, Cherokee, Texas.

The 1930 census lists the family living in Precinct 2, Haskell, Texas and includes Lawson S. Bailey (42), Pearl S. (27), Hugh T. (8), and M. Alice (3).

According to his death certificate, Lawson died of "labor pneumonia."

Harold was the son of Charles Edward Pierce (1858-1940) and Virginia Bell Alexander (1861-1959).

This was Harold's second marriage; he was previously married to Florence Lang.

The 1940 census lists the family living in Los Angeles, Angeles, California and includes Harold E. Pierce (42, assist. in laboratory, WPA project), Pearl (27, b. Texas), Hugh (18, b. Texas), Alice (13, b. Texas), and Virginia (1, b. California). While Hugh and Alice are listed with the Pierce surname, their father was Lawson Bailey. This records indicates that the couple married about 1938.

- ii. Ivy May Stanford, born 1904 OR 1905, in Cherokee County, Texas. She married Newton "Newt" Goodwin about 1926, in Texas. Newton "Newt" Goodwin was born 18 Jan 1881, in McLennan County, Texas, died 4 May 1943, in Dallas, Texas, buried in Dallas City Cemetery, Dallas, Texas.

Newt and Ivy's first child, Levi Newton Goodwin, was born on 28 Mar 1927 in Whitney, Hill, Texas, matching the 1926 marriage record.

On 1 Dec 1930, Newt and Ivy were living in Dallas County, Texas when their daughter Martha Magaline Goodwin (listed as "Goodman" on her birth certificate) was born. This record provides the place of birth for both Ivy and Newt. Martha Magaline Goodwin died in 1931 and does not appear in the 1940 census.

A birth certificate for Jesse Ray Goodwin in 1932 confirms that Ivy's middle name was May.

No record for Ivy after 1940 has yet been found. Since Newt died in 1943, leaving Ivy with four young children, she undoubtedly remarried and her surname changed.

Newt was the son of John M. Goodwin (b. 1859, Tennessee) and Amanda Williams (b. 1860, Louisiana). In 1880, the census lists the couple living in McLennan County, Texas, near Waco.

On 12 Sep 1918, Newton Goodwin registered for the WWI in Johnson County, Texas. In this record, he states he was working as a laborer. Evidently, he was single since he listed his father, J.M. Goodwin, RR#1, Whitney, Hill, Texas as his nearest relative.

The 1940 census finds the family living in Dallas, Dallas, Texas and lists Newt Goodwin (59), Ivy (34), Levy [Levi] (13), Jesse (8), Bernice (5), and Lillian May (1).

There are two different social security records for Newton Goodwin:

1. His original SSN application in May 1937 lists his date and place of birth as 18 Jan 1881, near Waco, McLennan. In this record, he lists his parents as John Goodwin and Amanda Williams.
2. A second record, dated 6 May 1966, is a death claim and lists his name as Newton G. Goodwin, his date and place of birth as 18 Jan 1881, Dallas, Texas, and his parents as Jim Goodwin and Mary Cook. This claim was filed 23 years after his death and appears to be scam.
- iii. Jonnie Alice Stanford, born 14 Oct 1907, in Rusk, Cherokee, Texas, died 3 Jan 1990, in Whitney, Hill, Texas, buried in Peoria Cemetery, Peoria, Hill, Texas. She married LeRoy Riley 11 Oct 1924, in Bingerman, Hill, Texas. LeRoy Riley was born 15 Feb 1904, in Bynum, Hill, Texas, died 12 Nov 1985, in Whitney, Hill, Texas, buried in Peoria Cemetery, Peoria, Hill, Texas.

Jonnie and LeRoy had one daughter, Jonnie Lee Riley (b. 1925).
- iv. Mattie Irene Stanford, born 21 Jun 1914, in Gallatin, Cherokee, Texas, died 7 Apr 2002, in Atoka County, Oklahoma, buried in Mt. Olive Cemetery, Stringtown, Atoka, Oklahoma. She married Thomas Jefferson Moore, Jr. about 1930. Thomas Jefferson Moore, Jr. was born 20 Jan 1910, in Oklahoma, died 19 Mar 1974, in Kern County, California.

Thomas was the son of Thomas Jefferson Moore (1884-1921) and Harriet Matilda Raper (1887-1921).

The 1930 census finds the young couple living in Stringtown, Atoka, Oklahoma and lists Thomas Moore (20, laborer, cattle & hog ranch) and Mattie (15).

In 1940, the census lists the family living in Stringtown, Atoka, Oklahoma and includes Tom J. Moore (30) and Mattie (26), along with their four children.

Evidently, sometime after 1940, Thomas and Mattie separated. Some researchers indicate that Thomas remarried in California.

Children of Riley Stanford and Gertrude Hamilton:

- i. Hosey Stanford, born about 1917, in Alabama, died 15 Oct 1967, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama.

His gravestone lists his name as "L.S. Stanford" and most records reflect his name as "Lige". However, the 1910 census and other notations state his actual name as Elijah, making "Lige" a nickname. We don't know which is correct.

We find Lige (listed as Elijah) and his family in the 1910 census for Precinct 7, Jefferson, Alabama. Here, he is listed as a coal miner, age 22, with his wife Nancy (21) and children Luther (3), Charlie (11/12), and Carlie (11/12), obviously twins. His father, William M. Stanford (66) is living with the family at this time.

On 5 Oct 1918, Lige registered for the WWI draft, listing his birth date as 5 Oct 1884 (which is different from the date on his gravestone). He is living on Rt. 1, Ensly, Jefferson, Alabama and working as a miner for the Woodward Iron Co. in Dolomite, Jefferson, Alabama.

The 1920 census finds the family living in Cottage Hill, Jefferson, Alabama and lists Ligie Stanford (32, miner, coal mine), Mary (30), Luther (13), Charlie (10), Carlee (10), Ida (6), Herman (3/12) and Nancy (3/12).

Lige Stanford was one of the 90 coal miners who died on the afternoon of 22 Nov 1922 in a large explosion at Dolomite Mine No. 3 at Dolomite, Jefferson, Alabama.

At the mine, electric locomotives hauled "trips", trains of large ore cars, in the mine and ropes raised and lowered 3-car trips on a double-tracked slope from the mine entrance uphill to a "tipple", a concrete structure with a rotary system that allowed trips to be unloaded into railroad cars at the top of the slope. According to a Bureau of Mines report, at about 2:40 p.m. a four-car trip became jammed in the rotary dump in the tipple. As operators tried to jerk them free, three cars broke loose suddenly and ran back down the 850 foot long slope, breaking through a rail stop block, and wrecking at the bottom of the slope against another loaded trip in the mine entrance. These runaway cars created a dense cloud of dust that was ignited by an arc from the 3,300-volt armored cable in the slope that was damaged by the runaway cars. Flames and gasses penetrated beyond into the mine itself. At that time, about 475 men were in the mine and of these 90 were killed, including Lige, and 70 were injured.

At the time of his death, Lige was living in Cottage Hill, Jefferson, Alabama

Nancy was the daughter of Dempsey and Carrie Dutton, both born in Georgia.

Nancy's full name may have been Nancy Mary Dutton. For some unknown reason, Lige's Alabama Death Certificate lists her name as Elizabeth.

The 1930 census finds Nancy (40), a widow, living in Precinct 7, Jefferson, Alabama with children Charles (20), Carlie (20), Ida (16), Herman (13), and Dillie M. (10). Her neice, Lizzie B. Gaddy (23), daughter of Elizabeth Stanford Gaddy and James A. Gaddy, is also living with the family.

Conner was born 26 Aug 1904, in Texas, died 12 Feb 1997, in Clovis, Curry, New Mexico.

In the 1930 census, we find Blanche living with her uncle Charles F. Stanford's family in Electra, Wichita, Texas.

Struther "Allen" Stanford, living in Traverse, Grand Traverse, Michigan, son of Noel Pine Dexter Stanford, provided information regarding his grandmother, Sarah Isabel "Sally" Stanford. Additional information was provided by Allen Stanford's daughter, Brooke Ann Stanford, and a Miley family source in Washington Parish, Louisiana.

Allen Stanford has an old Bible once owned by his mother, Vivian Catherine Mayhew Stanford. The Bible lists Sarah Isabel Stanford as born on 19 Feb 1892 and died 17 Dec 1914. It also lists Noel Pine Dexter Stanford, born on 17 Apr 1911, a known son of Sarah I. Stanford.

Some researchers claim Sarah "Sally" Stanford married (or had a child by) Young Manson "Doc" Miley (1899 1964). A Miley family source states that this is not correct because (1) this "Doc" Miley married Ida Adams, lived in Washington Parish, and had children named Velma, John, Howard, Willard, Richard, Artimeze, and Earlene Miley, and (2) Pine was too old to be the son of this Doc Miley who was born in 1899 [making him 12 years old when Pine was born].

This source states that Isaac "Doc" Miley, Sally's uncle by marriage, the husband of Rebeca Ann "Annie" Stanford was Pine's father. At the time, Isaac still married to Annie.

The Miley family source told us that Sarah died in a fire, presumably, a house fire. Allen Stanford stated that following his grandmother's death in the fire in Louisiana, Pine was raised by his aunt, Mary Lou Stanford Insko Birdwell in Detroit, Michigan.

Allen was told that his father was actually a "Miley," but the family was reluctant to talk about it. He was also told that Pine had two other siblings. One was Theodore Stanford, who died on July 15, 1909 from "brittle bone disease" at age two, and the other was Lilly Mae Stanford, born April 16, 1913, who died in the fire with her mother in 1914.

According to the 1910 census record, Etienne immigrated about 1898.

On 4 Aug 1899, Etienne married Evelina Duhon in St. James Parish, Louisiana. The couple had one son, Emile Etienne Dranty, born in 1900. Evidently, this marriage ended before 1908. In the 1910 census, Emile (10) is found living with his grandmother Adele Duhon in St. James Parish, Louisiana.

In the 1910 census, Etienne Casimire Dranty (44, farmer) is listed as a boarder living with the family of Walter and Elizabeth Stewart in Township 3, Range 17, Pearl River County, Mississippi. In this record, he is listed as married, but no wife is recorded.

He married Susan "Susie" Lynch 22 Mar 1890, in Volusia County, Florida. Susan "Susie" Lynch was born 5 Oct 1873, in Sanford, Volusia, Florida, died 12 Sep 1928, in Daytona Beach, Volusia, Florida, buried in Lake Helen/Cassadaga Cemetery, Volusia County, Florida.

In all probability, William's middle name was "Jeptha" in honor of his grandfather. However, in his obit, his middle name is listed as "John". We don't know which name, if either, is correct.

Based on William and Susan's marriage license, both were living in Orange City, Volusia, Florida in 1890.

The 1900 census finds William J. (31, fireman, sawmill) and Susan (27) living in Precinct 7, Saint Johns, Florida with their first 4 children. At this time, his mother-in-law, Fannie Lynch (age 54), is living with family.

In 1910, the census lists the family living in Orange, Volusia, Florida. This record includes W.J. Stanford (41), Susan (36), Viola (16), Nettie (14), Frank (13), Nora (9), and Susie (7).

The 1920 census lists William and Susan in Orange City, Volusia, Florida. At that time, Frank and his wife Laura, along with Nora and her husband (Ted Warrensford) and son Evan, are living with them.

In 1930, after Susan's death in 1928, we find William J. Stanford (age 61) living with his daughter Viola (37) and her husband Neal J. Bailey (54) in Mims, Brevard, Florida. William is listed as a citrus farmer.

The following obit was pulished in the "Titusville Star-Advocate" on Tuesday January 12, 1943:

"Stanford Rites Held Saturday Afternoon

"Last rights for William John Stanford, 74, of Mims, were held at Lake Helen Saturday at two o'clock, the Rev. Philip Schuyler of Orange City and Lake Helen officiating. J.F. Koon of this city had charge of the funeral.

"The deceased, a native of Chambers, Ala., died at 2:30 p.m. a week ago today at his home at Mims. Survivors include four daughters and two sisters."

Susan was the daughter of John Lynch (b. in Nova Scotia) and Julia Fances Barnhart (b. 1846, Georgia). Prior to marrying John Lynch, Julia had been married to Oliver P. Lancaster.

Children of William J. Stanford and Susan "Susie" Lynch:

- i. Viola "Ola" Stanford, born 10 Nov 1893, in Florida, died 30 Dec 1980, in Daytona Beach, Volusia, Florida, buried in Daytona Memorial Park, Daytona Beach, Volusia, Florida. She married (1) Charles Whitfield. She married (2) Noel Jefferson Bailey in Florida. Noel Jefferson Bailey was born 15 Nov 1875, in Florida, died 14 Jun 1960, in Palm Beach County, Florida. She married (3) Walter Mexicott. Walter Mexicott was born 30 Oct 1890, in Wayne County, Michigan, died Jan 1968, in Daytona Beach, Volusia, Florida, buried in Daytona Memorial Park, Daytona Beach, Volusia, Florida.

Viola and Neal had 5 children.

In 1930, the census finds Viola married to Neal J. Bailey and living in Mims, Brevard, Florida. Her widower father William J. Stanford (61) is living with the family.

The Florida State Census of 1935 lists N.J. Bailey (58) and Viola Bailey (42) living in Precinct 16, Brevard, Florida.

In 1945, the Florida State Census finds M.J. Bailey (71) and his son Dallas (14) living in Precinct 16, Brevard, Florida. Viola is not listed in this record.

Noel was the son of William H. Bailey (b. abt 1850) and Elizabeth Pace (1853-1923).

- ii. Nettie E. Stanford, born 14 Oct 1894, in Florida, died 26 Jan 1964, in Daytona Beach, Volusia, Florida, buried in Daytona Memorial Park, Daytona Beach, Volusia, Florida. She married Henry Clay Bowmar about 1918, in Volusia County, Florida. Henry Clay Bowmar was born 23 Dec 1890, in Tunnelton, Preston, West Virginia, died 12 Jan 1984, in Carlisle, Lonoke, Arkansas, buried 18 Jan 1984, in Little Rock National Cemetery, Little Rock, Pulaski, Arkansas. They were divorced.

Clay was the son of George Chareles Bowmar (b. abt 1852, England, d. 1939, Volusia County, Florida) and his wife Martha (b. abt 1866, West Virginia). The 1910 census finds the family living in Preston County, West Virginia and, in 1920, living in Lake Helen, Volusia, Florida. Evidently, the family moved from West Virginia to Florida between 1910 and 1917.

On 5 Jun 1917, Clay registered for the WWI draft in Volusia County, Florida. This record lists his date and place of birth, but also indicates he was single at the time. According to his gravestone, Clay served in the U.S. Army during WWI.

In 1920, the census finds the couple living in Cliffs, Coconino, Arizona and lists Henry C. Bowmar (30, engineer, locomotive) and Nettie (25).

The 1930 census lists the couple living in Whipple Creek, Clark, Washington and includes Clay Bowman (39, millman, lumber) and Nettie (34). This record states that the couple married when Clay was 27 and Nettie was 22, making their marriage date about 1918, which correlates with Clays 1917 draft registration.

In 1942, Clay registered for the WWII draft in Juneau, Juneau, Alaska where he and Nettie were living. At this time, Clay was working for the Public Road Administration in Juneau.

This marriage ended sometime between 1920 and 1930.

- 834    iii. Frank Herbert Stanford, born 20 Nov 1896, in Orange City, Volusia, Florida, died 30 Jul 1923, in Daytona Beach, Volusia, Florida.
- iv. Nora Stanford, born 20 Mar 1901, in Orange City, Volusia, Florida, died 14 Oct 1992, in Merritt Island, Brevard, Florida,. She married Edward Bernard "Ted" Warrensford 29 Jun 1917, in Volusia County, Florida. Edward Bernard "Ted" Warrensford was born 28 Nov 1896, in Pennsylvania, died 6 May 1983, in Merritt Island, Brevard, Florida,.

Nora and Ted were living with Nora's parents in Orange City, Volusia, Florida in the 1920 census listing. At that time, they had one child, Evan, born about 1918.

Ted was the son of William Warrensford and Clara Marsh. In 1900, the family was living in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

There is some ambiguity relative to Ted's date of birth: his 1917 WWI draft registration lists 15 Nov 1898, the SSDI lists 28 Nov 1896, and the Florida Death Index lists 29 Nov 1896. The SSDI date is used here.

- v. Susie Stanford, born 26 Jan 1909, in Orange City, Volusia, Florida, died 18 Dec 1996, in Daytona Beach, Volusia, Florida. She married Lorenzo Dow Graham 22 Jun 1927, in Bunnell, Flagler, Florida. Lorenzo Dow Graham was born 6 Sep 1896, in Screven, Wayne, Georgia, died 10 Jun 1965, in Daytona Beach, Volusia, Florida.

Susie's Florida marriage certificate lists her date of birth as 26 Jan 1906.

Lorenzo was the son of John Robert Graham, Sr. and Lula Mae Odum.

428. Joseph Tucker<sup>8</sup> Stanford (Henry A. W.<sup>7</sup>, Jephtha McIntyre<sup>6</sup>, Joshua<sup>5</sup>, Joshua<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 13 Apr 1871, in Alabama, died 13 Jan 1936, in Largo, Pinellas, Florida, buried 14 Jan 1936, in Clearwater, Pinellas, Florida. He married (1) Margaret Ann "Maggie" Cox 1 Mar 1891, in Irwin County, Georgia. Margaret Ann "Maggie" Cox was born Jun 1860, in Georgia, died after 1930, in Georgia. He married (2) Mary Winifred Owens about 1912. Mary Winifred Owens was born Nov 1887, in Wilcox County, Georgia, died Jun 1962, in Pinellas County, Florida, buried in Lone Pilgrim Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Seminole, Pinellas, Florida.

Various census records indicate that Joseph was born in Georgia, Alabama, New York, and Virginia. In these same census records, he claimed both parents were born in Alabama, both born in Georgia, one born in Georgia and the other in South Carolina, etc. We have no idea why these places of birth differ so much.

Based on Joseph's Florida Death Certificate, provided by Mrs. Miriam Stanford (Joseph was her father-in-law) of Columbia County, Florida, we learn Joseph's parents were Henry Stanford and Sallie Edwards.

In the 1900 census, we find Joseph Stanford (30) and his first wife Margaret (39) living in Auteyville, Colquitt, Georgia, which is near the town of Moultrie. In this record, it shows Joseph being born abt 1870 and the date of marriage being 1891. The record includes four children: Fannie (b. Dec 1893), William (b. Aug 1895), James (b. Sep 1897), and Joseph (b. Jan 1900).

The 1910 census finds Joseph T. Stanford (33), living as a boarder in the second house over from the Owens family in Oakland, Orange, Florida. In this record, Joseph is listed as "widowed", born in Virginia with both parents born in Georgia, and working as a "carpenter, railroad". [Evidently, Joseph had abandoned his family in Georgia and moved to Florida.] Joseph's brother William J. Stanford was already living in Florida at this time in nearby Volusia County.

In the 1920 census, we find the family living in Clearwater, Pinellas, Florida and the record lists Joseph T. Stanford (48, capenter, house), his second wife Mary W. (32), Mabel A. (6), Warren S. (4), and Cyrus B. (1-3/12). Joseph's obit indicates that he moved to Clearwater about 1911.

There is a second 1920 census record that lists Joe Stanford (40, carpenter, house) living as a lodger with the Williams family in St. Petersburg, Pinellas, Florida. In this record, he lists his place of birth as Georgia.

In 1930, the family is found living in Donnie, Gilchrist, Florida and includes Joseph P. Stanford (59, carpenter), Mary (42), Mabel E. (16), Birdie [Cyrus Byrd] (11), and Earl (7). The 1930 census record indicates that Joseph and Mary married about 1912.

The 1935 Florida State Census lists the family living in Precinct 15, Pinellas County, Florida and includes Joseph T. Stanford (64, capenter), Mary W. (48), Cyrus E. (16), and Robert E. (13). [This record erroronously lists "N.Y." as the place of birth for all family members.]

The following is Joseph's death notice published in the "Tampa Tribune" on January 15, 1936:

"JOSEPH T. STANFORD Largo, Jan 14 (Special) Jospeh T. Stanford, 64, a resident of Pinellas County for 25 years, died here yesterday. His widow and two sons survive."

In both 1910 and 1920, we find Margaret (listed as "niece") living in the household of John Matthews Cox and his wife Mary Frances in Alapaha, Berrien, Georgia. In the 1910 census, Margaret is listed as "divorced". She is listed as a "widow" in the 1920 census.

Only James (12) appears in the 1910 census. By this time, the two older children had probably left home. However, Joseph (b. 1900) should still have been at home in this census and his absence may indicate that he had died by 1910.

In the 1930 census, we find Margaret Ann (67, listed as "Maggie") living with her daughter Fannie (38) and Fannie's second husband Manning Griner (52) in Militia District 518, Berrien, Georgia.

Notes for family of Joseph Tucker Stanford and Margaret Ann "Maggie" Cox: This wedding was performed by W.F. Cox, a minister and probably a family member.

Mary was the daughter of Samuel Sanders Owens and his wife Martha.

We find Mary's famiy living in Dooly County, Georgia in the 1900 census. In the 1910 census, the family is found in Oakland, Orange, Florida where Sanders Owens is listed as "laborer, truck farm".

Children of Joseph Tucker Stanford and Margaret Ann "Maggie" Cox:

Griner was born about 1878, in Georgia, died after 1930, in Georgia.

We find Fannie (28) and her first husband living in Pebble City, Mitchel, Georgia in the 1920 census. E.S. and Fannie had 3 children.

In the 1930 census, we find Fannie (38) and her second husband living in Militia District 518, Berrien, Georgia. This was Manning Griner's second marriage, also. Living with them is Fannie's mother Maggie Stanford (67). Fannie and Manning had at least 4 children.

Susie Ida Jordan was born 19 May 1879, in Macon, Bibb, Georgia, died 28 Jun 1956, in Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina, buried in Hillcrest Memorial Park, Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.

In 1920, the census finds the family living in Augusta Ward 6, Richmond, Georgia. Albert is listed as a coppersmith, working for the railroad. The census list includes Albert R. (34), Susie J. (36), M. Rachel (9), Auren E. (7), Robert C. (4-8/12), and Paul C. (3-11/12).

As indicated by the "Atlanta City Directory", Albert R. and Susie Stanford were living at 2058 Walton Way, Augusta, Richmond, Georgia in the late 1930s and early 1940s. Albert is listed as an employee of the "GaRR" [Georgia Railroad]. Their son Lloyd is listed living at the same address.

The 1940 census lists the family living in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia and includes Albert R. Stanford (55, mechanic, steam railroad), Roselle (45), and Lloyd Stanford (19, salesman, insurance). This listing seems to have listed Albert's daughter Marion Roesel Stanford as his wife, with the wrong age. (Perhaps, the census taker simply forgot to list Susie).

Susie's death certificate lists her year of birth as 1880.

She was the daughter of Josiah W. Jordan (1835 ) and his wife Mary E. Tigno (1839-1912).

Children of Albert Roesel Stanford and Susie Ida Jordan:

In 1940, Paul Stanford (23, drug clerk) was living as a roomer at the YMCA in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.

Paul enlisted in the U.S. Army on 7 Jan 1941 at Fort Benning, Georgia. His enlistment information has him single and working as an addressing-embossing machine operator or general clerk. He was living in Richmond County, Georgia at the time. Paul served in both the Italy and North Africa theaters during WWII.

Paul was a businessman and former owner of the Arrow Amusement Company in Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina.

Earl moved to Detroit and Rochester, Wayne, Michigan with his brother Porter before 1930, but returned to Georgia and was living in Harlem, Columbia, Georgia on 27 Feb 1971, when his brother Irby's funeral was held.

In 1930, the census finds Earl P. Stanford (41, lead man, auto factory) and his wife Ida M. Titus (27) living in Royal Oak, Oakland, Michigan. In this record, both Earl and Ida indicate that they were first married at age 18. If true, this was Earl's second marriage.

Ida was the daughter of Robert E. Titus (1881- ) and Agnes May Nichols (1881-1923).

This was Ida's third marriage...she had previously married (1) a Michael William Miller on 14 May 1920 in York, Ontario, Canada and (2) a Fred Rottkofsky on 27 Aug 1924 in Detroit, Wayne, Michigan.

In 1945, Guila Stanford is found living "with White's" on Boy Scout Road in the City Directory for Augusta, Georgia.

On 31 May 2002, an article appeared in the Augusta Chronicle newspaper about Guila:

"Textile artist Guila Dennis's stylized portraits, whimsical animal figures and color-saturated landscapes begin life in the most unlikely of places. The closet.

"Ms. Dennis, 77, is always on the lookout for scraps of lace, a torn Victorian gown or discarded hats that she can salvage and make new again as elements in her wall hangings. Pointing to the plush pictures hanging at the Banker Dearing Gallery, 1022 Broad St., Ms. Dennis recounts the past lives of her work. Dark branches framing a milky sky once trimmed the edges of a Victorian gown. A single flower, forlorn and forgotten on a bar, once graced the brim of a fashionable woman's hat. Elsewhere, scraps of cloth, lace and beading are reborn as elements of Ms. Dennis's art. She said that the idea of giving boxed and forgotten items a new lease on life has become an important part of her creative process."

In 2014, Guila Dennis (91) was living in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.

James was the son of James Marion Dennis Sr. (1894-1955) and his wife Mary Kathryn Knox (1895-1979).

On 26 Feb 1943, James enlisted in the U.S. Army at Fort McPherson at Atlanta, Georgia. At the time, he was single. He evidently had worked for a telephone company since his civil occupation is listed as "skilled linemen and servicemen, telegraph, telephone, and power."

In his obituary in the "Augusta Chronicle" of 4 Feb 1970, Porter is described as a retired foreman at a car manufacturer. From this record, we learn of his son Donald, who was born after the 1940 census.

Census records lists Sarah's place of birth as Canada, but her marriage record correctly lists England. She was the daughter of Joseph Storey Bowman (1878-1934) and Elizabeth Ann Davies (1885-1918). She arrived in the United States on 1 Sep 1919.

children Marvin E. (11), Hubert V. (8), T. (F, 4), and Mary C. (1-6/12), all born in Georgia.

By the 1920 census, the family is in Murray County Georgia, but Marvin apparently has left home. The census lists James N. (48), Sarah E. (52), Hubert (18), T. (F, 14), and Mary C. (11).

In the 1930 census, James is listed as "Jim N." (59), with Sarah (63), Hubert (28) and Hubert's wife Berthenia (28) living in Murray County, Georgia. From this census, we learn the ages of each family member when they first married and, thus, the approximate year of each marriage.

The 1940 census lists James as "Jim M." (68), with his wife Sara (72), living in Murray County, Georgia.

In each census record, James is listed as a farmer.

Sarah was the daughter of Jasper Newton Moreland (1842-1930) and Mary Lieie "Lavica" Anderson (1846-1928). [A photo of Sarah's children with her grandparents, taken about 1908 is available at <http://www.murraycountymuseum.com/03jun2008/people225.JPG>.]

He tombstone lists her birth year as 1886...obviously an error. Her tombstone inscription reads "Mrs. J.N. Stanford".

Fredrick and George Stanford were twins.

The 1889-90 Atlanta City Directory lists Frederick living with his family at 105 Walker, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

In 1900, the family lived in Ward 1, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. This record includes Fred Stanford (29), Ida M. (31), George B. (8), Roy (6), Fanny G. (4), and Clarence (11/12).

The 1910 census lists the family living in Atlanta Ward 1, Fulton, Georgia and includes Fred I. Stanford (42), George (17), Roy (17), Gladys (16), Clarence (14), Kate (10), and Idelle (8).

In 1920, Frederick and Ida, with four children (Gladys had already married and left home by this time), were living in Ward 10, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

In the 1930 census, we find Frederick, a widower, living with his daughter Gladys in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

The 1889-90 Atlanta City Directory lists Frank living with his family at 105 Walker, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia.

In the 1900 census, the family is living in Ward 5, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia and Ada Donaldson, Leola's mother, was living with the family.

In the 1910 census, they are living in Ward 9, Atlanta, DeKalb, Georgia.

452. James Leonidas Oval<sup>8</sup> Stanford (Nathaniel Leonidas Oval<sup>7</sup>, Nathaniel David "Nathan"<sup>6</sup>, Leven<sup>5</sup>, Joshua<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 6 Dec 1861, in Sumter County, Georgia, died 25 Sep 1943, in Putnam County, Georgia, buried in Stanfordville (Layson) Cemetery, Putnam County, Georgia. He married (2) Mollie Massey about 1894, in Georgia. Mollie Massey was born 28 Jul 1877, in Georgia, died 2 Jan 1935, in Georgia, buried in Stanfordville (Layson) Cemetery, Putnam County, Georgia.

In 1880, the census finds Jim listed as N.L.E. Stanford (19) working as a laborer on the farm of Allen and Martha Hayes in Stilsboro, Bartow, Georgia.

Jim married Mollie about 1894, but the 1900 census lists Edgar J. Stanford, b. Sep 1888, living with his grandmother Amanda Phillips Stanford Groves in Worth County, Georgia. Therefore, there are two possible origins for Edgar J. Stanford. Either Jim married during the 1880's and that wife died before 1894 or Edgar is the son born out of wedlock to Jim's sister Harriet Ann Elizabeth Stanford. No record of a first wife or any record of Jim's sister has been yet found. (For the time being, the first alternative is included in this database.)

The 1900 census lists the family living in Half Acre, Putnam, Georgia and includes Jim Stanford (39, farming) and Mollie (24).

In 1910, the census finds the family living in Half Acre, Putnam, Georgia and lists James L. Stanford (49, farmer), Mollie (36), Joseph G. (9), and Florence (3).

The 1920 census lists the family living in Half Acre, Putnam, Georgia and the record includes J.L. Stanford (59, farming), Mollie (44), Joseph (19), Loucile (13), Hulman (9), and Meton (5).

In 1930, the family is living in Half Acre, Putnam, Georgia and the census includes James Stanford (68, farmer), Mollie (58), Hulman (18), and Milton (15).

The 1940 census lists James Stanford (77) living with his daughter and son-in-law Florence and John W. Meese in Minton, Worth, Georgia.

All of these census records indicate Jim and Mollie Stanford lived at "Stanfordville" or "Hell's Half Acre" near Eatonton, Putnam, Georgia. The two are buried with two infant children in the Stanfordville (Layson) Cemetery within a wrought iron enclosure.

The 1940 census lists James Stanford (77) living in Minton, Worth, Georgia with his daughter Florence [Stanford] Meese (33) and son-in-law John W. Meese (60).

Mollie's gravestone shows her as Mrs. J. L. Stanford, 1878-Sep 25, 1935 (these dates are incorrect).

Evidently, Joseph never married.

In 1941, Joseph registered for the WWII draft in Putnam County, Georgia. Evidently, he was not married at this time since he listed his brother Hulman as someone who would always know his address. He listed his employment as "saw milling" in Putnam County, Georgia.

The following is a resolution passed by the Georgia General Assembly in 2001 naming a bridge in Putnam County, Georgia for James Hulman Stanford:

"Senate Resolution 345

"ADOPTED A RESOLUTION

According to Odessa Stanford Garrison, author of "Descendants of Joseph Stanford of Maryland, 1694-1999", Eunice possessed a manuscript entitled "Genealogy of the Stanford Family in America" related by Joseph Stanford, brother of Leven Stanford, to Joseph George Quintilian Stanford, son of Nathaniel James Stanford and eldest grandson of Leven Stanford, in the year 1845 at Half-Acre ("Stanfordville") in Putnam County, Georgia. This manuscript states that Joseph Stanford, our ancestor, came from England with his wife and four brothers and settled on the Eastern Shore of the Chesapeake Bay. The validity of this manuscript remains unproven.

Bruce is listed in the 1927 "El Paso City Directory" (p. 674) living at 4414 Clifton and working as a kiln burner for Portland Cement Co.

Coulter was born 2 Oct 1896, in Russell County, Alabama, died 31 Dec 1984, in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia, buried in Riverdale Cemetery, Section 3, Muscogee County, Georgia.

According to his WWI draft registration of 5 June 1917, Paul Dewitt was working as a dry goods salesman in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia. At this time he was married and had a child. Since the dates and locations are the same, the two brothers, Paul and Robert, evidently registered together.

In the 1920 census, the family is listed in Columbus Ward 2, Muscogee, Georgia and this record includes Paul D. Stanford (31, commercial trucker, dry goods), Ethel I. (23), and Mary E. (5). Living with them is Sarah F. Stanford (68, Paul's mother) and Louise F. Cauthen [Coulter] (13, a niece).

He married Vivian Dawn Hollis 10 Dec 1912, in Cusseta, Taylor, Georgia. Vivian Dawn Hollis was born 23 Oct 1887, in Georgia, died 20 Sep 1964, in Taylor County, Georgia, buried in Antioch Baptist Church Cemetery, Taylor County, Georgia.

Johnston was a minister, first Methodist and later Baptist. He was born in Chipley, Georgia, now Pine Mountain, Georgia, in Harris County.

The following biography was produced by the First Baptist Church, Abel, Taylor, Georgia:

"Johnston Harrison Stanford was born on July 8, 1892 in Harris County, Georgia to Edwin Johnston Stanford and Lula Harrison Stanford. He completed high school in Concord, Georgia and was enrolled at Emory at Oxford when he felt the call to preach.

"At the age of nineteen, he was ordained in the Methodist Church. While he was conducting a revival at Cusseta Methodist Church, he met Miss Vivian Dawn Hollis who was organist there. Rev. Stanford and Miss Hollis were married in the Cusseta Methodist Church on December 10, 1912 and for their honeymoon, they took a train ride to his first assignment in the South Georgia Conference in Butler, Georgia.

"Rev. Stanford subsequently served Methodist churches in Columbus, Woodland, Savannah, Richland, Camilla, and Adel.

"In the early 1930s, he was ordained to preach in the Baptist Church and began his ministry in the Adel Baptist Church in November 1932, where he remained as pastor for nine years.

"From 1941 to the time of his death on June 30, 1955, Rev. Stanford was in semi-retirement in Taylor County, Georgia where he and his wife had built a country home, which they named "Dunmovin". He served several churches in Taylor County during this time, including Antioch Baptist Church, which he was serving at the time of his death.

"Both he and his wife are buried in the Antioch Cemetery.

"The children born to this couple were Johnston Hollis Stanford, Caroline Stanford Taylor, Vivian Stanford Morton, and Lula Harrison Peterman. The son, Hollis, died on January 2, 1988. The other children survive.

"Rev. Stanford was loved and respected by his congregation. As was recorded in the October 12, 1941 minutes, "To lose him is a misfortune, but to have had him for nine years is a privilege for which the church will ever be grateful.' "

J.H. and Vivia married in 1912 and the following report was printed in "The Butler Herald", Tuesday, December 17, 1912:

"Pretty Wedding At Cusseta Last Tuesday

"Cusseta, Ga., Dec. 14:

"A marriage of great interest to the many friends of the contracting parties was that of Miss Vivia Dawn Hollis to Rev. J.H. Stanford, which occurred on Tuesday morning at 11:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R.W. Cannon in his usual impressive manner. Immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Eula Brewer sang "O Promise Me" and the wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. C.M. Green, with violin accompaniment by Mr. J.P. Hickey.

"The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.H. Hollis and with her sweet disposition and charming ways has won many friends by whom she will be greatly missed in the future.

"The groom, who was formerly of Concord, is a young minister of many noble traits of character, having recently entered the South Georgia Conference."

On 5 Jun 1917, Johnston registered for the WWI draft. At the time, he was married, had two children, and was living in Columbus, Muscogee, Georgia. He listed his place of birth as Chipley, Georgia.

The 1920 census finds the family living in Richland, Stewart, Georgia and lists the family as Johnston H. (27), Vivian D. (28), Hollis (6), Carolyn (4-1/12), and Vivian (1-6/12).

On 7 Jan 1921, "John" Stanford, a Methodist minister from Adel, Cook, Georgia, was attending a conference of Methodist ministers from the Valdosta, Georgia area called by Rev. Robert Payne Fain in Hahira, Georgia. The El Paso Herald newspaper reported the following: "Valdosta, Ga., Jan. 7. Stricken with acute indigestion, the Rev. R. P. Fain was given up for dead while attending a ministers' meeting at Hahira, Ga., and laid out in the church while his son went to inform the family. Meantime, Rev. John Stanford arrived and, pressing on the "body" with his knees, resuscitated the minister." Unfortunately, the Rev. Fain collapsed in the street later that day and died.

The 1926 "Pettus Savannah Directory" finds the family living in Savannah, Chatham, Georgia and lists John H. Stanford (Vivia), pastor Asbury Methodist Ch.

In 1930, we find the family in Militia District 1104, Cattachoochee, Georgia listed as Johnston H. (36), Vivian D. (41), Hollis (16), Carolina A. (14), Vivian (11), and Lulu (4-2/12).

The 1940 census lists the family living in Adel, Cook, Georgia. This record includes John H. Stanford (48, minister), Vivia (51), and Lula (14).

460. On 5 Jun 1917, George registered for the WWI draft in Waverly Hall, Harris, Georgia. At this time he was married, with one child, and working as a bank cashier.

In the 1920 census, George (32), Martha (32), G.P. Jr. (5), and Burton (4) are found living in Waverly Hall, Harris, Georgia, next door to George's parents. George was a cashier in a bank.

In 1930, the census lists George P. (42), Martha B. (42), George P. Jr. (15), and Louis B. (10) living in Waverly Hall, Harris, Georgia. Both George and Martha are listed as "merchant, drugstore".

Martha was the daughter of Thomas S. Burton.

Bernice "Nannie" Abbett was born 15 Dec 1889, in Alabama, died 2 Oct 1978, in Jacksons Gap Baptist Church Cemetery, Jacksons Gap, Tallopoosa, Alabama.

In 1920, the family is listed living in Jacksons Gap, Tallapoosa, Alabama with the family of Jeff L. and Namie Patterson, John's great aunt and uncle. This record lists Willis Stanford (39, distiller, turpentine still), Bernice (30), and Kenneth (6).

The 1930 census lists the family in Jacksons Gap, Tallapoosa, Alabama and includes John W. Stanford (49, log hauler for a saw mill), Nannie B. (40), John K. (16), and Nina W. (8).

Bernice was the daughter of John Jordan Abbett (1858-1936) and Sarah Elizabeth Duck (1862-1961).

(1) Virginia Mae Shealy about 1896, in Georgia. Virginia Mae Shealy was born 4 Sep 1871, in South Carolina, died 15 Jul 1904, in Georgia, buried in Old Vidalia Cemetery, Toombs County, Georgia. He married (2) Mada Margaret Meeks about 1909, in Georgia. Mada Margaret Meeks was born 7 Jun 1891, in Bartow County, Georgia, died Apr 1980, in St. Petersburg, Pinellas, Florida, buried in Jacksonville Memory Gardens, Orange Park, Clay, Florida. He married (3) Addie Belle Bracknell about 1914. Addie Belle Bracknell was born 3 May 1882, in South Carolina, died 8 Apr 1964, in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia. Cause of death: arteriosclerotic heart disease.

The 1900 census finds the family living in Vidalia, Montgomery, Georgia and lists Walter T. Stanford (27, jeweler), Virginia (28), Hugh (3), and Handy (2).

All census records after Virginia died show her children living with her parents in Germanville, Saluda, South Carolina.

In 1910, the census lists Walter T. Stanford (36, machinist, railroad) living with his young wife Mada (18) in Chatham County, Georgia. This record indicates that he couple had been married for 1 year. Walter's marriage to Mada evidently ended soon after the birth of their daughter (evidently Mada left him since their daughter remained with her father) since we find Mada remarried to Thomas J. O'Heir and with a son, Walter C. O'Heir, born about 1911.

On 2 Sep 1917, Walter registered for the WWI draft in Savannah, Chatham, Georgia. He listed his occupation as "machinist" and his wife as Addie B. Stanford.

In 1920, the census finds the family living in Savannah, Chatham, Georgia and includes William [Walter] T. Stanford (47, machinist, machine shop), Addie (39), Evelyn (10), Leta (4-10/12), and William (3-11/12).

Virgina was the daughter of James Edward Shealy (1850-1943) and Francies Isabella Lindler (b. 1845) of Germanville, Saluda, South Carolina.

All census records after Virginia died show her children living with her parents in Germanville, Saluda, South Carolina.

Mada was the daughter of Silas Meeks (1851-1898) and Eleanor Lavinia "Ella" Brown (1861-1926).

After Mada and Walter separated, she next married Thomas J. O'Heir about 1910, but that marriage ended soon after the birth of their son Walter C. O'Heir since we find her next marrying Edward G. Darling in West Virginia in 1913. That marriage did not last long, either, as we find her married to Walter Jesse Shields (1888-1957) in the 1920 census.

Addie was the daughter of John J. Bracknell (1841-1914) and Lavinia Ann Keller (b. abt 1844).

This was Addie's second marriage. She married Stephen Creech before 1910 and the 1910 census lists the family living in Congoree, Lexington, South Carolina.

The 1930 census for Cedartown, Polk, Georgia lists Addie (42, widow), daughter Leta (age 14), and son William (age 13).

In 1940, the census finds the family living in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia and lists B. Addie Stanford (56, widowed), William Stanford (23, lather, building construction), and M. Evelyn Dean (25, winder, cotton mill).

Children of Walter Thomas Stanford and Virginia Mae Shealy:

- 884     i.    Hugh Shealy Stanford, born 10 May 1897, in Georgia, died 30 Oct 1968, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.
- 885     ii.   Hanvey Stanford, born 17 Dec 1898, in Georgia, died 8 Mar 1989, in Hixson, Hamilton, Tennessee.
- iii.   Allene Stanford, born 19 Aug 1901, in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia, died 5 Apr 1967, in Aiken, Aiken, South Carolina, buried in Shiloh Baptist Church Cemetery, Aiken, Aiken, South Carolina. She married Gary Sheppard "Ben" Leaphart. Gary Sheppard "Ben" Leaphart was born Jun 1898, in Lexington County, South Carolina, died 13 Feb 1961, in Aiken, Aiken, South Carolina, buried in Shiloh Baptist Church Cemetery, Aiken, Aiken, South Carolina.

Aline's name may have been "Ruby Aline Stanford" or "Aline Ruby Stanford".

The 1910 census record shows Aline (8) living with her Shealy grandparents in Germanville, Saluda, South Carolina. This record indicates she was born in South Carolina, but that is probably incorrect.

Ben was the son of Thomas Shelton Leaphart and Edoshia Ann Shealy.

Children of Walter Thomas Stanford and Mada Margaret Meeks:

- i.    Evelyn Margaret Stanford, born 13 Oct 1909, in South Carolina, died 28 Nov 1993, in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia, buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Cedartown, Polk, Georgia. She married GNU Dean.

Children of Walter Thomas Stanford and Addie Belle Bracknell:

- i.    Evelyn Margaret Creech Stanford, born 13 Oct 1909, in Lexington County, South Carolina, died 28 Nov 1993, in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia. She married John Wesley Deems about 1928, in Georgia. John Wesley Deems was born about 1908, in Georgia.

Evelyn was Addie's daughter by her first marriage to Stephen Creech. Evidently, Evelyn was adopted by Walter and assumed the Stanford surname.

In 1930, the census lists Evelyn Deems (21, spooler, cotton mill) and her husband Westley Deems (22, spooler, cotton mill), living in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia with her husband's parents.

The 1940 census lists M. Evelyn Dean (29, winder, cotton mill) living with her mother in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia.

Evidently, Evelyn and Wesley separated before 1940 and the 1940 census lists John W. Deems (32, laborer) living in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia with his parents.

There are numerous records listing John/Jack Wesley as a convict in the Georgia prison system from 1942-1964 in Polk, Haralson, and Fulton counties of Georgia. Most of the charges against Wesley were alcohol-abuse related.

- ii. Leta Stanford, born 29 Apr 1915, in Savannah, Chatham, Georgia, died 25 Aug 2000, in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia. She married (1) Charles Preston Stephens. Charles Preston Stephens was born 2 Apr 1911, died 8 Nov 1993, in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia. She married (2) GNU Hobbs.

Charles was the son of James William Stephens (1870-1951) and Mary elender Suzanne Pope (1879-1972).

- iii. William Thomas "Bubba" Stanford, II, born 9 Jan 1917, in Savannah, Chatham, Georgia, died 12 Mar 1993, in Cedartown, Polk, Georgia, buried in Northview Cemetery, Cedartown, Polk, Georgia.

William enlisted in the U.S. Army on 5 Mar 1942 at Fort McPherson, Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia. At the time, he was living in Polk County, Georgia working in construction. He was single and had completed grammar school. He served in the Army Air Forces during WWII in the 429th Bombardment Squadron.

Based on his obituary, William had two grandchildren and two step-children that survived him. This indicates that he was married twice, but we have no information on either of his wives.

463. William Warren "W.W., Warnie"<sup>8</sup> Stanford (William Thomas<sup>7</sup>, Nathan Warren<sup>6</sup>, William D.<sup>5</sup>, Stephen<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 21 Aug 1876, in Stillmore, Emanuel, Georgia, died 18 Oct 1918, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia, buried in Pinecrest Cemetery, Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia. He married Clara Bell Youngblood 16 Aug 1896, in Swainsboro, Emanuel, Georgia. Clara Bell Youngblood was born 9 Apr 1877, in Swainsboro, Emanuel, Georgia, died 22 Apr 1964, in Pensacola, Escambia, Florida.

Four of Willie and Clara's children were from two sets of twins...Madie/Wadie and Frankie/ Mamie.

In the 1910 census, we find the family living in Savannah Ward 2, Chatham, Georgia and the record includes Willie W. Stanford (33, inspector, lumber mill), Clara Bell (33), Eva B. (11), Parthenia (8), Madie (5), Wadie (5), Fankie (1), and Mary (1).

On 12 Sep 1918, Willie registered for the WWI draft in Emanuel County, Georgia. He listed his wife as Clara Belle Stanford and his occupation as "sawmilling". This record incorrectly lists his race as "black".

Clara Bell was the daughter of Andrew Jackson Youngblood (1844-1924) and Lucinda Moore (1844-1918).

After W. W.'s death, Clara married John R. Liles on 20 Oct 1920.

Children of William Warren "W.W., Warnie" Stanford and Clara Bell Youngblood:

- i. Shelly Almer Stanford, born 21 Jul 1898, in Emanuel County, Georgia, died 2 Aug 1898, in Emanuel County, Georgia.
- ii. Eva Bell Stanford, born 25 Oct 1899, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia, died 7 Feb 1970, in Pensacola, Escambia, Florida. She married Marion Bruce Daniel. Marion Bruce Daniel was born 12 JAN 1883 OR 12 JAN 1884, in Florida, died 6 Aug 1970, in Pensacola, Escambia, Florida.

Eva and Marion had 2 children.

Marion was the son of Lewis and Ida G. Daniel.

Marion's 1917 registration for the WWI draft lists his date of birth as 12 Jan 1883, while his SSDI and Florida Death Index lists 12 Jan 1884.

- iii. Warnie Parthenia Edna Stanford, born 17 Sep 1901, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia, died 27 Oct 1984, in Pensacola, Escambia, Florida. Andres Domazos was born 4 Apr 1883, in Koutsopodi, Greece, died 1 Jan 1951, in Portsmouth, Virginia, buried in Olive Cemetery, Portsmouth, Virginia. They were divorced. She married (2) Edward Bryan Renfroe about 1932, in Macon, Georgia. Edward Bryan Renfroe was born 10 Apr 1897, in Dublin, Laurens, Georgia, died 1987, in Pensacola, Escambia, Florida.

Warnie and Andres three daughters...Vangell, Angell, and Olga.

Andrew Domas was the English version of his name, Andress Domazos.

- iv. Madie Lee Stanford, born 9 Jul 1904, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia, died 1994, in Montebello, Los Angeles, California. She married Fred Samec. Fred Samec was born 12 Mar 1897, in Hawaii, died 16 Jun 1992, in Pasadena, Los Angeles, California.

Fred was the son of Manuel and Helena Samec who immigrated from Portugal to Hawaii before 1895. The 1900 census finds the family (listed as "Sanza") in Honolulu, Oahu, Hawaii Territory.

Fred's name shows up on a number of ship lists as a crewman in 1922-1923, but voter registration records indicate that he had settled in Los Angeles County, California prior to 1928.

- 886      v.      Wadie Lee Stanford, born 9 Jul 1904, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia, died 13 Nov 1963, in Jacksonville, Duval, Florida.
- vi.      Andrew Jackson Truman Stanford, born 25 Dec 1906, in Georgia, died 25 Nov 1908, in Georgia.

- viii.      Mamie Stanford, born 16 Mar 1909, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia, died 6 Jan 1926, in Pensacola, Escambia, Florida, buried in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia.

464. John Leon<sup>8</sup> Stanford (William Thomas<sup>7</sup>, Nathan Warren<sup>6</sup>, William D.<sup>5</sup>, Stephen<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 5 Jan 1888, in Stillmore, Emanuel, Georgia, died 21 Oct 1950, in Screven County, Georgia, buried in Pinecrest Cemetery, Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia. He married (1) Sallie C. LNU before 1930, in Georgia. Sallie C. LNU was born 1890, died 1952, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia, buried in Pinecrest Cemetery, Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia. He married (2) Mosell Faircloth. Mosell Faircloth was born about 1892, in Tatnall County, Georgia, died 27 May 1921, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia, buried in Pinecrest Cemetery, Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia.

In 1920, the family is living in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia and the census record lists J.L. Stanford (32, foreman for the railroad), Mazelle (23), Christine (10), Oscar (7), and Lillian (4).

The 1930 census finds John (42, section foreman for the railroad) living in Militia District 36 in Screven County, Georgia with his second wife Sallie and two children, Lillian (14) and Theo (11).

In 1940, the census lists J.S. Stanford (age not recorded, section foreman, steam railroad) and Sallie (48) living in Newington, Screven, Georgia.

This was evidently Sallie's second marriage since the 1930 census records states that she was first married at age 15, which would have been about 1905.

Mosell was the daughter of J.F. Faircloth and Elizabeth Williams.

Children of John Leon Stanford and Mosell Faircloth:

- i. Christine Stanford, born 29 Nov 1909, in Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia, died 27 Oct 1975, in Sylvania, Screven, Georgia, buried in Middle Ground Cemetery, Sheppards, Screven, Georgia. She married GNU Sullivan.

In 1930, we find Christine (20) working as a manicurist in a "beauty parlor" in Savannah, Chatham, Georgia.

- 887 ii. Oscar Lee Stanford, born 9 Oct 1912, in Georgia, died 15 Aug 1985, in Newington, Screven, Georgia.

She married John Dobbs Lutz after 1935, in Savannah, Chatham, Georgia. John Dobbs Lutz was born 31 Aug 1870, in Georgia, died 26 Feb 1959, buried in Pinecrest Cemetery, Vidalia, Toombs, Georgia.

After the death of her first husband, John Dobbs Lutz, Lillian married an, yet unidentified, Richardson [probably in Ohio].

Lillian's SSDI lists her date of birth as 5 Jan 1917.

This was John's second marriage: he married Edna L. Sadler (1874-1934) on 24 Jun 1903 in Marion, Indiana. Edna was a member of a prominent family in Cincinnati, Hamilton, Ohio and the 1910, 1920, and 1930 census records list John and Edna living in that city. Edna committed suicide on 24 Feb 1934 by jumping from a 7th floor window of the Hotel Gibson in Cincinnati.

The 1940 census finds John and Lillian living in Cincinnati, Hamilton, Ohio and lists John Lutz (69, cattle salesman) and his wife Lillian S. Stanford (23).

- 888 iv. Theodore Redding "Theo" Stanford, born 26 Jun 1918, in Valdosta, Lowndes, Georgia, died 16 Feb 2002, in Tiger, Rabun, Georgia.

In the 1910 census, Albert (21) and his wife Ethel C. (21) are living with Ethel's parents Anson C. and Charlotte L. Call in Wilson, Weber, Utah.

By 1917, when Albert registered for the WWI draft, he was living in Bingham, Salt Lake, Utah and stated that he was responsible for the support of his three children, ages 8, 6, and 4. He and Ethel had divorced in 1914 and by this time since he lists his marital status as "single". His occupation is listed as "butcher".

Albert served as a Private in the U.S. Army during WWI. He was inducted in May 1918 and honorably discharged on 14 Jan 1919.

The 1920 census finds Albert (32, single) and living as a lodger in Bingham, Salt Lake, Utah.

Sometime around 1930, Albert moved his family to California.

In 1940, the census lists A. J. Stanford (51, widowed, stock buyer, L.A. stock yard) living as a lodger in the household of John and Ada Schweinfurth.

In 1942, at age 53, Albert Jeddie Stanford registered for the WWII draft in Los Angeles, Lost Angeles, California. In this record he stated he was self-employed at the Los Angeles Union Stock Yards. He listed Stella Stanford, 916 Spence, Los Angeles as the person who would always know his address. Since his lists this same address as his residence, it can be assumed that Albert had remarried after 1940.

Ethel was the daughter of Anson C. Call and Charlotte L. Brown.

The 1920 census finds Ethel (31) living in Ogden Ward 5, Weber, Utah working as a dry cleaner in a laundry. The record in includes three children: Afton (F, 9), Violet (F, 7), and Thelburn (M, 5), all born in Utah.

Sometime before 1930, Ethel married Raymond G. Lowe. The 1930 census lists Raymond G. Lowe (41), Ethel Lowe (41), Thelburn Stanford (16), and Violet Stanford (17) living in Ogden, Weber, Utah.

Henry served in the U.S. Army (Company A, 31st Infantry Division) in World War I.

In the 1930 census, Henry's father Albert and his younger brother Laurence were living with Henry and Ethel in Ogden, Weber, Utah.

The Ogden, Utah, "City Directory" for 1934 lists Henry B. Stanford, yardman, Union Stock Yards, and his wife Ethel living in Ogden.

The 1940 census lists the family living in Ogden, Weber, Utah and includes Henry T. Stanford (44, laborer, stockyards), Ethyl (43), Jansie (8), and Janet (6).

The 1948 Ogden, Utah "City Directory" lists Henry B. Stanford (Ethel), driver, Clarence Waterfall Co. Daughters Janet and Joan are listed at "student," living at home.

At the time of his death, Henry worked as a truck driver in the construction industry.

Ethel was the daughter of Thomas Ezra Powell (1875 - 1942) and Jane Ritchie (1875 - 1908).

Children of Henry Bowler Stanford and Ethel Powell:

467. James Lonnie<sup>8</sup> Stanford (Charles M. "Charlie"<sup>7</sup>, Nathan Warren<sup>6</sup>, William D.<sup>5</sup>, Stephen<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 22 Jul 1894, in Kite, Johnson, Georgia, died 30 Dec 1967, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama, buried 1 Jan 1968, in Forest Crest Cemetery, Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama. He married (1) Sara Cannon about 1911, in Georgia. He married (2) Rosa Lee Jenkins before 1919, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama. Rosa Lee Jenkins was born about 1892, in Georgia, died 10 Feb 1947, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama. He married (3) Minnie Leter Brasher between 1948 and 1965, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama. Minnie Leter Brasher was born 10 Feb 1892, in Chelsa, Shelby, Alabama, died 11 Dec 1971, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama, buried in Forest Crest Cemetery, Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama.

According to the 1900 census, James was adopted by Charles M. Stanford and may have been Sallie's child by a previous marriage.

James' WWI draft registration, dated 5 Jun 1917, lists his date and place of birth. At this time, he was married and had two children. His occupation is listed as coal miner for the Woodward Iron Co. in Dolomite, Alabama. The family lived on Rt. #1, Bessemer, Jefferson, Alabama.

In 1920, the census lists the family living in Brighton, Jefferson, Alabama and includes Lonnie Stanford (25, miner, coal mine), Rosa (27), Evelyn (5), Gladys (4), and Sarah E. (1). The family is living next door to James' father, Charles M. Stanford.

Based on the 1920 census, it appears that James moved to Birmingham in early 1917 since his first two children were born in Georgia.

The 1930 census finds James Stanford (36, truck driver, odd jobs) and Rosa L. (48) living in Precinct 8, Jefferson County, Alabama. James' father, Charles M. Stanford, age 71, is living with them, along with children Evelyn (15), Gladys (13), Sarah (11), and Marion (8-9/12).

In 1940, the census lists the family living in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama and includes J.L. Stanford (46, foreman, road building), Rosalie (48), and Sarah (21). Living with them is Marion [Stanford] Noonan (19). In this record, Sarah is listed as "divorced."

We have no records of Sara Cannon other than Evelyn's marriage record that lists Sara Cannon as her mother. Based on the 1920 census, James and Sara married in Georgia and had two children, but Sara evidently did not make the move to Alabama with James.

Rosa was the daughter of Elijah and Martha Jenkins.

Minnie was the daughter of William A. Brasher and Rosa Ellen Spearman.

This was Minnie's second marriage. She was previously married to Edgar Charles Byers in Tennessee.

Children of James Lonnie Stanford and Sara Cannon:

- 890      i.    Eva Louise "Evelyn" Stanford, born about 1915, in Georgia.
- ii.   Gladys Stanford, born about 1917, in Georgia.

Children of James Lonnie Stanford and Rosa Lee Jenkins:

- i.    Sarah E. Stanford, born about 1919, in Alabama.
- ii.   Marian Lonnie Stanford, born 6 Jun 1920, in Alabama, died 9 Jul 1971, in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama. She married Roy Thrift. Roy Thrift was born about 1922, died 2008.

Herbert's middle name, Warren, is a tribute to his grandfather, Nathan Warren.

Herbert and Eula Mae moved to Charlotte, Mecklenburg, North Carolina in the late 1920s in search of work as a pipefitter/plumber and the 1930 census lists the family there as Hurbert W. Stanford (25, steam fitter, steam heat plant), Eula M. (23), and Hurbert W. (6).

The 1931 City Directory for Charlotte, North Carolina lists "Stanford, Herbert W. (Eula M.) help[er] W. T. Branson, Inc." living at 1504 Allen Street in the city.

In 1940, the census lists the family living in Charlotte, Mecklenburg, North Carolina on Baldwin Avenue and lists Herbert W. Stanford (36, pipefitter, steam and sprinkler co.), Ula M. (35, looper, hosiery mill), and Herbert W. Jr. (16).

In 1941, Herbert registered for the draft in Charlotte, Mecklenburg, North Carolina. At the time he was 38 years old (he listed his birth date as 9 Apr 1904) and living at 1915 Euclid Avenue. He listed "Mrs. W.T. Branson" as the person who would always know his address.

The Branson family was very important to Herbert. He worked for many years as a pipefitter for Walter T[homas] Branson [see entry in this database] in Charlotte, to whom he was distantly related by marriage through his grandmother Rebecca Langford. Herbert retired in the 1960s after injuring his back, requiring surgery and a lengthy period in a body cast.

Herbert and Eula Mae lived at 1915 Euclid Avenue in the Dilworth section of Charlotte, Mecklenburg, North Carolina from 1940/1941 until Eula Mae's death in 1978. Herbert then moved to Augusta, Richmond, Georgia and lived there until his death the following year.

Eula Mae was the youngest child of Wade Preston New and Josephine Cotton. For more details of the New Family, see the "New Family" file .

Eula Mae's father died when she was 2 years old and her mother died before she was ten. According to census records, it appears that after her mother's death she lived with her brother Bunyon New's family near Graniteville, Aiken, South Carolina until she married. In the 1920 census, we find Eula Mae living with Bunyon New, which indicates that Eula Mae was an orphan by this time. Also, Bunyon's WWI draft card indicates that he has a sister [Eula Mae New] living with him, which indicates that his mother had already died.

Children of Herbert Warren Stanford and Eula Mae New:

- 891      i.    Herbert Warren "Herb" Stanford, Jr., born 20 May 1924, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia, died 21 Apr 1988, in Salisbury, Rowan, North Carolina.

469. Albert Franklin<sup>8</sup> Stanford (Algie F.<sup>7</sup>, Nathan Warren<sup>6</sup>, William D.<sup>5</sup>, Stephen<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 24 Aug 1909, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia, died 1 Jul 1986, in Aiken, Aiken, South Carolina, buried 3 Jul 1986, in Hillcrest Memorial Park, Augusta, Richmond, Georgia. He married Julia Verona Montague "Peggy" Devaney 5 May 1930, in North Augusta, Aiken, South Carolina. Julia Verona Montague "Peggy" Devaney was born 11 Nov 1908, in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia, died 14 Mar 2000, in Aiken, Aiken, South Carolina, buried in Hillcrest Memorial Park, Augusta, Richmond, Georgia.

Albert served in the Navy. He enlisted on 22 Jun 1926 and went through Boot Camp at the Naval Training Station (NAVTRASTA), Norfolk, Virginia. Albert served aboard the Battleship USS New York, achieved a rating of Seaman 1st Class, and served as Coxswain of Captain's gig. On 15 Jul 1929, he was discharged (Honorable).

In 1930, the census finds Albert living with Peggy's cousin, John L. Robertson, in Reading, Hamilton, Ohio.

The 1940 census finds the family living in Lockland, Hamilton, Ohio and lists Albert Stanford (31, line inspector, linoleum factory), Julia (31), Theodore (9), and Ronald (5). Living with them is Muriel Robertson (16), listed as "niece" [more likely second cousin].

In 1945, Albert began work at the Independent Life and Accident Insurance Company for all of his remaining career, first in Augusta, Richmond, Georgia and then for over 30 years in Columbia, Richlands, South Carolina.

The 1958 and 1959 Columbia, South Carolina City Directory lists Albert and Julia living on Wheat Street (near the Five Points area of the city), with the notation that Albert is State Manager, Independent Life and Accident Insurance Co.

In 1962, Albert was elected president of the South Carolina State Association of Life Underwriters. This event is reported by the "Augusta Chronicle" of 24 June 1962.

Albert was a 32nd Degree Mason and a Shriner.

Peggy and Albert were first cousins...Peggy's grandfather, Aaron Olephant Devaney was Annie Pearl Devaney's father, making him Albert's grandfather, also.

The following is Peggy's obit from the "Augusta Chronicle", March 17, 2000:

"Mrs. Julia Devaney "Peggy" Stanford, 91, died Tuesday, March 14, 2000, at National Health Care of North Augusta [Aiken, South Carolina].

"Graveside services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in Hillcrest Memorial Park, Augusta, with the Rev. Danny Hedgepath officiating.

"Mrs. Stanford, a native of Augusta, was a homemaker. A resident of Columbia for 30 years before moving to Aiken in 1987, she was a past worthy matron of Eastern Star, Athens, Ga., and White Shrine of Eastern Star, Columbia [SC]. She was a member of Town Creek Baptist Church.

"Survivors include two sons, Albert T. Stanford, Aiken, and Ronald F. Stanford, Jacksonville, Fla.; and six grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren."

Children of Albert Franklin Stanford and Julia Verona Montague "Peggy" Devaney:

- 893      ii.   Ronald Franklin Stanford, born 10 Aug 1934, in Hamilton County, Ohio.

470. James Arthur<sup>8</sup> Stanford (James Warren<sup>7</sup>, Stephen<sup>6</sup>, William D.<sup>5</sup>, Stephen<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan "Nelle"<sup>3</sup>, Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Joseph<sup>1</sup>), born 31 Jan 1882, in Rome, Floyd, Georgia, died 17 Apr 1954, in Rome, Floyd, Georgia, buried 19 Apr 1954, in Pleasant Hope Cemetery, Silvercreek, Floyd, Georgia. He married Nora Belle Duel 5 Jan 1910, in Floyd County, Georgia. Nora Belle Duel was born 3 Feb 1893, in Georgia, died 18 Sep 1977, in Floyd County, Georgia. They were divorced before 1940, in Floyd County, Georgia.

The 1900 census finds Arthur Stanford (18) living as a boarder in the household of Kenny W. Ware and his wife Julia in Lindale, Floyd, Georgia, working as a "cloth roller" in a cotton mill.

In the 1910 census, James (28) and Nora (17), with no children, are living in Militia District 527, Houston County, Georgia near his father.

On 12 Sep 1918, James registered for the WWI draft in Floyd County, Georgia. This record indicates that at that time he was married.

The 1920 census finds the family living in Rome Ward 1, Floyd, Georgia and lists Arthur J. Stanford (29, machinist, cotton), Norah (23), Elizabeth (8), Nellie M. (6), and Irene (4/12). Living with the family are Nora's parents Charlie (52) and Ollie (50) Duel.

In 1930, the census finds Irene Stanford (10) and Allener [Lena] Stanford (4-10/12) living with their grandmother Ollie Duel (64, widow) in Rome, Floyd, Georgia. Also, in 1930, the census finds daughter Nellie M. Stanford (17) living with the family of Virgil S. and Bessie L. Carr in Rome, Floyd, Georgia. No listing for James or Nora Stanford for 1930 has yet been found.

The Rome, Georgia, City Directory, 1934 lists J. Arth. Stanford, millworker, and his wife Nora living in the city. The 1936 city directory lists J. Arth. Stanford, engr. Southland Ice Company, and his wife Nora living in the city.

The 1940 census lists James A. Stanford (57, engineer, ice plant) living in Rome, Floyd, Georgia with his daughter and son-in-law Nellie Stanford Boswell and Harry Boswell. In this record, James is listed as "divorced."

Evidently, James and Nora divorced before 1940.

Nora was the daughter of Charles D. Duel and Ollie North.

Notes for family of James Arthur Stanford and Nora Belle Duel: Based on census records, it appears that James and Nora divorced before 1930.

Children of James Arthur Stanford and Nora Belle Duel:

- i. Patricia Elizabeth Stanford, born 11 Aug 1911, in Georgia, died 6 Jul 2000, in Jacksonville, Duval, Florida. She married (1) Alfred Argene Trapp about 1928. Alfred Argene Trapp was born 29 Sep 1903, died 27 Feb 1960, in Floyd County, Georgia. They were divorced. She married (2) Walter Hessel about 1940. Walter Hessel was born 7 Feb 1912, died 18 May 1997, in Jacksonville, Duval, Florida.
- ii. Nellie Mae Stanford, born 2 Feb 1913, in Rome, Floyd, Georgia, died about 1985, in Jacksonville, Duval, Florida. She married Harry Jefferson Boswell about 1934, in Rome, Floyd, Georgia. Harry Jefferson Boswell was born 13 May 1894, in Calhoun, Gordon, Georgia, died 17 Jul 1963, in Floyd County, Georgia. They were divorced about 1952, in Rome, Floyd, Georgia.

Nellie and Harry had 2 sons, Robert V. and Raymond P. Boswell.

The following article about Nellie Mae Stanford Boswell appeared the Rome, Georgia "News Times" in 2010:

"On Oct. 10, 1951 34-year-old Eurcell Haney was trying to make the best of a bad situation. She had divorced her husband Virgil Hollingsworth almost two years prior and had been "going with" Harry Boswell a local barber. She had met Boswell through her husband Virgil who was a customer and golfing companion, and for a while they had rented an apartment in Boswell's home at 1013 Avenue C. Boswell had an on again off again relationship with his present wife, Nellie Stanford Boswell.

"After Harry had divorced his first wife, Nellie had moved in with him and they were finally married in 1934. Now Nellie Boswell had herself filed for divorce and named Eurcell Haney as the "other woman" who was responsible for breaking up her marriage. Both women had been in court the previous day. In fact they had spent most of the day waiting for the case to be called. Mrs. Boswell had been alone and Mrs. Haney had been accompanied by two of her sisters. That day had passed without the case being sounded for trial.

"The next morning about 9:30 Eurcell Haney, who was better known as "Butch" by her friends and family, once again climbed the main steps to the Floyd County Courthouse with her sisters. They entered the front doors and had gone just a few steps when Mrs. Boswell stepped from an alcove with a pistol in her hand. She started firing at point blank range. The first shot struck the very attractive redhead in the chest. The second hit her in the back as she turned while falling to the floor. After she was on the floor she was struck again in the chest by a third bullet. Three other bullets were later dug from the door facings and walls.

"One of Eurcell Haney's sisters, Mrs. John Mize was screaming for Nellie Boswell to stop. At that time Mrs. Boswell turned and snapped the pistol at her twice but it was empty. Sheriff Gilmore Johnson's office was about 50 feet away and he made it to Mrs. Boswell at about the time the last shot was fired and witnessed her snap the gun at Mrs. Mize. He took her into custody and led the nearly hysterical woman to jail. Once at the jail she calmed down and asked for a pack of cigarettes. He would testify later that Mrs. Boswell stated that she shot Eurcell Haney because she laughed at her in court the day before. Floyd County treasurer C.O. Walden witnessed a part of the shooting. From his office he could see the back of Mrs. Boswell and that she was firing toward the doorway. A clerk in his office, Sara Keown stated that when she heard the firing she thought that somebody was after the county's money and she jumped into the vault and pulled it shut until she heard a woman run into the office screaming for an ambulance and saying, "She's killed my sister."

"A Jennings ambulance arrived and carried Mrs. Haney and her sisters to McCall Hospital where she died about 30 minutes after her arrival. Harry Boswell had also made it to the hospital before Eurcell died. Mrs. Haney's funeral was held a couple of days later at Wax Baptist Church and she was buried in that community's cemetery.

"Judge Nichols refused to reconvene the Grand Jury that had just adjourned five days earlier. The good looking, 38-year-old blonde Nellie Boswell was kept in jail for about three weeks and released on bond. She was indicted in January 1952 and went to trial that same month with Mack G. Hicks defending her. Attorney Charles T. Culbert assisted in the defense, but it was Mack's show.

"The courtroom was packed. The attorneys on both sides argued bitterly during the long, drama-packed 11-hour trial with the solicitor bringing some 20 witnesses who seemingly made his case. Mack, on the contrary, stuck to his defense during the onslaught of prosecution witnesses. Defense contended that Mrs. Boswell was "tormented by fear and worry until she was physically and mentally deranged." The trial was held on Friday and Judge Nichols refused to continue until the next Monday or have the jurors come back on Saturday. He advised both attorneys "that on we go."

"Georgia had on its dusty old pages of law in 1952, a thing called an unsworn statement where the defendant could take the stand and not be sworn, yet say anything they wanted. The prosecution hated this law because they were unable to cross examine these statements. The trial judge would however tell the jury they could put as much weight or as little as they saw fit on an unsworn statement. Mack put Nellie Boswell, dressed in a white blouse, dark suit, small hat and white gloves, on the stand to make an unsworn statement. For the next hour and a half Nellie recounted her life with Harry Boswell.

"She stated that she fell in love with Harry when she was just 14 years old. At that time Harry was 35 and married with children almost her age. Yet, she stated she gave birth to twin girls at 15. One died at birth and the other a few months later. She had another child at 17 and one at 19, both boys by Harry. For the next nine years she "went with" Harry becoming good friends with his wife and older children. Finally after Harry divorced his first wife, Nellie stated that she moved in and tried to make him a home and be a good wife. For years she implored him to marry her. She was afraid that the community would find out about their common law status and it would harm her boys. She taught Sunday School and Bible School and became a faithful and loving wife. Harry met Virgil Hollingsworth and began playing golf with him a lot. At that time Virgil was married to Eurcell.

"Nellie stated that Harry sent her to Florida to beautician school and her eldest son accompanied her to learn barbering. While they were there Harry moved the Hollingsworths into their home. After several months in Florida she made an unannounced visit home and found all her furniture and things out back in a shed. Eurcell Hollingsworth's things were now throughout the house. She stated that they separated after that incident. But once again they got back together until Eurcell got a divorce from Virgil Hollingsworth. Then Harry told Nellie that he was going to marry Eurcell. That finally led to Nellie filing for divorce. Nellie stated that on one visit home from Florida she had met Eurcell and told her "pride don't mean much when you're begging for your children and home, please leave Harry alone."

"Nellie had started her testimony stating she knew the case sounded like a jealous woman shooting the other woman. But nothing could be further from the truth. And during the hour-and-a-half speech she was wonderful according to witnesses. She folded her hands in her lap. Sometimes she would look at the jury and other times she would weep softly while she spoke, although still audible. Toward the end of her presentation she told of how Eurcell had laughed at her the day before, how that night at home she could still hear her laughing. And when she saw her in the hallway, the laughter from the day before was all she could hear. And then bringing her voice on a crescendo she stated, "I can still hear it now laughing, laughing, laughing."

"And then Mrs. Boswell was quiet. The courtroom was still packed full. You could hear a pin drop. After that Mrs. Boswell said that she didn't remember a thing till she came to in the jail.

"The prosecution put up three rebuttal witnesses. The two sisters testified that their sister didn't date Harry Boswell until her divorce was final and the Boswells were separated. Virgil Hollingsworth also testified to the same thing. Judge Nichols charged the jury around 10:30 p.m. and sent them to the jury room to deliberate. It was 19 minutes into Saturday morning when the jury came back into the courtroom with a verdict.

"Nobody had gone home, the room was still packed. Judge Nichols advised the courtroom that he would not allow any disturbance after the verdict was published.

"He then turned to the foreman J.C. Kines and asked if the jury had, in fact, reached a verdict. Kines said they had and was told to please announce same.

"The jury foreman stood and faced the courtroom and said, "Not guilty." Mrs. Boswell collapsed sobbing in the arms of one of her sons who had been with her throughout the entire trial. She then said loud enough for all to hear, "Thank God."

"Nellie Stanford Boswell would live a long life and would pass away peacefully in the mid-1980s in Jacksonville, Fla."

In 1951, the City Directory for Jacksonville, Duval, Florida lists Mrs. Nellie M. Boswell living in the city and working as an operator in a beauty salon. Her husband Harry is not listed in the directory.

In 1940, Harry J. Boswell (44, barber, barber shop) is listed by the census living in Rome, Floyd, Georgia with his wife Nellie (27) and sons Robert V. (9) and Raymond P. (8).
